There was a sanguine flash on the scorpion’s back as a huge blood-red text appeared. It was like a shield that blocked their attacks.

With a series of crashing sounds, their forces were shattered, but the blood-colored barrier remained completely fine.

An Tianzuo, who had remained motionless all this while, finally made a move. Flames rose over his body, turning into a strange Life Soul.

The Life Soul’s entire body was covered in white armor. The armor was neither gold nor jade. It looked more like it was carved from bones.

Behind him was a blood-red cape. In his left hand was a slender bone saber covered in blood patterns. In his other hand was a gun made of bones.

That thing… It can’t be a Gatling, right… Zhou Wen looked at the weapon in the Life Soul’s hand. The bone gun barrel was connected to the recoil mechanism. It looked like an ancient hot weapon that was often seen in movies.

Just as Zhou Wen was pondering over it, he heard a terrifying boom. He saw the bone gun barrel shoot out blood-colored bullets like a storm.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Bullets rained down on the scorpion’s blood-red text barrier, causing it to flicker as though it could shatter at any moment.

Buzzing sounds could be heard as the bullets poured freely. The bloody text barrier of the scorpion shattered.

This was the first time Zhou Wen had seen someone’s Life Soul produce a hot weapon. Furthermore, its attack was crazy powerful. It could actually break through a Mythical-stage barrier.

Although it was only a rather weak Mythical creature, Zhou Wen had relied on Ever-Victorious’s characteristic to kill Medusa. His Life Soul alone wasn’t that powerful.

The bullet hit the scorpion’s body, instantly infuriating it. The wings on its back spread open, and there was a blood-red glow on its wings. Its entire body was covered in blood-red light, and the blood-red symbol at the tip of its tail appeared especially terrifying.

The blood text circled around the scorpion’s body and kept spinning, blocking the rain of bullets.

When the bullets struck the blood text, they created a terrifying explosive shockwave that blasted the surrounding forest into pieces.

“Activate the halo,” An Sheng instructed the officers.

Two of the officers’ Companion Beasts shimmered with light as they enveloped An Tianzuo’s body. It caused An Tianzuo and his Life Soul’s bodies to emit two strange beams of light. The Gatling’s attacks became more ferocious as it pumped bullets at a denser and more powerful rate.

“Activate the curse.” An Sheng also used an Essence Energy Skill when he issued the order. He produced a strange gray smoke that enveloped the scorpion.

The other officers also used various powers. Those powers did not have any lethality, but they had a slight effect on the scorpion.

Boom!

The scorpion was furious after being bombarded by the Gatling’s attacks. The blood-red text surrounding it exploded with a terrifying sanguine light. Almost instantly, it engulfed everything nearby.

“Retreat.” An Sheng issued an order before the blood text exploded.

All the officers retreated with An Sheng in a great display of teamwork. Zhou Wen followed them and retreated, but he realized that An Tianzuo didn’t retreat.

The expanding sanguine light resembled a blood-colored black hole, devouring everything nearby. An Tianzuo was already standing at the edge of the blood hole, about to be devoured.

Zhou Wen was frowning when he suddenly saw An Tianzuo’s Life Soul vanish. As for An Tianzuo, he had a white bone armor and a blood cape. He held a bone saber in one hand and a bone Gatling in the other.

Just when the sanguine light was about to devour him, a black figure flew out from his body and landed on the bone blade. Instantly, a demonic black flame rose on the bone blade.

An Tianzuo raised his bone saber and slashed at the sanguine light in front of him. He managed to cleave open a rift as he charged in.

Gunfire roared and saber flames flashed. An Tianzuo fought the scorpion crazily. The madness was completely different from the usual An Tianzuo.

As for An Sheng and company, they constantly used various Essence Energy Skills from behind. They either aimed at An Tianzuo or at the scorpion. The only officer with the Ice Fox Life Soul and the ability to restrain the Slow Text was the busiest. They needed to constantly pump out damage to ensure that An Tianzuo’s region wasn’t affected by the power of the Slow Text.

Boom!

The scorpion’s body was sent flying by a backslash from An Tianzuo’s bone saber. An Tianzuo raised the Gatling with his hand. The black flames on the bone saber instantly shifted to the bone Gatling before enveloping it.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Bullets with black flames roared towards the scorpion in midair, causing its body to constantly distort and rise in the air. In the end, its carapace was cracked by the bullets, and more and more bullets shot into its flesh and blood. The black flames also burned its flesh and bones.

Boom!

The blood patterns on the scorpion shattered and fell like glass.

“Success!” An Sheng was overjoyed.

Without the protection of the blood patterns, the storm-like bullets bombarded the scorpion wantonly. The carapace of the scorpion was completely shattered and blood spurted out.

Just as the scorpion’s body was about to explode, a blood-red light suddenly erupted from its abdomen. A strange blood text surfaced, and the blood quickly spread over the scorpion’s body.

Boom!

The sanguine light exploded as its carapace and flesh transformed into a terrifying energy blast. An Tianzuo had no choice but to retreat.

At the same time the explosion occurred, a sanguine light from the scorpion’s body flew toward White Cloud Mountain at an unbelievable speed.

An Tianzuo’s body flashed as he chased in the direction of White Cloud Mountain.

“Damn it, that fellow actually has such a move!” An Sheng cursed under his breath as he chased with his men.

Zhou Wen chased after him as well. When they caught up to An Tianzuo, they realized that he was standing in front of the mountain entrance. The scorpion that had self-destructed was nowhere to be seen.

“Love Letter escaped into Jade Emperor Peak?” An Sheng had already guessed what was going on.

An Tianzuo nodded slightly. “We have failed. Let’s head back.”

They knew that the scorpion was no longer able to survive; it was definitely on its last legs. As long as they could find it, even without An Tianzuo’s help, An Sheng could kill it himself.

However, no one dared to enter Jade Emperor Peak. No matter how strong a person was, entering would only lead to death. Even An Tianzuo could only return empty-handed.

Mythical creatures were precious, but they couldn’t trade for one with their lives.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 518 - Companion Egg Inside

Chapter 518 Companion Egg Inside

Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to listen to the area beyond the mountain entrance. He found it dead silent. Unable to hear a thing, it was as though the particles inside were motionless, having not generated any vibrations.

Jade Emperor Peak is indeed terrifying. It's such a pity. They prepared for so long, but all their efforts were in vain at the final moment. Zhou Wen felt sorry for An Sheng. If a Mythical Companion Egg dropped, An Sheng's strength would definitely improve greatly. It would be much safer for him to carry out missions in the future.

Along the way, Zhou Wen didn't find the tiny palm symbol. Although Truth Listener's ability couldn't hear the scene around him, he could hear the traces of carvings. If there was a tiny palm symbol, he should have heard it.

An Tianzuo was a decisive person. Since all hope was lost, he did not hesitate to order An Sheng and the officers to leave White Cloud Mountain with him.

Just as they were about to leave, they suddenly heard a miserable scream coming from Jade Emperor Peak. It sounded like a creature's death cry.

"It's Love Letter. It died less than twenty meters away from Jade Emperor Peak. It even dropped a Companion Egg," an officer suddenly shouted.

"How do you know?" An Tianzuo asked.

“I can’t hear it, but I can see it with my eyes. It’s inside. It’s a Companion Egg the size of a football and it resembles white jade. It has blood-colored text on it.” The officer had used his hearing, but he couldn’t hear anything. As he was unwilling to give up, he thought that it would be fine if he stole a glance. He removed his balaclava and had looked inside—seeing the Companion Egg.

“An Sheng?” An Tianzuo had also used his hearing ability but he couldn’t see the situation inside.

This was because An Sheng’s large-eyed Companion Beast gave him the ability of sight. If anyone could see it, An Sheng would be the first, but An Sheng hadn’t said anything.

“Even if it’s twenty meters, it’s within the confines of Jade Emperor Peak. It’s no different from two hundred meters or two thousand meters,” An Sheng answered.

He was obviously the first person to discover the blood scorpion, but he did not say anything. Even though it was right in front of him, he still chose to give up.

With that said, An Sheng said to the officer, “Old He, put on the balaclava. Are you tired of living?”

“Overseer, Adjutant, why don’t we make an attempt? It’s less than twenty meters inside. Perhaps there’s a way to get the Companion Egg out. That’s a Mythical Companion Egg.” The officer put on the balaclava and said to An Tianzuo and An Sheng, unwilling to give up.

“Ah Sheng is right. It doesn’t matter even if it’s two centimeters within Jade Emperor Peak, much less twenty meters,” said An Tianzuo.

“Overseer, let’s try using Companion Beasts. At most, we will sacrifice a few Companion Beasts. We can still afford to lose them.” The officers felt that it was a pity to leave.

“There’s no need to try. Haven’t we done enough experiments in the past? You can’t enter the Jade Emperor Peak, regardless if they are humans or Companion Beasts. The outcome is the same,” Ah Sheng objected firmly.

“Overseer, I have a Companion Beast that I obtained in a dimensional zone previously. It’s called Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros. It has the ability to resist evil powers, so why not let it try? If Adjutant An can obtain a Mythical pet, it’ll be a boon for our Sunset Army. In the future, fewer of our brothers will die when we carry out missions…” one of the officers said.

“Then give it a try,” said An Tianzuo.

“Thank you, Overseer.” The officer was instantly overjoyed.

“Overseer…” An Sheng wanted to stop him.

“If we don’t let them try, they won’t be willing to give up. Just remember this.” An Tianzuo stopped An Sheng from continuing.

As they were speaking, Zhou Wen circled around the mountain entrance. He wanted to see if there was a tiny palm symbol nearby. He didn’t have much hope because the tiny palm symbol was typically engraved on a more conspicuous spot. It wasn’t on the mountain entrance, so the chances of there being one were rather low.

But he didn’t expect to find the tiny palm symbol on a mountain rock to the east of the mountain entrance.

The tiny palm symbol was engraved on a mountain rock that was about the height of a person. It was unknown what color the mountain rock was, but its shape was nothing special. The tiny palm symbol engraved on it was a small hand holding a small mountain-shaped rock.

He took out his phone and took a picture of the small palm symbol.

The phone quickly locked onto the picture and entered the download interface.

Elsewhere, the officer had already summoned a moon-white rhinoceros. The rhinoceros looked very mighty, and it was much bigger than an ordinary rhinoceros. It was even bigger than an adult elephant. Its body was glowing with a jade glow, as though its body was enveloped by moonlight.

“Old He, don’t bother. It’s a pity to lose a precious Companion Beast like the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros,” An Sheng said with a sigh.

“It’s fine. It’s less than twenty meters away. It’s just one step of the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros.” Old He was determined. When the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros stood in front of the stone entrance, Old He gave the order and the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros moved like a tank charging through the entrance. It headed straight for the spot where the Companion Egg had dropped.

After it entered, Zhou Wen couldn’t hear the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros. He thought that since there wasn’t any immortal palace phenomenon, he could take a look at the situation without looking up into the fog.

He lifted the balaclava a little so that he could see the situation at the mountain entrance. He saw the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros’s body four to five meters away from the mountain entrance. Furthermore, it was still charging at high speed. With such a speed, it would only take a few seconds to traverse twenty meters.Zhou Wen also saw the Companion Egg. Indeed, it was less than twenty meters away from the mountain entrance. Just as Old He had said, there were blood-colored patterns on the jade-white egg. There was a pile of blood-colored powder on the ground. It was likely formed after the Blood Scorpion died.

Just as Zhou Wen was sizing up the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros, he saw a terrifying scene. After the huge rhinoceros rushed past the mountain entrance, its body turned into a piece of jade. It didn’t get far—perhaps ten meters—before the entire rhinoceros turned into a lifeless jade statue and fell to the ground.

Boom!

After a loud bang, the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros shattered into pieces of jade. Furthermore, the pieces of jade that landed on the ground kept disintegrating, becoming smaller and smaller. Like sand, they split apart and finally turned to dust.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but shiver. He finally knew what was going on with the pile of blood-colored powder beneath the Companion Egg. Even the Blood Scorpion couldn’t withstand the terrifying power from Jade Emperor Peak. It had ended up in the same state as the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros.

However, the Companion Egg wasn’t affected by the terrifying force.

Ding! Zhou Wen’s phone notified the completion of the download. He looked down and saw a black mountain icon on the screen. However, it wasn’t White Cloud Mountain but Demon Suppression Mountain.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 519 - Zero Taboo

Chapter 519 Zero Taboo

After tapping open the Demon Suppression Mountain dungeon, he realized that the blood-colored avatar had appeared in front of the black stone. Beside it was White Cloud Mountain's entrance. Other than the cartoon image, the layout was identical to the real White Cloud Mountain.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and attempted to let the blood-colored avatar enter the mountain entrance. He wanted to see if Truth Listener's ability could withstand the terrifying power of Jade Emperor Peak.

However, it was useless. The power on Jade Emperor Peak wasn't an evil force like a curse. After a few steps, the blood-colored avatar turned to dust.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and dripped his blood to revive. He walked into Jade Emperor Peak once again, but this time, he switched his Essence Energy Art to a Dao Art.

His Life Providence had naturally transformed into a Dao Body and Zero Taboo.

The moment the blood-colored avatar took half a step in, the Zero Taboo crystal in his consciousness lit up like a light bulb.

It works! Zhou Wen was delighted as he controlled the blood-colored avatar to continue walking forward. After taking a few steps, his body was fine. Cracks began to appear on the Zero Taboo crystal, as though it was about to shatter.

…

It really can’t be taken out. In front of the mountain entrance, Old He wore a look of disappointment. He wasn’t sad for the death of his Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros, but because he couldn’t retrieve the Companion Egg for An Sheng.

“Old He, with the Overseer around, we will have plenty of chances to kill Mythical creatures in the future. It’s just a matter of time,” An Sheng said. He found it a pity that the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros died. It was one of the few Epic Companion Beasts that could ward off evil. It was a pity to lose it.

“Let’s go.” An Tianzuo gave another order. This time, no one said a word. Although they were unwilling to give up on the Mythical Companion Egg in front of them, they had no choice but to leave.

“Ah Sheng, let me give it a try. Perhaps I can take it out,” Zhou Wen said as he walked over.

If the Companion Egg was An Tianzuo’s, Zhou Wen wouldn’t have stepped forward. He might even have waited for them to leave before secretly returning to retrieve the Companion Egg.

However, the Companion Egg was for An Sheng, so Zhou Wen felt that he should help.

An Sheng had given him plenty of help and had risked his life with him. He had plenty of chances to obtain Mythical Companion Eggs in the future, but it was unlikely to have someone willing to risk his life for him at critical moments.

“Young Master Wen, if you wish to use a Mythical Companion Beast to take the Companion Egg, there’s no need to bother. Love Letter is also at the Mythical stage. It also failed to withstand the power of Jade Emperor Peak,” An Sheng said.

“If I just want to take out the Companion Egg, it’s very simple. I don’t need to use a Mythical Companion Beast.” As Zhou Wen spoke, he walked to the mountain entrance and deliberately sounded relaxed. He didn’t say that he was the one entering.

This was because he knew very well that if he said that he was the one entering, An Sheng would have definitely stopped him. It was impossible that he would let him take the risk.

“Young Master Wen, what solution do you have?” An Sheng asked.

An Tianzuo and the officers looked at Zhou Wen. They also wanted to know if he really had a way to bring out the Companion Egg.

Old He looked at Zhou Wen and said, “Young Master Wen, if you have a way to bring out the Companion Egg, just let me know if there’s anything I can do in the future. I’ll be at your beck and call.”

An Sheng had saved the lives of Old He’s family. Old He had always treated An Sheng’s matters as his own.

“I’ll remember that.” As Zhou Wen spoke, he looked past the mountain entrance. An Tianzuo and company believed that he would summon a Companion Beast, but to their surprise, Zhou Wen suddenly took a step forward and walked through the mountain pass.

“No…” An Sheng turned pale with fright as he rushed towards the mountain entrance.

Someone was faster than him as he appeared in front of the mountain entrance in a flash. He extended his hand to grab Zhou Wen, but he was still a step slower. Zhou Wen had already rushed past the mountain entrance.

When An Sheng rushed to the mountain entrance, he was held back by An Tianzuo, who had arrived a step earlier. He didn’t let him chase after Zhou Wen.

“Look carefully. His body isn’t affected,” An Tianzuo said to An Sheng in a deep voice as he took off his balaclava.

Old He and company were also alarmed. They originally imagined that Zhou Wen would use a special Companion Beast to make the attempt, they never expected him to walk in by himself.

An Sheng stood outside the stone door and looked at Zhou Wen inside. He quickly walked towards the Companion Egg. His speed was astonishing. More importantly, his body didn’t disintegrate like the Evil Warding Spirit Rhinoceros.

Zhou Wen’s body landed in front of the Companion Egg like a wisp of smoke. He reached out and scooped the Companion Egg into his hand before turning around and retreating.

This back-and-forth was swift and elegant, like a swift saber that had been unsheathed. With a flash, the saber had already returned into the sheath before one could see what the blade looked like.

When Zhou Wen returned to the mountain entrance with the Blood Scorpion Companion Egg in hand, Old He and company jolted to attention as though they had been in a dream. They speechlessly looked at Zhou Wen who was standing in front of them in perfect condition.

“Young Master Wen, you are really too rash.” An Sheng sized up Zhou Wen’s body and only heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that there wasn’t anything wrong with his body.

“Don’t worry. I won’t do anything that I’m not confident of.” Zhou Wen threw the Companion Egg to An Sheng.

“Young Master Wen, thank you,” An Sheng received the Companion Egg and said with a smile.

“Not considering the consequences of your actions will one day make you pay the price. Put on your balaclavas and we will head down the mountain,” An Tianzuo said coldly. He put his balaclava on and turned to head down the mountain.

Everyone hurriedly put on their balaclavas and followed An Tianzuo down the mountain.

When they reached a fork on the mountainside, Zhou Wen asked An Sheng, “Ah Sheng, is Jade Rabbit’s Lunar Prayer on the mountain over there?”

“It’s there alright. I’ll take you there,” An Sheng said.

Old He also said, “Young Master Wen, if you want to pay a visit, I’ll take you there. However, it’s just a stone. There’s nothing to see.”

“There’s no need. There’s no danger there anyway. I just want to take a look myself. You guys can go back now,” Zhou Wen said as he walked up the mountain path.

An Sheng didn’t insist on going with him. Since Zhou Wen could remain unharmed in Jade Emperor Peak, nothing outside posed a danger to him.

“Adjutant An, this Young Master Wen is amazing. He actually managed to enter and exit Jade Emperor Peak safely. He’s really strong. Is he still in school?” Old He asked An Sheng as he watched Zhou Wen disappear on the mountain path.

“Don’t you know whose family Young Master Wen is from? How can a person who can be doted on so much by Madam not be strong?” As An Sheng spoke, he used his large eyes to glance at An Tianzuo, but unfortunately, he couldn’t see An Tianzuo’s expression through the balaclava.

“You’re right. Young Master Wen is Madam Lan’s son. It’s only right for him to be strong.” Old He smiled.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 520 - One Takes on the Color of One“s Company

Chapter 520 One Takes on the Color of One“s Company

Zhou Wen walked all the way up to the mountain where Jade Rabbit’s Lunar Prayer was. Although Zero Taboo seemed to have the ability to counter White Cloud Mountain’s taboo powers, Zhou Wen still wore the balaclava and used Truth Listener’s ability to scout the way.

If he were to see the immortal palace phenomenon, it would be quite an unjust death in the event Zero Taboo failed to work.

There were indeed very few dimensional creatures on White Cloud Mountain. Zhou Wen walked all the way to the peak, but he didn’t even encounter a single one.

After reaching the top of the mountain, Zhou Wen finally saw the legendary jade rabbit’s lunar prayer stone. Perhaps it was because Zhou Wen’s imagination wasn’t good, but no matter how he looked at it, it didn’t resemble a rabbit.

The Thearch said that the item is beneath this stone, but this stone seems to be connected to the mountain? Should I dig it up? Zhou Wen circled the Moon Rabbit stone but didn’t find the good stuff that The Thearch had mentioned.

Although it wasn’t nice to destroy a natural landscape, Zhou Wen couldn’t be bothered anymore. He summoned the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and made it push the Moon Rabbit stone to see if there was anything below.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon had 80 Strength after all. With the augmentation of an Essence Energy Skill, it could snap the mountain, much less a mere rock.

However, it was unable to move the Moon Rabbit stone at all despite using all its might.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but be surprised. With the strength of Six-Winged, even a piece of titanium alloy should have snapped, much less a rock.

Indeed, there’s something here! Zhou Wen made Six-Winged stop. He probably couldn’t move the Moon Rabbit stone with brute force.

Zhou Wen studied how to deal with the Moon Rabbit stone, but he failed to budge it despite exhausting all the methods he could think of. All he could do was leave White Cloud Mountain and return to the encampment. He planned on contacting The Thearch and asking her how to take the item under the Moon Rabbit Stone.

After Zhou Wen returned to the encampment, Old He warmly welcomed him back. He also told him that An Sheng and An Tianzuo had already left because they were needed in Luoyang. They had left a message, saying that if Zhou Wen wanted to return, he could get Old He to drive him back.

On the rugged mountain road, An Sheng was fiddling with his phone while driving.

To him, multitasking was not a difficult task. There was no conflict between driving and playing games. Ordinary people were forbidden from doing this as it was very easy for accidents to happen, bringing harm to themselves and others.

The scene that appeared on An Sheng's phone screen was the game that Zhou Wen had invested in. He held the phone in one hand as his fingers moved rapidly. It was no different from how others played with two hands. He was even more agile.

The game character used all sorts of odd positioning and releasing of skills to beat the Demonized Soldiers and Generals.

"Why aren't you driving properly? What are you doing there?" An Tianzuo, who was sitting behind with his eyes closed, suddenly asked.

"I downloaded the game that Zhou Wen and company made. Now that I'm trying it, it's really not bad. The feedback from attacking and the usage of skills are very good. The parameters are also very similar to reality, especially those Demonized Soldiers and Generals. Their behavior and skills are identical to reality. After playing this game, if one were to encounter Demonized Soldiers and Generals, one would know how to deal with them. This game is really not bad. From the looks of it, Young Master Wen isn't just playing games," An Sheng said as he played.

"He's just trying to play to the gallery. Watching a video allows one to understand dimensional creatures better than gaming. It's not like I see him doing any research. All he does is game. The so-called understanding of dimensional creatures is just an excuse to game," said An Tianzuo.

An Sheng defended Zhou Wen. “It’s still a little different. From watching the video, one can only know what kind of abilities a dimensional creature has. Ordinary people can’t tell what skills they can use to deal with it just by watching a video. However, in-game, they can attempt to use various skills to attack dimensional creatures. They can then know which skills are effective against them. Furthermore, through in-game combat, it’s easier to remember the timing of the various skills used by dimensional creatures. This game is a high-level strategy guide. It would be even better if we could turn it into a holographic game”

“I realize that ever since you and Zhou Wen went out a few times, you are getting better at clever, but false, arguments,” An Tianzuo said with a cold expression.

“Overseer, you’re right. It’s my fault. Games only make people lose their aspirations. It’s useless,” An Sheng hurriedly said.

“You’ve even learned how to agree overtly despite your private opposition. Indeed, one takes on the color of one’s company. Hand over the phone,” An Tianzuo said coldly when he saw that An Sheng was still playing.

“I was wrong, alright?” An Sheng hurriedly put away his phone.

“I told you to hand me the phone,” An Tianzuo said with a deadpan expression as he stared at An Sheng through the rearview mirror.

An Sheng helplessly handed his phone to An Tianzuo, who was sitting behind him. An Tianzuo reached out and took it. He glared at An Sheng and said, “Drive properly. If you continue with such nonsense, you’ll be punished to guard Chess Mountain.”

An Sheng tersely responded and continued driving. He didn’t dare do anything else.

An Tianzuo closed his eyes to rest for a while, but he had a nagging feeling. After a while, An Tianzuo opened his eyes again and picked up the phone beside him. After unlocking it, his gaze landed on the app icon named Dimension.

The corners of An Tianzuo’s eyes twitched slightly. He reached out and pulled the curtains to give himself privacy from An Sheng. Then, he said to him, “I’ll rest for a while. Don’t disturb me.”

“Got it, Overseer,” An Sheng said.

An Tianzuo held his phone and turned off the sound. Then, he tapped on the icon. Soon, an ink-styled interface appeared on his phone.

…

Zhou Wen rested in the encampment. As there was a signal in the encampment, he sent a message to The Thearch, but after waiting for several hours, he still didn’t receive a reply.

Just as Zhou Wen thought that The Thearch wasn’t replying to him on purpose, he finally received a message. He opened it and saw that it was from The Thearch.

“To learn the divine art, one must self-castrate.”

Zhou Wen read the message clearly and countless question marks appeared in his mind. Then, he sent a row of question marks.

“It was sent wrongly. It was for someone else. If you want the treasure, you must wait for the moon to rise.” The Thearch replied very quickly this time.

So I have to wait until the moon rises before I can obtain the treasure under the Moon Rabbit stone. Zhou Wen was enlightened, but he suddenly felt that something was amiss.

“The Thearch, you said that you sent the message wrongly. Then who were you planning on sending that sentence to?” Zhou Wen’s expression turned odd.

Since The Thearch could use her phone to go online, it was not surprising that she could add friends on the Internet. The strange thing was, why did she send such a message to the other party?

“It’s a guy who wants to learn divine arts. His name seems to be John Cape,” The Thearch replied.

“John… Cape…” Zhou Wen naturally wouldn’t forget this fellow. After all, it was because of Liz and John that he and the Cape family had become enemies.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 521 - Immortal Palace Phenomenon

Chapter 521 Immortal Palace Phenomenon

Zhou Wen originally wanted to ask what The Thearch was doing, but The Thearch didn’t reply to him. Zhou Wen had to temporarily put the matter aside.

In the afternoon, Zhou Wen arrived in front of the Jade Rabbit’s Lunar Prayer stone again. There, he waited for the moon to rise from the east.

However, there was a problem. The Thearch said that he had to push the Moon Rabbit stone the moment the moon rose. Although Truth Listener was very powerful and could hear very minute sounds, it was still unknown if he could tell that the moon had risen.

If Truth Listener were to advance further in the future and advance to the Mythical stage, it might be able to hear something even deeper such as the rotations of electrons or the flowing sound of photons. When that happened, it was possible to use one’s hearing to determine if the moon had risen.

However, he definitely couldn’t do it now. After some hesitation, Zhou Wen switched his Essence Energy Art to a Dao Art before removing the balaclava.

Zhou Wen estimated the time. The moon was about to rise. If he were to use his eyes, he wouldn’t be so unlucky to chance upon the immortal palace phenomenon, right?

However, even if he were to see the immortal palace phenomenon, he had the Zero Taboo Life Soul. It was unlikely he would die so easily.

While waiting for the sun to set at the garrison, Zhou Wen studied his Zero Taboo Life Soul. After entering White Cloud Mountain's Jade Emperor Peak and other dimensional zones, he discovered something.

Zero Taboo and Truth Listener's Evil Nullification were somewhat different. When Evil Nullification was in effect, it could deal with man-made curses. Zero Taboo did little against them. According to Zhou Wen's judgment, it worked against powers that came from the laws of nature.

For example, White Cloud Mountain's Jade Emperor Peak, Small Buddha Temple, or Sei Gasakai's Will Renewal. They were all unreasonable powers. That was just how the laws of nature worked.

Zero Taboo was very useful in this aspect. However, its effects were difficult to distinguish from Evil Nullification. There was some overlap between the two, and Zhou Wen was still studying them. His understanding of Zero Taboo wasn't thorough enough, so he was still in the guessing phase.

However, Zero Taboo was not truly without any restrictions. It could last for about ten seconds inside White Cloud Mountain's Jade Emperor Peak. Any longer, the Zero Taboo Life Soul would explode from the pressure.

In Small Buddha Temple, as long as he did not enter the temple hall, Zero Taboo was fine. However, once he entered the temple hall, it could only last for ten seconds.

Although the immortal palace phenomenon was terrifying, Zhou Wen guessed that it wouldn’t have much of an effect on him. Zero Taboo and Evil Nullification were of some use.

After pulling up the balaclava, Zhou Wen looked east. Although the sun and moon weren’t in the sky, it wasn’t too dark since the sun had just set.

As he looked over, he saw a sea of white clouds. Occasionally, a few mountain peaks would appear out of the sea of clouds, like a few black islands in a white sea. The scene was indeed as beautiful as a fairyland.

It’s a pity that no one has the chance to enjoy such beautiful scenery. If it was before the dimensional storms, I’m afraid this place would have been filled with tourists. Zhou Wen suddenly felt that the dimensional storms might not be a bad thing. If there were tourists crowding the place, no matter how beautiful it was, it would be greatly affected.

The immortal palace didn’t appear. Zhou Wen kept track of time and knew that the moon would rise at any moment. He didn’t wear the balaclava and sat there to watch the sea of clouds.

On the mountains above the sea of clouds, he could see some ancient buildings. However, they weren’t places he could go carelessly. Zhou Wen only admired them for the time being.

After waiting for less than two minutes, a crescent moon slowly floated out from the sea of clouds’ horizon. The moonlight was not strong and it was not bright. It was very mild.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to push the Moon Rabbit stone again, a white jade-like immortal palace appeared where the crescent moon rose.

There were pavilions and pagodas, as well as jade halls and shrines. Beautiful and elegant immortal palaces appeared in the clouds, and he could even see fairies flitting about. Faintly, he could even hear singing coming from those immortal palaces.

Immortal palace phenomenon! Zhou Wen was alarmed. The Zero Taboo Life Soul had already lit up his mind. Clearly, it had a reaction to the immortal palace phenomenon.

The intensity of the Zero Taboo's reaction wasn't inferior to the Jade Emperor Peak. Zhou Wen took a careful look before closing his eyes and pulling down the balaclava.

The brightened Zero Taboo Life Soul also dimmed.

Thankfully, my theory is correct. Zero Taboo seems to be useful against all taboo powers in a dimensional zone. Zhou Wen recalled the scene of the immortal palace in his mind.

The immortal palace was extremely magnificent, but it didn't have much value to Zhou Wen. Instead, it was the dancing fairies that gave him some insight.

The Fairy in Dragon Gate Grotto was only at the Epic stage after all. Transcendent Flying Immortal's attack was only an Epic Essence Energy Skill. Although through Zhou Wen's constant insight and creativity, it had reached an outstanding level at the Epic stage, it was still inferior to a true godlike skill.

Having seen the figures of the fairies in the immortal palace, Zhou Wen immediately gained new insights.

Without a doubt, if those fairies really existed, they would all be true Mythical creatures.

Ignoring the fairies' stances, Zhou Wen extended his hand to push the Moon Rabbit stone just as the moon rose. Although it was still very heavy, it moved slightly with his strength.

Overjoyed, Zhou Wen pushed harder and shoved the Moon Rabbit stone to the side bit by bit. Then, he realized that beneath it was a jade box embedded in the stone's indentation.

Zhou Wen reached out to take out the jade box, only to find it cold to the touch.

After touching the indentation and confirming that there was nothing else, Zhou Wen pushed the Moon Rabbit stone back.

With the jade box in his arms, Zhou Wen planned on looking at what was inside the box when he returned home. Since he had already obtained it, he wasn't in a hurry.

As he thought about leaving the mountain, he couldn't bear it. After some thought, Zhou Wen pulled up the balaclava slightly and looked at the rising moon in the east.

The phenomenon of the immortal palace was still there. Numerous immortal palaces floated above the sea of clouds, looking extremely realistic. It was not something ethereal like a mirage.

The fairies danced among the immortal palaces. All of them had elegant and graceful postures. They seemed much more profound than the Fairies in Dragon Gate Grotto.

Zero Taboo kept emitting light. It felt like it would shatter in a few more seconds.

Zhou Wen didn’t dare take another look. Just as he was about to close his eyes, he suddenly saw a beautiful fairy fly out from a palace. The moment she appeared, the other fairies immediately paled in comparison. It was as though the halo around them had vanished as they became mere mortal beauties.

Only the fairy who had just appeared deserved being described as an “immortal fairy.”

Zhou Wen only took a glance and saw numerous crisscrossing cracks appear on the Zero Taboo crystal. Just as it was about to explode, Zhou Wen hurriedly closed his eyes in fright.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 522 - Change in Ranking

Chapter 522 Change in Ranking

This time, when he closed his eyes, the Zero Taboo crystal didn’t immediately extinguish. It continued emitting light. The cracks on the crystal were still spreading, and it was about to shatter. It left Zhou Wen shuddering in fear.

Thankfully, the crystal didn’t shatter and the light gradually dimmed.

Now, the Zero Taboo crystal was like a glass bead that had been doused in cold water after being heated over a flame. It was full of cracks, looking as if it would shatter at any moment.

Amazing. I only took a glance at her and she nearly blasted apart my Life Soul. If she really exists, I wonder what status she has among Mythical creatures? Zhou Wen could still recall the scene of the fairy dancing in the air. Her figure seemed to contain some profound charms. It was indescribably beautiful and shocking.

Zhou Wen closed his eyes and sat on the Moon Rabbit stone. He carefully recalled the details of the fairy’s figure, hoping to figure out the true secret of Flying Immortal.

Zhou Wen could sense that the fairy’s figure was extremely valuable to his Transcendent Flying Immortal, but after thinking for a long time, he felt that there was something in the way between the two. It made him feel like he was looking at a beauty through a layer of frosted glass. He could see her, but not clearly. He couldn’t help but feel vexed.

He stood up and walked down the mountain. He wanted to have a change of environment and mood; perhaps that way, he might be able to understand what was happening. He would never dare to look at that immortal palace phenomenon again.

After returning to the encampment, Zhou Wen took out the jade box and placed it on the table. After studying it for a while, he opened the lid.

Inside the jade box were dozens of crystals the size of cat eyes. They were of different colors and shapes.

I wonder what attributes these dimensional crystals have? Zhou Wen took out his mysterious phone and snapped them.

It turned out that they were all Epic dimensional crystals. Most of them were crystals of the four basic stats. Only two were Essence Energy Skill Crystals. This left Zhou Wen somewhat disappointed.

He originally believed that The Thearch’s mention of something would be no trifling matter. Although Epic crystals were not bad, they were far inferior to the Mythical crystal from before.

However, on second thought, it made sense. The Thearch told him about these so that he could exchange them for money, so why would she get him to retrieve Mythical crystals that weren’t easily sold?

Epic crystals were the easiest to produce at present. Furthermore, there was a relatively high demand for them. There were at least ten crystals and they all had different attributes. Some were bad, while others were not bad. The best one was a Speed Crystal with 38 stats. It was likely worth quite a bit of money.

Of course, the most valuable ones were the two Essence Energy Skill Crystals. One was the Cloud Crane Crystal, while the other was the Cloud Deer Crystal. Zhou Wen had never seen these two dimensional creatures before, nor did he know what skills they had.

He placed the crystals back into the jade box and picked it up to put into the chaos space.

The dimensional crystals weren’t very warm, but the jade box was as cold as ice. It didn’t seem ordinary.

Is it possible that this jade box is something good? Zhou Wen held the jade box and began studying it.

The jade box was the color of the moon. It was translucent and he almost could see through it, but it also appeared opaque. It was as if there were clouds within the jade.

After Zhou Wen carefully studied the jade box, he found something amiss.

There were many cloud patterns engraved on the jade box. The patterns were of different shapes and sizes. If one were to look at them with the eyes of an ordinary person, they would be clouds of different shapes and sizes. One would write it off as nothing special.

Even though some people felt that the cloud patterns were special, it was difficult to see the true meaning behind them.

However, after Zhou Wen carefully observed them, he realized that the different types of clouds contained the beauty of a fairy's figure. Every cloud pattern looked like a fairy. If he hadn't seen the fairies flying, it would probably be difficult for him to tell the charms of these cloud patterns.

This is really something good. Zhou Wen picked up the jade box and continued studying the cloud patterns. As he looked at them, he compared them with the fairy poses he had seen. His understanding deepened.

While Zhou Wen was studying the cloud patterns, another shocking event happened. The black cube lit up again before another Companion Beast appeared on the ranking.

The second Companion Beast on the ranking was actually the publicly acknowledged number one Companion Beast, Verbis Diablo Holy Angel.

The Verbis Diablo Holy Angel's ranking had been ranked by a big organization in the Federation. It was known as the number one pet at the Epic stage. Now that it had taken its place on the cube's ranking, it actually failed to surpass the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. It was only ranked second.

No one could help but speculate how powerful the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was to be able to suppress the Verbis Diablo Holy Angel. This was truly quite a shock.

In the past few days, there had been no movement. Only Six-Winged had been placed on the list. When the Verbis Diablo Holy Angel entered the rankings, many Companion Beasts sprouted like mushrooms after a rain. They were listed one after another.

On the cube's screen, various pet creatures constantly appeared. Apart from the angel and dragon, there were also sprites, magical beasts, and other Companion Beasts.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, which was originally in first place, dropped to third place in a day. Eight others ranked after it. A total of eleven Companion Beasts were listed.

Two Companion Beasts ranked ahead of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. The first was Death of the Underworld, while the second was Frost Giant. They were Companion Beasts no one had heard of before.

As for the famous Verbis Diablo Holy Angel, it was ranked dead last among all the Companion Beasts on the list.

This caused a huge wave of discussion across the entire Federation. Only then did many ordinary people realize that the so-called strongest Verbis Diablo Holy Angel was just a bottom-tier existence in the world of truly powerful pets.

The powerful Companion Beasts were enough to make one gasp in excitement. However, at the same time, people were guessing who the extremely powerful Companion Beasts belonged to.

Including Zhou Wen’s Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, there were a total of three dragons that entered the rankings. It could be said that among all the Mythical creatures, they were the most common species.

However, one tidbit was very surprising. All the Companion Beasts that entered the rankings—be they angels, dragons, elemental sprites, or Death—were Companion Beasts from the West and North Districts. They didn’t see any special Companion Beasts from East District and South District on the list.

In fact, all the families that made a move this time came from the West and North Districts. Among them, the Cape family of the West District put in the most work and managed to occupy four ranks in one go.

The East District’s Xia family and Zhang family, and the South District’s Dugu family didn’t have any Companion Beasts appear on the ranking. The four districts seemed to have a completely different attitude towards the rankings.

Zhou Wen didn’t know anything about the change in ranking. Although Zhou Wen declined Old He’s offer to take him back, Old He insisted.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 523 - Flying Immortal Stance

Chapter 523 Flying Immortal Stance

After returning to school, Zhou Wen heard the students discussing the Companion Beasts on the rankings. Ordinary students suspected that they were Mythical Companion Beasts, but no one had ever seen one.

Zhou Wen also went online to take a look. Many media outlets and individuals had captured the pictures of the Companion Beasts on the cube.

Death of the Underworld looked very strange. He was wearing a gray cloak. Black and blue light filled its insides. He did not have a physical body and looked a little like the legendary Death. However, he did not have a scythe in his hands.

Frost Giant was a giant with a deep blue body. Wherever he went, ice would form on the ground.

The other Companion Beasts were also unique. Angels were holy, sprites were beautiful, and dragons looked about the same. However, for a Companion Beast to be ranked, one could tell that they were extraordinary just from their aura alone.

Unfortunately, only the images of the Companion Beasts were shown on the cube. Their skills weren’t listed.

Zhou Wen didn’t know what the ranking was for, but he quickly lost interest. He picked up his phone and continued grinding Torch Dragon. After his battle with Torch Dragon, Zhou Wen gradually started to use his speed and crystal mirror to block Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World.

Unfortunately, a Sun Beast Companion Egg was a rare drop. If there were two or more crystal mirrors, the success rate of killing Torch Dragon would be much higher.

Zhou Wen thought of many solutions. For example, using a large number of Companion Beasts to shield him, but it was useless. The blood-colored avatar and all the Companion Beasts in front of him were reflected into the vision world.

Apart from the crystal mirror that could reflect, the other Companion Beasts weren’t of much use.

As for using the crystal mirror to block Torch Dragon’s gaze, he needed to grasp the timing and position perfectly, or it would be very difficult to block.

The problem was that Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World wasn’t a skill that could only be used once. Therefore, Zhou Wen needed to defend against it many times in battle. Otherwise, he would die.

As for Demonic Neonate that remained on the blood-colored avatar’s back, she constantly tried to find Torch Dragon’s flaws to attack it. There were a few times when she really found an opportunity. The ancient sword stabbed at Torch Dragon, but it only managed to penetrate a tiny length of the blade. It did not pose much of a threat to Torch Dragon.

As for the blood-colored avatar, it couldn’t survive until Demonic Neonate killed Torch Dragon.

According to Zhou Wen’s calculations, he needed to survive at least three hours in front of Torch Dragon before Demonic Neonate could kill it.

This was the best situation. If the situation didn’t go as smoothly as Zhou Wen expected, it might take even longer.

Zhou Wen’s most pressing problem was to 100% block the Bright Torch Vision World for those few hours. Just one mistake meant immediate death. All his efforts would be in vain.

After a bitter battle for an hour, the blood-colored avatar was once again killed by Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World. This was the longest time Zhou Wen had lasted.

I can’t make any mistakes, and I have to be absolutely precise. In a high-intensity battle, I have to ensure that I can throw out the crystal mirror with perfect timing and positioning while facing a powerful creature like Torch Dragon. Furthermore, it’s really difficult to judge Torch Dragon’s actions accurately.

Zhou Wen thought about it and realized that it was very difficult for him to boost his success rate. After all, the other party was a Mythical creature stronger than him. It wasn’t that easy to determine its actions and motions.

Since it’s very difficult to improve my judgment, I can only increase my speed and ability to adjust my position. I’ll try my best to prevent Torch Dragon from seeing me.

Therefore, in the following battles, Zhou Wen consciously fused Dragon Gate Flying Immortal Skill and Transcendent Flying Immortal into the fairy stance he had comprehended, hoping to improve his movement technique to another level.

This wasn’t an easy task. Zhou Wen felt that there was a barrier between the fairy’s stances and his movement techniques. It was very difficult to achieve perfection, and there would be problems when fusing them.

Zhou Wen wasn’t someone who would give up in the face of adversity. He continued researching and improving, especially the beautiful fairy’s stance. Zhou Wen spent a great deal of time comprehending and researching.

At the bureau’s headquarters, there was a lot of information placed in front of Shen Yuchi. It was all about the black cubes and the Companion Beasts on the ranking.

“Director-General, other than the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, the origins of the other Companion Beasts are almost confirmed,” Qiao Siyuan said.

Shen Yuchi nodded slightly. “Why did those families in the West and North District put their Mythical pets on the rankings? Have you investigated?”

In fact, Shen Yuchi didn’t need to investigate to know which families these Companion Beasts came from. The key was why they wanted to expose their Mythical Companion Beasts to the public.

Before this, every family clan hid their Mythical Companion Beasts, afraid that others would know how many they had. But this time, they actually revealed a portion of them.

Although a number were already known to outsiders, it still felt puzzling.

“According to our investigations, those few families seem to have figured out some of the secrets of the black cube. They know that there would be benefits if they were to be ranked, which is why they made such a move. However, this information has not been verified yet, so we don’t know of its veracity,” Qiao Siyuan answered very conservatively.

“What kind of benefits?” Shen Yuchi knew what Qiao Siyuan was getting at. This news should have come from within those few families, but he couldn’t guarantee that they were using it as a smokescreen.

“From what they say, the Companion Beasts on the ranking might be fancied by terrifying existences in the dimensional zones. There might be benefits, but they aren’t sure if the news is real or not, nor do they know what benefits there will be.” Qiao Siyuan explained the information he gathered in detail.

After Shen Yuchi heard that, he remained silent.

“Director-General, what should we do?” Qiao Siyuan asked.

“The Zhang family, the Xia family, and the Dugu family didn’t make a move. The West and North Districts only sent some Companion Beasts as a test. It’s not time for us to step forward. Let’s just wait and see for now.”

After a pause, Shen Yuchi asked again, “How’s the progress of Wang Mingyuan’s students?”

“It’s not going well. Zhou Wen and Hui Haifeng are protected by their families, so it’s very difficult to bring them back. Jiang Yan and Zhong Ziya’s whereabouts are unknown. We’ve been tracking them for so long, but we haven’t been able to catch them. None of Wang Mingyuan’s four students are simple. I think Wang Mingyuan might have other motives for taking them in as his students. It’s not just a coincidence.”

Qiao Siyuan paused and said, “Besides, the six families aren’t too concerned about this matter now. For some reason, even the Cape family that wanted to capture Zhou Wen the most seem to have forgotten about it. They’re all focused on the rankings.”

“That’s strange.” Shen Yuchi pondered over the cause and effect of everything.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 524 - In the Name of an Angel

Chapter 524 In the Name of an Angel

In a mysterious land of the West District, in front of an ancient, glorious cathedral, John advanced step by step. Every step he took felt as if he was going against the flow. It drained all his strength.

Within the cathedral, a holy light shone out, causing people to involuntarily lower their heads, not daring to look at the light.

When John walked to the door of the cathedral and pushed open the door with all his strength, the holy light instantly illuminated the entire world. John saw a huge angel mural inside the cathedral.

The portrait of the angel drew a holy six-winged seraphim. Strangely, there was a drop of blood at the corner of the six-winged seraphim’s eye. Its eyes seemed to contain endless sorrow.

John’s gaze was only slightly shocked by the six-winged seraphim’s portrait before he was attracted by something in it.

Between the six-winged seraphim’s hands was a strange white cocoon-like object. It was clearly a portrait, but the white cocoon in the picture seemed to exist.

“The Thearch didn’t lie to me… There’s really such a thing… It really exists…” John looked excited as he stared at the white cocoon in the painting. His eyes gradually turned strange.

Gritting his teeth, John walked to the portrait of the six-winged seraphim and cut his palm with a knife, letting his blood drip onto the white cocoon.

It was clearly a mural, but when John’s blood dripped onto the white cocoon, it strangely slid to the side. Not a single drop of blood touched the white cocoon.

Do I really have to do that to hatch it? John’s eyes gradually wore a crazed look as he watched his blood drop to the ground.

No matter what price I have to pay… I must defeat that person… I must… Just as the madness in John’s eyes reached its apex, he suddenly held the knife and slashed at his lower body.

Blood splattered as something fell to the ground.

The blood which flowed from John’s palm was unable to touch the white cocoon in the beginning. It was as though there was a force that kept the blood away from it. But now, the white cocoon no longer rejected John’s blood. Drops of blood landed on it and seeped in. Soon, it dyed the white cocoon red.

As the white cocoon absorbed the blood, it emitted a holy light. John’s body bathed in the holy light as his wounds healed rapidly.

At the same time, his damaged Essence Energy sea was restored. Furthermore, his entire body had undergone a strange transformation.

John felt a pure and holy power flowing through his body. It was stronger and purer than before he was injured.

Under the support of that power, his Holy Emperor Body also underwent an unpredictable change.

John felt his body hurt and itch all over as though he was undergoing puberty again. He felt the strength in his body constantly increasing. John almost couldn’t feel the pain and only felt extremely excited.

“Ah!”

The strength within John’s body burst out uncontrollably. His limbs flailed in the air in an exaggerated manner. His skin was milk-like and he emitted a holy radiance. And behind him, a pair of snow-white angel wings appeared.

However, this pair of angel wings was only an illusion and not a real existence.

John was already handsome to begin with, but now he looked even more handsome. He was like an angel from heaven, as though he was from another world.

Compared to John from the past, this John was less masculine and more feminine.

This wasn’t strange, because angels had no gender.

Crack! Crack!

When John’s body completed the transformation from a human to an angel, the white cocoon cracked and gradually revealed a figure in the cocoon.

It was an angel who was even more handsome than John. He had six angel wings on his back, and his blonde hair emitted a sun-like radiance. His entire body seemed to be enveloped by holy light.

When he walked out of the white cocoon, the entire world seemed to be subdued by his radiance and turned dim.

John looked at the six-winged seraphim in front of him with a fervent gaze. He felt that the power in his body was getting stronger and stronger, as if it was affected by the six-winged seraphim.

He looked down at John like a god. He extended a hand and pressed it on John's head. He said calmly, "In the name of an angel, I'll bestow you the power to be protected…"

With that holy voice, a terrifying holy light erupted from the palm of the six-winged seraphim, enveloping John's body completely in holy light. Finally, even the six-winged seraphim's body was devoured by the holy light.

After the holy light dissipated, only John was left in front of the portrait of the cathedral. However, he had an additional snow-white angel armor and six snow-white angel wings on his back. His entire body emitted terrifying holy light.

Did it succeed? How interesting. I wonder if this is the first guardian to appear. Far away in Chess Mountain's cave, a seductive woman who was chained up suddenly had a strange look in her eyes as though she had sensed something.

However, the strange expression disappeared very quickly. She looked at the cell phone floating in front of her. There were photos on the cell phone interface. The content was actually a picture of Wang Mingyuan breaking into the alternate dimension.

I didn’t expect that there would be such a powerful person among the humans today. He actually devoured the guardian of the dragons? It seems that the human world isn’t as boring as I thought. The seductive woman retracted her gaze and suddenly revealed a strange smile. She opened the chat app and clicked on a friend profile picture to send a message.

In the seductive woman’s friend list, there were only two groups. One group had more friends, while the other group only had one person. Now, she had sent the message to the friend in that one group.

Zhou Wen was studying the Flying Immortal pose when he suddenly heard his phone ring. He knew that it was a message from The Thearch. He opened it and couldn’t help but frown slightly.

“You have big trouble awaiting you.” There were only six simple words on the message.

“The Thearch, I haven’t offended you recently, right?” Zhou Wen replied.

“Since when did I say you offended me?” The Thearch replied.

“Then why are you giving me trouble?”

“Other than me, can’t anyone else give you trouble?”

“Apart from you, should there be anyone else? ” Zhou Wen asked.

“That might not be the case.” The Thearch then sent another message. “I’ll give you a chance. Be good and come to Chess Mountain to swear loyalty to me. I can help you tide through this calamity.”

“I appreciate your kindness,” Zhou Wen said.

“Alright, I’ll wait for you to come to Chess Mountain to beg me.” The Thearch seemed very confident.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 525 - Official Challenge

Chapter 525 Official Challenge

Zhou Wen knew that if The Thearch said that there was trouble, there was a high chance that it was real trouble. However, if he always remained subservient to her, there was no room for negotiation in the future.

Zhou Wen didn’t wish to be a puppet that was at the mercy of others. Furthermore, he also wanted to know if his Zero Taboo could withstand The Thearch’s wish powers.

While Zhou Wen became extra careful, he constantly studied the Flying Immortal stance. The Rank 10 Dragon Gate Flying Immortal Skill and Transcendent Flying Immortal had some improvement, but they had yet to take the final step needed for a breakthrough.

Zhou Wen didn’t know what breaking through an Epic Rank 10 Essence Energy Skill would become. It would be best if he could break through to the Mythical stage, but it clearly wasn’t that easy.

Through his battle with Torch Dragon, Zhou Wen constantly honed himself. It could be said that his posture was very similar to that of a flying immortal, but he was still lacking something. He had yet to reach that realm.

Sometimes, many inventions that shocked the world needed a flash of insight other than continuous experiments. What Zhou Wen lacked now was that glimmer of light in the darkness.

Zhou Wen could now last for more than two hours in the battle with Torch Dragon, but it was useless. Even if he lasted 99% of the time, everything was useless if he didn't kill Torch Dragon.

Zhou Wen was gaming one day when he suddenly received a call from An Sheng.

"Young Master Wen, there's something I have to tell you. This matter can only be decided by you." An Sheng's voice was a little solemn. It was different from the usual An Sheng.

"What's the matter?" Zhou Wen knew that something that could make An Sheng so serious was definitely not simple. He recalled the trouble The Thearch had mentioned.

"John of the Cape family, do you still remember this person?" An Sheng asked after some thought.

"I remember. He once came to our school," Zhou Wen answered.

"Yes, it's because he lost to you and had his Essence Energy sea crippled that he made a request to our An family to have a fair battle with you. Furthermore, he took the initiative to propose a duel in Luoyang," An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen's heart skipped a beat. He knew that the trouble The Thearch mentioned was most likely John. He remembered that The Thearch had previously chatted with John online.

"Because the other party has officially proposed a duel and is willing to come to Luoyang alone to challenge you, it's not appropriate for us to reject him on your behalf. You have to decide on this matter yourself. If you aren't willing, Young Master Wen, you can reject it," An Sheng said.

"John's Essence Energy sea should have been destroyed, right? How did he recover so quickly?" Zhou Wen asked.

"In theory, it shouldn't have been possible for him to recover so quickly. However, since he dares to challenge you in Luoyang, I'm afraid he has not only recovered, but he should also have improved." An Sheng paused for a moment before saying, "From my point of view, I don't think you need to take the risk to accept the challenge, Young Master Wen."

"You think I'll lose?" Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. An Sheng should know that he had a Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. It was clearly unusual for him to persuade him not to accept the challenge under such circumstances.

"The Cape family has Mythical creatures as well. On the cube's ranking, there are four Mythical pets from the Cape family. I suspect that John will be bringing a Mythical Companion Beast with him this time." An Sheng shared his thoughts.

Zhou Wen didn't say a word as An Sheng continued, "Mythical Companion Beasts have their own specialties. It's very dangerous to rashly accept challenges without knowing what abilities they have. I've seen some Mythical creatures before. Their abilities are extremely unreasonable. As long as you get hit, death is certain. There's nothing you can do about that even if you're stronger than him. Just like Love Letter, we studied it for years and only attacked it after knowing its various abilities. Otherwise, we would definitely suffer heavy losses."

“I understand what you mean, but I want to accept this challenge,” Zhou Wen said after some thought.

From Zhou Wen’s point of view, this wasn’t a battle between him and John, but a secret battle between him and The Thearch.

The Thearch seemed to play both sides, seemingly purposefully but also inadvertently making Zhou Wen rely on her more and more.

Just like the previous few times when she showed her might to him or gave him benefits, she would intentionally or unintentionally show Zhou Wen her strength and invincibility. She would inadvertently create a lofty image, as though Zhou Wen would enjoy endless benefits as long as he remained subservient to her. And if he disobeyed her, he would suffer an irresistible blow.

Although The Thearch hadn’t really harmed Zhou Wen from beginning to end, Zhou Wen could sense that this wasn’t a good thing.

In the past, the former principal had once said to Zhou Wen that one needed to respect everyone, but one couldn’t let respect turn into reliance. Otherwise, one would lose the possibility of reaching the pinnacle because the person you relied on was your end.

Therefore, Zhou Wen wanted to accept this challenge not because he wanted to defeat John, but because he wanted to break the net that The Thearch had weaved over him. He wanted The Thearch to fail once.

“Alright, since you’ve already decided, I know what to do. I’ll help you choose the location and time. In Luoyang, you won’t be at a disadvantage. No one can use external forces to affect you, but you have to be careful. Don’t underestimate John just because he has lost to you before,” An Sheng said seriously.

“Thank you.” Zhou Wen felt a sense of warmth in his heart. An Sheng was truly concerned about him. It had been a long time since someone cared for him.

An Sheng hung up the phone and turned to say to An Tianzuo, who was sitting behind his desk, “Overseer, Young Master Wen has decided to accept the challenge.”

“Indeed, he’s still too young. Since John dares to come to Luoyang alone, he must have made all the necessary preparations. The battle is extremely dangerous, so there’s no need for him to take the risk,” said An Tianzuo.

An Sheng smiled and asked, “Overseer, if it’s you, would you accept or refuse?”

“If I accepted it, that’d be because I have the strength to deal with any situation.” Although An Tianzuo didn’t give a direct answer, anyone could tell that he would accept it if it were him.

“I believe Young Master Wen can handle it as well,” An Sheng said.

“I’m just afraid that he will be arrogant and think that he’s invincible after obtaining a Mythical Companion Beast. When that happens, he won’t even know how he died,” sneered An Tianzuo.

It wasn’t An Sheng’s place to say anything else. An Tianzuo paused before saying, “Go and set up the venue. If the empress dowager finds out that he suffered, she’ll probably launch a tirade at me again.”

“Yes.” An Sheng accepted the order and left.

Few people knew that John was going to Luoyang to challenge Zhou Wen, but it spread among the six families. The other families found it odd.

It hadn’t been long since John’s Essence Energy sea was crippled, but he had recovered so quickly. He even dared to challenge Zhou Wen in Luoyang. Clearly, this was something unusual. Many families were secretly observing the matter.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 526 - Figuring Out Flying Immortal

Chapter 526 Figuring Out Flying Immortal

Strangely, the Cape family seemed to have a rather strange reaction towards John challenging Zhou Wen.

After some inquiries from the other families, even they didn’t know why John had challenged Zhou Wen.

“This matter is indeed a little strange. Xuan Yue, spectate the battle.” Xia Dongyue said to Xia Xuanyue.

“Is it necessary?” Xia Xuanyue asked in doubt.

“Just take it as a vacation.” Xia Dongyue smiled.

The reactions of the families were somewhat different. After investigations, they discovered that John wasn’t challenging Zhou Wen because of the Cape family’s ploy. It was just John acting as an individual. This reduced the attention on the matter.

Xia Xuanyue packed her stuff and headed to Luoyang.

Ever since she lost her Mythical Companion Beast, Xia Xuanyue hadn’t been doing well. The Xia family had a higher chance of obtaining a Mythical Companion Beast than the average person thanks to the possession of a Mythical Companion Beast.

However, it still wasn’t easy to obtain another Mythical Companion Beast. Even the Xia family needed a lot of investigation time before killing a Mythical creature. They needed to be fully prepared before sending their experts out with their Mythical pets. This typically took months.

And it was uncertain if a Mythical Companion Egg would drop. Even if they obtained a Mythical Companion Egg, with so many people in the Xia family in line for one, it was hard to say when it would be Xia Xuanyue’s turn again.

The incubation of Mythical Companion Beasts was also a huge problem. Wild Mythical Companion Eggs required too much Essence Energy to incubate. Typical Epic humans wouldn’t be able to withstand it. They needed to use some special methods, and the cost was similarly large.

After arriving in Luoyang, before the date of the duel, Xia Xuanyue went to a few famous dimensional zones in Luoyang to take a look. One of them was the famous Dragon Gate Grotto.

Xia Xuanyue proceeded to explore the caves that she could enter. When she arrived at the Lotus Flower Cave, she saw a familiar person battling with the Fairies inside.

It’s him! Xia Xuanyue instantly recognized that the person battling the Fairies was Zhou Wen.

She had a deep impression of Zhou Wen. After all, she had previously stopped Zhou Wen from killing the girl. Her Mythical Companion Beast had mysteriously disappeared after that.

Furthermore, she had come to Luoyang to watch Zhou Wen and John’s duel.

After watching from the side for a while, Xia Xuanyue realized that rather than a battle, Zhou Wen was imitating the Fairy's actions.

It was obvious that Zhou Wen was much stronger than the Fairy. It wouldn't be difficult for him to kill her, but he didn't do so. All he did was use a movement technique similar to the Fairy as he constantly circled around her.

Is he learning the Fairy's movement technique? Xia Xuanyue watched from the side for a while, and the more she watched, the more confused she became.

Others became better from imitating and practicing. However, Zhou Wen seemed to become worse. His originally elegant movement technique had turned stiffer and stiffer.

Xia Xuanyue had seen too many geniuses who improved from learning, but this was the first time she was seeing someone like Zhou Wen who became worse.

Zhou Wen's Flying Immortal Stance had always lacked meaning. Since he couldn't see the scenery of the immortal palace in-game, Zhou Wen decided to come to Lotus Flower Cave to fight the Fairy and directly compare the difference between the Fairy and the Flying Immortal. He wanted to see if he could figure out the reason he couldn't keep up with it.

Through actual combat, he could see some differences.

The Fairy's movement techniques were the same as the Flying Immortals Zhou Wen saw. They were both elegant and peerless, like fairies dancing in the clouds. Their stances were also very similar.

The only difference was the intent.

They were both fairies that flew, and Fairies originated from Buddhism. As for Flying Immortals, they were from Daoism. There was a huge gap between their auras, and it could even be said that they were completely different.

When Zhou Wen understood this, he immediately felt enlightened. He knew why he felt that something was amiss. It was normal for him to have a barrier when learning the Daoist's Flying Immortal stance with a Buddhist foundation.

During his battle with the Fairy, Zhou Wen constantly considered how he could resolve this problem. The more he practiced, the more he realized that the concept of Fairy was completely different from that of a Flying Immortal, maybe even the opposite. If he wanted to master the Flying Immortal Stance, he had to completely change the concept of his movement technique before he could truly master the Flying Immortal stance of Daoism.

Therefore, while fighting the Fairy, Zhou Wen constantly weakened the similarities between his movement techniques from the Fairy's, slowly wiping away the concept of the Fairy.

He planned to first master the Flying Immortal Stance before trying to see if he could fuse the two together.

This resulted in the situation that Xia Xuanyue saw. Zhou Wen's movement technique seemed to be getting worse as he practiced. It left Xia Xuanyue puzzled as to what Zhou Wen was doing.

After watching for a while, Zhou Wen's movement technique had become terrible. From Xia Xuanyue's point of view, the movement technique looked showy, but it lacked charm.

However, Xia Xuanyue soon realized that Zhou Wen's movement technique had changed again. His originally stiff movement technique seemed to become elegant again. However, this grace was different from that of a Fairy.

Strange? It seems to be a Fairy's movement technique, but why does it feel like the two movement techniques are completely different? Xia Xuanyue could sense a problem.

It was also an extremely elegant movement technique. The movement techniques of a Fairy had a dancing aura, but Zhou Wen's movement technique looked even more transcendent. It didn't have the feeling of decadence.

Zhou Wen was also pleasantly surprised. After completely erasing the concept of the Fairy movement technique, he realized that the barrier he had previously felt seemed to have vanished. His movement technique became more and more fluid.

Xia Xuanyue could not help but feel a little surprised. Despite Zhou Wen clearly imitating the Fairy's movement technique, he was able to cultivate something that was completely different. It was her first time seeing such a person.

This Zhou Wen is indeed different from the rest. It's no wonder even a peer like Lance was defeated by him. Xia Xuanyue nodded inwardly.

Ka-Cha!

Zhou Wen didn't plan on killing the Fairy, all he did was pass by the Fairy and the force from his clothes sliced through her body, causing her to die.

Having lost his opponent, Zhou Wen felt somewhat at a loss. At that moment, he was filled with inspiration and was just about to take another step forward when he suddenly lost his opponent. The inability to unleash his powers made him unable to vent his frustration.

Just as he was about to head to the depths of the cave to look for another Fairy, even if it was a few Fairy Beasts, he suddenly felt a sharp sword intent piercing through the air.

Zhou Wen was alarmed. He had been using the Truth Listener earring all this while, but he hadn’t discovered that a person was here. Although this had something to do with his focus while practicing the Flying Immortal Stance, it also meant that the person was not one to be trifled with.

The sword intent was like a tidal wave. A black-clothed woman used her finger as a sword as she cut through the air. Her figure was like a long beam of light as a cold wind blew.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 527 - Path to Snatching Heaven

Chapter 527 Path to Snatching Heaven

Zhou Wen was surprised to see that it was Xia Xuanyue.

The shocking scene of Xia Xuanyue having her ancient sword forcefully snatched by Demonic Neonate remained fresh in his mind.

Could it be that Xia Xuanyue knows that I snatched the ancient sword and specially came to settle scores with me? Zhou Wen originally wanted to explain, but Xia Xuanyue's sword intent was just too powerful and her movement techniques were too fast. He didn't even have the chance to explain.

Whether I'm right or wrong, I'll beat her first. The one with the biggest fist has the final say. Zhou Wen understood the logic and didn't wish to explain further. He used his newly learned Flying Immortal Stance to fight Xia Xuanyue.

Xia Xuanyue was many times more powerful than the Fairy. She immediately put immense pressure on Zhou Wen. Zhou Wen wasn't satisfied to begin with. So the pressure made him feel an indescribable joy as he displayed the Flying Immortal Stance he had learned.

Xia Xuanyue's movement technique was a secret art of the Xia family, named "Path to Snatching Heaven." Originally there was no path in the world. Living beings in this world needed to snatch a path from heaven to survive. That was why it had such a strange name as the Path to Snatching Heaven.

“Fighting all living beings for the space for survival means that only one can survive.” This was the first sentence of the Path to Snatching Heaven. Hence, the Xia family’s Path to Snatching Heaven could be said to be a battle for every inch of land. I’ll walk the path you take, leaving you nowhere to go. Thus, the Path to Snatching Heaven’s “snatching” was fully displayed.

Zhou Wen was initially delighted, but not long after, the carefree feeling vanished without a trace. He felt even more stifled than before.

Xia Xuanyue’s movement techniques were just too domineering. Zhou Wen could only use half his movement techniques most of the time before the subsequent variations were made impossible by Xia Xuanyue. Therefore Zhou Wen had to use another move.

And this was only the beginning. Xia Xuanyue’s movement technique was like a fearless bandit that constantly repressed Zhou Wen, preventing him from completing a single move. Typically, he had no choice but to change his stance midway.

There was no trace of an immortal air in the Flying Immortal’s stance at all. Even that elegant feeling disappeared. The decadence made one uncomfortable just watching it.

If others could feel aggrieved seeing this, Zhou Wen felt even worse.

However, Zhou Wen was the type of person who would take the risk. The more pressure Xia Xuanyue gave him, the more spirited he became. He had to resolve the problem.

The two of them fought silently in the cave. The space available to Zhou Wen was constantly squeezed and reduced. This was the first time he had encountered such a domineering movement technique. He felt like he had nowhere to go.

If it were someone with a weak will, they would probably give up on such a battle and fight Xia Xuanyue with brute force.

However, Zhou Wen didn't do that. He continued searching for a way to break through Xia Xuanyue's suppression.

Xia Xuanyue became more and more surprised. Zhou Wen was much younger than her—about ten years. He was about the same age as Xia Bing and company.

However, Zhou Wen's determination was far beyond what Xia Bing and company could compare with.

Under her movement technique, even Xia Bing who was well-versed in the Path to Snatching Heaven could only last for a few minutes at most, and her mental fortitude would waver.

However, despite having fought her for so long, Zhou Wen remained highly focused. He constantly tried various methods to compete with her. He didn't shrink back or risk his life irresponsibly. To be able to maintain such a firm attitude despite being constantly suppressed left Xia Xuanyue somewhat astonished.

It’s no wonder the An family thinks so highly of him. Just this firm willpower alone isn’t something an ordinary person can compare with. Resources can be obtained slowly. Essence Energy Arts, Companion Beasts, and so on can be slowly obtained. However, if a person’s willpower isn’t firm, no matter how many resources they have, it will be very difficult for them to achieve anything. If Zhou Wen doesn’t perish, he will definitely be a candidate to become a Mythical. Xia Xuanyue marveled inwardly.

Under Xia Xuanyue’s suppression, Zhou Wen’s Flying Immortal Stance constantly improved, becoming more and more otherworldly.

His heart calmed down as the pressure Xia Xuanyue exerted on him decreased.

When Xia Xuanyue saw that her Path to Snatching Heaven’s pressure on Zhou Wen was reducing, she raised the strength of her sword technique, instantly pressurizing Zhou Wen.

However, this pressure didn’t last long. Zhou Wen gradually stabilized the situation. His movement technique was becoming more and more extraordinary. It had the feeling of him ascending to the heavens, completely different from the previous Fairy movement technique.

Xia Xuanyue’s expression turned serious too. Xia Xuanyue, who had not used her Life Soul, started using her Life Soul.

A vertical eye appeared between her eyebrows. The eye did not have a pupil, but it was as clean as a mirror.

The moment Xia Xuanyue’s Life Soul appeared, Zhou Wen, who had stabilized the situation, was at a disadvantage.

This time, Zhou Wen felt like he was lacking in strength. No matter how he changed his movement technique or how perfectly he used the Flying Immortal Stance, he was still firmly suppressed by Xia Xuanyue.

The sword and person sent Zhou Wen into a repeated retreat. Even his path of retreat was sealed. It made Zhou Wen feel like he was trapped in a battle of beasts.

No… It still doesn’t work… Zhou Wen realized that no matter how he changed his movement technique, Xia Xuanyue seemed to be able to predict his movements and seal off all possibilities. It made Zhou Wen feel like a bird in a cage, or like a monkey in Buddha’s palm. He couldn’t escape no matter what.

This pressure was different from fighting a powerful Mythical creature. In his battle against a Mythical creature, he knew he was no match for it, so he could only do his best.

However, when facing Xia Xuanyue, he clearly felt that his strength was not any weaker than hers, but he felt as though he was restricted in every manner. It was as though countless invisible threads bound him, making it impossible for him to unleash his strength.

This sort of stifling feeling was worse than not having the ability to fight.

The Slaughterer Life Soul boosted Zhou Wen’s strength and speed, but it still wasn’t enough to break through Xia Xuanyue’s attacks. After repeatedly retreating, Zhou Wen was forced deep into the cave. Behind him was a stone wall, and there was more room for retreat.

Xia Xuanyue’s suppression continued. Even Xia Xuanyue had no choice but to admit that even among her peers, there weren’t many who could last so long under her sword.

This wasn’t a matter of strength, but the pressure one felt. It was very easy for others to give up on themselves and put their lives on the line.

And in a true battle between experts, every single move needed to be calculated. The so-called burst of strength and desperation never existed. The more impulsive one was, the more flaws one revealed—it made it easier to die.

Under extreme circumstances, the best solution was not to risk his life but to calm themselves down. Even when one was bleeding and injured, one had to constantly keep calm and think of a way to solve the problem. That was the only way out.

Under such pressure, Zhou Wen had already pushed the Flying Immortal Stance to its limits, but he was still unable to match up to Xia Xuanyue. This made him involuntarily think of the female immortal who had torn out of the door.

Perhaps only such a movement technique can break through the opponent’s suppression. Zhou Wen’s eyes burned as countless thoughts flashed through his mind.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 528 - Wanting to Win

Chapter 528 Wanting to Win

The image of the Fairy tearing out of the entrance had been replayed countless times in Zhou Wen’s mind. It wasn’t difficult to imitate the Fairy’s stance, but it was difficult for him to understand the insights and profundity within.

Through his understanding of the Flying Immortal Stance, Zhou Wen had gained some understanding of the fairy who tore out of the entrance. However, he didn’t know what effects these insights might have.

However, he was already in a desperate situation. Zhou Wen couldn’t care less. At the instant Xia Xuanyue’s Sword Technique sealed off all his escape routes, he used Transcendent Flying Immortal.

This Transcendent Flying Immortal technique was completely different from the previous Transcendent Flying Immortal. Although the moves were the same, the concept was completely different.

In the past, Transcendent Flying Immortal was extremely domineering, but now, it had a free and unrestrained feeling that transcended the mortal world. If one had to use a single word to describe it, Zhou Wen felt that this was what a true “immortal” was. Immortals in the traditional view of East District definitely weren’t overbearing in a peerless manner.

Immortals and deities were two completely different concepts. The power represented by deities made them revered by others because of the authority they had in certain aspects; therefore, deities were rulers.

The Chinese character for ‘immortal’ was the word ‘human’ and ‘mountain’ combined. The original meaning was about people seeking transcendence in the mortals. Immortality was simply a pursuit, a form of growth. From a certain perspective, one could even say that they were completely different from the deities who represented power.

Previously, Transcendent Flying Immortal was overly domineering and was closer to a deity. Now, the Transcendent Flying Immortal that Zhou Wen was using had the air of an immortal.

Xia Xuanyue’s Life Soul was known as Catoptric Eyes. It could allow her to enter an extraordinary ethereal state. Under that ethereal state, not only could she strengthen her physique, but it could also allow her to possess the power of clairvoyance. Although she could not really see the future, she could foresee her opponent’s actions, but it was not 100% accurate.

Relying on the power of the Catoptric Eyes and the Path to Snatching Heaven, coupled with her outstanding sword techniques, Xia Xuanyue was a rather terrifying person in her generation. Some even believed that she could be compared to An Tianzuo, who was about the same age.

In fact, even amongst the older generation, there weren’t many who could match Xia Xuanyue, let alone her peers.

Xia Xuanyue had already pushed Zhou Wen to a corner and was just about to stop. She wasn’t really planning on fighting a life and death battle with Zhou Wen to begin with.

She only felt that Zhou Wen desired more opportunities to use his movement technique. She also wanted to see how far he could go with it. Therefore, she took the initiative to be Zhou Wen’s sparring partner to force him to showcase his movement technique.

Zhou Wen’s performance had already surprised her. His movement technique was already comparable to the top movement techniques of the six families, but that was all.

Being able to match a top-notch movement technique didn’t mean that he could match a top-notch person. In fact, Zhou Wen’s movement technique wasn’t her match.

Just as she was about to stop, Xia Xuanyue’s pupils constricted. This was because her Catoptric Eyes suddenly seemed to lose their effect, preventing her from deducing Zhou Wen’s trajectory.

The Catoptric Eyes weren’t just having bouts of clairvoyance for no reason. An illusion that reflected in her eye constantly predicted her opponent’s reactions, allowing Xia Xuanyue to know what the opponent might do next so that she could be prepared in advance or deal with them in a targeted manner.

The deduction was extremely fast, just like a computer processing data. Feedback would appear in Xia Xuanyue’s mind in an instant. There was no need for complicated thoughts, as they could be synchronized with the battle.

However, the present situation was different. The Catoptric Eyes were unable to deduce Zhou Wen’s subsequent reactions. Or rather, there were too many subsequent reactions, so they were pointless as a reference.

Just like a person walking on a three-pronged road without considering the path they came from, Xia Xuanyue could easily determine which path the person would choose from the two paths. The chance of determining the correct path was very high, and it was also very easy to prepare for it. At most, she could make preparations for both paths.

But now, Zhou Wen seemed to be standing at a bustling fork with at least a hundred forks. Even if her Catoptric Eyes could deduce all the possibilities, it was meaningless. It would be impossible for Xia Xuanyue to seal off so many subsequent challenges.

The present Zhou Wen gave Xia Xuanyue such a feeling. His movement techniques appeared unpredictable, and even Xia Xuanyue couldn’t predict his trajectory.

At that moment, the boundary between the Dragon Gate Flying Immortal Art and the Transcendent Flying Immortal began to blur. There was no longer any difference between movement techniques and attack moves. It could be unleashed as he wished, but it possessed an unfathomable profundity.

Elegant!

Xia Xuanyue could only use that word to describe Zhou Wen’s movement technique. Regardless of how domineering her sword techniques and Path to Snatching Heaven were, they didn’t seem to pose a threat to him.

And Zhou Wen’s casual actions made Xia Xuanyue feel immense pressure. Wherever his clothes passed, cracks would appear in the void.

Xia Xuanyue realized that she couldn’t keep up with Zhou Wen’s speed.

She couldn’t help but turn serious. She treated Zhou Wen as an equal, not like before when she only wanted to see what Zhou Wen could accomplish.

Xia Xuanyue’s movement technique was domineering and Zhou Wen’s movement technique was elegant. The two completely different movement techniques constantly clashed, benefiting Zhou Wen and Xia Xuanyue greatly.

In terms of talent, Xia Xuanyue was not weaker than anyone else. Not many people in the Xia Clan could master the Path to Snatching Heaven, and Xia Xuanyue had gained basic mastery when she was just twelve.

But at her current level, be it her Path to Snatching Heaven movement technique or her own level or realm, she had reached a bottleneck.

To advance to the Mythical stage from the Epic stage was as difficult as ascending to the heavens. It was already difficult enough to nurture a Mythical pet. It required large amounts of resources, but for humans to advance to the Mythical stage on their own, it was hundreds or thousands of times more difficult than nurturing a Mythical pet.

There were many members of the six families with resources and talent, but in all these years, how many people could truly advance to the Mythical stage?

With a perfect Life Soul, unparalleled movement and sword techniques, and a Mythical pet, Xia Xuanyue, who wasn’t even thirty years old, was already standing at the pinnacle of the human race.

It’s lonely at the top. In Xia Xuanyue’s eyes, it was not a compliment, but a sense of sorrow. She had no path to herself.

Therefore, even when she lost her Mythical Companion Beast, Xia Xuanyue didn’t think too much about it. This was because she was always stuck. Even if she waited for a few years for a Mythical Companion Beast, things would still be the same. It didn’t make much of a difference to her.

However, today’s battle with Zhou Wen had stirred up her long-awaited desire for victory and a breakthrough. Even her long-tired thoughts seemed to become active.

Victory had become a matter of course in the past few years, not a pursuit. However, Xia Xuanyue was trying to win now.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 529 - John“s Arrival

Chapter 529 John“s Arrival

With the sword and body combined, Xia Xuanyue fused her sword techniques and movement techniques into one, no longer separating them from each other. The body was the sword, and the sword was the body. Only then could she resist Zhou Wen’s Transcendent Flying Immortal.

The two of them gradually realized that although their movement techniques looked completely different and were even diametrically opposite, they also seemed to complement each other.

The Path to Snatching Heaven was created on the principle of human strength and the concept of taking fate into one’s hands. As for Zhou Wen’s concept of immortal, it was also a product of human pursuit for transcendence.

However, one was to conquer nature while the other was to return to nature. It could be said that the same pursuit had led to two completely different paths.

In a battle between two techniques, it was difficult to determine who was better. No one could gain the upper hand.

Both of them were pursuing a breakthrough and wanted to suppress each other. However, with every bit of insight they gained, they found their opponents were stronger than before. No matter how hard they tried, they could not defeat the other.

This was the first time they had encountered such a tenacious opponent. Each of them racked their brains, pushed themselves to the limits, and constantly gained revelations and countermeasures.

The two figures in the Lotus Flower Cave constantly intersected like two streams of light. Wherever the streams of light went, forces such as saber beams and sword beams followed. Just the force produced by the fluttering of clothes could easily cut through rocks, leaving behind marks like sword slashes.

Wherever the two of them went, the Fairy Beasts and Fairies were torn apart by the blade beams. The surrounding rocks also shattered, and the Lotus Flower Cave was battle-scarred.

Zhou Wen had already grasped the concept of the fairy who tore through the entrance. He could perfectly match it with Transcendent Flying Immortal, but he had ultimately failed to defeat Xia Xuanyue. He couldn’t help but wonder…

I wonder if it’ll work if I fuse the two different concepts of Fairy and Flying Immortal into Transcendent Flying Immortal! Zhou Wen thought to himself.

This was definitely a crazy and bold idea. The moves were the same, but the concepts were different. It might not be impossible.

Zhou Wen’s mind was constantly bubbling as he waited for the opportunity.

Xia Xuanyue was also pondering. The Xia family was originally an ancient family in the East District. Before the dimensional storms, they had a deep cultural heritage.

Therefore, after the dimensional storms, the Xia family received Essence Energy Arts early. There were even many Essence Energy Arts and techniques that the Xia family had learned from ancient culture.

The Path to Snatching Heaven was an example. Many of the Xia family's Essence Energy Arts were the same. Outsiders only believed that the Xia family was powerful because it had produced one of the Six Federation Heroes.

However, they didn't know that even without the Xia family's hero, they wouldn't be any weaker.

Therefore, the Xia family had the confidence to abandon the famous Invincible Connate Divine Art. This was because even without the Invincible Connate Divine Art, the Essence Energy Art that the Xia family possessed was enough to make them stand tall in the world of experts.

The Essence Energy Art that Xia Xuanyue cultivated was one of the Essence Energy Arts that the Xia family had learned in ancient culture. It was called the "Great Emperor Sutra."

However, as it was derived from ancient culture, it wasn't as complete as a ready-made Essence Energy Art. After generations of the Xia family researched and improved it, the Great Emperor Sutra was completed in Xia Xuanyue's generation, with the Mortal, Legendary, and Epic stage done.

However, after reaching the Epic stage, no one knew how to proceed. The Great Emperor Sutra did not have any subsequent followup, so they had to rely on themselves to figure things out.

Xia Xuanyue had been studying the Great Emperor Sutra, but her improvement was limited. In the past couple of years, she had completely stopped progressing. Even though she had read a lot of ancient books, trying to find a direction for a breakthrough through was minuscule.

However, the battle with Zhou Wen gave Xia Xuanyue new ideas.

How difficult is it to snatch paths from the Heavens? As the leader of the human race, the Emperor is the one who will face Heaven’s Path most directly… A thought was sprouting in Xia Xuanyue’s mind.

The two figures continued to clash. Suddenly, the two of them seemed to come to a tacit understanding and simultaneously withdrew from the battle. Both of them stood at the end of the cave and stared at their opponent. There seemed to be a strange energy brewing within their bodies, like the calm before the storm.

They were in one of the dimensionalized Lotus Flower Caves. On top of the cave was an intricate lotus flower pattern, and there was even a Fairy flying around it.

As the two of them stood in silence, a distorted space suddenly appeared in the middle of the lotus flower pattern. A creature emerged from the lotus flower, appearing right in the middle of the two of them.

It was a Fairy. When the Fairy appeared, a terrifying power suddenly erupted from within the cave.

In an instant, the Fairy seemed to be sliced apart by countless sword beams, turning into fragments. Zhou Wen and Xia Xuanyue’s auras were also stirred as they moved involuntarily.

Zhou Wen’s body went from extreme stillness to extreme movement as he instantly streaked across the void. He looked elegant and graceful, but it made it impossible for anyone to react.

Despite being visible to the naked eye, one’s brain was unable to fire the order to react. One could only watch as the figure flitted away. The despair was enough to destroy a person’s soul.

However, not only did Xia Xuanyue react, but she also took a step forward. The sword intent on her seemed to shatter the heavens. With unparalleled conviction, she faced Zhou Wen’s terrifying strike.

Blood bloomed like flowers!

Xia Xuanyue’s finger stopped at Zhou Wen’s glabella. As for Zhou Wen’s finger, it was stuck to Xia Xuanyue’s swan-like neck. Drops of blood slid down their fingers.

…

John had come to Luoyang again. This was not his first time here, but his mood was completely different from the last time he came.

Zhou Wen, it’s time for you to pay the price for your actions. John walked on Luoyang’s streets. His handsome angel-like face attracted the attention of the passers-by.

There were many handsome men, but they had never seen anyone as handsome as John.

However, John was completely different from the princely gentleman he used to be. There was no expression on his face, and he was as perfect as a sculpture. His every move was elegant and dignified.

“Mr. John, welcome to Luoyang.” An Sheng stood in front of the car and greeted John with a smile.

Although he wasn’t as handsome as John, for some reason he didn’t seem to pale in comparison when standing in front of him.

Two girls who stood on the street opposite them were momentarily lost as to who was more charming.

“Where’s Zhou Wen?” John looked at An Sheng and asked coldly. It was as though he held zero concern about anyone apart from Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 530 - Divine Skill

Chapter 530 Divine Skill

Zhou Wen returned to his dorm and looked at the blood-colored avatar’s information with his mysterious phone. He had a smile that appeared as though he had hit the lottery.

Transcendent Flying Immortal: Mythical

Just one word made Zhou Wen feel sweet inside and out. The Dragon Gate Fairy Skill and Dragon Gate Flying Immortal Skill he had learned previously had vanished, leaving behind only one Transcendent Flying Immortal skill.

Furthermore, this skill didn’t have any rank. What was even more strange was that there wasn’t any Essence Energy consumption.

However, Zhou Wen soon understood why Transcendent Flying Immortal didn’t have any Essence Energy expenditure. This was because he could use it as he wished. He could freely control how much Essence Energy he expended, so there was naturally no limit to it.

If only advancing to the Mythical stage could be as simple as that, Zhou Wen thought greedily.

Unfortunately, his Life Soul hadn’t advanced to the Perfect stage yet. It was too early to think about the Mythical stage. His most important Life Soul, Slaughterer, was still in its Primordial Body form and had yet to advance.

Regardless, having a divine skill raises my strength greatly. If I can train all my skills to a divine level, I'll be really impressive. Zhou Wen tried some other skills and realized that it would be difficult for him to train his skills to Rank 10, much less advance to a Mythical level.

In fact, although a divine skill was much easier than advancing to the Mythical stage, not everyone could comprehend a divine skill at the Epic stage.

The reason Zhou Wen was able to comprehend it was partly because of his talent and partly because he had sufficient resources. If he didn't have so many foundation skills or hadn't watched the phenomenon of the fairy tearing out of the entrance, it would be impossible for him to advance to the Mythical level.

Another important reason was that his opponent was powerful enough. Moreover, his opponent's technique was a perfect match for his Transcendent Flying Immortal. Both sides had gained new insights before he advanced to the Mythical level.

Zhou Wen guessed that Xia Xuanyue's move had probably advanced to the Mythical level as well. However, she didn't have the mysterious phone to read the information about herself. Even so, she likely knew deep down what had happened.

The heritage of the six families is truly terrifying. Just any random woman has such capabilities. Zhou Wen increasingly felt that the six families had a strong foundation.

However, he was thinking too much. Xia Xuanyue was a top expert among the six families. They weren't as common as Zhou Wen imagined.

Just as he was admiring his divine skill, his phone suddenly rang. It was An Sheng.

“Young Master Wen, John has arrived in Luoyang. He came alone. He didn’t bring a single person from the Cape family,” An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen knew that An Sheng meant that since John had dared to come to Luoyang alone, he definitely wasn’t completely unprepared. He was also reminding Zhou Wen to be careful.

How could An Sheng know that Zhou Wen was more careful than he imagined? This was because Zhou Wen knew that he wasn’t only facing John, but also the terrifying Thearch.

“Where’s the battle location? What time is it?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Tomorrow. It’ll be held in the city’s arena. The venue has been set up. We definitely won’t let any external forces affect your battle with John. You can rest assured about this. We’ve even invited the Zhang family and the Xia family to watch the battle as witnesses to prevent the Cape family from making an issue afterward. People from the Dugu family will also come, but they haven’t arrived yet. They may appear tomorrow.” An Sheng explained the general situation.

“Ah Sheng, have you met John? Do you feel that he’s different from before?” When Zhou Wen asked this question, he was thinking about the words The Thearch had accidentally sent him.

“He’s indeed a little different. He looks very confident and his aura is very strong. It’s far from the standard of a Legendary. This person is definitely not simple," An Sheng said.

"Nothing else?" Zhou Wen asked.

"What else?" An Sheng didn't know what Zhou Wen was referring to.

"Do you feel that John's looks, temper, or voice are different from before?" Zhou Wen didn't know how to put it.

"His temper could be a little different from before. He looks cold, as though he doesn't care about anything. He's like a high and mighty god. The way he looks at us is like looking at ants," An Sheng said after some thought.

"It's not that. Let's put it this way. Don't you feel that he's a little effeminate?" Zhou Wen asked again.

"Not really," An Sheng said after some thought.

Zhou Wen thought, Could it be that The Thearch's message wasn't sent to John?

An Sheng said that he would pick Zhou Wen up tomorrow. He told him to make preparations for battle.

…

The biggest arena in Luoyang was mainly used for Companion Beasts to battle. It was mostly a performance-type battle, but the military had sealed the arena today. Only a few people who were invited could enter the arena.

Xia Xuanyue was among the crowd. As soon as she entered the arena, she saw a man with a sword on his back standing in front of the guardrail of the arena.

Dugu Ge? Xia Xuanyue was slightly surprised to see the man. She never expected him to come to Luoyang.

Dugu Ge was slightly older than Xia Xuanyue and An Tianzuo by a few years. He had just reached his thirties and Xia Xuanyue had always heard about this legend.

Among the six families, Dugu Ge had a very special nickname: “The only man in the Dugu family who doesn’t cower.”

It wasn’t that the men of the Dugu family were really cowardly. However, they specialized in movement techniques, so when others fought with the Dugu family, they couldn’t even touch their bodies. It was extremely depressing and humbling, which was why they mocked the Dugu family for being cowardly.

In such a family clan, Dugu Ge was quite different. He didn’t use his movement techniques to win battles. When he was out traveling, he had defeated the six families and made them accept the loss wholeheartedly. Among those around the same age as Dugu Ge, no one could beat him.

Unfortunately, Dugu Ge was a little older than them and didn’t join the battle between An Tianzuo and the six families’ younger generation. The six families believed that Dugu Ge was definitely no weaker than An Tianzuo and might even be stronger.

Back when Dugu Ge went to the Xia family to challenge them, Xia Xuanyue was only ten years old. However, she had a deep impression of him because even her cousin, whom she had idolized since she was young, was unable to defeat Dugu Ge.

In recent years, she had rarely heard of Dugu Ge. She heard that he spent time conquering a large dimensional zone in the South District. She never expected to see him here.

“I remember you. You’re Loser’s sister, right?” Dugu Ge looked at Xia Xuanyue and recalled.

“My brother’s name is Xia Liuchuan, not Loser.” Xia Xuanyue said in a depressed tone.

“It’s all the same.” Dugu Ge said that and turned to look at the arena. He saw a handsome man standing in the arena.

“That young man from the Cape’s family is very scary,” Dugu Ge said to Xia Xuanyue.

Xia Xuanyue was slightly surprised. She didn’t expect Dugu Ge to have such a high opinion of John. It was truly terrifying for Dugu Ge to say the word ‘scary’.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 531 - Inside the Cocoon

Chapter 531 Inside the Cocoon

Xia Xuanyue could not help but look at John. Although he used to have the title of Saint, titles were just a joke in the six families.

Ignoring Xia Xuanyue's generation, even amongst John's peers, there was also a freak like Lance. John paled in comparison.

Now that John had actually been praised by Dugu Ge, Xia Xuanyue could not help but take a closer look at him.

John stood in the arena like an ancient Greek statue. Despite just standing there, he gave off a beautiful, holy feeling. His aura was indeed very strong, making him likely to be at the Epic stage. However, Xia Xuanyue did not know what horror Dugu Ge was referring to.

"Why do you say that?" Xia Xuanyue walked up to Dugu Ge and asked curiously.

"He has a special power," Dugu Ge said as he looked at John.

"Special?" Xia Xuanyue did not understand what Dugu Ge meant by special.

Many Essence Energy Arts, Essence Energy Skills, Pets, Life Providences, and Life Souls could be called special powers. This description was just too general.

Dugu Ge said, “I entered a dimensional zone with Loser. In that dimensional zone, I found a black cocoon. Did he tell you about it?”

“No, but I’ve heard of such cocoons. The six families have similar records. There will be similar cocoons in certain mysterious dimensional zones. However, there will be powerful Mythical creatures nearby. No one knows what’s inside the cocoons. Most people have guessed that they might be the descendants of Mythical creatures,” said Xia Xuanyue.

“No, they are definitely not the descendants of ordinary Mythical creatures. Back then, Loser and I cracked a black cocoon and saw the creature inside. It was completely different from the Mythical creature that protected it. It was an even more terrifying existence,” Dugu Ge said as his gaze landed on John. He said affirmatively, “There’s a similar aura on John, but it’s not quite the same.”

“What kind of creature is it? Why has my brother never mentioned it?” Xia Xuanyue asked.

“I don’t know. We originally thought that with our strength and Mythical pets, it wouldn’t be difficult for us to take the black cocoon even if we couldn’t defeat the Mythical creature guarding it. In the end, we used all our strength and only managed to crack open a tiny hole. We were nearly killed by the creature outside the black cocoon. As for the creature inside the black cocoon, it just waved its hand,” Dugu Ge paused before continuing, “and Loser suffered serious injuries. You can say that we barely escaped death. He recuperated at my house for nearly six months before he recovered.”

“I remember now. A year ago, my brother went to the South District. He said that he would be traveling for a month or two, but he only came back after almost a year. It should be that time, right?” Xia Xuanyue paused for a moment before continuing, “Ever since he came back, my brother seems to have changed. He’s checking up on documents every day as if he’s researching something. He’s acting mysteriously. When I ask him, he doesn’t tell me what he’s studying.”

“It was probably then. Anyone who has seen such a terrifying creature would not be indifferent. However, it was too dangerous. He probably didn’t want you to worry and was afraid that you would stop him from going again. That’s why he didn’t tell you,” said Dugu Ge.

“You’re saying that John has the aura of that kind of creature?” Xia Xuanyue looked at John with a strange expression.

“Yes, but it’s different. I’m not sure if it’s the same aura,” Dugu Ge said.

“What are you talking about?” A voice came from behind. A long-haired man in a robe walked over.

The man looked ordinary, but his eyes were exceptionally good-looking. They weren’t considered big, nor were they double eyelids, but the contours were especially aesthetic.

“Zhang Chunqiu, why are you willing to come out?” Dugu Ge looked at the man in surprise.

Dugu Ge hadn’t lost when he challenged the young scions of the six families years ago. However, there were also people who could fight him to a draw. Zhang Chunqiu was one of them.

In that era, the geniuses of the six families were numerous. They were known as the Golden Generation. Perhaps that generation had used up all the luck of the six families, and with four to five years as a demarcation line, the number of outstanding people who were born after that was few and far between. When it came to John’s generation, only Lance was outstanding, while the others were lacking.

On the contrary, amazing geniuses outside of the six great family clans appeared.

“The An family requested our Zhang family to bear witness, so I came.” Zhang Chunqiu walked to Dugu Ge’s side and sat down in the spectator stand.

“Over such a small event, you came instead of Zhang Xiao?” Dugu Ge didn’t believe it.

“The world hasn’t been peaceful recently, and the Fiend Tomb has been stirring. With the appearance of the black cubes, I feel like something big is about to happen, so I came out to take a look,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Something happened with the Fiend Tomb?” Dugu Ge and Xia Xuanyue were shocked.

They knew that the Zhang family had been guarding the Fiend Tomb for years. Many generations of people had ended up being buried there, which was why the creatures in the Fiend Tomb were unable to cause trouble in the human world.

If something really happened to the Fiend Tomb, the Zhang family would definitely be affected.

“It’s temporarily stabilized, so I can come out for a walk.” Zhang Chunqiu’s gaze landed on John, and his eyes narrowed slightly. “This John has something interesting about him.”

“You can tell, too?” Dugu Ge sat down beside Zhang Chunqiu.

Xia Xuanyue also sat down. Compared to Zhang Chunqiu and Dugu Ge’s generation, her talent and strength were not inferior. However, she lacked their experience.

Years ago, there were very few Mythical Companion Eggs amongst the six families. It was unlike now where they could just give Xia Xuanyue a Mythical Companion Egg.

Back then, if they wanted a Mythical Companion Egg, they had to take the risk in the dimensional zones. This resulted in a difference in experience.

However, their generation was also the most tragic generation when it came to deaths. Very few managed to retrieve Mythical Creatures alive.

“I just came to take a look since it’s along the way. I didn’t expect to see anything so interesting. However, his opponent is a little weak. I wonder if he can force that thing out,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Not necessarily. Although I don’t know how terrifying that thing is, John’s opponent is definitely not weak,” Xia Xuanyue said.

Zhang Chunqiu smiled. “Zhou Wen should be Wang Mingyuan’s student, right? Speaking of which, I really wanted to meet Wang Mingyuan. Unfortunately, I missed the opportunity.”

Dugu Ge said, “To be able to defeat Lance, he can’t be weak. However, he hasn’t had much time to grow. I wonder how far he has progressed.”

As the trio spoke, Zhou Wen entered the venue. Everyone couldn’t help but look over.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 532 - The Appearance of the Six-Winged Seraphim

Chapter 532 The Appearance of the Six-Winged Seraphim

“Tsk, look at his Life Providence. He’s indeed extraordinary. It’s not easy to have one even among the six families,” Zhang Chunqiu said with narrowed eyes as he sized up Zhou Wen.

“This person’s aura is deep and reserved, and his eyes are resolute. If he doesn’t die, he will definitely be able to achieve something in the future.” Dugu Ge nodded.

“In recent years, outstanding talents have appeared from all over the world. On the contrary, although there are many talented people born in our six families, they lack the light from providence and perseverance,” Zhang Chunqiu sighed.

Xia Xuanyue and Dugu Ge remained silent. What Zhang Chunqiu said was something that they were all worried about. The six families seemed to be getting worse with each generation, and they no longer seemed favored by providence.

However, this was a problem that no one could solve. If one’s son was lacking, the father could only worry.

“Zhou Wen, we finally meet again.” John was standing quietly in the square with his eyes closed. The moment Zhou

Wen stepped into the venue, he opened his eyes and stared intently at him.

“I don’t want to see you that much.” As Zhou Wen spoke, he couldn’t help but glance at John’s crotch.

Fortunately, he couldn’t see anything through his clothes. Of course, Zhou Wen only subconsciously took a glance. He didn’t really want to see anything that burned his eyes, so he didn’t use Truth Listener’s hearing ability to take a gander at that spot.

“From today onwards, you probably won’t have the chance to see me again. Today, I’m going to make you repay what you owe me and my sister, along with the interest. I’ll let you have a taste of having your Essence Energy sea crippled. That feeling of living a life worse than death,” John said coldly.

“I’m afraid I’ll disappoint you,” Zhou Wen said firmly.

It was easy to kill Zhou Wen, but it was impossible to cripple his Essence Energy sea because he didn’t have any.

John didn’t say a word as he walked towards Zhou Wen.

An Sheng led many soldiers to guard the stands and he watched every action.

In the An family’s study, An Tianzuo was watching the battle through the surveillance footage from his phone.

In the cave in Chess Mountain, The Thearch was also looking at her phone. The scene was the same as An Tianzuo’s phone.

“You won’t be able to escape from my palm.” Upon seeing Zhou Wen on the screen, The Thearch’s seductive eyes narrowed slightly.

“Zhou Wen, accept the judgment of God,” John said as he raised his hand up high. Holy light spewed out from his hand and transformed into a towering Blade of Holy Light that slashed down at Zhou Wen. It was the famous Holy Light Judgment of the Cape family. One had to possess the hero bloodline of the Cape family to cultivate this terrifying Essence Energy Skill.

Zhou Wen had seen this move before, but it wasn’t as terrifying as it was now. Clearly, John’s strength had already reached the peak of the Epic stage.

Zhou Wen had no intention of retreating. He also raised his arm and slashed out a blood-colored wheel. It was none other than the Demonic Astral Wheel.

The blood-red wheel of light collided with the Blade of Holy Light and shattered with a terrifying explosion. The light blade and the light wheel tore apart, forming a shock wave that directly lifted the ground of the arena. The surface of the steel-concrete structure ebbed like a wave.

With just one strike, the ground was destroyed.

“Not bad. At this age, he has already reached the Epic stage. He’s much stronger than we were back then,” said Zhang Chunqiu with a smile.

Dugu Ge nodded slightly. “He’s indeed very strong. I wonder if he has a Mythical Companion Beast?”

“It’s hard to say. An Tianzuo is a little terrifying. Perhaps he can get a Mythical Companion Egg for Zhou Wen,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

In the arena, John waved his arms. He repeatedly cast Holy Light Judgment attacks at him. Such a terrifying power seemed to be casually unleashed.

Zhou Wen had no intention of drawing his saber. At the same time, he brandished the Demonic Astral Wheel to fight John, shattering all the Holy Light Judgment attacks.

Dugu Ge and the others originally thought that such a battle would not last for long because the Holy Light Judgment consumed a huge amount of Essence Energy. Even with the hero bloodline and constitution of the Cape family, it was impossible to use it multiple times.

Although they had never seen Zhou Wen’s Essence Energy Skill before, it was clearly an extremely draining Essence Energy Skill for it to be able to resist the Holy Light Judgment. It also couldn’t be delivered forever.

But soon, they were surprised to discover that both John and Zhou Wen were able to continuously slash out Essence Energy Skills without any signs of exhaustion. In a blink of an eye, more than ten Holy Light Judgment attacks and Demonic Astral Wheels were slashed out.

The entire arena was a mess. The terrifying collision created huge craters in the ground.

Seeing that Holy Light Judgment couldn’t gain the upper hand, John didn’t plan on continuing. He stopped and stared at Zhou Wen. “I never expected you to come this far. It looks like I’ve underestimated you.”

“Your improvement isn’t slow either, but is that all?” Zhou Wen stared at John.

Although repeated unleashing of such Essence Energy attacks was indeed very powerful, it was nothing to Zhou Wen.

If John had really contacted The Thearch, his strength wouldn’t be that simple. After all, The Thearch knew that Zhou Wen had two Mythical pets—Six-Winged and Truth Listener.

Under such circumstances, The Thearch still believed that he was no match for John and even wanted him to beg for mercy at Chess Mountain. No matter how he thought about it, it was impossible for John’s strength to be limited to this.

Furthermore, Zhou Wen also sensed a familiar yet unfamiliar aura from John.

John didn’t fly into a rage because of Zhou Wen’s provocation. His expression didn’t change as he looked up at the sky and said, “Zhou Wen, you were indeed stronger than me in the past. You are indeed a genius. Even I have to admire you for reaching such a level in such a short period of time.”

“What you said is rather pertinent,” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

John continued expressionlessly, “But it’s different now. No matter how talented you are and how hard you work, you’re ultimately a mere mortal.”

“As for me, I’m the one chosen by God. I’ll become God.” John’s eyes turned fervent as a terrifying holy light rose from his body. White holy light illuminated the entire arena. The ordinary soldiers could not even open their eyes.

“What’s that? A Mythical Companion Beast?” When the light weakened, everyone stared at the spot behind John in shock.

A six-winged seraphim with holy light was floating behind him.

When the ordinary soldiers saw the six-winged seraphim, they actually had the urge to kneel and worship it.

Dugu Ge and Zhang Chunqiu looked at each other and saw the surprise and excitement in each other’s eyes. They had clearly realized something.

Zhou Wen also stared at the six-winged seraphim. He also sensed that there was something amiss with the six-winged seraphim’s aura. It wasn’t an ordinary Companion Beast, but it was somewhat similar to the creatures inside the white cocoons.

“What a terrifying aura. Is it a Mythical Companion Beast?” Xia Xuanyue had never seen the creatures inside the cocoons, so she naturally didn’t know what it was.

“No, that’s an existence even more terrifying than a Mythical Companion Beast,” said Dugu Ge.

“Could it be…” Xia Xuanyue immediately guessed what it was.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 533 - Mythical Power

Chapter 533 Mythical Power

John opened his arms as though he was hugging the sky. The six-winged seraphim transformed into feathers that flew towards his body, turning into an angel armor that enveloped John’s body.

However, that angelic armor seemed to grow on John’s body and had already become a part of him. The six wings of the seraphim angel unfurled behind him, exuding a holy glow. Together with the holy armor and his handsome face, he really looked like a god.

Everyone’s eyes were focused on John. Even a blind man could sense the terrifying energy fluctuations emanating from him.

“Is that the creature inside the cocoon? It doesn’t look like a Companion Beast, but it seems different from ordinary dimensional creatures.” Xia Xuanyue frowned as she pondered.

Dugu Ge and Zhang Chunqiu looked at John without saying a word, but the look in their eyes was a little strange.

An Sheng looked at Zhou Wen worriedly. John’s situation was indeed a little odd. He wasn’t sure if Zhou Wen could handle it.

An Tianzuo looked at the surveillance footage on his phone and frowned.

The six angelic wings on John’s back flapped slightly as his body floated in midair. He looked coldly at Zhou Wen and said, “Zhou Wen, I’ll tell you now what the difference between a god and a human is.”

With that said, John extended his hand and aimed his palm at Zhou Wen.

John shot out a beam of light from his palm. It was unbelievably fast, as though it was holy light that could destroy everything.

Boom!

The entire arena exploded like a volcanic eruption. The protective shield shattered and the arena shook.

“Mythical power,” Dugu Ge said with a serious expression.

“It’s indeed power at the Mythical stage.” Zhang Chunqiu nodded slightly.

Xia Xuanyue had had a Mythical Companion Beast before and knew that John’s strike was definitely at the Mythical stage. She couldn’t help but be alarmed.

The strength at the Mythical stage wasn’t new, but typically speaking, it was released from a Mythical Companion Beast. However, John released the strike himself; it wasn’t a Companion Beast’s strength.

There was a huge difference. No matter how powerful a Companion Beast was, it was only a tool. It was like a firearm. The person who used the firearm didn’t become stronger.

But now, John displayed strength that showed that he had become much stronger. Not only did he improve his destructive power, but his physical constitution had also increased to another level.

The explosion dimmed and everyone immediately realized that Zhou Wen hadn’t been injured by the terrifying force. A gigantic white six-winged dragon appeared in front of him. It was the dragon that had blocked John’s attack.

“Six-Winged Guardian Dragon? So that’s Zhou Wen’s Companion Beast!” Dugu Ge said in surprise.

Xia Xuanyue and Zhang Chunqiu were somewhat surprised. They never expected the first Mythical Companion Beast on the ranking to belong to Zhou Wen. They originally imagined that it belonged to a local bigwig.

Inside Chess Mountain, The Thearch saw Zhou Wen’s Six-Winged Guardian Dragon through the video on her phone. She curled her lips and said, “Isn’t it a little too naive to use a Six-Winged Guardian Dragon to fight a Guardian?”

John looked at the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and said coldly, “So that Six-Winged Guardian Dragon belongs to you. Unfortunately, even if you have a powerful Mythical pet, it’s impossible to change the fate of defeat.”

With that said, John made the sign of the cross on the front of his chest. The six wings on his back glowed brightly as terrifying energy fluctuations condensed once again, bursting forth with even more terrifying light waves than before.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon roared as the sanctified body burst forth with a blazing-white flame, colliding with John’s beam.

Boom!

The two forces collided and exploded. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s huge body tore open a deep ditch on the ground. It retreated more than ten meters before finally stopping.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon roared angrily. It flapped its six wings and charged towards John.

John’s expression did not change, but his body disappeared as if he had teleported. When he reappeared, he was already in front of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. Using terrifying holy light, his fist struck the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s chin.

The massive body of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was thrown in the air by the uppercut.

John’s figure flashed again and he arrived in front of the Six-Winged Dragon that was rising up like a ray of light. He punched out expressionlessly, causing the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon to sway left and right. Dragon blood spewed wildly from its mouth, and finally, John punched its head and sent it flying.

Boom!

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon crashed into the spectator stands, causing half of the arena to collapse.

The thing An Sheng was worried about happened in the end. Even the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon couldn’t match John.

John, who was floating in the air, was now like a saint that had descended upon the world to represent God.

“What are your thoughts on this?” Dugu Ge asked Zhang Chunqiu.

“Very strong, but it’s still within the scope of a Mythical stage,” Zhang Chunqiu said after some thought.

Dugu Ge nodded in agreement before saying, “Unfortunately, Zhou Wen’s Mythical Companion Beast has been defeated. He shouldn’t be able to continue fighting. It will be difficult for him to force out the full strength of that thing.”

“It’s indeed a pity.” Zhang Chunqiu also felt that the duel would come to an end.

“I don’t think Zhou Wen will admit defeat so easily,” Xia Xuanyue suddenly said.

“Although that Six-Winged Guardian Dragon still has the ability to fight, there’s no point in continuing the battle. It will ultimately lose,” Dugu Ge said.

He was mistaken. Xia Xuanyue’s comment about Zhou Wen not admitting defeat wasn’t because the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon still had the ability to do combat. She was referring to Zhou Wen himself.

However, Xia Xuanyue knew that there was no point in explaining, so she decided not to say anything, and continued watching patiently.

“Zhou Wen, do you now know the difference between a god and a human? Even if you can advance to the Epic stage and possess a Mythical pet, you are still an ant in front of God.” John wasn’t in a hurry to cripple Zhou Wen. He wanted Zhou Wen to completely collapse in despair.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon crawled up from the collapsed pit and roared as it charged forward. However, Zhou Wen extended his hand and beckoned for it. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon transformed into six Holy Flaming Dragon Wings that appeared behind him.

Although the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon still had the ability to fight, its Strength, Speed, and other aspects were inferior to John’s. There was no point in continuing the battle.

“I don’t see a god. I only see a lunatic with greater strength,” Zhou Wen said indifferently as he looked at John.

His words made Dugu Ge laugh. “This Zhou Wen is rather interesting. I’m beginning to like him.”

Zhang Chunqiu also said with a smile, “He’s right. John’s strength has only reached the peak of a divine level, but his realm and technique haven’t reached that stage. It’s indeed a little too arrogant to say that he’s God. However, sometimes, when the difference in strength reaches a certain level, even if the opponent is stupid, it’s still very difficult to win.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 534 - Holy Angel“s Redemption

Chapter 534 Holy Angel“s Redemption

Zhou Wen’s words didn’t anger John. John only sneered and said, “Then, let’s give it a try and see how strong the lunatic you’re talking about is.”

With that said, John’s figure instantly appeared in front of Zhou Wen with a flash of light. His palm, brimming with holy light, grabbed at Zhou Wen’s neck at an unbelievable speed.

The dragon wings on Zhou Wen’s back flapped as he used his movement technique to dodge John’s palm. However, he didn’t have any intention of retaliating. All he did was smile at John.

“Why don’t you draw your saber?” John asked as he stared at the Bamboo Blade at Zhou Wen’s waist.

“If I use my saber, you would have already been defeated. What’s the point?” Zhou Wen said seriously.

“Even I like him a little now. I thought that only people from our Zhang family would be so good at bragging.” Zhang Chunqiu laughed.

Upon hearing Zhou Wen’s words, An Sheng’s heart relaxed, but he was still worried for him.

An Tianzuo frowned and muttered to himself, “What an arrogant brat.”

John’s pupils constricted when he heard that, but he didn’t fly into a rage. He just stared coldly at Zhou Wen and said, “I hope you still have the courage to say those words later.”

With that said, without waiting for Zhou Wen to react, holy light erupted from his body. Six angelic wings extended horizontally as his body suspended in the air like a javelin. He looked like a humanoid cross as his whole body emitted a terrifying glow.

Beams of light erupted from his body, enveloping the entire fighting arena like a storm. Each sword beam contained an unmatchable amount of power of holy.

Zhou Wen’s expression didn’t change as he flapped his six wings behind him. His body fluttered gracefully amidst the rain of light swords. It didn’t seem as though he was fast, but he managed to dodge the rain of light swords.

Rumble!

The light sword rain landed on the ground and blasted the ground. Every light sword had the power of the Mythical stage.

Zhang Chunqiu suddenly looked at Dugu Ge and said, “Is this Zhou Wen your Dugu family’s illegitimate son?”

“What do you mean?” Dugu Ge asked with a frown.

“If not, why would he have such a freakish movement technique? Such a movement technique probably surpasses the other families. Only your Dugu family can compete with him in terms of movement techniques.” Zhang Chunqiu said.

Dugu Ge stared at Zhou Wen for a long while before saying, “His movement technique is indeed impressive, but it’s not our Dugu family’s style.”

Zhang Chunqiu nodded and said, “Although Zhou Wen is a little arrogant, what he said wasn’t wrong. Compared to him, John’s physical constitution is only slightly better. He’s slightly stronger and faster. If his constitution were at the same level, John would probably be defeated by him in seconds. The An family has really picked up a treasure this time. It’s no wonder they would rather offend the Senate to protect Zhou Wen.”

“That’s right, but you and I know very well that John’s strength is immensely powerful. These techniques aren’t enough to make up for the gap between them. Under such inequality, it’d be fine even if John made a hundred mistakes. If Zhou Wen makes one mistake, he might die,” Dugu Ge said seriously.

“Let’s wait and see. I just find this Zhou Wen more and more interesting. It’s no wonder he can become friends with my sister,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Huh? Your little princess actually has a friend?” Dugu Ge and Xia Xuanyue widened their eyes as if they had heard something unbelievable.

Zhang Chunqiu seemed to know that he had said something wrong and could only say, “They only met a few times by chance, but their relationship isn’t bad. I came to see what kind of person Zhou Wen is.”

“You were worried that Zhou Wen would get close to your family’s little princess and are afraid that he has other motives, so you came to investigate, right?” Dugu Ge said with a twitch of his lips.

Zhang Chunqiu smiled and said, “Don’t make it sound so bad. I just came to take a look.”

Seeing that the light sword rain wasn’t able to injure Zhou Wen, the angelic wings on John’s back spewed out terrifying flames, propelling his body to move at high speed as he slashed at Zhou Wen with terrifying power.

Zhou Wen had no intention of retaliating. All he did was constantly use his movement technique to dodge John’s barrage of attacks.

John’s every strike was extremely terrifying, reducing the arena into pieces. The ordinary soldiers guarding here had already retreated from the arena under An Sheng’s orders. They waited outside the arena while only An Sheng and a few Epic experts remained inside to guard the arena.

Xia Xuanyue and the rest had no choice but to retreat a little, before reaching the wall at the back of the arena to avoid being caught in the crossfire of the terrifying battle.

“What a powerful force. The power the six-winged seraphim gave John really makes me envious,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“No matter how strong the power is, it depends on who’s using it. John clearly doesn’t have the ability to use such power. It’s a complete waste. If it were me, I would have long beaten Zhou Wen to the ground,” said Dugu Ge.

“Not necessarily.” Xia Xuanyue unhappily disagreed.

Zhou Wen’s movement technique had been upgraded alongside her. If Dugu Ge said that Zhou Wen was lacking, wouldn’t it also mean she was lacking?

Zhang Chunqiu praised, “Zhou Wen’s movement technique is truly powerful. Under such a huge disparity in strength, he hasn’t been injured at all. I’ve only seen such movement techniques in your Dugu family before.”

Under John’s storm-like attacks, Zhou Wen’s body flew up. He didn’t seem to be fast, but John didn’t even touch his clothes.

John was very calm in the beginning. He wanted to use various techniques and Essence Energy Skills to hit Zhou Wen, but no matter what technique or Essence Energy Skill he used, he failed to injure him at all.

“Zhou Wen, you should be proud to be able to let me use the power that truly belongs to God.” John stopped his attack as his eyes shimmered. The six angelic wings unfurled behind him like a blooming flower.

“Is it finally coming?” Zhang Chunqiu stopped smiling and stared at John solemnly.

Dugu Ge’s expression turned serious as he stared at John without a word.

Xia Xuanyue did the same. They knew very well that physical constitution was only one aspect of the difference between the Mythical stage and the Epic stage. It wasn’t a very important aspect.

The true gap between the Mythical stage and the Epic stage was the miraculous power of the Wheel of Destiny.

Although the Wheel of Destiny of every Mythical creature was different, there was a commonality. The miraculous power was something that no living creature under the Mythical stage could withstand.

The holy light that erupted from John’s body intensified. The six angelic wings on his back turned into an ancient door of light.

“A miracle… Holy Angel’s Redemption…” With John’s mighty voice, the door of light behind him slowly opened, and a brilliant holy light shot out from it.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 535 - Are There Conditions?

Chapter 535 Are There Conditions?

Zhou Wen wanted to dodge it, but the light that shot out from the door of light was at literally the speed of light. Unless Zhou Wen's speed reached the speed of light, it was impossible for him to dodge.

The light shone on Zhou Wen as his strength erupted. He wore his heavy armor and soft armor as he attempted to forcefully tank the light.

However, the resplendent light didn't harm his body. It only made Zhou Wen feel an irresistible force pulling him towards the door of light.

Others only saw Zhou Wen being illuminated by the door's light before flying towards it.

An Sheng's expression changed. Although he didn't know what was inside the door of light, he knew that he couldn't let Zhou Wen take the risk. He flew into the arena.

A few Epic officers in charge of managing the situation rushed over with An Sheng.

"Please stop. I admit defeat for Zhou Wen." As An Sheng charged at Zhou Wen, he shouted at John.

A cold glint flashed in John's eyes as the door of light opened. The light shot towards An Sheng and company.

An Sheng’s gaze focused. At the instant the light scattered, he reached out and pressed down on the ground. His body instantly drilled underground, but the few Epic officers were illuminated by the light. They couldn’t help but fly into the door of light. No matter how they struggled, it was useless.

An Sheng, who had drilled underground, appeared from another side. The light from the door scattered down again, sucking him up.

“It’s over. John is indeed at the true Mythical stage. That should be the power of the Wheel of Destiny,” Zhao Chunqiu said.

“It’s truly shocking that the creature inside a cocoon is able to make a person who recently had his Essence Energy sea crippled become a Mythical expert,” said Dugu Ge after some thought.

Xia Xuanyue was hesitant, unsure if she should help Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen tried several methods, but he failed to escape the power of the light. He slowly flew towards the door of light.

There was a bright divine light inside the door of light. Although he couldn’t see what was inside, he was certain that there would definitely be a great horror there. If he was pulled into it, he would probably die.

Truth Listener’s Evil Nullification Life Soul didn’t work. Zhou Wen switched his Essence Energy Art to Dao Body, and Zero Taboo immediately lit up like a light bulb.

Almost at the same time, the irresistible suction force from the light disappeared.

However, Zhou Wen remained unperturbed as he continued slowly flying towards the door of light.

“John, do you really want to kill me?” Zhou Wen asked John.

“You will get off lightly if you just die,” John said coldly.

“If you want to kill me, do it. They have nothing to do with this. Let them go,” Zhou Wen added.

“They deserve death for protecting you. Besides, it’s An Sheng who crippled my sister’s Essence Energy sea. He naturally has to repay the debt,” said John.

“In that case, it’s either you die or I die today!” Zhou Wen gripped the Bamboo Blade tightly.

“There’s only your death. I will not die. You don’t have the right to talk about life and death with God. Go to heaven in peace. That’s your final escape.” John stood in front of the door of light and stretched out his hand like a messenger welcoming a soul into heaven.

“I don’t plan on going to a place like heaven. Can you pass the message to the owner of Heaven? Tell him to visit me in the mortal world when he has the time.” As Zhou Wen spoke, he had already arrived in front of the door of light. With the Bamboo Blade in hand, he pulled out his saber.

With all his Strength, Speed, and Essence Energy erupting, he delivered a full-powered strike. Zhou Wen’s figure streaked across the void.

John’s eyes widened as though he couldn’t believe that Zhou Wen could still launch an attack despite the Holy Angel’s Redemption. He wanted to move and resist the strike.

However, he realized that although he had seen the saber, his brain’s reaction speed was unable to keep up with it. He could only watch helplessly as the saber sliced at his neck, but he could not move. His face was twisted with horror.

Almost at the same time Zhou Wen attacked, a white figure with a blood beam behind him tore through the air and landed on the outer wall of the arena. It was none other than An Tianzuo, who had fused with his Life Soul.

Xia Xuanyue, Dugu Ge, and Zhang Chunqiu also looked at Zhou Wen’s strike in shock. According to what they knew, a creature that wasn’t a Mythical existence should not have the ability to resist a Wheel of Destiny’s miracle. They found it unbelievable that Zhou Wen could actually swing his saber amidst the miracle.

Furthermore, the strike was so fast and stunning. It seemed to exceed the speed of the Epic stage. Only Xia Xuanyue understood that Zhou Wen’s move had reached the level of a Mythical technique.

John was too close to Zhou Wen. Even though he had divine-level speed, he still couldn’t dodge Zhou Wen’s strike.

However, she was also astonished. Even if it was a divine technique, it was impossible for it to violate the miraculous power of the Wheel of Destiny. There had to be other reasons why Zhou Wen could slash out with his saber in the Holy Angel’s Redemption. Even Xia Xuanyue couldn’t guess the reason.

Wherever the blade beam passed, red blood bloomed like flowers on the parts of John’s neck that weren’t protected by the angel armor.

John covered his neck with his hand as he stared at Zhou Wen in disbelief. The six angelic wings on his back had stopped circulating as the door of light shattered and dissipated.

An Sheng and the others who had been sucked up by the light recovered their control and landed in the ruined arena. They looked at Zhou Wen and John in shock.

John held his neck, but blood continued gushing out. He wanted to say something and opened his mouth but did not make a sound. Blood gushed out.

The ferocious-looking John suddenly released the hand that was covering his neck and pounced at Zhou Wen, as though he wanted to fight him to the death.

However, when he pounced at Zhou Wen, the angelic armor on his body automatically dispelled and returned to the six-winged seraphim form as it floated in the air.

Having lost the power of the six-winged seraphim, John, who was already badly injured, fell from the sky before he could reach Zhou Wen.

Boom!

John slammed heavily onto the ground and struggled to get up. His eyes stared intently at the six-winged seraphim who floated in the air. He was filled with confusion, puzzlement, anger, indignation, and many other emotions.

The six-winged seraphim that he had relied on, had betrayed him at the last moment.

“In the name of an angel, I bestow upon you the right to be protected. Human, are you willing to fight me and make me your guardian?”

John spat out a few mouthfuls of blood when he heard the six-winged seraphim’s words. He never expected such a thing to happen. He had abandoned everything to gain the six-winged seraphim as his guardian. Now, it had abandoned him to pledge its allegiance with Zhou Wen.

“Are there conditions for you to become my guardian?” Zhou Wen’s mind flashed with The Thearch’s words as he subconsciously asked.

“There are no conditions. As long as you are willing, I will become your guardian and bestow you with the power of God,” the six-winged seraphim replied without hesitation.

Pfft!

When John heard this, he could no longer hold it in. He stood up abruptly and widened his eyes. He stretched out his trembling fingers and pointed at the six-winged seraphim in the sky. He opened his mouth as though he wanted to curse, but when he opened it again, blood spewed out and splattered everywhere.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 536 - Guardian

Chapter 536 Guardian

“How do I know that you won’t treat me like you treated John?” Zhou Wen said to the six-winged seraphim.

“Guardians are born to fight. If you lose in battle, what’s the point of me staying with you? As long as you have the ability to fight again, I will always protect you,” the six-winged seraphim said.

“What you said makes sense. Then what should I do to make you my guardian?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“It’s very simple. All you need to do is drip a drop of blood into my palm and then let me complete the ritual,” the six-winged seraphim said as he extended his palm.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen cut his finger and extended his hand towards the six-winged seraphim’s palm. Seeing the drop of blood on his finger about to land on the six-winged seraphim’s palm, the Bamboo Blade in his left hand slashed at the six-winged angel’s neck like a bolt of lightning.

Clang!

The wings behind the six-winged seraphim protected his body like an umbrella, blocking Zhou Wen’s strike. At the same time, he rapidly retreated.

“Human, you are too emotional.” The six-winged seraphim moved backward.

Zhou Wen slashed at the six-winged seraphim again and again. The six-winged seraphim was different from Companion Beasts. Companion Beasts were completely controlled by their owners, but the six-winged seraphim could abandon its master and had its own consciousness. No matter how powerful he was, Zhou Wen wouldn’t take him along with him.

He had too many secrets. In the future, once the six-winged seraphim betrayed him, those secrets would be exposed. Zhou Wen definitely wouldn’t let such a thing happen.

Zhou Wen used Transcendent Flying Immortal in a bid to kill the six-winged seraphim, but he realized that without John’s control, the six-winged seraphim was even stronger than when John used him. His figure moved in midair, leaving behind afterimages. Zhou Wen’s Transcendent Flying Immortal could only slash at his phantom. After slashing several times, he had failed to touch the six-winged seraphim.

“Human, you will soon learn what you have missed. When the time comes, you will regret everything you have done today.” The six-winged seraphim flew backward, but his speed was terrifyingly fast. He flapped his six wings and left the arena as though he had teleported, disappearing very quickly.

Zhou Wen frowned slightly as he looked at John and found that he had already fainted. An Sheng’s men were checking his injuries.

“How do you plan on disposing of him?” An Sheng walked to Zhou Wen’s side and asked.

“What do you think?” Zhou Wen asked.

“The video of your conversation with him was recorded. Even if you kill him, it’s just self-defense. The Cape family can’t say anything. However, killing him is meaningless. If you don’t mind, I hope to let him live and obtain information about the six-winged seraphim from him,” An Sheng whispered.

“Then do as you see fit. Give me a copy of the information if you manage to get anything. I’ll head back now,” Zhou Wen said as he turned and left the arena.

On the outer wall of the arena, Zhang Chunqiu looked at An Tianzuo, who was dressed in military uniform, and said with a smile, “Overseer An, congratulations to your An family for obtaining another powerful general.”

“He’s just an ordinary student at Sunset College. He’s not worthy of Brother Zhang’s claim of general,” An Tianzuo said indifferently before saying, “If the three of you don’t mind, why don’t you come to my place to have some tea?”

“That’d be lovely, I have something to say to you,” Zhang Chunqiu said with a smile.

Dugu Ge and Xia Xuanyue agreed to go as well. They probably knew why An Tianzuo was inviting them.

…

As Zhou Wen was on his way back to school, The Thearch’s ringtone sounded.

“To be able to defeat John, who has the protection of the six-winged seraphim, it seems that I have underestimated you. But why did you reject the six-winged seraphim? Do you know that you have missed a rare opportunity?”

“What’s that six-winged seraphim? He doesn’t appear like a Companion Beast, but he’s different from ordinary dimensional creatures,” Zhou Wen asked.

“You’re right. The six-winged seraphim isn’t a Companion Beast or a pure dimensional creature. To put it simply, he’s just a tool,” replied The Thearch.

“A tool? What tool?” Zhou Wen asked in puzzlement.

“Naturally, it’s a tool for combat. It’s also a tool for humans to advance to the Mythical stage. Due to innate limitations, you humans basically don’t have the ability to advance to the Mythical stage. To advance to the Mythical stage, you have to obtain a guardian similar to the six-winged seraphim. By borrowing the guardian’s body, you can advance to the Mythical stage and continue on your path. The six-winged seraphim’s willingness to follow you is equivalent to giving you a chance to advance to the Mythical stage, but you chased him away. Aren’t you regretting it now?” The Thearch gloated.

“You mean borrowing the guardian’s body? Don’t tell me that human bodies won’t improve any further and can only strengthen the guardian’s body in the future?” Zhou Wen acutely sensed something.

“Didn’t I say just now? Due to the innate limitations of the bodies of you humans, it’s nearly impossible for you to advance to the Mythical stage. At most, you can only reach the peak of the Epic stage. The guardian is your way out. Don’t think that it’s that easy for a guardian to betray you. The reason the six-winged seraphim betrayed John was that John wasn’t qualified to form a contract with him. He only used a special method to temporarily form a contract. If it were you, you could truly form a contract with the sixwinged seraphim. He wouldn’t betray you so easily. Do you regret rejecting him now?”

“What’s a guardian?” Zhou Wen didn’t regret it. All he wanted to know was what it was.

“They can be considered as the representatives of the various species on your Earth. Every species will have a guardian. They will choose a human to rely on and fight alongside humans to grow, helping you resist the invasion of dimensional creatures,” said The Thearch.

You were the ones who created the dimensional creatures to begin with. Why are you talking about helping us fend off the dimensional creatures’ invasion? Zhou Wen lampooned inwardly, but he didn’t say it out loud.

Zhou Wen felt that the guardian wasn’t as simple as The Thearch had described.

“How many guardians are there on Earth?” Zhou Wen asked after some thought. If he knew how many guardians there were, wouldn’t he know how many dimensional species there were?

“I don’t know that, but you can count. Guardians are born from cocoons. Count the number of cocoons on Earth and that will be the number of guardians,” The Thearch teased Zhou Wen.

That equates to not saying anything. Zhou Wen secretly despised The Thearch. She never answered any important questions.

However, The Thearch’s words reminded Zhou Wen that the cocoon protected by the white dragon in Old Dragon Cave was gone. However, the one in Ant Nest was still around. Perhaps he could target that.

The Ant Nest dungeon on his phone seemed very special. The other cocoons were protected by terrifying Mythical creatures, but there was only a Golden Flying Ant guarding the Ant Nest. The difference was extraordinary.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 537 - Fighting the Golden Trident Again

Chapter 537 Fighting the Golden Trident Again

“Is there a difference in strength between the guardians?” Zhou Wen felt that the six-winged seraphim was slightly weaker than the one he had seen in the Ant Nest.

“Different species naturally have differences in strength. Why? Are you interested in guardians? As long as you beg me, I can help you contract a powerful guardian,” The Thearch replied.

“I appreciate your kindness.” Zhou Wen thought of John’s fate and didn’t dare get The Thearch to help him.

Is it really impossible for humans to break through to the Mythical stage by themselves? Zhou Wen didn’t believe The Thearch’s words, but he had never heard of anyone advancing to the Mythical stage.

After returning to the college, Zhou Wen began grinding Torch Dragon again. A Mythical Transcendent Flying Immortal had greatly increased his speed. Although his Speed stat was only 40, with the augmentation of Transcendent Flying Immortal, his speed was much faster than the dragon wings formed by Sixed-Winged when he used Transcendent Flying Immortal with all his might.

However, that burst of power could only last for a short period of time. It couldn’t last forever under that speed.

It wasn’t because his Essence Energy supply couldn’t keep up, but because his body couldn’t withstand such a huge burden. The burden of a divine skill on his body was too great for any Epic expert.

After grinding Torch Dragon again, Zhou Wen realized that he was much more relaxed. The chances of blocking or dodging the Bright Torch Vision World were even higher. Furthermore, he wasn’t put in such a sorry state as before. He easily lasted for more than three hours, or even more than four hours. If it wasn’t for the fact that he was exhausted, he could have lasted longer.

The problem now was that the toughness of Torch Dragon’s flesh far exceeded Zhou Wen’s imagination. Demonic Neonate’s ancient sword had stabbed it many times, but it had only left a few harmless wounds. They weren’t fatal.

Torch Dragon had a powerful self-healing ability. The wounds on its body healed themselves in battle. Wounds did not have much effect on it.

Zhou Wen had also attempted to use the Poison Dragon Palm to deal with Torch Dragon, but the results weren’t good. Although he left behind a poison palm print, it vanished shortly after. The poison failed to spread in Torch Dragon’s body.

How can I kill Torch Dragon? Finally, he could block Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World, but he couldn’t kill it. He had to think of another solution.

After some thought, it seemed like no ability was enough to kill Torch Dragon.

There might still be a hope of killing Torch Dragon if Demonic Neonate advances, but she doesn’t eat or drink.

How can I help her advance? Zhou Wen had taken quite a lot of things to feed Demonic Neonate during this period of time, but she ate nothing. Zhou Wen was really afraid that she would starve to death.

If I can’t count on Demonic Neonate, I can only wait for the fruit of the Dead Man Tree and Tyrant Behemoth. Zhou Wen looked at Tyrant Behemoth. It was still evolving, and he didn’t know when it would finish. He couldn’t help but worry.

Instead, it was the fruit of the Dead Man Tree that grew bigger by the day, but the fruit’s appearance made Zhou Wen feel that it resembled a black-gray grenade.

It should be coming out soon. I wonder what kind of Companion Beast will appear. If it has Life Blast and curse powers, I might be able to use it against Torch Dragon. Although Zhou Wen thought this, he didn’t place all his hopes on this Companion Beast.

Without heading to the Zhuolu battlefield again, Zhou Wen went to the Metalwork Temple. There was a golden trident there. The golden trident was definitely a Mythical creature. The Companion Egg that dropped was most likely in the form of a weapon.

Although Overlord Sword was very powerful, it was still at the Epic stage after all. It relied on Ever-Victorious to injure Torch Dragon. Otherwise, it couldn’t even tear through Torch Dragon’s hide.

Zhou Wen felt that he had to think of a way to obtain a Mythical weapon. With a Mythical weapon, the possibility of killing Torch Dragon was much higher. Therefore, he placed his sights on the golden trident.

The golden trident had killed the blood-colored avatar once before, but Zhou Wen felt that there was a way to crack it. He had no other options now. As he waited for the Dead Man Tree's fruit and Behemoth to evolve, he thought of a way to kill the golden trident.

Once again, he arrived at the shrine. The moment the door opened, he saw the golden trident embedded in the furnace. The golden flames burned its body, but it did not cause any reaction.

Just as Zhou Wen took a glance, he saw the golden light shine on the golden trident, as though it wanted to engulf the entire Metalwork Temple.

The blood-colored avatar was instantly killed the last time. It didn't even have a chance to dodge.

However, this time, Zhou Wen summoned the strengthened Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and got it to shield him.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon directly used Sanctification. Its body turned as white as jade as it unfurled its six dragon wings. Holy flames burned on its body as it spewed out dragon breath to block the golden light in front of Zhou Wen.

Boom!

The terrifying collision shook the entire temple.

Zhou Wen saw the golden trident fly out of the furnace from behind Six-Winged. It transformed into a golden beam of light that struck at Six-Winged.

Fortunately, its speed was not very fast. However, it had a domineering aura of supremacy. The six dragon wings on the back of the Six-Winged Dragon turned into blades and slashed at the golden trident that was coming at it from above.

Cracking sounds could be heard as the six wings collided with the golden trident. Many of the six dragon wings were broken by it.

What astonishing destructive power! Zhou Wen wasn't alarmed but delighted. Only with such powerful destructive power could he kill Torch Dragon.

Under Zhou Wen's command, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon clashed with the golden trident. However, it didn't clash head-on with it. Its speed wasn't as fast as the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. Although its attack was domineering, it couldn't do a thing to the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon without fighting head-on.

Clang!

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon took the opportunity and struck out with its two front claws, slamming the golden trident down from the sky and pressing it onto the ground.

The golden trident's body exploded with golden light. It struggled to escape, but it was held down by the Six-Winged. It could not break free no matter what.

Although its destructive power was strong, its strength wasn't stronger than Six-Winged. Instantly, the two Mythical creatures were in a deadlock. One burst out with golden light and the other spewed holy flames, causing the temple to tremble incessantly.

The blood-colored avatar watched the battle from outside the temple. Although Six-Winged held a slight advantage, it couldn’t kill the trident. Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and got the blood-colored avatar to charge in with the Overlord Sword. He brandished the Overlord Sword and slashed at the golden trident.

The moment he entered the temple, the divine patterns on the blood-colored avatar’s heavy armor flickered. In a few moments, it collapsed. Thankfully, the blood-colored avatar had already rushed in front of the golden trident. Overlord Sword slashed down with a powerful sword beam.

Clang!

There was a deafening sound as a fine crack opened on the golden trident.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 538 - Farming Mythical Creatures

538 Farming Mythical Creatures

The golden trident’s body trembled violently as golden light shot forth from its surface.

Zhou Wen hurriedly used his movement technique to dodge and hide behind Six-Winged so that he was spared from the golden beam’s attack.

The golden light clashed with Six-Winged’s holy flames, slicing apart the holy flames and slicing through its scales, leaving deep wounds that reached to the bone.

As expected of a Mythical creature in the form of a weapon, this destructive power is truly terrifying. Zhou Wen was alarmed. If he was struck by the golden light, even two layers of armor wouldn’t be able to protect him.

It was a pity that no matter how powerful the golden trident’s destructive power was, it was still suppressed by the Six-Winged’s claws. It could not unleash its immense power.

Six-Winged held onto the golden trident tightly. It did not loosen its claws no matter what. Its body was lacerated by the golden light. Fortunately, it was not fatal.

Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned Demonic Neonate and got her to use the ancient sword to attack the golden trident.

Six-Winged was good at almost everything. It could fight, tank, and still survive. The only bad thing about it was that it did not have an offensive Wheel of Destiny. It was also six-winged, but the Six-Winged Seraphim had Holy Angel's Redemption. That was truly a good weapon.

However, there were pros and cons. The life-saving ability provided by the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was not something the Six-Winged Seraphim possessed. Otherwise, John wouldn't have had his throat sliced by him.

Thankfully, apart from the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, Zhou Wen still had Demonic Neonate, a pet with relatively strong offensive powers. Demonic Neonate controlled the ancient sword as she sought out an opportunity, slashing at the golden trident again and again. Furthermore, she targeted a particular spot. She hid behind the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and was even safer than Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen also found all sorts of opportunities to strike at the golden trident. The two pets and the human worked together in a frenzy to slash at the golden trident, leaving it covered in wounds. The deepest impression of the trident was about to be halved.

The golden trident had already gone berserk. Its entire body was shimmering with golden light. In particular, its tip was glowing with a dazzling divine light, as if it could pierce through everything in the world.

Unfortunately, it couldn't move due to Six-Winged's pressure. The tip couldn't touch Zhou Wen and company, so it was useless no matter how much strength it unleashed.

After about half an hour, Demonic Neonate's ancient sword slashed down again. With a clang, the golden trident was cut in half.

‘Killed Mythical creature, Golden Battle God Halberd. Discovered Dimensional Crystal.’

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but feel somewhat disappointed when he saw that the golden trident didn’t drop a Companion Egg. On careful look, he saw that the dimensional crystal was a Strength +80 crystal. It was high enough, but Zhou Wen’s upper limit was only 40. He couldn’t raise it before breaking through.

Zhou Wen picked up the Strength Crystal and absorbed it. Indeed, his Strength was still at 40. Unless he found a way to raise his Strength to 41 or advance to the Mythical stage, it was impossible for him to raise it any further.

With the experience gained from killing the Golden Battle God Halberd, Zhou Wen kept grinding the Metalwork Temple instance dungeon. He didn’t believe that the Golden Battle God Halberd Companion Egg wouldn’t drop.

After two or three battles, Zhou Wen had roughly figured out the situation with it. Its destructive power was much stronger than the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. Furthermore, the miraculous power of the Wheel of Destiny was also a destructive power. If one was struck by the miraculous power, even the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon would be penetrated. Its Mythical body would be like paper.

However, the Golden Battle God Halberd’s miraculous powers couldn’t hit its target easily. This was because the miraculous powers were actually unable to pierce through the air and injure the opponent. It was only the tip of the trident that carried a tiny blob of resplendent golden divine light. That golden divine light could almost pierce through everything. It was much more powerful than the Overlord Sword’s Ever-Victorious but the attack needed to be close range.

Zhou Wen was confident that as long as he had the Golden Battle God Halberd drop, he had more than an eighty percent chance of killing Torch Dragon.

The only regret was that after the Golden Battle God Halberd was killed, even if he respawned the dungeon, he would have to wait 24 hours before a new Golden Battle God Halberd appeared. He couldn’t grind it to his heart’s pleasure. He would still have to wait for some time.

Zhou Wen wasn’t idle. Since he couldn’t grind the Golden Battle God Halberd, he ran to the Curse Demon Palace. There was still Medusa there.

Before it was strengthened, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was not Medusa’s match, but it could still fight with her for a while.

Now that Six-Winged had been strengthened, together with Zhou Wen and Demonic Neonate, there was a chance of killing her.

After grinding the rare Epic creatures, Zhou Wen ran to the Curse Demon Palace and charged all the way to Medusa’s hall. He gently touched the beautiful girl and she immediately turned into a terrifying demoness.

The palace was sealed and the blood-colored avatar couldn’t leave. All it could do was fight Medusa in the palace. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon fought without a fuss as it charged forward with a roar.

With the Sanctification ability, Medusa’s normal Eyes of Petrification was actually much less effective against the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. It could only slightly petrify its surface and cause a minimal effect to the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

Zhou Wen had the Evil Nullification ability to restrain the Eyes of Petrification, but he could only restrain the ordinary Eyes of Petrification. If he was struck by Medusa's miraculous Eyes of Petrification, he would still be petrified.

Thankfully, the miraculous Eyes of Petrification shot out substantial light beams from her eyes. As long as he dodged the beam, he wouldn't be petrified. If it was like the ordinary Eyes of Petrification, he wouldn't be able to dodge it.

The miraculous Eyes of Petrification was truly invincible. Even the guardian dragon would be petrified upon being hit by the light beam.

What surprised Zhou Wen was Demonic Neonate. This fellow was actually immune to the ordinary Eyes of Petrification despite not having any Evil Nullification abilities.

The human and two pets joined forces to fight Medusa. After spending a great amount of effort, they finally killed Medusa.

Ding!

A crisp sound came from the phone, jolting Zhou Wen. He saw that Medusa had dropped an Essence Energy Skill dimensional crystal. Inside the crystal-like dimensional crystal was a demoness-like Medusa shadow.

I actually have Medusa's skill crystal drop again. Unfortunately, my stats aren't good enough. I can't absorb it at all. Zhou Wen was in a dilemma.

The requirement of 41 Constitution and 21 Cursed attributes was too high for Zhou Wen.

If he did not absorb it, the skill crystal would be gone after the dungeon respawned. However, if his stats were not enough, he would not be able to absorb it.

In the end, Zhou Wen had no choice but to give up on Medusa's skill crystal. After all, he could now kill Medusa. There was still a chance for him to grind skill crystals in the future.

Zhou Wen heard from An Sheng that the chance of a Mythical creature dropping Companion Eggs and Skill Crystals was very high. There was about a third chance. After a few days of grinding, it shouldn't be difficult to obtain the Companion Eggs of Medusa and the Golden Battle God Halberd.

Zhou Wen rested for a while before considering if he should eat something. An Sheng personally came to school and sent over a document that contained John's testimony.

Zhou Wen had already guessed most of what had happened. John had obtained the Six-Winged Seraphim from an ancient cathedral in the West District. However, according to him, the ancient cathedral had a terrifying Mythical Creature protecting it. He had avoided the Mythical creature thanks to the advice of a mysterious person, thus obtaining the Six-Winged Seraphim inside the white cocoon. He never expected the Six-Winged Seraphim to betray him.

When Zhou Wen saw a paragraph, his expression turned odd. When An Sheng and company treated John, they realized that John had a body part missing.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 539 - Baby Tiger“s Fusion

Chapter 539 Baby Tiger“s Fusion

After An Sheng left, Zhou Wen continued grinding. He didn’t know if it was because lady luck had finally smiled at him or because he had spent too much time grinding, but he managed to grind a baby tiger Companion Egg again.

The attributes were about the same, but it didn’t matter. He never expected to have it fight. The key was that the Lucky Baby Tiger’s Life Providence was useful.

However, it was useless bringing two baby tigers with him. Repetition of Life Providences did not stack Luck.

What kind of Companion Beast should I fuse with the tiger? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

This fusion wasn’t easy. If he used the baby tiger as the main pet and used another Companion Beasts to fuse with it, he would still get the baby tiger. The Life Providence obtained from fusion would still be useless.

If he used other Companion Beasts as the main pet and the baby tiger Companion Egg as a supplement, its Life Providence might be the main pet’s Life Providence. Then, there was no point in a fusion.

Therefore, the only way to fuse them was to combine two Companion Beasts without any main or supplement. Then, the Companion Beasts that were combined would randomly combine the various attributes and skills. Even the Life Providences and Life Souls could be changed randomly, just like the Silver-Winged Sky Spider.

Zhou Wen looked at the Companion Beasts he currently possessed and then at their compatibility with the baby tiger.

The baby tiger’s compatibility with other Companion Beasts was surprisingly high. It was more than 60%. Very few were below 60.

It can even fuse with Mythical pets? Zhou Wen realized that the baby tiger had a compatibility score of 67% with the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

However, after trying out the other mythical pets, they all indicated that they could not be fused.

Zhou Wen naturally didn’t fuse the baby tiger with Six-Winged. After taking a look, Zhou Wen realized that one of the Companion Beasts had a compatibility score of 98% with the baby tiger.

However, when he saw the pet’s stats, a dark cloud hung over Zhou Wen’s head.

The Companion Beast with such a high compatibility rate with the baby tiger was actually Ancient Sovereign City’s Skeleton General.

Strange. One is a skeleton while the other is a beast. Why is the compatibility so high? Zhou Wen looked at the stats of the two Companion Beasts and felt somewhat hesitant.

The Skeleton General was obtained when he went to the Fire God Platform to pluck out the stone saber. He wanted to know if there were any changes in the game’s Ancient Sovereign City. He went in to grind a few times before a Companion Egg dropped. Its stats were rather good, so he hatched it and left it for future pet fusion.

However, no matter how good its stats were, it was ultimately a Legendary Companion Beast. It was useless to Zhou Wen.

There was no need to mention the baby tiger. As one of the weakest Epic creatures, any Epic creature could defeat it.

When these two Companion Beasts were fused, they might even form a Legendary Companion Beast. It might not even reach the Epic stage.

However, this was the first time Zhou Wen had encountered such a high compatibility. He carefully observed the stats of the two Companion Beasts and made up his mind to give it a try.

Anyway, what he wanted was the Luck attribute. The level and skills were not that important.

He fused the two hatched Companion Beasts. Amidst a lustrous glow, the fusion succeeded as expected.

Zhou Wen hurriedly looked at the screen and saw that the Companion Beast he had fused looked like the Skeleton General. However, it wasn’t riding a skeleton horse but a skeleton tiger.

A skeleton general riding on a skeleton tiger holding a bone spear in its hand looked quite powerful.

Tiger Soul General: Epic

Life Providence: Malicious Evil

Life Soul: Tiger Soul

Strength: 29

Speed: 27

Constitution: 27

Essence Energy: 24

Talent Skill: Armor Breaker Spear, Jinxes Master

Companion Form: None

Where’s my Luck Life Providence? What the hell is a Jinxes Master? Questions filled Zhou Wen’s mind.

Zhou Wen regretted it terribly. What the hell were these stats and skills? Not only did none of its stats exceed 30 points as an Epic Companion Beast, but there was even a Jinxes Master skill. Wasn’t this going to jinx him?

The Skeleton General and baby tiger didn’t have such a sinister skill. How did they come up with such a thing?

Zhou Wen knew that he had really screwed up this time. Not only did he fail to have the lucky Life Providence inherit, but he had also obtained a skill that jinxed the master. He definitely couldn’t keep this pet.

Zhou Wen had a very deep impression of the Jinxes Husband skill from before. It was a necessary skill to screw one up.

He casually swiped a Companion Beast and placed it with the Tiger Soul General. Zhou Wen didn't even take notice of what Companion Beast it was. All he saw was that the compatibility was rather low—less than 10%.

He was deliberately trying to make the Tiger Soul General disappear through fusion. He would rather not have it than let it harm him.

Although Zhou Wen didn't take a careful look, he roughly knew that the compatibility score was only 7%. He felt that the outcome was doomed to fail, but with a flash of light, a new Companion Beast appeared.

Eh, it succeeded? Zhou Wen was greatly surprised. Although he wasn't happy, he still looked at the pet's appearance.

The skeleton tiger and skeleton general were both wearing heavy black armor. However, their faces were exposed. The black armor had dark tiger stripes that looked like lava. It looked domineering.

What I used to fuse with it should be a Runic Heavy-Armored Warrior, right? Zhou Wen vaguely remembered that the one he had casually selected was likely the Runic Heavy-Armored Warrior. He couldn't help but look at the stats.

Heavy-Armored Tiger Soul General: Epic

Life Providence: Malicious Evil

Life Soul: Tiger Soul Runes

Strength: 34

Speed: 37

Constitution: 38

Essence Energy: 36

Talent Skill: Rampage, Armor Break Spear, Jinxes Master.

Companion Form: None

These stats aren’t bad, but I really can’t keep the Jinxes Master skill. Zhou Wen searched his Companion Beasts again and found one with an even lower compatibility.

The Steel Cauldron Fiend that dropped from the Metalwork Temple was a rare Epic Companion Beast. However, it was too slow and didn’t have any offensive means. It was just a half-fire elemental creature that guarded a steel furnace.

Its compatibility with the Tiger Soul General was only 4%. It was impossible to find Companion Beasts from two different species to have a lower compatibility score.

He placed the Tiger Soul General and the Steel Cauldron Fiend together and pressed the fuse button.

That should be the end of it, right? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

However, with the shimmering light on his phone, Zhou Wen actually heard the notification of a successful fusion. Looking at the new Companion Beast on his phone screen, Zhou Wen’s mouth gaped open for a moment.

He had no idea if it was good or bad luck from succeeding two consecutive fusions with single-digit compatibility.

The newly fused Companion Beast still looked like the Heavy-Armored Tiger Soul General. However, within the heavy-armored tiger and the heavy-armored general’s armor was a bluish-white flame. It looked even more powerful and domineering, like a mighty being that had charged out from hell.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 540 - Jinxes Master

Chapter 540 Jinxes Master

Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General: Epic

Life Providence: Fierce

Life Soul: Tiger Soul Runes

Strength: 39

Speed: 39

Constitution: 40

Essence Energy: 40

Talent Skill: Tempered Steel Cauldron, Rampage, Armor Breaker Spear, Jinxes Master

Companion Form: None

These stats… It’s almost a top Epic creature… Zhou Wen looked at the stats and his expression changed.

It had to be said that this guy’s attributes were really too good. If he ignored the Jinxes Master skill, its attributes were quite impressive too.

An Epic Armor Breaker Spear was a powerful offensive skill. There was no need to mention Rampage. It was a type of charging Dominance Body.

As for Tempered Steel Cauldron, originally it was not of much use to the Steel Cauldron Fiend as although it was a fire-elemental skill, it could not harm anyone. Instead, it burned flames within the Steel Cauldron Fiend's body. Under the burning of the flames, its steel armor became harder and harder. It was a skill used to tank.

However, this skill was somewhat different on the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. While he was charging, he could use Tempered Steel Cauldron. It would make the fiend armor on the Tiger Soul General become harder. With Rampage's effects as a Dominance Body and the Armor Breaker Spear ability, as well as the Tiger Soul Runes to augment him, there were probably not many opponents at the same level who could block the Runic-Armored Tiger Soul General's charge.

However, the Jinxes Master Skill was a sore sight. Zhou Wen took the Runic-Armored Tiger Soul General to the Metalwork Temple, hoping to see how powerful his combat abilities were.

Seeing the few Runic Heavy-Armored Warrior loitering in the distance, Zhou Wen ordered the Runic-Armored Tiger Soul General to charge over.

With a command, it roared as the bluish-white flames on its body burned. The lava patterns on the black heavy armor also turned into a strange orange-white color. Like a devil, he charged at the Runic Heavy-Armored Warriors.

Boom!

With the augmentation of the powerful Essence Energy Skill, the Runic-Armored Tiger Soul General sent the few Runic Heavy-Armored Warriors flying. The spear struck a Runic Heavy-Armored Warrior and penetrated his chest with the bone spear. He slammed into a metal wall and was lifted up by the Tiger Soul General before shattering into pieces in midair.

Then, Zhou Wen saw a shocking scene. They were both at the Epic stage, and they were mainly defense-type beasts. However, the Runic-Armored Tiger Soul General charged forward as though it had entered an invincible state. It killed the Runic Heavy-Armored Warriors one by one. It was like a mighty being that had descended into the mortal world.

What was even more terrifying was that the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General's Essence Energy seemed to be endless. The fire within the Tempered Steel Cauldron kept burning. It made the heavy armor on the Demonized General and Demonized Tiger stronger and stronger. Even the Tiger Soul Runes on them glowed brighter and brighter, becoming stronger as the battle progressed.

Zhou Wen made him charge the entire way as the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General swept through the area. He wasn't afraid of being ganked by many Epic creatures. Instead, he became more and more ferocious as he charged back and trampled on the dimensional creatures. It was as though he had entered an invincible state.

Even though all of them were at the Epic stage, a single charge was enough to smash through the Runic Heavy-Armored Warriors' armor, killing them on the spot.

A Fire Furnace Queen appeared and threw out the fire from a furnace, turning the hall into a sea of flames.

However, the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General showed no fear. He rode on the tiger and charged into the sea of flames. The demonic runes and flames flickered on its body as he stabbed the Fire Furnace Queen to death with one strike.

Ferocious… Too ferocious… Zhou Wen was dumbfounded. It wasn’t an exaggeration to say that this fellow was the strongest Epic pet. Zhou Wen had never seen such a ferocious Epic creature before.

Even the Mutated Demonized General that combined three skills was much weaker than the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

However, as the dimensional creatures were killed, the flames on the Tempered Steel Cauldron gradually dimmed. His aura and strength seemed to weaken as he slowly returned to a normal standard.

Zhou Wen found it strange. After trying a few times, he realized that this fellow was a war machine. He needed to constantly fight and kill in order to have unlimited Essence Energy. The more he killed, the stronger his various abilities became, especially with the augmentation of the Tempered Steel Cauldron.

Due to its limited Essence Energy, the Steel Cauldron Fiend could only last for a short period of time when using Tempered Steel Cauldron. However, the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General could use it perpetually, making his heavy armor harder and harder. The Tiger Soul Runes on the heavy armor also became stronger.

Zhou Wen studied it for a while and roughly understood that the combination of his Life Providence, Life Soul, and skills was perfect. It allowed him to become stronger the more he killed. Each one of the three was necessary.

This is indeed a good pet, but why hasn’t the Jinxes Master been removed after so many fusions? Zhou Wen was somewhat conflicted.

The pet was good, but Zhou Wen was still afraid about Jinxes Master rearing its head.

The Ghost King's lesson remained fresh in his mind. He did not want to be screwed by the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General at a critical moment. By then, it would be too late to cry.

However, Zhou Wen couldn't bear to destroy such a powerful Companion Beast.

After some thought, Zhou Wen decided to fuse it again. However, this time, he didn't deliberately choose low-success Companion Beasts. Instead, he chose a Companion Egg with a high success rate and wanted to see if he could eliminate the Jinxes Master skill.

If it could be eliminated, he would never find Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General redundant.

However, if he couldn't eliminate it, Zhou Wen would rather destroy him than keep him by his side.

What kind of pet should I use to fuse with it? Zhou Wen wasn't so rash this time as he carefully chose.

There were a total of six Epic Companion Eggs with a compatibility score above 60 with the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. Throwing aside those with inferior skills and Life Providences, Zhou Wen was left with three rather satisfactory ones.

After some consideration, Zhou Wen finally chose a Companion Egg that dropped from Curse Demon Palace.

Epic Petrification Beasts had attributes that were more inclined towards their Constitution and Strength. Their Speed was relatively poor, and their Life Providences and Life Souls were relatively ordinary. The only benefit was that they possessed an Essence Energy Skill that was very compatible with the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

This Essence Energy Skill known as the Magic Stone Curse wasn’t considered powerful on the Petrification Beast. The Magic Stone Curse wasn’t a curse on the enemy, but on oneself.

After using the Magic Stone Curse, one’s skin and bones would become as hard as a rock, which would strengthen one’s defense.

Besides that, the Magic Stone Curse had another effect. Once it was used, other people would be affected by the Magic Stone Curse attacking the Petrification Beast’s body. Their bodies would also show signs of petrification.

However, unlike the petrification of the Petrification Beast, the bodies of others would become stiff and their movements would also become slower. It was even possible that they would become stone statues just like Medusa’s Eyes of Petrification.

Of course, the effect of the Magic Stone Curse was far inferior to the Eyes of Petrification. One would suffer complete petrification only if one was injured by the Magic Stone Curse numerous times. Furthermore, the petrification effect was not permanent. There was a time limit.

Zhou Wen believed that if the Magic Stone Curse could replace the Jinxes Master skill, the four-skilled Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General would be invincible. Not only would he become stronger as he fought, but he could even reflect attacks and produce curse effects.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 541 - Infinite Jinxes Master

Chapter 541 Infinite Jinxes Master

The fusion this time had a Petrification Lion Companion Egg as the supplement. This ensured that the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General's Life Providence and Life Soul could be retained. It only replaced skills.

However, it was also risky for such a fusion. It was possible that the skills that he needed would end up replaced, leaving behind skills he didn't need.

In order to minimize the risk, Zhou Wen especially went to Curse Demon Palace to grind for Petrification Lion Companion Eggs. He obtained one before he fused it with the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. He tried his best to reduce the negative consequences of having many skills.

Feeling a little nervous, Zhou Wen added the Petrification Lion Companion Egg. Luckily, the chances of Magic Stone Curse replacing Jinxes Master was relatively low.

The game lit up as the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General successfully fused. Zhou Wen hurriedly checked his stats.

The Life Providence and Life Soul remained unchanged. His Strength attribute had also increased to 40 points. Only his Speed attribute was still at 39. Other than the Mythical Pets, there were very few pets that could match up to such stats.

Zhou Wen’s gaze quickly shifted down as he saw the skill column.

Tempered Steel Cauldron, Rampage, Armor Breaker Spear, Magic Stone Curse… Zhou Wen’s heart was lifted, but when he saw the words “Jinxes Master,” his heart immediately plummeted.

I’ve already fused so many times. Why is the Jinxes Master skill still here? Zhou Wen felt like crying. Four skills were already the limit of a typical Companion Beast. Although there was a chance of a fusion pet exceeding four skills, the chances weren’t high. Now, the low-probability event of five skills had happened, but Jinxes Master remained.

I need to fuse it again… I have to fuse it again… Although the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General could be considered a perfect Epic pet, Zhou Wen definitely couldn’t keep it thanks to its Jinxes Master skill.

What else can I fuse it with? Zhou Wen was in a dilemma.

Since it had the Magic Stone Curse skill, using Petrification Lion for the fusion would likely result in Magic Stone Curse replacing Magic Stone Curse. It would be difficult to remove the Jinxes Master skill.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to choose from one of the remaining Companion Beasts with higher fusion compatibility. He didn’t care if the skills were suitable or not. He decided to fuse them first. If he could eliminate Jinxes Master, he could slowly fuse the skills again.

This time, he used a Petrification Knight which had multiple skills for fusion. Legend had it that the warrior who defeated Medusa was eventually transformed into a puppet by Medusa after being petrified.

Steeling his mind, Zhou Wen took out the Companion Egg of the four-skilled pet, Petrification Knight. With the four skills of the Petrification Knight and the five skills of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, there were a total of nine skills. The chance of eliminating a few skills was definite. He hoped to eliminate Jinxes Master.

He placed the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General with the Petrification Knight Companion Egg and pressed the fusion button.

The pet and egg shone brightly as they combined together.

With a crisp sound, the light dissipated and the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General appeared again. The fusion had succeeded again.

Zhou Wen hurriedly looked at the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General’s stats and realized that all four stats had reached the maximum of 40 points. It didn’t have the foundation of a Mythical creature, so it couldn’t increase to 41.

The Life Providence and Life Soul did not change. They were still Malicious Evil and Tiger Soul Runes.

Upon reaching the skill column, Zhou Wen looked over one skill after another, feeling a little nervous.

Tempered Steel Cauldron, Rampage, Armor Breaker Spear, Magic Stone Curse, Man-Mount As One… Jinxes Master… Zhou Wen was dumbfounded. Another skill had been added to it, but Jinxes Master remained.

Zhou Wen looked at the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General with mixed feelings. For a moment, he didn’t know how to react.

This fellow’s stats and skills were already cream of the crop. Apart from Mythical pets, it would be very difficult to find a pet that was better than it.

But this Jinxes Master… Zhou Wen didn’t have the confidence.

Perhaps a result of having fused too many times, Zhou Wen realized that the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General’s compatibility score with other Companion Beasts was much lower when he checked it. It went from 60-70 compatibility to about 30-40. Most of them were below 10.

With such compatibility continuing, the chance of failing will be too high if I continue fusing. Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and found the one with the highest compatibility. He would rather have it gone than keep Jinxes Master.

Although it was already the highest compatibility score, it was only 42. The success rate was about 40%.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to press the fusion button, he suddenly heard his phone ring.

He picked up his phone and took a look. Seeing that it was An Sheng, he picked up the call with one hand and was about to press the fusion button with the other.

“Young Master Wen, there’s news from Zhuolu. The experts have confirmed Qiongqi’s identity and have come up with some solutions…” An Sheng said.

When Zhou Wen heard Qiongqi’s name, he suddenly had a flash of inspiration. He stopped his finger midway without pressing the button.

Zhou Wen remembered hearing The Thearch say that if he wanted to defeat Qiongqi, it was best to let an evil person go. If a good person were to go, the chances of killing Qiongqi would be very low.

Although Zhou Wen didn't know why such a strange thing would happen, the current Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General had a Malicious Evil Life Providence. Was he considered an evil person?

With this thought in mind, he could not bring himself to press down with his finger.

An Sheng informed Zhou Wen about the results of the experts' research. After hearing it, Zhou Wen felt that their research was rather reasonable. They had determined some of Qiongqi's skills.

However, this did not have a decisive effect on killing Qiongqi. What was truly scary about Qiongqi was not just those few skills.

The experts also mentioned Qiongqi's penchant for bullying good, kind people. However, they believed that it was a character of the legendary Qiongqi. No one expected that this character could be exploited.

After An Sheng hung up, Zhou Wen looked at the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General with a thoughtful expression. In the end, he decided to not continue the fusion. He decided to take him to fight Qiongqi to see if it would be of any use.

After entering the Zhuolu ruins, Zhou Wen didn't go to Torch Dragon. After killing the Aoyin stone statue, he went to Qiongqi.

The moment the temple’s door opened, Zhou Wen summoned his Companion Beasts. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon took the front, with the other Companion Beasts followed behind. One of them was the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon lunged straight at Qiongqi. Qiongqi also rushed forward like before, but something unexpected happened.

It was as if Qiongqi had not had its fill today. Be it in terms of strength, speed, or various skills, it seemed to have weakened significantly.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, which had been suppressed by Qiongqi, was actually able to fight Qiongqi to a standstill.

Does the Malicious Evil Life Providence really work? Zhou Wen was dumbfounded.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 542 - The Effect of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General

Chapter 542 The Effect of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General

It was unknown if it was intentional or not, but Qiongqi never took the initiative to attack the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. The other Epic Companion Beasts were killed by Qiongqi in a short period of time.

Although Qiongqi eventually killed the blood-colored avatar, Zhou Wen saw some hope of killing it.

I wonder if there are any other Companion Beasts with similar Life Providences? After Zhou Wen exited the game, he checked online and found a few.

However, those Companion Beasts were too rare. Furthermore, they weren't any better than the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. The most famous one was Tai Sui. That fellow had a Great Portent Life Providence and had the attribute of misfortune. He was even more terrifying than the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

From the looks of it, the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General is still considered gentle. At the very least, Jinxes Master doesn't appear too obvious. I haven't seen him jinxing yet. Wasn't there an emperor in ancient times who had a horse that jinxed its master. Whoever rode it died. However, the emperor managed to escape a calamity by riding this horse… Zhou Wen was purely comforting himself.

If he hadn’t discovered that the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General was actually effective against Qiongqi, Zhou Wen wouldn’t have second thoughts about fusing it away. No matter how strong he was, he couldn’t be stronger than a Mythical pet. Keeping him alive was a scourge.

But now, Zhou Wen had the possibility of killing Qiongqi thanks to it. He had no choice but to consider leaving the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General behind.

Zhou Wen was wondering about the possibility of the former principal and company not entering Torch Dragon’s temple, but Qiongqi’s temple. If that were the case, it would be useless even if he killed Torch Dragon. He would have to kill Qiongqi again. When that happened, he would need the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

Logically speaking, a Companion Beast will only show its effects when summoned. At most, I won’t summon him. That would prevent any obstacles, right? Zhou Wen felt uneasy. He wasn’t confident, but that was the only way.

Thankfully, it’s just a Tiger Soul General. If there’s another Tai Sui, I’ll be dead. Zhou Wen closed the webpage introducing Tai Sui.

When the Golden Battle God Halberd respawned, Zhou Wen eagerly rushed in-game. After an intense battle with the Golden Battle God Halberd, he finally snapped it with Demonic Neonate’s ancient sword.

Ding!

A crystal dropped. Zhou Wen saw that it was an Essence Energy Skill Crystal. Inside the amber-like crystal was a golden trident's shadow.

He picked it up and took a closer look and the game immediately gave him a notification: 'Insufficient stats… Unmatched Life Providence… Rejected Life Soul…'

The series of notifications left Zhou Wen's head spinning.

Using his phone to check the Essence Energy Skill Crystal's information, he discovered that the Golden Battle God Halberd's Essence Energy Skill Crystal required 41 points of Strength. This requirement was considered the simplest of all the Mythical Essence Energy Skills that Zhou Wen knew. There was no special stat requirement.

Unfortunately, Zhou Wen still couldn't meet the 41 Strength requirement.

Regarding the requirements of having a Constitution-type Life Providence and Life Soul, Zhou Wen attempted by switching to the Small Perfection of Wisdom. The Eight Perfections Wisdom Life Providence was compatible, but his lack of a Life Soul made it a mismatch.

If that's the case, if I can condense the Small Perfection of Wisdom's Life Soul and raise my Strength to 41 points, wouldn't I be able to learn the Golden Battle God Halberd skill? Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that there was some hope.

Among all the Mythical Skills that Zhou Wen had seen, this was most likely to be one he could learn.

How can I have my Strength break through to 41 points? Zhou Wen had always been puzzled about the method to increase his stats.

Now, Zhou Wen had an idea. His Life Soul was formed after absorbing the attributes. Therefore, Zhou Wen was wondering if his Life Soul could affect his stats if it advanced to Perfection.

The postfix of Strength was Sun. Later on, it was absorbed by the Inverse Ancient Sovereign Life Soul. If it advanced to Perfection, he wondered if it could influence the Strength attribute and increase his Strength to 41 points.

Of course, this was only Zhou Wen's speculation. However, he could give it a try. The Inverse Ancient Sovereign was already an Evolved Body. Any further and it would be able to advance to a Perfect Body.

Now, Zhou Wen was facing a choice. If he decided to gain new insights into his Life Soul and wait to absorb the Golden Battle God Halberd Crystal, he couldn't respawn the dungeons. Otherwise, he would lose the skill crystal.

If he wanted to continue grinding Mythical Companion Eggs, he had to give up on the skill crystal.

The drop rate of Mythical creatures is still rather high. I should continue grinding Companion Eggs. Zhou Wen thought for a moment before deciding to grind Companion Eggs first. After all, only with the Golden Battle God Halberd could he kill Torch Dragon. This was of paramount importance.

After putting down the Golden Battle God Halberd Crystal, Zhou Wen went to the Curse Demon Palace again. After killing Medusa with great difficulty, he had two crystals drop. One was a Speed Crystal, while the other was a Constitution

Crystal. All of them exceeded 70 points, but they were useless to Zhou Wen.

After grinding all the rare dimensional creatures, he reserved the Companion Eggs that dropped for pet fusion. Then, he had nothing else to do. He had to wait until tomorrow for the Golden Battle God Halberd and Medusa to respawn.

Since he had nothing to do during this period of time, Zhou Wen took the book he borrowed from the library and continued studying it.

Since Small Perfection of Wisdom hadn’t condensed a Life Soul, Zhou Wen wanted to take this opportunity to study it and condense it so that he could absorb the Golden Battle God Halberd skill crystal.

With the Golden Battle God Halberd and the Golden Battle God technique, he was certain he could kill Torch Dragon.

Wisdom had different types—two, three, and six types.

Shared or Unshared Wisdom, True Insight Wisdom, and Wisdom of Meditative Enlightenment, Mundane Wisdom, and Supramundane wisdom—all of these were Two Wisdoms.

True Insight Wisdom, Wisdom of Meditative Enlightenment, along with Written Wisdom were the Three Wisdoms.

The six Wisdoms were True Insight Wisdom, External World Wisdom, Written Wisdom, Wisdom of Skillful Means, Attendant Wisdom, and Wisdom of Meditative Enlightenment. These combined were also the Diamond Wisdom.

However, Zhou Wen’s Life Providence was Eight Perfections Wisdom. There were two more types of Wisdom. Zhou Wen did plenty of research, but he couldn’t figure out what the Eight Perfections of Wisdom meant. Therefore, he hadn’t figured out the profundity of the Small Perfection of Wisdom to condense a Life Soul.

Zhou Wen vaguely felt that this Small Perfection of Wisdom was somewhat different from the real Perfection of Wisdom. The three-faced Buddha in Small Buddha Temple was somewhat different from the Buddhas in ordinary monasteries.

Just as he was thinking, his phone rang again. This time, it was from Wang Lu.

“Zhou Wen, I’m hungry,” Wang Lu said.

“Isn’t it noon now?” Zhou Wen asked.

“You owe me so many breakfasts. Didn’t you say you were going to make up with it using lunch? Are you trying to go back on your word? Quickly get me some food to eat. I’m starving,” said Wang Lu.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 543 - Gold Burial Ground

543 Gold Burial Ground

“Since you’ve already come out, why don’t you buy the food yourself?” Zhou Wen handed over the food he had bought from the cafeteria to Wang Lu.

“That’s how I roll, isn’t I?” Wang Lu took the food and sat in a flower bed to eat.

Zhou Wen sat down by the side and began munching on his roujiamo—meat sandwiched in bread.

“Zhou Wen, what plans do you have after graduation? With your relationship with the An family, you should be able to directly enter the Sunset army, right?” Wang Lu asked Zhou Wen as she ate her bread.

“No, I plan on returning to my hometown.” Zhou Wen had never planned on entering the Sunset army.

Zhou Wen really planned on returning to his hometown after graduation. He had seen quite a number of dungeons. He had even cleared two of the West District’s dungeons.

However, dimensional zones like the Ancient Sovereign City were very rare. The strongest creature in the Ancient Sovereign City was only at the Legendary stage. It looked like a very weak dimensional zone.

However, things like stone sabers that could be seen in-game, but untouchable and very rare in dimensional zones.

Chess Mountain also had a similar jade box, but everyone knew how terrifying Chess Mountain was.

Zhou Wen felt that Ancient Sovereign City wasn't that simple. Therefore, he wanted to return to Guide City after graduation.

"Your hometown is Guide City, right? There aren't any overly famous dimensional zones there, so there aren't many opportunities for development." Wang Lu paused for a moment before she said jokingly, "Why don't you consider going to the capital after graduation? That way, you can also repay your debts."

Wang Lu came from the capital's Wang family which was not the same Wang family in Luoyang.

"It's still early. Let's talk about it when the time comes." Zhou Wen felt that graduation was still a long way off. Perhaps, the restrictions of the dimensional zone would fail before he graduated. He wouldn't be at liberty to decide when that happened. All he could do was take things one step at a time.

"Then if you have nowhere to go in the future, remember to look for me in the capital. Our Wang family welcomes talented people very much. Besides, as an old schoolmate of mine, I can still take care of you," Wang Lu said with a smile.

"Alright." Zhou Wen nodded.

Not far away, a few students were resting on the grass.

"Did you hear that someone found a Gold Burial Ground in the Dungeon?"

"What's Gold Burial Ground?"

“You don’t even know what Gold Burial Ground is? It’s those you hear of in legends where a piece of gold is buried. After some time, this kind of Gold Burial Ground turns one piece of gold into two pieces of gold.”

“It must be fake. Only ignoramuses would believe such a ridiculous thing.”

“Don’t you doubt me. I don’t know if Gold Burial Grounds existed in the past, but after the dimensional storms, someone really discovered one. Furthermore, it’s been validated. The Gold Burial Ground does have magical powers. This person is famous in the Federation.”

“Who is it?”

“It’s the Xia family’s hero.”

“Are you serious? Why haven’t I heard of it before? Are you making it up?”

“What do you mean I made it up? There really was such a thing. There was more than one hero present at that time. However, that place was discovered by the Xia family’s hero. Besides, only he believed in the legend of Gold Burial Grounds. Hence, he was the only one who managed to find it.”

“What did he bury?”

“He buried a sword and dug out two swords. Can you guess which two swords they are? You must have heard of the names of those two swords.”

“No way? Could it be the famous Twin Dragon Swords of the Xia family?”

“Not bad. What the Xia family hero buried in the Gold Burial Ground back then was a Dragon Blood Sword Companion Egg. When he dug it out the next day, there were two Dragon Blood Sword Companion Eggs…”

The students were having a good time chatting, pumped as though all of that had happened.

“Senior, you were talking about the Gold Burial Ground being found in the Dungeon? Where is it?” Wang Lu eavesdropped for a while before running over to ask for information.

“If someone asks, I definitely won’t tell them. However, you’re so pretty there’s no harm telling you. That place is in the underground Ancient City that we often go to. However, it’s useless for you to go there now. I heard that the Gold Burial Ground only allows one thing to be buried once. It’s useless if you bury more. According to the senior who discovered the Gold Burial Ground, he accidentally dropped a dimensional crystal when he killed a dimensional creature. When he dug up again, he found two identical dimensional crystals…” The senior was very talkative and explained everything clearly.

“Thank you, Senior.” Wang Lu thanked him.

“Junior, don’t be in such a hurry to leave. Do you want me to take you there?” the senior said warmly when he saw Wang Lu’s beauty.

“There’s no need, Senior. Thank you.” As Wang Lu spoke, she had already returned to the flower bed.

“You don’t have anything else to do this afternoon, right? Let’s go and take a look together. Perhaps there’s really a Gold Burial Ground,” Wang Lu said to Zhou Wen.

“Didn’t they say that the Gold Burial Ground can only be used once? Then what’s the use of going there?” Zhou Wen asked.

“To take a look. It’s just a legend that Gold Burial Ground only allows one burial. Perhaps it can be used again?” Wang Lu pulled Zhou Wen towards the underground Ancient City.

The underground ancient city mentioned by the students was actually the Ancient City dimensional zone which was in the uppermost layer. Although there were many dimensional creatures there, most of them were at the Mortal stage. The strongest was at the Legendary stage. Therefore, ordinary students would usually go there to learn how to hunt dimensional creatures. This meant it was very popular.

However, the dimensional creatures there didn’t produce anything particularly good. Therefore, students with some strength wouldn’t choose to stay there for long.

When Wang Lu and Zhou Wen arrived at the underground Ancient City, they realized that there were many students here. They were all searching for something in the dilapidated Ancient City. They must have heard the legend of the Gold Burial Ground, so they had come here to try their luck.

“There are so many people searching for the Gold Burial Ground. Even if there really is one, it’s already been occupied by countless people. Let’s head back.” Zhou Wen was still thinking about how he could condense his Life Soul with the Small Perfection of Wisdom, so he really didn’t wish to waste time on such an iffy matter.

“That’s not necessarily the case. How do you know there’s no chance if you don’t give it a try?” Wang Lu sized up Zhou Wen and said after looking at his feet, “Give me your shoes.”

“What for?” Zhou Wen looked at her in puzzlement.

“Take off your right shoe and give it to me. You will know in a while,” urged Wang Lu.

Zhou Wen took off his right shoe and gave it to her. Wang Lu picked it up and made a prayer-like action before throwing it into the sky.

After the shoe landed, Wang Lu pointed in the direction of the shoe and said, “Let’s look over there.”

“Will this really work?” Zhou Wen put on his shoes and followed Wang Lu forward.

“Let’s give it a try. Perhaps it will work.” Wang Lu said.

The two of them walked all the way into Ancient City. It was really in ruins. Many of the walls were made of clay bricks. After the passage of time, they were pockmarked and covered in dust. No matter how one looked at it, it did not look like an ancient city but more like a village.

As they walked, one of Wang Lu’s ear studs dropped. After falling to the ground, it bounced into a fist-sized hole.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 544 - Hole

Chapter 544 Hole

“Let me do it.” Zhou Wen squatted down and reached his hand into the hole.

The hole was along a mud wall. It was probably dug out by something like a rat. As there weren’t any powerful dimensional creatures here, Zhou Wen didn’t activate Truth Listener. The hole wasn’t deep either. Zhou Wen extended his hand and touched it. Soon, he touched something. When he touched it, he realized that it was indeed Wang Lu’s ear stud.

However, what was strange was that Wang Lu had dropped one ear stud, but Zhou Wen touched two identical ear studs.

Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. He looked at Wang Lu’s other ear stud and couldn’t help but ask, “How many ear studs did you drop?”

“One,” Wang Lu replied.

“Why are there two ear studs here? Could it be…” Zhou Wen looked at the hole. He couldn’t believe that it was the legendary Gold Burial Ground.

Wang Lu took the two ear studs and carefully looked at them. Soon, she said with certainty, “These two ear studs are identical. Even the spots I accidentally scratched are identical. From the looks of it, we have really found the legendary Gold Burial Ground. Quick, take something and give it a try.”

Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant. Wang Lu’s luck was good enough to discover the Gold Burial Ground, but his luck wasn’t that good. Furthermore, he felt that the Gold Burial Ground was somewhat odd.

“It isn’t easy to find a Gold Burial Ground. Don’t you want to give it a try?” Wang Lu asked Zhou Wen.

Before Zhou Wen could answer, he saw a figure rush over. He was originally searching for the Gold Burial Ground nearby. Upon hearing Zhou Wen and Wang Lu’s conversation, he rushed over. Without waiting for Zhou Wen and Wang Lu to react, he stuffed a Companion Egg into the hole.

“Hey, aren’t you being a little impolite?” Zhou Wen said with a frown.

“You have to share the good stuff with everyone. We’re all schoolmates after all. Why be so petty? At most, you can use it later.” The person raised his head as he spoke.

“It’s you?” Zhou Wen exchanged looks with the person and immediately recognized him.

This person’s name was Li Yu. Previously, Zhou Wen had set up a stall to sell Companion Eggs at the school’s trading market. Back then, there were two students who had set up stalls beside him. One was Huang Ji and the other was Li Yu.

Back then, Zhou Wen had a tiny conflict with Li Yu because of Gu Dian. Li Yu had suffered a little, but he never expected to meet him again today.

“So it’s you, Zhou Wen. You caused me so much pain last time. Let me use the Gold Burial Ground this time and we’re even.” Li Yu grinned and asked, “How long will it take for this Gold Burial Ground to take effect?”

Zhou Wen couldn’t be bothered to argue with him, so he replied, “The ear stud fell moments ago. There were two once I tried taking it out.”

“Legend has it that we have to bury it for one night. I was just wondering how long it would take for us to pass the time. It turns out that it can be done so soon,” Li Yu said as he reached his hand into the hole.

After touching it a few times, Li Yu’s expression changed. His squatting body suddenly turned into a kneeling position. His face was almost pressed to the side of the hole. Most of his arm was stretched in as he groped about.

“Where… where’s my Companion Egg?” Li Yu’s expression was not not a happy one. He searched the hole several times but failed to find anything.

“There’s nothing?” Zhou Wen activated Truth Listener and listened to the hole.

The hole wasn’t too deep to begin with, so he could hear everything clearly.

It was a small hole about forty centimeters deep. There were no forks or Companion Eggs inside.

“Impossible? I just put it in there. It can’t be wrong. Why is it gone?” Li Yu reached in again and groped about anxiously. However, there was nothing inside. He could not touch it.

Zhou Wen also found it odd. He had seen Li Yu put the Companion Egg in with his own eyes. Why was it gone?

“Are you deliberately messing with me? That Companion Egg was from the company and not mine. Stop fooling around and return it to me. I know I was wrong. I’ll compensate you, alright?” Li Yu was anxious. Unable to find it, he stood up to bow to Zhou Wen and Wang Lu.

“Don’t spout nonsense. We didn’t take your Companion Egg. You were the one who insisted on putting it in. Who can you blame?” Wang Lu curled her lips and said.

Li Yu was speechless. He also knew that Zhou Wen and Wang Lu’s statuses weren’t ordinary, so he didn’t dare cause trouble with them.

“Wang Lu, give me an ear stud.” Zhou Wen extended his hand in front of Wang Lu.

Wang Lu handed him an ear stud. Zhou Wen threw the ear stud into the hole and used Truth Listener to listen. However, there was no reaction. It was just an ordinary hole.

He reached in and touched. There was only one ear stud.

“It’s indeed a little strange,” Zhou Wen said with a frown as he looked at the ear stud in his hand.

“This hole clearly replicated my ear studs just now. Why did it suddenly fail? It’s very strange,” Wang Lu added.

Zhou Wen shook his head slightly. “That’s not what I’m talking about. The reason this news spread is because someone discovered the Gold Burial Ground. In other words, that person used the Gold Burial Ground and knew its effects before he could spread the news. However, if it’s really effective, he should be constantly burying things inside. How can he spread such important news?”

“What you said makes sense. Since he spread the news, it must be that Gold Burial Ground is already useless. Or rather, there’s something wrong with that Gold Burial Ground…” Li Yu also came to a realization. He pounded his chest and stamped his feet, regretting that he hadn’t thought of this in advance. He even took the company’s Epic Companion Egg and stuffed it in. He was truly blinded by wealth.

“My ear studs were clearly replicated, and his Companion Eggs disappeared. Doesn’t that mean that the Gold Burial Ground exists? Furthermore, it’s indeed effective. However, there’s a problem with it?” Wang Lu said as she looked at the hole.

“Is there any way to retrieve my Companion Egg?” Li Yu asked Wang Lu as though he was grasping at straws.

“I don’t know. Try again.” Wang Lu shook her head.

Li Yu could not be bothered anymore. He knelt beside the cave and placed some of his trinkets inside. After a while, he took them out. However, it was useless. They were not replicated, neither had they disappeared.

This was within Zhou Wen’s expectations. It was an ordinary hole. He had been listening for a long time. There was nothing around the hole, nor were there any energy fluctuations.

“Wang Lu, can you search again?” Zhou Wen asked Wang Lu.

“Yes, but this will be the last time for today. Give me your shoe,” said Wang Lu.

“Can’t you use something else?” Zhou Wen had to take off his shoe and give it to Wang Lu.

“No.” Wang Lu took the shoe and threw it into the air.

The shoe landed, but this time, it pointed in a different direction, not in the direction of the hole.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 545 - he Secret of the Hole

Chapter 545 The Secret of the Hole

This time, when the two of them walked forward, Zhou Wen raised Truth Listener’s powers to the limit as he constantly scanned his surroundings.

After walking for a while, Zhou Wen discovered a strange spot. Beneath a mud wall was a place where Truth Listener couldn’t hear. It was as though something had isolated it, preventing him from hearing anything.

The direction the duo were heading in happened to line up with this area.

When Zhou Wen looked, he saw that there was a hole beneath the mud wall. It was similar to the hole just now, but this hole was clearly different. Even Truth Listener couldn’t tell what was going on inside.

Zhou Wen gave Wang Lu a look before looking in the direction of the hole. Wang Lu looked at the hole, but she couldn’t tell what was wrong with it. She only felt that the hole looked very similar to the one from before.

“Could this hole be the legendary Gold Burial Ground? Why don’t we try using something first?” Zhou Wen deliberately said loudly to Wang Lu.

Zhou Wen had a nagging feeling that there was something wrong with the Gold Burial Ground. Not only was it able to move, but it had also swallowed Li Yu's Companion Egg. The thing it had replicated was an ear stud with very low practical value. No matter how he thought about it, there was something amiss.

"What if the thing that's placed inside ends up disappearing like that person's Companion Egg?" Wang Lu said cooperatively.

"It's fine. Let's give it a try first. I remember you have a Mythical Companion Egg on you, right? Try using an unimportant Companion Egg or something first. If there's no problem, put the Mythical Companion Egg inside," Zhou Wen said to Wang Lu while winking.

"Is that so? Alright then." Wang Lu touched her pocket knowingly. She took out something and placed it in the hole.

Zhou Wen kept observing the hole. After Wang Lu placed the item inside, a strange energy fluctuation immediately appeared in the hole. Unfortunately, Zhou Wen could only sense the energy fluctuation and couldn't hear what was happening inside.

However, as long as he could sense something unusual in the hole, he could lock onto it. He wasn't afraid that it would escape. Zhou Wen refused to believe that it was faster than his saber.

After a while, the energy fluctuations in the cave gradually came to a stop. As for the hole, there was still a force that screened his powers. Zhou Wen still couldn't hear what was happening inside.

He gave Wang Lu a look before she squatted down. As she reached out to reach into the hole, she said, “I wonder if this is the Gold Burial Ground. It should be done, right?”

As she spoke, Wang Lu had already taken out the item from the cave. Zhou Wen had seen what she had previously placed inside. It was a very small saber.

Now, Wang Lu took out two sabers.

“Wow, one saber has turned into two. Is this really the Gold Burial Ground?” Zhou Wen extended his hand to take the small saber. The saber looked somewhat strange. The blade was like a piece of pandan leaf, and the scabbard was the same. It was probably made of Essence Gold. From the looks of it, it seemed pretty good.

Zhou Wen pulled the tiny saber out of its sheath, and Wang Lu also unsheathed the tiny saber in her hand. The two sabers had a cold, oppressive glint, making one’s hair stand on end. They looked identical.

Zhou Wen knew at a glance that it was a good saber, and it wasn’t an ordinary one.

“That’s right. This place is really a Gold Burial Ground. Let’s quickly put a Mythical Companion Egg inside.” As Wang Lu spoke, she gave Zhou Wen another look before looking at the tiny saber in his hand.

“Alright, quickly put the Mythical Companion Egg in. That way, we can have two Mythical Companion Eggs. When the time comes, I’ll have one, and you can have one…” Zhou Wen said as though he had thought of something. He suddenly changed his words and said, “Let’s think it through. The item that was placed inside the second time disappeared. To be safe, let’s try again.”

With that said, Zhou Wen placed the tiny saber in his hand into the hole and continued observing the situation inside with Truth Listener.

The strange energy fluctuation in the cave stirred once again, but this time, Zhou Wen clearly felt that the strange energy fluctuation was much weaker. Not only was it weaker, but it was also very unstable.

Gradually, Zhou Wen realized that in the hole where Truth Listener originally couldn’t hear anything, he could vaguely hear some movement. It was as though something was moving inside.

This time, the energy fluctuation clearly lasted longer than before. After a while, the strange power in the cave decreased significantly. Zhou Wen could roughly hear the situation inside.

He realized that there was a tiny beast inside the cave. Zhou Wen couldn’t tell what it was. It looked a little like a squirrel, but it wasn’t exactly the same. It looked much better than a rat. Its body was slender, and its eyes were huge. Its tail was also very large and fluffy.

Is this fellow a ferret? However, a ferret shouldn’t be living in a mud wall. It should be in the forest, right? Could it be a weasel? Zhou Wen had never seen a weasel before, but the more he thought about it, the more likely it was.

At that moment, the tiny beast was holding the small saber with its two glowing paws. Its eyes were wide open like two little light bulbs staring at the empty space in front of it. From its eyes, a strange light shot out. It was like a three-dimensional printer in a science fiction movie. The light actually printed out a small sheathed saber out of nowhere.

Although Truth Listener couldn’t hear the trajectory of the light beams, it could sense an energy fluctuation shoot out from its eyes before gradually molding the tiny saber in midair.

The portion of the saber’s blade had been completed, but it was still short of the handle. The beast seemed to be lacking in Essence Energy. The ripples that shot out from its eyes were intermittent, as though they would disappear at any moment.

The beast’s fur stood up as it seemed to steel itself. It tried its best to shoot out rays of light from its eyes. Finally, it finished the last portion of the saber handle.

Clang!

The small saber fell to the ground together with the small saber in its claws. The two small sabers were identical, with no visible difference.

However, the beast was so tired that it sprawled in the hole with its limbs spread out. It stuck out its tiny tongue and panted. It looked like it had consumed a lot of energy.

“It should be done, right?” Zhou Wen muttered to himself before reaching into the cave.

The beast immediately got up and dragged its tired body to the back of the cave.

Zhou Wen reached in and took out the two sabers. He even unsheathed them and compared them. Indeed, they were identical. It didn’t look any different.

“It’s really identical. Quickly take out the Mythical Companion Egg and put it in.” As Zhou Wen spoke, he noticed the beast’s eyes lighting up. Even its ears pricked up as it wore an excited and expectant look.

“Isn’t the Companion Egg with you?” Wang Lu retorted.

“No way. I thought it was you. Didn’t you bring it?” Zhou Wen feigned surprise.

“No, I thought you brought it. What do we do now?” Wang Lu asked.

“Then let’s try it next time,” Zhou Wen said as he turned to leave. Wang Lu followed him.

The beast in the hole was stunned for a full second before it suddenly screamed and crawled out of the hole.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 546 - Revenge

Chapter 546 Revenge

The beast transformed into a stream of light as it screamed and charged at Zhou Wen. Unfortunately, it had expended too much Essence Energy. Zhou Wen circulated the Demonic Astral Wheel with one hand and a powerful suction force sucked the beast into his palm. No matter how hard the beast struggled, it couldn’t escape.

Zhou Wen didn’t attack it directly because he felt that the beast was likely to be proficient in underground escaping abilities. If it escaped underground, it would be difficult to capture it.

Now that it had rushed out and left the ground, it was naturally the best outcome for him.

“Forget it. Let it go. It hasn’t harmed anyone. It has only cheated people of things,” said Wang Lu.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that killing the beast wouldn’t have a high chance of dropping a Companion Egg. After all, he had already obtained two tiny sabers. It didn’t matter if he let it go.

The power of the Demonic Astral Wheel in Zhou Wen’s hand dissipated, and after landing on the ground, the beast immediately vanished.

It really knows how to use Earth Escape. Zhou Wen was somewhat envious. Earth Escape was extremely practical. It was even more practical than flying. Unfortunately, it wasn’t produced in many places. If he wanted to learn it, he had to depend on luck. He couldn’t buy it even if he had the money.

“That little beast almost died from exhaustion in order to replicate those two sabers. Otherwise, it wouldn’t have been so easily caught by me. What saber is this?” Zhou Wen returned the two tiny sabers to Wang Lu.

“You already have a Bamboo Blade, yet you don’t recognize the Orchid Blade of the Plum, Orchid, Bamboo, and Chrysanthemum Blades?” Wang Lu looked at Zhou Wen in surprise.

“You’re telling me that this tiny saber is the Orchid Blade of the Four Gentlemen Blades?” Zhou Wen immediately knew that he had underestimated the little beast.

Initially, he thought that it was just an ordinary Essence Gold saber. It was not surprising that the little beast could replicate it. However, he didn’t expect it to be the Orchid Blade of the Four Gentlemen Blades.

Zhou Wen had the Bamboo Blade, so he knew that the Four Gentlemen Blades were extraordinary. Their toughness was comparable to a Mythical creature’s body, and they were extremely rare Essence Gold weapons.

Outside the game, Zhou Wen used Bamboo Blade more than the Overlord Sword because although Overlord Sword’s sword beam was powerful, the sword’s blade was too weak. It was very likely to snap when colliding with powerful forces.

As for Bamboo Blade, it didn’t have any problems in this aspect. Even in a battle with Mythical creatures, it had never been damaged. Just this point alone was enough to prove the value of the Four Gentlemen Blades.

The quality of the Orchid Blade was likely to be the same as the Bamboo Blade; however, it was a little small. Yet, that little beast had actually been able to duplicate the Orchid Blade. This ability was really a little abnormal.

However, Zhou Wen had heard that the Four Gentlemen Blades would bring ill fate to their owners. Now, the Orchid Blade had turned into three. He didn't know if Wang Lu's luck could block the ominous fate brought by three Orchid Blades.

"Two Orchid Blades were replicated. Each of us can have one." Wang Lu handed one of the Orchid Blades to Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, "I don't have your luck. I've been unlucky enough recently. How am I supposed to survive if I hold the Orchid Blade? You should keep it yourself."

However, Wang Lu stuffed the Orchid Blade into Zhou Wen's hand. "Take a closer look. Although the replica looks similar to the real one, there are still some differences. This replica Orchid Blade definitely doesn't have the ominous problems that plague the real Orchid Blade."

Zhou Wen picked up the Orchid Blade in his hand and compared it with the real Orchid Blade that Wang Lu had mentioned. However, in terms of external superficialities, it didn't seem any different.

Zhou Wen tested the sharpness and toughness of the replica and realized that it was very similar to the real Four Gentlemen Blades. He couldn't tell what was different.

Seeing Zhou Wen look at her suspiciously, Wang Lu said with a smile, “Don’t worry about using it. I can sense that there’s no ominous power in the replica.”

Since Wang Lu was so certain, Zhou Wen accepted the replica Orchid Blade. Although it was fake, it likely wasn’t inferior to the real deal as a weapon. Furthermore, it wouldn’t be detrimental to its owner like the real one.

The secret of the Gold Burial Ground had been cracked. There was no point in staying here any longer. Zhou Wen and Wang Lu headed for the exit of the underground Ancient City.

After walking for a while, Zhou Wen realized that the little beast had poked its head out from a hole in the distance and was looking at them.

They were walking ahead; yet, the fella continued following them without giving up. It was clearly waiting for an opportunity to take revenge.

Since the little beast wasn’t very aggressive and it hadn’t harmed other students, Zhou Wen ignored it and thought that it wouldn’t be able to keep up after they exited the dimensional zone.

However, he never expected that after leaving the underground Ancient City, the little beast would continue following him. After leaving the dimensional zone, Zhou Wen’s Truth Listener ability discovered that it had been traveling underground all this time. It had actually followed them onto campus.

This fellow can actually break out of the seal? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. After all, there weren’t many break-out creatures nowadays.

Zhou Wen remained unperturbed as he pretended that he didn’t notice it. He secretly sent a message to Wang Lu on his phone, telling her to be careful.

When they separated in front of their dorms, Wang Lu made a face at Zhou Wen and sent him a message. “It’s best you be careful. I believe it will definitely seek you out.”

Zhou Wen thought that it made sense. With Wang Lu’s luck, even if the little beast wanted to seek revenge, it would definitely come to him instead of Wang Lu.

After returning to his dorm, Zhou Wen realized that the little beast had indeed followed him in. It furtively hid in his building furtively, but it didn’t dare attack Zhou Wen.

From the looks of it, it knew how powerful Zhou Wen was. It didn’t dare risk its life to fight Zhou Wen. All it did was secretly exact revenge on him.

As it knew how to escape through the earth, it would be difficult to attack it again if he failed to take it down with a single strike. Zhou Wen pretended not to see it and waited for it to leave the ground before attacking.

He got onto bed and gamed on his phone. He also slowly drank the herbal tea that he had brewed. Although his body was in a good condition recently and hadn’t lost much blood, he still needed to maintain his health. He had to be prepared. What if he bled heavily in the future?

As Zhou Wen grinded the dungeons, he waited for the little beast to reveal itself. However, the little beast was very careful. It hid in a wall corner, behind the closet, and various spots. It peeked its head out from time to time without daring to come over.

When Zhou Wen saw that it didn’t dare come over while he gamed, he locked his phone and pretended to be asleep.

The little beast was just too careful. It only began to quietly crawl over and hide under Zhou Wen’s bed after he faked sleep.

Zhou Wen originally believed that the little beast would attack him at once. Once it left the ground, he would grab it.

However, to his surprise, the little beast suddenly changed its target and when it reached the bottom of Zhou Wen’s bed, it pounced at something underneath.

Zhou Wen listened carefully. The little beast had pounced on an iron lump and hugged it with its paws. It opened its mouth and bit it, producing creaking sounds.

Only then did Zhou Wen recall that he had obtained a treasure map from Earth Temple and had dug it up. However, Zhou Wen’s treasure map had led him to a dimensional doll. He didn’t know what kind of plant-type dimensional creature it was.

Later, he had saved the baby. The baby had given him a metal lump that resembled a walnut. Zhou Wen studied it for a long time but failed to figure out what it was. He had thrown it under the bed.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 547 - Three Heads and Six Arms

Chapter 547 Three Heads and Six Arms

The tiny beast originally wanted to launch a sneak attack on Zhou Wen, but after discovering the item that resembled a metal walnut, it gave up. It sprawled on the metal walnut and gnawed at it.

Zhou Wen saw that its teeth were already creating sparks from gnawing on the metal, but it couldn’t tear the outer shell of the metal walnut apart.

This fellow definitely knows something valuable when it sees it. Could it be that the metal walnut is really something good? After studying it for a period of time, Zhou Wen still couldn’t figure out what the metal walnut was. He thought it was a special metal and planned on finding an opportunity to melt it into a saber or something.

But now, looking at how the little beast wanted to eat the metal walnut, Zhou Wen felt that the walnut wasn’t just as simple as a piece of metal.

The tiny beast was good at replicating, and it had definitely seen a lot of treasures. Moreover, it knew how to hide underground. What kind of metal could it not find underground? It definitely didn’t want to eat the metal on the metal walnut’s surface. It was very likely that there was something inside the metal walnut which had made it forget about revenge.

With its cautious personality, it actually dared to cause such a commotion under Zhou Wen’s bed. Clearly, the item in the metal walnut was extremely attractive to it, making it lose its rationality.

Zhou Wen turned over and got off the bed. He lifted the bedsheets and looked inside. He saw that the tiny beast was still chewing on the metal walnut. It was as though it had been possessed. It didn’t even seem to notice that Zhou Wen was looking at it as it continued gnawing.

Zhou Wen reached out and picked it up.

However, the tiny beast’s four paws had the metal walnut in a firm grip. No matter how hard Zhou Wen pulled, it wouldn’t budge. When he pulled out the metal walnut, the tiny beast came out with it, its paws still on the walnut.

From the looks of it, what’s inside this metal walnut is no trifling matter. Zhou Wen released his hand. The tiny beast didn’t run, instead, it sprawled on the metal walnut and continued gnawing.

This fellow sure is greedy. Zhou Wen shook his head. Humans die for wealth, birds die for food. This little beast had sacrificed its life for a metal walnut. Its intelligence was truly worrying.

Since the tiny beast couldn’t bite through it, Zhou Wen ignored it and let it slowly gnaw at it while he carefully studied the metal walnut.

Truth Listener’s powers couldn’t hear what was inside the metal walnut. It seemed to be solid metal at its core. Doctor Darkness’s Light of Penetration couldn’t penetrate the metal either.

Zhou Wen didn’t sense any special energy fluctuations from the metal walnut. This left him puzzled. He didn’t know what could be inside such a metal lump.

He attempted to slash with Overlord Sword, but the sword beam that possessed Ever-Victorious only left a white mark on the metal walnut.

After a while, Zhou Wen realized that the tiny beast had actually produced a shallow bite mark on the metal walnut. At this speed, he didn’t know when it would be able to bite through it.

The tiny beast forgot about running as it greedily nibbled on it. Zhou Wen thought for a moment and placed the metal walnut and the little beast into the chaos space.

In the chaos space, the tiny beast continued nibbling on the metal walnut as if it was possessed.

Before the Golden Battle God Halberd respawned, Zhou Wen took out a Buddhist scripture and pondered as he read it. Could the Eight Perfections correspond to the Eight Consciousnesses?

Six hundred volumes of the Great Perfection of Wisdom Sutra are condensed into the Diamond Sutra. The Diamond Sutra is also condensed into the Heart Sutra. It can be said that the Heart Sutra is the essence of the Great Perfection of Wisdom. And its true meaning lies in the Eighth Consciousnesses. It’s also known as Tathagatagarbha Thought, and it’s also known as Ālayavijñāna. However, this is the concept and essence of the Great Perfection of Wisdom Sutra. The Small Perfection of Wisdom I cultivate seems somewhat different. Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that something was amiss. He then looked at the other information.

He failed to figure out anything new even when the Golden Battle God Halberd respawned. He went to grind the Golden Battle God Halberd and Medusa, but they only dropped stat crystals after expending all his efforts. It made Zhou Wen suspect that the Orchid Blade replica had affected the light that shone on him from providence.

Ah Sheng said that there's a one-third chance. It should drop next time, right? Although Zhou Wen was anxious, he didn't have any good ideas. All he could do was wait for tomorrow.

After grinding the rare dimensional creatures again, he was quite lucky this time. Another Three-Eyed Vajra Malla Companion Egg dropped. Zhou Wen hatched it and kept it for future fusions.

After finishing his set of grinding, Zhou Wen began studying his Life Providence, Eight Perfections Wisdom, again. Only by condensing a Life Soul could he learn the Golden Battle God Halberd's skill.

"Zhou Wen, are you busy? Do you have time to come with me to Dragon Gate Grotto?" Li Xuan suddenly came to Zhou Wen.

Li Xuan had been cultivating diligently recently and seldom came out. For him to take the initiative to look for Zhou Wen was definitely something.

"Yes," Zhou Wen agreed.

The two of them arranged to meet in front of Dragon Gate Grotto. When Zhou Wen arrived, he realized that apart from Li Xuan, Feng Qiuyan and Gu Dian from the Xuanwen Club were present as well as Ming Xiu.

“Now that Zhou Wen is here, I’ll make things clear first before we enter.” Li Xuan recounted what had happened.

Li Xuan had been cultivating diligently recently. He had gone to many dimensional zones to hone his combat abilities. He had discovered a strange dimensional creature in Dragon Gate Grotto’s Southernmost Cave. He had never seen it before.

While battling the dimensional creature, Li Xuan had nearly been killed. Thankfully, he had escaped.

The reason he had called them over was to let them take a look and see if there was a chance of killing that dimensional creature.

According to Li Xuan’s description, the dimensional creature was somewhat different from the other dimensional creatures in Dragon Gate Grotto. The Dragon Gate Grotto’s ordinary dimensional creatures were Warriors, Vajra Mallas, Fairies, and Stone Beasts.

However, that dimensional creature looked as ugly and terrifying as a devil.

After arriving outside the southernmost Cave, Li Xuan said to Zhou Wen and company, “You aren’t familiar with that dimensional creature. Don’t attack first. I’ll fight it first. Watch by the side. It’s best if you can think of a way to counter it. It won’t be too late to attack then.”

Zhou Wen, Feng Qiuyan, Gu Dian, and Ming Xiu nodded in agreement. The five of them entered the Southernmost Cave together.

There were some Warriors in the Southernmost Cave, but they were not as strong as the Vajra Mallas of the Myriad Buddha Cave. The five of them easily stormed their way in. When they arrived at a stone cave, they saw a three-headed, six-armed monster that looked like black iron rush out of the cave.

Zhou Wen looked at the three heads of the dimensional creature. Each face looked more terrifying than the other. All of them looked like evil ghosts. The only difference was that the head in the middle had a single horn while the other two had either two or three horns.

In each of his six hands was a hoop. The hoops were as thick as an infant’s arm and were shimmering with golden light. They looked like they were made of gold and there were many mysterious patterns engraved on them.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 548 - Super Self-Recovery

Chapter 548 Super Self-Recovery

Li Xuan directly used his Life Soul. His body was tightly wrapped by the black carapace, and his eyes had turned red. He looked different from his usual demeanor and looked sinister.

Li Xuan’s speed was very fast, leaving behind afterimages as he rushed in front of the monster. His body swayed left and right as he dodged the monster’s hoop attacks. He held an Epic Companion Beast saber in his hand and slashed at the monster’s body, but it was blocked by a hoop.

The monster was indeed very powerful. The six hoops delivered strange attacks, preventing Li Xuan’s saber from touching him. All he could do was constantly shift his position.

Li Xuan’s moves and movement techniques were exquisite. They looked extremely beautiful. It could be said to be a textbook example, without any flaws.

However, Zhou Wen felt that this wasn’t Li Xuan. The Li Xuan he knew wasn’t someone who pursued perfection.

If he hadn’t seen Li Xuan rush forward, Zhou Wen would have believed that the person inside the carapace was Li Mobai.

Is it really good to have such a change? Zhou Wen frowned slightly. If a person's goal was something he didn't like, Zhou Wen doubted he could go far.

"Li Xuan's moves are very powerful. I can't find any flaws, but I have a nagging feeling that something's amiss," Feng Qiuyan said as he watched Li Xuan battle the monster.

Ming Xiu nodded and said, "I also find it a little strange. It's very strong, but it also feels a little odd. I remember seeing Li Xuan fight in the past. His style isn't like that, right?"

"Coach, what do you think?" Feng Qiuyan asked Zhou Wen.

"Not everyone knows the path to take when they are born. They have to slowly experiment. Some people quickly find their own paths, but some people can walk their entire lives only to end up meandering down the wrong path. In fact, I don't know which path is right or which path is wrong. Li Xuan's path ultimately needs to be taken by him. I believe that no matter how difficult it is, he will definitely be able to continue down the path," Zhou Wen said.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Li Xuan's saber constantly clashed with the monster's golden hoop, but Li Xuan kept retreating. The monster's strength and speed were above his. His saber was unable to penetrate the golden bangle's defenses. Instead, he was forced to constantly retreat.

After watching for a while, Zhou Wen roughly understood that the monster had Epic levels of Strength and Constitution. Its body was extremely strong, and with its immense strength, even with Zhou Wen's Constitution, he would probably only be able to tie with him.

Li Xuan’s family had plenty of resources, so he had a large number of stat crystals to use. He hadn’t advanced to the Epic stage for long, but his various stats were almost maxed out. However, he couldn’t see his stats. Zhou Wen estimated that his basic stats were about 40 points. Even if it wasn’t, it was probably around 38 or 39.

Logically speaking, Li Xuan cultivated in the Invincible Connate Divine Art, so he shouldn’t have been at a disadvantage in terms of Constitution and Strength. However, he was overly focused on perfection in his moves, causing him to be constantly thrown back by the monster.

“I’m quite aware of its abilities. Let’s go,” Gu Dian said.

“Wait a little longer. I want to watch a little longer.” Zhou Wen stopped them and watched Li Xuan continue fighting.

Gu Dian didn’t ask why. Feng Qiuyan and Ming Xiu also stopped as they continued watching the battle.

“Old Zhou, it’s about time. Hurry up and attack,” Li Xuan shouted at Zhou Wen as he retreated.

“You shouldn’t need our help with such a weak dimensional creature, right?” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

“Bullsh*t. If I didn’t need you, would I have called you here?” Li Xuan cursed.

Zhou Wen said with a grin, “Didn’t you call us here to show us how amazing you are when slaying monsters? I understand.”

“Understand my ass. Hurry up and attack. I can’t hold on any longer.” Li Xuan was already forced to a corner of the cave. There was no way out.

“Are you lying to me again?” Zhou Wen stood firmly outside the cave, refusing to enter.

With Zhou Wen not moving, Feng Qiuyan, Ming Xiu, and Gu Dian didn’t move either. Li Xuan had been forced to the point of having no time to bicker with Zhou Wen.

Ka-Cha!

There was no room for retreat. Li Xuan, who was leaning against the stone wall, had his arm struck by the monster’s golden hoop. The carapace on his body cracked, and his bones seemed to fracture from the impact. His left arm immediately drooped down.

Thankfully, Li Xuan’s movement technique was good enough, or the strike would have smashed on his head.

“Old Zhou, stop fooling around. Are you trying to kill me?” Li Xuan rolled to the side in a sorry state as he yelled.

“I’m not fooling around. The Li Xuan I know doesn’t need help when killing such a dimensional creature, right?” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

Li Xuan fell silent as he constantly changed his movement techniques. He brandished his saber with his other hand to circle around the monster, but he couldn’t put up a fight even with two hands. Now, it was even worse after he had one arm injured. The situation was becoming more and more harrowing.

“Coach, will it be dangerous?” Ming Xiu asked worriedly.

“It’s fine. He still has energy left.” Zhou Wen knew Li Xuan too well.

Zhou Wen didn’t know what Life Soul Li Xuan had, but his Life Providence meant that he wouldn’t be killed so easily. Or rather, he wasn’t using his best strengths.

He was escaping from his past self. He wanted to become as mature and steady as Li Mobai so that he could use his exquisite techniques and schemes to defeat his opponent.

His talent was indeed very good, and his technique was also perfect. However, his personality was not compatible with his technique. This made his technique look powerful, but it lacked the decisiveness.

Crack! Crack!

More and more spots on Li Xuan’s carapace cracked as his injuries worsened.

“Coach, are you sure things will be fine? I think Li Xuan is about to die. Let’s go,” Feng Qiuyan said.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen saw that Li Xuan was still planning on winning using techniques. He knew that if this carried on, he might really die. He nodded and prepared to rush in.

“Stop right there. No one is to enter,” Li Xuan suddenly said.

Zhou Wen and company stopped as they watched Li Xuan battle the three-headed, six-armed monster. He was still persisting with perfecting his techniques, but his injuries were rapidly recovering.

The broken carapace on his body was repaired automatically in just a moment, and the repair speed accelerated. Towards the end, the golden hoops sent him flying upon impact, but in the next second, he stood up again, and the broken carapace was restored to its original state in the blink of an eye.

His recovery ability is much stronger than when he was at the Legendary stage! Zhou Wen couldn’t help but be surprised. Such a recovery ability virtually meant an undying body. Unless he was hit by a fatal blow, it was nearly impossible to kill him.

Gradually, Zhou Wen felt that Li Xuan’s aura was a little different. His moves were still pursuing perfection, but they were becoming more and more sinister.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 549 - Fated to be Beaten Up

Chapter 549 Fated to be Beaten Up

“Coach, did you notice that Li Xuan’s bizarre armor seems a little strange?” Feng Qiuyan said as he stared at the carapace on Li Xuan.

“It’s indeed a little strange.” Zhou Wen had long discovered it.

Every time Li Xuan’s carapace was shattered and restored, it would become even more resilient. The monster caused less damage when smashing into his self-healing carapace.

Furthermore, this ability seemed to have no upper limit. It could be shattered repeatedly. Every self-recovery made it stronger. After a few consecutive rounds of self-recovery, the monster’s golden hoop could only cause him minimal damage.

Why is Li Xuan learning from Li Mobai? His Life Providence and Life Soul mean he’s born to be beaten up and injured. How can he become stronger without being beaten up? It’s a waste to learn from Li Mobai! Zhou Wen thought.

Li Xuan was clearly the first person to realize that there was something wrong with his Life Soul. This was because his Life Soul had been condensed under Li Mobai’s pressure. He had even absorbed Li Mobai’s Evil King Gu. Even he himself knew little about his Life Soul. He even believed Li Mobai’s words—his Life Soul was a failed Life Soul.

Indeed, his Life Soul was different from Li Mobai’s expectations, it did not have the Evil King Gu as its primary core; it only absorbed a portion of the Evil King Gu’s characteristics and formed its own Life Soul.

His Life Soul had parts of the Evil King Gu’s characteristics, but they were not completely the same.

Previously, Li Xuan blamed himself. He felt that he needed to mature as soon as possible and become the pillar of support for his family like Li Mobai. Therefore, he deliberately trained himself, hoping to be stronger than Li Mobai.

He wanted to surpass Li Mobai in all aspects, but in the end, he walked a path that was not suitable for him at all. He had been training his skills all this time, trying his best to avoid getting injured. Unbeknownst to him, his Life Soul only became stronger after being injured. He had taken a long detour for nothing.

It was only today that he discovered the secrets of his Life Soul after being injured continuously. He could not help but feel overjoyed.

“To seek victory in defeat, to rebuild a kingdom that belongs to you from ruins. Such strength is similar to a phoenix’s nirvana. It’s a very powerful Life Soul,” Feng Qiuyan said seriously.

Anyone who fought Li Xuan would be under immense pressure. If they couldn’t kill him in one fell swoop, he would become stronger the more they fought. In the end, the opponent might be the one to die.

Zhou Wen looked at Li Xuan and felt that his Life Soul wasn’t just becoming strong from every shattering. Zhou Wen vaguely felt that every time the carapace shattered and healed, it would gain an additional sinister power.

The feeling was very strange. Zhou Wen couldn’t tell what it was, but he kept feeling that something was amiss.

Finally, Zhou Wen knew what was amiss. Li Xuan punched out and he realized that his punch was somewhat similar to a monster’s attack. The way he used it was very similar to the three-headed, six-armed monster.

However, if Zhou Wen didn’t remember wrongly, this move was likely the monster’s Essence Energy Skill. It wasn’t something that could be learned just from watching. One had to know the way to circulate Essence Energy.

Li Xuan definitely didn’t know such an Essence Energy Skill in the past. Now that he had used it, there was only one possibility—he had actually learned the three-headed, six-armed monster’s Essence Energy Skill while battling it.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but recall something. Li Mobai once said that his Life Soul was called Evil King Gu, a Life Soul formed from cultivating a secret Essence Energy Art from the South District.

Zhou Wen had once heard of some legends. South District’s Gu techniques placed many different kinds of poisonous worms and insects in a jar. They constantly hunted each other out of hunger, and the last poisonous worm to survive was a Gu. Not only was this Gu the strongest poisonous object, but it also possessed the ability to hunt and devour other poisonous worms.

Li Xuan’s Life Soul wasn’t only becoming stronger as it shattered, but it could also learn the enemy’s Essence Energy Skill in battle. It was very similar to the legends of Gu.

How much power has Li Xuan’s Life Soul inherited from Li Mobai’s Evil King Gu? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

Li Xuan had already gained the upper hand. When the golden hoops struck him, there were no longer any cracks on the armor. All it could do was make Li Xuan retreat half a step.

Li Xuan no longer dodged the monster’s golden hoops. While they smashed on his body, his saber slashed at the monster’s body. The battle between the man and monster felt like a battle between two monsters.

Li Xuan was struck by the golden hoops and his injuries rapidly healed. As for the monster’s body, it couldn’t heal from the saber slashes. In this constant battle, the monster that was originally terrifying looked weaker and weaker. It even felt like it was trembling.

Ming Xiu watched with a complicated expression. He wondered if death was the only option if he couldn’t kill Li Xuan with his strike.

Feng Qiuyan frowned as he pondered. If he were to fight Li Xuan, how could he win? After thinking for a long time, there was only one solution. He had to kill him before he became stronger.

Ka-Cha!

Li Xuan’s strength had clearly increased by a lot. After countless slashes, he cut off one of the monster’s heads.

The monster seemed to be a little afraid as it turned around and ran, not daring to fight Li Xuan again.

“Trying to run after hitting me so many times? It’s too late!” Li Xuan refused to give up. With a flash, he chased after the monster like a phantom.

The monster was truly afraid. It didn’t dare turn back to fight Li Xuan. After Li Xuan caught up with it, it took him a few slashes to slice off the remaining two heads.

Seeing the monster collapse at Li Xuan’s feet, Zhou Wen walked over and asked Li Xuan, “Are you alright?”

He had a nagging feeling that Li Xuan’s Life Soul was a little too strange. It gave off a sinister feeling perhaps of the absorption of the Evil King Gu’s characteristics.

Li Xuan dispelled his Life Soul and revealed his body. He sighed softly and said, “From the looks of it, I won’t be able to be a gentleman like Li Mobai in this lifetime. After all, I’m just a foppish guy who doesn’t care about his life.”

“It’s good being foppish.” Zhou Wen laughed. Since Li Xuan could say that, it meant that he was really fine.

“Sigh, so I can be very strong just by casually practicing. I didn’t need to be so serious,” Li Xuan continued sighing.

“That’s a little overboard…” Zhou Wen was rendered speechless.

Just as Li Xuan was about to say something, the three-headed, six-armed monster’s body suddenly moved. It gave Zhou Wen and company a fright as they stared warily at the monster’s corpse. They saw a bright glow in its chest, as though a blob of golden magma was churning.

Boom!

The corpse suddenly exploded, and a golden object emerged from the corpse.

They took a careful look and realized that it was another dimensional creature. It was different from the three-headed, six-armed monster. It was very normal with only one head and a pair of arms.

However, its appearance was even more terrifying than the three-headed, six-armed monster. Its entire body seemed to be made of gold, and its body did not seem human. It had two horns on its head, and there was a row of bone spurs on its spine. Its fingers were like golden hooks. Standing at half the height of a person, its body was burning with golden light.

With a wave of its hand, the six golden hoops that landed on the ground automatically flew over and covered its limbs and neck. The remaining golden hoop landed in its hand.

The golden hoops shrank automatically and became the size of a bracelet and a choker. Only the golden hoop in its hand remained the same size.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 550 - Golden Hoop

Chapter 550 Golden Hoop

The golden hoop in the tiny monster’s hand suddenly flung out. It quickly spun and flew towards Li Xuan, who was closest to it.

Li Xuan didn’t dare be careless. He produced his carapace again and slashed at it with his saber.

Clang!

The saber struck the golden hoop, tipping the front of the golden hoop downwards. However, the backside flipped over and wrapped around Li Xuan’s neck.

This happened so suddenly. In addition to the force from Li Xuan’s strike, the golden hoop’s spin accelerated, preventing Li Xuan from having the time to react. The moment the golden hoop touched his neck, it suddenly contracted, wrapped around his neck, and instantly shrank.

The little monster didn’t sit idle. It flew towards Gu Dian on the other side. Its speed was unbelievably fast, even faster than the three-headed, six-armed monster.

Gu Dian released his strength and threw a punch at the tiny monster. The tiny monster’s claws collided with his fist, and the hook-like claws immediately left several scratch wounds on Gu Dian’s hand.

Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan had already unsheathed their sabers and slashed at the tiny monster. Ming Xiu’s sword slashed out as well.

The tiny monster’s legs kicked at Feng Qiuyan and Ming Xiu respectively. Its calf was short, so it couldn’t reach them. However, the golden hoop on its ankle flew out and expanded in size as it flew towards Feng Qiuyan and Ming Xiu.

Having seen what happened to Li Xuan, Ming Xiu and Feng Qiuyan didn’t dare to forcefully slash the golden hoop as they retreated.

The tiny monster’s claws met Zhou Wen’s Bamboo Blade. With a clang, the Bamboo Blade slashed at the tiny monster’s wrist and collided with the golden hoop. The tiny monster was sent tumbling backward as Zhou Wen took a few steps back.

How can this fellow’s strength be so powerful? Zhou Wen was alarmed. In terms of pure strength, without the enhancement of his Essence Energy Skill, the tiny monster’s strength was stronger than his.

Zhou Wen had 40 Strength. Apart from the Epic creatures like Truth Listener and Banana Fairy, who were stronger than him, he had never seen an Epic creature being able to defeat him in terms of Strength. At most, it was a draw.

If the tiny monster did not have a Life Providence or Life Soul that boosted its Strength, it implied something scary.

Feng Qiuyan and Ming Xiu avoided the golden hoop, but the golden hoop seemed to have a life of its own. It spun in the air and charged at them, forcing the two of them to have no choice but to constantly dodge.

Li Xuan’s neck was bound as the golden hoop tightened. The carapace on his neck showed strangle marks as the golden hoop continued shrinking. If this continued, the carapace would be crushed and his neck would be severed.

He used his saber to slash at the golden hoop, but it was useless. No matter how hard he pulled, he couldn’t stop the golden hoop from tightening. If it wasn’t for Li Xuan’s carapace’s firmness and his body’s toughness, anyone else would have been strangled by the golden hoop.

Gu Dian swung his fist at the tiny monster again and pincered it with Zhou Wen.

The tiny monster’s figure rapidly flashed as it swiped its claws. The two golden hoops on its wrist flew out and wrapped themselves around Gu Dian and Zhou Wen.

Gu Dian quickly retreated. He looked tall and big, but he wasn’t clumsy at all. He was extremely fast.

Zhou Wen’s saber slashed at the golden hoop. The golden hoop flipped over and was about to land on Zhou Wen’s head.

Zhou Wen dodged using Ghost Steps, escaping the fate of being latched on by the golden hoop. At the same time, he brandished his saber and slashed at the tiny monster. It reached out to remove the golden hoop around its neck and attacked Zhou Wen’s saber.

Zhou Wen’s Transcendent Flying Immortal was extremely fast. The tiny monster shouldn’t have been able to withstand it, but when Zhou Wen’s saber slashed down, he suddenly felt a huge suction force just as it was about to hit the monster’s neck. The Bamboo Blade involuntarily shifted its trajectory and slammed into the golden hoop.

The golden hoop was like a super magnet that firmly sucked the Bamboo Blade. Zhou Wen tried his best to pull the saber back, but his strength wasn’t as great as the tiny monster’s. The tiny monster screamed as it pulled the golden hoop. Zhou Wen couldn’t stabilize his body as he moved with it.

As for the other golden hoop, it was already spinning in the air to latch onto his head. Zhou Wen had no choice but to give up on dodging with the Bamboo Blade. At the same time, he took out the Orchid Blade and threw it out as a flying knife.

The Orchid Blade transformed into a cold beam of light as it attacked the tiny monster’s abdomen. However, just as it was about to stab into the tiny monster’s abdomen, it was sucked away by the golden hoop, preventing it from harming the tiny monster’s body.

Feng Qiuyan was already at the Epic stage and his movement techniques were fast enough. He could still dodge the golden hoop’s attacks, but Gu Dian and Ming Xiu had yet to advance to the Epic stage. It was proving difficult for them to dodge.

Ming Xiu dodged twice before he was at his wit’s end. He could only swing his sword at the golden hoop, but then, his sword was suddenly sucked by the hoop. He could only do a flip to avoid being latched onto by the golden hoop.

Gu Dian gripped the golden hoop as it tried to tighten around his body. However, as he resisted using his tight grip, the golden hoop sent his body flying around in the cave. Gu Dian was injured from crashing into the walls.

Li Xuan desperately tugged at the golden hoop around his neck. His carapace had been shattered and the golden hoop had sunken in. He looked like he was about to suffocate.

Zhou Wen didn’t have time to think. All he wanted to do was kill the tiny monster as soon as possible, or they would be in danger.

He summoned the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, and with a roar, it slapped the tiny monster.

The speed of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was far faster than that of the tiny monster. Unable to dodge the attack, it raised its golden hoop to meet the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s palm.

Boom!

The tiny monster was slammed into the rocky ground along with the golden hoop.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon raised its claws, only to see the tiny monster jump out once again. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s claw was actually unable to smack it to death.

What’s this fellow’s background? Zhou Wen was alarmed as the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon spewed out a mouthful of Dragon Breath Holy Flames.

Under the surge of the Dragon Breath Holy Flames, the tiny monster spun the golden hoop in its hand, absorbing the Holy Flames into the golden hoop. The golden hoop seemed to be a spatial gate. After being sucked in, the dragon breath disappeared without a trace.

Zhou Wen was even more alarmed. He guessed that the tiny monster was likely a Mythical creature. However, its level might not have reached the Mythical stage yet. It was probably similar to Truth Listener and Banana Fairy.

That’s not right. Its situation is more like Demonic Neonate. The six golden hoops are somewhat similar to Demonic Neonate’s ancient sword. What is this fellow? Zhou Wen thought to himself, but he didn’t stop attacking. He summoned the Overlord Sword and slashed his sword beam at the tiny monster.

He didn’t dare to directly slash the golden hoop with his sword again, afraid that the sword would be sucked away.

As the tiny monster dodged the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s attack, it used the golden hoop to devour the sword beam that Zhou Wen slashed out.

However, its stats were still too low. It was slapped by the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, causing its golden body to crack and golden blood to flow out.

The tiny monster screamed again and again, but it was unable to withstand the power of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. The golden hoop could only absorb attacks that were in energy form, but it was ineffective against physical attacks.

Although it had the effect of sucking weapons, it wasn’t very effective against the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s claws. With a swipe of its claws, the tiny monster’s body cracked and it immediately died.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 551 - Truth Listener“s Chrysalis

Chapter 551 Truth Listener“s Chrysalis

As soon as the tiny monster died, the golden hoop seemed to lose its life. One by one, they returned to their original size and fell to the ground with tinkling sounds.

“Six-Winged Guardian Dragon… So that’s Coach’s Companion Beast…” Ming Xiu recognized the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon at a glance. In fact, everyone recognized the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. After all, it was the first Companion Beast on the ranking.

“As expected of Coach. He already has a Mythical pet so quickly.” However, Feng Qiuyan felt that it was only natural.

“I’m lucky. I got lucky during a battle between two Mythical creatures.” Zhou Wen was telling the truth. Then, he looked at Li Xuan and asked, “Are you alright?”

The carapace on Li Xuan’s neck had completely shattered. A purple mark lined his neck, and his bones had almost snapped. If he had been any later, his Life Providence probably wouldn’t have been able to save his life. With his head lopped off, no matter how strong his recovery abilities were, it was unlikely he could regrow it.

“I’m fine. I don’t know what weapon that golden hoop is. It was terrifying.” Li Xuan touched his neck and gritted his teeth in pain.

Fortunately, he had powerful recovery abilities. Without the restrictions of the golden hoop, he recovered in moments. There were no signs of injury.

However, this also gave Li Xuan a wake-up call. Although his body and Life Soul were very strong, it didn’t make him truly invincible. Against special attacks, it was useless no matter how strong his body and Life Soul’s self-healing abilities were.

Zhou Wen picked up the Orchid Blade, Bamboo Blade, and a golden hoop. Now that the golden hoop no longer had any magnetic force, the Orchid Blade and Bamboo Blade automatically separated from it. When Zhou Wen touched the golden hoop, there wasn’t any magnetic force.

“Look,” Ming Xiu said, pointing at the tiny monster’s corpse.

They looked across and saw that the tiny monster’s golden body was rapidly melting, quickly turning into a pool of golden liquid. It looked like a pool of blood, but the color was different.

Within that liquid was a crystal.

Zhou Wen and company were somewhat surprised. Reality wasn’t a game where corpses vanished. Typically, after a dimensional creature died, it rotted quickly, but it wouldn’t be that fast. Typically, it would take at least two to three days to decompose.

What was even more strange was that the six golden hoops didn’t disintegrate together. Logically speaking, the golden hoops were part of the dimensional creature. Once a dimensional creature died, the golden hoops should have disintegrated. However, the six golden hoops remained intact. They were still as hard as before.

Zhou Wen extended his hand and sucked the golden dimensional crystal into his palm. He wiped away the golden liquid on it before throwing it at Li Xuan.

They were originally here to help Li Xuan, so they naturally had to give any spoils to him.

Li Xuan didn't stand on ceremony as he caught the crystal and put it away with a grin.

"Do you want these golden hoops?" Zhou Wen pointed at the other golden hoops on the ground and asked.

"Objects on a monster would usually disintegrate. What's the use of having them? They can't be used as weapons," Ming Xiu said.

"These golden hoops seem a little special. Perhaps they won't disintegrate." Zhou Wen tried injecting his Essence Energy into a golden hoop, but there was no reaction.

Ming Xiu shook his head and said, "Regardless of whether they disintegrate, I don't use such ring-type weapons. They're useless for me."

Feng Qiuyan and Gu Dian also shook their heads, indicating their lack of interest in them. Zhou Wen didn't stand on ceremony. He picked up the golden hoops and planned on studying them and figuring out what they were.

This thing was actually so powerful in the hands of an Epic creature. If it didn't disintegrate and disappear, he could study how it could be used. What if it could be used?

After this trip, Li Xuan returned to his former self. He felt a lot more relaxed, unlike the mentally burdened person he was before.

However, he didn’t reduce the amount of training he did. He only changed the training method. In the past, he had been training his skills crazily. Now, he was also practicing his skills. However, he would often challenge stronger dimensional creatures, allowing his carapace to be injured before healing so as to constantly improve.

Zhou Wen returned to his dorm and studied the hoops for a while, but no matter what kind of Essence Energy he injected, the golden hoops didn’t react.

Could it be that humans really can’t use a dimensional creature’s weapon? Zhou Wen had no choice but to place the golden hoops on the table to see if they would disintegrate over time.

Some dimensional creatures disintegrated relatively slowly. Perhaps the hoops would take several days to disintegrate and disappear.

In the chaos space, the tiny beast was still gnawing on the metal walnut with all its might. However, it had not achieved much. There were still shallow teeth marks, and it did not seem to have made much progress.

He released Banana Fairy, Truth Listener, Doctor Darkness, and Demonic Neonate to give them a breather. They had some self-awareness. Usually, if he didn’t release them for a long time, they would become a little irritable, especially Demonic Neonate and Banana Fairy. If it wasn’t necessary, they hated being in tattoo form.

Banana Fairy leaned on Zhou Wen’s shoulder as she curiously watched him game. She was eager to try.

Demonic Neonate stood in a dark corner with the ancient sword in her arms. If one didn’t pay attention, one wouldn’t be able to sense her existence at all.

Doctor Darkness stood there in a daze. It was unknown what he was thinking about.

Previously, when Truth Listener came out, it liked to jump around in the house. This time, it was abnormally quiet. Zhou Wen didn’t hear its voice.

After a while, Zhou Wen was suddenly blinded by a shimmering golden light in the room. He turned his head and saw the six golden hoops on the table. For some reason, they emitted a golden glow and automatically floated up.

The six golden hoops spun. A strange power surged within them as they became smaller and smaller with every spin.

At first, they were still the size of a necklace or bracelet. But later on, they reduced to the size of a ring; yet, continued shrinking.

Just as Zhou Wen was feeling alarmed and puzzled, he saw the six golden hoops land and fly towards the table.

Only then did Zhou Wen realize that Truth Listener was standing on the table. After the six golden hoops landed, they flew towards Truth Listener’s body.

The six miniature golden hoops were caught onto Truth Listener’s six ears. They looked like six earrings, suiting it in quite a surprising manner.

After the six golden hoops latched on, Truth Listener’s body immediately emitted a golden glow. Wisps of golden light were like silk as they gradually enveloped its body. Soon, it transformed into a golden cocoon.

Is it evolving? Zhou Wen was surprised and delighted. He had never expected the golden hoops to allow Truth Listener to evolve. This was truly a pleasant surprise.

After Truth Listener’s evolution, it would definitely be able to evolve to the Mythical stage. When that happened, Zhou Wen would have another super fighter.

I wonder who will be stronger after the evolution—Truth Listener or Tyrant Behemoth? Zhou Wen was delighted. He had not realized that he would be able to evolve Truth Listener from fighting a monster.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 552 - Benevolence of the Battle God

Chapter 552 Benevolence of the Battle God

Why didn’t I encounter such a dimensional creature despite going to Dragon Gate Grotto so many times in-game? After Zhou Wen returned, he entered the game’s Southernmost Cave to take a look. However, there were only a few Warriors and Stone Beasts. There was no such monster.

Not only wasn’t the tiny golden monster seen, but the three-headed, six-armed fellow was also missing.

Truth Listener was put away by Zhou Wen. The process of advancing from an Epic to a Mythical stage was rather lengthy. Tyrant Behemoth had yet to complete its evolution, so Truth Listener probably would take quite some time. He wouldn’t be able to use it anytime soon.

Without Truth Listener’s ability, it was equivalent to having a cheat that gave him an omniscient view turned off. It made Zhou Wen feel a little unaccustomed.

I was a little too reliant on Truth Listener previously. I should take this period of time to recover. The only thing Zhou Wen was worried about was that Truth Listener had yet to complete its evolution. He needed this to happen before he went to Zhuolu otherwise he would be at a disadvantage.

When the Golden Battle God Halberd respawned, Zhou Wen stormed into the Metalwork Temple again. With the Fire

Furnace Queen and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, there was basically no need for Zhou Wen to take action.

However, Zhou Wen still attempted to control the blood-colored avatar to fight. He switched his Essence Energy Art to the Small Perfection of Wisdom and sensed the changes that Small Perfection of Wisdom and Eight Perfections Wisdom Life Providence brought to his body.

Without Truth Listener, the Eight Perfections Wisdom Life Providence could make Zhou Wen's six senses extremely sharp. Apart from his hearing being much weaker than Truth Listener's, his other senses were much stronger.

Zhou Wen's nose was even better than a trained police hound. He could distinguish many scents that he couldn't identify before, and his taste buds had become extremely sensitive. When he ate, he used to only know flavors like sour, sweet, bitter, and spicy. After he activated Eight Perfections Wisdom, he could easily distinguish something.

The only bad thing was that back when he drank the seaweed egg soup from the canteen, he felt that it was fresh and delicious.

However, ever since Zhou Wen drank the seaweed egg soup with Eight Perfections Wisdom activated, he never drank it again.

From the soup, he actually detected the flavor of a fly. His sense of taste was just so sensitive. Zhou Wen felt that as long as he trained, it would be easy for him to tell the year of production for alcohol.

Of course, Zhou Wen wasn't that bored. He didn't have the time to dabble in those things either. All he did was constantly practice using the Eight Perfections Wisdom.

Gradually, Zhou Wen sensed the benefits of Eight Perfections Wisdom. With his sharp senses, he could discover many things that he usually couldn’t.

His hearing ability aside, his eyes could see further and more clearly. It was like a telescope that allowed him to see the enemy for any preemptive strikes while his sense of smell allowed him to tell the dangers of different poisonous fog.

Some gaseous poisons could not be seen with the naked eye, so this was when his sense of smell became very important.

However, other than that, the Eight Perfections Wisdom didn’t have any other uses. Compared to the other Life Providences, it was a little too simple. Without any outstanding abilities, it only strengthened Zhou Wen’s basic abilities.

As Zhou Wen practiced, he grinded. When Demonic Neonate slashed at the Golden Battle God Halberd once again, there was a clang as a golden metal egg fell out.

“An Sheng is really accurate about the one-third probability. It dropped at the first expected value.” Zhou Wen was overjoyed as he hurriedly checked the Companion Egg’s stats.

Golden Battle God Halberd: Mythical

Life Providence: Godly Weapon

Life Soul: Golden Divine Light

Wheel of Destiny: Benevolence of the Battle God

Strength: 80

Speed: 72

Constitution: 79

Essence Energy: 68

Talent Skill: Battle God’s Radiance, Unstoppable

Companion Form: Golden Trident.

The Golden Trident’s stats were rather good—much better than the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon before it was strengthened. However, what puzzled Zhou Wen was why its Wheel of Destiny was called Benevolence of the Battle God.

Could it be that it’s not an offensive miracle like Six-Winged? It can’t be. This is a weapon-type Companion Beast. How can it not be an offensive-type miracle? Zhou Wen hurriedly looked at the Benevolence of the Battle God’s introduction.

Benevolence of the Battle God: Benevolence on the battlefield is to end the enemy’s life and reduce the enemy’s pain. This is the pity of God.

When Zhou Wen saw this note, he immediately felt relieved. It looked like an attack-type miracle.

The golden trident only had two skills. There were certainly several skills missing, but these two skills were very useful.

Battle God’s Radiance was the skill that had instantly killed Zhou Wen. The golden trident glowed brightly as it attacked indiscriminately within a certain range. It was a large AOE attack Essence Energy Skill that was similar to Banana Fairy’s Grand Yin Wind. It consumed a lot of Essence Energy.

Unstoppable was a passive Essence Energy Skill that was similar to Ever-Victorious. Its effects were stronger, and it was exactly what Zhou Wen needed.

Life Providence, Life Soul, and so on needed Zhou Wen’s testing before he knew the specific effects.

He switched back to the Slaughterer Life Soul and used his infinite Essence Energy to hatch the Golden Battle God Halberd.

When Zhou Wen held the golden trident in his hand, he knew that the opportunity to kill Torch Dragon had finally arrived.

He took the golden trident to grind Medusa to test its power.

After entering the Medusa temple, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon restrained Medusa. The tip of the golden trident aimed at Medusa’s heart with Golden Divine Light.

This strike pierced through Medusa’s heart and killed the terrifying existence that had once nearly taken Zhou Wen’s life.

Zhou Wen could tell that the golden glow at the tip of the golden trident was likely its Life Soul, Golden Divine Light, but he didn’t see the effects of the Wheel of Destiny.

Could it be that Medusa is too weak and doesn’t need the Benevolence of the Battle God? With this in mind, Zhou Wen made the golden trident use its miracle to kill some monsters.

However, Zhou Wen only saw it pierce through the monster's body and kill it without seeing it deliver any powerful move.

How strange. What kind of miracle is the Benevolence of the Battle God? Why doesn't it seem to have any effect? Zhou Wen still remembered how gorgeous and dazzling Holy Angel's Redemption was when John used the miracle. The golden trident was just too disappointing.

Despite such thoughts, Zhou Wen was still very satisfied. The golden trident fulfilled his greatest requirement. It was an excellent weapon that should be able to penetrate Torch Dragon's body.

Unfortunately, Medusa didn't drop a Companion Egg. All she dropped was a Speed Crystal. It was useless for Zhou Wen as he couldn't bring it out.

After familiarizing himself with the Golden Battle God Halberd's abilities and characteristics to the point of using it skillfully, Zhou Wen couldn't wait to take it, along with Six-Winged, to the Zhuolu ruins.

With the Golden Battle God Halberd and Six-Winged, the Aoyin stone statue that was guarding the door wasn't able to stand up to them at all. It was instantly killed by the Golden Battle God Halberd. Its ability to devour was useless against the Golden Battle God Halberd.

Soon, Zhou Wen entered the temple.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 553 - Think of a Way

Chapter 553 Think of a Way

Without Truth Listener, Zhou Wen was at a small disadvantage. However, with the augmentation of Six-Winged's flying speed and the Transcendent Flying Immortal's movement techniques, Zhou Wen still found an opportunity.

The Golden Battle God's halberd stabbed into Torch Dragon's scales with a glimmer of divine light. Even with such a sharp divine weapon, Zhou Wen still felt a great resistance when tearing apart the scales. It was like a blunt knife slicing through flesh. Although he could stab in, it didn't feel clean.

Torch Dragon let out a sharp cry after being injured. The scales on its body stood up diagonally as it raised its head to strike backward.

Seeing that the Golden Battle God Halberd failed to stab it to death, Zhou Wen wanted to take the opportunity to strike again, but in the next second, he saw two rows of lanterns-like eyes appear on both sides of Torch Dragon's body, from head to tail.

Then, that was it. The blood-colored avatar was directly sucked into the Bright Torch Vision World's world, and the game instantly turned black.

Zhou Wen held his phone and lost interest in entering the game again.

Torch Dragon’s entire body was filled with eyes. Unless Zhou Wen’s entire body was covered in mirrors, there was no way he could hide from the activation of the Bright Torch Vision World.

Although the move that covered its body with eyes was only used at the final moment by Torch Dragon, and it was very likely to be greatly limited, no matter how many restrictions it had, as long as it could be used once, Zhou Wen would be doomed. There was no chance of survival.

Suddenly, an idea lit up in Zhou Wen’s mind.

It’s impossible for me to be covered in mirrors. Then, can I turn my armor into a mirror? Zhou Wen thought of this possibility.

The crystal mirror formed by the Sun Beast couldn’t cover his entire body, but if he combined the crystal mirror with another armor-type Companion Beast, would it turn into a mirror-like armor that reflected light?

Although the possibility was very small, he had to give it a try. Otherwise, he would have to find a bigger mirror to completely block his body. If not, it would be impossible for him to dodge Torch Dragon’s final eruption of the Bright Torch Vision World.

However, Zhou Wen only had one Sun Beast on him. The drop rate was pitifully low. After grinding for so long, Zhou Wen had only had one drop.

Zhou Wen did a study and realized that the Sun Beast and Zhou Wen’s armor-type Companion Beasts didn’t have high compatibility. They didn’t even reach 40%, so the success rate definitely wasn’t good.

Even if he succeeded, the outcome might not become a mirror armor as Zhou Wen wanted. Who knew what would happen after the two Companion Beasts combined?

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and planned on asking if there was any mirror-like Companion Beast armor. That would save him all the trouble.

Zhou Wen sent a message to Li Xuan, but Li Xuan didn’t know where to find such armor.

After asking An Sheng again, An Sheng thought for a while, but he also didn’t think that there would be such an armor. According to him, the armor that was closest to the armor that Zhou Wen mentioned should be an armor made of Ice Nightmares.

However, according to what he knew, Ice Nightmares were Mythical Companion Beasts. Only North District had one, and it belonged to Lance’s family.

However, the armor formed by the Ice Nightmare could not be said to be a complete mirror. It was like a smooth ice surface that could reflect light to a certain extent, but it was not as clear as a real mirror.

So at the end of the day, it’s still impossible? Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed.

“Young Master Wen, I’ll be away soon. If there’s anything you need, you can call this number.” An Sheng sent a number to Zhou Wen.

“Where are you going?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Didn’t I obtain that Mythical Companion Egg before? However, because I don’t have enough Essence Energy, incubating a Mythical Companion Egg will put my life in danger. Therefore, I can only use some special means. I plan on going to a dimensional zone with rich Essence Energy. Then, I’ll use some special methods to successfully hatch the Mythical Companion Egg. If I’m fast, I’ll be back in a month. If I’m slow, it’ll probably take two to three months,” An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen thought and said, “Ah Sheng, I want to go to Zhuolu in the near future.”

“When?” An Sheng didn’t ask why. He knew that Zhou Wen would give it a try after having the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

“I haven’t decided on the time yet. I still need to make some preparations. I’ll contact you when I’m ready. It’ll probably take some time.” Zhou Wen wasn’t sure when he would be able to resolve the problem of the mirror armor.

However, even without the mirror armor, Zhou Wen had to make a trip as soon as possible. He couldn’t wait any longer.

No matter how optimistic he was, the former principal probably didn’t have any hope of survival. Now, Zhou Wen only wanted to go in and take a look, or he wouldn’t be able to feel at ease.

If he really couldn’t obtain the mirror armor, Zhou Wen planned on taking a huge mirror made of tempered glass in. He could place the mirror in the chaos space and use it to block Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World when it used it.

This move could only be used in reality. Furthermore, it hadn’t been verified. He didn’t know if an ordinary mirror could block Bright Torch Vision World. Unless it was absolutely necessary, Zhou Wen didn’t want to employ this step.

“Alright, I’ll hatch the Mythical pet as soon as possible and rush back.” An Sheng went offline after replying to this message.

Zhou Wen knew that An Sheng’s trip was definitely very dangerous. It wasn’t difficult for Zhou Wen to hatch Companion Beasts that were of a higher level, but to ordinary people, it was a grave matter.

Zhou Wen could only pray that An Sheng would return safely. It was impossible for him to stop him from hatching the Mythical pet.

After entering the temple again, Zhou Wen once again stabbed Torch Dragon with the golden trident. Just like last time, Torch Dragon’s body had countless eyes appear as it used Bright Torch Vision World.

At that instant, Zhou Wen switched to Lost Country and used teleportation to change his location. He wanted to see if he could dodge the Bright Torch Vision World, but it was all in vain. After he appeared from his teleportation, he was directly killed by the Bright Torch Vision World.

From the looks of it, other than finding a sufficiently large mirror, the only way is to do it through pet fusion. Zhou Wen really couldn’t think of any other solution.

However, he only had one Sun Beast. Zhou Wen didn’t immediately fuse with it. Instead, he continued grinding the Music Temple to see if he could get another Sun Beast.

At the same time, Zhou Wen began researching the First Order of Chaos. He wanted to see if he could condense a Life Providence using it.

If the First Order of Chaos could condense a Life Providence, it might allow the Invisibility Cloak Companion Egg to hatch again. With the Invisibility Cloak, it might be able to crack the Bright Torch Vision World.

The First Order of Chaos was somewhat similar to the other Essence Energy Art that Zhou Wen had cultivated—Dao Sutra. Zhou Wen cross-checked them and quickly gained insights into the First Order of Chaos.

However, there were still some differences between the two. After studying it for two to three days, Zhou Wen gained insight into many profound mysteries. He vaguely felt that the First Order of Chaos was undergoing some strange changes, as though it was about to condense a Life Providence.

In the past two or three days, Zhou Wen had farmed Medusa and the Golden Trident a few more times, but nothing good dropped. Medusa dropped a skill crystal that Zhou Wen couldn’t absorb.

Is the one-third drop rate An Sheng mentioned true? Zhou Wen was extremely puzzled.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 554 - Breaking the White Cocoon Again

Chapter 554 Breaking the White Cocoon Again

The one-third probably of what An Sheng said was correct. However, that was the global drop rate across different Mythical creatures. They had never killed the same Mythical creatures consecutively.

In reality, killing a Mythical creature might result in a Mythical creature of the same type taking a long time to come through the dimensional rift. It could take a year or decades. There wasn’t much chance of killing the same Mythical creature.

Some families were rather lucky. They spent very little time researching a Mythical creature. After killing it, they would have Mythical creatures of the same type appear every year for years.

Even after killing many Mythical creatures, the chances of a Companion Egg dropping remained very low. Only when one was extremely lucky would a second Companion Egg of the same type drop.

This was something that only a family with a deep heritage could do. The An family had only just risen to prominence a few years ago. They had killed Mythical creatures, but up till now, they had not seen any Mythical creatures of the same type.

In reality, they hadn’t killed many Mythical creatures. How could they have a lot of experience?

Over time, the An family might have a Mythical Companion Egg of the same type, but the drop rate would probably be less than a third.

This also involved the problem of uniqueness. Mythical Companion Beasts like the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon might produce Companion Beasts of the same type, but for creatures like Banana Fairy and Truth Listener, they were unique. It was impossible to have a completely identical Banana Fairy or Truth Listener appear.

Zhou Wen still didn’t know if the Golden Battle God Halberd and Medusa were unique Mythical Companion Beasts. He could only confirm it after a long time of grinding.

At that moment, Zhou Wen didn’t really care about this problem. He was still studying the First Order of Chaos. Legend had it that it was the Essence Energy Art of the Greek mythology’s Chaos.

Chaos was probably equivalent to the egg that was split apart by Pangu in East District myth. It represented a chaotic world where Yin and Yang had yet to be separated. The Dao Sutra also studied nature.

Although there were some differences between the two, it could be used for reference. It wasn’t difficult for him to understand the profundity of the First Order of Chaos. In just two days, Zhou Wen had a breakthrough.

The Essence Energy in his body circulated continuously, gradually transforming into a strange power that merged with his body and mind.

He couldn’t see the power, but he could sense that it was a Life Providence that Zhou Wen had plenty of experience condensing.

After successfully condensing a Life Providence, Zhou Wen checked his stats. After switching to the First Order of Chaos, there was indeed an additional Life Providence.

Life Providence: Chaos Body

Zhou Wen gave it a try. This Chaos Body was very similar to his Dao Body. It was also extremely effective at recovering Essence Energy. It also strengthened his body, making it similar to his Dao Body.

Zhou Wen tried to use his Chaos Body to inject Essence Energy into the Invisibility Cloak. The Invisibility Cloak vibrated even more intensely, as though it was about to break out of its shell.

But after a long vibration, it still did not come out.

Zhou Wen didn’t manage to get the Invisibility Cloak out after all his hard work. He knew that he was still lacking something. He probably needed to wait for the First Order of Chaos to condense a Life Soul before he could hatch it.

It won’t be that easy to condense a Life Soul. These Essence Energy Arts are simulated by the Lost Immortal Sutra, not something I really mastered. Previously, those Life Souls were condensed by absorbing a special attribute. To condense a Life Soul for the First Order of Chaos, I’m afraid I have to do something similar, right?

Zhou Wen secretly calculated in his heart. Previously, the Dao Body absorbed the Taboo attribute and condensed a Life Soul. And the Taboo attribute was because I absorbed the blood of the creature inside the Ant Nest cocoon. Could it be that I can help the First Order of Chaos condense a Life Soul if I obtain another drop of blood?

Due to the similarities between the First Order of Chaos and the Dao Sutra, Zhou Wen felt that it was likely easier for the First Order of Chaos to condense a Life Soul than Small Perfection of Wisdom. After all, he had had similar experiences.

What he lacked now was a drop of blood. This was because Zhou Wen didn’t have the physique needed to cultivate the First Order of Chaos. It was purely simulated by the Lost Immortal Sutra. To condense a Life Soul, he needed a foundation.

Having figured this out, Zhou Wen opened the Ant Nest dungeon and went to Ant City.

He hadn’t gone to Ant Nest for days. Now, he suddenly felt like he was in a dream. It was as if he had just obtained the mysterious phone and the time he had come to grind ants was just yesterday.

However, the ants here were completely unable to harm him. Any Companion Beast beside Zhou Wen could finish them off.

The Fire Furnace Queen threw down a ball of molten flames, burning large swaths of ants to death. The notifications of him killing dimensional creatures flooded the screen.

To Zhou Wen, the Golden Flying Ant was something he could kill easily. Six-Winged smacked it to death with a single swipe of its claw, akin to squashing an ant.

Apart from this white cocoon, I've seen two. One is protected by a white dragon while the other is protected by the chick's mother. They are extremely terrifying Mythical creatures. In comparison, the guardian, Golden Flying Ant, is highly lacking in qualifications. Seeing nothing drop from the Golden Flying Ant, Zhou Wen flew straight for the white cocoon.

He summoned the Golden Battle God Halberd. He held the trident in both hands while the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon stood in front to protect him.

The last time Zhou Wen came, he had been killed instantly by the creature inside the white cocoon. Although his strength had improved greatly and he had two authentic Mythical Companion Beasts, he still felt that he was probably no match for the creature inside the cocoon.

Attack! Zhou Wen gripped his trident tightly as he stared intently at the white cocoon.

Upon hearing the command, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's wings transformed into streams of light and slashed at the white cocoon like six blades.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was still quite powerful. Its dragon wings sliced open the white cocoon, revealing the creature that was curled up inside.

Zhou Wen didn't hesitate at all. At the instant the white cocoon was torn open, the golden trident stabbed at the creature. He used all his strength. This strike was his fastest attack to date.

Although Zhou Wen felt that he wasn't a match for the creature inside the cocoon, it wasn't difficult to get a drop of blood. After all, he had succeeded before when he was weaker than he was now.

Moreover, he had previously used the golden trident and coupled it with Lost Country’s teleportation to kill Medusa from behind with one strike. This proved the powerful destructive power of the golden trident.

Zhou Wen thought that if the creature inside the cocoon didn’t defend in time, he might be able to luck out and kill her.

I wonder what will drop if she dies? A thought flashed through Zhou Wen’s mind. It was only an instant.

The Golden Divine Light at the tip of the golden trident was about to stab the creature inside the cocoon, the creature didn’t even raise her head to look at the blood-colored avatar.

Zhou Wen’s heart raced. Just as he thought he was about to succeed, the golden trident suddenly stopped. It moved from extreme motion to extreme stillness. It only took an instant.

A snow-white hand grabbed onto the golden trident’s edge. The incomparably sharp edge was unable to slice through the fair and slender fingers.

The creature in the cocoon finally raised its head. It turned its head and looked at the blood-colored avatar with its demonic eyes.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 555 - The Terrifying Guardian

Chapter 555 The Terrifying Guardian

Zhou Wen’s heart skipped a beat as he sensed something amiss. He subconsciously switched to the Inverse Ancient Emperor and used the Demon Dragon True Body. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon roared and spewed out dragon breath.

Boom!

The blood-colored avatar and Six-Winged felt as though they had been struck by lightning. The blood-colored avatar’s hands involuntarily released the Golden Battle God Halberd as his body flew backward. Like a cannonball, they slammed into the mountain wall, producing a large and small hole.

Zhou Wen felt that the blood-colored avatar was seriously injured, but thankfully, it wasn’t dead. This time, it wasn’t instantly killed by the creature inside the cocoon. Just as he was about to leave the cave, he saw a golden beam flash in front of him. The Golden Battle God Halberd flew over and nailed the blood-colored avatar’s body. It penetrated its chest and the game screen instantly turned black.

This fellow is a little too strong. The six-winged seraphim should be much weaker than her, right? Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed. He only wanted to get a drop of blood, but he still ended up being killed.

However, Zhou Wen realized something. His encounter with her this time was clearly different from before. Her body seemed to have grown quite a bit.

When he first came, the creature in the cocoon was still sleeping. She only woke up after he had injured her.

This time, it was obvious that she had completely woken up. Her body had also developed more perfectly. Every time he saw her, she was somewhat different. This was clearly different from the other dimensional creatures in-game.

According to The Thearch, the creatures in the cocoons should be the guardians of the various species. Then, can I drip my blood on the cocoon like John? If I can obtain her approval, will she become my guardian? It looks like she's clearly much stronger than the six-winged seraphim. This thought flashed through Zhou Wen's mind.

However, it was only for an instant. He had many secrets. He definitely could not let an intelligent being who could betray him follow him around 24/7.

Since I can't do it by force, I'll have to sneak an attack. Zhou Wen entered Ant City again, but he had learned his lesson this time. He didn't directly face the creature inside the cocoon.

First, he used the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon as bait. The blood-colored avatar and Demonic Neonate hid in the ant honey pool, silently waiting for an opportunity.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon blasted open the white cocoon. The creature inside the cocoon only took a glance at it before it was sent flying.

From the perspective of the third party, it was even more shocking. The powerful Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was already considered a top-notch Mythical creature, yet its huge body was actually blasted away by her gaze.

Zhou Wen and Demonic Neonate didn’t sit idle. The blood-colored avatar held the Golden Battle God Halberd and instantly teleported behind the creature inside the cocoon. The tip of the Golden Battle God Halberd was about to touch her back. As long as Zhou Wen thrust it a little further forward, the Golden Divine Light could stab through her skin and cause a drop of blood to drip out.

However, just as Zhou Wen teleported out, he saw the creature turn her head to look at him.

Boom!

Zhou Wen’s body flew out like a cannonball. Soon, the game screen turned black again.

Is the guardian really only at the Mythical stage? Apart from The Thearch whose strength is unknown, she’s many times stronger than any Mythical creature I’ve ever seen. Zhou Wen felt that this fellow wasn’t as simple as a Mythical creature.

The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was considered a top-notch Mythical creature. Although it did not have any offensive miracle, it should not have been so easily killed by someone of the same level.

Zhou Wen suspected that the guardian could break through the limits of the Mythical stage. If not, it meant that her skills, Life Soul, and other aspects were already heaven-defying.

After dying twice, Zhou Wen didn’t head to Ant City again.

“Thearch, how can the guardian you mentioned last time be contracted?” Zhou Wen sent a probing message to The Thearch.

However, The Thearch didn’t reply. He didn’t know what she was doing. He hadn’t seen her appear recently.

Before Zhou Wen headed to Ant City again, he needed to think of a perfect solution. Making blind attempts was pointless.

I wonder if the crystal mirror transformed from a Sun Beast can reflect her gaze. Zhou Wen thought as he grinded.

Ding!

Suddenly, a strange sound entered Zhou Wen’s ears. He turned his head and saw a Companion Egg drop beside the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. It was a Sun Beast Companion Egg.

Zhou Wen was delighted as he hurriedly went over to pick up the Companion Egg. After hatching it, he had another Sun Beast Companion Beast. Their stats were about the same.

Unfortunately, the crystal mirror was too small. Even with two crystal mirrors, they couldn’t completely block Zhou Wen’s body.

There are two crystal mirrors. I can try fusion. Zhou Wen decided to give it a try. If he could produce a full-body mirror armor, his entire body would be equivalent to a mirror. Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World would naturally be useless to him.

However, the crystal mirror’s compatibility with armor beasts was too low. With a fusion compatibility of about 40%, failure was easy.

Typically, armor is made of metal while the crystal mirror is crystal. Could this be the reason why the compatibility is relatively low? Zhou Wen thought for a moment before heading to the Curse Demon Palace and grinding out a Stone Armor Companion Beast.

He placed them together, and indeed, the compatibility was much higher, reaching 61.

Indeed, this is the case. However, the skills and Life Providence of this Stone Armor are lacking. Most importantly, this isn’t a full-body armor. There’s no way to cover my whole body. Zhou Wen searched online and discovered that there were quite a number of jade-type Companion Beasts that could become full-body armor.

After looking through a lot of information, Zhou Wen decided to buy a jade armor-type Companion Beast to fuse.

He still had a large number of Essence Crystals. It wasn’t difficult to buy an Epic Companion Egg. Zhou Wen decided to head to the Companion Egg shop. Whatever Companion Eggs were online might also be on sale at the local Companion Egg shops.However, Zhou Wen didn’t go to Qin Xiyuan’s shop. He had a nagging feeling that there was something wrong with Qin Xiyuan. If he could avoid him, he would rather not interact with him.

Zhou Wen remembered that his classmate, Luo Xuan, owned a Companion Beast shop. Therefore, he contacted Luo Xuan and asked him about jade armor-type beasts.

Luo Xuan said that his shop should have one, but he still needed to take a look at the specific ones before he could tell him in detail. He told Zhou Wen to visit his shop.

When Zhou Wen arrived at Luo Xuan’s pet shop, Luo Xuan rushed back.

“Jade armor-type Companion Beasts are considered quite common. Compared to metal and wood armor, the price of the jade armor is relatively cheap, but not by much. After all, you want an Epic Companion Egg.” Luo Xuan personally led Zhou Wen to his store to see the jade-type Companion Beast.

“Is there jade armor that can wrap the entire body? It’s best if there’s no gap at all.” Zhou Wen asked as he looked around.

“It’s really not easy to find. Jade armor is heavy to begin with. If it’s full-body armor, it’s inconvenient for movement.” Luo Xuan thought for a moment before saying, “However, we do have an Epic Companion Egg like that in our shop, but in terms of price, it might be more expensive than the typical Epic Companion Egg.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 556 - Killing Torch Dragon

Chapter 556 Killing Torch Dragon

Zhou Wen left the shop with a crystalline jade-type Companion Egg in his bag.

This Companion Egg was an Epic jade terracotta. It had dropped from an ancient tomb dimensional zone. There were more clay terracotta and bronze terracotta. Jade terracotta was a rare breed.

This type of terracotta had armor as their companion forms. Because jade terracotta was rare, it was much more expensive.

Zhou Wen used his phone to look at the stats of the jade terracotta Companion Egg. It was pretty good and could be considered quite a top-notch Epic stage.

Spirit-Protecting Jade Terracotta: Epic

Life Providence: Unaging Undying

Life Soul: Guardian Spirit.

Strength: 39

Speed: 28

Constitution: 40

Essence Energy: 40

Talent Skill: Clear Jade Shield.

Companion Form: Armor

Apart from speed, the Spirit-Protecting Jade Terracotta was top-notch at the Epic stage. However, Zhou Wen only wanted its companion form. Speed didn’t matter.

He had used his phone to match with the Sun Beast. The Spirit-Protecting Jade Terracotta had a compatibility of 91% with the Sun Beast, which was much higher than the Stone Armor.

After returning to his dorm, Zhou Wen couldn’t wait to hatch the Spirit-Protecting Jade Terracotta. Then, he placed it in the same panel with the Sun Beast.

I hope there will be a good outcome. Zhou Wen had spent all his money to buy the Spirit-Protecting Jade Terracotta.

Although he had a lot of Essence Crystals, he could not cash them out. Naturally, he couldn’t use them for direct payment.

Would fusing the armor and mirror together have a perfect ending—a mirror-surfaced armor—like Zhou Wen’s imagination? Zhou Wen didn’t have any confidence. However, he had no choice but to give it a try.

Seeing the two pets emit a resplendent glow and gradually fuse into one, Zhou Wen’s heart leaped to his throat.

The fusion easily succeeded, but success wasn’t the main point. It was very difficult to fail with 91% compatibility.

Whether it could become what Zhou Wen needed was the crux.

After a while, Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss. Why didn’t the light dissipate? On careful look, it had already been successfully fused. However, the new pet emitted a resplendent glow like the sun, preventing Zhou Wen from seeing it clearly.

After taking a closer look, he realized that the new pet was like a crystal and was emitting a dazzling light. It was still in the form of the jade terracotta.

Please let it be armor… Armor… He was delighted and quickly checked the information about his new pet.

Jade Crystal Spirit: Epic

Life Providence: Unaging Undying

Life Soul: Guardian Spirit.

Strength: 40

Speed: 31

Constitution: 40

Essence Energy: 40

Talent Skill: Jade Crystal Light Shield.

Companion Form: Armor

Zhou Wen was overjoyed as he hurriedly summoned the Jade Crystal Spirit in companion form. Soon, a crystal armor appeared around him, enveloping his entire body.

Zhou Wen looked at himself in the mirror and nearly jumped up in excitement. The armor on his body was like a crystalline mirror, clearly reflecting everything around him. At a glance, he imagined that his body had vanished.

Zhou Wen felt as though he had eaten the Fruit of Life. All his pores effused with pleasure. He had never had such a smooth, successful fusion of pets. To Zhou Wen, it was a miracle.

He could not wait to enter the game and go to the temple in the Jade Crystal Spirit armor. He wanted to see if such armor could block the Bright Torch Vision World.

Just like before, Zhou Wen flew behind Torch Dragon and stabbed the Golden Battle God Halberd into its back. Amidst the pain, rows of eyes appeared on both sides of its body. Each eye had the Bright Torch Vision World ability.

Almost instantly, the dragon wings on Zhou Wen’s back and the Golden Battle God Halberd in his hand vanished. They reflected in Torch Dragon’s eyes, but the blood-colored avatar in the Jade Crystal Spirit armor was fine.

It really works! Zhou Wen felt relieved. He knew that he could finally kill Torch Dragon.

As expected, Torch Dragon’s enraged state did not last for long. In just a minute, other than its pair of snake eyes, the rest of its eyes closed.

However, that minute felt like a century to Zhou Wen.

Without the speed augmentation of the dragon wings, Zhou Wen found it a struggle to dodge using only Transcendent Flying Immortal. He was nearly killed a few times.

Thankfully, with Slaughterer’s infinite Essence Energy supporting him, Zhou Wen maintained his Transcendent Flying Immortal state. At the same time, he used Ghost Steps. Under the high pressure, he fused the two Essence Energy Skills and constantly shuttled through the pillars in the palace. He managed to survive until finally, the eyes on Torch Dragon’s body closed.

After Torch Dragon closed its eyes, its aura weakened greatly. It was as if it had been drained of all energy.

However, without the Golden Battle God Halberd, Zhou Wen couldn’t kill it. In the end, he was still killed by Torch Dragon.

Zhou Wen didn’t feel depressed about the death. He was calm. He knew that he could finally go to the ruins to kill Torch Dragon.

He dripped another drop of blood to revive and entered the game dungeon. Now, Zhou Wen was especially calm because he knew that Torch Dragon was no longer his obstacle.

He came in front of Torch Dragon once again. The instant the Golden Battle God Halberd stabbed Torch Dragon, Zhou Wen unsummoned it and the dragon wings and rapidly retreated.

As expected, Torch Dragon’s eyes opened all across its body like before.

Zhou Wen kept using his movement technique to circle around the metal columns. Torch Dragon, who was covered in eyes, chased after him desperately like a lantern.

Seconds passed. After barely holding on for a minute, the eyes on Torch Dragon completely shut. Its body seemed to shrivel as its massive body seemed to shrink.

Now… it’s my turn… Zhou Wen summoned the dragon wings and Golden Battle God Halberd again as his eyes burned.

After working hard for so long, he had finally overcome this seemingly impossible mountain.

As though sensing the change in Zhou Wen’s aura, Torch Dragon shrank back in fear.

“It’s too late to be afraid now.” Zhou Wen flapped the dragon wings on his back and instantly appeared beside Torch Dragon. The Golden Divine Light at the tip of the Golden Battle God Halberd tore through the poison fog around Torch Dragon and stabbed at its body.

Blood splattered as the Golden Divine Light tore through Torch Dragon’s scales and flesh.

Amidst a sharp cry, Torch Dragon spewed out poisonous smoke as black beams shot out from the scales on its body. However, it was already at the end of its rope. Its might was much weaker than before, making it impossible for him to injure Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen’s figure flashed as the Golden Battle God Halberd constantly tore apart Torch Dragon’s flesh. The palace was filled with dragon blood.

The powerful Torch Dragon finally collapsed at Zhou Wen’s feet. When the gigantic body collapsed, the entire palace seemed to tremble.

Looking at Torch Dragon’s corpse in the pool of blood, Zhou Wen felt an indescribable sense of joy.

Ding!

As Torch Dragon’s corpse slowly disappeared, a black crystal dropped.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 557 - The Last Day of the Exchange

Chapter 557 The Last Day of the Exchange

‘Killed Mythical Creature, Torch Dragon youngling. Discovered Dimensional Crystal.’

This thing… is a youngling… Zhou Wen couldn’t help but be astonished. If it were an adult Torch Dragon, he wondered how strong it would be.

Only one dimensional crystal dropped. When Zhou Wen saw the number, he thought it was just an ordinary dimensional crystal. He couldn’t help but feel somewhat disappointed. However, upon careful scrutiny, he saw that it was a 37-valued Spatial dimensional crystal.

It’s a rare spatial stat, and it’s 37 points. Zhou Wen was overjoyed as he hurriedly absorbed the Spatial Crystal.

Strands of strange energy fused into Zhou Wen’s body, making him feel like his body had changed, but he couldn’t tell what changes had happened.

After the Spatial Crystal was completely absorbed, Zhou Wen saw the Spatial state of his rare stats reach 37.

Spatial stat of 37. The requirement for the Jade Lute Crystal is 41 Constitution, 21 Spatial stat, and a Spatial Life Providence and Life Soul. In other words, as long as I raise my Constitution to 41 points, I can absorb the Jade Lute Crystal skill. Zhou Wen was still eyeing the Jade Lute Crystal.

Although no Companion Egg dropped, a special stat was still extremely valuable. Zhou Wen was satisfied and planned on doing it again. Unfortunately, Torch Dragon was the same as the Golden Battle God Halberd. It didn't appear immediately after he respawned the dungeon. It would probably take 24 hours before the Torch Dragon youngling would appear again.

It's time to go to Zhuolu. Zhou Wen planned on heading to Zhuolu while waiting for the dungeon to respawn. As long as he grinded twice and confirmed that he could kill Torch Dragon safely, he would immediately enter the ruins.

He could ignore the chick and antelope. If the two of them didn't see Zhou Wen return, they would definitely head to Wang Lu's place for free food and drink. They wouldn't starve themselves.

Zhou Wen planned on purchasing some items before heading to Zhuolu.

Just as he walked out of Four Seasons Garden, he bumped into Ming Xiu and Tian Zhenzhen, who were looking for him.

"Coach, our exchange is about to end. I came to say goodbye before we leave," Ming Xiu said.

"So fast?" Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. He didn't think it had been three months since Ming Xiu had arrived. His days of gaming really passed quickly.

"The three months are up the day after tomorrow. I'm afraid that the school will have other arrangements and that I won’t be able to bid you farewell, so I came ahead of time,” Ming Xiu said.

Zhou Wen didn’t know what to say. He wasn’t good at words, nor did he like to make farewell speeches.

“Coach, if you have the time, can you fight me again before I leave?” Ming Xiu clearly wasn’t the kind of person who would invite others to a farewell dinner. He wasn’t just here to bid Zhou Wen farewell.

“I can do it now,” Zhou Wen said with a nod.

“Then let’s go to the training ground. I’ve improved a lot recently. Although I haven’t advanced to the Epic stage, I already have some insights,” Ming Xiu said excitedly.

The three of them arrived at the training ground and found an empty room. Tian Zhenzhen stood by the side and watched the battle. Zhou Wen and Ming Xiu took their practice weapons and stood there.

“Coach, please give me your guidance.” With the sword in hand, Ming Xiu’s temperament changed instantly. The warmth from before vanished. His being was even more terrifying and cold than the sword in his hand.

Zhou Wen wielded the practice sword and displayed the stance of Transcendent Flying Immortal. Since Ming Xiu specially came to spar with him before leaving, Zhou Wen didn’t want to brush him off.

Ming Xiu held his sword. At the instant his aura reached its peak, he unsheathed his sword and transformed into a stream of light that stabbed Zhou Wen.

It was like the last ray of light on the horizon during sunset. Ming Xiu’s sword was gorgeous and resolute. It was the last ray of light, and also the final bloom.

Although they were both focused on speed, Ming Xiu’s sword techniques and Feng Qiuyan’s saber techniques exuded a completely different feeling.

Tian Zhenzhen watched Ming Xiu’s strike from the side. Her eyes were filled with anticipation, hoping that the strike would surprise Zhou Wen.

She had been practicing with Ming Xiu the entire time. She knew how much hardship Ming Xiu had suffered in order to hone his sword, and she also knew how much Ming Xiu had improved in such a short time. Although she knew that Ming Xiu couldn’t defeat Zhou Wen, she also wished to see a look of surprise on Zhou Wen’s face. That was the greatest reward for Ming Xiu’s hard work.

Tian Zhenzhen knew very well that Zhou Wen’s shocked expression was more important than any other person’s praise for Ming Xiu.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t show any expression. With a slight movement of his practice sword, he blocked Ming Xiu’s sword. Although Ming Xiu’s sword was fast and ruthless, it was still too slow for Zhou Wen.

Ming Xiu couldn’t help but feel a little discouraged when he saw Zhou Wen easily block his sword that was infused with everything. He stood there with his sword in hand.

“What are you waiting for? Continue,” Zhou Wen said when he saw Ming Xiu pause.

Ming Xiu’s eyes narrowed. He gripped the sword in his hand tightly and swung it again. Like before, his sword was as fast as lightning.

However, Zhou Wen still casually brandished his sword and blocked Ming Xiu’s sword. However, this time, Ming Xiu didn’t hesitate or stop as he struck again.

Tian Zhenzhen was filled with disappointment. Ming Xiu had clearly put in so much effort, but Zhou Wen was still able to easily block his sword art.

Ming Xiu constantly attacked Zhou Wen from all directions. His sword technique was like meteors that streaked across the sky, but Zhou Wen didn’t use his strongest strike. He even remained in place. All he did was wave his sword and block Ming Xiu’s incoming strikes.

Tian Zhenzhen could not help but smile bitterly. She knew that the difference between the two of them was too great. It was so great that it left one in despair.

Looking at Ming Xiu, who constantly attacked Zhou Wen but failed to make him even take a single step, Tian Zhenzhen felt her heart almost shatter. She really didn’t wish to see Ming Xiu suffer such a blow.

Ming Xiu had put so much effort into improving his sword techniques that when they failed she wanted to rush forward and stop him from continuing the battle. She didn’t want Ming Xiu to suffer such humiliation again.

“If I were you, I wouldn’t disturb him.” A voice sounded beside her. Tian Zhenzhen was too engrossed and hadn’t noticed someone standing beside her.

“President Wei?” Tian Zhenzhen turned around and realized that the person was the president of the student council, Wei Ge.

Wei Ge looked at the battle between Zhou Wen and Ming Xiu and said, “No one is born to be a winner. Every man will experience countless failures in his life. However, some men will never get up again after failing. As for some men, they will get up and continue advancing after failing, ultimately becoming geniuses in the eyes of others. Trust him. Don’t stand in front of him. Don’t block his path. Just trust him.”

Tian Zhenzhen didn’t understand him, but his words dispelled her urge to rush over.

Ming Xiu’s sword constantly slashed out, but it was also constantly blocked by Zhou Wen.

Wei Ge’s eyes narrowed. He could tell that Ming Xiu’s sword technique was evolving. He was searching for all possibilities. As long as he could get up and continue advancing, he would not lose.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 558 - Tomorrow Sword Ar

Chapter 558 Tomorrow Sword Ar

Zhou Wen’s sword art looked ordinary, but he had already used Transcendent Flying Immortal’s technique. However, he didn’t take the initiative to attack and only used it to defend. No one could tell what was so profound about it.

However, even defense alone gave Ming Xiu a lot of pressure. Just like when Zhou Wen and Xia Xuanyue fought, Xia Xuanyue used the Path to Snatching Heaven to pressure Zhou Wen.

However, Zhou Wen’s movement technique wasn’t the Path to Snatching Heaven. It wasn’t that aggressive. He was only defending, but it made Ming Xiu feel as if he would be killed by Zhou Wen if he didn’t attack.

Therefore, Ming Xiu could only continuously attack and attack. If it was an ordinary person, under such pressure, they would probably be scared out of their wits. Their willpower would soon collapse, and they would give up on resisting or end up risking their lives.

However, Ming Xiu didn’t give up. Under such pressure, he constantly searched for an opportunity to defeat Zhou Wen. He constantly attacked with his sword.

This won’t do… Not this either… Ming Xiu kept trying, but no matter how fast his sword was, no matter how gorgeous his technique was, or how brilliant his strikes were, they were perfectly parried by Zhou Wen.

What do I have to do to break through the Coach’s defense? Ming Xiu had already tried his best. He had already tried everything he could, but he couldn’t think of any better methods.

Ming Xiu knew that this couldn’t continue. Once his train of thought was severed, his sword’s might would weaken. When that happened, Zhou Wen would counterattack.

This was his last battle with Zhou Wen before he left. He didn’t wish to leave it just like that.

What should I do… what should I do… Countless thoughts flashed across Ming Xiu’s mind.

Ming Xiu suddenly felt that this situation was a little familiar. He seemed to have experienced this before.

Soon, Ming Xiu remembered why this situation was so familiar. It was because he had faced the same predicament when he was young.

At that time, he had only been practicing his sword techniques for a short period of time. He was small and weak in strength—he was only three years old. The other students who practiced with him were already six or seven years old. Therefore, during any sparring, the difference in strength was huge and Ming Xiu was always defeated by his classmates because he was too weak.

He lost terribly in the daily sparrings. With Ming Xiu’s temper, he naturally couldn’t accept it. At that time, he often thought that if he could grow up faster and become as strong as his classmates, he would definitely not lose.

Unfortunately, it was impossible for him to grow up overnight. However, ever since then, Ming Xiu constantly upped the ante when it came to training. He kept honing his skills. Although he was very young, after a few months he was able to fight against his classmates who were a few years older than him. A year later, no classmate was his match.

The predicament back then was the same as the present predicament. Zhou Wen was much stronger than him in every aspect. The difference was that even with technique, he still couldn’t beat Zhou Wen.

When I was young, I couldn’t fulfill that fantasy. But now, it’s not impossible to realize it. I can do it in another way… Ming Xiu seemed to have made a decision in his heart, and his gaze became sharper.

“His gaze is different,” Wei Ge said with narrowed eyes.

“What do you mean his gaze is different?” Tian Zhenzhen asked doubtfully.

“Watch his next move. Perhaps this will be a very important moment in his life,” Wei Ge said without elaboration.

Tian Zhenzhen had no choice but to stare at Ming Xiu. She wanted to know how different his next strike would be.

Ming Xiu held his sword as sword beams flashed like meteors. From Tian Zhenzhen’s point of view, this strike was no different from many of his previous strikes. They were all so fast and furious, but such strikes couldn’t defeat Zhou Wen.

She had already seen it countless times. Such a magnificent sword art had been easily blocked by Zhou Wen. There had been no exception.

Indeed, Zhou Wen’s sword blocked Ming Xiu’s sword again, but at the instant the two swords clashed, everyone was astonished to realize that Zhou Wen’s sword had missed. It failed to block Ming Xiu’s sword.

As for Ming Xiu’s sword, it acted as a late student. After Zhou Wen’s sword swept over, his sword stabbed towards Zhou Wen’s heart.

“Alright! Zhou Wen made a mistake!” Tian Zhenzhen jumped up in excitement. She thought that it was Zhou Wen’s mistake.

Clang!

However, in the next second, Zhou Wen’s sword hilt slumped downwards and struck Ming Xiu’s sword tip. It sent Ming Xiu’s sword to the side, preventing him from stabbing him.

“That wasn’t Zhou Wen’s mistake, but a result of Ming Xiu’s deliberate actions. The late sword wasn’t even seen by Zhou Wen. It nearly hit him. It’s really interesting.” Wei Ge revealed a teasing expression.

Ming Xiu had already ceased his attack. He did not continue fighting and sheathed his sword.

Zhou Wen’s sword-wielding hand drooped down as he allowed the tip of the sword to stick to the ground.

“Nice sword art. What’s the name of that strike?” Zhou Wen asked Ming Xiu.

“It doesn’t have a name yet. Coach, if you don’t mind, you can give it a name,” Ming Xiu said.

Zhou Wen didn’t decline. After some thought, he said, “Since it’s a late strike, let’s call it Tomorrow Sword Art.”

“Sword of Tomorrow… Tomorrow Sword Art… Alright… I’ll call it Tomorrow Sword Art…” Ming Xiu seemed to like this name very much and decided to go with it.

“Then, let me see how far your Tomorrow Sword Art can go.” Zhou Wen narrowed his eyes as he stared at the sword in Ming Xiu’s hand. He felt his confidence and inspiration erupt due to Ming Xiu’s strike. His mind was at peak activity.

“Coach, please appraise my Tomorrow Sword Art!” Ming Xiu gripped the hilt of his sword. It was as if he had entered a mysterious realm that was surreal.

Ka-Cha!

The practice sword and scabbard in Ming Xiu’s hand actually broke apart. Cracks spread out on the scabbard. In the blink of an eye, the scabbard shattered, along with the sword hilt that Ming Xiu was holding.

It was not strange that the practice sword shattered. The strange thing was that after the practice sword and scabbard crumbled, he still held a sword in his hand. It was a transparent sword of light, and a terrifying sword intent radiated from it.

“Life Soul… Is that a Life Soul?” Tian Zhenzhen could not believe her judgment and asked Wei Ge.

“Yes, that’s a Life Soul. It’s really enviable. He’s still so young, but he has already comprehended a Life Soul,” said Wei Ge. He was truly envious.

If he had met Zhou Wen earlier and come to a realization earlier, he wouldn’t have wasted so much time doing other meaningless things. Perhaps he could have been like Feng Qiuyan and Ming Xiu, with such shocking achievements at a young age.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 559 - Peerless Duo

Chapter 559 Peerless Duo

When the terrifying sword intent reached its peak, it suddenly retracted. In an instant, it completely converged, and the transparent sword beam in Ming Xiu’s hand stabbed out.

This wasn’t a late strike, but a strike from the future. Ming Xiu’s sword was unbelievably fast as though it had broken through his limits. It transcended space and time as it stabbed at Zhou Wen.

The eruption of this strike was so sudden, fast, and bizarre that Tian Zhenzhen was unable to keep up with it. She did not even see how the strike was thrust out when she heard a clang.

The practice sword in Zhou Wen’s hand had already snapped. As for the transparent beam sword in Ming Xiu’s hand, it had been sheathed at some point in time.

“Tomorrow after tomorrow. How many tomorrows would there be? If you have the will, why wait until tomorrow? Live in the moment, and let the Sword of Tomorrow slay all grudges. Good sword technique!” Wei Ge praised.

Tian Zhenzhen only knew that Ming Xiu’s strike was very powerful, but she did not know how strong it was or which aspect of it was strong. She kept staring, but she couldn’t tell.

“Thank you for your guidance, Coach. I’ll be leaving.” Ming Xiu bowed seriously and then turned to leave the practice room.

“Ming Xiu, you have finally won. Furthermore, you have condensed a Life Soul. You are only seventeen years old. It’s great that you reached the Epic stage at seventeen,” Tian Zhenzhen chased after him and said excitedly.

“No, I lost.” Ming Xiu shook his head.

“How can that be? I saw you snap Zhou Wen’s sword. You definitely won!” Tian Zhenzhen exclaimed.

“That’s because Coach used a practice sword, while mine was a Life Soul Sword. That’s why he blocked my sword. It was only because the practice sword was too weak that it snapped. Even so, my sword still failed to injure him, nor was it able to force him to attack. Indeed, I’m still too inferior. However, I now have a direction. There will come a day when I will catch up with Coach,” Ming Xiu said confidently.

“I see. However, you are already very powerful. You are at the Epic stage at 17 years old. If your father knew, he would definitely be overjoyed,” Tian Zhenzhen consoled.

“That’s right. It’s time to go back and make the old man happy. I have to let others decide if the sword art my father passed down is weak or strong.” Ming Xiu’s eyes were filled with excitement. After all, he was only a seventeen-year-old. He had the zeal of youth.

After Ming Xiu and Tian Zhenzhen left, Zhou Wen was about to leave when Wei Ge stopped him.

“Zhou Wen, can we have a chat?” Wei Ge asked.

“President, what’s the matter?” Zhou Wen didn’t feel anything special about Wei Ge. He didn’t have any negative feelings towards him or a good impression of him. He was just a schoolmate he wasn’t familiar with.

“I have a question for you,” Wei Ge said.

“Just say whatever you have to say. However, I might not necessarily answer you,” Zhou Wen said.

Wei Ge smiled and said, “Actually, it’s not a big deal. I just want to ask you. After graduating, do you plan on staying in school or going out to make a name of yourself?”

“Everyone’s choices are different. I only wish to return to my hometown to game,” Zhou Wen said.

When Wei Ge heard Zhou Wen’s answer, he was stunned for a long while before he suddenly laughed. “Not bad, not bad. Everyone’s choices are different. I was overthinking it.”

“Zhou Wen, what game are you playing? I should have a lot of free time in the future. I want to play it too,” Wei Ge asked.

“Recently, Huang Ji and I have worked together to develop a new game. If you’re interested, you can download it to play. This is the download address.” Zhou Wen sent the download address of the game, Dimensional, to Wei Ge.

“Alright, I’ll go back and play.” Wei Ge downloaded the game and waved goodbye to Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen went to the supermarket to buy what he needed before storing them in the chaos space. Then, he informed Li Xuan and company before leaving the school. He headed to Zhuolu alone.

He didn’t contact An Sheng. Firstly, An Sheng was still hatching the Companion Egg. Secondly, if he contacted An Sheng, he would definitely enter the temple with him. It would be a meaningless risk.

Zhou Wen already had the confidence to kill Torch Dragon, so it was better for him to do it himself.

Before he left the city, his phone suddenly rang. He took a look at the number and realized that it was from Ouyang Lan. He could not help but mutter inwardly, Don’t tell me Ouyang Lan found out so quickly?

“Little Wen, how’s your exchange with your schoolmates at the moment?” Ouyang Lan asked out of the blue after he picked up the call.

“What do you mean?” Zhou Wen was puzzled and didn’t understand what Ouyang Lan was getting at.

“I’m talking about the exchange student from Bright Prospects College. Aren’t you his student tutor? How are you two getting along? Are you close?” Ouyang Lan asked.

Zhou Wen was even more puzzled. Why would Ouyang Lan actually care about this?

He had no idea that Ouyang Lan had arranged for him to become Ming Xiu’s student tutor.

“Our relationship isn’t bad, I suppose?” Zhou Wen felt that their relationship wasn’t bad. At the very least, they hadn’t quarreled.

“That’s good. What do you think if I let you live with Ming Xiu in the future?” Ouyang Lan asked again.

“Wait, Sis Lan, what do you mean? What do you mean by letting me live with Ming Xiu?” Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss.

Ouyang Lan said, “Do you know what Ming Xiu’s Life Providence is?”

“I don’t know.” Zhou Wen had never cared about this.

“Didn’t you say that you have a good relationship with him? Why don’t you even know about his Life Providence?” Ouyang Lan didn’t wait for Zhou Wen to reply before continuing, “His Life Providence is Peerless Duo. Do you know what it means? It means that there will be two peerless geniuses in the same era.”

“And then?” Zhou Wen still didn’t understand what this had to do with him.

“Little Wen, I think that you should read more brain-teasers in addition to your cultivation to strengthen your imagination. That’s a Peerless Duo. Of course, it requires two people to be able to be called a duo. In other words, those who practice with him will be augmented by his Life Providence. Both parties will have their cultivation speed accelerate. Don’t you think that you’ve improved faster in the past three months?” Ouyang Lan said.

“There’s actually such a thing…” Zhou Wen really wasn’t aware. Furthermore, he had never cultivated with Ming Xiu. Instead, it was Feng Qiuyan who practiced with Ming Xiu all day.

“Forget it, forget it. Your emotional quotient and reaction are too slow. My relationship with Ming Xiu’s family elders isn’t bad, so if you can get along well, I can consider letting you live together and cultivate together…”

“Sis Lan… Thank you for your kindness… There’s really no need. I’m more used to living alone…” Zhou Wen finally understood why Wang Fei said that the school had designated him as a student tutor and that he couldn’t reject it. So it was Ouyang Lan’s arrangement.

Unfortunately, he had missed Ouyang Lan’s good intentions.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 560 - Unexpected Discovery

Chapter 560 Unexpected Discovery

After hanging up, Zhou Wen left Luoyang and rode a Chi towards Zhuolu.

He had been to Zhuolu before, so naturally, he still remembered the way. However, compared to the last trip, the probability of seeing people outside the city was lower.

Many of the roads were already abandoned and lush vegetation could be seen everywhere.

Unless there was a large convoy or a pet transport team passing by, it would be hard to see a lone traveler.

On the way, Zhou Wen encountered some break-out creatures. Although they weren't very strong—at the Legendary stage—it made him even more uneasy.

As the level for break-out creatures dropped, it was very likely that the dimensional zones' seals would weaken further. Wang Mingyuan had said that in another ten years, the dimensional zones would completely have their seals released. From the looks of it, it wasn't a lie.

The Chi's speed was rather fast. Although it wasn't as comfortable as sitting in a car, it could traverse complicated terrain, unlike cars that were easily restricted.

Many roads were destroyed by dimensional creatures. It was getting harder and harder to drive outside the city.

There were also many vines and plants that covered the roads. Other than some roads that often had cars drive through them, it was hard to guarantee smooth-flowing roads.

Zhou Wen wasn’t afraid of exhaustion as he traveled day and night. On the third day, he set up a tent and planned on sleeping for a while.

Although he was full of energy and had endless Essence Energy, a person’s body and mind wouldn’t feel good if they did not sleep for prolonged periods.

The path Zhou Wen took wasn’t one visited by convoys, so there weren’t many people around. Furthermore, this was a mountain path in the mountainous area, so the chances of encountering people were even lower.

Zhou Wen set up a tent on a platform by the side of the road. It just so happened that the area was empty. Beside it was a cliff without any obstructions. If any foreign creature appeared, it could be discovered ahead of time.

He summoned Six-Winged, Banana Fairy, Doctor Darkness, and other Companion Beasts and got them to guard him. Only then did Zhou Wen feel at ease to fall asleep.

At midnight, Zhou Wen was sleeping soundly when he was suddenly awoken by a pair of tiny hands.

Opening her eyes, he saw Banana Fairy patting his face with her tiny hands. Upon seeing Zhou Wen wake up, Banana Fairy pulled his hand and pointed outside the tent.

“What happened?” Zhou Wen asked Banana Fairy.

Banana Fairy spoke, but he couldn’t understand what she was saying. It left Zhou Wen somewhat depressed. After all, she was a Mythical pet. It had been so long, yet she couldn’t even learn simple human language.

Zhou Wen could only get up and leave the tent. Six-Winged was sleeping outside the tent, sleeping even more soundly than Zhou Wen.

Doctor Darkness stood at the entrance of the tent without any expression, as though he was in a daze.

These two fellows aren’t reliable when compared to Banana Fairy, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

Banana Fairy flew in the air with her banana leaf and pointed at the bottom of the cliff. She made a series of sounds as though she wanted to tell Zhou Wen something.

Zhou Wen walked to the edge of the cliff and looked down. With the help of the moonlight’s illumination, he saw something glowing in the forest below.

The flickering light looked very regular. It didn’t look like fireflies. Firstly, fireflies weren’t that bright. Secondly, Zhou Wen had never heard of a firefly being able to emit red light.

Looking at it from above, it felt like a red alert alarm was flashing under it.

What’s down there? A dimensional creature? Although Zhou Wen’s eyesight was good, he couldn’t see what was glowing red from so far away.

Banana Fairy pulled Zhou Wen and flew down as though she wanted him to follow her down.

Zhou Wen hurriedly pulled Banana Fairy. The world was too terrifying. Many unknown things could cause people to die without knowing why. It wasn’t that Zhou Wen wasn’t curious, but he couldn’t risk his life out of curiosity.

After grabbing Banana Fairy, Zhou Wen summoned more than ten Poison Bats and made them fly down to take a look.

The dozen or so poison bats quickly flew to the forest below the cliff and tore apart the trees and vines, making the red light even clearer.

Zhou Wen switched to Eight Perfections Wisdom and enhanced his vision. He could vaguely see that there seemed to be a red object glowing underground. As it was buried in the soil, only a tiny portion of it could be seen. Zhou Wen couldn’t tell what it was.

He ordered the Poison Bats to dig up the soil near that object. They lay on the ground, their claws piercing into the soil covered by fallen leaves as they dug up the soil.

Seeing that the object didn’t have any reaction, Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief. However, he didn’t dare to be careless. He kept staring at the object and the Poison Bats. Once the Poison Bats had any abnormal reaction, he could immediately react.

Thankfully, the situation that Zhou Wen had expected didn’t happen. After digging for a short while, the Poison Bats had dug out a huge hole.

However, from above, he could only see a red ball that was more than four meters in diameter. It was shining brightly, but he could not tell what it was.

Before confirming what it was, Zhou Wen didn’t dare let the Poison Bat touch it. After some thought, he put away the tent and other things. Then, he got Six-Winged to fly down the cliff with him.

Looking from the side, it was really a huge ball. It looked like a piece of jade that was half-buried in the soil. The blinking light in it was constantly changing, sometimes strong, sometimes weak. That was why from afar, it looked like it was flickering. In fact, it was constantly glowing.

A dimensional creature? It doesn’t look like it. A Companion Egg doesn’t seem like it either. What is it? Zhou Wen sized it up but couldn’t tell what it was.

Banana Fairy couldn’t help but fly above the red ball. Then, she jumped down from the banana leaf and landed on the red ball.

She jumped on the red ball a few times, then with a pop, the red ball cracked.

Zhou Wen jumped in fright. It was already too late to stop her. Thankfully, there wasn’t any danger after the red ball split open. The red ball turned into a flower.

The jade-like outer shell was actually its petals. After peeling open layer by layer, the pink pistil inside was revealed, and the glowing object was the pistil.

The moment the flower bloomed, Zhou Wen immediately smelled a rich floral fragrance. With the augmentation of the Eight Perfections Wisdom, he felt that the fragrance was refreshing, one that relaxed his mind.

Banana Fairy had already landed in the pistil. Her tiny hand grabbed some pollen and placed it in her mouth, as though she was eating cotton candy. She quickly swallowed it.

There was a lot of pollen in the flower. After Banana Fairy ate one blob, she grabbed another with both hands. She stuffed it into her mouth and stuffed her cheeks.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 561 - Competition for the Pollen

Chapter 561 Competition for the Pollen

A plant-type dimensional creature? Zhou Wen noticed that the flower didn’t show any abnormal reaction. It didn’t react to anything the Banana Fairy did. He found the plant-type dimensional creature rather strange.

When Zhou Wen saw Banana Fairy enjoying the pollen, he wondered if he should get some flower pollen to give it a try, but that was when he suddenly heard a strange sound nearby.

Zhou Wen looked around and his expression changed slightly. He saw that in the nearby forest, snakes, insects, rats, and ants were all approaching.

Zhou Wen recognized rats, caterpillars, venomous snakes, and centipedes. However, there were many insects that he didn’t know at all.

These weren’t likely to be real dimensional creatures. Most of them were ordinary creatures in the forest. Some of them were mutated creatures, but they were still a little far from the level of dimensional creatures. They could only be considered mortal.

The snakes, insects, rats, and ants struggled to crawl over. They all rushed towards the huge red flower. As they stepped over each other, many of them either got injured or died.

However, they still charged at the red flower as if they were possessed.

Is it the fragrance of the red flower that attracted them? Zhou Wen thought.

Many insects flew over, but before they could reach the red flower, even more terrifying creatures appeared. They scared the snakes, insects, rats, and ants away. However, the former were unwilling to leave. They loitered around the area.

A caterpillar coruscating with blue light crawled out of the forest. When the ants saw it, they immediately hid far away. They would rather squeeze together and trample on each other than get near it.

Even the temptation of the floral fragrance didn’t stop them from fearing the blue-light-emitting caterpillar.

Another break-out creature. Is there a dimensional zone nearby? When Zhou Wen looked up, he realized that another dimensional creature had appeared. It was a butterfly that was as large as a crane. Its body and wings were golden in color. As it flew, it scattered golden specks of light and dust. It was rather eye-catching in the dark night as though it was dancing in a golden galaxy.

However, when the golden dust landed on the snakes, insects, rats, and ants, they all died immediately. Their bodies also turned a faint golden color.

Both the blue-light-emitting caterpillar and the gold-dust butterfly rushed toward the red flower. Clearly, their target was the same.

Banana Fairy, who was enjoying the pollen, saw the gold-dust butterfly and blue-light-emitting caterpillar rushing over. She reached out and grabbed her banana leaf before fanning at them.

The terrifying Grand Yin Wind immediately sent the two flying. However, they remained uninjured, so they quickly rushed over again.

The gold-dust butterfly swooped down at the red flower from the sky. The gold-dust on its body constantly scattered. Unfortunately, it met Banana Fairy and with a wave of her hand, the gold-dust along with the butterfly was sent flying.

Wherever the blue-light-emitting caterpillar crawled, the leaves and soil burned, leaving a blue trail on the ground. However, the blue mark did not seem like a real flame.

However, it shared the same outcome. Before it even approached the red flower, it was blown away by Banana Fairy.

Banana Fairy’s Grand Yin Wind was extremely powerful. The two dimensional creatures were sent flying, but didn’t suffer any serious injuries. They quickly crawled back, shocking Zhou Wen.

Banana Fairy stuffed flower pollen into her mouth as she waved the banana leaf at the two of them. She didn’t allow them to approach the red flower. Clearly, she was afraid that they would snatch the flower pollen from her.

When Zhou Wen saw that the blue-light-emitting caterpillar and the gold-dust butterfly weren’t a threat to Banana Fairy, he didn’t take action and just watched from the side.

Apart from those two dimensional creatures, no other dimensional creatures appeared. Instead, it was the ordinary snakes, bugs, rats, and ants. No one was willing to leave, but they didn’t dare approach. They just watched helplessly from the side.

The butterfly and the caterpillar tried to charge forward many times, but they were blown back by the Grand Yin Wind. However, they still did not give up and continued charging forward.

It seemed a little boring. After a while, Zhou Wen yawned, feeling a little sleepy.

Just as he was thinking about whether he should go back and take a nap, he suddenly felt that something was amiss. Sweeping his gaze over, he saw that many of the snakes, insects, rats, and ants were lying there motionless as if they were dead.

The insects that were flying in the air also staggered and fell from the sky.

Zhou Wen took a careful look and realized that they weren’t really dead. They were just asleep.

Something’s wrong… Could it be the floral fragrance… Zhou Wen immediately realized the problem.

Zhou Wen hurriedly stopped breathing. Indeed, he felt much less sleepy.

From the looks of it, there is poison in the floral fragrance. Thankfully, my Poison stat is high enough, so I didn’t fall asleep like those snakes, insects, rats, and ants. Zhou Wen saw that Banana Fairy, the butterfly, and the caterpillar weren’t affected by the floral fragrance and were still warring for the flower pollen.

The ordinary creatures around them had all fallen to the ground and were asleep.

Although Zhou Wen wasn’t afraid of the floral fragrance, he felt bored. He drew his saber and slashed at the blue-light-emitting caterpillar and the gold-dust butterfly, killing them.

The gold-dust butterfly didn’t leave anything behind, but the blue-light-emitting caterpillar rolled out a sapphire-like bead. It was a Companion Egg.

I never expected my luck to be so good. Zhou Wen took out his phone and snapped at the blue-light-emitting caterpillar’s Companion Egg.

Netherworld Caterpillar: Epic

Life Providence: Netherworld Envoy

Life Soul: Netherworld Poison

Strength: 26

Speed: 28

Constitution: 27

Essence Energy: 40

Talent Skill: Myriad Poisons Augmentation

Companion Form: Pill

These stats are rather interesting. Zhou Wen looked at its stats. It was an Epic creature with three attributes that didn’t reach 30 points, but its Essence Energy stat was maxed out.

Furthermore, its companion form was something he had never seen before. After some thought, Zhou Wen picked up the Companion Egg and hatched it before turning it into its companion form.

Soon, a blue lotus seed-like pill appeared in Zhou Wen’s hand. It looked like a blue medicine pill. It looked beautiful, but Zhou Wen didn’t know what effects it would have if he ate it.

What’s the use of this thing? I wonder if I can feed it to other dimensional creatures and poison them to death? Zhou Wen stored away the pill and planned on giving it a try when he had the chance.

Banana Fairy was about to finish all the flower pollen. Her stomach swelled. However, she didn’t have any intention of stopping. She only stopped when she had finished all the flower pollen and then she returned to Zhou Wen’s side.

The next morning at dawn, the morning sun shone on the red flower. The flower instantly withered at a speed visible to the naked eye. It didn’t take long before it turned into ashes on the ground and was gone, leaving behind a red crystal.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 562 - Entering the Underground Ruins Again

Chapter 562 Entering the Underground Ruins Again

Before Zhou Wen could see what the red crystal was, Banana Fairy had already flown over. She blew a breath and sent the red crystal flying into her mouth.

The red crystal melted in her mouth and was swallowed by Banana Fairy. She licked her lips as if she hadn’t had enough.

It was only at this moment that those sleeping snakes, insects, rats, and ants woke up. They scattered and returned to the forest.

Seeing that there was nothing else there, Zhou Wen continued on his journey and headed straight for Zhuolu.

It had only been a few months, and this road was very different from the last time he took it. Previously, he had not seen so many break-out creatures on the way, but he could see them now.

Although they were low-level dimensional creatures, it also indicated that the dimensional zones’ sealing powers were rapidly weakening.

When Zhou Wen arrived at Zhuolu again, he didn’t head to the encampment. He headed straight for the battlefield and circled around the soldiers stationed there before arriving at the entrance of the ruins.

Zhou Wen didn’t see the chariot at the entrance of the underground ruins. For some reason, there was a chariot in reality, but there wasn’t a chariot in-game.

After grinding so many Zhuolu instance dungeons, Zhou Wen still couldn’t find the chariot.

He entered the underground ruins which he was extremely familiar with. After passing through the maze-like underground passageway, he went to the Longevity Tree.

There was no Longevity Tree in-game either, but the Longevity Tree in reality was still fine. The fruits on the tree were as many as Zhou Wen had seen before. No one had touched it.

He aimed his phone at them, but there was still no reaction. He knew that it was impossible to store the Longevity Tree on his phone.

This Longevity Tree is so similar to the Dead Man Tree, but it can’t be shown in-game. I wonder what its origins are. Zhou Wen looked at the fruits. Although he knew that eating them would give him immense strength, he wasn’t willing to try.

Lord Alcohol’s fate made it evident. There were definitely unseen consequences of eating it.

Since he couldn’t store away the Longevity Tree, Zhou Wen was preparing to leave when he suddenly felt a burning sensation on his tattoo. Demonic Neonate was throbbing.

Zhou Wen’s heart stirred as he summoned Demonic Neonate. The moment Demonic Neonate landed, she ran towards the Longevity Tree. Before Zhou Wen could call out to her, she had already jumped onto it and opened her mouth to bite the fruit.

Ka-cha! Ka-cha!

One fruit was swallowed by Demonic Neonate in a few seconds. She continued to bite at another fruit.

Zhou Wen was surprised. Ever since Demonic Neonate had been born, she hadn’t eaten or drunk. Even when Zhou Wen fed her the best Epic Companion Egg, she wasn’t moved. She even showed disdain.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that she didn’t eat at all, but who knew that she would eat the fruits of the Longevity Tree? In just moments, she had swallowed three to four fruits.

Back then, Lord Alcohol only ate one fruit and his body was restored to its youth. He almost broke through to the Mythical stage.

Demonic Neonate had eaten three or four fruits, but she still looked fine. She continued crawling around the tree, looking for fruits to eat.

The Longevity Tree was likely a terrifying Mythical creature. It easily turned Lord Alcohol into fertilizer. Demonic Neonate jumped around its body and ate many fruits, but the Longevity Tree didn’t react at all.

Zhou Wen stared at the Longevity Tree for a long time as he thought to himself, Could this tree be waiting for Demonic Neonate to finish eating before dealing with her?

Zhou Wen stood far away and focused. If the Longevity Tree stirred, he would immediately summon Demonic Neonate back and escape.

It was a strange object, and it wasn’t in-game. Zhou Wen didn’t wish to take the risk to fight it.

However, nothing Zhou Wen imagined happened. Demonic Neonate jumped around on the tree and ate many Longevity Fruits, but the tree didn’t react at all.

Demonic Neonate finished more than ten Longevity Fruits and was about to eat more, but she suddenly fell from the tree, giving Zhou Wen a fright.

He immediately summoned her back. Demonic Neonate transformed into a stream of light and returned to Zhou Wen. Zhou Wen felt that Demonic Neonate’s tattoo was burning hot, like a piece of burning iron. It was so hot that Zhou Wen nearly cried out. All he could do was summon her out again.

When Demonic Neonate landed in front of Zhou Wen, the Longevity Tree in the distance didn’t move. It made Zhou Wen heave a sigh of relief as he hurriedly checked Demonic Neonate’s body.

Her face was flushed red, and there was even a hint of white air coming out of her body. It was like steam.

However, Demonic Neonate’s aura was completely uniform, and she didn’t appear to have a problem. Instead, her vital energy was constantly surging, as if she was about to advance.

Don’t tell me she’s about to advance to the Legendary stage? Zhou Wen felt that there was a high chance that he was right. However, he didn’t know what changes would happen if this happened.

She already had a Life Providence, Life Soul, and Wheel of Destiny. If she advanced to the Legendary stage, he didn’t know if she would condense a new Life Providence.

The white gas on Demonic Neonate increased in amount as it enveloped her body. Her temperature was shockingly high, so Zhou Wen could only watch from the side. He could do nothing.

If those Longevity Fruits really can make Demonic Neonate evolve, why don’t I pluck them and keep them for her? Zhou Wen looked at the Longevity Tree as many thoughts flashed through his mind.

It was impossible for him to eat them himself, so in the past he had had no intention of doing anything to the Longevity Tree. However, since Demonic Neonate was willing to eat the fruits, he couldn’t just sit around and do nothing.

After some thought, Zhou Wen summoned a Poison Bat, hoping to see if it could pluck the Longevity Fruit.

The Poison Bat flapped its wings and flew over. Before it could pluck the fruit, a tree root emerged from the ground. It wrapped around the Poison Bat’s body like a flood dragon and pulled it into the ground. Then, nothing else happened.

From the looks of it, not anyone can pluck the fruits. Zhou Wen summoned some of his other Companion Beasts, but the outcome was the same. They were killed by the Longevity Tree the moment they approached. They couldn’t even touch the tree, much less the Longevity Fruit.

Zhou Wen didn’t wish to touch the Longevity Fruit himself, nor did he wish to take the risk with a Mythical pet. All he could do was wait for Demonic Neonate to complete her evolution. If there was nothing he could do, he would get Demonic Neonate to pluck the fruit herself and take everything away. It would be her food for the future.

After a while, the white gas on Demonic Neonate’s body gradually dissipated, and her body temperature also gradually decreased. However, it didn’t seem like her body had undergone any special changes. She was still tiny, and she was still hugging the ancient sword in her arms.

After Demonic Neonate had fully recovered, she stood up and looked in the direction of the Longevity Tree. However, she seemed to hesitate and did not go over immediately.

“If you can’t eat anymore, why don’t you pluck the fruits now and I’ll help you keep them?” Zhou Wen suggested.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 563 - Take Everything Away

Chapter 563 Take Everything Away

Demonic Neonate thought about it for a moment before finding it feasible and nodding.

Zhou Wen was delighted as he hurriedly took out a huge cloth bag from his chaos space and handed it to Demonic Neonate. He patted her head and said, “Try your best to pick more fruits. I’ll store them for you. You can eat them anytime in the future.”

Demonic Neonate was too short, so she had to drag the cloth bag to the Longevity Tree. Zhou Wen held the Bamboo Blade and stared at the Longevity Tree. If it made any abnormal movements, he would be able to react in time.

However, Zhou Wen’s worry was unnecessary. The Longevity Tree seemed to treat Demonic Neonate exceptionally well. It allowed Demonic Neonate to pluck the Longevity Fruit from its body without any reaction.

Demonic Neonate was even more greedy than Zhou Wen. Regardless of its size or ripeness, she plucked all of them and stuffed them into the cloth bag.

As expected of an existence with a Supreme True Demon Life Soul. She sure is greedy and ruthless. Zhou Wen didn’t find it strange considering how Demonic Neonate dared to bite him and Xia Xuanyue before her death.

Zhou Wen saw Demonic Neonate pluck dozens of fruits from the tree. If the energy of a Longevity Fruit was at the peak of the Epic stage and close to the Mythical stage, these fruits would be impressive.

Demonic Neonate finished plucking all the Longevity Fruits and stuffed them into the large cloth bag before dragging it back. She placed it in front of Zhou Wen, indicating for him to help her put it away.

“Alright, alright. I’ll help you store it away now.” Zhou Wen picked up the cloth bag and threw it into his chaos space. He glanced at the bald Longevity Tree and thought to himself, I wonder when this Longevity Tree will grow new fruits. I’ll bring Demonic Neonate to pluck the fruits when that happens.

After putting away the items, Zhou Wen also unsummoned Demonic Neonate. At the same time, he launched the game on his phone and took a look at Demonic Neonate’s stats.

Demonic Neonate: Legendary (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Child of Dimension

Life Soul: Supreme True Demon

Wheel of Destiny: One Spin.

Strength: 21

Speed: 21

Constitution: 21

Essence Energy: 21

Talent Skill: Demonic Sword

Companion Form: None

Demonic Neonate's stats disappointed Zhou Wen. Apart from her stats increasing to 21, nothing else changed. It was identical to before.

How can this be? She's clearly so special. Why isn't there much difference between her and an ordinary Mythical creature after advancement? Zhou Wen looked over and felt that the problem was most likely her Wheel of Destiny.

The Wheel of Destiny of the other Mythical Creatures were all kinds of miracles. Even if it wasn't a strong Mythical creature like the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, it still had the miraculous ability to take his place in death.

However, Demonic Neonate's Wheel of Destiny didn't seem to have any miraculous abilities. The words "One Spin" didn't explain anything.

Demonic Neonate had a Life Providence, Life Soul, and Wheel of Destiny from the beginning. This means that she has already evolved to the Mythical stage. However, for some reason, she has returned to the Mortal stage and needed to evolve again. According to the words of the Wheel of Destiny, would One Spin mean that she has re-evolved once? If that's the case, what benefits does it bring her to evolve again? Her Life Providence hasn't increased, and her stats haven't increased. If there are any benefits, they're likely to be on the Wheel of Destiny… Zhou Wen couldn't figure out why. He probably had to wait for her to advance to the Mythical stage before he knew what secrets her Wheel of Destiny had. All he could do was ignore it for now.

Even without a miracle, Demonic Neonate was already quite strong by relying only on the demonic sword.

After leaving the region where the Longevity Tree was, Zhou Wen passed through the Poison Bat Cave and arrived at the underground sea. He didn’t dare provoke the black dragon which pulled the wagon. The black dragon was bound, so it couldn’t catch up to him. Soon, Zhou Wen crossed the underground sea.

He arrived in front of the temple without any danger. After all, Zhou Wen had made countless runs of the Zhuolu underground ruins. Unless there was something that wasn’t in-game, nothing could harm him.

Upon arriving outside the temple, Zhou Wen saw the chariot. It was parked in front of the temple door and people were moving things.

Some of them were wearing military uniforms, while others were wearing ordinary exploration suits or companion beast armor. Judging from their ages, they must be the experts.

“Who’s there?” When Zhou Wen approached, they immediately discovered him. The soldiers all picked up their weapons and aimed at him.

“Battalion Commander Lu, it’s me,” Zhou Wen said when he saw someone he knew.

Lu Yunxian heard Zhou Wen’s voice and took a closer look. He recognized Zhou Wen and immediately said in delight, “It’s Young Master Wen. Lower your weapons. He’s one of us.”

Lu Yunxian had risked his life with Zhou Wen, so their relationship naturally wasn’t ordinary. He welcomed Zhou Wen over and said warmly, “Young Master Wen, why did you come here alone? Didn’t Adjutant An come with you?”

“No, Ah Sheng has something on and can’t come. I came by myself.” Zhou Wen looked at the temple entrance and asked, “How’s the situation inside?”

“It’s not very optimistic. The experts have studied it for a long time and determined some of Torch Dragon’s and Qiongqi’s skills. However, just knowing these skills doesn’t mean we can deal with them. We have attempted to use Companion Beasts to probe. Basically, they are instantly killed. Only some Companion Beasts that are slightly smaller than insects can live longer and obtain some information,” Lu Yunxian explained the situation to Zhou Wen.

“Battalion Commander Lu, this is?” An expert walked over and sized up Zhou Wen.

“Professor Lei, let me introduce you. This is Zhou Wen, Madam Lan’s son. Previously, it was all thanks to Young Master Wen for finding the stone artifact that we were able to open the temple’s door… Young Master Wen, this is Professor Lei Zhiguo, a folklore professor. Now, the research work of the temple is handled by Professor Lei,” Lu Yunxian introduced the two of them.

Lei Zhiguo nodded and said to Zhou Wen, “Zhou Wen, it’s too dangerous for you to walk through the cave passageway alone. Don’t go that way when you return. Go back on the chariot.”

Lei Zhiguo believed that Zhou Wen had come from the passageway Lord Alcohol and company had found, but he didn’t know that Zhou Wen had crossed the underground sea without the chariot.

“I don’t plan on returning. I want to enter the temple to take a look,” Zhou Wen said.

“That won’t do. We haven’t researched the situation inside the temple yet. It’s too dangerous to enter the temple,” Lei Zhiguo refused immediately.

“Didn’t we already conquer the front temple? I’ll just go there and take a look. There won’t be any danger.” Zhou Wen didn’t wish to create unnecessary trouble and planned on entering the temple first.

“Crossing the Aoyin stone statue requires sacrifices to appease it. It’s not easy to make a trip back and forth here. It’s also very troublesome to transport the offerings here. There aren’t many offerings left here, and there’s only enough for one use.” Lei Zhiguo still didn’t agree. He paused for a moment before saying, “If you really want to go in, just wait two more days. We’ll be doing the next round of research then. When the time comes, you can come with us.”

What Lei Zhiguo said was reasonable, but Zhou Wen wasn’t willing to wait another two days.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 564 - Folklore Exper

Chapter 564 Folklore Exper

“I’ll figure out a solution for the sacrifice myself. Battalion Commander Lu, please take me in to have a look,” Zhou Wen said to Lu Yunxian.

Before Lu Yunxian could say a word, Lei Zhiguo shook his head and said, “I’m in charge of this place. I have to ensure the safety of everyone here. If you wish to enter, you have to wait two more days. Otherwise, I will not give you permission to enter.”

Lei Zhiguo was just too stubborn. Zhou Wen and Lu Yunxian couldn’t convince him at all. Furthermore, he was the one in charge here, so Zhou Wen couldn’t barge his way in.

“Alright, I’ll wait another two days then.” Zhou Wen thought that although he had already killed the Torch Dragon youngling a few times on the way, killing it two more times to familiarize himself with the process wasn’t a bad thing. Therefore, he agreed to wait two days before following them into the temple.

Zhou Wen had recently farmed the Torch Dragon youngling, Medusa, and the Golden Battle God Halberd a few times, but the drop rate wasn’t as high as An Sheng had described. Most of the items dropped were stat crystals. Occasionally, an Essence Energy Skill Crystal would drop. Due to the limitations of his stats, Zhou Wen couldn’t use them nor take them out. All he could do was watch them disappear with each respawn.

Up to now, the Companion Egg that had dropped was only the Golden Battle God Halberd.

“Young Master Wen, the conditions here are rather poor. You can rest in my tent now.” Lu Yunxian took Zhou Wen into his tent.

Lu Yunxian didn’t have a tent for himself because space was limited. Typically, it was three people to a tent. Lu Yunxian’s tent originally had two people living in it, so it was perfect for Zhou Wen to stay there.

The two of them chatted for a while about what happened after they had parted previously. It was mainly Lu Yunxian speaking. Zhou Wen mostly listened silently.

Lu Yunxian had been stationed at the ruins all this while, having been responsible for cleaning up the dimensional creatures and protecting the experts.

Those comrades who had been with him previously had been transferred. Most of them were promoted and were deployed to other places.

As the two of them were chatting, a middle-aged man in his thirties walked in. Lu Yunxian introduced, “Young Master Wen, this is Professor Lei’s student, Qu Qingyun. He is also an expert in folklore. During his research on Torch Dragon and Qiongqi, he gave us quite a few valuable opinions.”

Lu Yunxian introduced Zhou Wen to Qu Qingyun. Qu Qingyun only said a few polite words before he went to bed. Clearly, he wasn’t interested in chatting with Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen and Lu Yunxian didn’t wish to disturb him, so they went out of the tent for a stroll. They slept immediately after they returned.

The next day, when Zhou Wen and company woke up, they heard the commotion outside. They went out to take a look and saw that the logistics team had sent their supplies over. Everyone was busy moving things.

Qu Qingyun also walked out of the tent. When he saw someone in the logistics team, his eyes lit up. He went over with a smile. “Head Nurse Xu, why are you here alone? It’s so dangerous.”

“We got a batch of newly-made medicine which needs to be injected into the soldiers. I’m afraid that they will get the dosage wrong, so I came here myself,” Xu Wen said to Qu Qingyun. When she saw Lu Yunxian, she immediately saw Zhou Wen, who was standing beside Lu Yunxian. She immediately revealed a look of delight.

“Young Master Wen, when did you come to Zhuolu? Why didn’t I see you at the encampment?” Xu Wen quickly walked towards Zhou Wen and asked in pleasant surprise.

“I didn’t go to the encampment because I came straight to the ruins. I only wanted to take a look and leave, but I was delayed by some matters. I still need to stay for another two days,” Zhou Wen said.

“Young Master Wen, that’s not very nice of you. Since you’re here in Zhuolu, how can you not visit us?” Xu Wen and Lu Yunxian were the same. They had been through thick and thin with Zhou Wen, so their relationship with him wasn’t something ordinary comrades could compare with.

Qu Qingyun couldn’t help but frown when he saw how friendly Xu Wen was with Zhou Wen, but he didn’t say a word.

“Xu Wen, deliver the injections to the soldiers first. Young Master Wen will be here for two days. It won’t be too late to catch up later,” said Lu Yunxian with a smile.

“Alright, I’ll get back to work then. Young Master Wen, let’s have a good chat later.” Xu Wen returned to her work.

“Go ahead and busy yourself.” Zhou Wen’s mood improved significantly. To be able to meet such sincere friends in such a dark place made him feel better than getting a treasure.

Two days quickly passed. Zhou Wen had grinded the Torch Dragon youngling twice in this period of time. Although it was a harrowing experience each time, Zhou Wen was confident that he could kill it safely.

Professor Lei and company were already prepared. They brought Zhou Wen and entered the temple. Even Xu Wen followed Lu Yunxian in.

“The dangers in the temple are unimaginable. Remember not to act on your own. You must abide by the arrangements, or you will harm others and yourself.” Lei Zhiguo was a little worried about Zhou Wen as he repeatedly told him.

“I understand.” Zhou Wen agreed seriously.

Only then did Lei Zhiguo feel a little relieved. He was afraid that Zhou Wen was the kind of scion who would disregard everything just because of his temper. He had no idea that Zhou Wen’s understanding of the temple far exceeded his.

Under the lead of Lei Zhiguo and the other experts and professors, Zhou Wen and company finally headed for the passageway where the Aoyin stone statue was.

“Head Nurse Xu, the Aoyin stone statue is extremely evil. If you touch it, it will hurt people. Stay by my side. If there is any danger, I can protect you,” Qu Qingyun said as he walked beside Xu Wen.

Anyone could tell that Qu Qingyun was interested in Xu Wen.

Xu Wen shook her head slightly and said, “Mr. Qu, you must be joking. I’m a soldier. It’s my duty to protect you.”

Qu Qingyun smiled and said, “Outside, you are naturally the one protecting me. However, in such a place, many problems can’t be solved by brute force. I should be the one assuring you.”

He paused for a moment before saying, “Just like this Aoyin stone statue. Even if the Overseer personally came, I’m afraid he wouldn’t be able to do anything to it. A blood sacrifice is needed for safe passage…”

Qu Qingyun kept trying to show off, but he did not know that Xu Wen was not a woman who lacked a sense of security.

On the contrary, she was a qualified soldier. Qu Qingyun’s words were actually questioning her ability as a soldier. This naturally displeased Xu Wen. However, she didn’t say anything.

Lu Yunxian, who was walking at the back, whispered to Zhou Wen, “Qu Qingyun was born into a rich family. His family background isn’t inferior to the An family’s, and he’s rather talented. Unfortunately, he’s too conceited. He’s not the type Xu Wen likes. I’m afraid he’s just wasting his efforts.”

Zhou Wen nodded slightly. Even someone with a low EQ like him could tell that Xu Wen didn’t have a good impression of him.

When everyone arrived in front of the Aoyin stone statue, Lei Zhiguo got Qu Qingyun to use a living creature as an offering to the Aoyin stone statue. Zhou Wen naturally wasn’t unfamiliar with this method. He was the one who had informed An Sheng of the method.

“It’s done. Everyone, please come this way.” Qu Qingyun bowed to the Aoyin stone statue before heading towards the Qiongqi temple.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 565 - No Need for Offerings Anymore

Chapter 565 No Need for Offerings Anymore

Zhou Wen, who was walking behind, said to Lu Yunxian and Xu Wen, “I wish to visit Torch Dragon, so I won’t go with you to Qiongqi.”

“Let’s go with you,” Xu Wen said.

Although their conversation was very low, it still attracted Qu Qingyun’s attention.

“Didn’t Professor Lei say that you have to follow the arrangements and not walk around randomly? Are you sick of living?” When Qu Qingyun spoke, Professor Lei and the rest turned around and looked at them.

“What’s going on?” Professor Lei came over and asked.

“Professor Lei, I’m here to see the Torch Dragon temple. I won’t be going to the Qiongqi temple. Now that there’s an offering, it shouldn’t be a problem to go anywhere, right?” Zhou Wen said.

Professor Lei said, “Although that’s true in theory, the temple is very strange. Anything can happen. It’s best if we act separately. If anything happens, we can still collectively think of a solution. Why don’t we go to the Torch Dragon temple after our work is over?”

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, “Those offerings just now can only last less than an hour. When you return from the Qiongqi temple, I’m afraid there won’t be much time left. I’ll go on my own. I’ll just take a look. Nothing will happen.”

“Don’t pretend to know what you don’t. The offerings we offered can last for at least two hours. If you don’t understand anything, don’t spout nonsense.” Qu Qingyun laughed coldly.

“More than two hours? Professor Lei, is that true?” Zhou Wen ignored Qu Qingyun’s sarcasm and asked Professor Lei with a frown.

“That’s right. For safety reasons, the offerings we provide each time will be enough to last for more than two hours. And our working hours must be controlled to be within one and a half hours. Today, we can end work earlier and take you to the Torch Dragon temple to have a look,” Professor Lei said.

“Professor Lei, I think it’s best if you examine the offerings again. I’m certain that your offerings can only last for an hour at most. If you really wish to stay in there for an hour and a half, I’m afraid it’ll be very difficult for you to come out alive,” Zhou Wen said seriously.

Qu Qingyun sneered and said, “The quantity of the offerings were carefully calculated. It has never gone wrong. As a layman, how can you be so sure?”

The offerings were personally placed by Qu Qingyun. Therefore, wasn’t Zhou Wen’s claim that there was something wrong with the offerings indirectly implying that Qu Qingyun had made a mistake?

Xu Wen couldn’t help but speak up for Zhou Wen. “Young Master Wen isn’t someone who speaks without reason. He definitely has his reasons for saying that there’s a problem.”

“What’s the logic behind this? Could it be that the results of our expert plans are wrong?” Qu Qingyun said disdainfully.

Professor Lei pondered for a moment before asking, “Zhou Wen, why did you say that the offerings can only last for an hour?”

“Professor Lei, the blood you used was obtained from the Poison Bat, right?” Zhou Wen asked after some thought.

“That’s right. In the past, we used living sacrifices. Later on, we discovered that it was also possible to use fresh blood. Because it was too difficult to capture the Poison Bats alive, we switched to using blood. The amount used is calculated precisely, so mistakes usually do not happen,” Professor Lei said.

“There’s nothing wrong with the quantity, but there’s something wrong with the blood. The bat’s blood isn’t pure and has been mixed with other things. Therefore, the time it can last will be much shorter than you expected.” After Zhou Wen said that, he looked at Lu Yunxian and said, “Yunxian, this shouldn’t be a coincidence. Check everyone related to this matter carefully. It might be that someone had tampered with it.”

“What gives you the right to say that there’s a problem?” Qu Qingyun still felt that Zhou Wen was being unreasonable because Professor Lei hadn’t allowed him to go to the Torch Dragon temple.

“Zhou Wen, how did you know that there’s something else mixed in the bat’s blood? This is a very serious problem,”

Professor Lei asked Zhou Wen with a heavy expression.

“Professor Lei, was it Adjutant An who told you about using a live sacrifice?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Yes.” Professor Lei nodded.

“I told Adjutant An the method,” Zhou Wen said.

“You really dare to say anything. How many times have you come to the temple? How dare you say that you discovered the method of the live sacrifices? Why don’t you just say that you have found a way to kill the Mythical creatures?” Qu Qingyun pouted.

“This matter is of paramount importance, but the blood has already been absorbed by the Aoyin stone statue. There’s no way to test it now.” Professor Lei looked at the Aoyin stone statue and pondered for a moment before saying, “Safety first. Since Zhou Wen said there’s a problem with the blood, let’s temporarily cancel the research.”

“Teacher, why do you have to listen to a layman like him spout nonsense? We have used it so many times with no problems. Why would there be a problem with the blood the moment he’s here? Isn’t this nonsense? Wasting the offerings this time and retrieving the bat’s blood again will take a few days. We can’t do a thing for the next few days.” Qu Qingyun said unhappily.

Professor Lei insisted, “Safety first. Since there are doubts, we can’t take the risk regardless of whether it’s true or not.”

Since Professor Lei had already said so, what else could Qu Qingyun say? He could only feel frustrated.

“Since you said that the offerings can last for about an hour and we have given up our plans for today, let’s go to the Torch Dragon temple to take a look. We can return in about ten minutes. Even if there’s a problem with the blood, it won’t hinder us,” Professor Lei said to Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, I’m going to kill Torch Dragon. If I take you along, I’m afraid Torch Dragon will be able to kill all of you in one breath.

“Professor Lei, I think it’s best you head to the Qiongqi temple. I’ll go to the Torch Dragon temple myself,” Zhou Wen said to Professor Lei.

Qu Qingyun retorted angrily, “You were the one who said that there’s something wrong with the offerings. You are also the one who said we shouldn’t go. Now, you are also the one saying we should go. You are basically playing every possible role!”

Professor Lei frowned and said, “If what you said is true, the offerings can only maintain the passage for less than an hour. Our preparatory work already takes half an hour. There’s no point in going.”

Zhou Wen didn’t say a word as he looked at the Aoyin stone statue and walked in front of it.

No one knew what he was trying to do as they looked at him. Qu Qingyun opened his mouth to say something, but before he could say anything, he saw Zhou Wen standing in front of the Aoyin stone statue. Wielding the Bamboo Blade in hand, he suddenly unsheathed it.

Everyone was shocked. It wasn’t that they hadn’t tried to destroy the Aoyin stone statue, but the result was a terrible loss.

Inside the temple, the Aoyin stone statue was strengthened by some kind of power. Despite being attacked by several Epic Companion Beasts, it could devour all of them.

If Zhou Wen were to alarm the Aoyin stone statue, they would probably die.

Someone had already opened their mouth to stop Zhou Wen, but before they could say anything, the Bamboo Blade in Zhou Wen’s hand flashed and returned to its scabbard.

Boom!

Professor Lei was shocked. The Aoyin stone statue split into two and collapsed on both sides.

“There’s no need for any offerings for the time being,” Zhou Wen said as he took two steps back.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 566 - Killing Torch Dragon

Chapter 566 Killing Torch Dragon

“Yunxian, you should stay here instead. Let’s investigate the problem with the blood offering first. Before we figure it out, don’t let anyone leave the temple. Also, find some reliable people to protect Professor Lei and company. Don’t let others have a chance of sneaking an attack,” Zhou Wen said to Lu Yunxian.

“Yes, Young Master Wen. I’ll do it now.” Lu Yunxian saluted and left.

Professor Lei and company still hadn’t reacted. Zhou Wen’s splitting of the Aoyin stone statue had shocked them greatly.

“Professor Lei, when Yunxian comes again, you can head to the Qiongqi Temple. Xu Wen, come with me.” Zhou Wen walked towards the passageway to the Torch Dragon temple.

Xu Wen hurriedly followed, leaving Professor Lei and the rest standing there looking at each other.

“I’ve only heard of Zhou Wen causing trouble for the An family in the past, causing the relationship between the An family and the Federation’s upper echelons to worsen. From the looks of it, the rumors are unreliable. The An family’s protection of him does make sense. He should still be in school, right?” Professor Lei sighed as he looked at the two halves of the Aoyin stone statue.

“I heard that he’s only in his freshman year,” another professor said.

“That makes him only seventeen or eighteen years old. To have such achievements at this age, if he were in my Lei family, we would be even more protective of him than the An family,” Professor Lei said.

Qu Qingyun snorted coldly. “He’s Wang Mingyuan’s disciple. Who knows what he has done in private? Otherwise, how could a student produce such achievements?”

Professor Lei glanced at Qu Qingyun and said meaningfully, “Qingyun, as researchers, the greatest taboo is to let our emotions affect our judgment.”

Qu Qingyun’s expression changed slightly when he heard that, but he quickly calmed down. He said respectfully, “Teacher is right. I know what to do.”

“Everyone, let’s rest for a while. When Battalion Commander Lu brings his men over, we’ll head to the Qiongqi temple again. Now that there are no restrictions from the Aoyin stone statue, we can work for longer periods. We have to replan our working arrangements…” Professor Lei picked up a notebook and began studying it.

Zhou Wen led Xu Wen into the passageway to the Torch Dragon temple. After walking for a short distance, he stopped and said to Xu Wen, “Help me guard this place. No matter what happens inside, no matter what you hear, don’t come in. Don’t let anyone pass. Do you understand?”

“Young Master Wen, what are you going to do?” Xu Wen was alarmed. She immediately knew that Zhou Wen’s trip wasn’t as simple as taking a look at the Torch Dragon temple.

“To kill Torch Dragon.” Zhou Wen didn’t hide it from her. He couldn’t hide it either. With that said, he headed for the tunnel.

Xu Wen was taken aback. By the time she reacted, Zhou Wen had already walked into the tunnel.

Although he had been in the game countless times, he had a different feeling coming here in real life.

After all, he wasn’t in-game. If he made any mistakes, he might die.

Standing in front of the temple’s metal door, Zhou Wen took a deep breath and closed his eyes, allowing his body and mind to calm down. It wasn’t to adjust himself to an optimal state, but to make himself treat what lay ahead normally.

If one needed to use 120% of their abilities to complete something, it would be a gamble. As for Zhou Wen, he didn’t need to gamble. As long as he completed what he needed to do like he always did, he could obtain the results he wanted.

When he opened his eyes, Zhou Wen had already calmed down. He summoned his armor and Six-Winged and was prepared to release the other crystal mirror at any time.

With the Golden Battle God Halberd in hand, Zhou Wen pushed open the temple’s door.

With the creaking sound of the metal door being pushed open, Zhou Wen saw the snake-like Torch Dragon youngling inside. It was even more ferocious and terrifying than in-game. It was also bigger and more oppressive.

Amidst the swirling poisonous smoke, Torch Dragon opened its mouth and spewed out billowing poisonous smoke.

The six wings on its back flapped as Zhou Wen circled behind Torch Dragon at an unbelievable speed. Torch Dragon swept its tail out, but everything was within Zhou Wen’s control. His body moved in a perfect trajectory, dodging Torch Dragon’s repeated attacks before he finally approached it.

The Golden Battle God Halberd stabbed into its scales with Golden Divine Light. Blood immediately gushed out from where the Golden Battle God Halberd hit as Torch Dragon let out a terrifying cry.

In an instant, rows of lanterns-like eyes lit up on its body. Their eyes reflected light like mirrors, illuminating the entire metallic temple.

The six wings on Zhou Wen’s back and the Golden Battle God Halberd in his hand were immediately unsummoned. The power of the Bright Torch Vision World shone on his armor and was reflected by the mirror, preventing him from being sucked into the vision world.

With his experience in-game, Zhou Wen knew very well that the next minute was the most critical period. As long as he could withstand this one minute, the Torch Dragon youngling would enter a weakened state. It would be incapable of using the Bright Torch Vision World again and all its assortment of skills would be greatly weakened. That would give him the confidence to kill Torch Dragon.

However, this one minute was difficult even in-game. He had to ensure that he didn’t make any mistakes.

He activated Transcendent Flying Immortal not to kill the enemy, but to escape. Zhou Wen’s speed was raised to the limit as he dodged behind a metal pillar. His every move had been carefully calculated and he knew the optimum way to stall for time.

The Torch Dragon youngling chased after him with all its might and circled around the metal pillar. The beams of monstrous lights shot out from the eyes like laser beams that crisscrossed in the temple.

Without any pause, he constantly moved. With the help of the metal pillar in the metallic temple, Zhou Wen dodged the Torch Dragon youngling's lethal attack time and time again.

As time passed, Zhou Wen remained calm. He knew that he was getting closer and closer to killing the Torch Dragon youngling.

...

Lu Yunxian quickly brought his men over and arranged for them to protect Professor Lei and company. Although it was a form of protection, it was actually a form of surveillance.

This was because those who could tamper with the blood would likely be Professor Lei and the others after excluding the ones who obtained the blood and transported it.

Although it didn't seem likely for them to do that since they had to enter too, who knew if someone among them would find an excuse to leave early?

Therefore, while protecting them, he also had to prevent any spies from harming them.

Lu Yunxian arranged his men and ran over to see Zhou Wen.

However, just as he reached the tunnel, he saw Xu Wen standing alone at the entrance. "Why are you here? Where's Young Master Wen?"

“Young Master Wen went in,” Xu Wen said.

“Why didn’t you go in with him?” Lu Yunxian felt that something was amiss.

“Young Master Wen didn’t allow me to enter. He also said that no one is allowed in. He wants to kill Torch Dragon,” Xu Wen answered truthfully.

Lu Yunxian’s expression changed drastically. “Why didn’t you stop him? You should know how terrifying Torch Dragon is. Although Young Master Wen is very strong, his chances of survival are still very slim when facing a creature like Torch Dragon…”

As Lu Yunxian spoke, he heard a sharp cry from the Torch Dragon temple.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 567 - Metal Block

Chapter 567 Metal Block

“That’s bad; something’s really happened.” Lu Yunxian rushed into the tunnel without any hesitation.

“Young Master Wen said that no matter what happens, we can’t go in…” Xu Wen pulled Lu Yunxian back.

“Do you have any idea what’s happening now? If Young Master Wen dies inside, how are we going to answer to Adjutant An and Overseer An? Furthermore, Young Master Wen saved our lives.” Lu Yunxian shook off Xu Wen and rushed in.

Xu Wen gritted her teeth and charged in as well. She couldn’t be bothered anymore.

As the two of them rushed over, they heard terrifying screams and rumbling crashing. They were even more worried. From the sounds, the dragon was probably enraged.

Terrifying sounds and collisions echoed in the tunnel. Even Professor Lei, who was setting up various equipment, heard them.

“Oh no, it’s Torch Dragon. It has been stirred. Could Zhou Wen have opened the Torch Dragon temple’s door?” Professor Lei’s expression changed as he immediately ran over.

Qu Qingyun gloated when he heard that. “That Zhou Wen is so arrogant. He must have thought that he’s amazing and opened the door to the Torch Dragon temple.”

As researchers, they knew very well that Torch Dragon was a true Mythical creature. It wasn’t something Aoyin could compare with. It was almost certain death. They had already sacrificed many Epic Companion Beasts in their attempts to kill it.

When Professor Lei and company ran back to the three forks where the Aoyin stone statue was, Torch Dragon’s sharp cries suddenly stopped.

Lu Yunxian and Xu Wen had already run to the Torch Dragon temple and saw the gigantic Torch Dragon inside. This was the first time they had seen it with their own eyes.

Although they knew that Torch Dragon was inside, they weren’t the ones who personally saw Torch Dragon. Instead, it was the Companion Beasts they had placed inside.

At that moment, they saw Torch Dragon’s body. Its massive body and ferocious aura gave them immense pressure.

In front of Torch Dragon, they felt as tiny as ants.

However, in front of Torch Dragon was a man wearing silver mirror-like armor. He had six holy white flaming dragon wings on his back. He held a golden trident in his hand as he levitated in front of Torch Dragon.

And on Torch Dragon’s body, there were bloody wounds everywhere. The most terrifying part was that blood gushed out like a fountain from its head.

Boom!

In front of the god-like figure, Torch Dragon collapsed to the ground, dead. Blood flowed everywhere in the temple.

However, the figure floating above Torch Dragon looked spotless. Its body emitted a holy glow.

After a long pause, Lu Yunxian gulped and asked in disbelief, “Young… Young Master Wen… Is that you?”

“Why are you here? Didn’t I tell you not to enter?” Zhou Wen was certain that Torch Dragon was dead. He unsummoned his Companion Beasts and revealed his body.

“Sorry, it’s my fault.” Xu Wen hurriedly apologized.

“It’s nothing. Since you’re here, help me look around. Is there anything in this temple left behind by the former principal and company?” Zhou Wen had searched the Torch Dragon temple in-game, but he hadn’t found any other way out. If the former principal and company really came here, they would probably leave something behind unless they were eaten clean by Torch Dragon.

For example, paper, backpacks, or instruments. No matter how good Torch Dragon’s appetite was, it probably wouldn’t eat those things.

As for Lu Yunxian and Xu Wen, Zhou Wen didn’t let them come in because he was afraid that they would die when Torch Dragon used the Bright Torch Vision World. Now that Torch Dragon was dead, it didn’t matter if Lu Yunxian and Xu Wen entered.

Lu Yunxian and Xu Wen hurriedly searched the Torch Dragon temple with Zhou Wen.

All his attention had been focused on Torch Dragon, preventing him from observing the temple. Now, Zhou Wen carefully sized up the temple and realized that the layout and decorations were the same as in-game.

However, the game was cartoonish and this place looked even more real. There were metal pillars and metal carvings everywhere, as well as some metal statues.

The carvings depicted monsters. For example, the ChiMeiWangliang that Zhou Wen had encountered outside had its image engraved on the metal wall.

There were many other monsters that Zhou Wen couldn’t name.

This wasn’t the main point of Zhou Wen’s observation. He wanted to find something, even if it was a skeleton, a piece of tattered cloth, or even a piece of paper.

However, there was nothing in the temple. Apart from the metal items, there was nothing else.

Zhou Wen had mixed feelings. He couldn’t see the former principal and company’s belongings. It was possible that they had been swallowed by Torch Dragon, but it was also possible that they hadn’t come here. Therefore, there was still some hope. However, this hope was even more torturous.

“Young Master Wen, if you only look at it with your naked eye, you won’t be able to see any problems. I wish to use some equipment and the powers of our Companion Beasts to examine the area. Perhaps we can discover something.” Lu Yunxian looked around the temple before saying to Zhou Wen. Clearly, he hadn’t discovered anything.

“Alright, go and prepare.” Zhou Wen nodded.

“Xu Wen, help Young Master Wen look around and see if Torch Dragon dropped any Companion Eggs and crystals. If there are, get Young Master Wen to put them away. In a while, there will be too many people and it will inevitably be troublesome,” Lu Yunxian told Xu Wen before leaving.

Xu Wen agreed and went to investigate Torch Dragon’s corpse.

Zhou Wen knew that the chances of Torch Dragon dropping a Companion Egg were very low, so he didn’t deliberately search for it. He just carefully observed the temple and compared it to his memories in-game.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen discovered something. It was identical to the metallic style of the temple. It seemed to be something from the temple, but Zhou Wen had never seen it in-game.

Zhou Wen walked to the side of the temple and saw a metal artifact. It looked cubic like a metal block. It wasn’t too big and was about the size of a brick. Its color was the same as the metallic color of the palace. It was bluish-black.

This metal piece was placed above the head of a monster statue. The metal statue looked like a lion, a tiger, but nothing like them either. However, it looked like a legendary Qilin.

Zhou Wen had seen this statue in-game, but he had never seen the metal piece on its head.

He reached out to push the metal block and realized that it wasn’t one with the statue. It was very easy for him to push it. Zhou Wen took it down and found it rather heavy. It was likely much heavier than a gold block of the same size.

The surface of the metal piece was very smooth and there was nothing on it. Zhou Wen flipped to the side to take a look, but there was nothing. However, when he flipped to the bottom, he realized that there was something different. There were a few carvings on the metal surface, splitting the metal into nine parts.

Zhou Wen seemed to have seen such a nine-part setup somewhere before. On careful thought, he immediately recalled that in Qin Xiyuan’s shop, the chained silver-haired Companion Beast was connected to a metal block. The metal block had a similar nine-number keypad.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 568 - Torch Dragon Egg

Chapter 568 Torch Dragon Egg

However, the metal block that chained the strange person was many times bigger than this one. Furthermore, there were numbers on the nine-key pad. There were no numbers on the tiny metal block here. Each box was blank.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and stored the metal piece into the chaos space. He planned on studying it when he returned.

“Young Master Wen… A Companion Egg… It’s Torch Dragon’s Companion Egg…” Xu Wen suddenly said in pleasant surprise.

Zhou Wen was just about to examine the temple again, to see if there was anything else that was different from the game, when he heard Xu Wen’s voice. He couldn’t help but be taken aback. He turned his head and saw Xu Wen holding a soccer-ball-sized crystal in her hand. It seemed to have billions of starlights circulating in it. It looked beautiful and surreal.

“Young Master Wen, quickly put it away. It’s best not to let others see it.” Xu Wen handed the Companion Egg to Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen took the Companion Egg and looked at it. He couldn’t help but sigh inwardly. I’ve grinded so many times in-game, but nothing dropped. I never expected it to drop in real life.

…

Outside the tunnel, Professor Lei and company couldn’t hear anything anymore. They were guessing what was happening inside.

From the looks of it, Zhou Wen should have been killed by Torch Dragon. Qu Qingyun gloated inwardly, but he said, “Teacher, Zhou Wen is probably doomed. How do we explain this to Overseer An?”

Professor Lei was also feeling vexed. The An family definitely placed great importance on a cultivation genius like Zhou Wen. Although this matter had nothing to do with him, he was still in charge here. He ultimately had to bear some responsibility.

“Let’s head over to take a look first.” Professor Lei summoned his Companion Beast and planned on figuring out the situation to see if Zhou Wen could be saved.

Although the chances were slim, he had to give it a try.

“There’s really no need. Sending Companion Beasts over is just sending them to their deaths for nothing,” said Qu Qingyun.

Professor Lei was about to say something when he saw someone rush out of the tunnel. It was Lu Yunxian.

“Commander Lu, how’s the situation inside? Zhou Wen didn’t enter the Torch Dragon temple, did he?” Professor Lei hurriedly asked when he saw Lu Yunxian come out.

“Young Master Wen is in the temple,” Lu Yunxian answered.

“It’s over.” When Professor Lei heard Lu Yunxian say that, he felt that Zhou Wen was definitely dead.

“Professor Lei, where’s your scanning equipment? Bring it with you. Follow me to the Torch Dragon temple,” Lu Yunxian said.

“What’s the use of taking in the equipment? Those instruments can only be used to gather data, not save someone,” Qu Qingyun said with a twitch of his lips.

Lu Yunxian said with a smile, “Who are you saving? Young Master Wen has killed Torch Dragon. Hurry up and bring the equipment over. Check the interior of the temple carefully and see if there are any traces left behind by Old Mister Ouyang and the others.”

“What?” Professor Lei and the others thought that something was wrong with their ears.

“Battalion Commander Lu, are you joking with us?” A professor looked at Lu Yunxian in disbelief.

“What do you mean joking? Young Master Wen is waiting for you in the temple. Quickly bring the equipment and follow me,” Lu Yunxian said.

Professor Lei and company were doubtful, but seeing that Lu Yunxian didn’t seem to be joking, they could only gather their equipment and follow him to the Torch Dragon temple.

When they arrived outside the Torch Dragon temple and saw the massive body lying in a pool of blood, everyone was dumbfounded.

They had studied the area for months, but they had never seen Torch Dragon in person. Now, they had seen it with their own eyes, but Torch Dragon had already turned into a corpse.

Qu Qingyun’s expression was even more thoughtful, as if he couldn’t believe it. He was also somewhat horrified.

Zhou Wen looked back and forth at the temple several times. After confirming that it wasn’t different from in-game, he left the temple and handed it over to Professor Lei, Lu Yunxian, and company to deal with it. He returned to the encampment and waited for their results.

Although many electronic devices couldn’t be used in Zhuolu, there were still some more rather practical investigative methods that could be used. For example, blood tests, fingerprint tests, etc.

Some tiny skin tissues could be collected and tested.

The entire team did a carpet sweep of the area. Since Zhou Wen couldn’t do anything, he had to just wait for the results.

…

In Luoyang’s An family, An Sheng had just returned to the office. Just as he was reporting the hatching of his Companion Egg to An Tianzuo, the phone on his desk suddenly rang.

An Tianzuo gestured slightly and An Sheng answered the call.

“What?” An Sheng widened his eyes in shock after hearing a few words.

An Tianzuo frowned slightly as he waited for An Sheng to put down the phone before asking him, “What happened?”

“Young Master Wen… He went to the Zhuolu ruins…” An Sheng put down the phone and said to An Tianzuo with a look of shock.

“What did he do?” An Tianzuo asked with a frown. From An Sheng’s expression, he knew that it wasn’t as simple as going to the ruins. Something must have happened.

“Young Master Wen… He… He… entered the Torch Dragon temple…” An Sheng said with a pained expression.

“Nonsense… What are Lu Yunxian and Professor Lei doing? How could they let him into the temple?” An Tianzuo immediately slammed the table and asked, “How is he now? Is he dead?”

“Dead,” An Sheng whispered.

An Tianzuo sat down on a chair and said through gritted teeth, “That bastard. How can I answer to the person at home? Does he think he’s a hero? What a bullsh*t hero. He’s just an ignorant boor. Does he think his life belongs to him? Thinking he can do whatever he wants. He doesn’t take anyone seriously and is selfish…”

An Sheng hadn’t seen An Tianzuo so angry in a long time. He realized that he had gone overboard.

“That… Overseer… I mean… Torch Dragon is dead…” An Sheng carefully said when An Tianzuo finally stopped.

An Tianzuo was taken aback. After a while, he stared at An Sheng and said, “What did you say? Say it again?”

“It was news from Zhuolu that Young Master Wen killed Torch Dragon. They have already entered the Torch Dragon temple to begin testing. They haven’t found anything yet,” An Sheng said.

An Tianzuo looked at An Sheng and his expression gradually turned cold. “Ah Sheng, it looks like you like you have become rather carefree recently.”

“Overseer, I was stunned by the news of Torch Dragon’s death. I couldn’t think straight. It really wasn’t intentional.” An Sheng immediately felt that things were going south.

“Since you are so carefree, go and guard Chess Mountain. You are not allowed to return without my orders,” said An Tianzuo coldly.

“Do I have a choice?” An Sheng said with a bitter expression.

“What do you think?” An Tianzuo said coldly.

“Yes, I’ll be setting off for Chess Mountain immediately.” An Sheng stood straight and saluted, but he didn’t go out. He said, “Something strange happened over there as well. The blood they used to sacrifice to the Aoyin stone statue seemed to have been tampered with.”

…

Zhou Wen returned to his tent and took out the metal piece he had obtained from the temple to study it. Apart from being a little smaller, it looked very similar to the things that chained the silver-haired Companion Beast.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 569 - Password Box

Chapter 569 Password Box

Zhou Wen tried using the mysterious phone’s camera function to snap the metal block, but there was no reaction. Clearly, he couldn’t store it on his phone.

Zhou Wen tried pressing the nine keys again and realized that although it didn’t sink, there seemed to be a glimmer.

These grids can’t really be buttons, right? Zhou Wen pressed a few other keys. As long as the pressure reached a certain level, each grid would emit a flash.

Could it be that this metal block is really a box with a code? Then what’s the code? Could it be the ten numbers the former principal gave me? Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that something was amiss.

There were no numbers on the nine-key grid. Even if the ten numbers given by the former principal were really the passcode, he didn’t know which one corresponded to 1 or 9.

Typically, numbers are arranged in order. 123 is the first row. 456 is the second row. 789 is the third row. However, the nine-key grid is a square. I don’t know which orientation is the first row. Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that he could give it a try.

If it was really arranged in order, he should be able to get results from making a few tries.

Therefore, Zhou Wen tried using the ten-digit code. 5156942730. He remembered this number very clearly, but he soon realized that something was amiss.

As the grid only had nine buttons, and with one of the ten numbers being zero, there was no way to press this zero.

It doesn’t work at all. From the looks of it, I’m overthinking things. Zhou Wen looked at the metal piece and suddenly recalled that he had seen a similar grid on the metal block that chained the silver-haired Companion Beast. However, there were numbers on that grid.

Zhou Wen carefully recalled what numbers were on the grid.

Thankfully, he had quite a good memory. Back then, he had looked at it carefully, so he quickly recalled it. He remembered that the numbers weren’t arranged according to the order, but were seemingly random.

249… 715… 603… I remember that the numbers on the metal block should be distributed in this way. Strange, there’s no 8 in the grid. Zhou Wen’s heart stirred as he thought of the ten-digit code. Indeed, there was no number 8.

Although this didn’t mean anything, Zhou Wen suddenly felt that he could give it a try.

If the numbers on this small metal block are the same as the large metal block, then I should press it this way. Zhou Wen followed the numbers in his memory and pressed the ten-digit code, but the metal block didn’t react.

Zhou Wen spun the grid clockwise ninety degrees before continuing his attempts. After he pressed the tenth button, he suddenly heard a very soft click.

He was immediately delighted and hurriedly looked at the metal piece. Indeed, there was a crack on the side of it. With a gentle twist, the metal piece split into two.

It was different from the box Zhou Wen imagined. The metal piece was almost solid. Only in the middle was a circular crystal that was about the size of a small coin.

After the metal piece cracked, the crystal fell out and landed on the table.

The crystal was transparent, but there were many silver spots of light inside. They resembled countless swirling galaxies. It was extremely beautiful.

Zhou Wen picked up the crystal and took a careful look. It was slightly cold, but there weren't any special energy fluctuations from it. On the side he saw, there was a symbol of an anchor engraved on it.

Zhou Wen wasn't unfamiliar with the anchor symbol. He had seen it a few times before. A similar tattoo was on the large metal piece and Gu Dian also had a similar tattoo.

However, the symbol of the anchor was slightly different. There was no woman's side profile on it. It was just a simple anchor symbol.

Perhaps it's just a coincidence? Zhou Wen thought as he flipped the crystal over to take a look. He couldn't help but be stunned when he saw it.

The crystal looked transparent, but when he turned around, he realized that it wasn't the case. There was a woman's head engraved on this side. It was her side profile and she looked extremely beautiful. It was identical to the one Zhou Wen had seen on the anchor symbol.

It’s really related, but what’s the use of this item that looks like a commemorative coin? Why did the former principal tell me the passcode to the box? Why didn’t he give me the box or the crystal coin? If I hadn’t seen the metal block that chains the silver-haired Companion Beast, or if I didn’t come here to obtain the small metal block, it wouldn’t be of any use even if I had the passcode. Countless thoughts flashed through Zhou Wen’s mind, but the more he thought about it, the more suspicious he became.

From the looks of it, I won’t be able to answer these questions unless I find the former principal. I wonder what use this crystal coin has? Zhou Wen studied it for a while, but he failed to find any use for it. All he could do was put it back into the metal block.

When the cracked metal pieces were placed together, it immediately seemed to have a powerful magnetic force that firmly sucked both parts together. Even the gap in the middle could not be seen.

Zhou Wen used his hand to try to pry it open a few times, but it remained solid, as though there was no gap.

This metal block sure is magical. I wonder if the large metal block that chains the silver-haired Companion Beast can be opened with the passcode. Although Zhou Wen felt that it was very likely, he didn’t plan on attempting it.

After putting the metal piece into the chaos space, Zhou Wen was about to take out the Torch Dragon Companion Egg to try hatching it when he suddenly heard someone walk into the tent.

“Young Master Wen, someone has arrived at the encampment. He wants to see you immediately. Adjutant An wants to talk to you,” Lu Yunxian said as he entered.

“Got it. How’s the investigation of the blood offerings?” Zhou Wen asked casually.

“We’re still investigating. There were more than twenty people involved, but we are investigating every one of them. We haven’t found anything yet. Adjutant An said that he will personally investigate this matter. Before he comes, none of the people related to this matter can leave,” Lu Yunxian said.

Zhou Wen was relieved when he heard that An Sheng was personally investigating the matter.

He took the chariot with Xu Wen, who was on her way back, and left the underground ruins. After returning to the encampment, Zhou Wen’s phone finally received a signal.

Before he could call An Sheng, An Sheng had already called. “Young Master Wen, didn’t you agree to wait for me to come back? Why didn’t you wait for me? It’s such a huge contribution. It’s really sad that you took all the credit alone.”

“Weren’t you hatching the Mythical pet? I just didn’t want you to be distracted,” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

“Young Master Wen, you have to remember to take me with you next time if there’s something this good. Look at how hard I’ve worked for so many years. Now, I’m only an adjutant. I also want to make a contribution. I want to be promoted. The next time you go to the Qiongqi temple, you have to take me along. Now that I have Love Letter, I should be able to help you,” An Sheng said.

“Alright, I’ll definitely take you with me next time.” Zhou Wen knew that An Sheng was joking. Although An Sheng was only an adjutant and his official position wasn’t high, his actual power was immense. He could be said to be a true figure of power in the Sunset army.

An Sheng said this mainly because he didn’t wish for Zhou Wen to take the risk alone.

“Did Torch Dragon drop anything good?” Since he got his intent across, An Sheng didn’t say anything else.

“A Companion Egg,” Zhou Wen answered.

“Young Master Wen, you’re really lucky. Over the past few years, Overseer has also killed some Mythical creatures. However, his luck with Companion Eggs isn’t that good. When you went with us to kill Love Letter, a Companion Egg dropped. Now that you killed Torch Dragon, another Companion Egg has dropped. You’re just so lucky. If I were to kill Mythical creatures again, Young Master Wen, you have to help me,” An Sheng said with a smile.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, My luck is good? Joke’s on you. I’ve killed countless Mythical creatures in-game, but none of them dropped Companion Eggs.

“By the way, Young Master Wen, we’ve obtained some information regarding the cube’s ranking,” An Sheng said solemnly.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 570 - Top Mythical

Chapter 570 Top Mythical

“Currently, there are internal rumors amongst the six families that as long as a Companion Beast enters the rankings, they will have a chance of being further improved in the future,” An Sheng said.

“What do you mean by further improved? Enhanced?” Zhou Wen remembered that The Thearch had told him that only the first Companion Egg on the rankings would obtain the opportunity to be enhanced.

“I don’t know. The rumors are all over the place right now. It’s difficult to determine their authenticity. However, the Xia, Zhang, and Dugu families already have Mythical Companion Beasts on the rankings. Furthermore, there are also some unknown Companion Beasts on the rankings. Haven’t you realized that your Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s ranking has dropped?” An Sheng asked.

“I really didn’t notice that.” Zhou Wen had no time to pay attention to those things. He had been studying how to kill Torch Dragon.

“Your Six-Winged’s ranking has already dropped to fifth place. The number one pet is no longer the Death of the Underworld. It has been replaced by a Companion Beast named Primordial Sword Immortal. Death of the Underworld is second, Genie is third, Frost Giant is fourth, and your Six-Winged Guardian Dragon is fifth. There are already more than thirty Companion Beasts on the rankings. The number one Primordial Sword Immortal doesn’t seem to belong to the six families. We haven’t found out who it belongs to. The six families have a real headache now. The number of Companion Beasts that aren’t from the six families on the rankings has increased significantly.” An Sheng explained the situation to Zhou Wen in detail.

“Why didn’t you let Love Letter give it a try?” Zhou Wen didn’t care much about the ranking. After all, it was only a ranking for humanity’s Companion Beasts. Compared to dimensional creatures, humans were still too weak. Just thirty Mythical Companion Beasts were nothing in the massive dimensional Mythical system.

“It doesn’t make a difference even if I put it up on the rankings. The current rankings definitely aren’t final. There are still many Companion Beasts from the six families that haven’t been placed. The truly powerful ones haven’t shown up. Furthermore, the bigwigs from all over the world might not be as rich as the six families, but they should have some Mythical pets. When the time comes, the rankings will definitely exceed a hundred entries. Even if my Love Letter gets on the rankings now, it’ll drop out sooner or later.”

After a pause, An Sheng said, “On the other hand, if you obtain the Torch Dragon Companion Beast, quickly hatch it. Its ranking will definitely be very high. It might even have a chance of reaching first place. Rumor has it that the higher the ranking, the greater the opportunities in the future. However, you have to be careful. The stronger a Mythical Companion Beast is, the harder it is to hatch. It might even kill you. I have a few ways to hatch a Mythical Companion Beast. I’ll send you some information later.”

After chatting with An Sheng for a while, Zhou Wen hung up and found a room to rest. He took out the Torch Dragon Companion Egg and planned on hatching it.

No one would mind having too many Mythical Companion Beasts. More importantly, every Mythical Companion Beast had different abilities. No matter how strong a Mythical Companion Beast was, it was impossible for it to be invincible. In different situations, it was best to have Companion Beasts with different abilities.

Just like Torch Dragon's Bright Torch Vision World, it could instantly kill Mythical Companion Beasts of the same level, but an Epic Jade Crystal Spirit armor could restrain it.

Zhou Wen had infinite Essence Energy, so he naturally didn't need a special hatching method. He picked up the Torch Dragon egg and began injecting Essence Energy to incubate it.

The moment his Essence Energy touched the Torch Dragon egg, Zhou Wen immediately felt a powerful suction force suck his Essence Energy in like a whale.

Zhou Wen felt his Essence Energy suddenly empty. Thankfully, he quickly replenished it. If it were anyone else, they would probably be sucked dry.

As the Essence Energy surged in, the Companion Egg gradually lit up. It was as though countless stars were swirling around it. When it finally stopped absorbing Zhou Wen's Essence Energy, the Companion Egg transformed into a stream of starlight that flew towards Zhou Wen's left eye and fused into his pupils.

If one took a closer look, there was a Torch Dragon-like dark pattern in Zhou Wen's black pupils. As the color was similar, it was very difficult for ordinary people to tell.

Thankfully, the Torch Dragon tattoo didn’t affect Zhou Wen’s vision, so it didn’t hinder him.

Zhou Wen switched on his phone and checked Torch Dragon’s information. This might be the strongest Companion Beast he currently had. Even the Golden Battle God Halberd would be considered inferior.

Torch Dragon Youngling: Mythical (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Son of a World King

Life Soul: Eye of Spacetime

Wheel of Destiny: Bright Torch Vision World

Strength: 81

Speed: 81

Constitution: 81

Essence Energy: 81

Talent Skill: Torch Eyes, Dragon Breath, World King Transformation

Companion Form: Eye Mirror

Indeed, it’s a top-notch Mythical. All its stats are 81. It’s a pleasure looking at it. It’s even stronger than the strengthened Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. Zhou Wen summoned Torch Dragon in-game.

The gigantic Torch Dragon immediately appeared in the game’s interface. It looked identical to the one in real life. Zhou Wen tried all kinds of skills.

Apart from having a few less skills than the real Torch Dragon, there was basically no difference. The few skills that were lacking were not important skills. The core abilities were all present.

The truly invincible ones were the Bright Torch Vision World and the World King Transformation. The Bright Torch Vision World could reflect all things. Once its gaze landed on someone, they would be sucked into the Vision World and vanish without a trace.

The World King Transformation was Torch Dragon's final transformation skill. With the Eye of Spacetime appearing all over his body and the Bright Torch Vision World, it was practically invincible.

However, after using the World King Transformation, Torch Dragon would enter an overall weakened state. Its combat strength would drop drastically to the same level as the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon in a short period of time. It would take a long time to recover.

Even if it doesn't use World King Transformation, Torch Dragon is still a top-notch combat force. I wonder if Torch Dragon will be ranked first if it enters the rankings? Zhou Wen guessed inwardly.

Bringing Torch Dragon along, Zhou Wen headed for the temple in-game. He wanted to give it a try and see what effects Torch Dragon and the Bright Torch Vision World had against the Bright Torch Vision World. It would definitely be exciting.

Finally, he arrived at the Torch Dragon temple. Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen ordered his Torch Dragon to use the Bright Torch Vision World. Torch Dragon's eyes immediately turned into a mirror that emitted a sun-like glow.

As for the Torch Dragon in the temple, it seemed to sense danger. It also used the Bright Torch Vision World. In the next second, a strange scene happened. The two Torch Dragons vanished into thin air. A strange spatial vortex appeared in the temple, sweeping everything in. The game screen immediately turned black.

The Bright Torch Vision World versus Bright Torch Vision World is an annihilative disaster! Zhou Wen realized something unusual as he had an ominous feeling. After entering the game again, Zhou Wen wasn’t in a rush to head to the Torch Dragon temple. Instead, he headed for the Poison Bat Cave.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 571 - An Sheng“s Arrival

Chapter 571 An Sheng“s Arrival

Groups of Poison Bats flew over. With Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World, large swaths of Poison Bats and a White Shadow of Poison were reflected into the Vision World, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

The large number of Poison Bats in the cave vanished without a trace.

As expected! Zhou Wen’s expression didn’t look good. This was because at least two hundred Poison Bats had been sucked into the Vision World. They were nowhere to be seen, with no corpses indicating their deaths. The key point was that the game constantly indicated that the Poison Bat had been killed, but nothing dropped.

This was a very troublesome problem. The dimensional creatures that were sucked into the Bright Torch Vision World wouldn’t drop anything, or they might have dropped something, only to have them vanish in the Vision World.

If it doesn’t drop, so be it. Zhou Wen didn’t feel overly conflicted. This time, he took the Torch Dragon to the Qiongqi temple.

Qiongqi was very powerful and Zhou Wen was no match for it with the Six-Winged Golden Battle God Halberd and the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General that restrained it. However, Qiongqi was no match for Torch Dragon Youngling.

The trouble was—Qiongqi's speed was too fast—allowing it to constantly avoid Torch Dragon's vision. However, by unleashing World King Transformation, Qiongqi had nowhere to run. It was directly sucked into the Vision World and instantly killed.

Unfortunately, the Bright Torch Vision World prevented anything from dropping despite killing Qiongqi.

From the looks of it, it won't be a problem to use Torch Dragon to kill Qiongqi. Zhou Wen was rather satisfied with the outcome. It didn't matter if anything dropped. As long as he could kill Qiongqi, he could enter the Qiongqi Temple.

If they couldn't find the former principal in the Qiongqi temple, it meant that he had most likely been killed.

In fact, after discovering the metal piece, Zhou Wen already felt that the former principal and company had gone to the Torch Dragon temple. The chances of them heading to Qiongqi temple were relatively low.

As for why he didn't discover the former principal and company's relics, Zhou Wen felt that they might have been sucked into the Bright Torch Vision World, so nothing remained.

Only the metal piece had been left behind for some reason. Or perhaps it was originally something from the temple—the former principal and the others had merely discovered it.

Zhou Wen wasn't in a rush to head to the Qiongqi temple. An Sheng said that he would head over in the next two days, so he planned on waiting for him.

After all, with Torch Dragon around, killing Qiongqi wasn’t too risky. It was fine to wait for An Sheng.

Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed when he took the Torch Dragon with him to grind the Torch Dragon. If Torch Dragon used Bright Torch Vision World, he wouldn’t obtain any benefits even if he killed Torch Dragon.

However, he wasn’t a match for Torch Dragon in the temple without using Bright Torch Vision World. He would still be killed instantly by the Bright Torch Vision World, so Zhou Wen had no choice but to use the old method to kill the Torch Dragon.

When Torch Dragon appeared in his companion form, it gave Zhou Wen a pleasant surprise.

Torch Dragon’s Companion Form was similar to contact lenses. It directly appeared in Zhou Wen’s left eye. Under such circumstances, Zhou Wen’s left eye could also use Bright Torch Vision World.

Although it drained him greatly, it wasn’t a problem for Zhou Wen who had infinite Essence Energy.

Unfortunately, this move can only be used to kill enemies, but it can’t drop dimensional crystals or Companion Eggs. Zhou Wen planned on using Torch Dragon as his trump card. He could also use it when grinding Mythical creatures, but without using the Bright Torch Vision World and World King Transformation, its combat strength was only slightly stronger than the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

An Sheng arrived very quickly. Zhou Wen didn’t even wait two days before An Sheng arrived at the encampment.

Zhou Wen told An Sheng about hatching the Torch Dragon Youngling and found an uninhabited place. There, he demonstrated Torch Dragon's abilities to him, telling him that he could kill Qiongqi with Torch Dragon.

"This Torch Dragon Youngling is practically invincible. It's very likely to be first on the rankings. However, I have to do something before we kill Qiongqi," An Sheng said.

"Is it related to the blood offerings?" Zhou Wen guessed.

An Sheng nodded slightly. "I'm constantly updated by the news over here. I've roughly guessed who it is. If I don't deal with this fellow now, I'm afraid something will happen in the future. Let's head to the temple and settle this matter."

Zhou Wen entered the temple with An Sheng. Everyone related to the blood offerings was there.

When Professor Lei saw Zhou Wen and An Sheng, he came over and said excitedly, "Young Master Wen, Adjutant An, our research has made quite a bit of progress recently. From the murals and statues inside the Torch Dragon Temple, that palace should be related to the Mythical Chiyou…"

"Professor Lei, report the details to the Overseer in the future. Please gather everyone. I have something to say," An Sheng said.

"Alright, Little Zhao, call everyone over," Professor Lei said to one of his students.

Soon, the student called everyone over. When everyone was present, Professor Lei frowned and asked, "Where's Qingyun?"

“Senior Brother Qu was a little unwell yesterday and had been resting in the tent. When I called him just now, he seemed to be very sick. He was a little muddle-headed and didn’t wake up,” Little Zhao said.

“In that case, I’ll get him.” An Sheng seemed to realize something as he quickly walked towards Qu Qingyun’s tent.

Everyone followed him. An Sheng pulled open the tent and saw Qu Qingyun sleeping inside with the blanket wrapped around him. His body seemed to be trembling like a patient suffering from a severe cold.

An Sheng walked over and reached out to pull the blanket away. He saw Qu Qingyun curled up into a ball as his body trembled.

“Qingyun, what’s wrong?” Professor Lei saw that Qu Qingyun seemed to be seriously ill and wanted to go up to check on him.

However, An Sheng stopped Professor Lei and pulled out a flying dagger before throwing it at Qu Qingyun.

The flying dagger instantly stabbed into Qu Qingyun’s body. With a bang, a white fog erupted from the body. After the white fog dissipated, they saw the dagger nailing the corpse of a fox to the ground.

“What’s going on?” Professor Lei and the others were dumbfounded.

“Adjutant An, I’ll lead my men to chase after him.” Lu Yunxian’s expression changed. Qu Qingyun slept in the same tent as him, but he had actually failed to notice anything amiss.

“There’s no need. This person isn’t simple. Furthermore, the terrain in the ruins is too difficult. It’s easy for accidents to happen. Watch the vicinity of the temple and investigate the important areas. Don’t let him have another chance,” An Sheng said.

“Yes.” Lu Yunxian went to make arrangements.

The matter was already very clear. Even Professor Lei and the rest had guessed that there must be something wrong with Qu Qingyun’s sudden disappearance and him playing such a trick. It probably had something to do with the blood offerings.

“Adjutant An, I really didn’t expect Qingyun to do such a thing…” Professor Lei said in embarrassment.

“Professor Lei, don’t blame yourself. Everyone has cavities in their teeth. You weren’t to know.” Having settled the matter, An Sheng headed to the Qiongqi temple with Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 572 - Killing Qiongqi

Chapter 572 Killing Qiongqi

The duo went all the way to the Qiongqi temple. With Torch Dragon as their main force, An Sheng and Zhou Wen didn't even plan on entering.

Before the temple door opened, Zhou Wen summoned Six-Winged and Torch Dragon. At the same time, he summoned the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

"Is this tiger-riding Companion Beast also at the Mythical stage?" An Sheng asked curiously as he sized up the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

"It's not at the Mythical stage. It's just an Epic Companion Beast. However, his Life Providence has some restraining effects on Qiongqi. It will make killing Qiongqi easier," Zhou Wen said with a smile.

These words were very honest. Without the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, Torch Dragon could only kill Qiongqi in its World King Transformation state. And with the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, there was no need to use the World King Transformation. A single Bright Torch Vision World would seal the deal.

"There's actually a Life Providence that can restrain Mythical creatures. Although it's at the Epic stage, it's sufficiently precious," An Sheng commented.

"Yes, it wasn't easy to obtain it. It'll probably be difficult to find a second one," Zhou Wen said as he opened the temple door.

Qiongqi was inside the temple. The moment the door opened, it pounced forward. However, due to the influence of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, its speed decreased significantly.

Under Zhou Wen's orders, Torch Dragon activated the Bright Torch Vision World to which Qiongqi dodged. Unfortunately, its speed was greatly reduced and it failed to escape. Torch Dragon immediately swept its gaze at it, making it disappear.

"Torch Dragon is really too strong! It will be unreasonable if it can't get first on the rankings," An Sheng praised when he saw Qiongqi being settled so easily.

Zhou Wen also felt that Torch Dragon was very strong, but he wondered if it could defeat the guardian of a white cocoon.

"Unfortunately, after being killed by the Bright Torch Vision World, nothing will be left. Even if dimensional crystals and Companion Eggs drop, I won't be able to take them out. There are a lot of limitations," Zhou Wen said.

"That's not too good, but it's still very strong. There are some mysterious dimensional zones with many good things inside, but they are protected by terrifying Mythical creatures. It's almost impossible to get the treasures out. Having this Torch Dragon makes things much simpler. When I'm free later, I'll take you to those places to take a look. After a spin through them, we'll definitely be able to obtain some good things," An Sheng said.

The duo entered the Qiongqi temple. Inside the stone temple, there were also many stone sculptures and murals.

Many of the murals depicted a huge battle. Various creatures that looked like monsters and ghosts were fighting, while humans were just cannon fodder. The monsters were the main combat force.

The two of them carefully explored the temple several times, but they didn't find any passageway or any clues left behind by the former principal.

Zhou Wen didn't discover anything different about the temple versus the in-game temple. It was completely identical.

"Let Professor Lei and the rest come over and study it. They are the professionals in this area. If there are any clues, they will definitely discover them," An Sheng said.

"That's all we can do." Zhou Wen nodded helplessly.

He now knew that the former principal and company were doomed. They had either been killed by Torch Dragon or eaten by Qiongqi. No matter what the possibility was, there was no need to investigate further.

Zhou Wen planned on returning to school. The outcome was no longer important to him. No matter how the former principal died, it was impossible for him to come back to life.

"Wait another two days for me. When I'm done here, we can return together. I can also take you to kill a few Mythical creatures on the way. It's a crime not to use such a powerful Torch Dragon and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon," An Sheng said.

"What will you be doing here?" Zhou Wen looked puzzled as he asked.

“Of course I have to find Qu Qingyun,” An Sheng said.

“Will he still be here?” Zhou Wen felt that Qu Qingyun had definitely escaped Zhuolu.

“According to the time, he was definitely still inside the underground ruins when we entered. The underground ruins only have one exit. I planted some Companion Beasts at the exit, but I haven’t detected his departure. That means he’s definitely still here,” An Sheng said.

“When did you set up the Companion Beasts? Why didn’t I know?” Zhou Wen asked in surprise.

“It’s an ordinary Companion Beast. Apart from being small, it doesn’t have any special abilities. However, it’s very useful for monitoring,” An Sheng said.

“Alright, I also want to know why Qu Qingyun did that. Before I came, he hadn’t done anything. Yet, he took action after I came. This clearly isn’t a coincidence.” Zhou Wen felt that Qu Qingyun was targeting him, not Professor Lei and company. Otherwise, he could have done it long ago.

“If I want to find him, I’ll have to rely on Love Letter,” An Sheng said as he summoned Love Letter.

Although its name was Love Letter, it looked like a huge scorpion. There were many strange blood-colored texts on its body. No matter how one looked at it, it had nothing to do with a romantic love letter.

“Does Love Letter have the ability to find people?” Back when An Tianzuo fought Love Letter, he was also present. He had never seen Love Letter display such abilities.

“It doesn’t have the ability to find people, but its language skills will be useful.” An Sheng left the temple with Love Letter.

Zhou Wen followed beside him and saw that Love Letter would open the wall or the ground at a fixed distance every time. The words quickly fused into the rock.

There were also some words that landed on the plants in the ruins, like grass. It was unknown what they could do.

“Although these words don’t have any offensive power, Love Letter will naturally sense any creature that passes by. I left something in all the necessary areas. Unless Qu Qingyun doesn’t move in the ruins, we will be able to catch him sooner or later,” An Sheng explained.

“Take your time. I wish to visit the underground sea.” Zhou Wen had nothing to do, so he wanted to take a look.

Zhou Wen had already explored most of the Zhuolu underground ruins. Now, he didn’t even have a place to explore. All that was left was the underground sea.

Ignoring the nine black dragons and the cocoon in the war wagon, there was also something strange inside the sapphire sky. Zhou Wen planned on taking this opportunity to take a look. Perhaps, in reality, he could discover something he couldn’t see in-game.

“Alright, I still need a while. You can take your time.”

After separating from An Sheng, Zhou Wen headed for the underground sea. There weren’t many things that could threaten him in the underground ruins. Even against the nine black dragons, Zhou Wen had the strength to fight them.

Of course, that was under the circumstances that the nine black dragons were chained. If their shackles were unlocked, Zhou Wen would have to rely on Torch Dragon.

When he passed the white desert, Zhou Wen saw the tattered flag and the skeleton sitting under it.

Apart from suddenly waking up the first time Zhou Wen passed by, the skeleton didn’t react.

Zhou Wen carefully sized up the symbol on the animal hide flag. It was indeed the symbol of a ship’s anchor. He wanted to ask the skeleton what their flag meant, but unfortunately, the skeleton remained motionless like a dead object.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 573 - Bone Sand

Chapter 573 Bone Sand

I wonder how the skeleton will react if I pull the flag away? Zhou Wen mused. Even if he pulled out the flag, he didn’t know what he could do with it.

After sizing up the vine flag and beast hide, Zhou Wen suddenly realized that the sand beneath the flagpole was different from the white sand elsewhere.

When he walked over to take a closer look, he saw that the sand granules beside the flag pole were rather large. Some of them were about the size of table tennis balls, while the smaller ones were the size of glass beads. Furthermore, the shapes were irregular.

As the graphics in-game were cartoonish, he couldn’t distinguish them clearly. However, when Zhou Wen looked carefully, he realized that the white sand wasn’t sand, but bones.

Could it be that this white desert isn’t a real desert, but made of weathered bones? Zhou Wen looked at the endless white desert and couldn’t help but shiver.

If the sand in the desert were really bone granules, how many creatures had to die here to form such a huge desert?

Furthermore, it was obvious that things weren’t that simple for their bones to become sand.

Zhou Wen grabbed a handful of sand and carefully looked at it. The more he looked at it, the more it looked like it was formed from shattered bones. However, the size and shape of the sand grains were very similar. It was unknown how it was formed.

Could it be that this is actually the main battlefield of Zhuolu back then? The dead creatures in the battle were buried here? Zhou Wen thought for a moment and summoned the Guardian Dragon and Torch Dragon. He made the two huge monsters dig open the sand to see if there was anything underneath.

In the Zhuolu battle back then, other than humans, any creature that participated in it was at the Mythical stage. Furthermore, they had quite a number of treasures. If he could dig up one or two, even damaged relics would have huge value.

Six-Winged and Torch Dragon were huge, and they had immense strength. They were even more powerful than excavators. The Guardian Dragon swiped its front claws and dug out a huge hole.

Torch Dragon plunged into the sea of sand and swam beneath it. Soon, it parted the sand, revealing a ravine.

At the spot Torch Dragon had dug out, something was exposed. It looked like ivory—a sharp horn. Zhou Wen hurriedly ordered Torch Dragon to continue digging.

Torch Dragon and Six-Winged dug a huge pit that was more than ten meters deep. Many parts of the object were revealed. They were not teeth, but a huge skeleton. What he saw was the tip of one of the rib cages. There were two rows of such a sternum on the skeleton. There were at least twenty to thirty bones.

The entire skeleton resembled the bones of a cow, but it was many times bigger than cow bones. Furthermore, it didn’t have a skull.

Apart from the skeleton, there was nothing else. However, this left Zhou Wen somewhat expectant. Since there was really a monster’s bones below, there might be something that had been left behind from the battle or some dimensional crystals left behind.

If he could dig up a few Essence Energy Skill Crystals, he would make a killing.

Zhou Wen got Six-Winged and Torch Dragon to constantly dig in the desert, hoping to find something.

Not long after, he had dug out quite a number of bones under the desert. The bones had different shapes, so they likely didn’t belong to the same creature.

However, the strange thing was that the bones were crystalline, akin to jade. They seemed to have fossilized, but they maintained a moist texture.

Many bones shattered when Six-Winged and Torch Dragon touched them.

Unlike ordinary bones, these bones were like tempered glass. Once they shattered, they would turn into tiny particles that scattered in the white sand, becoming a part of the white desert.

Indeed, this white desert is a bone sand desert. Zhou Wen was alarmed.

From the scale of the white desert, the intense battle back then far exceeded anyone’s imaginations. Many Mythical creatures had definitely died here.

Six-Winged and Torch Dragon dug holes in the sea of sand, almost turning half the desert over.

Unfortunately, other than some bones, everything seemed to have decayed and melted. The bones remained for some reason, but most of them had already turned into bone sand.

Most likely, those that hadn’t turned into bone sand were terrifying Mythical creatures.

Suddenly, Six-Winged seemed to dig out something as it roared at Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen went over to take a look and saw a rhinoceros’s head in the sandpit that was split open by the six wings. However, this head was much bigger than a rhinoceros on Earth. It resembled the size of a train engine.

Although it had turned into jade, the rhinoceros’ head remained intact. It was still very lifelike and there weren’t any scars on its head.

Zhou Wen got Six-Winged and Torch Dragon to dig out the rhinoceros’ body. Although there were many bones here, it maintained its complete form like a giant rhinoceros. This was the first one.

However, this gigantic rhinoceros was like a jade statue. Its body had completely transformed into jade and there was no vitality left in its body. It definitely couldn’t come back to life.

Wait, I don’t see any injuries on its body. How did it die? Zhou Wen carefully sized up the rhinoceros and suddenly had an idea.

Perhaps the white desert's bone sand isn't purely bone. Instead, the creatures here are affected by some unknown force. Their bodies are like the rhinoceros, turning into stone. Then, they shatter and become bone sand… The more Zhou Wen thought about it, the more convinced he was.

What kind of terrifying power made so many creatures turn into bone sand? Which faction does the expert who used this power belong to? Yellow Emperor or Chiyou? Zhou Wen guessed.

The rhinoceros was still intact after being fossilized. It didn't turn into bone sand like ordinary creatures. It must have been extraordinary when it was alive.

Even so, it still couldn't escape the influence of the terrifying power, turning into its present state.

Zhou Wen reached out and struck the rhinoceros a few times. With two clangs, the sound was extremely crisp as though he had struck a jade artifact or bone. The rhinoceros' body didn't shatter due to the external force.

Torch Dragon and Six-Winged dug the nearby area, but apart from some weak fossilized bones, they didn't discover anything.

It can't be? Could it be that only some primitive creatures participated in the battle? They only engaged in melee combat and didn't even use divine weapons? Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed.

Crack! Crack!

Cracks suddenly appeared on the rhinoceros' body. More and more cracks appeared as though it was about to shatter.

Perhaps Torch Dragon and Six-Winged collided into it while they were excavating. What a pity. Bringing it back as a specimen would have been good. After all, it’s an ancient Mythical creature. To be able to participate in such a battle is definitely no trifling matter. Just as Zhou Wen was feeling poignant, the jade-like rhinoceros had already shattered.

Something dropped from the rhino’s cracked abdomen. Unlike the shattered bone sand, the thing was still squirming.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 574 - A Snail

Chapter 574 A Snail

Zhou Wen was surprised that the thing which dropped from the rhinoceros' stomach was a living creature. Furthermore, it looked like a snail.

The fist-sized snail shell was crystalline and translucent.

The snail's body that was exposed was transparent like a flawless crystal. After the snail fell out, it slowly crawled on the sand with its shell.

Zhou Wen retreated as though he was facing a formidable enemy. At the same time, he ordered the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and Torch Dragon to attack the snail.

Zhou Wen didn't know the origins of the snail, but he knew one thing very well. In such a terrifying ancient battle, even a powerful creature like the rhinoceros had fossilized. Yet, this snail had survived inside the rhinoceros' stomach.

No matter how it did it, it definitely wouldn't have been easy.

Of course, it was also possible that the fellow had crawled in later, but no matter what, Zhou Wen wasn't willing to take the risk.

Torch Dragon and Six-Winged simultaneously spat out dragon breath at the snail. The snail immediately shrank into its shell. Two terrifying dragon breaths sprayed on the snail’s shell, melting away the surrounding bone sand and forming a huge crater.

However, after the dragon breaths stopped, the snail shell in the pit remained unharmed. The attacks of the two Mythical pets failed to penetrate the snail shell.

Bright Torch Vision World. Zhou Wen increasingly found the snail terrifying. He ordered Torch Dragon to use its Wheel of Destiny powers.

Torch Dragon’s eyes turned into a mirror as it looked at the snail in the pit, but in the blink of an eye, the snail had vanished.

The power of the Bright Torch Vision World absorbed large amounts of bone sand. A large swath of bone sand vanished as though a huge hole had been dug out of the desert.

Zhou Wen carefully observed his surroundings, but he didn’t find the snail.

Was it absorbed by the Bright Torch Vision World or had it escaped? Zhou Wen didn’t dare be careless as he summoned several important Companion Beasts to prevent any mishaps.

If this lineup still allowed it to escape, it would be terrifying.

Torch Dragon and company stood around Zhou Wen and constantly scanned the nearby desert, but they didn’t find any traces of the snail.

Now, Zhou Wen missed Truth Listener a little. If he had Truth Listener’s ability, he wouldn’t be at such a disadvantage. Now, he had to be more careful.

After waiting for quite some time, the snail still didn’t appear. Zhou Wen felt that it was most likely sucked into Bright Torch Vision World with the bone sand. Otherwise, there was no reason for it not to appear.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t dare be careless. He continued watching carefully. At the same time, he didn’t dare stay in the bone sand desert any longer as he headed straight for the underground sea.

Along the way, he didn’t see the snail reappear. When he arrived at the beach, Zhou Wen didn’t head into the sea. Instead, he watched the sapphire sky from the side. It was a spectacular sight.

An Sheng said that they had people who also wanted to study the sapphire sky, but the Companion Beasts they had sent would die for no reason once they approached it. After losing quite a number of Companion Beasts with no results to speak for, they had to give up exploring the sapphire sky.

Zhou Wen looked at it for a while, but he didn’t find anything in the sapphire sky. The gem-like crystal’s body was entirely blue, looking beautiful and profound.

He attempted to summon a Poison Bat Companion Beast and make it fly towards the sapphire sky.

Back in-game, Zhou Wen had already done similar experiments numerous times. He would only see the Poison Bat flash a faint blue light when it approached the sapphire sky. Then, they would die. He saw nothing else.

This time, Zhou Wen wanted to see it happen in reality, hoping to find some clues.

Indeed, the moment the Poison Bat Companion Beast approached the sapphire sky, a blue light suddenly flashed from its body. In the next second, the Poison Bat’s body turned into a blue transparent crystal. After it exploded into powder, it fell into the underground sea.

Zhou Wen looked carefully, but he failed to discover where the blue light had shot out from. From his point of view, the blue light appeared to come from within the Poison Bat’s body.

He tried a few more times, but the results were the same. He couldn’t identify the problem.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen felt his neck itch. He reached out to scratch it, but when his fingers touched his skin, it gave him a fright.

When his fingers touched the itchy spot, he found it extremely hard to the touch. It didn’t feel like skin, but rather like jade.

Not good! Zhou Wen thought of something as he hurriedly summoned the crystal mirror and looked at his neck’s reflection. Upon seeing the reflection, his expression changed drastically.

On the right side of his neck, there was a bulge the size of a fingernail. It was very strange. It was neither red nor swollen. It was translucent like jade and had spiral patterns on it. It was like the shell of a snail.

Is this the snail being up to no good? Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen pulled out his Orchid Blade and slashed at his neck, slicing off the jade-like flesh.

Seeing that the flesh under his skin remained tender flesh and blood, he felt a lot more at ease that it hadn’t turned to jade.

Zhou Wen directly used the Orchid Blade to shatter the sliced piece of flesh. At the same time, he summoned the Fire Furnace Queen and burned it to ashes.

Although the wound on his neck still hurt, it didn’t itch. Zhou Wen felt much better.

With Zhou Wen’s current physical strength, the tiny wound quickly contracted and stopped bleeding. It wouldn’t take long to heal itself.

However, after a while, Zhou Wen felt his wound itch again. He thought that it was the itch from the scab, but when his fingers touched it, his expression immediately turned ugly.

He picked up the crystal mirror and took a look. The wound had completely healed, but a snail shell had protruded out.

Zhou Wen immediately cut it off and summoned Doctor Darkness to inject large amounts of poison into his wound.

Zhou Wen’s body’s poison resistance was already very high, so the poison couldn’t take his life. He wanted to see if it was effective on the wound or rather, be effective on the snail-like lump.

However, he was disappointed. Despite injecting him with a large amount of poison, making him almost unable to take it, it didn’t take long for the wound to automatically heal, producing a spiral-shaped jade lump. A strange itch also triggered Zhou Wen’s nerves, making him have the urge to grab it.

I’m in big trouble. Zhou Wen knew that things were rather serious. It was definitely the snail’s doing, but he didn’t even know where the snail was. It was unknown when the snail had attacked him.

He switched to Zero Taboo and used all sorts of methods to deal with the jade lump, but it was to no avail. No matter how he tried, the jade lump would regrow and become itchier. It made Zhou Wen have the urge to chop off his neck.

Damn it. Truth Listener is still evolving. Otherwise, its Evil Nullification Life Soul might be useful. Zhou Wen felt his neck itch more and more as he clenched his fists. However, he didn’t dare grab it. He was afraid that the more he scratched at it, the worse it would become.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 575 - Cultivation of Small Perfection of Wisdom

Chapter 575 Cultivation of Small Perfection of Wisdom

Zhou Wen knew that he couldn’t delay any further. He had to think of a way to resolve this problem.

Perhaps The Thearch knows what it is. Zhou Wen wanted to leave the Zhuolu battlefield and return to the encampment to contact The Thearch to see if he could obtain any useful information regarding the snail from her.

However, after taking a few steps, Zhou Wen felt his neck itch to the point of being unbearable. He wished he could slice off his neck.

What was even stranger was that Zhou Wen felt his body become heavier as though an invisible boulder was pressing down on him. Every step he took felt extremely difficult. He left deep footprints on the bone sand as his calf sank into it.

Zhou Wen knew that it wasn’t an illusion. There really was something pressing down on him. He could clearly sense the pressure, but there was nothing on him.

Plop!

Zhou Wen’s body was pressed into the bone sand. He struggled to stand up, but he couldn’t move.

Not only could he not move, but his neck was getting itchier. He couldn’t even scratch it.

I have to leave this place as soon as possible. Zhou Wen got Six-Winged and Torch Dragon to pull his body back.

However, even with Six-Winged and Torch Dragon’s immense strength, they were unable to move him. Or rather, they didn’t dare use too much strength, afraid that they would directly snap his body.

Indeed, I’m not suited to enter a dimensional zone in real life. Something happens every time. Zhou Wen was beginning to regret digging around.

Perhaps it was because he had just obtained a powerful Companion Beast like Torch Dragon that it had gone to his head. He believed that with Torch Dragon around, he could deal with any unexpected situation, but he never expected to have no chance of using it.

Zhou Wen could only endure the itch and let Torch Dragon burrow beneath the bone sand to prop him up from above.

However, when Torch Dragon tried to prop up Zhou Wen’s body with all its might, it nearly flattened Zhou Wen. It still failed to lift his body up even a centimeter.

However, Zhou Wen was pressed down on Torch Dragon’s back. As Torch Dragon retreated, Zhou Wen immediately fell into the sandpit, incapable of moving.

Zhou Wen had thought of all the solutions he could, but they were useless. He was trapped there, unable to move.

The pressure on his body was secondary. The itch on his neck was unbearable. It was so itchy that it nearly reached deep into his soul.

All his strength was useless. All Zhou Wen could do was switch to the Small Perfection of Wisdom and circulate the Eight Perfections Wisdom Life Providence.

It wasn’t that the power of the Small Perfection of Wisdom could reduce the pressure on him, nor was it that the Eight Perfections Wisdom could stop the itch. Instead, the Small Perfection of Wisdom had one benefit—it had a high tolerance.

Daoists cultivated life as it was, while Buddhists cultivated their future incarnation. They pursued the great release of the future.

Although Small Perfection of Wisdom was an Essence Energy Art that cultivated his constitution, it was different from the Invincible Connate Divine Art that directly strengthened one’s body. Small Perfection of Wisdom focused on the mind’s management of one’s body.

The Six Perfections Wisdom had all sorts of wisdoms that allowed one to pursue an epiphany mentally without being limited by one’s body.

Zhou Wen didn’t circulate the Small Perfection of Wisdom to relieve the pain on his body, but to prevent himself from focusing on his pain. He hoped to reduce the itchiness by employing this method.

Although this method didn’t treat the root of the problem, Zhou Wen really didn’t have a better solution. If he didn’t stop the itch, he was afraid that he would go crazy.

If I don’t have Truth Listener with me, I will not touch anything randomly in the future, Zhou Wen thought.

After the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra circulated, the Eight Perfections Wisdom made his six senses sharp. It made the itch go deeper into his bones.

Zhou Wen knew that this was only temporary. He had read quite a number of Buddhist scriptures, so he knew that this was an inevitable process. He needed to first experience pain before he could fully gain enlightenment and achieve the liberation of his body.

Ksitigarbha Bodhisattva had once said that one cannot become a Buddha with hell empty. It was a form of great enlightenment and liberation.

Resisting the almost lethal itch, Zhou Wen constantly circulated the Small Perfection of Wisdom, hoping to achieve a great liberation of his mind. At the same time, he had absolute control over his body, preventing it from being limited by his six senses and circumstances.

If it were an ordinary person, they wouldn’t be able to calm down and think about the meaning behind the scriptures when suffering from such an itch. They wouldn’t be able to fully focus on circulating the Essence Energy Art.

However, Zhou Wen was clearly not an average person. His talent at focusing allowed him to think and gain insights without being affected.

The scriptures he had read previously weren’t for nothing. Zhou Wen had taken the right path. With the circulation and comprehension of the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra, Zhou Wen’s senses became sharper. The itch on his neck still existed, but the mental effects on Zhou Wen decreased significantly. It made him feel less uncomfortable.

This is indeed feasible! Zhou Wen continued studying from this angle, hoping to break through the Small Perfection of Wisdom's bottleneck and condense a Life Soul.

Unlike ordinary Essence Energy Arts that strengthened one's constitution, the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra could not eliminate the pain in one's body. Instead, it used one's wisdom to understand the pain.

Of course, being able to understand something didn't mean that he could resolve it. However, the separation of his body and mind made Zhou Wen feel less pain.

The pressure on him remained as the itch grew more intense. However, despite clearly sensing the pain, Zhou Wen felt that his body wasn't his. The pain wasn't that unbearable anymore.

This feeling was very odd. It was clearly his body, but it didn't feel like it belonged to him. His mind seemed to be taking on an outsider's view.

If this continues, will I really become a Buddha? Zhou Wen could sense that his body was emitting a treasure glow.

And the source of this treasure glow was not from his physical body, but deeper.

Zhou Wen didn't wish to become a Buddha without any desires, but in this situation, he could only continue cultivating. Otherwise, just the itch would drive him crazy.

In such an environment, Zhou Wen quickly separated his mind and body. It sounded contradictory, but it was indeed Zhou Wen's present state.

It could control his body while his mind wasn’t restrained by his body. The pain from the pressure and itch was already nothing to Zhou Wen.

However, even if Zhou Wen was no longer fazed by it, nor had it affected his mind, the pressure on his body still existed. His body had already been pressed into the bone sand and was about to be flattened.

With his body dead, it was useless no matter how powerful his mind was. Wouldn’t he just be waiting for Buddha to take him into Paradise? Zhou Wen clearly didn’t follow this belief.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 576 - Hell King

Chapter 576 Hell King

What should I do? If Small Perfection of Wisdom can’t resolve my predicament, it’s akin to drinking poison to quench my thirst. Zhou Wen racked his brains, hoping to find a complete solution.

Although the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra and the Eight Perfections Wisdom couldn’t free Zhou Wen from the pain, it made his mind and six senses sharper. He could observe the details he couldn’t sense before.

His neck protruded. Even without looking in the mirror, Zhou Wen could sense everything that was happening, including the details beneath his skin.

Under the effects of the Eight Perfections Wisdom, Zhou Wen felt as though his body had turned transparent. It allowed him to see many physical details through his consciousness, or it could be said that he could sense the minute parts of his body. That wasn’t a true vision.

This should be the seventh sense mentioned in the Buddhist scriptures, right? Zhou Wen could clearly sense that the spiral jade beneath his neck wasn’t as simple as a lump.

Beneath the lump, there were many invisible silk objects that penetrated his blood vessels and muscles. As they were too minute, one couldn’t see them with the naked eye.

The silk-like objects seeped into his body like a spiderweb and coiled around his flesh and bones. His entire neck was enrooted by the silk as it spread throughout his body. Even his brain was penetrated.

Now, Zhou Wen finally knew why it was useless to slice off the lump. As the saying went, if one didn't remove the roots when cutting grass, the grass would grow again once the spring wind blew.

He needed to get rid of the threads inside to truly resolve the danger.

However, the power of the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra and the Eight Perfections of Wisdom could let him see the problem, but not resolve it.

Such a force that directly penetrated his body made formidable powers like Torch Dragon useless. Unless Zhou Wen wanted to be killed by the Bright Torch Vision World, he could only come up with another solution.

Doctor Darkness was the best in this area, but even his poison couldn't destroy the fine threads. This showed how powerful this thing was.

Thankfully, I still have the Substitute Talisman on me. Furthermore, I still have the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. If I have no choice, I'll perish together with this strange snail. With the Substitute Talisman and the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, I should be able to survive. It might not be the case for the snail, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

However, that was the final step. As long as there was a way, Zhou Wen didn't want to take that final step.

Since the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra can let me see it, is there really no way to resolve it? Furthermore, my comprehension still hasn’t allowed the Small Perfection of Wisdom to advance to the Epic stage or condense a Life Soul. Clearly, it’s because my comprehension isn’t completely correct… Zhou Wen tried hard to meditate.

The treasure glow on his body became more and more crystalline. However, due to the immense pressure, his body was almost unable to withstand it. His bones creaked from the pressure as though they would snap at any moment.

Zhou Wen could sense a huge snail shell pressing down on him. It couldn’t be seen with the naked eye or touched, but the pressure existed. It was extremely odd.

Since my mind can’t control my body, why don’t I do the opposite? If I can’t even live this life, what’s the point of a future incarnation? With a thought, Zhou Wen reversed the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra.

Zhou Wen originally believed that reversing the Small Perfection of Wisdom would definitely damage his body, but he soon realized that after the Small Perfection of Wisdom was reversed, it could also smoothly circulate without any obstruction. It was as though it should have been that way from the start.

Zhou Wen’s heart suddenly stirred as he thought of the three-faced Buddha in Small Buddha Temple. The three-faced Buddha had three faces, but they weren’t all smiling benevolently. They were somewhat different from ordinary Buddha statues.

Could it be that the… Small Perfection of Wisdom isn’t a pure Buddhist Essence Energy Art… One body with three sides… Then what’s the last side? Zhou Wen seemed to figure out something.

As the Small Perfection of Wisdom reversed, the Eight Perfections Wisdom also changed. Zhou Wen, who was originally in a state of separating his mind and body, once again fused his mind and body.

The extremely itchy feeling immediately returned to Zhou Wen, making him nearly go crazy.

However, almost at the same time, this crazy itch made Zhou Wen feel like he was brimming with strength. The more painful and itchy his body was, the more mentally sharp he became. Not only did he not feel the pain, but he also felt a sense of pleasure, as though he wanted to tear apart everything.

Humans have three sides. One side is Buddha, the other side is the devil. When Buddha arrives, I will be Buddha. When the devil arrives, I will be a devil. When Buddha and the devil are not present, I am my true self…

As Zhou Wen constantly gained insights, his essence, vitality, and spirit, as well as his Life Providence, erupted with terrifying power. It made his body glow and emit a shocking treasure glow, as though an indescribable power was building up in his body.

Zhou Wen wasn’t unfamiliar with this power. It was the condensation of a Life Soul.

However, it was different from the previous times when he condensed a Life Soul. This Life Soul was not an incorporeal object in the consciousness like Zero Taboo, nor was it a corporeal entity like Lost Country. It also wasn’t an independent entity like the Inverse Ancient Sovereign.

Zhou Wen’s Life Soul seemed to be his body—his body being the Life Soul. It was probably unprecedented.

Crack! Crack!

As his Life Soul condensed, the jade lump on Zhou Wen’s neck cracked. Wisps of invisible threads peeled out from his body.

It was as though invisible transparent strands of hair had automatically crawled out from his body. However, it wasn’t that the silk that had crawled out by itself. It was because of a strange change in Zhou Wen’s body that prevented any external object from attaching to him. Therefore, the threads had no choice but to leave his body.

The threads separated from Zhou Wen’s body and gathered together. Soon, they transformed into a transparent snail with a milky-white shell on its back. It was the same snail that Zhou Wen had dug out from the rhinoceros’ stomach.

Its tiny eyes sized up the glowing Zhou Wen as though it was pondering over something. However, when it looked at Torch Dragon beside it, it ultimately bowed its head and burrowed into the bone sand. It seemed to be invisible as it disappeared in the blink of an eye.

As for Zhou Wen’s body, it had already turned crystalline, like jade. He looked like a mighty being, as though he was nurturing an immense amount of energy. A vertical eye appeared at his glabella. At the instant the vertical eye opened, it was as though a door to the endless hell had opened. Countless vengeful and ferocious ghosts roared in it.

Zhou Wen himself seemed to have become a demon king as he emitted a terrifying aura of death.

Little Perfection of Wisdom had finally condensed a Life Soul, but this Life Soul looked somewhat odd.

Zhou Wen dispelled his Life Soul and returned to his normal state. The bulge on his neck had vanished, and the pressure on him had vanished. At the same time, he came to realize something.

“Hell King?” Zhou Wen muttered to himself as he read out the name of the Life Soul.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 577 - The Thearch“s Drug

Chapter 577 The Thearch“s Drug

Zhou Wen had naturally sensed the snail’s departure, but he didn’t chase after it.

The Hell King Life Soul could only prevent the tiny threads from clinging onto his body, but if the snail unleashed its strength, it could still destroy Zhou Wen’s body.

The snail’s retreat without fighting Zhou Wen wasn’t due to the Hell King Life Soul.

Although the Hell King Life Soul was good at strengthening his body, even Torch Dragon and Six-Winged’s attacks couldn’t injure the snail. Zhou Wen didn’t believe that the Hell King Life Soul could really threaten it, so he was still somewhat puzzled when the snail retreated.

However, no matter what, he had finally resolved a huge problem. Zhou Wen quickly left the bone sand desert, not daring to stay any longer.

He used his phone to look at his information and realized that the postfix—Guilt—of his Constitution had vanished. The Life Soul that Small Perfection of Wisdom had condensed was also Hell King. It had the effect of strengthening his mind and body, but this wasn’t the most important ability. The strongest aspect of the Hell King Life Soul was turning the body into a Life Soul. Zhou Wen didn’t know what use it had, for now, so he could only slowly study it.

After returning to the temple, Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief when he didn’t see the snail appear.

I should just game in the future. Zhou Wen wasn’t willing to give up. He lay in the tent and launched the game before heading to the bone sand desert to get Torch Dragon and Six-Winged to continue digging.

However, Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed. He didn’t find the fossilized rhinoceros in-game, neither did he find the snail. He only found a few bones.

There’s no snail in-game? Zhou Wen spent two days searching the bone sand desert, but he still failed to find the snail or encounter any other danger.

As for treasures, he found nothing.

…

The hidden forces An Sheng had set up, failed to capture Qu Qingyun. It was unknown if Qu Qingyun had covered his tracks well or if he had already used some method to escape the ruins.

An Sheng didn’t have the time to be stationed here. All he could do was send someone to guard the ruins and bring Zhou Wen back to Luoyang.

On the way, Zhou Wen used his phone to check the Internet. Indeed, just as An Sheng had said, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s ranking had dropped to fifth place. There were already 37 Companion Beasts on the rankings. There were a few more than what An Sheng had said.

Should I get Torch Dragon on the rankings as well? Zhou Wen had been pondering over this question.

Beep! Beep! A message was sent by The Thearch.

“I have a gift for you. Accept it with the Void Flower.” Zhou Wen immediately had an ominous feeling when he read the message.

Zhou Wen refused to believe that The Thearch would take the initiative to deliver something good to him.

“I’m driving now. The Void Flower isn’t with me. What gift did you send me?” Zhou Wen probed.

“It’s a world-shaking invention that I came up with. You lucked out,” The Thearch replied.

What shocking invention? Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief. If it was just an experimental product made of chemicals, Zhou Wen felt that it couldn’t be too dangerous.

“You’ll know when you get back.” The Thearch kept him guessing.

After returning to school, Zhou Wen took out the Void Flower pot from the chaos space. The Void Flower couldn’t open a portal in the chaos space; therefore, when Zhou Wen took it out, a portal appeared on the flower. Something floated out.

Zhou Wen took a careful look and saw that it was a glass bottle. It was one of the items he had bought for The Thearch. It wasn’t dangerous, so he reached out to catch it.

Inside the glass bottle was half a bottle of purple liquid. It was unknown what it was.

He didn’t know what the purple liquid was, but Zhou Wen definitely didn’t dare use it. Just as he was about to put it into the chaos space, he received a message from The Thearch.

“Have you received it? Let your Companion Beast drink it. Then, it’s time to witness a miracle.”

No matter how Zhou Wen looked at it, The Thearch’s tone was like a scammer online.

However, since it wasn’t for him to drink, Zhou Wen didn’t mind. It didn’t matter if he gave it a try. After all, he had plenty of Companion Beasts.

After randomly summoning a Chi and letting it drink The Thearch’s medicine, Zhou Wen stared at it with widened eyes.

According to what Zhou Wen knew, ordinary chemicals didn’t have much use for Companion Beasts. Instead, they had a certain effect on dimensional creatures that could make them mutate.

Unfortunately, Companion Beasts were pure energy bodies, so their composition was relatively stable. The possibility of mutation was very low, so chemicals were useless.

However, after the Chi drank the medicine, its body seemed to be dyed purple—the same color as the drug. Its body also rapidly transformed as it underwent a significant change.

After the transformation ended, its body hadn’t appeared to have undergone many changes. Even the purple color faded.

Zhou Wen took a look at its stats and realized that its stats had greatly increased. It had gained another skill, making it one of the best at the Epic stage.

Ignoring the increase in stats, it had actually allowed the Chi to comprehend a new skill. It went from two skills to three skills; a shocking feat.

“Thearch, what drug did you give me?” Zhou Wen sent a message to The Thearch.

“The Pet Skill Insights Agent I invented can stimulate the potential of a Companion Beast, allowing it to comprehend a hidden talent ability. The effects aren’t bad, right? I’m guessing you didn’t dare give it to your Six-Winged and Truth Listener. Instead, you let an ordinary Companion Beast drink it. Are you regretting it now?” The Thearch seemed to see through Zhou Wen’s thoughts. It was as though she had seen Zhou Wen’s actions with her own eyes.

Zhou Wen knew that The Thearch was deliberately trying to see his regret by not mentioning the effects of the drug in the beginning. Zhou Wen naturally wouldn’t let her wish come true.

“Who knows if your drug is really useful. Perhaps it’s only effective on low-level Companion Beasts and useless for high-level ones?” Zhou Wen deliberately said.

“Goading me on is useless. You’re too old-fashioned. If you want a Pet Skill Insights Agent, you have to exchange it with something.” The Thearch’s words were filled with contempt.

“No thanks then,” Zhou Wen immediately replied.

Who knew if The Thearch’s medicine had any side effects. Zhou Wen found it unreliable no matter how he thought about it. How could ordinary chemicals allow a Companion Beast to gain insights into a skill? It was highly likely that she had added something else.

“It’s fine if you don’t want the Pet Skill Insights Agent, but you have to return me the items.” The Thearch directly sent a list.

“How much Pet Skill Insights Agent can these items get?” Since he couldn’t reject it, he naturally had to try his best to benefit himself.

“One bottle,” The Thearch replied.

“At least ten bottles. I was the one who bought all the ingredients you used to make the drug, right? It’s not worth that much money.” Zhou Wen deliberately said this to know if The Thearch had added anything else.

However, The Thearch didn’t answer him. “Two bottles. It’s up to you whether you want them or not, but you have to buy and deliver everything on the list in a month.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 578 - Nine-Headed Pheasant Spiri

Chapter 578 Nine-Headed Pheasant Spiri

Zhou Wen looked at the list. The items The Thearch wanted this time weren’t very expensive. They were all relatively common items. Most of them were electronic products. He had no idea why she wanted them.

When Zhou Wen was in Chess Mountain, many electronic devices couldn’t be switched on, much less get any reception. Occasionally, he would switch on the phone only to have it crash with a black screen.

The Thearch clearly had a way to resolve these problems, but it was unknown how she did it.

Now that I have Torch Dragon, I might be able to explore Deer Terrace Pavilion. Even if I can’t get anything to drop, storming my way in to see what’s inside would be good too. Zhou Wen decided to head to Deer Terrace Pavilion in-game.

After getting Li Xuan to help get someone to buy the items on the list, Zhou Wen entered Chess Mountain’s instance dungeon and headed for Deer Terrace Pavilion.

With the Demon God Catalog, Zhou Wen successfully ascended the Deer Terrace Pavilion. However, he didn’t sneak up this time. Instead, he summoned Six-Winged and Torch Dragon to kill all the fake fairies and immortals.

After the fake fairies and immortals were killed, they revealed their true forms—foxes, night cats, rats, and wolves. Killing them wasn’t difficult.

With the two pets leading the way, Zhou Wen soon arrived at the ancient building on the Deer Terrace Pavilion. He could see six male and female immortals drinking and enjoying themselves inside the ancient building.

One of them was the fake fairy who had chased after Zhou Wen last time. When she saw Six-Winged and Torch Dragon, the six fake immortals inside were alarmed. However, Zhou Wen didn’t give them a chance. Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World opened and instantly reflected all six fake immortals into it, instantly killing them.

The phone indicated that he had killed the Mythical Creature, Fox Demon, but unfortunately, they were all pulled into the Vision World. Even if something dropped, it would be impossible to get it out of the Vision World.

Zhou Wen wasn’t too concerned about this. After killing six Mythical fake immortals, he circled the first level without finding anything valuable.

He headed for the second level of the ancient building through the stairs. Upon reaching the second level, he saw a colorfully dressed fairy sitting in the hall.

The fairy looked extremely beautiful, but she wasn’t as otherworldly as an immortal. Instead, she was just extremely beautiful.

When the fairy saw Torch Dragon and Six-Winged, her expression changed. She flicked her sleeve and flew up. At the instant she flicked her sleeve, she let out a cry as a terrifying sound wave blasted out.

Torch Dragon and Six-Winged could still withstand her sound blasts, but the blood-colored avatar’s body wasn’t that strong. It was shattered by it.

The blood-colored avatar didn’t die, but the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon died in its place. However, the sound blast didn’t stop. Unable to escape death, the game screen turned black.

Indeed, I have to launch a preemptive attack. Zhou Wen entered the game again and charged up Deer Terrace Pavilion. He slew six fox demons on the first level and rushed to the second level.

This time, Zhou Wen didn’t give the colorful-robed fairy any chance. He got Torch Dragon to use the Bright Torch Vision World.

The colorful-robed fairy turned into a colorful giant bird. It looked like a colorful phoenix, but there were nine heads on its neck.

The nine-headed phoenix flapped its wings and flew out as though it had teleported, avoiding Torch Dragon’s gaze. Its speed was much faster than Zhou Wen’s peak speed.

Seeing the giant, nine-colored, phoenix-like bird about to cry out again, Zhou Wen ordered Torch Dragon to use World King Transformation as he charged down the second level’s exit and returned to the first level.

Just as Zhou Wen heard a sound wave blast down from the second level, the sound came to a halt as his phone gave a notification.

‘Killed Mythical creature, Nine-Headed Pheasant Spirit.’

The notification was very simple, and there weren’t any indications of dimensional crystals. It was probably stored in the Vision World.

Zhou Wen sent the blood-colored avatar back up to the second level and indeed, he realized that the Nine-Headed Pheasant Spirit was gone. Only the weak Torch Dragon was lying on the ground. Clearly, it was draining for it to use the World King Transformation.

This building has a total of three levels. The second level is the Nine-Headed Pheasant Spirit. Could the third level be the legendary Demon Consort? Zhou Wen really wanted to head to the third level to take a look.

However, Torch Dragon was too weak. Without Torch Dragon, Zhou Wen couldn’t even defeat the Nine-Headed Pheasant Spirit, much less the Demon Consort.

Could The Thearch be that Demon Consort? Zhou Wen guessed inwardly.

Instead of continuing upstairs, he logged out of the game. Zhou Wen planned on heading to the top of Deer Terrace Pavilion after Torch Dragon recovered.

He first went to other dungeons to grind all sorts of rare dimensional creatures. Just as he was grinding Medusa, his phone suddenly rang.

He took a look at the number and saw that it was an unknown number. It continuously rang a few times before Zhou Wen picked up the call.

“Junior Brother, how have you been recently?” A clear and gentle voice came from the phone.

“Jiang Yan…” Zhou Wen nearly jumped up.

Ever since they separated at Holy City, Zhou Wen had not heard of Jiang Yan again. He never expected Jiang Yan to suddenly call him.

“I’ll wait for you at the same old place,” Jiang Yan said before hanging up.

Zhou Wen knew where Jiang Yan was referring to. Unable to hold himself back, he went out and headed for Dragon Gate Grotto.

When Zhou Wen arrived at the former laboratory in Old Dragon Cave, he saw Jiang Yan sitting on a stone slab. He was looking at Zhou Wen with a harmless smile.

Zhou Wen and company had used the stone slab as a table to eat and play cards. When he saw Jiang Yan sitting there, he couldn’t help but recall the times they had spent here.

“Senior…” Zhou Wen called out, but he didn’t know what to say.

Ask him if he was doing well? That was nonsense. How could he be living well while being pursued by the bureau?

Ask him what he had been doing recently? Zhou Wen felt that he shouldn’t ask. That would put Jiang Yan in a difficult position.

If Jiang Yan answered him, he would expose his past whereabouts. If he didn’t answer, it would hurt his feelings.

However, Jiang Yan didn’t seem to mind. He sized up Zhou Wen and said with a smile, “From the looks of it, you have been doing pretty well recently. Your strength has improved greatly. It seems like you have more than one Mythical Companion Beast.”

“Can you tell?” Zhou Wen asked Jiang Yan in surprise.

Jiang Yan probably didn’t know that he had the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and Torch Dragon; yet, he was able to tell that he had more than one Mythical pet. If everyone could tell, he wouldn’t have any secrets to speak off.

“Don’t worry. There aren’t many humans like me who can tell that you have Mythical Companion Beasts. Besides, I can’t tell what your Mythical Companion Beasts are,” Jiang Yan said with a smile as though he had seen through Zhou Wen’s thoughts.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief when he heard Jiang Yan say that.

“I was trying to come up with a solution for a problem I have, but since you already have such strength, help me,” Jiang Yan continued.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 579 - Speedy Solar Lunar Shuttle

Chapter 579 Speedy Solar Lunar Shuttle

“What help do you need?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I’m going to a dimensional zone to do something and need help. There’s a Mythical creature guarding the area and it’s rather powerful. However, with your help, it shouldn’t be difficult to deal with it,” Jiang Yan said.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen agreed.

“Aren’t you going to ask which dimensional zone I’m going to?” Jiang Yan said with a smile.

“There’s no need. No matter which dimensional zone it is, I’ll accompany you.” Zhou Wen shook his head.

“Alright, go back and prepare. See you here tomorrow morning,” Jiang Yan said.

“I don’t have anything to prepare. I can go with you now.” Zhou Wen brought everything he needed with him, so there was nothing to prepare.

“Let’s do it tomorrow. I don’t know if I’ll be able to come back in the future. I want to stay here for the night,” Jiang Yan said as he looked at the dilapidated laboratory.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen didn’t say anything else and returned to his dorm.

The next morning, Zhou Wen arrived at Old Dragon Cave again and saw a strange beast carriage in the laboratory.

The carriage looked ancient. Even the wheels were made of bronze. The carriage's box wasn't sealed with a baldachin over it. Pulling in front of it were two giant rabbits—one black, one white.

The rabbis were even bigger than an ordinary horse. They were almost the same size as an elephant. They sprawled on the ground, their bodies connected to the reins.

Jiang Yan was already in the carriage. When he saw Zhou Wen walk over, he waved at him. "Ah Wen, get in."

"Isn't it too ostentatious to drive this carriage out?" Zhou Wen got into the carriage and asked uneasily.

If they were to drive this carriage out of Old Dragon Cave, it would definitely attract the attention of countless people, even onlookers.

"No." Jiang Yan was very certain. He held a whip and whipped the two giant rabbits.

The two giant rabbits immediately began moving. They moved quickly, and finally, Zhou Wen understood what it meant to start a hare.

The two giant rabbits charged forward like arrows with the carriage in tow.

However, there was a cave wall in front of them. Just as the two giant rabbits were about to slam into the mountain wall, Zhou Wen almost jumped off the carriage to prevent himself from dying in the collision.

However, Zhou Wen ultimately held back the urge to jump. He knew that Jiang Yan wasn’t such a rash person.

Indeed, the black and white giant rabbits slammed into the mountain wall, but the mountain wall didn’t seem to exist. They pulled the beast carriage and charged in.

Zhou Wen watched the black and white giant rabbits pulling the beast carriage forward quickly. Streams of light rushed ahead of him and to his side, as though they had entered a spacetime tunnel. He couldn’t see anything around him at all. There were distorted beams of light everywhere.

“What carriage is this?” Zhou Wen could tell that the beast carriage was extraordinary as he looked at Jiang Yan.

“Speedy Solar Lunar Shuttle.” Jiang Yan continued when he saw that Zhou Wen was still in a daze, “The two rabbits pulling the carriage are Day, and the other is Night. When they are together, they can produce the ability to shuttle through space. Although they aren’t strong enough to reverse the flow of time, they can cross space and travel great distances in an instant. It’s best to travel with them.”

Zhou Wen was alarmed when he heard that. The two rabbits were definitely at the Mythical stage. Otherwise, it would be impossible for them to have such powers.

Although Zhou Wen had long felt that Jiang Yan wasn’t a simple person, he was still somewhat surprised that he had obtained such a Speedy Solar Lunar Shuttle.

After a while, the Speedy Solar Lunar Shuttle stopped.

Zhou Wen looked out of the carriage and realized that he wasn’t anywhere near Dragon Gate Grotto. He wasn’t even in Luoyang. There were towering mountain peaks that pierced through the clouds everywhere. There were no signs of humans. There were primitive forests everywhere, and the air was so clean and fresh that it felt sweet.

“We must walk on our own for the rest of the journey. Even Day and Night won’t be able to go up.” Jiang Yan alighted the carriage and released the reins. The two rabbits flashed and escaped.

“Aren’t they your Companion Beasts?” Zhou Wen asked in surprise.

Jiang Yan shook his head and said, “No, I only temporarily invited them to pull the carriage. They aren’t Companion Beasts.”

Zhou Wen’s expression turned odd again. To be able to invite wild dimensional creatures to pull carriages wasn’t something an ordinary person could do.

Jiang Yan pointed at the mountain that went straight into the clouds and said, “We have to climb to the top of this mountain. However, this mountain is extraordinary. When we climb it later, we can only advance and not retreat. Under no circumstances are you to retreat. Otherwise, you will be doomed.”

“Why is that?” Zhou Wen asked, puzzled.

“This mountain is called Immortal Seeking. Legend has it that immortals live at the top of the mountain. Anyone who wishes to become an immortal can be reborn as an immortal if they can climb to the top of the mountain. Although this is only a legend, this mountain is indeed different. It has a terrifying taboo protecting it. Once someone steps into this mountain, they will definitely die if they take a step back.

There’s no reason. That’s the rule of this mountain,” Jiang Yan said.

I wonder if my Zero Taboo can restrain the taboo of Immortal Seeking Mountain. Zhou Wen thought to himself, but he didn’t plan on trying. All he did was look around the foot of the mountain, hoping to see if there was a tiny palm symbol.

Unfortunately, he didn’t see one. All he saw was a stone staircase spiraling up the mountain. It was like a heavenly staircase that pierced through the clouds, with no end in sight.

“There are many obstacles along the way, but with your willpower, I believe there won’t be any problems. Just remember that you can’t retreat,” Jiang Yan said as he stepped onto the stone steps.

Zhou Wen followed him. Just as he stepped onto the stone steps, he immediately felt an invisible force tugging at his body. His body sank slightly as he nearly fell onto the stone steps.

With every step Zhou Wen took to climb the stairs, he felt like he was carrying a mountain. After taking a few steps, his clothes were almost drenched in sweat.

Jiang Yan was no different. He could see that his hair was drenched in sweat.

The power on the stone steps was very strange. It didn’t constantly grow stronger, nor would it constantly weaken. This power was just right to reach the limits of Zhou Wen’s body.

In other words, Zhou Wen had to use all his strength to take every step.

After taking a few steps, Zhou Wen felt that he had expended a lot of his strength, but the power on the stone steps seemed to possess intelligence. It would also weaken relatively, but the effort Zhou Wen needed to walk was maintained at maximum.

The first step was the limit. If it was someone with a weak will, their will would quickly collapse and they would have the intention to retreat.

However, Jiang Yan had said that they absolutely could not retreat. Retreat meant certain death.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 580 - Immortal Seeking Path

Chapter 580 Immortal Seeking Path

They trudged up the mountain step by step. Although they could continue walking no matter how tired they were, seeing the stone steps that seemed to have no end threw one into despair.

As Jiang Yan walked in front, he said, “The ancients believe that there are immortals in the sky. Only by meeting immortals on high ground can one obtain the Great Dao’s heritage. Therefore, since ancient times, the East, West, South, and North Districts have myths regarding the Ascension. For example, in the fairy tales of the West District that we are more familiar with, a young man planted magic beans that ended up growing high into the sky. Then, he climbed up the beanstalk to a giant castle in the sky. There’s also the Foundational Tree legend of our East District.”

“Those are plants. It doesn’t seem to have anything to do with mountains, right?” Zhou Wen added.

“There are mountains too. Don’t many deities in myths and legends live on the mountain? Like the gods of Mount Olympus, the Immortal Palace on Kunlun Mountain, and Mount Buzhou that connects the heavens and earth,” Jiang Yan said as he walked.

Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan chatted not because they wanted to conclude anything, but it was a way to kill time. The mountain was just too tall. They had to do their best with every step and they couldn’t walk fast. They did not know when they would finish climbing. It was really boring.

Furthermore, speaking could also eliminate some negative emotions, making one feel less despair.

“I wonder if these legendary things have corresponding dimensional zones? If there are, I really want to get a few magic beans to plant one. Then, I’ll take a visit to the giant castle in the sky. I want to know if there’s really a goose that can lay golden eggs and the beautiful girl trapped in the cage,” Zhou Wen said.

“I’m not sure if there are any magic beans, but I’ve seen the Fusang divine tree of the three divine trees overseas,” Jiang Yan said.

“Is there really a Fusang divine tree? Are there really ten Sun Golden Crows on that tree?” Zhou Wen asked curiously.

“I don’t know if there are Sun Golden Crows, but that tree grows in the sea. It’s so high that it’s unreachable. It’s covered in sun-like fruits. Just a glance from afar is enough to blind one. No human can approach it.” Jiang Yan paused before continuing, “It’s said that in ancient times, Hou Yi shot down nine suns while standing on the Fusang divine tree. If the legend is true, Hou Yi would definitely be the strongest among humans today.”

“If Hou Yi really exists, doesn’t that mean that the mighty figures in myths like Zhurong, Gonggong, and Kuafu exist as well? If we can also draw a bow and shoot down the sun in the future, drinking a river dry with a mouthful, and destroying a mountain with a single strike, that would be amazing…” Zhou Wen was somewhat excited when he thought of the scene.

“Why wait? If your Mythical pet is an offensive type, it shouldn’t be a problem to slice off a small mountain,” Jiang Yan said with a smile.

“It’s possible, but it’s just a tiny mountain. Even if it’s sliced off, it would be meaningless. At the very least, it should be able to split five famous peaks into two or slice off the entire Mount Everest,” Zhou Wen said.

“It’s probably impossible for an ordinary Mythical stage to reach that level,” Jiang Yan said.

As the two of them climbed up the mountain, they chatted, their stamina draining in the meantime. They panted heavily every few steps. Their clothes were drenched, as though they had just been scooped out of the water.

“What are you going to the mountaintop for? Don’t tell me you want to become an immortal?” Zhou Wen joked.

“I really want to seek immortality,” Jiang Yan said seriously.

Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback as he asked in disbelief, “Seek immortality? Aren’t the so-called immortals dimensional creatures?”

“Not entirely. On this mountain peak, there’s a cocoon. The creature inside the cocoon can be said to be a dimensional creature, but it’s not completely one,” Jiang Yan said.

“Guardian?” Zhou Wen exclaimed.

“I’m surprised you know about Guardians. That makes it easy to explain things. That’s right. Although there aren’t any immortals on this mountaintop, there’s a Guardian. My goal is that Guardian, but there’s a terrifying Mythical creature guarding it. I’m not its match alone, so I have to find helpers.” Jiang Yan didn’t seem surprised that Zhou Wen knew about Guardians.

“Why are you looking for a Guardian? Kill it? Or is there another way to use it for yourself?” Zhou Wen was somewhat worried. Could Jiang Yan also know of the Spirit Casting Skill? If he knew it as well, would he be following Wang Mingyuan’s path in his search of a Guardian?

This wasn’t impossible. Before Wang Mingyuan tore out of the realm, he had given his research information and experience to Jiang Yan. Perhaps the Spirit Casting Skill was included.

“I’m afraid we won’t be able to kill the Guardian with our current strength. However, I’ve studied the information left behind by Teacher. As long as the method is right, we can obtain the Guardian’s loyalty. Since you know about Guardians, you should have read the information, right?” Jiang Yan said.

“I haven’t seen information about it, but I’ve seen a living Guardian before.” Zhou Wen recounted John and the six-winged seraphim to Jiang Yan.

“Senior Brother, you have to be careful. Those Guardians are probably unreliable,” Zhou Wen said.

Jiang Yan smiled again and said, “What’s absolutely reliable in this world? It’s just like how there are plenty of people who are betrayed by their business partners. There are also quite a number of people who have conflicts. Don’t tell me that one can’t earn money by not doing business? Everyone is just acting in their self-interests. Even blood relatives like parents and brothers can turn against each other and become enemies. Don’t treat the Guardian as personal property and treat them as a partner. That way, it won’t be so difficult to accept certain developments.”

Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback. Jiang Yan’s words weren’t without reason, but Zhou Wen didn’t plan on choosing that path because he had too many secrets he couldn’t let others know.

Jiang Yan continued, “Since this is a path to break past the Epic stage, be it right or wrong, someone has to pass it before we know. I’ll try it first.”

The two of them chatted as they walked and exchanged some information regarding Guardians.

According to Jiang Yan, there was indeed an azure silk cocoon on the mountaintop. The Guardian inside might be more compatible with his cultivation attributes and he might have a chance of contracting the Guardian inside.

However, according to the information left behind by Wang Mingyuan, the most basic condition to form a contract with a Guardian was to defeat the Mythical creature guarding the cocoon. Otherwise, there was no way to approach the cocoon, much less form a contract.

The Mythical creature guarding the azure silk cocoon on the mountaintop was a white guardian beast that resembled a horse or a sheep. It had two horns and vertical eyes. It could speak the human language. Every word it said could become reality.

Previously, when Jiang Yan went up alone, the guardian beast only glanced at him and said “Scram.” Jiang Yan rolled down from the mountain peak, unable to control his body. He nearly died.

Jiang Yan had done a lot of research and guessed that the guardian beast was the legendary Bai Ze.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 581 - Immortal Opportunity Stone

Chapter 581 Immortal Opportunity Stone

“It’s impossible for us to kill it with our present strength, but I have a way to stall it.” Jiang Yan shared his thoughts.

Jiang Yan had an Epic Companion Beast known as Soundless Snake. It could block sounds from spreading within a small region. As long as they couldn’t hear Bai Ze’s voice, the power in its voice wouldn’t be effective.

Then, Jiang Yan prepared a Mythical Dark Domain Heavenly King. It was a Mythical Companion Beast from overseas. It had the ability to transform a certain area into a region of darkness and could restrain all kinds of vision-type abilities.

As long as Bai Ze was in the darkness, its eyes’ abilities would not be effective either.

Without the ability to speak and see, Bai Ze’s strength would greatly decrease. It wouldn’t even be able to see what Jiang Yan was doing.

At that moment, as long as Zhou Wen could hold back Bai Ze and attract its attention, Jiang Yan could take the opportunity to contract the Guardian in the cocoon.

“Is it impossible to use all vision-type skills in the darkness?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Probably so. I haven’t discovered any vision-type abilities that can be used in the region of darkness,” Jiang Yan said.

I wonder if Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World can be used in the region of darkness? Zhou Wen thought.

Their stamina consumption was immense, exhausting the duo. They stopped talking and walked forward without a word.

Zhou Wen gave it a try and switched his Life Soul to Zero Taboo. He realized that the strange force acting on him immediately vanished without a trace, making him feel much more relaxed. He couldn’t help but be overjoyed.

Soon, Zhou Wen saw the Zero Taboo crystal emit a terrifying glow, as though it wouldn’t last long before it burned to ashes. He knew that the taboo here was no trifling matter.

He hurriedly deactivated Zero Taboo. The strange force exerted on Zhou Wen again, tormenting him with every step he took.

Although Zero Taboo is useful, it’s only in its Primordial Body form. It can only last for a very short period of time. If I can advance to a Perfect Body, I might really be able to use Zero Taboo. It might even be able to restrain all kinds of taboos in the world, Zhou Wen thought to himself as he wondered how he could raise Zero Taboo to a Perfect Body.

Currently, among Zhou Wen’s Life Soul, only the Inverse Ancient Sovereign was an Evolved Body. The rest were still in their Primordial Body forms, so it was imperative to raise their levels.

The Zero Taboo is used to restrain the taboos of various mysterious lands. Doesn’t that mean that as long as I have some understanding of those mysterious taboos, I can raise Zero Taboo? Zhou Wen didn’t know if this conjecture was right, but there was nothing wrong with trying it.

It just so happened that the taboo power of Immortal Seeking Mountain was extremely powerful. Zhou Wen had nothing else to do, so he decided to study it.

Zhou Wen switched his Essence Energy Art to Small Perfection of Wisdom. Under the effects of the Eight Perfections Wisdom Life Providence, his senses became extremely sharp, allowing him to sense the taboo powers of Immortal Seeking Mountain.

If the Eight Perfections Wisdom couldn’t resist the taboo powers, Zhou Wen only wanted to make his senses sharper to better understand the effects of the taboo power.

The taboo power of Immortal Seeking Mountain was indeed very strange. This kind of power didn’t harm others. It matched the person’s strength. It just happened to be at the peak that one could withstand. Every step one took required them to use all their strength. One couldn’t hesitate or their legs might go limp and end up falling down the mountain.

Although the path to becoming an immortal was difficult, as long as one’s willpower was firm, it wasn’t a dead end. However, this path seemed to have no end. Every step one took was extremely difficult. Even a person with a firm will would inevitably show signs of weakness over time. Therefore, very few people could reach the top of the mountain.

Zhou Wen felt the changes in the power in his body and found it strange and unpredictable.

If I take a step back, what changes will this taboo power have? Just as this thought surfaced in Zhou Wen's mind, he immediately nipped it in the bud.

Goods of every variety are nothing compared to the value of survival. I definitely can't take risks. Zhou Wen hurriedly steeled his resolve and continued walking forward.

When the sun was about to set, the two of them had only managed to climb around a thousand meters. When they looked up, they still couldn't see the end to the path. The stone steps circled around the clouds like a coiling dragon. Just one look made them feel a little dizzy.

Zhou Wen was just about to take out a bottle of water to hydrate himself when he heard Jiang Yan say, "We're reaching the Immortal Opportunity Stone ahead. You have to be careful after crossing it. If you continue walking up, there will be something that will try to entice you. You have to remember that no matter what happens, you mustn't retreat or you will die."

Zhou Wen knew that it wasn't easy to deal with things that Jiang Yan said with such seriousness, so he asked, "What will happen?"

"That's hard to say. Everyone's situation is different. You have to experience it before you know what it is," Jiang Yan answered.

Zhou Wen looked up and indeed, he saw a small platform beside the mountain path. On it was a huge boulder with the words "Immortal Opportunity."

However, there was nothing special about the stone. It was exactly the same as the ordinary mountain rocks on Immortal Seeking Mountain. It just had two additional words engraved on it.

Soon, the two of them walked past the Immortal Opportunity Stone and took a few more steps. Zhou Wen didn’t sense anything different from before.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to say something, he saw Jiang Yan suddenly turn and strike at his head. His expression was ferocious as he said coldly, “You’ve been fooled. Die!”

The mountain path was narrow to begin with—it only allowed one person to walk along. Jiang Yan’s palm emitted a resplendent divine light as though a sun had smashed down. Zhou Wen had nowhere to hide. Apart from retreating, he could only take the brunt of Jiang Yan’s palm.

Zhou Wen’s expression didn’t change as he continued moving up the stairs. At the same time, he used his arms to shield himself from Jiang Yan’s palm.

Zhou Wen still remembered that Jiang Yan had warned him not to retreat no matter what happened. Furthermore, he believed that Jiang Yan wasn’t such a person.

With Jiang Yan’s character, even if he really wanted to harm him, he would have clearly explained why he was doing so. It was impossible for him to sneak an attack like this.

Therefore, Zhou Wen continued walking forward without any intention of counterattacking. If it was just an illusion, any counterattack would strike the defenseless Jiang Yan.

Indeed, Jiang Yan’s palm passed through his arm before Jiang Yan’s body dissipated.

Zhou Wen looked up and saw Jiang Yan walking in front of him. He had never turned his head.

If Zhou Wen hadn’t thought things through and allowed his body to automatically counterattack, Jiang Yan would probably have died from his strike.

What crappy immortal opportunity is this? It’s basically luring the demon in one’s heart, Zhou Wen thought.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 582 - Different Methods of Death

Chapter 582 Different Methods of Death

Jiang Yan walked in front while Zhou Wen followed behind. He moved up step by step. After passing the Immortal Opportunity Stone, it was another long and arduous journey.

The two of them drank and ate a little occasionally, almost without stopping. Even so, they took four days to reach the mountainside.

In just four days, the two of them had lost quite a bit of weight. Their eyes and cheeks were sunken, making them look like skin and bones.

The two rather handsome lads looked like hunched old men.

This wasn’t their fault. They used all their strength with every step. Their bodies were exhausted and they couldn’t stop to rest. The reason they were able to last until now was because of their extraordinary physiques. If it were an ordinary Epic stage, they probably wouldn’t be able to withstand it even if they didn’t die of exhaustion on the Immortal Seeking path.

Looking up, they still couldn’t see the mountain peak. All they saw was endless stone steps. Looking down, there was fog lingering around, and they couldn’t see anything. In this godforsaken place that prevented them from seeing the sky or the ground, the reason they knew that this was halfway up the mountain was that there was the word ‘Half-Cliff’ engraved on a boulder beside them.

“Once we cross Half-Cliff, we still have halfway more to go. However, it’s even more difficult than the first half of the journey. Can you still hold on? If you can’t hold on, you can rest for a day on Half-Cliff’s platform before turning around and leaving the mountain. You won’t be affected by the taboo of Immortal Seeking Mountain. However, once you reach Half-Cliff’s platform, you can never go up the mountain again,” Jiang Yan said.

“We’re already here. No matter what, we have to go up and take a look. It’s impossible for me to give up halfway. I can still persist. Let’s continue,” Zhou Wen said.

“After Half-Cliff, if you continue walking forward, you will see things. When the time comes, no matter what you see, don’t speak or make a sound. Just close your mouth and walk forward, or something bad will happen,” Jiang Yan added.

“No speaking. Got it.” Zhou Wen nodded slightly, but he was somewhat puzzled.

The taboos on Immortal Seeking Mountain weren’t written anywhere. If Jiang Yan knew about these taboos, someone must have tried them. Otherwise, if it was really as Jiang Yan had said, he would have died if he took a step back. Zhou Wen refused to believe that Jiang Yan wouldn’t retreat without knowing about the taboo.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t dig into it since Jiang Yan didn’t say anything more. He continued walking behind Jiang Yan.

The stone steps on the first half of the mountain were very narrow, but after Half-Cliff, the stone steps became much wider. It was more than enough for two to three people to walk side by side.

But now, the two of them couldn’t speak. If they were to walk side by side, it would be even worse if they accidentally spoke. Therefore, they continued walking one after another without saying a word, like two mutes.

Every step Zhou Wen took made him feel like his legs were trembling. No matter how powerful his Essence Energy Arts and Essence Energy Skills were, they were useless in this godforsaken place. Using external forces to strengthen his body would also increase the strange power. It would still push his body to its limits.

As he walked, Zhou Wen’s gaze accidentally swept across the stone steps in front of him. His pupils constricted as he nearly shouted.

If Jiang Yan hadn’t warned him beforehand, he would definitely have shouted. This was because there was a corpse lying in the stone path above. The corpse’s clothes and looks were identical to Zhou Wen’s.

Zhou Wen was puzzled, but he couldn’t say a word. All he could do was continue walking forward as he sized up the corpse by the side of the road. No matter how he looked at it, it was identical to him. However, the corpse had collapsed on the stone steps and wasn’t breathing.

It’s definitely the same as before—an illusion. Zhou Wen stopped looking at the corpse and continued walking upwards.

After walking for a while, he circled around a mountain ridge and saw another corpse on the stone steps ahead.

This time, he saw it even more clearly. It was Zhou Wen's corpse. What Zhou Wen couldn't tolerate was that it looked like his corpse but without any clothes covering it. Its limbs were spread wide open as it was nailed to the mountain wall by metal nails. It looked like it had died a tragic death.

Everything is an illusion… Everything is fake… I'll endure it… Zhou Wen secretly calmed himself down. Although he knew that it was only an illusion, it still infuriated him. The crux of the matter was that the person resembled him too much. Even the marks and scars on his body were identical.

As he walked further up, Zhou Wen saw several different ways of dying. Some were hanged to death, while others were cleaved into two. All the deaths were tragic.

However, he became immune to it after prolonged exposure. Along the way, he saw at least hundreds or thousands of different ways of dying. He was no longer surprised.

After walking for another seven or eight days, when the sun rose again, the two of them finally saw the top of the mountain. There were no buildings there, only a crooked tree of unknown species. The branches extended to the edge of the cliff.

On one of the branches of the crooked tree hung a huge green cocoon. On careful look, they saw that the cocoon wasn't in contact with the tree branch but was floating.

Beneath the crooked tree was a white beast. It was snow-white and had two horns on its head. There was a vertical eye on its forehead, but the vertical eye was closed. It was likely the Bai Ze that Jiang Yan had speculated.

Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan walked to the top of the mountain. Bai Ze had definitely discovered them, but it completely ignored them. It continued resting and lying there, completely ignoring them. It didn’t even spare them a glance.

Zhou Wen had heard from Jiang Yan that the white beast wouldn’t take the initiative to attack them. This was also one of the main reasons why he had determined that the white beast was Bai Ze.

Bai Ze was a kind-hearted auspicious beast. It was knowledgeable and capable of human speech. It could identify all kinds of supernatural beings. Legend has it that it had been entrusted by Yellow Emperor to create a map of tens of thousands of supernatural beings for humans to easily identify them and avoid danger. It was one of the ancient divine beasts that were good at exorcism.

“Did you see those strange corpses earlier?” Jiang Yan asked Zhou Wen.

“Yes, all the corpses looked like me,” Zhou Wen answered.

“How many were there?” Jiang Yan asked again.

“I don’t remember. There were so many that I didn’t count them. There should be more than a thousand.” Zhou Wen paused and asked Jiang Yan, “Why are you asking this? Aren’t those illusions?”

Jiang Yan looked at Zhou Wen with a strange smile. “A thousand? That’s impressive.”

“What do you mean?” Zhou Wen didn’t understand what Jiang Yan was getting at.

Jiang Yan said with a smile, “Legend has it that the path to immortality is a process of transcending one’s mortal coils.

Every corpse illusion you see is a crime you once committed. Only by purging the sins you have committed can you not be killed by the Heavenly Tribulation when you become an immortal. You saw more than a thousand corpses—which means that you have committed more than a thousand crimes.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 583 - Backup Plan

583 Backup Plan

“It’s just a legend. It might not be accurate. I think any human will see that many corpses, right?” Zhou Wen naturally didn’t believe this. If it was really the process of transcending one’s mortal coils, why hadn’t he become an immortal considering how he finished the journey?

“I don’t know if it’s accurate, but I know a few people who once walked the Seeking Immortality path. One of them only saw three corpses, with the most being a hundred corpses,” Jiang Yan said.

“Then how many corpses did you see?” Zhou Wen asked Jiang Yan.

Jiang Yan glanced at the path they came from and said indifferently, “I don’t know. I didn’t count. The mountain wall along the way was filled with corpses. It’s like a mountain of corpses. All I saw were corpses, without a single part of the mountain exposed.”

“Then it’s even more unlikely to be right. How many people can a student like us kill? How can there be so much sin?” Zhou Wen looked at Jiang Yan. He actually didn’t believe that Jiang Yan could see so many corpses.

“Follow the plan.” Jiang Yan didn’t say anything else as he walked towards the crooked tree on the mountaintop.

As Jiang Yan walked, he summoned two Companion Beasts. The first was a black python with a mouth the size of a bowl. It was more than ten meters long and its entire body was pitch-black.

Strangely, the snake didn’t have eyes. It kept flicking its tongue.

The other Companion Beast was also black, but it was dressed as a warrior in black armor. It wore a black mask and had two sabers on its back. The scabbard and handle were also black. It was probably the Dark Domain Heavenly King.

Zhou Wen didn’t dare be negligent. He summoned Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd while Torch Dragon appeared in the form of an eye mirror. Unless it was absolutely necessary, Zhou Wen didn’t plan on using Bright Torch Vision World.

Firstly, Bai Ze’s reputation was too terrifying. Zhou Wen wasn’t sure if the Bright Torch Vision World was effective against it. If it didn’t work and ended up provoking it, he would ultimately be the one suffering.

Secondly, Bai Ze didn’t take the initiative to attack others. Previously, when Jiang Yan approached the range of the crooked tree, it had only said “Scram”, causing Jiang Yan to roll down the mountain without killing him.

Only then did Bai Ze look up to glance at him. This glance left Zhou Wen alarmed. It didn’t look at Six-Winged or the Golden Battle God Halberd, but straight into Zhou Wen’s eyes.

Could it have already discovered Torch Dragon? Zhou Wen was alarmed.

Seeing that Zhou Wen was already prepared, Jiang Yan immediately ordered the Soundless Snake and the Dark Domain Heavenly King to use their powers.

The Soundless Snake opened its mouth. There were no venomous fangs inside, but visible ripples spread out from the mountaintop.

Almost at the same time, the Dark Domain Heavenly King pulled out the two sabers on his back and crossed them. A black light instantly devoured the entire mountain peak like a black hole.

Zhou Wen immediately felt his vision turn pitch-black. With the augmentation of Eight Perfections Wisdom and the Hell King Life Soul, his vision remained pitch-black. He couldn’t see or hear anything.

Unfortunately, Truth Listener is still evolving. I wonder if Truth Listener’s ability can break through the Soundless Snake’s Soundless Barrier? As Zhou Wen thought about it, he suddenly felt his eyes light up again. He could see and hear.

However, he could see that the entire mountain was enveloped in black. Furthermore, the sound waves produced spread out like water ripples.

“Let’s begin. Use your Companion Beast to attract Bai Ze’s attention. Don’t really fight it. Just attract its attention. It’s best if it can’t see or hear,” Jiang Yan said as he dived towards the crooked tree.

Zhou Wen ordered Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd to surround Bai Ze using a pincer movement. At the same time, he made some noise to attract its attention.

Bai Ze continued lying on a huge rock under the tree, motionless.

Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd lunged from the left and right. One stomped on the ground with its huge feet, leaving huge footprints on the rocks, while the tip of the Golden Battle God Halberd slashed across the ground, leaving a deep mark. Wherever the halberd tip touched the rocks, sparks flew everywhere.

However, due to the Soundless Barrier, their actions failed to produce any sound. Only Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan could hear thanks to the Soundless Snake's special treatment.

Bai Ze still didn't react and continued lying there, but Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan felt that something was amiss.

If Bai Ze really couldn't see or hear anything, then it shouldn't be so calm, right?

Indeed, when the Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd approached the crooked tree, Bai Ze suddenly opened its mouth and spat out a word. "Freeze!"

Then, Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd froze. They stopped there as though someone had pressed a pause button in a movie.

As for the Soundless Snake's Soundless Barrier, it was instantly torn apart by a force and shattered. As though it had suffered a heavy blow, the Soundless Snake collapsed to the ground.

Zhou Wen's face darkened. The Soundless Barrier was completely useless as it was destroyed by Bai Ze.

What was even more depressing was that the Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd were frozen there. No matter how Zhou Wen commanded them, they remained motionless.

Six-Winged's eyes could still move, but its expression remained ferocious with its agape mouth, and its body couldn't move.

The Golden Divine Light at the tip of the Golden Battle God Halberd kept flickering, but the halberd was also unable to move.

Even worse, Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan were also frozen. The Dark Domain Heavenly King couldn't move either. Although his dark domain remained effective, no one could move. What was the use of the dark domain?

"Sorry, I underestimated Bai Ze's strength. I originally thought that the Soundless Barrier would last for a while, I never expected it to break in the blink of an eye," Jiang Yan said.

Zhou Wen made an attempt. Although he couldn't move his body, there was no problem with speaking. "We should have expected this. A famous divine beast like Bai Ze isn't that easily restrained."

"Don't worry. I still have a backup plan," Jiang Yan said.

"What's your backup plan? Why didn't you tell me beforehand?" Zhou Wen hurriedly asked when he heard that there was a way to turn the tables.

"There was no need to prepare for the backup plan. You just need to execute it. If I told you in advance, I'm afraid you wouldn’t agree to it,” Jiang Yan said with a strange expression.

“We can’t move now. How do we execute it?” Zhou Wen asked.

“We can still move if we think of a solution. I’m just not sure if my backup plan will work,” Jiang Yan said.

“What is your backup plan?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I studied many myths and legends, and I eventually came to a conclusion. Bai Ze… might be a clean freak…” Jiang Yan’s expression turned odder.

“So what if it’s a clean freak?” Zhou Wen was momentarily at a loss as to what Jiang Yan was up to.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 584 - Bacteria

584 Bacteria

“Usually, a clean freak wouldn’t be willing to touch something dirty,” Jiang Yan explained.

Zhou Wen was enlightened. “You mean to say that you want us to dirty our bodies? Then, Bai Ze won’t be willing to touch us. You should have said so earlier. This isn’t anything difficult. It would have been better for me to make preparations earlier though. I’d have got some pot-bottom soot before coming…”

“That’s not the case. No matter how dirty our bodies are, it doesn’t matter to Bai Ze. This is because it doesn’t need to touch us at all. It only needs one word to finish us. If we’re dirty, it might attract its annoyance. It could chase us off the mountain, but after seeing how dirty we are, it might just throw us down the cliff to our deaths,” Jiang Yan said as he shook his head.

“Then what do you mean?” Zhou Wen really couldn’t figure out what Jiang Yan meant.

“What I mean is that perhaps we have a way to make Bai Ze unwilling to even look at us or even say a word to us,” Jiang Yan said.

“How is this possible? No matter how dirty we are, it’s impossible for it to not even look at us, right? Even if it doesn’t wish to look at us, it just needs to close its eyes. Then, it can just say a word to make us scram down the mountain.” No matter how Zhou Wen thought about it, it was impossible for something like that to happen.

“Of course it’s possible. As long as you do as I say, you can definitely do it,” Jiang Yan said confidently.

“How?” Zhou Wen asked in disbelief.

“You’ll know when you read this.” Jiang Yan’s glabella shimmered with a purple light. His originally immobile body, like Zhou Wen’s, began moving. Then, he threw a book in front of Zhou Wen.

This only lasted for an instant. After doing all of this, the purple light between Jiang Yan’s eyebrows vanished and his body returned to a frozen state.

“Take a good look at the content of the comic book and you will know what to do,” Jiang Yan said.

Bai Ze clearly had absolute confidence in itself. Although it had heard Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan’s conversation and could understand what they were talking about, it didn’t mind at all. It looked at them as though they were two idiots.

From its point of view, no matter what Zhou Wen and Jiang Yan did, it only needed one word to finish off the two idiots.

Zhou Wen couldn’t move his body. Thankfully, his mouth could still move. He blew at the comic book on the ground and used the airflow to flip the pages.

This was one of the volumes of a comic book. There was zero context to what was happening, and Zhou Wen didn’t understand what it meant, but after reading for a while, his expression gradually changed.

The content of the comic book looked very normal, as though there was nothing special about it. It was just that the scene did not seem to contain any unbearable content.

Bai Ze lay there and secretly opened its eyes to steal a glance. Seeing that there was nothing wrong with the drawing, it closed its eyes and leisurely continued resting.

“Are you sure this will work?” Zhou Wen asked Jiang Yan with a strange expression after reading it.

Jiang Yan said with certainty, “Definitely.”

“Will Bai Ze kill us if we do this?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“Definitely not. Your blood will only make it feel that it has tainted its territory,” Jiang Yan said.

“Wait, what do you mean by saying that I’ve tainted its territory? Shouldn’t it be us?” Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss.

“Ah Wen, this matter can only be done by you. I can’t do it,” Jiang Yan said sincerely.

“We are all men. Why can I do it but you can’t?” Zhou Wen immediately retorted. He didn’t believe Jiang Yan’s nonsense.

“Actually, I’m also a clean freak. The severity isn’t any better than Bai Ze’s. That’s why I need your help. Otherwise, I could do it myself. I wouldn’t have to bring you here,” Jiang Yan continued sincerely. “It’s also because I’m a clean freak that I know this method will definitely succeed.”

“I don’t believe you! If you want to do it, we do it together. No way I’m doing it myself,” Zhou Wen said through gritted teeth.

“Sorry, Ah Wen. I’ll make it up to you in the future.” As Jiang Yan spoke, the purple light on his glabella lit up again, allowing him to temporarily escape Bai Ze’s control.

In the next second, Jiang Yan flicked his hand and shot out a piece of paper. It landed right above Zhou Wen’s head.

After doing this, the purple light between Jiang Yan’s eyebrows dimmed again and he became immobile.

“What are you doing? What’s that on my head?” Zhou Wen looked up diagonally, but he couldn’t see anything above his head.

“This is an Epic Companion Beast named Head Paper Figurine. As long as it lands on your head, it can control your body. Then, whatever it does, your body will follow. Don’t worry. The Head Paper Figurine’s control of your body is similar to the control of a puppet. Your body is still fixed, but it doesn’t affect what you are needed to do…”

As Jiang Yan explained, the Head Paper Figurine stood up. It was a paper figurine cut out of yellow paper. It didn’t have a nose or eyes. It was a human-shaped paper figurine.

However, when it stood above Zhou Wen’s head, his originally immobile body began moving like a puppet, but it looked extremely stiff.

“Don’t worry. I’ve already gotten someone to teach it all the actions. It will complete them in one go at the fastest speed possible. Remember to say the lines…” Jiang Yan closed his eyes. He didn’t even want to look at the scene or even imagine it.

“No… No…” Zhou Wen’s eyes widened as he looked down. He watched helplessly as his hand pulled at his pants like lightning.

“Ah Wen, it will be hard on you. I’ll make it up to you in the future.” Jiang Yan closed his eyes with an ashamed expression.

However, all of a sudden, Jiang Yan’s expression changed drastically as he suddenly opened his eyes. His pupils darted sideways, but he didn’t see Zhou Wen.

The purple light between Jiang Yan’s eyebrows immediately erupted again, but it was already too late. Zhou Wen appeared behind him, revealing a devil-like smile as he held the Head Paper Figurine with one hand as it constantly struggled. However, it couldn’t escape his palm.

As for Zhou Wen’s other hand, he had already grabbed Jiang Yan’s pants and pulled them down. Then, he flew up and kicked Jiang Yan’s buttocks. Jiang Yan’s pupils immediately constricted as he rolled towards Bai Ze with a look of despair.

“Haha, Brother Bai Ze, take a closer look at the spot that this fellow has rolled over. Those places have already been contaminated by his filthy bacteria… The wind will cause the filthy bacteria to constantly spread… Soon, the entire mountain peak will be covered in dirty bacteria… Make sure you don’t let him scram down the mountain… Wherever he rolls will be tainted by dirty bacteria…” Zhou Wen said smugly when he suddenly saw a purple whip wrap around his leg at some point in time.

“Ah!” Jiang Yan, who was rolling towards Bai Ze, gritted his teeth and pulled. Zhou Wen’s pants ruptured as his body fell to the ground and also rolled towards Bai Ze.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 585 - Fairy Burial

Chapter 585 Fairy Burial

What was an obsessive-compulsive disorder patient most afraid of? Of course, it wasn’t something that could be seen. Whatever could be seen could be removed. For a patient with a serious obsession with hygiene, as long as something could be removed, it wasn’t a problem. They could spend a lot of time getting rid of it.

What they really couldn’t tolerate was the psychological hint.

Just like a clean freak who washed his hands after peeing. Turning on the faucet with his hand, he would feel that it was stained with bacteria from the balls. After washing his hands, his hands would be clean, but if he switched it off, he would be touching the balls’ bacteria on the faucet. Such repeated actions made it impossible to feel completely clean.

Unless it was a faucet that had automatic detection, a patient with a severe obsession with cleanliness could struggle in front of the sink for a long time.

Now, two sources of the balls’ dirty bacteria were rapidly rolling on the mountaintop. They tainted wherever they rolled with balls’ dirty bacteria.

If Bai Ze said “scram” now, the two huge sources of infection would continue rolling down the mountain, infecting the entire mountain.

If Zhou Wen hadn’t said the sentence, Bai Ze probably wouldn’t have thought too much into it. However, after Zhou Wen’s psychological cue, Bai Ze felt that no solution was appropriate to deal with the two dirty fellows.

He wanted to fix the two of them in place, but for some reason, it was useless against them.

Kill them? Bai Ze only felt that it would contaminate the entire mountain peak. Furthermore, it wasn’t a creature that could easily kill.

Now, Bai Ze didn’t even want to look at the two dirty sources of infection. It was as if it would be infected by the balls’ dirty bacteria if it looked at them.

Retreat! Slowly retreat!

An existence as powerful as Bai Ze was actually retreating.

We’re about to succeed… Zhou Wen was delighted when he saw that he and Jiang Yan were about to roll to the side of the crooked tree.

Although this move was rather despicable and shameless, it was good as long as it could achieve its goal. There was no one else here to see their sorry state, so there was no need to worry too much about it.

The only hateful thing was that Jiang Yan could clearly use this method himself, but he had dragged him over.

It took longer to describe, but it only took an instant for Zhou Wen to kick Jiang Yan to the point of the duo slamming into the crooked tree. The frightened Bai Ze failed to react in such a short period of time. It retreated from the mountaintop with a look of horror and contempt, as though it had all been contaminated by them.

When he slammed into the tree, Zhou Wen had already summoned the Jade Crystal Spirit Armor and put it on. At the same time, he shouted at Jiang Yan, “Senior Brother Jiang, don’t put your clothes on. Otherwise, Bai Ze will definitely charge over when he sees you wearing your clothes. You won’t have the chance to contract the Guardian. You mustn’t fail.”

Jiang Yan wasn’t willing to listen to him. He was even faster than Zhou Wen. He had already summoned his armor and put it on. His first reaction wasn’t to pounce at the black cocoon but to smack away the dirt on himself.

This fellow is really obsessed with hygiene… Zhou Wen immediately rushed over when he saw Jiang Yan’s actions. He kicked him away and sent him flying towards the cocoon.

“Senior Brother, I’ll help you…” Zhou Wen shouted at Jiang Yan who had flown out.

Jiang Yan slammed into the cocoon like a cannonball. He held back the extreme discomfort in his heart and the urge to clean his body. He bit the tip of his tongue and spat out a mouthful of blood on the azure silk cocoon.

Zhou Wen watched as Jiang Yan’s blood slowly seeped into the cocoon. This was the first time he had seen someone contract a Guardian. He didn’t know if Jiang Yan’s method would succeed.

Bai Ze stood above a sea of clouds and saw that Jiang Yan’s blood had already fused into the cocoon. The expression on its face was abnormally complicated. It didn’t move. It just stood there, looking at the azure silk cocoon.

The azure silk cocoon absorbed Jiang Yan’s blood. There wasn’t much blood, but it quickly dyed the huge azure silk cocoon completely red before cracks began to appear on it. Pieces of the cocoon that were wrapped in silk fell off.

Azure light shot out from the openings; they looked extremely pure.

As the cocoon constantly shattered, Zhou Wen saw a curled body inside the cocoon. However, it was different from what Zhou Wen had imagined.

It was an azure-robed fairy with fluttering clothes. She didn’t share any characteristics with Bai Ze.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that the creatures inside the cocoon were typically related to the dimensional creatures protecting them. Just like the one in Ant City, she had some characteristics of an ant.

As for John’s six-winged seraphim, he had heard that the Mythical creature guarding the cathedral was an angel.

However, he had used a trick to circle around the angel and formed a contract with the six-winged seraphim. He had never really fought the angel.

Under that situation, John hadn’t truly obtained the six-winged seraphim’s recognition. Now that Jiang Yan had used a trick, Zhou Wen was worried that he wouldn’t be able to obtain the true recognition of the Guardian. It would be terrifying if he had to pay a certain price to contract the Guardian.

Could this guardian also be from the Association of Eunuchs? An indescribable scene flashed across Zhou Wen’s mind as he looked at Jiang Yan with a strange expression.

As Zhou Wen was in thought, the cocoon had completely shattered. Azure vines appeared out of thin air and circled around the azure fairy.

When the azure vines transformed into beams of light that resembled dragons that rose into the sky, they shattered and fell, turning into flower petals that filled the sky.

The azure-robed fairy actually turned pink amidst the petals. The petals that filled the sky danced as the fairy moved.

The fairy's gaze was calm as she walked to Jiang Yan with the flower petals. She extended her hand and said to him, "My name is Fairy Burial. Are you willing to let me become your Guardian and fight with you?"

"I am," Jiang Yan answered seriously.

"As you wish." Fairy Burial's palm pressed on Jiang Yan's forehead. At the point of contact, a pink light spread out.

At that instant, Fairy Burial's body transformed into countless petals that surged towards Jiang Yan, condensing into a floral armor that completely enveloped Jiang Yan's body.

As more and more petals gathered on the armor, the original pink color turned red. The red gradually turned dark red before turning purple. When all the petals fused into the floral armor, the armor turned dark purple. It looked strange, yet gorgeous.

The floral armor looked extremely beautiful as though it was a perfect piece of art, but for some reason, Zhou Wen seemed to sense the aura of a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood from the gorgeous armor. It left him horrified.

As the floral armor fused with Jiang Yan’s body, an unimaginable power erupted from him. This power was no longer at the Epic stage. It was shocking.

The Thearch is right. The Guardian’s power can indeed allow humans to enter the Mythical stage. However, this advancement is mainly due to the Guardian armor, not the human itself, Zhou Wen thought.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 586 - Two Ways to Advance to the Mythical Stage

Chapter 586 Two Ways to Advance to the Mythical Stage

“Sorry for disturbing,” Jiang Yan, who was wearing floral armor, cupped his fists towards the clouds where Bai Ze was.

Bai Ze’s eyes drooped as though it was pondering over something. A moment later, it glanced at Jiang Yan and Zhou Wen before turning around and disappearing in the blink of an eye.

“Senior Brother, congratulations on obtaining the Guardian as you wished.” Zhou Wen hurriedly went forward to congratulate him.

“Do you think I’ll forgive you just like that? What you did to me was unforgivable…” Jiang Yan stared at Zhou Wen as the corners of his mouth gradually curled up.

Zhou Wen cursed inwardly before turning to run down the mountain.

However, it was already too late. Jiang Yan’s finger streaked across the void and a flower that resembled a rose appeared between his fingers. The blood-red flower was beautiful.

“Sixth Sacrifice of the Fairy Burial!” With Jiang Yan’s voice, the flower flew out and instantly vanished.

When the flower appeared again, it was already stuck in Zhou Wen's hair. It stood straight as though it was a lone flower growing above a grave.

Zhou Wen immediately found himself immobilized as though he was a dead person. Not only was his body unable to move, but even his heart and breathing came to a stop. He collapsed flat on the ground.

Although his bodily functions had completely stopped, he was still conscious and could sense everything around him.

Jiang Yan's fingers moved slightly as the flower in Zhou Wen's hair tilted slightly. Zhou Wen opened his eyes and could move his mouth, but his body remained motionless.

"Senior Brother, stop fooling around…" Zhou Wen said.

"How can you call this fooling around? I'm doing this to thank you for your help…" Jiang Yan said through gritted teeth as he kicked Zhou Wen's ass.

…

When Zhou Wen returned to school, it was already half a month since he had left campus.

After Jiang Yan obtained a Guardian, his strength had indeed become very powerful. This strength was somewhat different from having a Companion Beast.

Companion Beasts were ultimately external forces, preventing them from truly improving their basic stats and bodily functions.

However, the armor transformed from a Guardian could fuse with one's body to a certain extent. It allowed a human's body to possess the attributes and characteristics of the Guardian. This was a fundamental improvement that directly pushed one into the Mythical stage.

However, this improvement was limited to times when fused with the Guardian armor. After separating from the Guardian armor, Jiang Yan would still be at the Epic stage. His body hadn’t advanced to the Mythical stage.

However, Jiang Yan was indeed very strong when he wore the Guardian armor. The Guardian had Essence Energy Skills, Life Providence, Life Soul, and Wheel of Destiny.

With a Guardian, it was equivalent to having an additional Mythical body.

Jiang Yan used all sorts of powerful powers in a way far stronger than when John used the six-winged seraphim. It was unknown if the Fairy Burial was stronger than the six-winged seraphim, or was it because Jiang Yan was stronger than John, or perhaps both.

This left Zhou Wen somewhat tempted, but he quickly rejected this idea. Unless he was at his wits’ end, he wouldn’t be willing to take the path of contracting a Guardian.

Even if there was really no way out, he still had the method of Spirit Casting to try. However, Spirit Casting seemed to be harder and more dangerous than contracting a Guardian.

From what Zhou Wen knew, there were only two paths for humans to advance to the Mythical stage. He had never heard of anyone advancing to the Mythical stage purely with their bodies.

I should first raise my Life Soul to the Perfect Body. Perhaps there will be a solution when the time comes. Unless it’s absolutely necessary, it’s best I don’t take those two paths. This trip to Immortal Seeking Mountain gave Zhou Wen some ideas.

He could definitely use the mysterious taboo power in the dimensional zone to train his Zero Taboo Life Soul.

However, since he couldn’t find the tiny palm symbol on the Immortal Seeking Mountain, Zhou Wen couldn’t run to Immortal Seeking Mountain himself. Therefore, he planned on giving it a try at Small Buddha Temple.

After entering the game, he switched to the Zero Taboo Life Soul. Without using Blood Meditation, the blood-colored avatar ascended the stone steps of Small Buddha Temple.

As expected, Zero Taboo lit up. However, it wasn’t as terrifying as the other places. It was still within the acceptable range.

As Small Buddha Temple’s forbidden power ate into him, Zero Taboo became brighter and brighter as though it was about to ignite.

This level of taboo power was still within the limits of Life Soul’s tolerance. It was like steel that was undergoing tempering in a furnace. Although burning could reduce the crystal’s size, it also became purer.

It’s indeed useful… Zhou Wen was overjoyed. Zero Taboo could be said to be an excellent life-saving ability. In the future, when he headed to various mysterious dimensional zones, he would definitely encounter unimaginable taboo powers. When that happened, he would have to rely on Zero Taboo to save his life.

If Zero Taboo could be upgraded to a Perfect Body, it would undoubtedly be extremely useful to Zhou Wen.

However, Zhou Wen felt that it was a little too slow to raise Zero Taboo that way. Furthermore, staying in-game at Small Buddha Temple prevented him from farming monsters.

Therefore, Zhou Wen decided to head to Small Buddha Temple in real life to train his Zero Taboo Life Soul. At the same time, he could use his phone to farm monsters. This meant that neither action delayed the other.

Zhou Wen was about to pack his things and head to Small Buddha Temple when he heard the doorbell ring.

When he opened the door, he saw Wang Lu bringing the chick and antelope over. When Zhou Wen wasn’t around, the two of them would run to Wang Lu. Zhou Wen couldn’t be bothered to pick them up.

“I’ll return Little Feifei and Little Yangyang to you. You have to take good care of them in the future. Don’t just leave them in the dorm,” Wang Lu said to Zhou Wen.

“Got it,” Zhou Wen answered.

Wang Lu bit her lip and said, “I’m leaving.”

“Where are you going?” Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback. When he snapped to his senses, he said, “Didn’t your uncle agree to let you stay in school to study? Did he go back on his word?”

Wang Lu shook her head and said, “That’s not the case. I’m about to advance to the Epic stage, so I have to return.”

“What does advancing to the Epic stage have to do with returning?” Zhou Wen was somewhat puzzled.

“The Essence Energy Art I cultivate is different from others. Every advancement will result in a regression. After I advance to the Epic stage, I will return to the Mortal stage for a while. Only by cultivating back to the Epic stage can it be stable. During this period of time, my body will be prone to injury. Therefore, Father wants me to return home to advance to the Epic stage,” Wang Lu said.

“So that’s how it is. Then you really should return.” Zhou Wen felt that it was too troublesome for Wang Lu to cultivate this Essence Energy Art. However, the might of such a troublesome Essence Energy Art definitely was extraordinary.

As though it understood Wang Lu’s intention to leave, the antelope walked to her side. The chick also flew to her shoulder as though it was unwilling to part with her.

Wang Lu hugged the chick and stroked the antelope’s head. She said with a smile, “If you can’t bear to part with me, come home with me. After all, your master doesn’t care much about you. I don’t know how much hardship you will suffer if you follow him.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 587 - Little Buddha Temple“s Chance Encounter

Chapter 587 Little Buddha Temple“s Chance Encounter

Wang Lu had only jokingly asked. Even if the chick and antelope really followed her, she couldn’t take Zhou Wen’s pets away.

After rearing the chick and antelope for so long, how could she not know that the origins of these two dimensional creatures were extraordinary?

However, just as Wang Lu asked that, the chick that was extremely affectionate to her flapped its wings and flew back to Zhou Wen. It turned its face to the side as though it didn’t know her.

Although the antelope wasn’t that heartless, it had no intention of following her. It slowly walked back to Zhou Wen’s side.

“How infuriating. The pet follows after its owner. They are all heartless cheats. They only know how to scrounge for free food and drink.” Wang Lu angrily pointed at the chick and said, “I dote on you the most. I give you everything that’s good. You little cheat…”

Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised as well. The antelope following him could be reasoned away as having other motives, but he never expected the chick to be so determined.

This fellow was usually very close to Wang Lu and despised Zhou Wen. He never expected it to stand on Zhou Wen’s side at such a critical moment.

“When are you leaving?” Zhou Wen asked Wang Lu.

“Someone will pick me up tonight,” Wang Lu said.

“I’ll inform the students in the club to wave you off,” Zhou Wen said.

“There’s no need. I don’t like parting scenes.” Wang Lu shook her head slightly before looking at Zhou Wen and saying, “You still owe me a lot of food. I’ve recorded all of it in a notebook. How are you going to repay me?”

“Can I get a discount?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Of course not.” Wang Lu glared at him.

“Then what do you want me to do?” Zhou Wen said as he spread out his hands.

“Just remember this debt.” Wang Lu put away her notebook and turned around to walk out of Four Seasons Garden. After taking a few steps, she stopped and said to Zhou Wen with her back facing him, “If you can’t stand staying in the An family in the future, remember to look for me in the capital. You can work while paying me back.”

With that said, Wang Lu left Four Seasons Garden along the small trail.

Zhou Wen watched her leave and was somewhat puzzled. He originally imagined that the four years in college would be relatively safe, but fate was just so unpredictable with people he was familiar with leaving one by one.

I hope there's still a chance to meet again. Zhou Wen really wasn't sure if he could see Wang Lu again. Once the dimensional zones' restrictions failed, the roads between the major cities would definitely be cut off. To go from Luoyang to the capital would probably be difficult.

At the end of the day, without strength in the future, there was probably nothing one could do. They might not even have the chance to live, so Zhou Wen wanted to raise his strength quickly.

He didn't want to become an existence like Wang Mingyuan or contract a Guardian. He wanted to see if he could forge his own path.

Can humans definitely not advance to the Mythical stage with their bodies? Zhou Wen didn't believe that it was set in stone. Since humans could advance to the Legendary and Epic stage, why couldn't they advance to the Mythical stage?

He went all the way to Small Buddha Temple. This was a restricted zone that prevented outsiders from approaching. However, Zhou Wen had An Sheng's pass, so he wasn't barred from entering.

According to what Zhou Wen knew, there were two Mythical Companion Eggs in Small Buddha Temple. However, no one had managed to master the Small Perfection of Wisdom, so no one had been able to take them away.

An Tianzuo had set this place as a forbidden zone, preventing outsiders from getting close. It was also because he didn’t wish for any enemy faction to master the Small Perfection of Wisdom and obtain the benefits.

Zhou Wen walked up the stone steps in front of Small Buddha Temple and the Zero Taboo Life Soul immediately lit up.

Zhou Wen walked all the way to Small Buddha Temple. He originally planned on finding a place to sit down and game, but just as he entered Small Buddha Temple, he saw a person standing in the yard.

Although he could only see her back, Zhou Wen still recognized her.

Why is An Jing here? Zhou Wen frowned slightly when he saw her back.

An Jing was standing in front of the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra’s stone monument, reading the scriptures. When she sensed someone approaching, she turned her head and saw Zhou Wen. She also frowned slightly.

Ever since the coldness in An Jing’s body was melted by Zhou Wen, An Jing hadn’t suffered a relapse again. Her cultivation level had also advanced by leaps and bounds.

In terms of talent, as siblings, An Jing’s talent wasn’t inferior to An Tianzuo’s. However, her congenital ailment made her progress slow when she cultivated the Sun Strafe Art. Otherwise, her achievements would have far exceeded what it was now.

Now that she did not have relapses, An Jing began to seek a breakthrough to the Epic stage.

The Sun Strafe Art was extreme Yang. It was an Essence Energy Art that focused on combat. To figure out its profundity and condense a Life Soul, she had to constantly challenge herself and surpass herself.

This challenge wasn’t only limited to the cultivation of her body, but it also required the cultivation of her mind and will. She had been in Small Buddha Temple for many days to see the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra stone monument. It wasn’t to cultivate the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra but to use it to train herself.

This training method was very dangerous. If she didn’t control it well, it might cause irreparable damage to her body and mind. However, An Jing was confident that she could control herself.

Upon seeing Zhou Wen, An Jing felt mixed emotions. She was originally angry that Zhou Wen had taken away her qualifications. She had always believed that he was far inferior to her. She even felt that Ouyang Lan was biased, so she had thrashed him. Instead of saying that she was targeting Zhou Wen, it was better to say that she was displeased with Ouyang Lan.

However, what happened after that exceeded An Jing’s expectations. Zhou Wen’s repeated achievements made her look at him in a different light. In just a year, he had advanced from the Mortal stage to the Epic stage, surpassing her in terms of level. He had even accidentally removed her ailment.

Although An Jing didn’t pay much attention to the Sunset Army, she was still a member of the An family. She would still get wind of Zhou Wen’s matters, so she couldn’t help but secretly pay attention to him.

However, many of the rumors regarding Zhou Wen left An Jing in disbelief. She couldn’t believe that Zhou Wen had done those shocking things. She felt as though she had been left behind by him.

If it were anyone else, they might have blamed themselves. They would blame it on the qualifications that originally belonged to her, only to have them taken away by Zhou Wen.

However, An Jing was clearly not such a person. Therefore, she worked harder to become stronger. She believed that even without the qualification, she was still better than Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen and An Jing had nothing to say. Since An Jing was here, he decided to enter the temple hall. That way they wouldn’t affect each other.

As Zhou Wen already had Truth Listener on him, he didn’t trigger the power of the three-faced Buddha when he entered the temple hall again.

After finding a place to sit, Zhou Wen took out his phone to game.

Although he could get the blood-colored avatar to come to Small Buddha Temple to double the cultivation effects, Zhou Wen didn’t think it was necessary. He still had to grind dungeons and farm the rare dimensional creatures daily.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 588 - Ending the Grudge

Chapter 588 Ending the Grudge

Zhou Wen gamed in the temple hall and didn’t pay much attention to An Jing.

However, An Jing couldn’t ignore Zhou Wen. Although he was inside the temple hall and An Jing couldn’t see him, she had a nagging feeling that there was a pair of eyes looking at her.

I’m not inferior to you. An Jing forced herself to focus and continued reading the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra.

Perhaps it was because of the catfish effect. Ever since Zhou Wen had come, An Jing felt that she could persist even more. Her improvement seemed to be faster.

In the past, An Jing would feel that her body and mind had reached their limits after reading the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra for an hour. She could hardly withstand any longer.

However, for some reason—perhaps because she felt that Zhou Wen was watching her from inside—An Jing could now last for an hour and a half. She felt that she hadn’t reached her limit.

Zhou Wen had no idea that he had such an effect on her. He leaned against a pillar in the temple hall and gamed.

The blood-colored avatar entered Deer Terrace Pavilion again. The fake immortals on the first two levels had been eliminated. Zhou Wen controlled the blood-colored avatar to ascend to the highest third level.

Could The Thearch be on the third level? If she's really here, I can find her weakness in-game. Once I can defeat her, I can teach her a lesson in reality. Zhou Wen was somewhat excited. After getting the blood-colored avatar to ascend to the third level, he quickly sized up the situation inside.

It was similar to the second level. There was only one dimensional creature on the third level. It was a cold, white-robed female immortal sitting on a throne.

Could she be The Thearch? Zhou Wen guessed but didn't waste any time. He directly ordered Torch Dragon to use the Bright Torch Vision World and look at the white-robed female immortal.

Zhou Wen also stared at the white-robed female immortal. She waved her hand and a white jade lute appeared in her arms. She strummed the strings with her five fingers and immediately produced a terrifying sound wave.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen was prepared by using the Demon Dragon True Body, but he was still sent flying by the sound wave. He spat out blood and slammed into the stone pillar in the hall.

However, almost at the same time, the white-robed female immortal was pulled into Torch Dragon's Bright Torch Vision World. A notification of the death of a Jade Lute Spirit appeared on the screen.

So it's a Jade Lute Spirit. It's not Demon Consort! Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed.

Zhou Wen had already seen the first two of the legendary three demons of Xuan Yuan—Nine-Headed Pheasant Spirit, Jade Lute Spirit, and Nine-Tailed Fox, but there was no sign of the Nine-Tailed Fox.

Although a Nine-Tailed Fox's phantom image would appear when flying towards Deer Terrace Pavilion from the sky, it was only a phantom, not the real body. The Bright Torch Vision World could only act on physical bodies, so it was useless against the phantom.

He made the blood-colored avatar search the third level. Logically speaking, Deer Terrace Pavilion wasn't that simple. Furthermore, he was certain that the Jade Lute Spirit was definitely not The Thearch.

However, Zhou Wen searched the three levels of the ancient building thoroughly several times, but he didn't find anything. There weren't any dimensional crystals, much less treasure.

From the looks of it, the true secrets of Deer Terrace Pavilion should be underground, but where's the entrance? There's no hole in-game. How can I enter? Zhou Wen had attempted to use Torch Dragon to attack Deer Terrace Pavilion, but it seemed to have some mysterious power protecting it. Even the Bright Torch Vision World couldn't break through it.

Zhou Wen circled the Deer Terrace Pavilion countless times, but he failed to find the underground entrance.

Since he couldn't find the entrance, Zhou Wen had no choice but to temporarily give up and continue grinding other dungeons. At the same time, he trained his Zero Taboo Life Soul in Small Buddha Temple.

For the next few days, Zhou Wen spent most of his time in Small Buddha Temple. Every time he came, he would see An Jing staring at the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra stone monument.

One day, Zhou Wen was grinding when he suddenly saw a bright glow from the yard. The light shone in from the door of the temple hall, illuminating the interior.

Zhou Wen frowned slightly and walked out to take a look. He saw An Jing standing in front of the stone monument, emitting wisps of light. A sun-like projection condensed on her body.

The projection looked somewhat similar to the Ancient Sovereign that Zhou Wen had condensed. They were both light-based projections with an anthropomorphic character.

The difference was that the Ancient Sovereign was a pure human-shaped projection. As for An Jing’s projection, it looked like it was holding a bow made of light. Furthermore, the projection looked more feminine. It wasn’t as brawny as the Ancient Sovereign and was slightly slimmer.

The Sun Strafe Art is indeed somewhat similar to the Ancient Sovereign Sutra, but the difference is still there. Zhou Wen watched for a while and was about to return to the temple to continue grinding when An Jing stopped him.

“Zhou Wen, it’s time to settle our grudge,” An Jing said as she stared at him.

“Is there anything between us that needs to be resolved?” Zhou Wen turned around and asked An Jing.

An Jing’s eyes narrowed slightly. “I once defeated you. Don’t you want to beat me?”

“I’ve never treated you as my opponent.” Zhou Wen shook his head slightly and prepared to return to the temple hall.

“Stop.” Zhou Wen’s words stirred An Jing’s fighting spirit. Her Life Soul fused with her body, causing her body to emit a sun-like glow. A bow condensed from light appeared in her hand.

Zhou Wen’s words could be understood as never treating An Jing as an enemy, but it could also be understood as he had never thought much of An Jing. An Jing clearly believed that Zhou Wen was referring to the latter.

She pulled open the Light Bow in her hand and pointed at Zhou Wen’s back as she continued, “Take this arrow from me. After which, the grudge between us will be written off.”

Just as An Jing said that, she suddenly felt her vision blur. Zhou Wen’s body emitted light that was even more dazzling than the light on her body. As for him, he was already in front of her. His sun-like fist was about to strike her face.

An Jing gritted her teeth and retreated, raising her bow to block.

Boom!

An Jing was sent flying with her bow and arrow by Zhou Wen’s punch. Like a cannonball, she traversed more than ten meters and slammed into the temple’s courtyard wall.

Wah!

She spat out a mouthful of blood as the light on her body dimmed and she fell to the ground.

“As you wish. Don’t bother me again in the future.” Zhou Wen really wasn’t in the mood to play such childish games with An Jing.

After returning to the temple hall, Zhou Wen continued grinding. An Jing sat on the ground in a daze, motionless for quite some time.

She still remembered that she had defeated Zhou Wen with one strike, but now, she couldn’t even withstand a single punch from him.

After a long while, An Jing wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth and stood up. Her eyes gradually turned resolute as she glanced in the direction of the temple hall before turning to head out of Small Buddha Temple.

I have to defeat you. Although her goal was the same as before, An Jing’s attitude was completely different.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 589 - Do You Want to Become a God?

Chapter 589 Do You Want to Become a God?

Luoyang, An family.

“Brother, I wish to join the military,” An Jing came in front of An Tianzuo and said firmly.

“Why?” An Tianzuo asked.

“I’ve already advanced to the Epic stage. What I can learn in school is very limited. I need a place where I can improve faster.”

An Jing hesitated for a moment before saying, “I know this will put you in a difficult position. Mom will definitely not agree, but you will help me, right, Brother?”

“Have you really thought it through? The military isn’t a school. Although it also deals with dimensional zones, those unknown dimensional zones will be hundreds or thousands of times more dangerous than the dimensional zones you’ve come into contact with before,” An Tianzuo stared at An Jing and asked sternly.

“I’ve thought it through,” An Jing answered seriously.

“Alright, you are my precious sister after all.” An Tianzuo stood up and patted An Jing’s head. He said with a smile, “Tell me, where do you want to be deployed?”

“Chess Mountain,” An Jing answered.

An Tianzuo’s expression changed slightly. “Why choose that?”

“Because it’s the most dangerous place,” An Jing answered.

“You can go anywhere other than Chess Mountain.” An Tianzuo firmly rejected An Jing.

“Apart from Chess Mountain, I’m not going anywhere else.” An Jing looked at An Tianzuo without backing down.

An Tianzuo’s gaze softened. He could be ruthless to anyone, but he could do nothing to An Jing and Ouyang Lan.

“I can let you go to Chess Mountain on one condition.” An Tianzuo paused before continuing, ” Little Dao must go with you. During this period of time, she needs to be by your side at all times. You can’t shake her off.”

“Alright.” An Jing knew that this was An Tianzuo’s biggest compromise. If she didn’t agree, An Tianzuo definitely wouldn’t let her go to Chess Mountain.

“How long do you plan on being there?” An Tianzuo asked again.

“I’ll return after my Life Soul advances to a Perfect Body,” An Jing said.

After An Jing left, An Tianzuo called An Sheng over and told him about her going to Chess Mountain before getting him to make the arrangements.

“Isn’t Chess Mountain too dangerous? Although Little Saber is following Miss Jing, no one can guarantee her safety if a large-scale break-out happens at Chess Mountain," An Sheng said worriedly.

"Don't underestimate my sister. Besides, Chess Mountain shouldn't have any major problems in a short period of time. Just do as I say." An Tianzuo paused before saying, "Have you investigated the origins of the Companion Beasts that have recently been listed?"

"The various factions of the Federation are investigating. We can roughly confirm that most of the Companion Beasts come from overseas. There's also a few that have been secretly nurtured by various local bigshots," An Sheng replied.

"Indeed. From the looks of it, there will be problems with the ranking soon," said An Tianzuo after some thought.

With a large number of Mythical Companion Beasts listed, Zhou Wen's Six-Winged Guardian Dragon ranking had been demoted to seventeenth. As for the hundred ranks, it had already reached 99, leaving only one empty spot.

The number one spot on the ranking board was still firmly occupied by the Primordial Sword Immortal. The Death of the Underworld was still second. The other top ten rankings had suffered some drops.

Many of the Companion Beasts on the rankings had never been heard of by the Federation.

That night, the black cubes around the world lit up again.

As the black cubes had recently lit up more frequently, people were somewhat numb to it. Only people who passed by on the streets would pay attention to which Companion Beasts would appear on the rankings. It wasn't like the past where many people would especially get up in the middle of the night to take a look.

A peacock appeared on the cubes' screens all over the world. It was gorgeous and elegant. Soon, this Companion Beast named Thousand-Eyed Peacock was ranked in the top twenty. It happened to be in front of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, pushing the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon back one spot.

The hundred spots were completely filled. The people who were watching in front of the cube believed that it was about to end. This was what had happened in the past.

However, the cubes didn't turn black again. After the ranking screen disappeared, a new image appeared on the screens.

The scene revolved like countless stars were swirling. As the "camera" zoomed in, the screen seemed to shuttle through billions of light-years before gradually turning black.

Everyone was puzzled as they looked at the cube screen, unsure of what was happening.

When the screen lit up again, it had already turned into an emerald-green grassland. There were colorful flowers embellishing it. All the plants emitted a gentle divine glow as though they were protected by a deity.

On the grassland, there was a huge tree. The tree was like a divine tree, also emitting a divine glow as it produced resplendent fruits.

Every fruit was crystalline and seemed to have billions of stars swirling inside. Through the screen, one could sense the terrifying might emitted by the fruits.

As the camera zoomed in, the screen froze under the tree. There was a handsome man with white hair and a white robe sitting there. On his head was a pair of crystal-like dragon horns.

He sat cross-legged under the tree with his eyes closed. He was like a deity that no one could desecrate. It was as though looking straight at his face was an act of disrespect to a deity.

“So handsome… Who’s the man under the tree? Is he human? Or a Companion Beast?” Many women’s eyes lit up when they saw the man sitting under the tree.

However, the faces of those who knew that man changed drastically, especially the members of the six families. Their expressions were so ugly that they were about to freeze.

An Tianzuo stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows on the top floor of a skyscraper. His gaze passed through the night sky and landed on the large square screen in the distance. An Sheng stood beside him and said with a strange expression, “Wang Mingyuan… Could it be that these cubes were his work?”

“I’m not sure if it’s his work, but it looks like something is about to happen,” An Tianzuo said indifferently as he looked at the screen.

The members of the six families began to gather in front of the cubes, including the Special Inspector Bureau.

The originally silent night became rowdy. Countless people who were sleeping were woken up by their ringing phones. The lights that were constantly switched on illuminated the cities’ night sky.

Shen Yuchi, Qiao Siyuan, and company were all staring at the screen. Many of the inspectors were busy with their work. This was the first time Wang Mingyuan had truly appeared since he charged into the dimensional zone.

Although they had not seen Wang Mingyuan in person ever since that fateful night, the bureau had fought Wang Mingyuan for a long time on an intellectual level. Now, there were quite a number of high-level experts in the Federation who had secretly entered a dimensional zone after undergoing mutation. This was clearly Wang Mingyuan’s doing.

Although the bureau had been trying their best to prevent this from happening, the results were minimal.

The citizens around the world also began to focus on the cube’s screen. Although many people didn’t know Wang Mingyuan’s identity, they also felt that something was amiss.

“Do you want to become a god? Then fight.” Wang Mingyuan sat under the tree with his eyes closed. His expression was calm and composed as he slowly extended his right hand that emitted a divine glow. A fruit dropped from the divine tree and landed in his hand.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 590 - Divine Frui

Chapter 590 Divine Frui

Wang Mingyuan held the fruit in his right hand and rubbed his thumb on it a few times. Wherever he rubbed, divine light would flow from the fruit.

In the next second, Wang Mingyuan flipped his palm and the fruit fell onto the grass before rolling to the side.

Wang Mingyuan remained unmoved. He continued sitting under the tree with his eyes closed as though he was in meditation.

And at the spot where the fruit fell, a green worm crawled over the grass and slowly crawled onto the fruit before beginning to eat it.

The worm was very small and looked no different from a caterpillar. Its actions were very clumsy as it crawled onto the fruit with great difficulty and slowly ate it.

The fruit was only the size of a palm, and the worm was even smaller. It was inconspicuous lying on top, but very quickly, the green worm that had only eaten a tiny bit of the fruit started to swell up like a balloon.

When its body grew to the point where it could swallow the fruit, it swallowed it in one mouthful before its body swelled up crazily.

The caterpillar turned into a terrifying behemoth in the blink of an eye. Its body became dozens of meters long.

And this change didn’t stop. The worm that had turned into a giant worm emitted a terrifying divine glow. The divine glow burned like flames which enveloped the giant worm’s body and constantly emitted light.

When the glow reached its limit, the light that it emitted almost made one unable to open their eyes. When the light gradually converged, everyone was surprised to discover that the giant worm had already transformed into a beautiful butterfly.

What was even more shocking was that in the middle of the butterfly wings, there was something akin to a human female’s body. It was wearing green, glass-like armor and had a pair of antennae on its head. Its entire body emitted an unparalleled brilliance, like a descending goddess of light that had butterfly wings.

All the humans were dumbfounded. They watched, stunned, as the worm turned into such a terrifying creature. The gaze they used to look at the fruits on the tree turned fervent.

Many people were considering how such a weak worm could become so terrifying and powerful after consuming the fruit. What if they were the ones eating the fruit?

The worm that had turned into the butterfly girl stared greedily at the divine tree’s fruits. Her butterfly wings flapped and the patterns on the wings began to spread out.

It was brighter closer to the center. When the circular pattern lit up, it was like two suns embedded on her butterfly wings.

Boom!

Two terrifying beams shot out from the center of the butterfly wings, piercing through the void and striking at the divine tree. Such terrifying might made it feel as if it could even penetrate mountains, much less a tree.

However, the two terrifying beams failed to touch the divine tree. Wang Mingyuan, who was sitting cross-legged under the tree with his eyes closed, didn’t move. His body emitted a mysterious glow that shielded the tree from the butterfly girl’s two beams.

The terrifying power of the beam couldn’t even penetrate the glow emitted by Wang Mingyuan. The butterfly girl’s wings shimmered as she gritted her teeth and continued shooting beams, but it was all in vain.

Wang Mingyuan extended his palm as though he was casually extending his finger. However, the light on the butterfly girl’s wings instantly vanished as her body involuntarily flew towards Wang Mingyuan.

The closer she got to Wang Mingyuan, the smaller her body became. In a blink of an eye, she landed in his palm like an ordinary butterfly. No matter how she flapped her wings and struggled, she was unable to fly out of his palm.

A strange light rose from Wang Mingyuan’s palm. The light flowed faster and faster, like streams of light circling the butterfly girl. Finally, it completely enveloped the butterfly girl’s body in the spinning light. By the time the light dissipated, Wang Mingyuan’s palm was empty.

Boom!

The scene on the cube changed. The images of Wang Mingyuan and the divine tree vanished, turning back into the cube itself. The butterfly girl stood on the cube, and beside her appeared her name: “Radiant Butterfly Queen.”

Perhaps it was because the ranking had already been filled with 100 names, the name of the Radiant Butterfly Queen did not appear on the rankings.

However, everyone soon discovered that the name of the Dark Lord, who was ranked ninth, lit up. Not long after, the Dark Lord’s figure appeared on the cube, confronting the Radiant Butterfly Queen.

When the Radiant Butterfly Queen saw the Dark Lord, the light on her wings lit up again without any hesitation. Circles of light lit up before condensing at the center of the circle. Two beams shot out like lasers, so fast that no one could dodge.

The Dark Lord was a black-armored skeleton with black flames burning over its body. The sword representing darkness broke out of its sheath, and the sky behind it turned dark due to the unsheathed Sword of Darkness. As the Sword of Darkness slashed at the Radiant Butterfly Queen, the darkness devoured the light ahead.

Boom!

Two beams of light shot into the darkness. The Sword of Darkness collided with the power of light. Amidst the clash, the Dark Lord let out a tragic cry. His body and the Sword of Darkness were quickly purified by the power of light, disappearing completely a moment later.

The battle scene disappeared. On the cube screens all over the world, a ranking appeared. The name of the Dark Lord, who was previously ranked ninth, vanished. The name of the Radiant Butterfly Queen appeared at the ninth place, replacing him.

The people watching the battle were alarmed. Previously, when they saw Wang Mingyuan suppress the Radiant Butterfly Queen with a flip of his hand, they thought nothing of her.

However, to their surprise, she could easily defeat the Dark Lord, who was ranked ninth. Although one could tell that she had an attribute advantage over the Dark Lord, it still meant that Radiant Butterfly Queen was ranked in the top ten.

The scene on the cube changed and Wang Mingyuan appeared on the screen again. He continued sitting cross-legged under the divine tree with his eyes closed.

When they saw him again, many people’s expressions changed. The divine tree and fruits behind him became the focus of human attention.

It was just a worm. After eating one fruit, it had become a powerful existence like the Radiant Butterfly Queen, and there were many fruits on the tree.

“The day of ripening of the next fruit will be three months from now. When that happens, the owner of the Companion Beast that ranks first will have the right to pluck a fruit.”

Wang Mingyuan’s voice traveled through the cube to every corner of the world. It also generated many complicated thoughts and ideas in the minds of all humans.

After this sentence, the cube’s screen dimmed, turning pitch black.

However, their enthusiasm wasn’t extinguished because of the screen shutdown. It became even more fervent. The media constantly released the video they had recorded. In the middle of the night, many people were discussing the matter of the divine tree and fruits, as well as who had the right to pluck the ripened divine fruit in three months’ time.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 591 - Divine Fruit Suspicions

Chapter 591 Divine Fruit Suspicions

An Tianzuo sat back on the sofa and An Sheng poured him a cup of tea before asking, “What do you think of this matter, Overseer?”

“What are your thoughts on the matter?” An Tianzuo placed his finger on the teacup and rubbed it, but he had no intention of raising it.

“Wang Mingyuan is very powerful. He displayed the magical effects of the fruit and proved the power of the Radiant Butterfly Queen. He didn’t say much, but every word he said was filled with irresistible temptation. However, if you think about it carefully, you will realize that he didn’t say a word about the key question,” An Sheng answered.

An Tianzuo raised his teacup and took a sip. After enjoying the aftertaste, he put down the teacup and said, “Tell me. What’s the key?”

“Firstly, we don’t know where the fruit tree is. We can’t be sure if someone can really pluck the fruit. Secondly, the true use of the fruit is unknown. Although he has already shown the fruit’s abilities, we still don’t know if the Radiant Butterfly Queen is a dimensional creature, a Companion Beast, or an ordinary worm. It’s even possible that it was a creature with the strength of a Mythical creature to begin with. The fruit only stimulated it and allowed it to showcase its true strength.”

After a pause, An Sheng continued, “Let’s take a step back. Even if the fruit is really useful, will it be useful for humans? If it’s only useful for Companion Beasts, its value will be greatly reduced. As we can see, there are already a hundred Mythical Companion Beasts on the rankings. With these Mythical Companion Beasts as the foundation, humanity has the ability to kill Mythical creatures. In the future, we will only obtain more and more Mythical Companion Beasts. It doesn’t seem like there’s a need to take the risk to vie for first place.”

“Since it’s something we can figure out, Wang Mingyuan naturally has figured out the same. Yet, he deliberately didn’t say anything. What does this mean?” An Tianzuo pondered.

“It’s not easy to guess. If Wang Mingyuan wants to trigger a battle royale, he shouldn’t have left so much suspicion. It makes people think about it too much. Under such circumstances, I’m afraid not many people will try their best to obtain first place,” An Sheng said.

“Could there be such a possibility? Wang Mingyuan doesn’t want the competition to become too intense?” An Tianzuo said after some thought.

“That doesn’t seem to make sense. What benefits does it bring to him?” An Sheng asked.

The various families were studying Wang Mingyuan’s actions. Most of them had the same thoughts as An Tianzuo and An Sheng.

They were wary of Wang Mingyuan’s goal of delivering the fruit. With such a magical fruit, Wang Mingyuan could have swallowed it himself. Why did he offer it?

There were all sorts of speculations, and ordinary citizens had different opinions. However, most of them were biased towards conspiracy theories, suspecting that this was Wang Mingyuan’s scheme.

Some said that Wang Mingyuan wanted to trigger a war between humans and weaken humanity’s strength. Others said that Wang Mingyuan wanted to use the fruit to lure human experts into a dimensional zone.

In any case, there were all sorts of things to be said. The ranking remained the same. No one challenged it.

When Zhou Wen learned of this matter, it was already the third day since the event. This was because he had spent most of his time at Small Buddha Temple. He didn’t watch the news, so he naturally didn’t know that so many things had happened.

Only when Li Xuan sent a message to Zhou Wen did Zhou Wen realize that something like this had happened. He watched the video on the Internet.

What’s Teacher trying to do? Zhou Wen was also guessing Wang Mingyuan’s intentions. He didn’t have a deep understanding of Wang Mingyuan, but if Wang Mingyuan’s original intentions hadn’t changed, he probably wouldn’t weaken humanity’s combat strength.

However, people were prone to change. No one knew if Wang Mingyuan could still abide by his original intent. It was unknown if it changed with his identity.

“Old Zhou, you are Wang Mingyuan’s student. Based on your understanding of him, do you think those fruits can really help humans advance to the Mythical stage?” Li Xuan asked.

“I really don’t know about that. From beginning to end, Teacher never said that those fruits can allow humans to advance to the Mythical stage. I don’t think you should have too much hope,” Zhou Wen said.

“How can I have any hope? Even if I believe that the fruit is real and Wang Mingyuan isn’t lying, I don’t have any Mythical creatures that can vie for first place! Mythical pets aren’t something you can find on the street. Our Li family doesn’t even have a Mythical Companion Beast,” Li Xuan said.

“There will be. There are a hundred Mythical Companion Beasts on the ranking now. With humanity having more Mythical Companion Beasts, their commonness will only accelerate,” Zhou Wen said.

“Let’s not talk about that. Your Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s ranking has dropped so much. Do you still have the chance to vie for first place?” Li Xuan asked.

“Probably not.” Zhou Wen knew very well that Six-Winged was mainly a guardian. Compared to the powerful offensive pets, its combat strength was still lacking.

Ignoring everything else, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon probably couldn’t defend against the terrifying beam of light from the Radiant Butterfly Queen.

“That’s a pity. I heard from some analysis that only Companion Beasts can participate in the ranking battle. Otherwise, you might be able to give it a try.” Li Xuan felt pity for Zhou Wen. He felt that if the owner of the Companion Beast could participate in the battle, Zhou Wen’s ranking might be higher.

The two of them chatted for a while before Li Xuan went to cultivate. His improvement had been extremely fast recently. In the constant battles with dimensional creatures, the carapace formed by his Life Soul was constantly shattered before being reborn and becoming stronger. Now, he had advanced to an Evolved Body.

However, after advancing to an Evolved Body, it was impossible for the Life Soul to continue evolving by just being injured in battle. Li Xuan was also searching for a way to advance.

I wonder if Torch Dragon will be able to obtain first on the rankings. Zhou Wen coveted the divine tree's fruits.

He didn't expect the divine tree's fruit to advance him to the Mythical stage. As long as the fruit could allow a Companion Beast to advance to the Mythical stage, it was already very attractive to Zhou Wen.

He had a few Companion Beasts on him. Although they weren't at the Mythical stage, their combat strength and abilities were excellent. For example, Doctor Darkness, Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, etc.

If they could advance to the Mythical stage, they would play a very powerful role.

Of course, Zhou Wen didn't dare let a Companion Beast like the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General advance again.

Even if they couldn't be used, it would be good to get the Banana Fairy to advance to the Mythical stage as soon as possible. Now, Banana Fairy's Grand Yin Wind couldn't keep up with his needs.

Tyrant Behemoth has been evolving for a long time. Why hasn’t it completed its evolution? Zhou Wen glanced at the chaos space and couldn’t help but frown when he saw that Tyrant Behemoth still hadn’t evolved.

Suddenly, the mysterious phone vibrated. Zhou Wen took out his phone and saw the Dead Man Tree appear on the screen. The fruit that Ják had formed after absorbing it had finally ripened.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 592 - Explosive Fiend Man

Chapter 592 Explosive Fiend Man

Zhou Wen was delighted as he plucked the grenade-like Companion Egg from the Dead Man Tree and quickly checked its stats.

Explosive Fiend Man: Mortal (Evolvable)

Strength: 11

Speed: 11

Constitution: 11

Essence Energy: 11

Talent Skill: Death List, Time-Blast

Companion Form: Self-detonation Device

Mortal stage! Zhou Wen immediately felt a headache. The time and resources needed to nurture a Companion Beast were astonishing. It was mainly because it was useless for the time being.

Zhou Wen carefully read the Explosive Fiend Man’s skill introductions. The more he read, the more pleasantly surprised he became.

Although he didn’t know what Life Providence and Life Soul Explosive Fiend Man would have in the future, just these two skills alone were terrifying.

Time-Blast was similar to a Life Blast, but it was more flexible. It could turn some life-forms into time bombs, but it needed to be prepared in advance. The stronger the lifeform’s energy was, the more powerful the blast.

This skill was secondary. After all, using Time-Blast required the target to be still. If he used it on living creatures, he had to take down the target first. It was more troublesome.

The truly terrifying skill was Death List. This skill had clearly fused with the Mythical Black Cat’s curse skill. As long as the target signed their name on the Death List, he could control the time of their death, turning the target into a time bomb.

Of course, Death List wasn’t a corporeal existence. It could be cast on any piece of paper, jade, piece of wood, or even walls or floor. As long as the person signed the name, it would be effective.

This Companion Beast was an excellent Companion Beast for assassination.

As for the companion form of the Explosive Fiend Man, it was also terrifying. As the name implied, the self-detonation device allowed it to explode. This skill could only be used once. It would explode with all its force and perish together with the enemy.

To others, this companion form was basically impossible to use. Under normal circumstances, he wouldn’t be willing to let the Explosive Fiend Man self-destruct.

However, Zhou Wen was different. He wouldn’t let the Explosive Fiend Man self-destruct in real life, but he could do it in-game. Thinking of how he could advance Explosive Fiend Man to the Mythical stage before self-destructing it, the energy released would definitely be terrifying.

This was an extreme Companion Beast. If used well, it could kill anything. If used poorly, it might be useless trash.

I wonder what the Life Providence and Life Soul of the Explosive Fiend Man are? Without any second thoughts, Zhou Wen hatched it. He thought highly of this Companion Beast and planned on nurturing it with all his might.

After the Explosive Fiend Man hatched, a black-armored Companion Beast that looked like a Tesla Trooper appeared in front of Zhou Wen. His height and build were about the same as Ják’s, but due to its armor, he couldn’t tell what he looked like.

Zhou Wen tried the Explosive Fiend Man’s skills in-game. Typical dimensional creatures couldn’t sign their names, making the Death List skill practically useless.

Time-Blast could only be used on some plant-type or immobile animals. The power needed depended on the energy contained in the creature itself. It needed to be used in a specific environment, and it wasn’t suitable to be used in combat.

However, the self-explosion device was what surprised Zhou Wen.

When he transformed into the self-detonation device, it was like a lock. It locked onto the target he could touch, preventing it from escaping.

The might of self-detonation was also very powerful. A Mortal-stage Explosive Fiend Man could severely injure Legendary dimensional creatures when self-destructing.

I have to think of a way to raise the Explosive Fiend Man to the Mythical stage. I'll have to rely on him to kill bosses in the future. I'll lock onto a boss and self-destruct. Perhaps I can directly blast a Mythical boss to death, Zhou Wen thought, although he felt a little worried.

It was relatively easy to advance to the Legendary stage and the Epic stage, but advancing to the Mythical stage was extremely difficult.

I'll take my time to rear him. Zhou Wen attempted to feed the Explosive Fiend Man his Companion Beasts. Thankfully, the Explosive Fiend Man wasn't picky with food. Be it Companion Beasts or Companion Eggs, he ate without scruples.

I wonder if I can feed the Explosive Fiend Man with the fruit from the Longevity Tree… Zhou Wen thought.

After Demonic Neonate plucked many Longevity Fruits, she would ask Zhou Wen for one every day. Zhou Wen only dared to use them to feed Demonic Neonate. He didn't dare feed them to his other pets. Who knew if the Longevity Fruit would have side effects?

Despite Demonic Neonate being fine eating the Longevity Fruit, she was quite odd, so it didn't mean that the other pets would be fine after eating it. Therefore, Zhou Wen didn't dare to randomly feed the Longevity Fruit to anything else.

This Explosive Fiend Beast was similarly terrifying. Zhou Wen felt that he could try feeding the Longevity Fruit to him.

If he was willing to eat the Longevity Fruit, his evolution speed would be much faster.

However, this seemed risky. Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen thought of something. The Longevity Fruit could allow a human to quickly evolve and also allow a Companion Beast to rapidly evolve. This function was similar to the divine fruit.

Although the two trees looked different, their functions were very similar. However, the effects of the Longevity Fruit were not as strong as the divine tree’s fruit.

Back then, Lord Alcohol was already at the Epic stage. He ate a Longevity Fruit, but he didn’t truly enter the Mythical stage.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and didn’t take the risk with Explosive Fiend Man. There was only one such Companion Beast, and it was impossible for another one to drop. He would rather feed it slowly than cause any problems.

When he arrived at Small Buddha Temple again, Zhou Wen continued cultivating Zero Taboo. After this period of training, the Zero Taboo crystal had already turned fully crystalline and resplendent like a diamond.

The taboo power of Small Buddha Temple was no longer able to hone the crystal as before.

As Zhou Wen walked into the temple, the Zero Taboo crystal suddenly emitted a terrifying glow.

The crystal was like a Rubik’s Cube as it began spinning automatically. The crystal structure was spinning and reforming, making it look extremely mysterious.

Is it evolving? Zhou Wen was delighted. After training it for so long, he had finally waited for Zero Taboo to evolve.

As the crystal spun, a strange light emitted from it. The light was misty like clouds and fog, but it also resembled a nebula.

As the light blob inside changed, the crystal’s body constantly shrank. Before long, the light blob expanded over the crystal’s body and enveloped the crystal within the nebula-like light blob.

Zhou Wen also felt a mysterious power flowing out from the nebula, making his body feel more relaxed. He almost couldn’t sense the taboo power of Small Buddha Temple.

Boom!

Suddenly, the nebula blob shrank and when it reached its limit, it exploded.

The huge explosion in his sea of consciousness didn’t really exist, but it left Zhou Wen momentarily dazed. When he snapped to his senses and looked into his sea of consciousness again, his mouth gaped open in surprise.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 593 - Gods Retrea

Chapter 593 Gods Retrea

Zero Taboo was originally a crystal, but it had transformed into the shape of an infant. It sat cross-legged in Zhou Wen’s mind space like a crystalline jade statue.

Furthermore, the infant’s appearance was very similar to Zhou Wen’s. Zhou Wen vaguely remembered that there was a picture of him when he was young back at his old place. It looked very similar to the baby in the mind space.

Zhou Wen was in Small Buddha Temple, but he didn’t sense the taboo power of Small Buddha Temple. The infant jade statue didn’t emit any light either. Its eyes were closed as though it had fallen asleep.

Zhou Wen opened his eyes and checked the blood-colored avatar’s information on the phone. He saw that the name and annotation had changed in the Life Soul column.

Gods Retreat (Evolved Body): Where the Life Soul is, the Gods flee.

This introduction is more impressive than before, but I wonder what its true effects are? Zhou Wen felt that the annotation was a little too crazy.

It was clearly meaning that wherever the Life Soul went, even gods had to avoid it. How could an Evolved Body Life Soul be capable of this?

Regardless, he could indeed sense the growth of his Life Soul. This was because the taboo of Small Buddha Temple was completely ineffective against the jade infant named “Gods Retreat.”

Zhou Wen knew that staying here was probably useless. He had to search for a forbidden ground that was even stronger than Small Buddha Temple. He wanted to see if he could use Gods Retreat to continue raising his strength.

I wonder what the Perfect Body will be after Zero Taboo and Gods Retreat? Zhou Wen was more curious about the Life Soul condensed by the Dao Body.

Unlike other Life Souls, every evolution of the Dao Body Life Soul seemed to involve a huge change.

Where else has taboo powers that are stronger than Small Buddha Temple? Immortal Seeking Mountain? It’s too far. Besides, I don’t know the way to Immortal Seeking Mountain… Zhou Wen left Small Buddha Temple and thought about where he could continue cultivating the entire way.

After some thought, he felt that the best place to go was probably White Cloud Mountain’s Jade Emperor Peak. There was an extremely powerful taboo power there that might allow Gods Retreat to improve.

Zhou Wen had already downloaded the White Cloud Mountain dungeon on his phone, but its name was Demon Suppression Mountain.

After launching the Demon Suppression Mountain dungeon, the blood-colored avatar appeared outside the Jade Emperor Peak’s entrance. Zhou Wen still remembered that the last time he stepped into the mountain, Zero Taboo nearly exploded in less than ten seconds.

I wonder how long I can now last? Zhou Wen activated the Gods Retreat Life Soul and controlled the blood-colored avatar to enter the Jade Emperor Peak's entrance.

The moment he passed the entrance, the Gods Retreat Life Soul opened his eyes. The crystalline body emitted a strange glow.

Then, Zhou Wen saw a strange force surge towards the baby jade statue. It was not like when he had Zero Taboo. The Life Soul sucked the mysterious taboo power into his body and made it part of him.

The taboo power of Jade Emperor Peak failed to injure the jade infant statue. Instead, it made the glow over him grow stronger as though it was protected by divine light.

What a powerful Life Soul. If that's the case, wouldn't I be able to come and go freely on Jade Emperor Peak? I wouldn't have to worry about the length of time? Zhou Wen made the blood-colored avatar walk up the stone steps, hoping to figure out what secrets White Cloud Mountain's Jade Emperor Peak held.

After walking up the stone steps, it didn't take him long to see a huge hall. On both sides of the hall was a stone beast statue. It looked rather strange.

The two stone statues were crouching. They looked like stone tigers, but there were curved horns on their heads. Fiery cloud patterns were engraved on their bodies.

What was even more strange was that there was a word engraved on the foreheads of the two stone tigers. On the left side of the door was the word Suppression. On the right side of the stone tiger was the word “Demon.”

Just as Zhou Wen approached the temple, he saw the words Demon Suppression on the two stone tigers’ foreheads light up.

As the words ‘Demon Suppression’ lit up, Zhou Wen realized that the strange powers had gushed into Gods Retreat’s body like a heavenly river. The jade infant’s face revealed a look of pain, and its body also began to show signs of abnormality, as though there were faint cracks appearing.

Zhou Wen hurriedly controlled the blood-colored avatar to leave Jade Emperor Peak. Although Gods Retreat didn’t have the ability to make all gods retreat, his abilities were indeed much stronger than Zero Taboo. Furthermore, he could absorb the taboo power.

However, the power of the words Demon Suppression was too powerful, preventing the jade infant from digesting it.

Although I can’t enter the temple, I’ve found a way to evolve the jade infant. I’ll just cultivate on Jade Emperor Peak in the future. It’s only a matter of time before I advance to a Perfect Body. Zhou Wen was considering if he should personally make a trip to White Cloud Mountain. Otherwise, he wouldn’t be able to grind other dungeons if he stayed on White Cloud Mountain in-game.

I should make a trip to White Cloud Mountain. I might even have a chance to see the immortal palace phenomenon. Zhou Wen thought for a long time before deciding to make a trip to White Cloud Mountain in reality.

He told An Sheng, Li Xuan, and his friends about his trip to White Cloud Mountain. An Sheng told Zhou Wen to be careful. Other than that, there was nothing else.

After Li Xuan heard about White Cloud Mountain, he indicated an interest in going with Zhou Wen. He had recently reached a bottleneck and hadn’t been able to continue his breakthrough. He was thinking of heading out for a spin to change his train of thought.

That afternoon, the two of them went to White Cloud Mountain. As it was in Luoyang, the duo rode their Companion Beasts and soon arrived at White Cloud Mountain.

“Put this on. You can’t take it off no matter what. Otherwise, don’t blame me when you see the immortal palace phenomenon.” Zhou Wen threw a balaclava at Li Xuan.

“Why aren’t you wearing one?” Li Xuan asked suspiciously when he saw Zhou Wen prepare a balaclava.

“Let alone the immortal palace phenomenon, even if gods really descend, I wouldn’t need to close my eyes and hide,” Zhou Wen said half-jokingly.

“You’re awesome, aren’t you!” Li Xuan gloomily put on the balaclava. Zhou Wen led the way as the two of them climbed up White Cloud Mountain.

With the Gods Retreat Life Soul, Zhou Wen was still looking forward to seeing the immortal palace phenomenon again. Previously, due to his lacking strength, he hadn’t been able to clearly see what the fairy, who tore out of the entrance, looked like. If she were to come out again, he could see her clearly.

Unfortunately, no immortal palace phenomenon appeared along the way. Even when the two of them arrived at the entrance of Jade Emperor Peak, they did not see a single dimensional creature, much less any phenomena.

“Old Zhou, why aren’t you walking?” Li Xuan asked Zhou Wen since he couldn’t see a thing.

“Jade Emperor Peak is in front. After passing through the entrance, there’s a terrifying taboo power inside. Even Mythical creatures will die in a short period of time if they enter. I cultivate an Essence Energy Art that can withstand that forbidden power. Furthermore, I need to cultivate inside. Don’t come in,” Zhou Wen said to Li Xuan.

“You’ve mentioned it before. I came here for Jade Emperor Peak’s taboo powers. You can enter by yourself. Don’t mind me,” Li Xuan said as he summoned his Life Soul. The black carapace wrapped around his body as a black evil aura rose from the armor. It looked evil and powerful, completely different from Li Xuan’s usual demeanor.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 594 - Suicidal Farming

Chapter 594 Suicidal Farming

“Don’t do anything rash. The taboo power here is very powerful. It will really kill you,” Zhou Wen said.

“I’m just afraid that it’s not strong enough,” Li Xuan said as he stepped onto the stone steps on Jade Emperor Peak.

Just as he walked in, the carapace on his body crackled. Large amounts of cracks appeared on it, and blood oozed out.

In the next second, Li Xuan leaped out. By the time he landed, most of his carapace had shattered. Only a few remaining pieces were hanging from his body. His body was covered in blood and wounds everywhere, as though he had just been scooped out of a pool of blood.

“Are you alright?” Zhou Wen hurriedly went over to check Li Xuan’s injuries. It was a ghastly sight. There were bone-deep wounds everywhere.

“It’s fine. It’s really strong. This is it. This will be the best training ground for me.” Li Xuan struggled to his feet. The injuries on his body were healing at a discernible pace. Even the shattered carapace was rapidly growing amidst black-gray flames.

In moments, Li Xuan’s injuries and armor had completely recovered, as though he had never been injured.

“Don’t worry about me. Just do what you need to do,” Li Xuan said as he charged into Jade Emperor Peak. In the next second, Zhou Wen saw him thrown out again, covered in blood.

Seeing that he was fine, Zhou Wen walked into the Jade Emperor Peak himself. With the Gods Retreat absorbing the taboo power and protecting his body, he naturally wouldn’t be as miserable as Li Xuan.

Not daring to touch the two Demon Suppression beasts, Zhou Wen sat on the stone steps and gamed. He allowed the jade infant to absorb the taboo powers on the Jade Emperor Peak to slowly become stronger.

“Ah… Bam… Ah… Bam…” On Jade Emperor Peak, screams and sounds of falling could be heard from time to time. Even Zhou Wen was surprised by Li Xuan’s perseverance.

Although his recovery abilities were extremely strong and injuries weren’t a big deal to him, such injuries would definitely put Li Xuan in extreme pain. To endure such pain time and time again and even seek out injuries required immense perseverance. This form of self-torture to grow stronger wasn’t something anyone could withstand.

However, the effects of Li Xuan’s actions were obvious. Every time his body and carapace were repaired, he would last a little longer on Jade Emperor Peak. It was obvious that he was becoming stronger.

Seeing that Li Xuan was fine, Zhou Wen began grinding.

This time, he went straight to the Qiongqi temple. He had an idea. Perhaps he could kill Qiongqi without using the Bright Torch Vision World, but he didn’t know if it would work.

After arriving outside the Qiongqi temple, Zhou Wen wasn’t in a rush to enter. Instead, he summoned Torch Dragon, Golden Battle God Halberd, and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

Following that, he summoned Explosive Fiend Man and cast Time-Blast on Torch Dragon, Golden Battle God Halberd, and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

Explosive Fiend Man walked in front of Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and extended his palm to press on its stomach.

Zhou Wen watched from the side as the armor on Explosive Fiend Man’s body lit up. It was as though a red stream of light was flowing through a connected tube, eventually flowing into Explosive Fiend Man’s palm.

A red light pattern immediately appeared on the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s belly. It had lines like a circuit board that spread across its body.

The light patterns spread very slowly. Two hours later, the red light patterns on the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon occupied one of the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s legs.

Explosive Fiend Man is only at the Mortal stage. His Essence Energy is too limited, so he can’t quickly release a Time-Blast. I can only take things slowly. In a real battle, it would be impossible to use the Explosive Fiend Man to fight. Zhou Wen didn’t have a good solution either. All he could do was patiently wait.

After four days, Zhou Wen really couldn’t wait any longer. Thankfully, most of the spots on the Golden Battle God Halberd and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s bodies were filled with Time-Blast’s red patterns. Zhou Wen didn’t plan on waiting any longer. He planned on giving it a try with this lineup.

Pushing open the temple door, Zhou Wen ordered Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd to charge in. At the same time, he summoned Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General to restrain Qiongqi.

When Qiongqi saw Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd rush in, it immediately charged forward ferociously. Just as its claws were about to touch Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, Six-Winged and Golden Battle God Halberd emitted a red glow.

Boom!

The entire Qiongqi temple shook as dust fell everywhere. Zhou Wen and company had hidden to the side. After the explosion ended, he hurriedly looked into the temple.

The temple was in a mess. Corpse fragments were everywhere. There wasn’t even an intact bone left of Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. The Golden Battle God Halberd had also been reduced to pieces.

However, it could be seen that their bodies weren’t fully exploded and the energy usage was very low. This might be related to the low level of Explosive Fiend Man.

As for Qiongqi, its head and chest were badly mangled. Its legs had snapped. Although it wasn’t dead, it had been severely injured.

Zhou Wen hurriedly got Torch Dragon to charge in and fight the seriously injured Qiongqi.

Torch Dragon originally could not kill Qiongqi without using the Bright Torch Vision World, but now that Qiongqi was heavily injured and restrained by the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, Torch Dragon immediately gained the upper hand.

After a bitter battle lasting more than an hour, Torch Dragon finally killed Qiongqi in the temple. It was mainly because Qiongqi's speed was too fast. Even with Qiongqi having its leg injured, Torch Dragon still spent a lot of effort to force Qiongqi into a dead-end before finally killing it.

Ding! As Qiongqi fell, a crisp sound entered Zhou Wen's ears as a dimensional crystal dropped.

Zhou Wen couldn't help but feel somewhat disappointed. Most dimensional crystals were useless to him now. Even if it was a Mythical Essence Energy Skill Crystal, he couldn't absorb it due to his lacking stats. He couldn't bring it out of the game and could only let it disappear during his respawning.

However, when Zhou Wen took a closer look at the crystal, he was somewhat surprised. Beneath the gray crystal was the word "Evil stat 34."

Evil stat? This was the first time Zhou Wen had heard of such an attribute. He had never seen it before.

However, since it was a rare stat, it would definitely be useful in the future. It should be useful when learning Essence Energy Skills.

After picking up the Evil stat crystal and absorbing it, there was indeed an additional Evil stat among his rare stats. Furthermore, it was as high as 34 points.

Although this method can kill Qiongqi, Explosive Fiend Man’s level is too low. It’s really irritating using him. I have to raise his level. Zhou Wen had the urge to feed the Explosive Fiend Man the Longevity Fruit.

However, on second thought, he did not. After all, Explosive Fiend Man wasn’t picky with food. It could evolve by eating anything, but Demonic Neonate didn’t eat anything other than the Longevity Fruits. There were only so many Longevity Fruits, so there would be nothing left after they were finished. Zhou Wen still planned on reserving the Longevity Fruits for Demonic Neonate to eat.

While Zhou Wen and Li Xuan were cultivating on White Cloud Mountain, something huge happened. Finally, someone issued a Companion Beast ranking challenge.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 595 - Primordial Sword Immortal

Chapter 595 Primordial Sword Immortal

The Companion Beast that was challenged wasn’t the number one Primordial Sword Immortal, but Frost Giant that had been pushed down to sixteen.

A Companion Beast named Deep Frost Behemoth appeared on the screen of the cubes. It looked like a giant octopus. It was ice-blue in color, and its position was on a platform above a huge cube. The cube’s surroundings were empty, making it look nothing like a city.

On the right side of the screen, a ranking appeared. Rank 16’s Frost Giant’s name kept flashing as an alarm rung.

Behind the Frost Giant’s name was a 72-hour countdown. People guessed that this was the time given to the owner of Frost Giant to consider accepting the challenge. If the countdown ended and the owner hadn’t accepted the challenge, it would probably be determined as a loss.

Everyone was discussing if Frost Giant would accept the challenge, but this question quickly had an answer. The alarm stopped and Frost Giant’s name was completely lit up. Then, the ranking vanished. Frost Giant also appeared on the cube where the Deep Frost Behemoth was. They stared at each other.

Frost Giant was covered in ice-blue skin. Its head, shoulder, waist, and other parts were covered in frost metal armor. It also had an iron ax in its hand.

Although Frost Giant was huge, it appeared a little shorter in front of the Deep Frost Behemoth.

With a roar, Frost Giant’s ax slashed at the Deep Frost Behemoth. After all, they were all Companion Beasts, so there wasn’t any need for unnecessary communication.

Frost powers tore out of the ax, forming a huge ice streak that spread to the Deep Frost Behemoth.

The tentacles of the Deep Frost Behemoth danced, producing frost as they shattered the ice streaks.

The two gigantic monsters clashed intensely on the cube’s platform. As they were both frost-type Companion Beasts and strength-based, the intense battle between the two terrifying Mythical Companion Beasts sent frost shards flying everywhere, like fireworks formed from frost.

The two Companion Beasts were evenly matched as they used various frost-elemental skills. However, both parties had high resistance against the cold. Their bodies were extremely tough, so they were only slightly injured. Neither of them could do a thing to the other.

The Deep Frost Behemoth finally couldn’t help but take the initiative to launch an attack. The huge tentacles on its body were raised as dark-blue suction cups lit up. Rays of freezing light shot out from them towards Frost Giant.

Frost Giant didn’t give in either. He raised his ax over his head and cleaved down. The ice-like power roared out like an ice river and collided with the Deep Frost Behemoth’s ice beams.

Cracking sounds constantly rang out as the entire platform began to freeze due to the two extremely terrifying cold forces. In just a moment, Frost Giant and Deep Frost Behemoth were wrapped in ice. The entire platform seemed to be covered by glaciers as everything became silent.

“Who won?” The spectators were puzzled.

Now, the two Mythical creatures were frozen in ice, making it difficult to determine the victor.

Suddenly, cracks appeared on the ice. A moment later, the huge ice block shattered and Frost Giant broke out. He held the ax in his hand and roared as he slashed at the Deep Frost Behemoth.

Just as everyone reeled in excitement and thought that they were about to see the scene of a Mythical Companion Beast being killed, the Deep Frost Behemoth’s body suddenly transformed into a stream of light and vanished. It seemed to have teleported away from the cube platform.

The first Companion Beast challenge ended in failure. Deep Frost Behemoth failed to win over the ranking, but this battle made many people discover something.

It turned out that the challenge didn’t have to be fought to the end. One could even admit defeat and withdraw. This gave a variety of ideas to people.

Many Companion Beasts might not have the qualifications to clinch first place, but they could challenge their opposing faction’s Mythical Companion Beasts to figure out their strength and come up with a counter in the future.

This was especially so for the opposing factions in the Federation and overseas factions. There was very little information about overseas, so the Federation’s knowledge of their Companion Beasts was limited. Perhaps they could take this opportunity to understand the abilities of the Companion Beasts overseas.

Challenges on various Companion Beasts increased after the first battle. The battles of top-notch Companion Beasts were like a visual feast for ordinary people. It allowed many people who might never come into contact with Mythical Companion Beasts in their lifetime to witness their strength and horror.

The challenge wasn’t limited to Companion Beasts that weren’t ranked. The Companion Beasts on the ranking board could also challenge each other, but they could only challenge those ranked higher than them.

To initiate a challenge, one only needed to find a cube and inject Essence Energy from the top. This was how they got onto the rankings. The Companion Beast would then be teleported to a black cube in the void.

The black cube was extremely large. Fighting on it didn’t affect anyone or any city. After the battle ended, Companion Beasts would be teleported back to their respective cubes.

During the battle, the owner could also choose to withdraw their Companion Beast. Withdrawing was equivalent to admitting defeat.

The cube’s initial ranking was determined by the Companion Beasts’ stats, skills, Life Providence, Life Soul, and Wheel of Destiny, but it wasn’t completely accurate, nor did it represent actual combat abilities.

Ever since the beginning of the challenge, there had been quite a number of Companion Beasts, which were ranked at the bottom, defeating those ranked at the top.

The overall combat strength ranking did not mean actual combat strength.

However, the first few challenges were basically from low-ranking Companion Beasts. The top ten Companion Beasts were never challenged.

However, it only took a few days before this changed. A Companion Beast that had never been on the rankings and had never been heard of actually challenged first place—Primordial Sword Immortal.

This battle attracted the attention of the entire Federation and people from overseas. To be ranked first, even if it was only determined by the cubes, the strength of Primordial Sword Immortal was not to be underestimated.

“From the looks of it, someone finally can’t hold back. They want to test Primordial Sword Immortal. Do you think that Dark Demon Snake is from the Federation or from overseas?” An Tianzuo looked at the video and asked An Sheng.

“Both are possible, but I think the possibility of it coming from overseas is higher,” An Sheng replied.

“Why?” An Tianzuo asked An Sheng with interest.

“Although we haven’t found out who the owner of Primordial Sword Immortal is yet, based on its appearance and other aspects, the possibility of it being a Companion Beast in the Federation is very high. Logically speaking, the overseas faction should be more eager to understand its abilities,” An Sheng replied.

“That makes sense. Let’s see how much strength that Dark Demon Snake can force out of Primordial Sword Immortal.” An Tianzuo’s gaze landed on the screen again.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 596 - Azure and Purple Ligh

Chapter 596 Azure and Purple Ligh

All the factions that were interested in the divine fruits were also paying close attention to this battle. In order to obtain the right to pluck a divine fruit, one had to defeat Primordial Sword Immortal.

However, no one knew what kind of abilities Primordial Sword Immortal had for it to be given such an evaluation by the cube. It had always been ranked first; no Companion Beast could pose a threat to it.

Even the powerful Mythical Companion Beast like Death of the Underworld could only rank beneath it.

The Federation knew more about Death of the Underworld. It was considered one of the top Companion Beasts among the six families. Its strength was just terrifying.

Dark Demon Snake was a huge snake. At this moment, it was coiled on the cube’s platform, waiting for Primordial Sword Immortal to accept the challenge.

Thankfully, Primordial Sword Immortal accepted the challenge without letting the spectators wait too long. With a flash, a sheathed stone ancient sword appeared on the platform.

Primordial Sword Immortal was actually just a stone sword. There wasn’t any immortal, so it was a question whether to call it a sword immortal or an immortal sword.

The stone sword was grayish-white in color. The scabbard and hilt were carved from ancient gray stone. Only the guard was embedded with a ruby.

As no one had seen it unsheathed, no one knew what the sword looked like on the inside.

Dark Demon Snake didn’t hesitate when it saw the Primordial Sword Immortal appear. It used its strongest force.

Dark Demon Snake’s master clearly knew that it was no match for Primordial Sword Immortal. They only wanted to force out the strength of Primordial Sword Immortal as much as possible.

Dark Demon Snake opened its mouth and spat out a turbulent Dark Demon Tide. Like a tidal wave, it drowned the cube’s platform. Once one was stuck in it, they would be demonized by it.

Primordial Sword Immortal remained suspended silently in midair. Just as it was about to be drowned by the Dark Demon Tide, the ruby at the guard suddenly lit up.

A red sword beam shot out from the ruby and instantly penetrated Dark Demon Snake’s head. It killed it without giving it a chance of surrendering.

The spectators looked at each other. Although they knew that Primordial Sword Immortal would definitely win, they never expected it to win so easily. The sword wasn’t even unsheathed.

“Who is the owner of Primordial Sword Immortal? We have to find out no matter what.” Senator Cape stared at Primordial Sword Immortal on the screen and issued the strict order.

The other families and even those overseas gave the same order.

On the rankings, Primordial Sword Immortal was indeed very strong. Even though people had yet to see the true strength of Primordial Sword Immortal, just that strike alone was enough to make one feel fear.

The six families did not have absolute confidence in defeating Primordial Sword Immortal on the platform. Even if they could defeat it, they would have to pay a huge price.

However, things were different if they could find the owner of Primordial Sword Immortal. No matter how powerful a Companion Beast was, its owner was at most at the Epic stage. Dealing with an Epic human was naturally much easier than dealing with the terrifying Primordial Sword Immortal.

The rules in the arena were fixed, but in reality, there were many ways to clinch victory. There was no need to defeat Primordial Sword Immortal.

Zhou Wen and Li Xuan were on White Cloud Mountain, so they had no idea what had happened. Over the past few days, they had been constantly training themselves.

The jade infant had absorbed a lot of taboo power and had started undergoing some changes. The treasure glow on its body intensified, but within two days of absorbing the taboo power, not much more happened. It looked like the taboo power here was useless against the jade infant.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to use the Demon Suppression statues to stimulate the jade infant for continual evolution.

This actually worked. However, this way, Zhou Wen joined Li Xuan in his predicament. Li Xuan suffered injuries every time he entered Jade Emperor Peak.

Zhou Wen approached the Demon Suppression statues once and the jade infant nearly exploded. It needed half a day of rest before it could completely digest the powerful taboo power that it had absorbed.

Zhou Wen took the opportunity to continue grinding while the jade infant digested the forbidden power. The time needed for Explosive Fiend Man to cast Time-Blast was just too long. With the time needed, Zhou Wen might as well farm Medusa a few more times. After grinding for so long, he still failed to get a Medusa Companion Egg. He did grind quite a number of Essence Energy Skill Crystals, but his stats were insufficient, so he couldn’t absorb them. In the end, he had to lose them with each respawn.

Ding! When Zhou Wen was farming the Golden Battle God Halberd again, another Golden Battle God Halberd Companion Egg dropped. Its stats and skills were very similar to the first Golden Battle God Halberd.

With the second Golden Battle God Halberd, Zhou Wen held one while the other outside of the game auto-attacked. Killing Mythical creatures became much easier and faster.

However, he felt that having two Golden Battle God Halberds made one of them a little redundant.

If only I could fuse it. Zhou Wen looked at it and realized that the Golden Battle God Halberd could indeed be fused. However, its compatibility with ordinary Epic Companion

Beasts wasn’t very high, so he temporarily didn’t have a good candidate. He had to dispel this thought.

After grinding the rare dimensional creatures, Zhou Wen went to Deer Terrace Pavilion. With the four Mythical Companion Beasts, he could storm his way onto Deer Terrace Pavilion even without using Bright Torch Vision World.

Just as he was about to kill the six Mythical fox demons, he suddenly felt a glow appear in front of him. He looked up and saw the scene of Jade Immortal Palace appear above the sea of clouds.

“The immortal palace phenomenon! Li Xuan, quickly close your eyes,” Zhou Wen hurriedly reminded Li Xuan.

As they hadn’t seen any immortal palace phenomena over the past few days, Li Xuan usually didn’t wear the balaclava.

Thankfully, Li Xuan knew that the immortal palace phenomenon was dangerous, so he usually didn’t look into the sky. He only looked in the direction of the Jade Emperor Peak. At that moment, he was recovering from his injuries, so he had his eyes closed.

When Li Xuan heard that, he hurriedly took out the balaclava and put it on his head to prevent himself from accidentally seeing the immortal palace phenomenon.

Zhou Wen naturally wasn’t afraid of the phenomenon. He stared at the pavilions and buildings in the clouds; there were many fairies circling them. However, the immortal palace he saw this time seemed different from what he had seen the last time. He didn’t see the palace from before, nor did he see the fairy who had broken out of the entrance.

Just as Zhou Wen was feeling disappointed, he suddenly saw a strange scene appear in the immortal palace’s phenomenon. He saw an azure and a purple beam pass through the immortal palace’s phenomenon like two rainbows, constantly circling and dancing.

Zhou Wen carefully looked at the two beams of light, but he couldn’t see them clearly. All he could see was the streams of light dancing in the air. At the same time, two indescribable pressures made his heart tremble. He felt as though his body was about to be penetrated by the two beams of light at any moment.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 597 - Absolute Strength

Chapter 597 Absolute Strength

Two streams of light—one azure and one purple—danced amidst the immortal palace. Even the fairies and immortal children avoided them, afraid that they wouldn’t be able to dodge in time. Instantly, chaos broke out. Even the jade buildings that were touched by the two streams of light cracked.

Zhou Wen couldn’t see what was inside the two streams of light, but just by looking at their auras, he felt an indomitable aura. It was as though everything in the world would be mercilessly sliced apart if they stood in front of these two beams.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen’s willpower was extremely firm. Otherwise, just the aura of the purple and azure light would have left him shuddering.

Just as he was wondering what the two beams of light were, he suddenly saw them separate. The azure light landed on the top of a jade pavilion and the purple light landed on a small building.

Only then did Zhou Wen see that the azure light was an azure bird. The purple light was a purple bird. The two birds looked somewhat similar. They had long feathers and phoenix tails. Their bodies glowed with immortal light and they looked extremely beautiful.

Zhou Wen didn’t know what birds they were, but the moment they spread their wings and took off, Zhou Wen saw their flying stance and was immediately amazed.

This only lasted for an instant. Zhou Wen could only see their taking-off postures. After they took off, he couldn’t see their figures again. All he could see were two streams of light—one azure, one purple—that danced around the immortal palace.

After watching for a moment, the immortal palace phenomenon vanished. However, the flying stance of the azure and purple birds was imprinted in Zhou Wen’s mind, unable to be dispelled.

“Old Zhou, what’s in that phenomenon? Tell me about it.” Unable to see it, Li Xuan was burning with curiosity as he asked Zhou Wen.

“There’s an immortal palace in the phenomenon. There are pavilions and buildings. Fairies and immortal children dance among them. There are two birds—one azure, and one purple bird…” Zhou Wen roughly described it.

After the phenomenon, Zhou Wen kept pondering over the flying stance of the two birds. He had a nagging feeling that the stance was very different from the fairy’s flying stance. It was two completely different styles.

I wonder if I can fuse the flying stances of the two birds into my movement technique. Unfortunately, I only saw their flying postures. There’s too little information I can use for reference. As he was pondering, he felt an intense idea come to mind.

Zhou Wen was delighted when he analyzed it. He hurriedly looked at the chaos space and saw that Tyrant Behemoth had finally finished evolving. It had already broken out of its shell.

A terrifying beast that resembled a mountain stood in the chaos space. Its body was like black iron. It had two horns on its head and its tail was like a gigantic whip. Its claws were like metal hooks.

A motorcycle that Zhou Wen placed in the chaos space was as tiny as an ant in front of the behemoth. Zhou Wen couldn’t even estimate how big it was.

Zhou Wen was naturally happy that Tyrant Behemoth had advanced to the Mythical stage, but this size put him in a difficult spot. Where could he put such a huge Companion Beast?

It was fine in the chaos space, but if it came out, Jade Emperor Peak probably couldn’t contain its body.

As Zhou Wen was in the middle of this dilemma, he saw Tyrant Behemoth slowly shrink. In just a moment, it changed from a mountain-like beast to about three meters tall.

Can it actually shrink? Zhou Wen was overjoyed. He summoned Tyrant Behemoth back to him and entered the game to check its information.

Tyrant Behemoth: Mythical (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Extreme Strength

Life Soul: Violent Crown

Wheel of Destiny: Absolute Strength

Strength: 81

Speed: 81

Constitution: 81

Essence Energy: 81

Talent Skill: Mountain Consuming

Companion Form: Boxing Glove

Tyrant Behemoth’s stats were very good. Just like Torch Dragon, every stat reached 81 points. Everything else was the same as before it evolved.

However, after advancing to the Mythical stage, he gained the Wheel of Destiny—Absolute Strength. Zhou Wen had only learned that for every action, there was an equal and opposite reaction. He didn’t know what Absolute Strength was, but he carefully checked its description.

Absolute Strength: A miracle that crushes everything with strength.

Strength can crush everything. How far can it go? Zhou Wen launched a game dungeon and it happened to be in front of Deer Terrace Pavilion. He summoned Tyrant Behemoth to see how strong its Wheel of Destiny was.

The blood-colored avatar hid outside with Six-Winged, Torch Dragon, and the two Golden Battle God Halberds by its side. However, it didn’t let them enter the ancient building and only allowed Tyrant Behemoth to charge in.

Tyrant Behemoth entered the ancient building and immediately alarmed the six fox immortals. One of them shot out a rainbow beam that slashed at Tyrant Behemoth.

Tyrant Behemoth didn’t take action. It opened its mouth and bit down, sucking the light into its stomach as though it was drinking cold water.

Holy sh*t, this Mythical Mountain Consuming Skill is quite powerful. It can even devour a Mythical Essence Energy Skill. Zhou Wen was delighted.

The six fox immortals attacked Tyrant Behemoth one after another. Tyrant Behemoth opened its mouth and swallowed all sorts of Essence Energy Skills. It was insolent, violent, and unreasonable.

The six fox immortals weren’t stupid. They attacked Tyrant Behemoth from different directions, but all Tyrant Behemoth did was open its mouth and they were immediately left helpless.

All sorts of colorful light struck Tyrant Behemoth’s body. Tyrant Behemoth roared and a crown appeared on its head. Its physique immediately increased drastically as it forcefully used its body to tank the rainbow light. The fox immortals’ attacks could only leave a shallow wound on its body.

However, the fox immortals specialized in movement techniques and illusions. Tyrant Behemoth’s speed and strength were much stronger than theirs, but it failed to hit them. Often, a fierce claw strike only struck their phantoms.

In its rage, Behemoth finally used its Wheel of Destiny. A black light emitted from Tyrant Behemoth’s body as though all light had been absorbed by it.

Boom!

The floor beneath Behemoth’s feet collapsed, but it wasn’t just the floor. Even space seemed to be crushed by its strength, creating a spatial vortex.

Everything around it flew towards Behemoth. It was like a black hole, sucking everything around it.

The six fox immortals were no exception. They struggled to escape, but the powerful suction force made it difficult for them to move.

Tyrant Behemoth charged forward and smashed the six fox immortals into pieces with one punch after another. The six fox immortals counterattacked with all their might, but their attacks left zero effect when landing on Tyrant Behemoth’s body. It was akin to scratching an itch. When Tyrant Behemoth landed a punch on them, it directly shattered their bodies. Their strengths were on completely different levels.

How mighty! It’s thrashing them despite it being one against six. Zhou Wen was overjoyed. With Tyrant Behemoth, he didn’t need to go through so much trouble to kill Qiongqi.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 598 - There“s a Demon at the Bottom of the Mountain

Chapter 598 There“s a Demon at the Bottom of the Mountain

Zhou Wen was thinking of getting Tyrant Behemoth to ascend to the second and third floor to kill the Nine-Headed Pheasant Spirit and Jade Lute Spirit.

With Absolute Strength, Tyrant Behemoth remained completely immune to their attacks. All sorts of aural attacks landed on Tyrant Behemoth’s body, but they didn’t hurt at all. However, they could only use their movement techniques and speed to circle around Tyrant Behemoth. Otherwise, they would have died from a single punch from it.

What was terrifying was that Absolute Strength caused space to collapse. It produced a suction force that resembled gravity, hindering their movement and speed. They didn’t last long before they were killed by Tyrant Behemoth.

Tyrant Behemoth alone had stormed through three levels of the ancient building. Before that, only Torch Dragon could do it.

Zhou Wen was excited. He was just about to take Tyrant Behemoth to Zhuolu’s underground temples to see if it could kill Qiongqi when he realized that Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength couldn’t be used again.

What the hell… Does absolute Strength still have a time limit? Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed.

However, on second thought, it made sense. This was equivalent to an invincible state. It was impossible for there to be no restrictions. Otherwise, wouldn’t Tyrant Behemoth really be invincible?

As Zhou Wen grinded dungeons, he waited for Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength to finish the cooldown. He waited 24 hours before he could use it again.

Charging for twenty-four hours for half an hour of usage. It is a little short, but the pro is that it’s for invincibility. Zhou Wen was satisfied. Half an hour’s invincibility should be enough for him to do many things.

Zhou Wen led Tyrant Behemoth and the other Mythical Companion Beasts into the Zhuolu underground temple with great aplomb. When he arrived at the Aoyin stone statue, for no reason, a sudden thought came to him. He planned on getting Tyrant Behemoth to kill Torch Dragon.

Which one is stronger? Absolute Strength or Bright Torch Vision World? Zhou Wen got Tyrant Behemoth to use Absolute Strength before charging into the Torch Dragon temple.

However, without any room for suspense, Tyrant Behemoth was directly reflected by the vision world. Its Absolute Strength failed to protect its body.

Tyrant Behemoth’s strength can even crush space. Can’t it distort Torch Dragon’s gaze? Zhou Wen had no choice but to use his old method to deal with Torch Dragon. It wasn’t easy for him to kill the Torch Dragon youngling, but nothing dropped.

…

Primordial Sword Immortal remained at the top of the rankings with no one questioning its placing. Ever since the Dark Demon Snake was killed, another two Mythical Companion Beasts had challenged it, but the outcome was the same. They were unable to force the stone sword out of its scabbard. The sword beam from the ruby was something they couldn’t withstand.

However, the Companion Beasts that challenged Primordial Sword Immortal survived. They weren’t killed like the Dark Demon Snake. Their owners were already prepared.

It was naturally a good thing that they could survive, but to not have the qualifications to make Primordial Sword Immortal unsheath itself made many people who wanted to vie for first place, secretly frown.

Unless one sent a top Mythical creature to fight it, it was very difficult to figure out Primordial Sword Immortal’s plethora of abilities.

However, up till now, no one was willing to reveal their top combat strength and fight to the death with Primordial Sword Immortal. Everyone was just watching.

During this period of time, a Companion Beast challenged the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, but because Zhou Wen was on White Cloud Mountain, he didn’t have the chance to receive the news about him being challenged. Therefore, after 72 hours, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon automatically admitted defeat and gave up its original position.

An Sheng had also sent a message to Zhou Wen, but because there was no signal on White Cloud Mountain, Zhou

Wen didn’t receive it.

“Haha… I’ve finally succeeded…” A couple of weeks later, on White Cloud Mountain’s Jade Emperor Peak, Li Xuan laughed out loud in excitement.

His body stood on the stone steps as the carapace on his body shattered and healed itself. The self-healing speed was even faster than the shattering. The taboo power on Jade Emperor Peak failed to kill Li Xuan.

“Old Li, your self-healing powers are impressive! It’s an undying body,” Zhou Wen exclaimed. He was indeed envious of Li Xuan’s self-healing abilities.

Although Small Perfection of Wisdom also had Constitution enhancement, it was very different from the typical Constitution enhancement. In terms of self-healing, it was far inferior to Li Xuan.

“It’s indeed good, but it freaking hurts!” Li Xuan retreated out of the Jade Emperor Peak and said with gritted teeth.

The wounds could heal, but the pain from the injuries remained.

“Old Zhou, I have to head back now. Do you want to go back together?” Li Xuan asked Zhou Wen.

“I still need to cultivate here for a period of time. You go back. By the way, remember to prepare the things I asked you to buy for me. I’ll be needing them when I return in a few days.” Zhou Wen still remembered the items The Thearch wanted. They weren’t anything valuable, so there was no need to fall out with her over this.

Furthermore, Zhou Wen was very interested in The Thearch's Pet Skill Insights Agent.

Typically, Companion Beasts that dropped wouldn't have all their skills, especially Mythical pets. Most Mythical creatures had plenty of skills, but Companion Eggs that dropped typically only had four skills. If the Pet Skill Insights Agent was useful, it might allow Mythical Companion Beasts to have all their skills.

Just like the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, it lacked several skills. If it could comprehend those skills, its combat strength would increase a little.

"I got the purchasing department to buy it. It's almost done. I'll go back and take a look. If there's anything missing, I'll get them to quickly purchase it. I'll head back first." Li Xuan couldn't wait to return home.

Zhou Wen sent him off White Cloud Mountain before returning to Jade Emperor Peak. However, just as he came in front of the door to Jade Emperor Peak, he looked up and trembled.

At the end of the Jade Emperor Peak's stone steps stood a white-robed, white-haired man. He stood in front of the Demon Suppression statues and looked at Zhou Wen with a smile.

"Teacher!" Zhou Wen called out, but he didn't know what to say.

"I've implicated many of you, yet you are still willing to call me teacher. It makes me feel ashamed," Wang Mingyuan sighed.

“You taught me before. It’s only right for me to call you teacher.” Zhou Wen looked at Wang Mingyuan and continued, “Teacher, can I ask you why you are using the divine fruit to initiate the ranking battles?”

“If I tell you that I only wish to give the fruit to someone, would you believe me?” Wang Mingyuan said with a faint smile.

Zhou Wen didn’t say a word, but Wang Mingyuan laughed. “You’re still the same as before. You haven’t changed at all. You’re so stubborn and don’t know how to hide your feelings.”

“Teacher, you aren’t here just to tell me this, right?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I came here to retrieve something, but I never expected to meet you. Since we are fated to meet again and you are still willing to call me teacher, I’ll tell you a secret.” Wang Mingyuan pointed at his feet and said, “There’s a demon at the bottom of the mountain. It can help you break through to the Mythical stage.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 599 - Demon Suppression Hall

Chapter 599 Demon Suppression Hall

“What demon?” Zhou Wen asked in puzzlement.

“It’s just a title. You can also call him Guardian,” Wang Mingyuan answered.

“Do you want me to advance to the Mythical stage like you using Spirit Casting on a Guardian?” Zhou Wen asked Wang Mingyuan. He actually wanted to know if Wang Mingyuan had advanced to the Mythical stage using Spirit Casting or not.

“Did Ziya give you the Spirit Casting Skill?” Wang Mingyuan frowned slightly.

“Yes.” Zhou Wen nodded.

Wang Mingyuan sighed and said, “The body of humans is innately lacking. If you wish to advance to the Mythical stage, you must have a way to make up for it. Now, there are two viable paths. First, it’s to form a contract with a Guardian to advance to the Mythical stage with the body of a Guardian. This path looks simple, but in fact, it has extremely high requirements. It’s very difficult to get a Guardian’s acknowledgment if one doesn’t have a compatible physique and talent. Even if one obtains the recognition, they will be abandoned if they fail to meet the Guardian’s requirements in their future growth and in combat. By choosing this path, it’s equivalent to boarding a train that can’t be stopped. There’s no chance of retreating. Once it fails, one will be left with nothing as they fall to the lowest point possible.”

After a pause, Wang Mingyuan continued, “The second path is Spirit Casting. By borrowing the bodies of powerful creatures to make up for your shortcomings, one can choose Mythical creatures or Guardians as targets for Spirit Casting. Both have their pros and cons, but using a Guardian will make one remain more human. After Spirit Casting, your body will still maintain most of its human form, but that’s all.”

What Wang Mingyuan said was similar to Zhou Wen’s previous guess. He couldn’t help but ask, “Can’t humans really rely on their bodies to advance to the Mythical stage?”

“Difficult.” Wang Mingyuan looked at the churning sea of clouds beyond the mountain and said, “Everything has its limits. Just like many human sports before the dimensional storms, such as a one-hundred-meter sprint. It’s relatively easy to raise the results at the beginning, but when the results reached about ten seconds, the chances of a breakthrough were minimal. This is because ten seconds was the limit of humans. What humans are facing now is the same problem. If the limits of human bodies are 10, then the requirement to advance to the Mythical stage is 100. No matter how hard humanity works, it’s impossible to reach 100. This is a limit we were born with. It’s difficult to resolve it without external help.”

With that said, without waiting for Zhou Wen to say a word, Wang Mingyuan said, “I should go. The demon at the foot of the mountain is a Guardian. If you wish to contract it, you can use this method. Even if your physique and talent aren’t compatible with him, he will still contract with you. Furthermore, he won’t easily betray you.”

Wang Mingyuan reached out and flicked a piece of paper at Zhou Wen. When Zhou Wen caught it and looked at Wang Mingyuan again, he saw him turn around and walk into a huge spatial door.

After Wang Mingyuan walked in, the spatial door closed with a bang. Jade Emperor Peak returned to normal. There was nothing besides the two Demon Suppression statues as though no one had ever been there.

Zhou Wen stared blankly for a moment before retracting his gaze to look at the note in his hand.

The content on it was somewhat unbelievable. Zhou Wen definitely wouldn’t believe it if it had come from someone else. However, the person who wrote this was Wang Mingyuan, so it was naturally a whole different matter.

Should I give it a try? Zhou Wen looked at the slip of paper with a strange expression. This was because the method on the slip was rather unbelievable.

Gods Retreat has yet to advance to a Perfect Body, so I can’t enter Demon Suppression Hall. If I wish to enter, I can only try using the method on this. Zhou Wen decided to give it a try at night. Even if he failed, he wouldn’t suffer any losses.

There was still a long time before sunset. Zhou Wen sat on the stone steps and thought of what Wang Mingyuan had said to him.

Is there really no way to advance to the Mythical stage with the human body? If I’m really at an impasse, which path should I choose? Spirit Casting or contracting? Zhou Wen ultimately felt that he didn’t want to choose either path.

I’ll decide after advancing Slaughterer to a Perfect Body. It’s still too early to consider such things now. Zhou Wen thought of the divine fruit again.

Wang Mingyuan said that he only wanted to give the divine fruit away. Although it wasn’t necessarily credible, Wang Mingyuan didn’t need to go through so much trouble to lie to him if he wanted to harm him.

Since Wang Mingyuan said that there are only two ways to advance to the Mythical stage, that meant that the divine fruit isn’t able to advance humans to the Mythical stage. In that case, the divine fruit is only effective against Companion Beasts and dimensional creatures. Zhou Wen felt that he could give it a try to see if he could vie for the divine fruit.

If he could really obtain the divine fruit, he could feed it to either Banana Fairy or Explosive Fiend Man—especially Explosive Fiend Man. Once he advanced to the Mythical stage, he would be of great help to Zhou Wen.

Even if that divine fruit is a trap, Teacher probably won’t cheat me on account of our teacher-student relationship, right? After some thought, Zhou Wen felt that vying for the divine fruit had more pros than cons.

The crux of the matter was whether he could obtain first place as well as decide which Companion Beast to vie for first place.

I wonder if Tyrant can handle Primordial Sword Immortal.

Time passed as Zhou Wen pondered. The sun quickly set and the sky darkened.

I'll give it a try and see if Teacher's method really works. Zhou Wen looked at the sky that had completely darkened and a crescent moon emitted a faint light.

Looking at the two Demon Suppression statues in front of the Demon Suppression Hall, Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and turned his back to them. Then, he pressed his hands on the stone steps and held himself up vertically.

With his hands as his feet, Zhou Wen moved towards the door of Demon Suppression Hall.

Zhou Wen felt a little uneasy as he looked at the two Demon Suppression statues. He didn't feel confident at all.

Gods Retreat was powerful, yet it couldn't even cross the Demon Suppression statues to enter the hall. Yet, Wang Mingyuan said that he could enter just by walking upside down. This was unbelievable.

If Wang Mingyuan hadn't been the one informing him of this method, Zhou Wen wouldn't have even tried it. It sounded like a joke.

Although Zhou Wen was making an attempt, he still found it unbelievable that he could enter the Demon Suppression Hall so easily.

When he was close to activating the Demon Suppression statues, the two words—Demon Suppression—on their respective foreheads lit up again.

Will it really work? Zhou Wen's heart skipped a beat.

However, to his surprise, although the word Demon Suppression on the two statues lit up, Zhou Wen didn’t feel the pressure on the jade infant increase.

Is it really feasible? Zhou Wen continued moving upwards. Indeed, he didn’t feel the pressure from the Demon Suppression words. Just like that, he reached the end of the stone steps and arrived at the entrance of the Demon Suppression Hall.

Zhou Wen still remembered the method on the slip of paper. He didn’t use his feet to kick the door, nor did he push it with his hands. Instead, he used his hands to prop himself up on the ground and slammed his head against the door of the Demon Suppression Hall.

Clang!

With a dull thud, Zhou Wen felt his head spin as he saw stars.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 600 - The Imprisoned Guardian

Chapter 600 The Imprisoned Guardian

What happened to definitely opening when hitting the door with all my might? Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and prevented himself from falling to the ground. Then, he heard a rumbling sound as the door slowly rose. It opened.

Zhou Wen suspected that there was no need for him to slam the door with all his strength as Wang Mingyuan had said. However, Zhou Wen didn’t have any evidence.

After the door rose, Zhou Wen saw the scene in the temple. There weren’t any statues of consecrated deities or predellas. There were many stone monuments scattered in the hall.

There were many strange lines and patterns engraved on each stone monument. He did not know what they meant.

Zhou Wen stood outside the door and counted. Indeed, it was arranged exactly as drawn on the slip of paper.

As he alternated his hands to move forward, Zhou Wen followed the path Wang Mingyuan had described and entered the stone monument’s formation. When he passed some stone monuments, he propped himself up with one hand and pressed the stone monument with the other.

After circling the stone monument array for a while, he finally finished all necessary actions. The stone monument spun, revealing a stone staircase that led underground.

Zhou Wen hurriedly entered the stone steps and finally heaved a sigh of relief. He placed his feet on the ground and returned to his normal state.

He sized up the stone staircase and saw that the stone walls on both sides were engraved with symbols that Zhou Wen knew nothing of. Most of them were simple lines and points that were arranged in a certain way.

He walked down the stone steps all the way. Before long, the stone steps turned a little. They continued downwards, like the stairs in a building.

He walked all the way down. After walking for more than a hundred storeys worth of steps, he still couldn’t see the end. The patterns on the stone wall remained, but he didn’t know what they were for.

When Zhou Wen thought that there was no end, he saw that the stone steps below were somewhat different.

The stone steps below turned into jade and emitted a cold aura.

After stepping onto the jade stairs, he continued walking down. Not long after, he reached the end. Beneath him was a room made of jade. Floating in the middle of the room was a black cocoon.

There were many cracks on the cocoon’s body as black gas seeped out from the cracks. However, the black gas failed to emit as it was absorbed by the white circles on the black cocoon’s body.

There were a total of seven circles on the black cocoon. They looked like they were made of jade and had mysterious incantations engraved on them.

When Zhou Wen looked at the black cocoon, he suddenly realized that a black eye was staring at him through a crack.

“Human, do you want me to become your contractor?” When Zhou Wen saw the eye, he heard an ethereal voice coming from the black cocoon.

“No,” Zhou Wen answered without any hesitation.

He could naturally tell that there was something wrong with the Guardian inside the black cocoon.

There was no Mythical creature guarding him here, and the black cocoon was clearly imprisoned. This was completely different from the Guardians that Zhou Wen had seen before.

“Human, don’t you wish to obtain powerful strength? As long as you form a contract with me, you can obtain immense power and advance to the Mythical stage.” The voice from the black cocoon sounded again.

“If you were really that strong, you wouldn’t have been imprisoned here.” Zhou Wen said, but he thought to himself, Who has the ability to imprison a Guardian here? Is it a human? I’m afraid humans don’t have such powerful abilities.

Upon hearing Zhou Wen’s words, the black cocoon’s Guardian seemed to turn irascible. Large amounts of black demonic aura surged out of the cracks. Due to the massive amount of demonic aura that they absorbed, even the jade hoops turned raven-black.

“Human, I’m the strongest Guardian. No one can imprison me. I was the one who imprisoned myself.” The black cocoon’s voice sounded again.

“Then why did you imprison yourself?” Zhou Wen naturally didn’t believe him.

“You don’t need to know the reason. All you need to know is that after signing a contract with me, you will become the most powerful human, and you will become the most powerful existence in the future. That’s enough. The power I will give you is something you humans can never imagine, even in your dreams,” the voice said again.

“I heard that signing a contract with a Guardian requires a special physique and talent. Are you sure that my physique and talent are what you need?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“You being able to come here proves that you have the qualifications to sign a contract with me,” said the Guardian in the cocoon.

“Sounds good, but isn’t it because you are just looking for any random human to contract with so you can escape?” Zhou Wen curled his lips.

“Human, it looks like you don’t understand how great an opportunity you will miss.” The Guardian continued, “Don’t tell me you don’t wish for strength? Don’t you wish to become the greatest hero of humanity? In the future, there will definitely be a terrifying battle in the human world. When that happens, no one will be spared. Those below the Mythical stage don’t even have the right to struggle for survival. Sign a contract with me and you will still have a chance of survival. Otherwise, you can only wait for death. This is your chance to live.”

“You don’t have to scare me. I don’t believe anything you say.” Zhou Wen looked at the black cocoon and asked, “After talking for so long, I still don’t know your name?”

“Grim Demon,” said the voice from the black cocoon.

“Dim Demon?” Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback. The name sounded a little odd. Was he dim?

Grim Demon clearly heard Zhou Wen’s pronunciation error. Demonic aura spewed out from the black cocoon as though it was furious. “A fiend born to kill, I’m the grim reaper incarnate, Grim Demon.”

“So it’s Grim Demon. This name… is domineering…” Zhou Wen said, but due to his preconceived impression, he couldn’t forget the name “Dim Demon.”

“Human, have you thought it through? As long as you contract with me, not only will you be able to survive in the terrifying battle, you will also have the chance to defeat all the species in the universe and become the strongest existence…” Grim Demon continued.

“I’ve seen many Guardians before, but they weren’t anything impressive either. They weren’t as powerful as you say.” Zhou Wen wore a questioning look.

“Guardians differ in strength too. Which Guardians have you seen?” Grim Demon didn’t believe Zhou Wen.

“I’ve seen a seraphim with six wings. He can open the Door to Heaven. It looks rather impressive,” Zhou Wen said.

“That birdman, I can tear it apart with one hand. It’s not worth mentioning at all. After signing the contract with me, it will be easy for you to defeat him,” Grim Demon said disdainfully.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, Just keep bragging. After all, bragging isn’t against the law. But I can’t verify it either.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t say it out loud. He continued, “I’ve also seen a Guardian named Fairy Burial. She looked pretty impressive.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 601 - Grim Demon

Chapter 601 Grim Demon

Grim Demon clearly paused for a moment before saying, “Fairy Burial does have some ability, but she’s not my match either.”

“I’ve also seen a Guardian before…” Zhou Wen described the Guardian of Ant City.

Grim Demon said coldly, “I’ve never heard of such a Guardian. It probably isn’t that strong. I’ll also be able to easily kill it.”

“You said you were powerful, but there’s no way to prove it. How do you want me to believe you?” Zhou Wen didn’t believe in the bragging of Grim Demon. He then asked, “How is the strength of Guardians demarcated?”

“You will find out after contracting me.” Grim Demon didn’t answer Zhou Wen’s question.

“Forget it. The other Guardians have Mythical creatures protecting them. Only you are imprisoned here. It’s obvious that you aren’t that great. You might very well be the weakest Guardian. I think I’ll find another Guardian,” Zhou Wen said, preparing to turn around and leave.

Grim Demon nearly died from exasperation because of Zhou Wen. He gritted his teeth and said, “Human, after I leave, I can naturally prove to you that I’m powerful.”

“Forget it. I heard that a person can only contract one Guardian. I still wish to leave my contract opportunity to a stronger Guardian. Even if it’s not a top-notch Guardian, it needs to be at least average. You don’t meet my requirements.” Zhou Wen shook his head.

Zhou Wen didn’t want to contract a Guardian at all. He only entered to take a look.

The method Wang Mingyuan had given him was to force Grim Demon to sign a special contract. Then, Grim Demon couldn’t easily betray him like the other Guardians.

However, Zhou Wen felt that such a contract wasn’t too safe. Although the special contract prevented the Guardian from defecting, the Guardian could still regain his freedom if his master died.

If Grim Demon really had the intention to betray him, he could plot his death before obtaining freedom.

The demonic aura in the black cocoon surged like a tidal wave. The seven jade hoops were unable to completely block the demonic aura. The mysterious incantations and patterns on the jade room’s walls lit up.

All sorts of patterns lit up on the stone walls of the tunnel. They suppressed the terrifying demonic aura, illuminating the entire mountain belly.

Grim Demon was truly infuriated. He wished he could tear this human to pieces.

He had never suffered such humiliation. If he wasn’t trapped here, even if Zhou Wen knelt down to beg him for a contract, he would have to consider Zhou Wen’s aptitude and talent before making an informed decision.

Now that he was lowering himself and taking the initiative to form a contract with Zhou Wen, Zhou Wen was still so picky. He even said something that he needed one that was at least average. This nearly made Grim Demon go mad.

If he hadn’t been suppressed by Demon Suppression Mountain and unable to use his powers to harm Zhou Wen, he would choose to kill Zhou Wen first to appease his anger even if he had to wait another few decades or a century.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but be alarmed when he saw how powerful Grim Demon was when in a rage. This fellow isn’t completely bragging. He might really be able to fight Fairy Burial.

“Don’t be angry. If it wasn’t because you were too weak, why would you be imprisoned here by humans?” Zhou Wen wanted to see if he could obtain some secrets.

These Guardians seemed to come from different species. It was unknown why the species of dimensional zones had created them and allowed them to contract with humans.

“You don’t need to know. If you don’t wish to sign a contract, scram. Don’t disturb my slumber,” Grim Demon said coldly.

“Wait, I just said that you were imprisoned here by humans. You didn’t refute me. Could it be that you were really imprisoned here by us humans?” Zhou Wen suddenly realized a problem. When he spoke just now, he had said it subconsciously.

However, from Grim Demon’s point of view, he looked down on humans. He should have retorted when he heard Zhou Wen’s words.

Zhou Wen waited for a while, but Grim Demon didn’t say a word. There was no reaction from the black cocoon.

It can’t be. Was this fellow really imprisoned here by humans? Look at how dim and silly he is. Could it be that he was trapped here because of a human scheme? The more Zhou Wen thought about it, the more he felt that it was right.

However, after saying a few more words, Grim Demon didn’t react at all. From the looks of it, he planned on ignoring him.

Zhou Wen’s hope of learning more insider stories was shattered. Seeing that there was nothing else here, all he could do was retreat and return to Jade Emperor Peak.

Unfortunately, I have too many secrets about me. Otherwise, it would be a good choice to contract with Grim Demon. That fellow’s strength is indeed extraordinary.

With so many secrets about him, he definitely couldn’t let a Guardian with self-awareness and independent behavior follow him.

Zhou Wen used the Demon Suppression power on Jade Emperor Peak to raise Gods Retreat. Occasionally, when he was free, he would run down to take a look at Grim Demon and attempt to chat with him, hoping to obtain more information.

Unfortunately, after Grim Demon realized that he wasn’t willing to contract, he ignored him. Occasionally, he would say a few words, but there were no secrets to speak of.

During this period, Zhou Wen also discovered something. Indeed, there was no need for him to slam the door with all his might. All he needed to do was gently hit it to have it open.

Is it fun to trick me? Zhou Wen gritted his teeth, but there was nothing he could do.

Now, Zhou Wen finally understood that neither Wang Mingyuan nor his disciples were decent and serious people. He definitely couldn't believe their words completely.

Zhou Wen also tried entering the Demon Suppression Hall in-game. Wang Mingyuan's method was equally effective in-game. There was a black cocoon and Grim Demon down below in-game.

However, Grim Demon didn't speak in-game, so there was no way to communicate.

"Grim Demon, have you heard of a Guardian with the word 'Thearch' in its name?" Zhou Wen had always suspected that The Thearch might also be a Guardian.

Typical Mythical creatures didn't seem as intelligent as The Thearch.

"There are naturally Guardians with Thearch in their names, but compared to me, they are far inferior," Grim Demon said coldly.

Zhou Wen had come many times. Being bored, Grim Demon would chat with Zhou Wen indifferently at times.

"Then are there any women among these Guardians with Thearch in their names?" Zhou Wen asked again.

"Of course. However, even the strongest Netherworld Female Thearch isn't my match," Grim Demon said.

Zhou Wen was already used to the bragging nature of Grim Demon. He wasn’t affected at all as he continued probing, “I’ve been to Chess Mountain before and met a Guardian who calls herself The Thearch. Do you know who she is?”

“What kind of place is Chess Mountain?” Grim Demon frowned.

“It’s probably where ancient Chaoge is. There’s a Deer Terrace Pavilion there…” Zhou Wen revealed some information about Chess Mountain.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 602 - Strange Response of Grim Demon

Chapter 602 Strange Response of Grim Demon

Grim Demon didn’t react when he heard that. When he heard Zhou Wen mention the Power of Wishes, he said, “I don’t know. I’ve never heard of it.”

Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed. He originally imagined that he would be able to obtain some information regarding The Thearch from him, but he failed to obtain anything.

Zhou Wen attempted to use the jade infant to resist the power of the Demon Suppression statues every day. As he absorbed a large amount of Demon Suppression forces, the treasure glow on the jade infant’s body intensified. Later on, Zhou Wen could hardly see the jade infant in the treasure glow.

Now, the jade infant was almost able to resist the Demon Suppression statues. With the jade infant’s strength, Zhou Wen could rush to the entrance of the Demon Suppression Hall.

However, even so, the jade infant still failed to advance to the legendary Perfect Body.

And at this moment, the power of Demon Suppression was almost negligible to the jade infant. Zhou Wen felt that there was no point in staying any longer. He planned on leaving White Cloud Mountain and returning to school.

Before Zhou Wen left White Cloud Mountain, he went to inform Grim Demon, “Grim Demon, I’m leaving. Let’s meet again if fate allows it.”

“Are you really not considering signing a contract with me?” There was silence within the black cocoon before the voice of a Grim Demon sounded.

“I don’t have the intention of contracting a Guardian for the time being, but I might be able to help you find someone to become your contractor.” Zhou Wen felt that it was better to find a friend who was willing to contract since he wasn’t willing to do so. It was better than letting an enemy contract Grim Demon.

Although White Cloud Mountain was mysterious and ordinary people couldn’t enter, with the passage of time, the secrets of the various dimensional zones would slowly be resolved. It was difficult to guarantee that no one would enter.

“Do you think I will contract anyone?” Grim Demon said coldly.

“Don’t worry. I’ll definitely help you find an outstanding human.” Zhou Wen felt that he could return and ask An Sheng or Li Xuan if they wanted to contract the Guardian.

“I’ll take a step back and form an eternal contract with you,” Grim Demon said after a moment of silence. At the same time, he explained what an eternal contract was.

Zhou Wen already knew what an eternal contract was. The contract Wang Mingyuan had wanted him to force Grim Demon to sign was an eternal contract. After signing such a contract, unless Zhou Wen died, Grim Demon wouldn’t be able to obtain freedom.

“I’m really sorry. I just don’t plan on contracting a Guardian at the moment.” Zhou Wen couldn’t accept the circumstances unless he tried advancing to the Mythical stage by himself.

Even though Grim Demon was an excellent choice, Zhou Wen still firmly declined.

“In that case, can you do me a favor before you leave?” Grim Demon said after some thought.

“What favor?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I have an Essence Energy Art here. Help me take it out and find a human who can learn it to be my contractor. As a reward, I can agree to do three things for you after I’m out. As long as it’s within my abilities, I will do anything,” said Grim Demon.

“Sure.” Zhou Wen agreed. It didn’t affect him much.

“I’ll reveal my Essence Energy Art outside the cocoon. You have to remember every word.” Accompanying Grim Demon’s voice, the demonic aura in the black cocoon surged and condensed into words.

Zhou Wen memorized the words one by one, but he was also wary. As he memorized them, he kept controlling his Essence Energy to prevent any accidents.

Grim Demon’s Essence Energy Art was just too long. It was like a sutra. Zhou Wen took two to three hours to memorize everything.

“Recite the Essence Energy Art once and I’ll check to see if you make any mistakes,” said Grim Demon.

“There’s no need. Show me the Essence Energy Art again. I’ll just compare,” Zhou Wen said.

“Alright.” Grim Demon didn’t persist and displayed his Essence Energy Art again.

Zhou Wen read for a while. It had been too long. When it was time to feed Demonic Neonate the Longevity Fruit, he summoned her and handed her one.

The Essence Energy Art on the black cocoon suddenly stopped scrolling. Zhou Wen asked curiously, “Why aren’t you continuing?”

There was still no sound in the black cocoon. The demonic aura also seemed to freeze, motionless.

“Grim Demon, what are you doing?” Zhou Wen asked with a frown, but there was no answer.

Zhou Wen suddenly realized that something was amiss. The abnormal actions of Grim Demon seemed to have begun when he summoned Demonic Neonate.

He glanced at Demonic Neonate who was chewing on a Longevity Fruit and then at the motionless black cocoon. Zhou Wen pulled Demonic Neonate and nudged her towards the black cocoon.

Finally, the black cocoon reacted. Demonic aura spewed out from the black cocoon, but it didn’t spray at Zhou Wen and Demonic Neonate. Instead, it seemed to lunge the black cocoon back to dodge them.

Unfortunately, it was trapped by the seven jade hoops and the entire mountain's Demon Suppression array. It was unable to move.

"Don't come over!" Grim Demon's voice finally sounded again. However, there was a hint of horror in his voice.

Zhou Wen was alarmed. Although Demonic Neonate is powerful, her strength isn't even comparable to the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. Why is Grim Demon so afraid of her?

"Grim Demon, don't you claim to be the strongest guardian? Why are you so afraid now?" Zhou Wen mocked.

With Grim Demon's temper, he would definitely retort angrily with the way Zhou Wen mocked him.

However, this time, he didn't retort. He fell silent again.

Indeed, there's something odd. Is Grim Demon actually afraid of Demonic Neonate? Is there something on Demonic Neonate that's worth being afraid of? Zhou Wen carefully sized up Demonic Neonate.

He didn't allow Demonic Neonate to continue approaching the black cocoon. If Grim Demon was just pretending to be afraid, but in fact, had ulterior motives towards Demonic Neonate, wouldn't Zhou Wen be harming her if he pushed her over?

Demonic Neonate's strength in every aspect isn't enough to threaten Grim Demon. If there's really something that can make him afraid, I'm afraid it's only her Life Providence, Life Soul, or Wheel of Destiny. Life Providence and Life Soul Wheel seem to have nothing to do with demons. Could it be that Grim Demon fears the Supreme True Demon Life Soul? Many thoughts flashed through Zhou Wen’s mind.

The more he thought about it, the more likely it was. However, Zhou Wen had no intention of letting Demonic Neonate take the risk. He turned around and left with Demonic Neonate. He planned on letting Demonic Neonate approach the black cocoon in-game after returning.

As Zhou Wen’s Mythical Companion Beasts had increased recently, he seldom used Demonic Neonate in battle. He hadn’t tried getting her to attack the black cocoon.

“Wait.” To his surprise, just as Zhou Wen was about to leave the jade room, the Grim Demon’s voice sounded again to stop him.

Could it be that the Grim Demon really wants to trick Demonic Neonate into going over? Zhou Wen became even more wary as he unsummoned Demonic Neonate to prevent any accidents from happening.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 603 - Master-Slave Contrac

Chapter 603 Master-Slave Contrac

“Please… Please agree to sign a master-slave contract with me…” Grim Demon’s words left Zhou Wen alarmed.

“What’s a master-slave contract?” Zhou Wen learned from Wang Mingyuan the two types of guardian contracts.

One was a Guardian contract. This contract was relatively fair. Both parties could terminate the contract at any time and had the right to give up on each other.

The second was the eternal contract that could only be terminated after one party died. Relatively speaking, it was relatively fair. However, Guardians had unlimited lifespans, so typically speaking, humans would die first before the contract could be terminated.

“I’m willing to sign a contract as a slave. Life and death depend on Master’s will…” Grim Demon explained the effects and methods of the master-slave contract in detail.

After Zhou Wen finished hearing the description, he felt that the contract was excellent. Grim Fiend’s life was at his will. Furthermore, if the master died, the Guardian would also die. It was perfect.

With the master-slave contract, Zhou Wen no longer needed to consider his previous worries. It was just too good.

“Since you are so sincere in your request, it wouldn’t be nice for me not to agree. Alright, I’ll agree to be your master,” Zhou Wen agreed readily.

“Who wants you to be my master? I want to invite… that lady… to be my master…” Grim Demon immediately said.

Zhou Wen’s expression froze as he immediately understood what Grim Demon meant. Grim Demon wanted to sign a master-slave contract with Demonic Neonate, not him.

“You want to sign a master-slave contract with my Companion Beast?” Zhou Wen asked the black cocoon.

“Yes,” Grim Demon replied with certainty.

Could it be that Demonic Neonate really had a huge background when she was alive? Or could it be because of the Supreme True Demon Life Soul she has? Zhou Wen summoned Demonic Neonate again and pointed at the black cocoon, asking her, “Do you know what that is?”

Demonic Neonate looked at the black cocoon and shook her head. Her tiny face was also filled with confusion.

“He wants to be your Guardian. Are you willing?” Zhou Wen asked again.

Demonic Neonate shook her head with a blank expression. It was unknown if she knew what a Guardian was.

“As you can see, she’s unwilling to accept you,” Zhou Wen said to the black cocoon.

There was no sound from the black cocoon. Zhou Wen led Demonic Neonate out of the Demon Suppression Hall, but he didn’t hear Grim Demon’s voice again.

What’s so different about Demonic Neonate? It actually made Grim Demon so reverent to the point of even being willing to sign a master-slave contract? Zhou Wen couldn’t guess.

Thankfully, he had the mysterious phone. He planned on bringing Demonic Neonate here in-game to see the black cocoon’s reaction.

Outside Jade Emperor Peak, Zhou Wen launched the Demon Suppression Mountain instance dungeon and led Demonic Neonate into the Demon Suppression Hall before arriving in front of the black cocoon.

The black cocoon in-game wasn’t as intelligent as the Grim Demon in real life. No one spoke. Zhou Wen attempted to get Demonic Neonate to approach the black cocoon.

Demonic Neonate held the ancient sword and slowly walked to the black cocoon. She extended a tiny hand and pressed it on the black cocoon.

The demonic aura in the black cocoon immediately erupted and sent Demonic Neonate flying. Thankfully, Demonic Neonate seemed to have a high resistance to the demonic aura and wasn’t injured.

That’s strange. Demonic Neonate’s strength isn’t enough to fight Grim Demon. It can’t even withstand the demonic aura he emits. Why does Grim Demon think so highly of her? He even said that he’s afraid of her? Zhou Wen couldn’t figure out the crux of the problem.

However, Demonic Neonate was somewhat odd. After coming into contact with the black cocoon and the demonic aura, she began to take the initiative to attack the black cocoon. She even opened her mouth as though she wanted to bite the black cocoon.

Although the demonic aura forced her back time and time again, the powerful demonic aura could not harm Demonic Neonate's body. However, Demonic Neonate's strength was still too weak, so she failed to break through the demonic aura's defenses.

There's indeed a problem. Zhou Wen held back Demonic Neonate and summoned her in reality. He stared into her eyes and asked, "Why do you want to attack the black cocoon?"

"Eat," Demonic Neonate answered simply. She didn't know many words. Zhou Wen had tried to teach her how to speak for a long period of time, but she still didn't really speak.

It was already very rare for her to say a word.

"You want to eat that black cocoon?" Zhou Wen confirmed again.

Demonic Neonate didn't say anything this time and only nodded.

Zhou Wen immediately understood why Grim Demon restrained his demonic aura after Demonic Neonate appeared. He didn't dare move because he was afraid of attracting Demonic Neonate's attention.

"What benefits do you get from eating the black cocoon?" Zhou Wen asked again.

Demonic Neonate shook her head with a blank expression. Clearly, this was only her instinct. Even she herself didn't know why she wanted to eat the black cocoon, or rather, what use Grim Demon had.

“Do you know what a contract means?” Zhou Wen asked her again.

Demonic Neonate nodded slightly. From the looks of it, she knew what the contract was about.

Zhou Wen’s expression changed constantly. There was indeed a chance in front of him, but he didn’t know what would happen if a Companion Beast had a Guardian.

Logically speaking, Demonic Neonate is my Companion Beast. If Grim Demon is her slave guardian, it should be easy to control him, right?

Zhou Wen asked Demonic Neonate again, “If I let you sign a master-slave contract with the creature inside the black cocoon, will it harm you?”

Demonic Neonate thought for a moment before shaking her head.

“If the contract’s initiative is in your hands, you can consider signing a master-slave contract with the guardian inside the black cocoon. In that case, won’t his life be in your hands? If you want to eat him, you should be able to do so at any time, right? Just treat it as a food reserve, alright?” Zhou Wen only suggested, unsure if this method was feasible.

Upon hearing that, Demonic Neonate lowered her head as though she was deep in thought. After a while, she nodded and said, “Okay… Contract… Food reserve…”

Although Demonic Neonate didn’t speak clearly, Zhou Wen still understood the meaning behind her words. In his delight, he led Demonic Neonate into the Demon Suppression Hall once again.

As he walked, Zhou Wen persuaded, “Don’t be in a rush to eat him after signing the contract. There are still many fruits here. Just treat that as a food reserve. Eat him when the fruits are finished.”

Demonic Neonate thought seriously for a moment before nodding. “Food reserve… No eating…”

“Very good. How smart.” Zhou Wen patted Demonic Neonate’s head and praised her.

Soon, the two of them arrived at the spot where Grim Demon was suppressed. Zhou Wen went up and said to Grim Demon, “Grim Demon, it took me a long time to persuade her before she finally agreed to contract with you, but it has to be a master-slave contract.”

“Of course,” Grim Demon answered quickly. From his tone, it was as though Zhou Wen was spouting nonsense. It was only natural for him to sign a master-slave contract with Demonic Neonate.

Zhou Wen originally wanted to tell Demonic Neonate how to use the master-slave contract and to warn her to be careful when contracting. If she felt something amiss, she should immediately stop the contractual process.

However, to his surprise, Demonic Neonate seemed to be more familiar with the contract than him. She walked straight to the black cocoon and pressed one hand on it.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 604 - Food Reserve

Chapter 604 Food Reserve

The black cocoon automatically cracked, revealing a ghastly face formed from black smoke. Demonic Neonate pressed her tiny hand on the face.

The entire process felt like a guardian contract reversed. When the contractual process was completed, the black cocoon shattered. The seven white jade hoops that bound the black cocoon fell to the ground with tinkling sounds.

Grim Demon escaped and was like a devil formed from black gas that swept towards Demonic Neonate.

Demonic Neonate glared at him, and Grim Demon immediately stopped in midair, not daring to approach her.

Demonic Neonate held the ancient sword in her arms. As though unwilling, Grim Demon eventually flew towards the ancient sword and transformed into wisps of black gas that fused into it.

In the blink of an eye, the black gas formed by Grim Demon completely fused with the ancient sword, causing the ancient sword to undergo some strange changes. The original purple color became darker. At a glance, one would think it was black, but it was actually a dark-purple color.

There were even more runes on the scabbard, making it look even more mysterious and strange than before.

Zhou Wen watched, dumbfounded. He had never seen a Guardian acting so lowly and submissive. Not only had he signed a master-slave contract, but he didn’t even dare possess her. All he could do was attach himself to the ancient sword.

Demonic Neonate carried the ancient sword and returned to Zhou Wen’s side. “Food reserve… acquired.”

“Alright, save it for now.” Zhou Wen calmed down Demonic Neonate before entering the game to take a look. Indeed, the black cocoon in-game was gone. From the looks of it, all the Guardians had a uniqueness.

The seven white jade hoops on the ground were of unknown use, but Zhou Wen stored them in his chaos space.

After leaving White Cloud Mountain, Zhou Wen rode on a Chi and headed for school while grinding the game dungeons.

It happened to be Golden Battle God Halberd’s respawning time, so Zhou Wen wanted to give it a try. After Demonic Neonate had Grim Demon as a Guardian, how much had her strength increased?

A Guardian’s strength was a mystery to Zhou Wen.

Some of the guardians were very strong, just like the one in Ant City and a Guardian like Fairy Burial. They were very powerful.

However, the six-winged seraphim he had encountered previously seemed very weak on John.

Yet, after the six-winged seraphim left John, he seemed to become much stronger.

Zhou Wen guessed that after the guardians fused with humans, the amount of strength they could produce depended on how strong the human was.

He entered the Metalwork Temple where the Golden Battle God Halberd had just respawned. When it saw Zhou Wen and Demonic Neonate, the tip of the trident immediately lit up.

If it was in the past, Demonic Neonate wouldn’t have dared to face the trident’s golden divine light due to her low level. She would have hidden in the dark and released her sword to deal sneak attacks.

However, this time, the ancient sword in Demonic Neonate’s arms broke out of its scabbard. Its surging black-purple demonic aura blocked the golden beam.

The ancient sword’s body appeared above the Golden Battle God Halberd as if it had teleported, slicing the Golden Battle God Halberd into two.

Although Demonic Neonate’s strength hadn’t increased, her Demonic Sword was much stronger than before. It was able to slice through the Golden Battle God Halberd in one strike. Furthermore, she had won cleanly without any scruples.

Not bad… Not bad… Zhou Wen was delighted. The Demonic Sword’s offensive power had greatly increased, and it also had demonic aura effects. It made it much easier for him to kill Mythical creatures in the future.

After the fusion of the Demonic Sword and Guardian, I still have to slowly study how strong it is. Zhou Wen was in a good mood as he rushed back to school.

Although Zhou Wen was in a good mood, Grim Demon was not in a good mood. He originally imagined that Demonic Neonate would sincerely sign a contract with him. He found it acceptable being a slave Guardian.

However, after hearing Zhou Wen and Demonic Neonate's conversation, Grim Demon's heart turned cold. How was he a slave? They were treating him as food reserves. Who knew when Demonic Neonate would eat him if she wasn't happy?

Grim Demon hated Zhou Wen to the core because he knew that Demonic Neonate definitely wouldn't have such complicated thoughts. It had to be Zhou Wen.

However, there was nothing he could do. All he could do was try his best to showcase himself and please Demonic Neonate. He hoped that he could obtain Demonic Neonate's approval so that she wouldn't eat him up for the sake of it.

And what made Grim Demon feel uneasy was that he often found himself appearing in strange dimensional zones. He had no idea how he had entered them.

What was even more terrifying was the fact that after he died in battle once, he imagined he was doomed. However, before long his consciousness returned to normal, it was as though the death had never happened.

What's going on? Grim Demon was alarmed and afraid. He was constantly on tenterhooks.

Zhou Wen experimented several times and realized that the Grim Demon's ability wasn't as powerful as he had claimed. However, it also allowed the Demonic Sword to reach the level of a top-notch Mythical.

In fact, Zhou Wen didn’t know that the ancient sword possessed by Grim Demon wasn’t strong itself and was only a supplementary tool. As the level of its master, Demonic Neonate, was too low, it limited Grim Demon’s abilities. Grim Demon’s strength wasn’t just limited to this. The result was purely because he was restricted.

After returning to the city, Zhou Wen heard everyone discussing the ranking war.

Most people were discussing which Companion Beast was stronger and which one was weaker. They talked about the rising of Companion Beast rankings yesterday and which Companion Beast was defeated.

Zhou Wen had never heard of many of the Companion Beasts they discussed.

However, the one which was discussed the most was Primordial Sword Immortal. Zhou Wen quickly learned that Primordial Sword Immortal remained at the top of the rankings. After several challenges, none of the Companion Beasts could shake its dominance.

Zhou Wen also had the intention to vie for first place. He wanted to get a divine fruit and feed it to his Companion Beast, but he wasn’t in a rush. There were still three months before the deadline. Zhou Wen still wanted to wait a little longer to see if there were any truly powerful Mythical Companion Beasts that could challenge Primordial Sword Immortal. He wanted to understand Primordial Sword Immortal’s abilities before deciding which Companion Beast to send to fight for first place.

When Zhou Wen returned to school, he realized that it was especially lively. It was actually a farewell party. Another class of students had graduated.

Time really flies. Unknowingly, I’ve already been at Sunset College for a year. Zhou Wen couldn’t help but sigh.

These days, schools didn’t have the long winter and summer vacations like in the past. Vacations were at most around ten days. New students would matriculate, and Zhou Wen and company would be promoted to second years.

“Zhou Wen, I didn’t think I would be able to see you before I leave. I never expected you to rush back in time,” Wei Ge walked over and said to Zhou Wen with a smile.

“Senior, aren’t you staying on campus?” Zhou Wen asked Wei Ge in puzzlement.

Wei Ge smiled and said, “The school wants me to stay, but I rejected it. Before I leave, I have a wish. I wonder if you can help me fulfill it?”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 605 - Hypocritical Facade

Chapter 605 Hypocritical Facade

“What wish? If it’s not too difficult, I can give it a try,” Zhou Wen said.

“It’s nothing difficult. I just want you to help me guess a riddle. Come on.” Wei Ge turned around and led the way.

“Do we still need to go to a special place for guessing riddles?” Zhou Wen asked as he followed behind.

“It took me my entire life to think of such a riddle, so show it some respect. Let’s find a place with the correct atmosphere. It will appear a little ritualistic,” Wei Ge said with a smile.

The two of them arrived at the school’s old campus. Today was convocation. Sunset College didn’t have a commencement ceremony, but there was a convocation ceremony. Students were basically attending the convocation ceremony, leaving the old campus empty.

When they arrived at an empty land, Wei Ge stopped and turned to look at Zhou Wen. “Alright, let’s do it here.”

“What’s your riddle?” Zhou Wen stared at Wei Ge and asked. He naturally understood that Wei Ge’s so-called riddle wasn’t a brain teaser.

“My riddle is actually very simple. Guess which one is real? Which one is fake?” As Wei Ge spoke, he raised his right hand and held a coin between his middle finger and index finger. With a flick, the coin flew towards Zhou Wen.

The coin’s speed was like a meteor, but it wasn’t surprising. Such speed still seemed too slow to Zhou Wen.

However, halfway through, the coin split into two, turning into two coins that flew to Zhou Wen’s sides.

The two coins looked identical. It was impossible to tell which one was real and which one was fake. Even the ripples of air being ripped apart were identical.

Zhou Wen stood still and allowed the two coins to fly past him. This was because he couldn’t tell which coin was real. There was no point in swatting them down.

After the two coins flew past him, they landed on the ground not far away. The coin on the left disappeared, leaving only the coin on the right.

“Senior, you condensed a Life Soul and advanced to the Epic stage?” Zhou Wen looked at Wei Ge in surprise.

Wei Ge nodded and said, “My Life Soul is called Hypocritical Facade. You saw its ability just now, so please help me distinguish which one is the real me. Can you help me tear off that facade?”

With that said, Wei Ge’s figure suddenly moved. He was clearly a single person, but the moment he moved, he split into two and attacked Zhou Wen from both sides.

The speed and strength of the two figures felt very real. It was impossible to tell which was Wei Ge’s real body and which was an illusion.

Zhou Wen moved his feet and dodged Wei Ge’s attack like a ghost. This was because he couldn’t tell which one was the real Wei Ge.

However, this time, the two Wei Ges didn’t vanish. Instead, they split into four. The two Wei Ges transformed into four Wei Ges and attacked Zhou Wen from different directions.

Zhou Wen dodged again. In the next strike, Wei Ge’s figure split into eight and attacked Zhou Wen from all directions, sealing off all his escape routes.

If it were anyone else, they would have no choice but to make a choice. However, Zhou Wen’s movement technique was just amazing, allowing him to pass through the eight Wei Ges.

“As expected of Zhou Wen. Receive my final strike.” Wei Ge’s eyes burned. When the eight figures spoke, they emitted sound waves that made it impossible to tell where the real Wei Ge was.

In the next instant, the eight figures split apart again, transforming into sixteen figures that attacked Zhou Wen again. They sealed off every inch of space, preventing him from dodging.

This time, Zhou Wen didn’t move because he had nowhere to go. Even with his movement technique, it was impossible for him to rush out of this blockade. It was time to make a decision.

Without looking at the sixteen Wei Ges, Zhou Wen closed his eyes and stood rooted to the ground.

The first figure’s fist struck Zhou Wen, but he didn’t move. The figure vanished without a trace. It was only an illusion. It happened a second, a third, and a fourth time. One figure after another struck Zhou Wen in different poses before disappearing one after another.

The fifteen figures vanished. When the last figure charged at Zhou Wen, Zhou Wen finally opened his eyes and moved. However, he didn't look at the figure charging at him. Instead, he turned around.

The last figure slammed into Zhou Wen's back before disappearing.

However, another Wei Ge appeared opposite Zhou Wen.

"How did you discover me?" Wei Ge asked Zhou Wen.

"I didn't discover you. Your illusion is real. I can't tell if it's real or fake," Zhou Wen said.

"Then how did you know that the sixteen phantoms weren't me?" Wei Ge frowned slightly. If Zhou Wen couldn't tell the authenticity of the phantoms, how did he know that the sixteen phantoms weren't his real body?

Zhou Wen smiled and said, "Because I believe in your character."

"What do you mean?" Wei Ge was slightly taken aback as he asked Zhou Wen.

"Because you are a person who likes to play chess. How can a person who likes to play chess treat themselves as a chess piece?" Zhou Wen said seriously.

Wei Ge looked at Zhou Wen in a daze. After a while, he laughed and leaned back, his tears almost flowing out.

"So that's how it is. Life is like a game of chess. What right do I, Wei Ge, have to think that I can transcend a game? I'd forgotten. If I can't enter the game, what right do I have to influence it?" Wei Ge wiped away his smile and looked at Zhou Wen solemnly. “I’m leaving. I’m going to the capital and starting from the smallest chess piece. If there’s a day when I can change the development of the game, I hope I have the chance to ask you again to guess my riddle.”

“Are you really not staying?” Zhou Wen asked.

Wei Ge didn’t answer. He turned around and left. As he walked, he said, “It’s a pleasure to play chess with other humans, but it will be a bitter battle playing chess with the heavens. In my lifetime, if I am lucky to barely defeat the heavens, it will be enough for me.”

Zhou Wen stood there motionless as he watched Wei Ge leave.

As a chess piece, one can’t even control their fate. Can one really break out of this situation? Zhou Wen didn’t know the answer as he couldn’t help but feel vexed.

Jiang Yan, Zhong Ziya, Hui Haifeng, Wang Lu, Zhang Yuzhi, and Wei Ge were all outstanding people of the present era, but they had no choice but to head to a future they didn’t know of under the influence of fate.

Sunset College’s convocation ceremony was more like a farewell before a warrior went to the battlefield. After leaving the school gates, the students would face the battlefield of life which had no regularity. No one could protect them. Their life and death were in their hands.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 606 - Freshmen Matriculation

Chapter 606 Freshmen Matriculation

When Zhou Wen returned to his dorm, he saw that there were many boxes in the living room. They were likely to be the things Li Xuan had sent over. Apart from him, only Li Xuan and An Sheng had the key to his place. An Sheng probably didn’t have the time to come over.

Bam! Bam!

Zhou Wen had just entered when he suddenly felt two heavy blows on the back of his head. He fell to the ground as his vision turned black.

Alarmed, he didn’t know who could sneak an attack on him without him noticing.

He forced himself to charge forward and make a counterattack.

However, when he turned around, he realized that it was the antelope standing behind him, looking at him angrily. The chick was standing on the door frame, looking at him unhappily.

Oh no… In the past, because Wang Lu was around, I didn’t need to pay attention to the two of them when I was out. They would run to Wang Lu by themselves. Now that she’s gone, they have nowhere to go! How could I have forgotten about this… Zhou Wen shivered when he saw the angry expressions on the antelope and chick. He hurriedly said with a smile, “Don’t be angry. I went out this time to especially gather delicacies for you. This is something I found for you…”

As Zhou Wen spoke, he searched his body, but he obviously hadn’t prepared anything for the antelope and chick. He failed to find anything despite searching all day.

With an idea in mind, Zhou Wen took out the beef jerky he had prepared from the Chaos Bead. This was part of his food reserves. Zhou Wen planned on eating them when he was trapped in certain places. They were all high-quality goods that were rather expensive. Now, he had no choice but to take them out.

Seeing the antelope and chick eat the bag of dried meat, Zhou Wen couldn’t help but feel his heart ache. He didn’t have many savings left.

Although he had plenty of Essence Crystals, they hadn’t been exchanged for money. Zhou Wen was still a pauper and the remaining money had been used to buy items for The Thearch.

Zhou Wen opened the boxes and carefully checked them. Indeed, it was the items he had asked Li Xuan to buy. The quantity was right.

He called Li Xuan and told him that he had returned and had received the items.

The two chatted for a while before Zhou Wen realized that the antelope and chick hadn’t starved during his absence. An Sheng had been delivering food to them.

Damned antelope. Since you aren’t hungry, why did you hit me? Zhou Wen glared at the antelope, but he didn’t dare say it out loud.

In the past, he had believed that the antelope was an Epic creature, but he was already considered one of the best at the Epic stage. The fact that the antelope could still secretly hoove him twice meant that this fellow definitely wasn’t as simple as an Epic creature.

This fellow is definitely at the Mythical stage, and it’s not any ordinary Mythical stage creature. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to have such high intelligence. What motives does he have for following me? Zhou Wen was puzzled.

When the antelope followed him, he was still weak. He really couldn’t figure out what it liked about him.

…

The battles on the Companion Beast rankings continued, but most of them were Mythical pets that challenged each other on the rankings. The rankings just shifted and there were very few new Companion Beasts on the list.

As Zhou Wen grinded dungeons, he studied his Life Soul and the First Order of Chaos. He lived a very fulfilling life.

In the blink of an eye, it was time for the freshmen to matriculate. Li Xuan pulled Zhou Wen and company along and set up a stall with the other clubs to recruit new members.

However, the other clubs’ recruitment stands were surrounded by many freshmen, but Zhou Wen and company didn’t even have a single student patronizing their stall.

Even when students passed by, they quickly sped up after taking a look.

Zhou Wen, Li Xuan, and Gu Dian sat in a row behind a table. Li Xuan leaned lazily against the chair and dug his nose. Zhou Wen lowered his head as he gamed. Gu Dian wore a serious expression as he sat there, waiting for the freshmen to make inquiries. However, with his forbidding looks, the freshmen were afraid of him. They didn't dare come over and fled in fright when Gu Dian took a glance at them.

Therefore, Zhou Wen and company's bleakness formed a stark contrast with the popular clubs around them. It was as though they were a vacuum.

"I hereby announce that from today onwards, I, Gulli, will be the king of Sunset College. If you aren't convinced, step forward." A clear voice came from the school's entrance, causing the noisy school gates to fall silent.

The freshmen looked in the direction of the school's entrance and saw a handsome, tall, brown-haired youth standing on the steps of a memorial wall. He looked like the king of the world as he raised his head and loudly announced that the world belonged to him.

However, very quickly, most of the people's attention was attracted to a girl beside him.

The girl was wearing a white dress. She was tall, but her face was exquisite like an angel's. She had long blond hair and green eyes. She looked like she had walked out of an oil painting.

"What excellence. I never expected our school to have such an excellent junior. If we can woo her, I'm afraid others will die of envy," Li Xuan said as he looked at the girl.

Li Xuan was only joking, but many people had already taken action. The freshmen were still very reserved, but the seniors had already mastered the ability to be shameless. This was especially so for the old foxes of the clubs. All of them held their club’s recruitment notices and ran over to the girl, inviting her to join their club. They also asked for the girl’s name and so on. If it wasn’t to maintain their images as seniors, they would have even asked for her vital statistics.

Gulli was originally very satisfied that he had attracted the attention of all the students, but he soon realized that no one was paying any attention to him. Everyone was surrounding the girl, causing the corners of his eyes to twitch. His aura seemed to have become very strange.

This was Sunset College. The older students were already accustomed to it, so how could they care about a freshman like Gulli? They thought nothing of him.

“Get out of the way. We aren’t joining any clubs.” Gulli had no choice but to jump down the stairs and part the crowd around the girl, pushing away the enthusiastic seniors.

The girl’s attitude was friendly, but it was obvious that her thoughts weren’t on those people. She scanned the crowd and when she saw Zhou Wen, she immediately stared at him as though she had found her prey.

“He’s there,” the girl said to Gulli.

Gulli traced the girl’s gaze and saw Zhou Wen. He opened up a path from the crowd of seniors and walked towards Zhou Wen and company.

The girl followed behind Gulli and also walked towards Zhou Wen and company.

Some of the seniors had originally planned on pestering them, but when they saw them walk towards Zhou Wen and company, they could only stop and watch from afar in dismay.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 607 - Little Brother Who Came For Zhou Wen

Chapter 607 Little Brother Who Came For Zhou Wen

Gulli walked to the table and took out his phone. Then, he opened the photo album and found a photo. He looked at it before looking at Zhou Wen. After confirming it, he put away his phone and said to Zhou Wen, “You are the strongest student at Sunset College, Zhou Wen, right? I, Gulli, want to challenge you. Let’s go to the training grounds.”

Li Xuan looked at Gulli with interest, but he didn’t say a word.

Zhou Wen put down his phone and sized up Gulli. “You’ve got the wrong person.”

“The wrong person?” Gulli was taken aback when he heard that. He hurriedly took out his phone and quickly tapped on the photo to compare it with Zhou Wen before saying to Zhou Wen, “Don’t try to lie to me. The person in the photo is clearly you.”

With that said, Gulli rotated his phone to let Zhou Wen take a look at the photo.

Zhou Wen glanced at the photo. It really was him, but it didn’t look like the photo he had taken recently. The clothes were probably the ones he wore when he went to the Holy Land.

“You really have got the wrong person. Take a closer look. The person in the photo has longer hair than me. Furthermore, his pupils are pure black. My pupils are a little brownish-black. Take a closer look. Our facial features are somewhat different,” Zhou Wen said to Gulli.

Upon hearing Zhou Wen’s words, Gulli took a closer look and felt that it was indeed a little different.

In fact, everyone’s photos were slightly different from the person. This was normal.

“Sis, it looks like we got the wrong person,” Gulli said to the beautiful girl.

The girl rolled her eyes at him and said to Zhou Wen, “To be able to defeat a genius like Lance, I thought Zhou Wen was really an impressive figure. But he’s just a coward who doesn’t even dare recognize his name.”

“You know Lance?” Zhou Wen asked the girl.

“My name is Sadie. This is my younger brother, Gulli. Lance is our cousin,” the girl said.

“So it’s Lance’s cousins. Welcome to Sunset College to study. If there’s anything you aren’t used to, feel free to look for me. I’ll try my best to help you within my capabilities.” Although Zhou Wen and Lance were rivals before, Zhou Wen was still very impressed with Lance’s character.

Furthermore, Lance had once helped them leave Holy City. It was only right for him to take care of his cousins.

“Are you really Zhou Wen? Why did you lie?” Gulli stared at Zhou Wen angrily.

Li Xuan said with a smile, “He’s Zhou Wen, but his name isn’t the strongest student at Sunset College, Zhou Wen. Therefore, he’s not lying.”

“Humph, cut the crap. I want to defeat you and avenge Lance,” Gulli said as he stared at Zhou Wen.

“Even Lance lost. Do you think you are stronger than Lance?” Li Xuan asked.

“Lance is naturally the strongest. Zhou Wen was only lucky to defeat him. If you battle again, Lance will definitely win. I will definitely win as well,” Gulli said confidently.

“I see. Seeing how confident you are, I believe you can defeat Zhou Wen. However, Sunset College forbids private duels. Even if you don’t care about being expelled, Zhou Wen won’t fight you,” Li Xuan said with a smile.

Gulli immediately frowned. “Why would Sunset College have such a rule? Wouldn’t that mean our special admission into Sunset College was a waste of time?”

“That’s not the case. Seeing how confident you are, your abilities definitely can’t be bad. I also believe that you can definitely defeat Zhou Wen. To be honest, I’ve long found Zhou Wen an eyesore. Unfortunately, I’m no match for him, so I might as well help you. See this? You and your sister can fill in this application form and sign it. Then, you can join our Xuanwen Club. The Xuanwen Club is a formal club approved by the school. The club’s members are free to spar. You can use the opportunity to defeat Zhou Wen. This way, Zhou Wen and you won’t be punished. He has no way of rejecting the sparring either.”

With that said, Li Xuan stuffed the two application forms into Gulli’s hand. He patted his shoulder and said, “Junior, this is all I can do for you. Whether or not you can help Lance avenge his humiliation depends on you."

"Are you sure I can challenge Zhou Wen this way?" Gulli asked Li Xuan in disbelief.

"Of course. After joining the club, you'll definitely be able to spar with Zhou Wen. If not, I'll stand there and let you beat me until you are satisfied," Li Xuan said as he patted his chest.

"Alright, I'll be joining." Gulli leaned against the table and began filling in the form.

"Junior Sadie, you also wish to challenge Zhou Wen, right? Fill it out together." Li Xuan handed the other application form to Sadie.

Sadie glanced at Li Xuan as though she had seen through him. However, Li Xuan didn't mind as he continued smiling at her.

Sadie didn't say anything. She picked up the pen on the table and filled in the application form before signing her name.

"Congratulations to the two of you for becoming new members of our Xuanwen Club." After receiving their application forms, he extended his hand out to Sadie.

However, Sadie ignored him and looked at Zhou Wen. "Can we challenge you now?"

"Of course, but you can't do it here, right? Go to your dorms and settle down first. I'll arrange the time and venue for you. Don't worry. With me around, I guarantee that you will have plenty of time to spar with Zhou Wen…" Li Xuan warmly helped Sadie take her luggage and took them to the matriculation booth.

When members from the other clubs saw that Sadie had been pulled into the Xuanwen Club, they secretly pounded their chests and stamped their feet. Their hearts ached for such a beautiful woman. She had actually entered a beast's nest.

Once Li Xuan left, there was no need for Zhou Wen and Gu Dian to stay. They couldn't recruit new members at all.

With Li Xuan handling them, Zhou Wen didn't pay any attention to this matter. He returned to continue grinding his game dungeons.

...

The next morning, after Gulli and Sadie finished their matriculation procedures, they contacted Li Xuan to arrange the duel with Zhou Wen.

Li Xuan agreed and got Gulli and Shady to wait for him at the training grounds.

Gulli and Sadie arrived at the training grounds. After waiting for a while, they saw Li Xuan bring a boy over. He looked handsome, but he wasn't Zhou Wen.

"Li Xuan, where's Zhou Wen?" Gulli asked with a frown.

"Calm down. Let me introduce him to you. This student's surname is Feng. He is under the tutelage of Zhou Wen and has learned a few saber techniques. I especially invited him over to let you take a look at his saber techniques so that you will have a basic understanding of Zhou Wen. This way, when you challenge him again, your chances of winning will be much higher," Li Xuan said.

"There's no need. Our strength is enough to defeat Zhou Wen. We don't have to waste time on this," Gulli rejected.

"It's not a big deal taking a look first. I've long found Zhou Wen an eyesore. I sincerely hope that you can beat him. Don't you disappoint me," Li Xuan said as he waved at Feng Qiuyan. "Little Yanyan, spar with Junior Gulli. Use everything you learned from Zhou Wen. Don't disappoint him."

Feng Qiuyan walked silently to the training grounds' arena. Gulli felt that Li Xuan had good intentions and couldn't reject him. Seeing Sadie nod, he walked into the arena.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 608 - Stalking

Chapter 608 Stalking

“I’ll give you a one-hand handicap. Come.” Gulli didn’t pick a weapon from the training rack. He extended his hand and hooked his hand at Feng Qiuyan, gesturing for him to attack.

Feng Qiuyan didn’t stand on ceremony. He picked up a practice saber from the rack, walked to Gulli, and slashed.

Gulli and Lance came from the same family. Among his peers, he was only impressed with Lance. He couldn’t accept the fact that Lance had been defeated by Zhou Wen. He and Sadie shared the same thoughts. They had entered Sunset College together to right Lance’s reputation.

Gulli’s strength was not bad. He wasn’t much weaker than Lance from a year ago. He naturally didn’t take the unknown Feng Qiuyan seriously.

However, when Feng Qiuyan’s saber was unsheathed, his aura instantly exploded as though he had changed into a different person. Gulli’s expression changed drastically as his body tensed up. He quickly moved, hoping to dodge Feng Qiuyan’s saber.

However, just as Gulli raised his toes, Feng Qiuyan’s practice saber was already at his neck. Gulli’s expression turned extremely ugly.

“Who are you?” Now Gulli didn’t believe that Feng Qiuyan was some nobody who had randomly learned a few saber techniques from Zhou Wen.

“I’m Feng Qiuyan. I learned a few mediocre saber techniques from Coach Zhou Wen. I look forward to our fight,” Feng Qiuyan said as he retracted his saber.

Gulli’s gaze focused as he suddenly attacked to catch Feng Qiuyan by surprise.

However, just as he raised his fist, Feng Qiuyan’s saber was pressed against his neck again. It was so fast that he couldn’t see the saber’s shadow.

Gulli refused to accept it as he pushed away the practice saber and attacked again. However, Feng Qiuyan moved slightly and dodged his fist. At the same time, the practice saber was placed on his neck.

Gulli was alarmed and furious. Feng Qiuyan was about the same age as him, but his saber techniques were so fast that he couldn’t even dodge them. If it was a true life-and-death battle, he wouldn’t have enough limbs for him to cleave off even if he had three heads and six arms.

“Gulli, that’s enough.” Sadie stopped Gulli from continuing the battle. She could tell that Gulli was obviously inferior to Feng Qiuyan. It would be impossible for him to win.

“Your surname is Feng. Are you from the capital’s Feng family or the Sea Return’s Feng family?” Gulli retreated to the side as Sadie asked Feng Qiuyan.

“The Sea Return’s Feng family,” Feng Qiuyan answered.

“With the Sea Return Feng family producing a saber genius like you, there’s hope for it to take back the Divine Wind Blade and become the main Feng family,” said Sadie.

“You’re too kind. My saber techniques aren’t much. I just learned a little from Coach,” Feng Qiuyan said indifferently when he saw that Sadie had no intention of attacking. He placed the practice saber back on the rack.

“Did you really learn your saber techniques from Zhou Wen?” Sadie didn’t believe Feng Qiuyan’s words.

He and Gulli had watched the video of Zhou Wen and Lance’s battle. Zhou Wen would probably not have been a match for Feng Qiuyan back then.

In less than a year, no matter how fast Zhou Wen improved, it was impossible for him to be stronger than Feng Qiuyan. How could he teach Feng Qiuyan such saber techniques?

“Yes,” Feng Qiuyan answered before saying to Li Xuan, “President, I’ll be heading back now. I’ve got an appointment with Coach to do a homework mission together.”

“Little Yanyan, go back now.” Li Xuan sent Feng Qiuyan away with a smile before sighing at Gulli and Sadie. “You can’t even defeat Feng Qiuyan, so how are you going to challenge Zhou Wen? From the looks of it, I can only let that fellow continue his arrogant ways. It’s really heart-wrenching!”

Gulli was momentarily disappointed. Feng Qiuyan’s absolute suppression had already made him lose his confidence.

“However, you don’t have to be too disheartened. Our club still has many activities. When the time comes, you will still have the chance to continue learning and growing. Zhou Wen will often participate in activities. Work hard, and there’s still a chance of defeating him. I think highly of you.” As Li Xuan spoke, he picked up his phone and looked at it. “Alright, that’s all for today. I’ll inform you when the club has an activity.”

“Sis, it’s no wonder Zhou Wen defeated Lance. The disciples he taught are so strong. He must be stronger,” Gulli said in disappointment.

However, Sadie curled her lips and said, “Gulli, you are too gullible. It’s too easy for you to be deceived. Feng Qiuyan’s saber technique already has the inklings of a master saber expert. Even among the six families, there aren’t many people with such saber techniques. How can Zhou Wen teach such a person? It’s more like him teaching Zhou Wen.”

“But Feng Qiuyan said it himself…” Before Gulli could finish, Sadie interrupted him.

Sadie said firmly, “The more that’s the case, the more problematic it is. If Zhou Wen is really that strong, why didn’t he accept the challenge himself? It’s clearly because he’s afraid of losing to us that he joined forces with Li Xuan and Feng Qiuyan to put up such a show for us. It’s to make us give up on challenging him.”

“I see. I was almost fooled by him. Let’s go find Zhou Wen. We can’t let him run again no matter what.” Gulli’s eyes gradually lit up.

However, when he turned his head, Gulli frowned again. “But how can we find Zhou Wen? We have no idea where he lives.”

“That’s not difficult. Didn’t Feng Qiuyan say that he has an appointment with Zhou Wen? As long as we follow Feng Qiuyan, we will definitely be able to find him,” Sadie said indifferently.

“That’s right. With your Eye of Odin, it’ll be easy to keep up with Feng Qiuyan. Let’s go now,” Gulli said as he walked out.

The two of them left the training grounds. Sadie's eyes suffused a faint blue light as she led the way. Soon, the two of them arrived at Dragon Gate Grotto. From afar, they saw Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan enter a cave together.

"I see them. They are there. Zhou Wen is indeed here," Gulli said as he pointed to where Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan had entered.

Sadie nodded and the two of them arrived in front of the cave. She carefully sized up the cave and said, "This should be the Lotus Flower Cave in Dragon Gate Grotto. There are Legendary Flying Beasts and Epic Fairy-type dimensional creatures inside. With Feng Qiuyan's strength, the Flying Beasts aren't challenging him. I reckon they are here to kill the Fairies."

"It doesn't matter what they kill. They just happened to enter a dimensional zone. Let's chase after them and fight Zhou Wen. As long as we defeat him, it doesn't matter even if we get expelled. After all, we came here to defeat him," said Gulli as he quickly walked towards Lotus Flower Cave. Sadie followed closely behind.

Zhou Wen had been invited by Feng Qiuyan to Lotus Flower Cave. As Feng Qiuyan had discovered a Mutated Fairy there, he had invited Zhou Wen to kill it.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 609 - Slaying Fairies

Chapter 609 Slaying Fairies

The last time Zhou Wen came to kill the Mutated Fairy, he was with Jiang Yan, Zhong Ziya, and Hui Haifeng. Now, the three of them were scattered across the world. He did not know if there would come a day when the four of them would reunite.

“The Mutated Fairy is inside. I’ll be in charge of restraining the Flying Beasts and ordinary Fairies later. I’ll leave the Mutated Fairy to you, Coach,” Feng Qiuyan said.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen nodded slightly.

The two of them walked into one of the caves. Sadie and Gulli also arrived nearby. When they saw Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan walk into the cave, Gulli wanted to chase after them, but he was stopped by Sadie.

“Wait a moment.” After grabbing Gulli, Sadie looked in the direction of the cave that Zhou Wen had entered. An eye suddenly flew out of her eye socket and vanished as though it had teleported.

Sadie had one eye closed, but her other opened eye shot out a light beam that formed a three-dimensional projection in front of her. It was a scene of Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan.

In the projection, they were facing a group of Flying Beasts. There were at least a few hundred of them. There were also more than a dozen of Fairies, as well as a mutated black-and-white Fairy.

“So many Fairies. Can the two of them deal with so many Fairies?” Gulli asked while looking at the three-dimensional projection.

“Coach, I’ll pave the way for you,” Feng Qiuyan said as he drew his saber to meet the incoming Flying Beasts.

“There’s no need. Didn’t you invite me over to see me take action? Leave it to me.” Zhou Wen knew very well.

If Feng Qiuyan really wanted him to kill the Mutated Fairy, he would definitely try his best. It was impossible for him to seek his help. The reason he had invited him wasn’t to kill the Mutated Fairy at all.

“As expected, nothing can escape your eyes, Coach,” Feng Qiuyan said.

“Then just watch.” Zhou Wen held the Bamboo Blade in hand as he stared at the Flying Beasts and Fairies that rushed over like a swath of dark clouds. However, his focus wasn’t on them. Instead, he passed through the beast horde and stared at the Mutated Fairy floating in the sky.

“What is he trying to do? To fight so many dimensional creatures alone, even an Epic wouldn’t be able to escape unscathed, right?” Gulli said.

“Wait until everything is over,” said Sadie.

Seeing the horde of Flying Beasts and Fairies rush towards Zhou Wen and about to lunge at him, Feng Qiuyan, who was standing beside him, took two steps back as though he really didn’t plan on helping.

Just as Gulli and Sadie were wondering how Zhou Wen was going to deal with the group of Flying Beasts and Fairies, Zhou Wen finally unsheathed his saber.

A saber beam flashed but Gulli and Sadie only saw the flash dissipate. Before they could see the blade, it had already returned to its sheath.

The Flying Beasts and Fairies that filled the sky didn’t seem to be affected as they charged at Zhou Wen.

“What the hell? It’s useless,” Gulli muttered.

However, in the next second, the Flying Beasts and Fairies were split in half. Hundreds of Flying Beasts spewed out blood as their dismembered corpses fell.

More than ten Fairies were covered in blood, their bodies beheaded. Even a hundred meters away, the Mutated Fairy who hadn’t charged over had its head chopped off.

Instantly, blood splattered everywhere in the cave; not a single Flying Beast or Fairy survived.

Gulli and Sadie’s expressions changed drastically as though someone had stabbed them in the heart. Their faces turned pale and a cold sweat broke out on their foreheads.

The two of them exchanged looks before retreating. They slowly walked out of Lotus Flower Cave.

After exiting Lotus Flower Cave, Gulli took a deep breath and wiped away the cold sweat on his forehead. He asked Sadie in bewilderment, “Sis, did you see how he slashed out just now?”

“It was too fast. I didn’t see it clearly, but it’s alright. I have the Eye of Odin. I’ll take my time to have a look when I get back.” It was unknown when the eye that flew out had returned to Sadie’s eye socket.

When the two of them entered their dormitory, Sadie closed the door and windows. Only then did her eyes glow with blue light. The light that shot out formed a three-dimensional projection.

The projection was the scene of Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan in the cave. The scene was like a video that was played by Sadie’s eyes.

At the moment Zhou Wen drew his saber, Sadie slowed down the projection. The Flying Beasts’ actions slowed down, but they could only see a saber flash. Before they could see what the saber in Zhou Wen’s hand looked like, it had already returned to its scabbard.

“Impossible… How can it be so fast… Even if he has advanced to the Epic stage… it’s impossible for him to advance so quickly…” Gulli’s face was filled with disbelief.

Sadie’s expression was solemn, but she didn’t say anything. She slowed down the speed of the projection once again. This time, after slowing down, the Flying Beasts’ movements were jittery as it reeled forward frame by frame.

This time, they finally saw Zhou Wen’s strike clearly. The saber was like a stream of light, but in fact, it wasn’t just a saber.

Zhou Wen’s body leaned forward as he drew his saber. Instantly, he flew up with the saber and drew an arc as he shuttled through the Fairy beast horde.

Under such slow replay speeds, he remained so fast that it left them dazzled. The saber beam streaked across the Flying Beasts and Fairies’ bodies like lightning before finally slashing across the Mutated Fairy’s neck. After completing a circle, Zhou Wen returned to his original spot. The saber returned to its scabbard as though he had never moved.

The entire process looked pleasing to the eye. The entire process was smooth, as though it was an agile and speedy flash of lightning.

Gulli broke out into a cold sweat as he looked at Sadie with a stiff neck. “Sis, how slow was your Eye of Odin’s replay speed?”

“Seven times,” Sadie replied with a strange expression.

“Impossible!” Upon hearing this answer, Gulli immediately shouted. “When your Eye of Odin lowers the speed by two times, the fastest Legendary expert will become as slow as a snail. At the speed of four times, even an Epic stage will also be like a turtle crawl. At the speed of six times, even a top Epic expert who focuses on speed will become like a super slow motion scene. How can his saber technique and movement technique be so fast at a seven times slowdown? Even if he’s already a top Epic, it’s impossible for him to have such a fast saber and movement technique.”

“Yes, it’s indeed impossible. The Eye of Odin was slowed down seven times. Only the speed of a Mythical stage expert can produce such an effect,” said Sadie.

“How can he be at the Mythical stage? Impossible. Sis, are you mistaken?” How could Gulli believe that Zhou Wen, who was less than two years older than him, be at the Mythical stage?

“It’s impossible for my Eye of Odin to make a mistake. Of course, it’s impossible for him to be at the Mythical stage. Then, there’s only one possibility left. He trained his saber technique to become a divine technique, which is why he has such a fast speed,” Sadie said with a burning gaze.

“Divine saber technique!” Gulli was stunned. This answer was still unacceptable to him, but he knew very well that Sadie’s Eye of Odin couldn’t be wrong.

They had originally come here to right Lance’s reputation. Although Gulli hadn’t advanced to the Epic stage, he was already very close. As for Sadie, she had advanced to the Epic stage and obtained the Life Soul, Eye of Odin, which was almost like a bug in computer programs.

Gulli originally believed that no matter how strong Zhou Wen was, even if he could defeat him, he was definitely not Sadie’s match.

But now, he felt endless despair. A person who had mastered a divine technique at the Epic stage, and him being only seventeen years old—just the thought of it left him dizzy.

Even in the history of the six families, there had never been such a terrifying person.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 610 - Golden Overlord Sword

610 Golden Overlord Sword

Ding!

A crisp sound came from the phone. Zhou Wen saw an item drop in-game and nearly jumped out of bed.

After returning yesterday, Zhou Wen had spent the entire night grinding dungeons. When he finally killed the Golden Battle God Halberd in the morning, a Companion Egg dropped for the third time.

Is the drop rate for the Golden Battle God Halberd that high? Zhou Wen looked at the three identical halberds with slightly different stats and skills. He felt a little depressed.

An additional Mythical Companion Beast was indeed able to greatly enhance Zhou Wen’s strength. However, when facing different situations, the same Companion Beast’s ability made for weaker adaptation.

When restrained, the same Companion Beasts would be restrained together. They would be limited and prevent him from adapting to the situation.

However, for fusion, there’s no suitable Companion Beast to fuse with the Golden Battle God Halberd. Zhou Wen matched his Companion Beasts with the Golden Battle God Halberd again.

In the final match, the compatibility between Overlord Sword and Golden Battle God Halberd was the highest, but it was only 41%. With less than 50% fusion compatibility, the chances of a fusion success were very low.

The only fusion plan with a high compatibility score was the Golden Battle God Halberd and the Golden Battle God Halberd. However, the most important function of the Golden Battle God Halberd was its Life Soul—Golden Divine Light—and Unstoppable.

With these two abilities, the Golden Battle God Halberd's effects could already be considered to be at its peak. Even if he could enhance its attributes or have a few more skills after fusion, the main functions of the Golden Battle God Halberd wouldn't have any qualitative improvement. It would be better to keep two Golden Battle God Halberds so that he could be stronger in battle.

I already have three Golden Battle God Halberds. I can take the gamble with one. With 41% compatibility, the chances of success can't be considered very low. If the Golden Battle God Halberd can fuse with Overlord Sword's abilities, the best outcome will be having two skills—Unstoppable and Ever-Victorious—at the same time. Then, releasing sword beams being augmented by these two skills, that would be really impressive. However, this is only the best outcome. Ignoring the possibility of fusion failure, even if the fusion succeeds, it might not turn out the way I wish. The skills may be retained, but the Life Providence and Life Soul can also be changed. It might not be able to retain its Mythical stage… After some consideration, Zhou Wen decided to give it a try.

Since Overlord Sword isn't of much use anymore and I have three Golden Divine Battle Halberds, so be it if I lose one.

Zhou Wen didn’t hold much hope as he placed the Golden Battle God Halberd and Overlord Sword together into the fusion column before clicking on fusion.

The two Companion Beasts emitted light at the same time before fusing into one, turning the entire screen into a snow-white glow. When the light gradually dissipated, a new Companion Beast appeared in front of Zhou Wen.

I succeeded… Zhou Wen was delighted as he sized up the Companion Beast.

As the two were already incubated Companion Beasts, the newly fused Companion Beast was affected by the two Companion Beasts, causing a change in appearance.

Zhou Wen’s first impression was that it was a tycoon with a shiny, golden blade. However, this blade was extremely odd. From its appearance, it looked like a greatsword.

However, two short blades protruded from the two sides of the greatsword’s hilt. They were like two side blades of the trident, making it look both like a greatsword or a mutated trident.

After pulling out the information on the new Companion Beast, Zhou Wen carefully looked at its stats.

Golden Overlord Sword: Mythical

Life Providence: Sword Sovereign of God

Life Soul: Golden Sword Aura

Wheel of Destiny: Benevolence of the Battle God

Strength: 79

Speed: 72

Constitution: 79

Essence Energy: 68

Talent Skill: Ever-Victorious, Fangwheel Sword Flash

Companion Form: Golden Greatsword

Zhou Wen frowned slightly. It looked like its stats weren't bad and it seemed to have fused well in all aspects, but it lacked an important skill—Unstoppable—a skill that came with Golden Battle God Halberd.

Furthermore, he did not know if the Golden Sword Aura's effect could be compared to the Golden Divine Light.

Zhou Wen took the golden greatsword to try it in-game and realized that the Golden Sword Aura could actually be shot out as a Fangwheel Sword Flash. Furthermore, its might wasn't inferior to the Golden Divine Light.

It was just that it lacked Unstoppable skill. Its destructive power was slightly weaker, but with Ever-Victorious's augmentation, it was not too much weaker.

Although the Golden Overlord Sword's stats and skills were slightly inferior to the Golden Battle God Halberd, its Golden Sword Aura could be released. This was a qualitative leap, raising Zhou Wen's combat ability. If he had to choose out of the two, Zhou Wen would still choose the Golden Overlord Sword.

Looking at the Golden Battle God Halberd Companion Egg that hadn't hatched, Zhou Wen matched it with the Golden Overlord Sword and realized that the compatibility was higher than before. It was as high as 69%.

With the Golden Battle God Halberd Companion Egg as a supplementary ingredient, I can strengthen it without changing the Golden Overlord Sword's foundation. However, I wonder how much it can increase. It would be great if I could fuse Unstoppable into it. Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and placed the Golden Battle God Halberd Companion Egg on it again. He decided to fuse it again.

Although the Golden Overlord Sword was already very powerful, Zhou Wen felt that something was missing without Unstoppable.

It had to be said that Zhou Wen had some perfectionist inclinations.

Seeing the light engulf the Golden Overlord Sword and Companion Egg, Zhou Wen couldn't help but feel nervous. Although the success rate was close to 70%, Zhou Wen had previously failed at a higher success rate. Failure wasn't impossible.

My heart is in a mess. I need to blank my mind… Just as the fusion began, his phone suddenly rang. It gave Zhou Wen a fright. He picked up his phone and saw that it was Wang Lu's number.

"What are you doing? Why did you take so long to answer the call?" Wang Lu's voice sounded from the phone.

"I'm gaming," Zhou Wen answered. He turned his head and saw that the fusion had ended. The Golden Overlord Sword was still there and hadn't disappeared.

“Can’t you have other activities other than gaming?” Wang Lu said unhappily.

“I don’t want to move,” Zhou Wen answered.

Wang Lu knew that Zhou Wen wasn’t a talkative person, but she still felt indignant. After calming herself down, she continued, “I’ve successfully advanced to the Epic stage. However, due to the problem of cultivating my Essence Energy Art, I’ve degenerated to the Mortal stage. I need time to recultivate again. I won’t be able to return to school anytime soon. When I wasn’t around, the antelope and Little Feifei must have suffered quite a lot. You must have forgotten to feed them. Do you now know that it’s impossible without me?”

“Not at all. When I wasn’t around, An Sheng would feed them. They had plenty of good food to eat,” Zhou Wen answered.

“Goodbye.” Wang Lu decisively hung up. She felt that if she continued chatting, she would be infuriated by Zhou Wen.

Why did you hang up on me? Zhou Wen put down his phone and looked at the post-fusion stats of the Golden Overlord Sword.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 611 - Competition for the Top Rank

Chapter 611 Competition for the Top Rank

Golden Overlord Sword: Mythical

Life Providence: Sword Sovereign of God

Life Soul: Golden Sword Aura

Wheel of Destiny: Benevolence of the Battle God

Strength: 80

Speed: 76

Constitution: 80

Essence Energy: 78

Talent Skill: Ever-Victorious, Unstoppable, Fangwheel Sword Flash, Battle God’s Radiance.

Companion Form: Golden Greatsword

Zhou Wen was delighted when he saw this. Not only was Unstoppable retained, but he had also gained Golden Battle God Halberd’s Battle God’s Radiance. It was an AOE skill, and it was pretty good.

Furthermore, its stats had increased significantly. It could be considered a top-notch Mythical Companion Beast.

Zhou Wen entered the game with the Golden Overlord Sword. Together with his divine skill, Transcendent Flying Immortal, killing dimensional creatures was simple. Even Mythical creatures couldn't withstand its sharpness.

I'm better with swords at the end of the day. The Golden Battle God Halberd's Golden Divine Light couldn't be released, so it was quite flawed. Zhou Wen compared the Golden Battle God Halberd to the Golden Overlord Sword and immediately gave up on the Golden Battle God Halberd, letting it attack in its own form.

"Old Zhou, quick! Check out the livestream." Zhou Wen was still immersed in the joy of the success of the Golden Overlord Sword's fusion when Li Xuan suddenly sent a message.

"What livestream?" Zhou Wen replied.

"It's the cube's ranking. The second-ranked Death of the Underworld is challenging the number one Primordial Sword Immortal. Holy sh*t, Primordial Sword Immortal has accepted the challenge. Quick, take a look," Li Xuan replied.

Zhou Wen hurriedly opened the webpage and immediately saw all kinds of headlines. They were all live-streaming the battle. He randomly clicked on one and the scene that popped up on his phone was that of the cube's arena. Death of the Underworld and Primordial Sword Immortal floated on both sides of the arena.

The battle between the two Companion Beasts alarmed the entire world. It wasn't just the Federation, but even overseas spectators were watching the battle closely.

Death of the Underworld was first on the rankings in the beginning but was relegated to second because of Primordial Sword Immortal. Ever since then, despite many Companion Beasts joining the rankings, none shook their rankings. From this, it could be seen that these two Companion Beasts were extremely terrifying by the cube's standards.

Strange, how can Death of the Underworld be challenging Primordial Sword Immortal? Zhou Wen was puzzled.

An Sheng had told him that Death of the Underworld was likely a Companion Beast of a West District hero family. However, the tradition of the family was somewhat different from ordinary families. They didn't have any last names. This was similar to Lance's family from the North District. Neither family had a fixed last name.

Typically, people liked to use the Family Clan of Gods to address the West District's family clan. As for Lance's family clan, it was named the Ultimate Family Clan.

Death of the Underworld was one of the top Mythical Companion Beasts in the Family Clan of Gods. Across the six families, there weren't many Mythical Companion Beasts of this level.

Zhou Wen originally believed that the Family Clan of Gods would definitely leave Death of the Underworld to the end before attempting to race to the top of the rankings. He never expected them to take action so quickly.

An Sheng had also once determined that the vile characters overseas couldn't hold back and would end up probing Primordial Sword Immortal's strength first. Clearly, his judgment was wrong.

It wasn't just Zhou Wen and An Sheng who didn't expect it. Even the other families of the six families didn't think that the Family Clan of Gods would let the Death of the Underworld challenge Primordial Sword Immortal so early.

What are those fellows up to? Senator Cape watched the livestream and frowned.

Among the six families, the Dugu family dominated the South District. The Ultimate Family Clan resided in the North District, and the East District was controlled by the Xia family and the Zhang family. The West District was the Cape family and the Family Clan of Gods.

The relationship between the two was very complicated. Usually, the two families were in competition with each other in the West District. It could be said that they were at loggerheads with each other. However, when faced with external danger, the two families would work together to form an alliance.

Senator Cape also believed that the Family Clan of Gods would only get Death of the Underworld to challenge Primordial Sword Immortal in the last few days. He never expected them to take action so quickly.

In the arena, Primordial Sword Immortal launched an attack. A red sword beam shot out from the ruby on its hilt, instantly arriving in front of Death of the Underworld.

Death of the Underworld didn’t seem to react as it remained standing there. The red sword beam stabbed into its body.

When everyone saw the red sword beam stab into the gray cloak, they were surprised to discover that Death of the Underworld’s body was like a phantom. The red sword beam failed to injure it at all and directly penetrated its body.

The red sword beam seemed to be alive as it automatically flew back and shuttled back and forth from Death of the Underworld’s body, but it was useless.

Death of the Underworld’s body was like a specter. The red sword beam could not touch it.

Death of the Underworld’s body is about the same as my Ghost Bride. Zhou Wen immediately understood what was going on.

With the red sword beam useless, Death of the Underworld finally moved, its figure vanishing into thin air. It wasn’t because it was fast, but because it had undergone true teleportation. When Death of the Underworld appeared again, it had already arrived beside Primordial Sword Immortal. A ghostly hand formed from blue-black flames grabbed at the hilt of Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword. It was almost touching the hilt.

A sword hum shook the surroundings. Primordial Sword Immortal, which had never been unsheathed, finally tore out of the scabbard. The stone sword automatically flew out of the scabbard and slashed at Death of the Underworld’s palm with an immortal-like sword beam.

Death of the Underworld actually seemed to be afraid. It didn’t dare to receive the stone sword’s attack head-on like before. It flashed once again and dodged the terrifying sword beam.

The ancient sword levitated in the air as the sword beam swirled, sweeping towards Death of the Underworld that had appeared after its teleportation. Death of the Underworld teleported several times, but it was unable to shake off the sword beam.

Just as the sword beam was about to slash at Death of the Underworld, Death of the Underworld suddenly pulled open its gray cloak. The blue-black light in its body erupted and instantly enveloped the entire arena.

Instantly, the screen on the phone turned blue-black. It was as though countless stars were circulating between the blue and black colors, like the universe in the night sky.

Apart from that, there was nothing else.

Is this an Essence Energy Skill or a Wheel of Destiny’s power? Zhou Wen looked at the screen and frowned.

Others were as anxious as Zhou Wen. They didn’t know what had happened in the arena, so they could only stare blankly at the blue-black galaxy.

It only took a moment before the blue-black light in the arena suddenly converged. A sword beam tore through the air. It was the stone sword.

It’s finally out… Just as everyone was feeling pleasantly surprised, they realized that Death of the Underworld had already retreated from the battlefield. After the battle ended, Death of the Underworld’s ranking didn’t change. It was still ranked second—clearly, it had lost.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 612 - Activity Division

612 Activity Division

“What’s going on? I didn’t see the most important part!” Li Xuan sent Zhou Wen a message.

“Although we didn’t see the most important part, there’s already plenty to be seen,” Zhou Wen replied.

“What did you see?” Li Xuan asked.

“Death of the Underworld has the power of a spatial domain. If one wants to fight Death of the Underworld, one has to be prepared to engage in an away match. Primordial Sword Immortal was able to defeat Death of the Underworld within the latter’s spatial domain, so perhaps it also has spatial powers, or perhaps its offensive strength is so powerful that it can destroy space itself. Regardless of the possibilities, the strength of Primordial Sword Immortal is already beyond imagination.”

Zhou Wen paused before saying, “The major families should have professional analysts that can provide more professional analysis. Let’s wait for them.”

“What I want to see the most is the Family Clan of Gods’ analysis report. I didn’t get a kick from this battle,” Li Xuan said with a sigh.

“It’s indeed not satisfying.” Zhou Wen had the same thought. Now, the only person who knew more about Primordial Sword Immortal was the Family Clan of Gods.

However, he was certain that they wouldn’t easily leak the information they had.

Indeed, in less than two days, An Sheng received news that the Family Clan of Gods had indeed come up with a comprehensive analysis. They even publicly put the results up for sale. However, the price was just too high. Even the other large families were hesitant about buying their information.

No one could guarantee that their analysis had any decisive use.

It’s a pity that my pets don’t have spatial powers. In a fight, others will see everything. There’s no chance of selling information. Otherwise, I could sell it and earn a fortune. Zhou Wen had an idea, but no matter how he thought about it, there was no way to keep his information confidential.

Beep! Beep! Beep! There was a notification from his phone. Tyrant Behemoth was hungry once again.

After this fellow advanced to the Mythical stage, its demand for food had increased even more. If not for the Essence Crystal mines in the Poison Bat tunnel, Tyrant Behemoth would have long starved to death.

Thankfully, the Essence Crystal mine would respawn together with the dungeon. Every time Tyrant Behemoth entered the Poison Bat Cave, it would eat the bats and Essence Crystal ores. When it finished eating, it would be 70% full. A second meal could last it two to three days.

What a terrifying appetite. In reality, I really can’t afford to rear it. After Zhou Wen took Tyrant Behemoth to have its feast, he went to grind Torch Dragon and Qiongqi.

Ever since the Torch Dragon egg dropped, no Companion Beasts had dropped. Instead, Qiongqi dropped an Essence Energy Skill Crystal. Unfortunately, his stats didn’t meet the requirements, so he could only have it disappear on the next respawn.

Torch Dragon also dropped a rare spatial stat crystal. This was one of Zhou Wen’s motivations to farm it.

…

Li Xuan called everyone over for a Xuanwen Club activity. Zhou Wen came into the activity room and saw Gulli and Sadie. However, today was a little odd. Gulli didn’t insist on challenging him.

Gu Dian, Feng Qiuyan, Fang Ruoxi, and Tian Xiangdong attended the event. Only Huang Ji didn’t come.

Zhou Wen sent a message asking Huang Ji what was going on. Huang Ji said that he had found a huge investor and was discussing some details with them.

If the investment was successful, his “Dimensional” game could be produced by a proper team. Not only could the map be expanded, but the details of the game could also be optimized.

Who has such poor acumen to actually invest in this game? Although Zhou Wen felt that Huang Ji’s game wasn’t bad, the dungeons were too small. Furthermore, they were dungeons that humans were familiar with, so its effects were limited.

Unless someone provided information on new dimensional zones, the game “Dimensional” ultimately wouldn’t be of much use.

Zhou Wen only used this game as an excuse and didn’t think of relying on it to get rich.

However, Huang Ji revealed that not only did the investor bring in funds, but he would also bring large amounts of information regarding relatively new dimensional zones. This was also one of the reasons Huang Ji was tempted and willing to let outsiders invest.

“Information about new dimensional zones? And large amounts of them? This isn’t something ordinary people can obtain. Is it a scam?” Zhou Wen was somewhat worried.

“Don’t worry. The other party has a military background. His backer should be Deputy Governor Qin. There won’t be any problems in this area.” Huang Ji had already made plans, as though he had long found out the other party’s background.

“If it really is Deputy Governor Qin supporting this, the game might really become popular.” Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. He never expected the game to attract Qin Wufu’s attention.

“That’s right. However, they have a request. If we let them invest, the dungeon access will be split into three levels. There will be dungeons for public downloads on the Internet. College dungeons that only allow students of Sunset College to download. It will be forbidden to share with others. Another will be the military dungeons, open only to the military. All the information is confidential. Without their approval, the contents of the military dungeons cannot be released in other versions, Huang Ji said.

“That’s reasonable.” Zhou Wen felt that there was no problem.

“Yes, we’re in the midst of a discussion. I’ll inform you of the outcome.”

“Alright.” When Zhou Wen made his initial investment, he had mentioned that he didn’t care about these matters. All he did was wait for the money. These problems were to be decided by Huang Ji himself.

Gulli and Sadie were very quiet today. Gulli, who had been so arrogant when he first entered the school, obediently followed Li Xuan’s activity arrangements. He didn’t say anything arrogant, as though he had changed into a completely different person. It surprised Li Xuan.

He originally imagined that he would have to give these two geniuses from the Ultimate Family Clan another lesson or two to make them behave.

“Today, our target is the Demonized Generals of Tiger Cage Pass. By killing the most Demonized Generals, you can obtain a special pass that we have prepared. As Tiger Cage Pass is relatively dangerous, we will be acting in pairs so that you can also take care of each other. The two people in the same group can’t move separately.” Li Xuan paused before saying, “Gulli, you and Little Yanyan will be in the same team. Sadie, you and I are in the same team…”

“President, I wish to be in the same group as Zhou Wen,” Sadie suddenly said.

Li Xuan scratched his nose and said, “That’s fine. It’s ok if you want to follow Old Zhou. Xiangdong, follow me. Ruoxi, you and Gu Dian will be in the same team.”

After the allocation was done, everyone headed for Tiger Cage Pass. As Tiger Cage Pass was very large, they split up into teams to search for Demonized Generals.

Tiger Cage Pass didn’t have any secrets for Zhou Wen. All he did was come out to get some action. It could be considered as letting others know that he still cultivated.

“Zhou Wen, are you interested in competing?” Sadie suddenly asked Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 613 - Eye of Odin

Chapter 613 Eye of Odin

“Not interested.” Zhou Wen shook his head.

Zhou Wen was considering how to kill Primordial Sword Immortal. He had no interest in an opponent at Sadie’s level. Even if she was a peerless genius, she was at most at the Epic stage.

The Epic stage was already too weak for Zhou Wen. He had condensed five Life Souls which was equivalent to someone advancing to the Epic stage five times. He really didn’t find the Epic stage impressive.

Even the six families wouldn’t randomly give a Mythical Companion Beast to such a young genius. This was because they had too little combat experience and were too young. Their minds weren’t staid enough and with mighty strength, they easily took risks. That way, they would die even faster.

An Epic expert without a Mythical Companion Beast was no challenge for Zhou Wen.

Sadie seemed to have expected that Zhou Wen would reject her, so she wasn’t angry. She continued, “I know you are very strong. If it were a life-and-death battle, I definitely wouldn’t be your match. However, if we compete in the acumen, I believe you aren’t my match.”

“Since you are so confident, I’ll leave the Demonized General hunting mission to you.” Zhou Wen retreated a little. A group of Demonized Soldiers had already discovered them and were charging over.

Although Sadie felt that Zhou Wen was looking down on her, she didn’t mind.

In the past, she would definitely have thought that Zhou Wen was too arrogant. However, after seeing Zhou Wen’s Transcendent Flying Immortal, she felt that he had the right to be arrogant.

A seventeen-year-old person who had already mastered a divine technique could be as arrogant as he wanted. It wasn’t excessive.

Sadie summoned an ice sword and charged at the Demonized Soldiers. The Demonized Soldiers were naturally not her match and were easily killed by her. They weren’t even considered a warm-up.

Seeing how Zhou Wen ignored her, Sadie tactfully didn’t say anything else. All she did was wait for an opportunity to make Zhou Wen think of her in a different light.

She was very confident in her Eye of Odin Life Soul. In her family’s evaluation, the Eye of Odin Life Soul was S+ rank. It was even stronger than the average S rank, a Life Soul akin to a bug in games.

Although Sadie’s Eye of Odin had only just condensed and was still a Primordial Body, its ability was already excellent.

Previously, it had been used to record videos, but in fact, it was just a trick of the Eye of Odin. What was truly impressive about the Eye of Odin was that it could observe an opponent in battle.

Now, Sadie’s limit was to slow things down by seven times. In battle, if she used this ability, all trajectories would appear seven times slower in her eyes.

This multiplier was calculated according to the standards of the Eye of Odin. It wasn’t slowing down the object by seven times.

In other words, someone’s seemingly fast attacks would become very slow in Sadie’s eyes. It made it easy for her to dodge those attacks or have enough time to think of a way to deal with them.

The Eye of Odin didn’t only strengthen her vision; in fact, the real target of the Eye of Odin was to strengthen her brain. If the brain’s thinking speed and reaction couldn’t keep up, it could easily cause a situation where one couldn’t react in time despite being able to detect it.

However, the Eye of Odin had strengthened her brain, allowing Sadie’s brain to think and react faster. This was the truly terrifying part.

A saber technique that looked as fast as lightning looked like slow motion in Sadie’s eyes when she slowed it down by seven times. At the same time, her mind raced with all sorts of countermeasures at lightning speed.

Now, Sadie’s only flaw was that because her eyesight and brainpower were too strong, her body couldn’t keep up with her brain’s reaction speed, causing her to have synchronization issues.

Under normal circumstances, a speed of four to five times was her limit. Her body’s speed could keep up with her eyesight and brainpower. Any higher, her body’s movement speed wouldn’t be able to keep up even if her brain issued an order.

In terms of combat abilities, Sadie knew that she was far from Zhou Wen’s match, but in terms of acumen, Sadie didn’t believe that she would lose to him.

As she charged forward, the ice sword in Sadie’s hand mercilessly harvested the lives of the Demonized Soldiers. Even if she encountered Demonized Generals, she could still kill them with one strike.

Her sword techniques didn’t have any unnecessary movements. She could always use the simplest method to kill her enemy.

Zhou Wen followed behind Sadie without making a move. Seeing that Sadie was about to rush into the range of the Tiger Cage Demonized General, he said, “Let’s end here. Stop walking forward.”

“I heard that Tiger Cage Pass has a very powerful dimensional creature guarding it and ordinary people can’t charge in. Why don’t we have a bet? If I can charge into the city and kill the dimensional creature guarding the gates, it’ll be considered my victory. If I can’t charge in, or if I can’t kill the dimensional creature guarding the gates, count it as my loss. If I lose, I can tell you a secret about the cube ranking. If I’m lucky to win, I hope you can officially spar with me. Just the two of us. Let’s see who’s acumen is better,” Sadie said.

“What secret?” Zhou Wen asked.

“It’s not a secret if I tell you, but I guarantee with my character that this secret is definitely worth it,” Sadie said with certainty.

“Alright, I’ll bet with you. Are you sure you want to kill the strongest dimensional creature in Tiger Cage Pass?” Zhou Wen asked.

“That’s right. Let’s smack palms to make an oath. It’s a deal?” Sadie extended her hand.

Zhou Wen didn’t hesitate as he extended his palm and slapped Sadie’s palm.

Tiger Cage Demonized General was already a top Epic creature. No matter how talented Sadie was, killing Tiger Cage Demonized General was not bad.

However, what was truly terrifying in Tiger Cage Pass wasn’t the Tiger Cage Demonized General, but the Elegant Emperor’s Avatar Puppet. Although that fellow was only at the Epic stage, his difficulty was already close to the Mythical stage. Zhou Wen didn’t think Sadie had the ability to kill the Elegant Emperor’s Avatar Puppet.

After retracting her palm, Sadie’s lips curled up slightly. She wore a confident expression as she charged towards Tiger Cage Pass with her ice sword.

Zhou Wen watched from the side, prepared to help at any moment. If Sadie were to fail, he couldn’t watch her die here.

Just as Sadie stepped into the range of the Tiger Cage Demonized General’s shooting range, she saw an arrow shoot over with a strong spiral force. It was shockingly fast.

However, Sadie didn’t panic. When the arrow reached her, she took a slight step to the side and dodged the arrow. At the same time, she slashed the ice sword in her hand, landing the arrow. She continued rushing towards Tiger Cage Pass.

The storm-like arrows immediately shot over.

Zhou Wen watched as Sadie moved in a small area and brandished the ice sword in her hand. She easily passed through the arrow rain and continued charging at Tiger Cage Pass.

This Sadie really has some ability. Zhou Wen realized that when Sadie passed through the rain of arrows, she used a very small movement to dodge a large number of arrows. Every time the ice sword struck out, it struck the most critical arrow.

The entire process was as exact as a computer’s calculated path. There was no waste of stamina through any unnecessary actions.

Even Zhou Wen himself couldn’t do better than Sadie.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 614 - Eye of Hell

Chapter 614 Eye of Hell

Could it be that Sadie has already reached the Minute Subtlety realm at such a young age? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised.

Back when Lance visited, he had only just reached the edge of Minute Subtlety. Sadie was a little younger than Lance, yet she had completely mastered Minute Subtlety. From Zhou Wen's point of view, this was extremely shocking.

Unbeknown to Zhou Wen, Sadie purely relied on the powers of Eye of Odin. Her true realm was inferior to Lance, so she naturally wasn't as good as Zhou Wen.

However, Eye of Odin was like a bug in games. To outsiders, Sadie was simply at some greater mastery of Minute Subtlety. No matter how intense the battle was, she could always calmly achieve perfection.

Soon, Sadie rushed to the top of the city and began fighting the Tiger Cage Demonized General.

Tiger Cage Demonized General was slightly stronger than Sadie in every aspect, but under the effects of the Eye of Odin, she could counter all his moves. He couldn't injure Sadie at all. Instead, he was severely restrained by Sadie. It was only a matter of time before he was killed.

There's actually such a genius in this world? Zhou Wen looked at Sadie's battle and was increasingly certain that she had achieved greater mastery of Minute Subtlety. Otherwise, how could she have reached such a stage?

She should be around my age or younger than me. Since she can do it, there's no reason I can't do it. Zhou Wen carefully observed Sadie's actions as he switched his Essence Energy Skill to Small Perfection of Wisdom.

The Eight Perfections Wisdom Life Providence and Hell King Life Soul also worked at the same time, making his senses extremely sharp.

Zhou Wen sat on the Chi's back and watched the battle. At the same time, he put himself in Sadie's shoes. He imagined a battle with the Tiger Cage Demonized General. In this battle, what was the difference between his choices and Sadie's choices?

Soon, Zhou Wen realized that although his choice wasn't wrong, he found them a little crude compared to Sadie. He wasn't as meticulous as Sadie.

What exactly am I lacking? As Zhou Wen thought, he gradually gained some insight.

There's a saying that goes, "Know yourself and know your enemy, and you will never be defeated." The reason why gods are revered is that they have terrifying clairvoyant abilities. From this, one can see the importance of the word "know." What Minute Subtlety needs is clairvoyance. By observing the other party's actions, one can derive information about the other party and exploit the information obtained… As Zhou Wen's mind raced, his Hell King Life Soul also expanded.

The Small Perfection of Wisdom Essence Energy Art was an Essence Energy Art that strengthened one's Constitution.

The Eight Perfections Wisdom and Hell King Life Soul also strengthened his Constitution, but it was different from the typical strengthening. Instead, it was a way to strengthen one's mind first.

The stronger Zhou Wen's mind was, the stronger the feedback his body received.

With Zhou Wen's comprehension, the Hell King Life Soul became stronger. As for the Hell King Life Soul, it was one with Zhou Wen. The growth of the Hell King Life Soul immediately reflected back on Zhou Wen, making him feel increasingly sensitive.

Suddenly, a vertical eye on Zhou Wen's glabella opened. It was the Eye of Hell that belonged to the Hell King. At the instant it opened, it seemed to have countless wraiths howling in pain.

The moment the Eye of Hell opened, the space around Zhou Wen seemed to change. It wasn't a real eye, but a door that led to hell.

When the Eye of Hell opened, Zhou Wen's body experienced a strange feeling. It was as though there was another feeling beyond his senses. This feeling made his sensual organs feel extremely strange.

So this is the Hell King's true ability. This should be the so-called Eighth Sense, right? To break through the understanding of spatial dimension… Under the effects of the Hell King Life Soul, Zhou Wen didn't even need to look to sense the minute changes in his surroundings.

However, he gradually realized that the feeling he had when he was Hell King didn't seem to be as simple as an eighth sense.

Apart from a normal feeling, he also discovered a strange phenomenon in every creature. It was an indescribable feeling.

He seemed to see a transparent flame burning on all the creatures. Some of the transparent flames were bigger than others, burning like a bonfire.

Some of the flames were relatively small, like fire plumes. It was as though the slightest breath could extinguish them.

What was even stranger was that the flames were transparent and colorless. It should have been impossible to see them, but he could. Even if he closed his eyes, he could sense the existence of the flames.

Furthermore, Zhou Wen could vaguely sense that the transparent and colorless flames seemed to have some connection with the Eye of Hell at his glabella.

Could it be that the flames I see are actually the legendary karmic sinflames? Zhou Wen guessed inwardly, but he wasn’t confident.

Legend had it that karmic sinflames were the flames of sins. Every time someone did something evil, he would have more karmic sinflames on him. After he went to hell, he would be burned by the karmic sinflames.

The greater the sins, the more karmic sinflames there were. This also prolonged the burning in hell. One had to wait for the karmic sinflames to burn out before they could reincarnate.

Zhou Wen was only guessing, unsure if what he saw were karmic sinflames.

Sadie was still fighting the Tiger Cage Demonized General. Her Eye of Odin was indeed powerful. Despite fighting someone stronger than herself, she suppressed the Tiger Cage Demonized General and eventually killed him with one strike.

The entire process was smooth and fluid. She didn’t give the Tiger Cage Demonized General a chance. The Tiger Cage Demonized General didn’t even manage to touch her clothes. Even Sadie was very satisfied with her performance.

Standing on the city wall, Sadie said to Zhou Wen who was outside the city with a smile, “Zhou Wen, I won.”

“See what’s behind you first,” Zhou Wen said calmly.

Sadie was slightly taken aback. She turned her head and saw a strange person wearing a mask standing on top of a tower in the city.

Before Sadie could do anything, the strange person held a stack of yellow paper in his hand and threw it into the air. The yellow paper scattered, turning out to be paper figurines.

However, when the paper figurines landed, they turned into Tiger Cage Demonized Generals. There were more than ten of them.

More than ten Tiger Cage Demonized Generals charged forward and immediately surrounded Sadie.

Sadie was alarmed. She could still deal with a single Tiger Cage Demonized General. If these Tiger Cage Demonized Generals had the same combat strength as the previous Tiger Cage Demonized Generals, she was definitely no match for them.

She originally hoped that these Tiger Cage Demonized Generals were only paper tigers and didn’t have any true strength, but after a short battle, she realized that they were equally terrifying.

Sadie fought many alone. Relying on the ability of Eye of Odin, she constantly dodged and moved around, ensuring that she remained safe. However, under the siege of the Tiger Cage Demonized Generals, Sadie’s physical reaction was no longer able to keep up with her acumen and brain’s reactions. All she could do was try her best to find flaws in the siege and use the time difference to dodge.

Zhou Wen watched with relish. Sadie’s speed couldn’t be considered fast, but her ability, which was akin to Minute Subtlety, was indeed very powerful. She wasn’t injured under the siege of more than ten Tiger Cage Demonized Generals. She was indeed extraordinarily strong.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 615 - Benefits of the Ranking

615 Benefits of the Ranking

With the augmentation of his Life Providence and Life Soul, Zhou Wen realized something when he watched Sadie battle.

So it’s not that she has reached the realm of Minute Subtlety, but she’s relying on her Life Soul. What kind of Life Soul is that? It actually allows her to possess the ability of Minute Subtlety? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

Sadie was fighting many alone. Although she was in a sorry state, she wasn’t injured from the gank. This was quite shocking.

Unfortunately, with so many Tiger Cage Demonized Generals surrounding her, Sadie couldn’t rush out of the encirclement. Her Essence Energy and stamina were very limited, so it was only a matter of time before she died.

This proves that no matter how strong one’s ability is, it’s best to be careful. In such a world, who knows what kind of enemy one will encounter? Once restrained, no matter how strong one’s ability is, one won’t be able to deny death. However, Sadie’s ability isn’t bad. If I can obtain her Essence Energy Art, I wonder if I can use the Lost Immortal Sutra to condense the same Life Soul? Zhou Wen was just musing for a moment. Even if he had the same Essence Energy Art, he might not necessarily be able to condense the same Life Soul. The formation of a Life Soul was determined by a person’s physique and mental strength. Therefore, everyone’s Life Soul was somewhat different. There weren’t two absolutely identical Life Souls.

It was the same for a Life Providence. The functions might be similar, but not completely identical.

Furthermore, even with the Lost Immortal Sutra, condensing a Life Soul wasn’t easy. One needed a special energy with similar attributes as a foundation. Only then could the Lost Immortal Sutra simulate condensing a Life Soul.

Now that I’m thinking about it, my First Order of Chaos hasn’t condensed a Life Soul. I wonder if I can use a drop of Grim Demon’s blood as a foundation to condense a Life Soul? Zhou Wen set his sights on Grim Demon.

With Demonic Neonate as his master, he probably wouldn’t dare to object to having him release some blood.

While Zhou Wen was considering how to condense the Life Soul of the First Order of Chaos with the blood of Grim Demon, Sadie was struggling to remain safe.

She originally imagined that a dimensional zone like Tiger Cage Pass couldn’t have Mythical creatures. With her Eye of Odin Life Soul, it wasn’t difficult to kill Epic dimensional creatures. Even if she couldn’t beat them, she had a chance of escaping.

Who knew that she would encounter a terrifying existence like the Elegant Emperor’s Avatar Puppet. She didn’t even have a chance to escape.

Zhou Wen watched from outside the city. She knew that Zhou Wen definitely had the ability to help her escape, but her pride prevented her from asking him. All she could do was summon her Companion Beasts and desperately attempt to rush out of the city.

It wasn’t easy for her to kill a Tiger Cage Demonized General and find a gap, but before she could rush out, she saw the Elegant Emperor’s Avatar Puppet throw out another stack of yellow paper. Instantly, more than ten Tiger Cage Demonized Generals landed. Not only did they seal off the way out, but they also made her situation worse.

Sadie immediately fell into despair. She was surrounded by twenty to thirty Tiger Cage Demonized Generals. Even if her Eye of Odin could see the path needed to get out, her body couldn’t keep up.

The reason the six families didn’t let young people use Mythical Companion Beasts was because of this principle. Young people were hot-blooded, especially young geniuses. They were all arrogant and impulsive. Having powerful strength only made it easier for them to fall into danger.

Therefore, even if they had Mythical Companion Beasts, the various families would give them to people who had some experience and had been burnished by reality. They were calm and capable.

Although they were about the same age, Lance would definitely not make such a decision if he were here.

Sadie’s Essence Energy was almost depleted. A Companion Beast beside her was attacked and ended up slamming into her. Immediately, her trajectory deviated. It was too late to dodge the attacks of the Tiger Cage Demonized Generals.

Sadie gritted her teeth and prepared to risk her life. However, she suddenly saw a flash of saber light. The Tiger Cage Demonized Generals beside her suddenly stopped their attacks. With a poof, white mist emitted from them as they transformed into yellow paper figurines that landed on the ground.

She turned her head and saw Zhou Wen standing beside the masked man. As for the masked man, his head had been chopped off.

Zhou Wen walked to Sadie's side and asked, "What's the secret regarding the Companion Beast ranking you mentioned?"

Sadie looked at Zhou Wen with a complicated expression before saying, "Actually, this isn't really a secret. There should be quite a number of people in the six families who know about it. In fact, obtaining first place on the rankings isn't the only way to get benefits."

"What do you mean? Isn't the one coming in first place qualified to pluck the divine fruit?" Zhou Wen asked with a frown.

"Picking the divine fruit is indeed something first place qualifies for. However, it's still unknown if one can really pluck it. However, as long as one can enter the ranking, they'll be able to obtain the corresponding benefits. It doesn't matter if the ranking is high. Although, if it is high, there are more benefits," said Sadie.

"What benefits?" Zhou Wen had never heard of such a thing.

"I'm not sure yet. I'll only know what benefits we can obtain after the ranking battle ends," Sadie said.

"Where did this news come from?" Zhou Wen frowned slightly. Sadie's words seemed unbelievable.

The ranking had not long appeared, and it was unprecedented. Even if there was really a reward after the ranking battle, how did the six families know of that?

“I’m not sure about the source of the news, but it shouldn’t be wrong. For the six families and overseas factions to be so eager in rushing up the rankings, it’s definitely not without reason,” Sadie said.

Zhou Wen didn’t know if Sadie really didn’t know or if she was just unwilling to say.

“It’s about time. Let’s head back.” Zhou Wen didn’t ask further.

Sadie walked back with Zhou Wen, but her emotions were mixed. Although she was confident that her acumen was better than Zhou Wen’s, the difference in combat experience was just too great. No matter how good her acumen was, it was useless. It was no different from having psychomotor problems. She felt that there was no need to challenge Zhou Wen again.

An opponent she had no way to fend against was easily killed by Zhou Wen. In front of absolute strength, the effects of her acumen were too minute.

I have to become stronger than him. Sadie cursed inwardly as she stared at Zhou Wen’s back.

Could it be that The Thearch is secretly up to no good? Zhou Wen didn’t care what Sadie was thinking. His mind was on the rankings.

Back then, it was The Thearch who had allowed John to obtain the six-winged seraphim Guardian. It wouldn’t be surprising if she had spread the news of the ranking.

There’s also a possibility that it’s Teacher Wang Mingyuan. The news might have come from his side as well. Zhou Wen felt that the possibility wasn’t small.

There were many experts in the Federation who entered the dimensional zones after a mutation. No one knew if there were any people that the Federation had deliberately planted among them.

If there was, it was not impossible to get news from them.

From the looks of it, I have to go back and ask The Thearch. Zhou Wen decided to take the opportunity of delivering items to The Thearch to ask about the ranking.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 616 - Let Out Some Blood

616 Let Out Some Blood

After the Xuanwen Club’s event ended, Zhou Wen returned to his dorm and sent a message to The Thearch. He informed her that the items were ready for her to receive.

“Send them over.” The Thearch replied.

Zhou Wen sent the items through the portal through the Void Flower. Although they weren’t worth much, he had still spent more than 100,000. It made his heart ache slightly.

“The Thearch, you previously said that only the first Companion Beast on the rankings has benefits. Then, what other benefits does first place have in the future?” Zhou Wen probed.

“Why are you asking? Your Companion Beast isn’t capable of ranking first. It’s useless even if you know,” The Thearch replied.

“Even if I can’t obtain first place, I can still try my best to vie for a higher ranking. Will the other rankings benefit me?” Zhou Wen could tell from The Thearch’s tone that it might really be as Sadie had said.

“Yes, but if you can’t enter the top ten, the benefits are very limited. Your Six-Winged Guardian Dragon’s Wheel of Destiny is virtually useless in the pet battle. From the looks of the Companion Beasts on the rankings, it’s not bad if it can eventually reach the top thirty. The one on your ear isn’t even at the Mythical stage. It’s impossible for it to enter the top hundred.”

Can’t I have other Companion Beasts? Zhou Wen said that inwardly without sending it to The Thearch. He didn’t wish to expose his true strength in front of The Thearch.

“The Thearch, what benefits will there be for getting on the rankings?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“Do you want to know?” The Thearch’s message came quickly. Unfortunately, it wasn’t an answer.

“Yes,” Zhou Wen answered.

“All the more reason why I won’t tell you.” The Thearch even sent a smug expression after the message.

Helpless, Zhou Wen had no choice but to remain silent.

However, he was certain that there was definitely some benefit to being able to enter the rankings. However, if the ranking was too low, the benefits wouldn’t be great.

Just as The Thearch said, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon isn’t suitable for a one-on-one battle. Its ranking definitely won’t be high. Which Companion Beast should I use to give it a try? Zhou Wen was momentarily hesitant.

To get on the rankings, one definitely needed to fight. In a battle, one would expose the strength of their Companion Beasts, giving others a chance to figure out a way to restrain them.

Zhou Wen was now thinking about which Companion Beast to expose, one that wouldn’t affect him much in the future.

Zhou Wen wasn’t in a rush to make a decision. There was still plenty of time, so he didn’t need to hurry. Furthermore, the rules of the rankings were that one could only challenge high-ranking ones, not the other way round. Zhou Wen didn’t plan on challenging Primordial Sword Immortal from the beginning.

I have to ask An Sheng first if the Companion Beasts from the Special Inspector Bureau and Cape family are on the rankings. I’ll start with them. Zhou Wen planned on catching them by surprise. He planned on killing their Companion Beasts on the rankings before personally settling scores with them.

Zhou Wen sent a message to An Sheng, but An Sheng didn’t reply. He did not know what he was busy with.

Forget it. I’ll give it a try and see if I can use Grim Demon’s blood to advance the First Order of Chaos. Zhou Wen summoned Demonic Neonate out.

“Little Neonate, get Grim Demon out. I need him to do something,” Zhou Wen said to Demonic Neonate.

Demonic Neonate remained silent as she summoned Grim Demon from the ancient sword.

After Grim Demon came out, his entire body was like a black demonic aura. He had an anthropomorphic look, but his looks were indiscernible.

Clang!

Zhou Wen placed a washbasin in front of Grim Demon and said, “I need some of your blood. I don’t need too much. Just half a basin would do.”

Grim Demon’s expression instantly darkened. Thankfully, his body was covered in the black demonic aura, so no expression could be seen.

“No way.” Grim Demon gritted his teeth.

“Little Neonate.” Zhou Wen looked at Demonic Neonate.

Demonic Neonate turned to look at Grim Demon and glared at him.

Grim Demon immediately cowered. He gritted his teeth and said to Zhou Wen, “Our Guardian’s blood is our life essence. It’s impossible for me to give you that much. At most, I can only give you one drop.”

“One hundred drops.” Zhou Wen bargained.

“Two drops. It really can’t be more.” Grim Demon’s voice was trembling as though he was trying his best to suppress the anger in his heart.

“Ninety-nine drops. Not any less,” Zhou Wen said without changing his expression.

After a final round of negotiation, Grim Demon refused to add any more beyond five drops. No matter how threatening Zhou Wen was, it was useless.

“Five drops? So be it then. Produce it.” Zhou Wen felt that Grim Demon was already desperate enough to risk his life in defiance, so he didn’t continue forcing him. If it was really useful, one drop would be enough. Five drops would be more than enough.

Grim Demon reluctantly extended his finger. Five drops of black liquid that resembled ink flew out and floated in front of Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen reached out and had the five drops of Grim Demon’s blood float over his hand. Then, he said to Demonic Neonate, “Alright, store him away.”

Demonic Neonate extended the ancient sword in her arms. Grim Demon could only obediently possess the ancient sword.

“Good girl. Go play with Banana Fairy.” Zhou Wen patted Demonic Neonate’s head and carried the five drops of Grim Demon’s blood into the training room.

He circulated the First Order of Chaos in an attempt to absorb the five drops of Grim Demon’s blood, but the First Order of Chaos seemed to reject it. He failed to absorb it.

Can’t I absorb it? Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed. This proved that their stats were incompatible. Even if he could barely absorb the five drops of Grim Demon’s blood, it wouldn’t be of much use.

Don’t tell me that I really need the blood of the Guardian in Ant City? Zhou Wen frowned as he looked at the five drops of Grim Demon’s blood.

He felt that the five drops of blood couldn’t be wasted. Zhou Wen switched to the other Essence Energy Arts, hoping to see if he could fuse them with Grim Demon’s blood.

In the end, even though there were strong and weak rejections, they were all incompatible.

Just as Zhou Wen was feeling depressed, he suddenly felt a burning sensation in his ears.

Could it be that Truth Listener is about to hatch? Zhou Wen summoned Truth Listener and saw that it was still in its Companion Egg form and hadn’t hatched.

However, the moment Truth Listener came out, the five drops of Grim Demon blood were sucked away by it. The five drops of blood fused into the golden crystal-like Companion Egg, dyeing the flawless golden color with five black impurities.

Isn’t Truth Listener a Buddhist divine beast? Why does it need demonic blood? Zhou Wen was alarmed as he looked at the Companion Egg that had absorbed the demonic blood.

After Truth Listener’s Companion Egg absorbed the demonic blood, the demonic blood’s black colors gradually spread inside the Companion Egg. It was as though a jar of water had been thrown into the ink. The ink gradually spread out in the clear water and quickly dyed the entire Companion Egg black.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 617 - Nirvana of Ultimate Hell

617 Nirvana of Ultimate Hell

After turning into a black Companion Egg, there were still strange changes happening inside.

A golden light spread out from the middle of the Companion Egg. When the black light touched the golden light, it rapidly faded. In a blink of an eye, the black color vanished completely. The entire Companion Egg turned golden again.

However, at this moment, the golden color seemed to gain some thickness and weight. The Companion Egg gradually turned from transparent to gold.

Crack! Crack!

Cracks appeared on the Companion Egg as it rapidly spread across the golden-like Companion Egg. Then, it peeled off bit by bit. The falling fragments turned into golden sand in the air. When it landed on the ground, it turned into black demonic gas that dissipated.

A golden beast jumped out of the Companion Egg. It looked no different from Truth Listener from the past. Its body was small and its fur was dark-gold. Its six ears were wearing six golden hoops, and its eyes seemed to contain golden lightning.

Zhou Wen extended his palm and Truth Listener jumped onto it. Zhou Wen held it in front of his eyes and carefully observed it. Apart from the six earrings, it was indeed no different from before. All he could do was use his phone to look at its stats.

Truth Listener: Mythical (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Heaven’s Senses

Life Soul: Evil Nullification

Wheel of Destiny: Nirvana of Ultimate Hell

Strength: 81

Speed: 81

Constitution: 81

Essence Energy: 81

Talent Skill: Truth Listener, Indestructible Vajra Body, Evil Warding, Nine Extremes

Companion Form: Earring

With stats at 81, it was a top-notch Mythical Companion Beast. Its Life Providence, Life Soul, and Essence Energy Skills hadn’t changed. The only addition was the Mythical Wheel of Destiny.

From the looks of it, the name sounds very powerful. I wonder what use it has? It can’t be that it’s just a supplementary ability, right? Zhou Wen put Truth Listener away and entered the game. He wanted to try out Truth Listener’s abilities in-game.

Looking at the time, Medusa was about to respawn. Zhou Wen opened the Curse Demon Palace instance dungeon and got Truth Listener to lead as he stormed his way in.

The stone statues were naturally not Truth Listener's match. A casual swipe of its claw shattered them into pieces.

However, what was strange was that even after advancing to the Mythical stage, Truth Listener didn't seem to have the ability to release its powers. It still needed to directly touch its opponent to deal damage.

However, because of Truth Listener's high speed and strength, it was almost impossible to see its actions clearly. The group of stone statues shattered and turned into rubble.

They rushed all the way to the palace where Medusa was. After opening the palace, the beautiful girl became the demoness, Medusa.

"Truth Listener, it's time to showcase your strength. Go, let me see how strong your Wheel of Destiny is." Zhou Wen ordered Truth Listener to use its Wheel of Destiny.

Crack!

Just as Zhou Wen gave the order, one of the six golden hoops on Truth Listener's ear shattered and fell. The fragments disintegrated into golden sand in the air before dissipating into a demonic gas.

As the golden hoop shattered, a terrifying demonic aura erupted from Truth Listener's dark golden body. It caused its body to expand with the demonic aura and undergo some strange changes.

In a short period of time, its petite body turned into a huge beast that was several meters tall. Its dark-gold fur also turned into scales like a terrifying giant ape covered in dark-gold scales. Its body also emitted a strange demonic aura, one completely different from the demonic aura of Grim Demon. It felt more evil.

Medusa had already used the Eyes of Petrification to look at Truth Listener, but when the beam of the Eyes of Petrification swept across Truth Listener's body, it was useless. It was unable to petrify its body.

However, Truth Listener's body violently tore through space and instantly arrived in front of Medusa. Its claws grabbed Medusa's head, its dark-gold claws stabbing into it.

In the next second, Zhou Wen saw an extremely brutal scene. Truth Listener's claws tore the demoness's body into two as demonic blood flowed everywhere.

Roar! After throwing the corpse to the ground, Truth Listener roared at the sky as though it was venting its violent desires.

"Come back." Zhou Wen summoned Truth Listener back. This was because he felt that Truth Listener's emotions were extremely unstable, showing signs of losing control.

The ruthless Truth Listener received Zhou Wen's order and leaped towards the blood-colored avatar. Its monster-like body shrank in midair as a golden earring condensed out of thin air and clipped onto its ear. By the time Truth Listener reached the blood-colored avatar's ear, it had already returned to its original size. There was a golden earring on each of its six ears.

The violent emotions from before vanished as well. It landed on the blood-colored avatar's ear, turning into a tiny dark-gold earring that hung from its earlobe.

Was that Truth Listener’s Wheel of Destiny? Why is it so irritable when the Wheel of Destiny is activated? It has six earrings on its ears, and only one of them shattered. If the other five shatter as well, will there be different changes? Zhou Wen wanted to give it a try, but when he thought of Truth Listener’s ferocious and ruthless appearance, he temporarily gave up on that thought.

As Truth Listener’s master, he could sense Truth Listener’s thoughts. Just now, Truth Listener’s emotions were extremely unstable. If it became more violent, Zhou Wen didn’t know if it would still obey his orders.

What’s wrong with this fellow? Zhou Wen frowned inwardly.

Tyrant Behemoth was famous for being a ferocious beast, but it wasn’t as irascible as Truth Listener.

As for Truth Listener, it was an auspicious beast according to legend. After its Wheel of Destiny was activated, it was truly puzzling why it had become so violent.

Zhou Wen went online to search for mythical information regarding Truth Listeners. Although there were many different versions, Truth Listener was a kind-hearted divine beast in many of the versions.

There were two popular versions. One of them was that Truth Listener was a white dog. It followed Ksitigarbha’s incarnation and was born in the mortal world. After Ksitigarbha’s incarnation died, it loyally protected the corpse, unwilling to leave even if it had to die. Finally, it became a divine beast.

The four Bodhisattvas' mounts each represented a trait. Truth Listeners represented loyalty.

However, Zhou Wen's Truth Listener wasn't in the form of a white dog. It wasn't the traditional look that had the features of nine different beasts, but more like a snub-nosed monkey.

Therefore, Zhou Wen felt that his Truth Listener was unlikely to match Truth Listener's first legend.

There was also a second version of the legend. In the second myth, Truth Listener was a hellspawn born in hell. It was born in the deepest depths of hell and had the responsibility to guard hell.

Zhou Wen was more inclined towards this version's Mythical legend, but even so, Truth Listener, who presided over hell, should be a kind divine beast. Why was it so violent?

Could it be that the six golden hoops or Grim Demon's blood caused Truth Listener to have a problem? Or could it be that Truth Listener was originally like that? Zhou Wen couldn't confirm the reason as he searched for more information to no avail.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 618 - Chimera

618 Chimera

Thankfully, Truth Listener was fine as long as it didn’t use the Wheel of Destiny. Zhou Wen tried it a few times. Even if it used the Nirvana of Ultimate Hell, it would only shatter one earring every time, turning it extremely violent like a ferocious hellspawn.

However, Truth Listener would still carry out Zhou Wen’s orders completely. Only its unstable emotions worried Zhou Wen.

Having activated the Wheel of Destiny, Truth Listener was extremely powerful in combat. It was able to fight Qiongqi head-on without being at a disadvantage. Qiongqi’s attacks couldn’t harm its body. It could only use its speed to circle around Truth Listener. Truth Listener’s speed wasn’t slow either. In the end, Qiongqi was killed.

However, this was only if it activated the Wheel of Destiny. Although Truth Listener wouldn’t end up killed without it, it wasn’t Qiongqi’s match.

Due to Truth Listener’s potent Indestructible Vajra Body, it was only slightly injured at most. Even the Eyes of Petrification that Medusa released at full strength was useless against it. Apart from Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World, there was no other power that could directly kill it.

Since he couldn’t find any problems, Zhou Wen stopped thinking about it. After careful consideration, he decided to try his best not to let Truth Listener use its Wheel of Destiny. Most of the time, it would appear in the form of an earring as a companion form.

After advancing to the Mythical stage, Truth Listener’s listening ability became even more impressive. Not only was it extensive, but it could also hear weaker movements.

Although he didn’t know what the principle was, Truth Listener could actually hear colors now. Just this alone made it much stronger than before.

…

“You want to snipe the bureau and Capes’ Mythical Companion Beasts on the rankings?” An Sheng didn’t reply, but he personally came to Zhou Wen.

“Yes,” Zhou Wen answered cleanly.

“If you want to use Torch Dragon or Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, I suggest that you don’t do so. You’ve already exposed the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon too many times, so it’s very easy to find out that it belongs to you. Torch Dragon only exists in the Zhuolu battlefield. Now, only we are the ones studying the temples under the Zhuolu battlefield. It’s very easy to deduce who Torch Dragon’s master is. Although you are already very strong, it’s best if you don’t fall out with the six families now,” An Sheng said.

“I understand. I still have a Companion Beast that no one has seen before. I usually don’t use it. Now, I plan on letting it snipe the Capes and the bureau’s Companion Beasts,” Zhou Wen said.

“That would work, but there aren’t many Mythical Companion Beasts from the bureau. They aren’t on the rankings either. If you insist on taking action, you can only start with the Capes. This is the information on the three Companion Beasts that the Cape family has listed. These three are confirmed to be theirs. The others aren’t confirmed. It’s best you don’t kill them randomly. After all, these Mythical Companion Beasts are the foundation of the Federation. It would be a pity if they were destroyed.” An Sheng’s words were actually reminding Zhou Wen not to cause too much trouble.

The Federation’s situation was very bad. In the future, after the seal over the dimensional zones were broken, they would still need these Mythical Companion Beasts to fight to protect humans.

They were not only the Cape family’s private property, but also the Federation’s future hope.

“Don’t worry. I know what to do.” Zhou Wen didn’t plan on wantonly killing, but he definitely had to settle the scores with the Cape family and the bureau.

Out of the Mythical Companion Beasts that could be confirmed to be the Cape family’s, one of them was ranked 91st—Inferno Dragon, while the other was ranked 63rd—Sprite King of Thunder. It was ranked even lower than Zhou Wen’s Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

Although killing them would make the Cape family feel the pinch, alarming them would make them wary. It was impossible for Zhou Wen to have another chance.

Therefore, Zhou Wen set his sights on the top-ranked Chimera in the Cape family. It was ranked thirteenth.

Chimera’s appearance was very strange. It had a lion’s body, a snake as a tail, and a pair of bat wings.

It also had three heads. One was like a lion, the other was like a goat, and the other was like a single-horned dragon.

Up to now, no other Companion Beast had challenged Chimera, so any understanding of it was limited to its past combat achievements.

More than ten years ago, an evil dragon broke out of the seal and wreaked havoc in the Federation’s coastal cities. It was the territory of the Cape family, so the Cape family mobilized Chimera to kill the evil dragon in that battle.

Legend had it that the dragon had left behind a Companion Egg. It was the Inferno Dragon that had been listed.

According to the information that leaked back then, Chimera had many attributes. Poison and flames were already proven abilities. There were also some other abilities that had not been confirmed. Most of them were just guesses.

After Zhou Wen finished reading the few pieces of information on Chimera, he decided to start with it. He needed to strike at it in one fell swoop. As long as the Cape family dared to accept the challenge, they wouldn’t even have the chance to admit defeat.

I’ll send Tyrant Behemoth. This fellow is clearly a Companion Beast from the West District. It’s difficult for others to suspect me, Zhou Wen thought.

Zhou Wen didn’t know that although Tyrant Behemoth was a dimensional creature in the West District, the Companion Egg was obtained by the Zhang family. Few people knew about this, but the Zhang family had lost the Tyrant Behemoth Companion Egg. They had been searching for it.

“Ah Sheng, is there a way to prevent others from seeing my Companion Beast in the arena?” Zhou Wen was extremely vexed about this point.

This was because all the major media outlets had set up fixed cameras around the cube. The black cube had been tightly surrounded and was constantly being filmed 24/7. If he were to bring Tyrant Behemoth over to start the battle, he would definitely be captured by the cameras.

If Tyrant Behemoth appeared in Luoyang, it reduced the significance of sending it.

“You will definitely be captured by the cameras if you go to the cubes in the various cities.” An Sheng thought for a moment and said, “How about this? You are already very familiar with the roads around White Cloud Mountain and Mount Laojun. In a 400-kilometer-radius, there’s an ancient town. There’s also a cube in the ancient town. As it’s too remote and there are plenty of dimensional zones around it, there’s no one living there. Very few people will pass by. I’ll draw a map for you. Go there.”

Zhou Wen was overjoyed. After getting the map, he packed his things and headed for the ancient town.

Mount Laojun and White Cloud Mountain were both part of the Funiu Mountain Range. Zhou Wen was indeed very familiar with the roads here. Alone in the mountain range, he had many Mythical creatures protecting him, so there wasn’t much danger.

However, Zhou Wen still avoided the known dimensional zones to prevent himself from falling into unknown danger.

He arrived at the ancient town An Sheng mentioned without any mishaps. Indeed, this place had become a ghost town. Many of the houses in the town had collapsed, and many buildings were covered in green plants.

Zhou Wen walked into the town and walked along the stone path. This had probably been a tourist attraction in the past. Although the town wasn’t big, the architecture was pretty good. Unfortunately, it was already abandoned.

As it was surrounded by mountains on three sides, it got dark rather early. When Zhou Wen walked through the town, the sky was already dark.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen saw a small shop with its lights on in front of him.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 619 - Genie“s Master

619 Genie“s Master

There’s actually someone here? But even if someone lives here, the power supply in the town should have been cut off. How can there be light? Zhou Wen was alarmed as he carefully approached the shop at the corner of the street.

The shop was a minimart. Quite a number of the LED lights on the shop sign were not working. A small portion of them was still lit. In such an environment, it looked a little strange.

Zhou Wen used Truth Listener’s hearing abilities. Although he was still very far away, the situation in the minimart had already projected itself in his mind. It was like a holographic projection that allowed him to see everything clearly. It even had color.

Soon, Zhou Wen saw a young man sitting on a wooden rocking chair in the minimart with his eyes closed.

On the wooden table beside the rocking chair was a mess of snacks and a few opened cans of beer.

The youth rocked in the chair as he closed his eyes in enjoyment. He gulped down beer and occasionally threw a few snacks into his mouth. He looked rather pleased.

And on the counter beside him was an oil lamp. The style of the oil lamp was very similar to that of the Saga of Heroes oil lamp. It was obvious that it wasn’t from the East District.

The oil lamp’s flames shone with white light. Strangely, in the white light, the lights in the minimart lit up. There was also a fan that was spinning.

Zhou Wen had just taken a look when the oil lamp’s flame suddenly expanded. Instantly, white light surged, immediately disabling the effectiveness of Truth Listener’s ability. It couldn’t hear the situation in the minimart.

Zhou Wen was alarmed as he looked at the minimart. He saw that the youth had already walked out and was looking at him.

Beside the youth, the oil lamp floated in the air. As for the flame, it had already turned into what looked like a deity. It was somewhat similar to the mythical Aladdin’s magic lamp.

When the youth saw Zhou Wen, his expression seemed odd. He stood there and sized him up as though he was very curious about him.

Zhou Wen also sized up the youth. He looked 27 or 28 years old. He wasn’t handsome, but he was very stylish. He was the type that was filled with manly charm.

Zhou Wen was certain that he had never seen him before as he looked rather unfamiliar.

As for the lamp beside him, Zhou Wen recognized it. It was Genie which was on the ranking. It had once been ranked third, but it had now fallen to ninth place. It was still quite a respectable ranking.

“Please don’t misunderstand. I don’t have any ill intentions. I just happened to pass by and saw some light, so I came over out of curiosity,” Zhou Wen said.

The youth curled his lips and laughed. “It’s fate that we meet. Apart from us, there’s no one else here. Why don’t you come in and have a drink with me? It will save us the loneliness of the night.”

“Thank you for your kindness. I still have something to do. I’ll continue on my way. I won’t disturb you any further.” Zhou Wen felt that the youth was somewhat odd, so he decided to stay away from him.

To his surprise, the youth said with a smile, “There are mountains surrounding three sides of this area. Apart from the path you took to enter, there’s no other way out. And in such a sh*thole, the only useful thing is probably the black cube in the town square. I’m afraid you are like me. You don’t want others to see your Companion Beast on the rankings, right?”

The youth’s guess was naturally correct. Although Zhou Wen wanted to deny it, he couldn’t find a reasonable excuse.

“Now that you’ve seen my Genie, even if I know that your Companion Beast is on the rankings, you and I have something against each other. No one will be at a disadvantage. I’ve been here for many days and haven’t even seen a fly. I’m really bored. Just stay here and chat with me,” said the youth with a smile.

Zhou Wen didn’t move. Since he had been discovered, he decided not to let Tyrant Behemoth fight here.

Just as he was about to bid farewell and leave, the youth continued, “It doesn’t matter if you don’t want to stay. However, you already know my secret, and I don’t have anything to use against you. It’s naturally impossible for me to let you leave alive.”

As he spoke, the Genie beside the youth had already arrived in front of him. It stared at Zhou Wen and took a deep breath. The body condensed from the flame instantly doubled in size as though a flaming vortex was flowing inside.

“Do you want to fight my Genie or stay behind to drink with me? Make a choice.” The youth leaned against the door frame and took another sip before looking at Zhou Wen with a smile.

“I’m sorry.” Zhou Wen turned around and left.

The youth didn’t have any intention of taking action. He only said indifferently, “You know that my Companion Beast is Genie, but you aren’t moved at all. Yet, you came to this godforsaken place to make it onto the rankings. The Companion Beasts you possess are definitely extraordinary. At the very least, they are higher than my Genie. Even if you aren’t on the rankings, I can guess that any new top Companion Beast that appears on the ranking will be yours.”

Zhou Wen didn’t stop as he continued walking.

The youth’s voice continued, “Your name is Zhou Wen, right? Everyone in the bureau has a photo of you.”

“You’re from the bureau?” Zhou Wen turned to look at the youth. If the youth was really a member of the bureau, he could use all means to kill him, despite not liking the idea of murder.

“Don’t misunderstand. I have nothing to do with the bureau.” The youth shrugged nonchalantly and said, “I’m the same as you. I’m a target of the bureau’s pursuit. I’ve seen your photo in the hands of the bureau’s people and some information. That’s why I recognize you.”

“You came here to attempt getting into the rankings and have a powerful Companion Beast. I’m guessing you are planning on doing something. However, the bureau doesn’t seem to have any Mythical Companion Beasts on the rankings. I remember now. You have quite a deep grudge with the Cape family. Are you trying to challenge the Capes’ Companion Beasts on the rankings?”

The youth thought for a moment and laughed. “Chimera… You want to challenge Chimera, right?”

“Who are you?” Zhou Wen frowned as he looked at the youth. He hadn’t said a thing, but the youth had already guessed so much. It was as though he had read his mind. It left Zhou Wen somewhat alarmed.

“Uncrying Night. First on the bureau’s wanted list, and my bounty is the highest. Have you heard of me?” The youth drank another mouthful of beer before continuing.

Zhou Wen didn’t know who was ranked first on the bureau’s wanted list, but the youth did indeed make him wary.

“I already know your secret. Unless you kill me or give up on your plan, it doesn’t matter where you get to on the rankings. Why don’t you stay and have a few drinks with me? That way, you won’t be alone in this remote mountain range.” The youth threw a can of beer at Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 620 - Strange Town

Chapter 620 Strange Town

Zhou Wen’s eyes focused as he slashed out with the Golden Overlord Sword in his hand. The golden sword beam instantly destroyed the beer as it shot towards Uncrying Night.

The Genie in front of Uncrying Night spat out a blinding white flame. The golden sword beam struck the flame like a wheel, splitting it apart. At the same time, it split the Genie’s body into two and continued slashing at Uncrying Night.

A look of surprise flashed across Uncrying Night’s eyes as he quickly dodged the golden sword beam’s slash.

However, the sword wheel formed by the golden sword beam suddenly boomeranged and slashed at Uncrying Night’s back at an even faster speed. It was none other than the Boomerang Wind Essence Energy Skill.

Just as the golden sword wheel was about to touch Uncrying Night’s back, he suddenly used a strange stance. As he leaned forward, he spun his left leg as he dodged the golden sword wheel in a contorted fashion.

The Golden Overlord Sword in Zhou Wen’s hand wasn’t idle either. With Transcendent Flying Immortal activated, he fused with the sword beam as his body tore through the void and slashed at Uncrying Night like golden lightning.

Uncrying Night wore a solemn expression as black matter condensed on his hands. It transformed into bracers that wrapped around his arms and palms as he stared intently at the Golden Overlord Sword that flashed over.

Clang!

Uncrying Night managed to sandwich the Golden Overlord Sword's blade in the middle. However, the golden sword beam on the Golden Overlord Sword was too intense. It pushed Uncrying Night's body back, causing him to slam into the building behind him, collapsing it.

Boom!

Uncrying Night crashed through several buildings and finally slammed into the stone wall. The stone walls behind him were in ruins before he stopped retreating.

The Golden Overlord Sword's blade was still firmly clamped between his hands. The black vortex produced by the bracers constantly absorbed the golden sword beam, but it was unable to completely absorb it. The sword beam sparks produced constantly exploded.

Zhou Wen pushed the blade with all his might, slowly pressing the blade towards Uncrying Night. Just as the golden sword beam on the blade was about to touch his cheek, Uncrying Night pushed with both hands and ducked to the side. The Golden Overlord Sword left a deep mark on the mountain wall behind him.

Zhou Wen brandished his sword and was about to slash again when Uncrying Night waved his hand. "Junior Brother, I'm joking with you. There's no need to fight to the death!"

Seeing that Zhou Wen was completely unfazed, the Golden Overlord Sword in his hand slashed down again. Uncrying Night waved his hand as he retreated. "I'm really your senior brother. My name is Liu Yun and I'm Teacher Wang Mingyuan's student. You should have heard of my name, right? I'm the same as you. I graduated from Guide High School. Speaking of which, we hail from the same hometown."

Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback when he heard that. He did remember that Wang Mingyuan had such a student, but he had long graduated. He was from a graduating class many years ago.

He had even discussed the senior brother named Liu Yun with Zhong Ziya. Furthermore, Liu Yun was rather famous in Guide City. He was publicly recognized as Guide City's genius. Zhou Wen had heard of his name when he was there.

"Didn't you say that your name was Uncrying Night? Why are you now Liu Yun?" Zhou Wen stared coldly at the youth. He didn't lower his sword as he locked onto him.

"Uncrying Night is my nickname. My real name is Liu Yun." As the youth spoke, he took out something. "You recognize this thing, right? I believe other than Teacher's students, no one else will have it."

Zhou Wen saw that the youth was holding a pendant. It looked like it was carved from ivory, but it was a little green, instead of the yellow tinge that ivory had.

Zhou Wen couldn't help but be taken aback when he saw the pendant. He also had one. It was given to him by Wang Mingyuan and had once helped him tide through danger.

Later, he heard from Wang Mingyuan that the pendant had been carved from the teeth of the white dragon in Dragon's Well. However, Wang Mingyuan said that he had carved four of them and gave them to Jiang Yan, Zhong Ziya, Hui Haifeng, and Zhou Wen respectively. He didn’t mention anything about Liu Yun.

“There’s no need to doubt it. When Teacher obtained the dragon teeth, I was the one who helped him steal them from beneath Dragon’s Well. Back then, Teacher carved a pendant for me and kept the rest. He said that he would give it to his favorite disciples in the future. I believe you must have one too, right?” said Liu Yun.

“How did you know I would be here?” Although Zhou Wen already believed that he was Wang Mingyuan’s student, he didn’t relax his guard.

Liu Yun spread out his hands and said, “How would I know that you would come here? I was pursued by the bureau and fled here to seek refuge. I didn’t expect to meet you. If it weren’t for the bureau’s constant hunting of the four of you, I wouldn’t have known that you were Teacher’s student.”

Just as Zhou Wen was about to say something, he suddenly heard hurried hooves coming from the north of the town. It was as though thousands of troops were charging towards the town.

“Oh no, I was caught up with pulling your leg and forgot about this matter. Quickly hide. Don’t reveal yourself or make a sound. Otherwise, there will be big trouble.” As Liu Yun spoke, he unsummoned Genie and charged forward. With a bound, he jumped into a water well by the side.

With a thought, Zhou Wen leaped down with Liu Yun with the Golden Overlord Sword in hand.

Splash! Splash!

The duo fell into the well one after another. Liu Yun sank his body into the water, and Zhou Wen followed suit. They dived into the well together, but the Golden Overlord Sword in his hand maintained an offensive stance, guarding against Liu Yun.

As the hooves approached, Zhou Wen used his ears to listen to the situation outside. The projection outside immediately imprinted itself into his mind, allowing him to see a strange scene.

The ones running outside weren’t horses, but creatures that looked like deer. The deer were completely white, and there were crystal-like antlers on their heads. The herd of white deer numbered at least a hundred. Every one of them was abnormally majestic, and the crystal antlers on their heads were extremely large.

On the back of the majestic white deer in front of the herd was a strange creature. It wore white clothes, white trousers, and a white hat. It looked like a human, but its face was also white. It had no mouth, nose, eyes, nor eyebrows—like a piece of white paper.

The white deer carried the white-clothed man and ran through the streets, but they didn’t leave the town. Instead, they circled the streets.

Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang! Every time the herd of white deer walked a distance, the white-clothed man would strike the metal disc in his other hand with a rod. They did not know what he was doing.

After the white deer herd and the white-clothed faceless man circled the town, they sped away and left the town.

Only then did Liu Yun rush out of the well and chase after the white deer herd.

“What are you doing?” Zhou Wen jumped out of the well and asked Liu Yun.

“Flower picking,” Liu Yun answered before chasing in the direction that the white deer herd had disappeared.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and followed him out of town.

The white deer and the white-clothed man were dimensional creatures, but this town wasn’t a dimensional zone. It was indeed strange for them to appear here.

It was mainly because Zhou Wen was afraid that the fellow who claimed to be Liu Yun would escape. He still couldn’t confirm who he really was. Even if he was Liu Yun, Zhou Wen couldn’t let him spread the news of him coming here.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 621 - Treasure Snatching in the Lake

621 Treasure Snatching in the Lake

The town was surrounded by mountains on three sides, and the direction the white deer herd came from was not the entrance, but the depths of the basin.

When Zhou Wen caught up to Liu Yun outside the town, Liu Yun gestured for him to remain silent before stealthily approaching.

Zhou Wen followed behind him to see what he was up to.

Liu Yun seemed to be very familiar with the path here. He drilled through the forest and grasslands, and soon, he hid in a bush.

Zhou Wen also entered the grassland and realized that there was a lake beyond it. The lake wasn’t very big, and surrounding it was the large grassland and a small portion of a forest.

The white deer herd was on the grass beside the lake. The bright moonlight shone on the grass and the lake, blanketing them with a layer of light. It looked exceptionally beautiful, like an immortal paradise in the mortal world.

Most of the white deer had their heads lowered as they leisurely ate the grass. Only the leading white deer was standing straight on the bank. The white-clothed man was also staring at the lake.

Although he didn’t have eyes, he gave off the feeling that he was staring intently at the center of the lake.

Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang!

After a while, the white-clothed man used the rod in his hand to strike the metal disc. With that, the grass-eating white deer raised their heads and approached the leading white deer.

The leading white deer walked towards the lake. Magically, it slowly walked over the water. It didn’t sink into the water. Ripples spread under its hooves. Under the moonlight, it was like a ring of light spreading across the water surface.

The white deer behind followed. They stepped on the water surface and followed the leader to the center of the lake.

When the white deer came to a halt, the white-clothed, faceless man’s rod struck at an even higher frequency. He kept striking the metal disc, producing clanging noises.

Amidst the rapid clanging, the white deer herd became uneasy.

It was unknown what kind of power was driving the white deer. One of the white deer raised its head and used its antlers to slam into the white deer beside it.

The crystal-like antlers immediately tore through the other white deer’s stomach and blood gushed out like a fountain.

It was as if the curtain had been drawn. The entire herd became irascible, constantly killing each other on the surface of the lake. The deer’s blood dyed the lake red in a moment, and the dead white deer’s corpses sank into the water.

Zhou Wen was somewhat curious when he saw this strange scene. He wanted to know what the white-clothed man was doing.

More and more white deer died and sank to the bottom of the lake. Soon, only the leading white deer from the original hundred remained standing on the surface of the lake.

As for the originally crystal-clear lake, it had already been dyed purplish-red by the white deer’s blood. It was like a huge blood-red gem that emitted a rich smell of blood.

Bloop! Bloop!

In the middle of the lake, tiny bubbles surfaced. It was as if the lake had been boiled, but the temperature of the lake didn’t rise.

After a while, Zhou Wen heard a splashing sound. Then, he saw a white flower tear out of the water and float to the surface.

The flower had six petals, blooming in a hexagonal shape, they were as white as snow. There was a circular petal in the middle, but it was bright red like blood. It looked like a Sacred Lily, but its flower pistel’s diameter exceeded a meter.

As the flower appeared, the purplish-red color of the lake water gradually faded. As for the snow-white petals, they gradually turned red as though the petals had absorbed the blood in the lake.

In just twenty minutes, the lake water returned to its crystal-clear state. The huge flower had completely turned blood-red, like a beautiful blood rose.

The white-clothed, faceless man waved his hand and used it like a blade, slicing off the white deer’s head he was riding. Blood spewed out from the white deer’s severed neck like a fountain. It splashed onto the flower, making it even more beautiful.

The deer’s corpse sank into the water, but the white-clothed figure didn’t react at all. He stood on the surface of the water with a face without any facial features. He continued facing the blood flower as though he was staring at it.

From the looks of it, the white-clothed man’s target should be that flower. What’s the use of that flower? Just as Zhou Wen was pondering over it, he saw a red glow shoot out from the flower. It was as though something was shimmering in the petal.

The white-clothed man, who had been standing there motionless the entire time, finally moved. He extended a hand and grabbed the center petal.

Liu Yun, who was lurking beside Zhou Wen, suddenly charged forward like a stream of light towards the flower. At the same time, he threw the oil lamp in his hand at the white-clothed, faceless man.

The oil lamp spewed out flames in the air, turning into a deity-like Genie. It spewed out flames that resembled a tornado towards the white-clothed, faceless man.

While the flames entangled the faceless man in white, Liu Yun reached out to grab the petal.

The white-clothed, faceless man waved his sleeve and immediately extinguished all the flames that the Genie spewed out. At the same time, the white wooden stick in his other hand struck at Liu Yun.

Liu Yun blocked the wooden stick with one hand while his other hand continued its attempt at grabbing the flower. Unfortunately, it was blocked by a metal disc.

In an instant, Liu Yun and the white-clothed, faceless man clashed several times. Liu Yun's hands were extremely fast, leaving behind afterimages when he attacked. It was as though he had transformed into a Thousand-Hand Guanyin. His speed wasn't inferior to Zhou Wen's Transcendent Flying Immortal. It was no wonder he could grab the Golden Overlord Sword with both hands.

However, the white-clothed man was even faster. As he blocked Liu Yun, he struck the metal disc with the wooden staff.

Clang!

Zhou Wen, who was by the riverbank, immediately felt his mind explode when he heard the sound. His soul seemed to waver from the tremors as though it would fly out of his body at any moment. He couldn't help but be alarmed as he hurriedly switched to Gods Retreat. At the same time, he took out the Substitute Talisman and stuck it on his body. He summoned the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and had it appear in its six-winged form behind him.

He fully activated the Truth Listener earring's abilities, blanketing the entire lake to clearly observe everything that happened.

Without a doubt, the white-clothed man was definitely a Mythical dimensional creature.

Judging by the loud sound, Liu Yun was also thrown into the lake. The situation didn’t look good.

However, when the white-clothed, faceless man looked at the flower, he was enraged. He slammed the metal disc again, causing the surrounding lake water to explode and spray. It rose up more than ten meters.

Zhou Wen also realized the problem. The thing that twinkled in the middle of the flower had vanished. Clearly, it had been taken by Liu Yun, but he hadn’t detected the moment when Liu Yun had taken it away.

He was fast! Just as Zhou Wen reeled in surprise, he saw Liu Yun rush out of the lake and climb ashore. He wanted to escape in the direction of the town.

However, the white-clothed man’s figure flashed. When he appeared again, he was already in front of Liu Yun, blocking his path.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 622 - Orange Ca

Chapter 622 Orange Ca

The white-clothed, faceless man was like a ghost as he drifted over. His figure appeared and disappeared from time to time. Li Yun was struggling to escape, but he couldn’t. He couldn’t beat him either, so he could only rely on the pair of black bracers and the protection of Genie to barely withstand the white-clothed, faceless man’s attacks.

“Junior Brother, quickly help me!” Liu Yun shouted as he fought.

Zhou Wen hid in the distance and didn’t move. He wasn’t familiar with Liu Yun, so it was naturally impossible for him to risk his life. He could take the opportunity to observe what abilities the white-clothed, faceless man had, so he could reap the benefits of the mutually destructive struggle.

The white-clothed, faceless man didn’t seem to have any terrifying skills, but Zhou Wen felt that he was somewhat odd. The clanging sound had actually shaken his soul. Even Truth Listener’s Evil Nullification was useless. It was obvious how terrifying he was.

Although he didn’t strike the metal disc again, Zhou Wen had to be wary.

Seeing Zhou Wen hiding in the distance without making a sound, Liu Yun used Genie to circle around the white-clothed, faceless man, but it didn’t have much of an effect. Although Genie wasn’t afraid of many kinds of destructive power, there was nothing he could do about the white-clothed, faceless man. Its flames were extinguished by the white-clothed, faceless man with a wave of his sleeve. It wasn't of much use.

"Junior Brother, help me. I'll share the benefits with you," shouted Liu Yun.

"What benefits? What's inside the flower?" Zhou Wen asked.

"I can't explain it in such a short period of time. Let's work together to kill this monster first," shouted Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen didn't say a word as he continued hiding in the shadows.

"Half. I'll give you half the benefits." Li Yun shouted again.

Zhou Wen remained unmoved. He had been observing the white-clothed, faceless man the entire time. The wooden staff in his hand didn't seem to be anything special. Even so, Liu Yun didn't dare let it hit him. All he dared to do was defend with his bracers.

His pair of bracers were definitely transformed from a Mythical Companion Beast. Otherwise, it would have been impossible for him to fend off the Golden Overlord Sword, nor could he block the attacks of the white-clothed, faceless man.

The Genie and the Mythical bracer could barely withstand the white-clothed, faceless man's attacks. From this, it could be seen that although the white-clothed, faceless man looked ordinary, he was actually rather terrifying.

Genie's ranking was still rather high. Yet, despite fighting the white-clothed, faceless man, he didn't show any special performance. Clearly, he was restrained.

“Junior Brother, at the very least, we studied under the same teacher. You can’t just leave me in the lurch.” Seeing Zhou Wen ignore him, Liu Yun sighed and said, “Fellow disciples should share weal and woe together. Don’t blame me for being heartless. Be careful of the staff in his hand. Don’t let it hit your body. Otherwise, your soul will immediately dissipate. It doesn’t matter how strong your body is.”

As Liu Yun spoke, he retreated while in combat. He ran towards Zhou Wen, clearly hoping to drag him into the fight.

How could Zhou Wen let him have his wish? Although he had many Mythical Companion Beasts and wasn’t necessarily afraid of the white-clothed, faceless man, there was no need for him to be Liu Yun’s shield.

Zhou Wen gradually retreated. As Liu Yun was fighting while retreating, he naturally couldn’t keep up with his speed.

“Junior Brother, I’m sorry. I’ll make it up to you when we meet again.” As Liu Yun spoke, he summoned an orange cat.

The orange cat was like a ball, but after appearing, it was extremely agile. It pounced at Zhou Wen like lightning.

It was strange. The white-clothed, faceless man had been chasing Liu Yun relentlessly, determined to take back the item from the flower.

However, the moment the orange cat appeared, the white-clothed, faceless man seemed to be attracted by a magnet. He gave up attacking Liu Yun and instead chased after the orange cat.

Zhou Wen immediately figured out what the problem was. A mysterious wave emitted from the orange cat's body, as though it was a taunting skill. It attracted the white-clothed, faceless man to chase after it.

Orange Cat was extremely fast as it led the white-clothed, faceless man towards Zhou Wen. Its body was as fat as a ball, but the way it positioned was extremely coquettish. It dodged the white-clothed, faceless man's pursuit time and time again.

Zhou Wen pulled out the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed out a few sword beams at Orange Cat, but it dodged them all. It seemed to know a teleportation skill as it got closer and closer to Zhou Wen.

There was only one way out with mountains surrounding the area. Zhou Wen had no choice but to fly up and escape using the sky.

However, just as he charged into midair, Orange Cat burrowed into the grass and the mysterious waves from its body vanished. The white-clothed, faceless man regained his clarity of mind and happened to see Zhou Wen fly up into the air like a ghost. He instantly caught up to Zhou Wen in midair.

"Junior Brother Zhou, I'll thank you now. See you again if fate allows for it. I'll treat you to a drink." Liu Yun waved at Zhou Wen from afar. It was unknown when Orange Cat had returned to his embrace.

"Junior Brother, you have to be careful. That fellow is the legendary Mountain God. The wooden staff in his hand can directly attack the soul. Using present-day parlance, it can attack one's mind. Once you are hit, you will become an idiot. You have to be careful.” Liu Yun’s voice sounded from afar. It softened until it was almost inaudible.

Zhou Wen guessed what the white-clothed, faceless man was after hearing Liu Yun’s words. The Mountain God mentioned in ancient times wasn’t an embodiment of a mountain, but a powerful demon spirit in the mountain. There were many types.

One of them was extremely terrifying. It was called Ba. Legend had it that it was the ancestor of hopping zombies. Wherever it went, it could devour clouds and dragons. It was an extremely terrifying existence.

Zhou Wen estimated that the white-clothed, faceless man was probably something similar. It wasn’t as terrifying as the legendary Ba, but it wasn’t a character to be trifled with.

The wooden staff in the white-robed, faceless man’s hand was powerful. It was probably a manifestation of a plant-type Mythical creature. No one knew how the white-clothed, faceless man obtained it.

The metal disc in his other hand wasn’t an ordinary object either.

Faced with such a strange thing, Zhou Wen didn’t give it any chance. He directly summoned Truth Listener.

Truth Listener was a divine beast that kept hell in check. It definitely had the ability to restrain all kinds of demons and ghosts. It was the perfect time to use it.

The moment Truth Listener appeared, the white-clothed, faceless man’s body trembled. His legs seemed to go limp as he turned and ran. The awe-inspiring aura and baneful aura from before had completely vanished. He looked nervous like a lost dog.

Truth Listener transformed into a stream of light that flashed and caught up to the white-clothed, faceless man. It smashed his head with its claw.

With a clang, the white-clothed, faceless man fell to the ground and died. The wooden staff and metal disc in his hand dropped.

Before Zhou Wen could walk over, Truth Listener had already dug out a crystal from his chest and swallowed it.

Although Zhou Wen thought that Truth Listener could restrain these things, he had not expected it to be so powerful. Truth Listener didn’t even use the Wheel of Destiny to kill the white-clothed, faceless man with a swipe.

Without any delay, Zhou Wen picked up the wooden staff and metal disc and stored them in the chaos space. He got Truth Listener to return to his ear before rushing back to the town.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 623 - Pearl

623 Pearl

Liu Yun escaped back to the town, but he didn’t leave immediately. Instead, he returned to the minimart at the corner of the street and took some things before walking out.

“Junior Brother should be fine, right? He won’t be killed, right?” Liu Yun looked in the direction of the lake and muttered to himself.

However, in the blink of an eye, Liu Yun muttered to himself as though he was comforting himself, “The people that Teacher tutored shouldn’t die so easily. He even has the guts to target Chimera. The Companion Beasts on him are definitely no trifling matter. They aren’t inferior to Genie. Furthermore, with the Golden Greatsword and the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, he should be able to escape even if he can’t defeat Mountain God.”

After some thought, Liu Yun took a bottle of alcohol from his bag and placed it on the table by the door. He used his finger like a sword and etched a sentence on the wall beside him. “Junior Brother, thank you for your help. This bottle of vintage wine was stolen from the Family Clan of Gods with great difficulty. It’s been aged over a hundred years. Take it as my thanks. Don’t miss me. Let’s meet again if fate allows.”

“What a pity. I wonder if this junior brother of mine is a wine connoisseur. If he doesn’t, wouldn’t it be a waste?” Liu Yun looked at the bottle and muttered reluctantly.

With that said, Liu Yun prepared to leave.

“You should keep the wine for yourself. Leave the thing you took from the flower to redeem your sins.” A voice sounded from the roof not far away.

Liu Yun’s expression changed drastically as he looked up and saw Zhou Wen standing on the rooftop opposite him. He immediately smiled. “Junior Brother, you sure are outstanding. You killed that Mountain God so quickly. You’re much stronger than me. It’s no wonder Teacher thinks so highly of the four of you. He even called you to his side before he left. You are indeed the cream of the crop.” Liu Yun said as he retreated to the side. It looked like he was about to escape.

“If I were you, I would stay still,” Zhou Wen said indifferently without stopping him.

“I also wish to have a good chat with you, Junior Brother. Unfortunately, the bureau is hounding me. If I were to stay here, I’m afraid I would implicate you. That wouldn’t be nice. I’ll take my leave now.” As Liu Yun spoke, he directed strength into his feet and attempted to rush out.

However, just as he exerted strength, the ground beneath his feet exploded. It was as though he had stepped on a landmine. Liu Yun’s reaction was fast enough as he tumbled away, reducing most of the explosive force. However, wherever his body rolled on the ground exploded.

“Ah!”

Screams and explosions rang out. By the time Liu Yun stopped, his body was already charred black. His hair was standing up and still smoking.

“Junior Brother, I never expected you to be proficient in Life Blast? That’s not right. You didn’t use a lifeform for the blast, so it shouldn’t be Life Blast. What skill is this?” Liu Yun stood rooted to the ground and didn’t dare move. He forced a smile and asked Zhou Wen.

“I don’t know what skill it is either. If you are interested, why don’t you try taking another step?” Zhou Wen said indifferently.

When Liu Yun was packing up, Zhou Wen had already directed Explosive Fiend Man to set up many Time-Blasts nearby to prevent him from escaping.

“Junior Brother, we are fellow disciples. Why do you have to do this? Why don’t we do this? We’ll split this treasure equally.” Liu Yun took out something from his pocket.

Zhou Wen carefully sized up the item in Liu Yun’s hand. It was a blood-colored bead that was the size of a billiard ball. It was completely blood-red and crystalline, like an alluring red pearl. It flashed with a red glimmer as though something was flowing inside.

“Leave your life or leave that pearl behind. You can choose either one,” Zhou Wen said.

“There’s no need to be so ruthless, right?” Liu Yun smiled bitterly.

“If it wasn’t for Teacher, you would have died the moment you lured Mountain God to me,” Zhou Wen said.

In fact, it wasn’t entirely because of this that Zhou Wen didn’t kill Liu Yun. Firstly, Liu Yun’s abilities and Companion

Beasts were rather odd. He didn’t know what other means he had, so Zhou Wen wasn’t completely confident that he could ensure retaining him while not having the red bead destroyed.

Zhou Wen’s interest in treasures was far greater than killing someone.

Secondly, Liu Yun had also told him about Mountain God when he left. Furthermore, there was a high chance that he was Wang Mingyuan’s student. There was no need for him to fight him to the death.

“Forget it. You are my junior brother after all? I’ll give you this treasure.” As Liu Yun spoke, he threw the red pearl at Zhou Wen.

He summoned Genie at the same time and made it open up a path for him to escape in another direction. The direction he chose wasn’t to leave the town but to go towards the lake.

Liu Yun thought that Zhou Wen had set up a trap to prevent him from escaping. He thought he would have set up a trap in the direction of the town’s exit so he would escape into the forest before scaling a mountain. Naturally, he would be able to escape. After all, there probably hadn’t been enough time for Zhou Wen to set up traps all around him.

Zhou Wen reached out to grab the red pearl, but he realized that it was only a bubble. It shattered with a touch.

“Junior Brother, you’re still too young to fight me.” Liu Yun held the red pearl in his hand and quickly rushed towards the forest outside the town.

Genie charged ahead, and there didn’t seem to be any explosions. Things had developed according to Liu Yun’s expectations. Zhou Wen hadn’t set up a trap in this direction.

Genie charged into the grasses and was fine, but when Liu Yun rushed into the grass, the plants suddenly exploded like bombs. Immediately, a series of tragic cries and explosions sounded.

When everything calmed down, Liu Yun was already lying on the ground covered in injuries. His handsome face had turned black, and most of his hair had been burnt.

“Try running again.” Zhou Wen came to Liu Yun’s side and took a deep breath. The red pearl was sucked out of Liu Yun’s sleeve and landed in Zhou Wen’s palm.

“You and your schemes. There’s nothing impressive about using traps and harming others. If you really have the ability, remove the surrounding traps and fight me openly. Whoever wins the battle will have the treasure,” said Liu Yun with a righteous tone.

Zhou Wen curled his lips in disdain. This wasn’t the first time he had been hoodwinked. Once bitten, twice shy. Wang Mingyuan’s students looked young and handsome, but, including Wang Mingyuan, none of them were decent. Zhou Wen wouldn’t fight him in an open match unless he was crazy.

“Why are you being pursued by the bureau? Is it because of Teacher?” Zhou Wen asked.

“No.” Liu Yun shook his head.

This answer exceeded Zhou Wen’s expectations, so he continued asking, “Then what’s the reason?”

“Because I stole something from the six families and the bureau’s headquarters.” Liu Yun puffed up his chest proudly. However, because he looked as though he had been struck by lightning, he didn’t look that impressive.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 624 - Signature in Hand

624 Signature in Hand

“What did you steal?” Zhou Wen asked.

Liu Yun opened his mouth, but he suddenly closed it again. He was regretting it now. He shouldn’t have been greedy for the alcohol and food. After escaping, he should have left the town.

Liu Yun originally imagined that Zhou Wen wouldn’t return so quickly and would definitely be entangled by Mountain God for a long time. Who knew that Zhou Wen would be able to catch up so quickly and even have the time to set up so many Time-Blasts? If he had known, he wouldn’t have done all those things and would have long fled.

“I didn’t steal anything valuable. They’re all small things.” Liu Yun changed the topic and said, “Junior Brother, you have taken the treasure too. It’s time for me to leave. Can you remove your traps?”

Liu Yun had never seen an Essence Energy Skill like Time-Blast. He had seen Life Blast in the past, and he could also see the traces of Life Blast. However, it wasn’t easy for him to see any flaws with the Explosive Fiend Man’s Time-Blast. Furthermore, it wasn’t just used on living bodies. This made him stumble and suffer.

“Sure. Sign here and you can leave.” Zhou Wen placed a piece of paper and a pen in front of Liu Yun.

“Junior Brother, what are you doing?” Liu Yun had been through a lot, so he knew that things weren’t as simple as signing an autograph.

“You can leave after you sign your signature,” Zhou Wen said.

Liu Yun forced out a smile. “It wasn’t easy for us fellow disciples to meet. As a senior brother, I should stay and accompany you more.”

“Even if you don’t want to leave, you have to sign it,” Zhou Wen continued.

Liu Yun’s expression immediately turned bitter. “Junior Brother, we share the same roots, so why torment each other? Can we negotiate this nicely?”

“Don’t you want to know what Companion Beast I will use to challenge Chimera? Then I’ll let you experience it for yourself.” Zhou Wen looked at Liu Yun and was about to summon Tyrant Behemoth.

“I’ll sign it.” Before Zhou Wen could summon Tyrant Behemoth, Liu Yun quickly picked up the paper and pen and signed his name before handing it to Zhou Wen. “Junior Brother, what’s the use of this signature?”

“As long as you don’t spout nonsense, this signature won’t be of any use. Don’t worry.” Zhou Wen folded and put it away when he saw the words “Liu Yun.”

In fact, the authenticity of the name didn’t matter. As long as he signed it in person, Explosive Fiend Man’s death list would take effect.

Now, with just a thought from the Explosive Fiend Man, he could kill Liu Yun who had signed his name.

“Alright, you can leave now.” Zhou Wen turned around and walked towards the town square.

“Remove the traps first before you leave.” Liu Yun had suffered terribly from the Time-Blast. If it wasn’t for the Time-Blast, he would have fled long ago.

After all, he was only at the Epic stage, and his Mythical pets couldn’t protect his entire body. He really couldn’t withstand the continuous explosions.

“There’s no more left. I didn’t have much time just now. I only had time to set up that many. You have already detonated them all,” Zhou Wen said without turning his head.

Liu Yun’s face looked livid when he heard that. If he had known this would happen, he would have been able to escape even if he was injured. He had been robbed of the red pearl for nothing and had even signed his name for some unknown reason.

“Why aren’t you leaving? Why are you following me?” Zhou Wen asked when he saw Liu Yun follow him from behind.

“Junior Brother, I don’t feel at ease until you explain what that signature is for. It’s better I follow you.” Liu Yun had seen many strange Essence Energy Skills before, so he knew of some special Essence Energy Skills that just needed a name to kill someone thousands of kilometers away.

Liu Yun didn’t know which type of Essence Energy Skill Zhou Wen had, nor did he know what use it had. How could he leave just like that?

“Up to you.” Zhou Wen continued walking towards the town square.

“Junior Brother, why don’t we do this? I’ll tell you a secret of the Cape family. Why don’t you return the paper to me?” Liu Yun said as he walked.

“I hate hearing secrets the most,” Zhou Wen said.

However, Liu Yun continued disapprovingly, “The secret I’m talking about isn’t an ordinary piece of news. A while back, I tried my best to sneak into the Special Inspector Bureau and the few large families and learned quite a lot of secrets. You know the Zhang family, right? The family of the Hero King, the Zhang family’s princess, Zhang Yuzhi. Do you know why the Zhang family dotes on her so much?”

“Why?” Zhou Wen was intrigued.

“Because she’s very special. In recent years, the Zhang family’s strength has increased tremendously. It has something to do with the little princess of the Zhang family. I accidentally discovered this secret when I sneaked into the Zhang family residence to steal something. Other than the few upper echelons of the Zhang family, I’m afraid I’m the only one who knows this secret.” Liu Yun deliberately kept him in suspense.

Zhou Wen didn’t pursue the matter. He walked all the way to the square and saw the black cube.

Seeing that Zhou Wen didn’t pursue the matter, Liu Yun continued, “I’ll treat this secret as a free gift to you. The little princess of the Zhang family has a special Life Providence. With such a Life Providence, she can easily gain the favor of any dimensional creature, allowing them to treat her as one of their own. Think about it, this is such a terrifying ability.

With Zhang Yuzhi, the Zhang family can easily grasp the habits and abilities of those Mythical creatures. Then, killing those Mythical creatures will be much easier. Such a person will be doted on like a princess no matter where they are. They definitely won't let anything happen to her."

"Zhang Yuzhi really has such a Life Providence?" Zhou Wen asked in surprise.

"Don't doubt me. I heard it myself. It's definitely not fake news," Liu Yun swore.

In fact, Zhou Wen was already convinced. This was because he had seen Zhang Yuzhi use her weak body to stop the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon in its rage. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon actually didn't injure her.

Back then, he felt that there was something odd about Zhang Yuzhi, but he didn't think too deeply about it.

Now that he thought about it, Zhang Yuzhi really must have that ability or something even stronger.

However, Zhou Wen felt that there was still a problem with Zhang Yuzhi's Life Providence. Back when the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was killed, Zhang Yuzhi's sorrow was definitely not faked.

With this in mind, Zhou Wen's heart suddenly stirred. Could Zhang Yuzhi's Life Providence be two-way? If she can make dimensional creatures treat her as a friend or relative, she might have the same feelings. That might be more reasonable.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that it was best if his guess didn't come true. Otherwise, Zhang Yuzhi would be too pitiful.

If his guess was true, Zhang Yuzhi had already treated the dimensional creatures as family and friends. Yet, her family wanted to use her to kill them. That was a tragedy in itself.

As he pondered, Zhou Wen walked to the black cube and summoned Tyrant Behemoth.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 625 - Behemoth“s First Battle

625 Behemoth“s First Battle

Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth’s body that seemed to be made of obsidian landed, causing the ground around it to tremble.

This can’t be… Behemoth, right? Liu Yun was knowledgeable. He had once traveled across the world, so he quickly guessed Behemoth’s identity. He was even more alarmed.

Behemoth was a dimensional creature in the West District. Furthermore, it enjoyed a very high status in West District mythology. Many people in the West District guessed that Behemoth existed, but no one had seen it before.

Liu Yun never expected to see a Behemoth Companion Beast in Zhou Wen’s possession. Although he didn’t know if it was a pure Behemoth, it definitely had a Behemoth bloodline.

Zhou Wen didn’t say a word as he controlled Behemoth to mount the black cube. Then, it walked to the middle and injected Essence Energy into the circle.

The black cube immediately lit up. On the cube’s four screens, the top hundred Companion Beasts appeared. Zhou Wen found the thirteenth ranked Chimera and struck its name with Essence Energy.

It was like a touchscreen interface. Chimera’s name on the cube’s screen lit up. Then, a 72-hour countdown appeared behind the name.

If Chimera didn’t accept the challenge within 72 hours, Tyrant Behemoth would replace Chimera’s ranking and squeeze it out of the rankings.

Tyrant Behemoth was pulled into a dimensional combat field by a beam of light from the cube. The images of Tyrant Behemoth appeared on the cubes around the world, as well as the name and countdown of the Chimera.

It’s really Behemoth! Liu Yun saw the name on the cube and knew that his previous guess had been correct.

Tyrant Behemoth’s appearance immediately attracted the attention of the media around the world, especially the West District’s media. They were extremely enthusiastic about its appearance as they guessed who Tyrant Behemoth belonged to.

The people who had the most guesses were either from the Family Clan of Gods or the Cape family, but now, the people from the Cape family were alarmed.

It was fine that Behemoth had appeared, but it had actually challenged their Cape family’s Companion Beast. This made them suspect that the Family Clan of Gods in the West District was up to no good.

However, they didn’t have any evidence. Chimera’s owner didn’t immediately accept the challenge. The Cape family used all sorts of channels and means to begin investigating if Tyrant Behemoth was the doing of the Family Clan of Gods or if others in the West District were secretly enemies with them.

Another family that paid attention to Tyrant Behemoth was the Zhang family. Others didn't know of Tyrant Behemoth's origins, but the Zhang family knew very well that Tyrant Behemoth's Companion Egg had originally belonged to them. It was only because of a traitor that they had lost the Tyrant Behemoth Companion Egg.

"It has finally appeared. The Behemoth Companion Egg that our Zhang family lost." Zhang Xiao stared at Tyrant Behemoth in the video with a dark expression.

There were many brothers and many geniuses in the Zhang family. Mythical Companion Eggs weren't enough for them all. If the Behemoth Companion Egg wasn't lost, Zhang Xiao had a great chance of becoming its master. Therefore, Zhang Xiao paid special attention to this matter.

Zhang Chunqiu patted Zhang Xiao on the shoulder and said, "Don't force yourself when it's destined. There will be stronger Mythical Companion Beasts waiting for you in the future."

"I just want to know who stole the Behemoth Companion Egg and took what belongs to our Zhang family. They must pay the price," Zhang Xiao said.

"According to our previous investigations, it's most likely done by the overseas faction. When I return, I'll accompany you to sea," Zhang Chunqiu said.

Zhang Xiao shook his head slightly. "Brother Qiu, let me handle this matter myself. How are your preparations?"

"Dugu Ge and Xia Liuchuan are already on their way. I hope there will be a result. If the cocoon really has a Guardian like the six-winged seraphim, we will have a new path to continue progressing," Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Is this path really correct?” Zhang Xiao questioned.

“Who knows? Even if it’s the wrong path, you have to walk it before you know,” Zhang Chunqiu said calmly.

Zhou Wen waited for quite some time, but he didn’t see Chimera accept the challenge. All he could do was take out his tent and other items and set them up by the side. Then, he entered the tent and lay down to game while waiting for Chimera to accept the challenge.

With a time limit of 72 hours, it was unknown when the Cape family would accept the challenge. Zhou Wen guessed that they wouldn’t accept the challenge quickly, but they wouldn’t give up either.

The Cape family also wanted to know what kind of power Tyrant Behemoth had. Was it as terrifying as the mythical legends?

Looking at his size, Tyrant Behemoth was only a few meters tall. It didn’t look like a monster that could eat a thousand mountains daily. They definitely had their doubts.

In fact, Tyrant Behemoth still couldn’t eat a thousand mountains a day. However, eating a smaller mountain wasn’t a problem. Its body could change in size freely. This was the most confusing part.

Even if it was just a test, the Cape family wouldn’t let Chimera surrender without a fight.

However, they would definitely be very careful and wouldn’t give Zhou Wen too many chances. Therefore, Zhou Wen had to deliver a death strike to prevent them from even having the chance to admit defeat.

As Zhou Wen expected, Chimera finally accepted the challenge after more than twenty hours and appeared on the cube’s arena.

The media immediately perked up as they live-streamed the battle. Behemoth and Chimera were terrifying existences in legend, but from a Mythical point of view, Chimera was definitely not as strong as Behemoth.

However, Tyrant Behemoth was only a few meters tall. Although it looked very strong, it didn’t seem to have the advantage when compared to Chimera, who was more than ten meters tall.

After Chimera appeared, it immediately ran quickly. However, it didn’t rush towards Tyrant Behemoth. Instead, it quickly circled around the arena and went behind Tyrant Behemoth. It suddenly leaped up and spread its wings. At the same time, its three heads roared together, condensing three different powers. It was like three light spheres were constantly expanding in their mouths.

After the red, yellow, and cyan beams reached an extreme point, they fused together like a volcanic eruption. They transformed into a terrifying white energy beam that struck Tyrant Behemoth in the arena.

That terrifying power appeared to blast through the entire arena.

“The Cape family is really careful. They actually used Chimera’s Wheel of Destiny—Gene Disintegration Ray. Are they thinking of surrendering the moment their single strike fails?” Zhang Chunqiu said with a smile.

“After all, it’s Behemoth. It’s only right for them to be careful,” Zhang Xiao said.

An Tianzuo was also watching this scene inside the Luoyang An family residence.

“Although Chimera isn’t the strongest Mythical pet, its Gene Disintegration Ray is indeed a very domineering Wheel of Destiny. If Tyrant Behemoth underestimates its enemy, I’m afraid it will suffer greatly,” An Tianzuo said.

“Young Master Wen shouldn’t be someone who underestimates his enemy,” An Sheng said with a smile.

“How do you know that the Tyrant Behemoth must be his? Since when did you become so careless?” An Tianzuo sneered.

“Yes, Overseer. I’ve learned my mistake,” An Sheng said, but his eyes remained fixed on the projection.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 626 - Behemoth“s Migh

626 Behemoth“s Migh

Everyone looked at the terrifying beam descending from the sky as though it was a divine punishment that could destroy the world.

Their gazes were focused on the ebony figure beneath the divine punishment. Under such a terrifying beam of light, the somewhat muscular body seemed tiny and minuscule, as though it would be drowned in a terrifying stream of light at any moment.

However, from beginning to end, Tyrant Behemoth didn’t move at all. It didn’t raise its head to look at the beam or at Chimera. It was as though its reaction was slow and had failed to notice the terrifying beam that descended from the sky.

Boom!

The beam directly struck Tyrant Behemoth’s body. The streams of light constantly blasted the arena. The light exploded, drowning the entire arena in an explosion of light. Large amounts of dust rose up.

“How arrogant.” An Tianzuo frowned.

“He’s courting death by tanking the Gene Disintegration Ray.” The Cape family was overjoyed.

The characteristics of the Gene Disintegration Ray was appraised to be impossible to withstand head-on, even for Mythical Companion Beasts. Otherwise, their bodies' genes would collapse.

"What a waste of a treasure. The person has such a powerful Companion Beast like Behemoth, but his usage of it is so crude. What a waste of such a powerful Companion Beast. No matter how powerful a Companion Beast is, it will still lose if one uses it recklessly," Zhang Xiao said coldly.

"That's not necessarily the case." Zhang Chunqiu narrowed his eyes and muttered to himself.

Right then, in the midst of the explosion of light, a huge black mountain suddenly rose from the ground. The light blast that enveloped the arena turned into a cloud that seemed to linger around a black mountain. Although the light remained blinding, it couldn't cause any substantial damage to the mountain.

As for the beam that shot down, it was like a waterfall of light. The mountain peak went against the waterfall and the waterfall immediately scattered, unable to stop the mountain's rise.

"Not good… Quickly admit defeat and take back Chimera…" Senator Cape's expression changed drastically as he ordered loudly.

However, it was already too late. The mountain-like Tyrant Behemoth opened its huge mouth and swallowed the stream of light along with Chimera. Instantly, the arena fell silent. The light vanished, leaving only a terrifying monster standing there.

The name of Chimera on the ranking vanished—replacing it was Tyrant Behemoth.

“It ended just like that?” Instantly, all the spectators fell silent.

No one expected the battle to end like this. The extremely powerful Chimera, a ferocious beast that had once killed a dragon, was actually devoured in one mouthful.

The terrifying explosion of light was like a volcanic eruption. It was as laughable as useless fireworks.

“Too powerful… It’s really too powerful… As expected of our West District’s divine beast, Behemoth. It’s simply invincible. With such a powerful existence, what creature in the world can withstand it?”

“It’s way too invincible. That’s Chimera. Yet, it was swallowed in one mouthful.”

“How domineering. This is a truly invincible creature. What Primordial Sword Immortal? What Death of the Underworld? They are all weak. True men have to take it all in one mouthful.”

“God, that Tyrant might really be able to destroy the world.”

“I can’t believe my eyes. Tyrant Behemoth is too powerful. If I were its master, I think I would sit at home watching television before destroying the world.”

“That’s the tyrant who rules the world.”

Instantly, the Internet exploded with messages. Countless people were discussing Tyrant Behemoth.

The faces of the Cape family members became uglier by the second. Mythical Companion Beasts were rare to begin with. Now that Chimera, one of the best Companion Beasts in the Cape family, was dead, they felt their hearts bleed as they were extremely furious.

“Investigate. I want a full investigation. We have to find out who the owner of Tyrant Behemoth is.” Senator Cape was extremely furious as he wished he could smash the television with one punch.

Zhang Xiao’s expression was equally ugly. Seeing Tyrant Behemoth’s strength made him feel even worse. This powerful Companion Beast might very well have belonged to him.

…

“Young Master Wen really has a good life. He already has a powerful Companion Beast like Torch Dragon, yet he has an existence like Tyrant Behemoth. Together with the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and other Companion Beasts, I think his Companion Beasts alone can challenge a hero family,” An Sheng said.

“Aren’t you underestimating the heritage of the six families? You’re ignoring the fact that Tyrant Behemoth might not be his. Even if it is his, it’s only the Companion Beast that’s strong. With insufficient strength himself, if he really wants to challenge a hero family, it’d be useless no matter how powerful a Companion Beast is,” An Tianzuo said.

“Overseer is right,” An Sheng said respectfully.

…

“Junior Brother, this Behemoth of yours is pretty good. Where did you get it from? I’ll get one later.” Liu Yun’s eyes lit up as he looked at Zhou Wen.

“I got it at an auction.” Zhou Wen took back Tyrant Behemoth and replied in a good mood.

“An auction? Which auction would sell something like that?” Liu Yun didn’t believe Zhou Wen at all. It would be a miracle if someone was willing to sell such a powerful Companion Beast.

“Make a guess.” Zhou Wen had unknowingly been influenced by people such as The Thearch and Wang Mingyuan.

“Junior Brother, are you interested in betting with me?” Liu Yun wasn’t interested in guessing. He didn’t believe Tyrant Behemoth was bought from an auction.

“Not interested.” Zhou Wen ignored Liu Yun and returned to his tent to game.

Zhou Wen didn’t plan on returning for the time being. He planned on getting Tyrant Behemoth to continue making challenges, but he still needed to study the target. It wasn’t suitable for him to directly challenge Primordial Sword Immortal.

However, the Federation and overseas faction were researching Tyrant Behemoth. Many people believed that Tyrant Behemoth’s strength wasn’t as simple as being ranked thirteenth. It was very likely that it had the strength to reach first on the rankings.

However, Tyrant Behemoth didn’t show much. Their analysis didn’t produce many results.

Liu Yun went out alone. After leaving Zhou Wen, he secretly went to a small forest to summon his Genie.

Liu Yun reached out to rub the oil lamp. Soon, Genie appeared in front of him. However, the Genie that appeared this time was different from before. Its entire body emitted a strange blue glow.

“Junior Brother, as your senior brother, let me teach you a good lesson.” As Liu Yun spoke, he made a wish to the Genie. “Genie, I wish for my Life Soul’s power to be greatly enhanced.”

When the Genie heard Liu Yun’s wish, its body, which suffused a magical glow, drilled into Liu Yun’s body. Soon, Liu Yun’s entire body suffused a blue glow.

With the help of Genie and a Life Soul, my Star Stealer can forcefully steal the Companion Beast that has already hatched. That punk will never expect me to have such an ability. Unfortunately, Star Stealer can’t lock onto a target. I can only steal something randomly. However, it doesn’t matter. That punk has so many Mythical Companion Beasts. With the help of the Genie’s wish and Life Soul’s augmentation, I can attempt a theft ten times. No matter how unlucky I am, I should be able to steal a Mythical right? It’s best if it’s Tyrant Behemoth. If not, the Golden Greatsword would do… Liu Yun thought as he carefully took out something.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 627 - Star Stealer

627 Star Stealer

Zhou Wen was grinding in the tent when he felt the jade-like tiny person suddenly open its eyes in his sea of consciousness. Its body emitted a strange treasure glow.

The treasure glow turned corporeal, piercing through his consciousness, causing Zhou Wen’s body to similarly emit a crystalline glow.

What’s going on? Why did Gods Retreat suddenly activate? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised as he felt a vibration coming from somewhere on his body.

Upon closer inspection, he realized that the spot which was vibrating was actually a Musical Note Sprite tattoo. There was a Musical Note Sprite that seemed to be affected by some unknown force as it struggled to spread its wings.

However, due to the influence of the treasure glow generated by Gods Retreat, it was unable to fly out. It was trapped by the treasure glow like a butterfly trapped in a cage.

What’s going on? Zhou Wen attempted to control the power that Gods Retreat released, preventing the power from isolating the Musical Note Sprite tattoo.

With the power of Gods Retreat, the Musical Note Sprite tattoo immediately vanished under Zhou Wen’s nose. It only took a blink of an eye.

Furthermore, Zhou Wen had completely lost contact with the Musical Note Sprite, as though he had never had such a Companion Beast. If Zhou Wen hadn’t seen it disappear with his own eyes, he wouldn’t have realized that he had lost a Companion Beast.

What power took away the Musical Note Sprite? Zhou Wen’s first reaction was to expand the power of the Truth Listener earring to its limit. He could hear the surrounding areas clearly. Even the falling of a strand of hair to the ground couldn’t escape his ears.

Soon, Zhou Wen discovered Liu Yun, who was hiding outside the town. The fellow was squatting in the grass. At a glance, it looked like he was shitting, but upon careful inspection, the fellow hadn’t even taken off his pants as he mumbled something.

Zhou Wen listened carefully and heard Liu Yun say, “What’s wrong with my Junior Brother? Why does he have such trashy Companion Beasts? Junior Brother, don’t worry. I’m still a gentleman. I’ll stop after stealing a Mythical Companion Beast from you.”

Indeed, this fellow is up to no good. He’s really not afraid of death. Zhou Wen took a careful look and indeed, he saw the tattoo of a Musical Note Sprite on his body. It was identical to the one he had lost.

Zhou Wen remained unperturbed. He wanted to see what Liu Yun was up to.

Liu Yun didn’t know that Truth Listener’s range was that large. He was already so far away; yet, Zhou Wen could still monitor him.

Previously, the reason Liu Yun could make Truth Listener lose its effects was that he had already discovered Zhou Wen and determined that Zhou Wen was observing him. That was why he had allowed Genie to release its power to affect Truth Listener's abilities.

Now, he didn't know that Zhou Wen could monitor him from such a distance. Furthermore, with his Star Stealer's ability, he could usually steal Companion Beasts without anyone noticing. It was impossible for the person he stole from to discover him.

The Companion Beast that Liu Yun had set up to keep watch didn't notice anything from Zhou Wen. He imagined that Zhou Wen hadn't even discovered that his Companion Beast had been stolen.

In fact, he wouldn't have discovered the disappearance of the Musical Note Sprite if Zhou Wen didn't habitually have Gods Retreat activated.

"Anyway, there are still nine chances. I'm sure I can steal a Mythical Companion Beast." Liu Yun gritted his teeth and reached out to grab at the void.

His fingertips shimmered with strange starlight as though something was burning. The starlight tore through the void, causing Liu Yun's hand to vanish as though it was invisible.

When the hand pulled back from the void, there was a lively Musical Note Sprite in his hand. The Musical Note Sprite circled around him and automatically landed on him, turning into a tattoo.

Just like last time, Zhou Wen felt the tattoo of a Musical Note Sprite vibrate. He removed the power of Gods Retreat Life Soul, making the Musical Note Sprite tattoo vanish.

This fellow actually has such an ability! Doesn’t that mean he’s invincible? He can steal any Mythical Companion Beast he likes! Zhou Wen was alarmed as he continued observing silently.

It was better to encounter such a strange ability than to encounter it in the future. Now that he had figured out what was going on, he would have some experience for the future. He would know how to deal with it. This wasn’t a bad thing for Zhou Wen.

“Holy sh*t, why is it still a Musical Note Sprite? Why does that punk have so many trash Companion Beasts with him?” Liu Yun felt depressed when he saw that it was another Musical Note Sprite.

“Although they’re stolen randomly, the chances of obtaining the same Companion Beast in a row shouldn’t be high, right?” Liu Yun didn’t believe it as he reached out to steal again.

So it turns out that the ability to steal Companion Beasts is random. Zhou Wen discovered some problems. On Liu Yun’s fingertip, there was a short strand of hair. When Liu Yun used Star Stealer, the strand of hair would burn.

Zhou Wen knew at a glance that it was his hair.

When did this fellow steal my hair? Zhou Wen had to admit that Liu Yun was indeed top-notch when it came to stealing. He was actually able to steal his hair without him noticing.

Knowing that Liu Yun’s stealing of Companion Beasts was random, Zhou Wen felt relieved. He had been farming Musical Note Sprites for so long. Almost every time he respawned, he would farm the dungeon. Now, the number of Musical Note Sprites he possessed had reached more than four thousand. Altogether, Zhou Wen had more than five thousand Companion Beasts.

The chance of stealing his Mythical Companion Beasts was about one in a thousand. This would be extremely difficult unless one had Wang Lu's luck.

Zhou Wen realized that he could only discover that Liu Yun had stolen something from him when the Gods Retreat Life Soul was activated. Even Truth Listener's hearing and Evil Nullification were useless.

If Gods Retreat wasn't activated, the Companion Beast tattoo on his body would vanish without a trace. Unless he happened to see the tattoo disappear, it would be very difficult to discover that he had lost his Companion Beast.

What skill is this? Where can I obtain such a skill? Zhou Wen felt that he could learn similar skills.

In the future, anytime he saw people from the Cape family and the Special Inspector Bureau, he could try stealing from them.

"Another Musical Note Sprite?" Liu Yun nearly jumped up in frustration when he saw the Companion Beast he had stolen.

In his rage, Liu Yun quickly grabbed with both hands, constantly using the Star Stealer to grab Companion Beasts one after another.

Musical Note Sprite… Musical Note Sprite… Musical Note Sprite… Another Musical Note Sprite… Liu Yun stole with both hands, but in the end, they were all Musical Note Sprites. He had already stolen seven of them in a row. He only had three chances left out of his ten attempts.

“What the hell? How many Musical Note Sprites did that punk bring with him? How can I be only getting a Musical Note Sprite each time?” Liu Yun was so angry that he nearly vomited blood.

Zhou Wen chuckled inwardly. More than 90% of the Companion Beasts on him were Musical Note Sprites. He wouldn’t find it strange if all Liu Yun’s thefts were Musical Note Sprites.

However, Zhou Wen still carefully used Gods Retreat to confirm that Liu Yun didn’t steal an important Companion Beast. Only then would he release it and let him steal it.

“No, I can’t continue like this. That punk has countless Musical Note Sprites on him. I have to think of a way.” Liu Yun had no intention of giving up. The Genie’s wish had been used. Even if he didn’t continue stealing, he wouldn’t have his wish refunded. He could only continue stealing.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 628 - Life Reversing Spirit Talisman

628 Life Reversing Spirit Talisman

Liu Yun hesitated for a moment. Finally, he made up his mind and took out something from his pocket.

It was a strange jade talisman that was just the size of a palm. It was jade-white in color, but there was a red symbol engraved on it. It looked strange, its meaning was unknown.

“It wasn’t easy for me to get this Life Reversing Spirit Talisman from the Zhang family. This is the only one I have. I originally planned to try my luck after meeting the owner of Primordial Sword Immortal, but I can’t be bothered with that now.” As Liu Yun spoke, he held the jade talisman in his hand and used Star Stealer again.

Crack!

Before Liu Yun’s palm reached into the void, the jade talisman shattered. The blood-colored runes seeped into his palm and shimmered.

“The Zhang family’s Life Reversing Spirit Talisman can flip Yin and Yang and turn the universe on its head. Although it can’t really change fate, it can invert the probability of my Star Stealer. It will allow me to steal the Companion Beast with the lowest probability, the ones that are almost impossible to steal. Although it doesn’t mean that the chances of a Mythical Companion Beast are the lowest, typically speaking, one only has one Mythical Companion Beast. The chances are definitely not high. Therefore, the chances of stealing a Mythical Companion Beast are definitely very high for me now.”

Liu Yun muttered to himself as he suddenly pulled out his hand. At the same time, he shouted, “Come, Tyrant Behemoth. I have a feeling that it’s definitely you this time.”

Zhou Wen was given a fright when he heard Liu Yun’s words. He was really afraid that Tyrant Behemoth would really be stolen. He focused his attention and circulated Gods Retreat.

However, when Zhou Wen’s Companion Beast tattoo trembled, his expression turned odd.

The trembling tattoo was actually Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

Ever since he had obtained the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, Zhou Wen had been very careful. He didn’t dare release him easily, afraid that he would be affected by the Jinxes Master skill.

Previously, Zhou Wen still needed the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General to restrain Qiongqi. Now, with Tyrant Behemoth, there was no need for him. Zhou Wen had been in a dilemma on how to deal with it.

He never expected Liu Yun to steal the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen released the restrictions and got Liu Yun to steal the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General.

I can observe the effects of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General's Jinxes Master skill on others. Will the Jinxes Master Skill only take effect when released? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

"Come on, my Tyrant Behemoth…" Liu Yun quickly pulled out his palm from the void.

Liu Yun was overjoyed when he saw that it wasn't a Musical Note Sprite that came out of his palm.

However, upon careful inspection, it wasn't Tyrant Behemoth. Instead, it was a heavy-armored warrior riding a tiger. He looked extremely ferocious and domineering, exuding an extraordinary aura.

A humanoid Companion Beast? Its aura is so domineering and ferocious. Could it be a Mythical Companion Beast? Liu Yun watched as the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General transformed into a stream of light that landed on him. At the same time, some information surged into his mind.

Unfortunately, Liu Yun didn't have the mysterious phone. He couldn't check the information regarding the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. All he could do was obtain some information from the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General to gather some vague details.

"Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General… Epic…" Liu Yun learned the name and level of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General. He could also sense the Life Providence and Life Soul a little, but it was limited to their names. He didn't know much about it. All he could do was wait until he summoned it out to test its various abilities in combat.

"I never expected that punk to have such a good life." Liu Yun had no choice. After much difficulty, he had only managed to steal one Life Reversing Spirit Talisman from the Zhang family. Even the Zhang family didn’t have many. It would be impossible to steal one from them again.

Furthermore, it was too late. He only had two thefts left.

He had once again used Star Stealer, but it was still a Musical Note Sprite.

“This is the last time. God, Mother Mary, bless me. Let me steal a big one…” Liu Yun prayed before using Star Stealer again.

When a Companion Beast appeared in his palm, Liu Yun was delighted when he saw that it wasn’t a Musical Note Sprite. However, when he pulled it out, he realized that it was only an Epic Poison Bat. He couldn’t help but be greatly disappointed.

“It’s really a huge loss. I wasted a wish and even used the Life Reversing Spirit Talisman. I only managed to steal these crappy things…” Liu Yun was so depressed that he wanted to vomit blood.

He clearly knew that Zhou Wen had many Mythical Companion Beasts, but he had only managed to steal trash. It was unacceptable.

There was nothing he could do even if he was indignant about it. He had expended a lot of energy this time, so it was impossible for him to use Star Stealer anytime soon.

“Forget it.” Liu Yun got up and prepared to return. He had already made up his mind. He would pretend to lose his Companion Beast and then accuse Zhou Wen of being a villain. It would be fine as long as Zhou Wen thought that the dimensional creatures nearby were fooling around.

“How unlucky. How can I only steal those crappy things?” Liu Yun felt a little depressed. There was a small stone in front of him, so he kicked it.

However, the stone remained motionless despite the kick. Liu Yun felt as though he had kicked a metal plate. He cried out in pain as he hugged his foot.

“With my foot’s strength, even steel should be shattered. How can the stone remain motionless…” Liu Yun felt that something was amiss.

Before he could take a closer look at the stone, he saw the surrounding soil split open. The flowers and trees seemed to have been lifted up by something as they rose out of the soil.

Liu Yun felt the ground beneath his feet rise as he hurriedly retreated.

As he retreated, he saw a huge gray object burrow out of the ground. From its appearance, it looked like a huge Horned Beetle. Its body was the size of a truck. The small stone that Liu Yun had kicked was the tip of the Horned Beetle’s horn.

“What’s this?” Liu Yun had seen many dimensional creatures that resembled Horned Beetles, but this was the first time he had seen such a huge one.

Not only was this Horned Beetle huge, but its body was also like a gray stone. It looked odd and there were many ancient and mysterious patterns on its back.

The instant the Horned Beetle tore out of the ground, it charged at Liu Yun. Its speed was much faster than a real truck. It was like a fast-moving vehicle.

Mythical creature! Liu Yun nearly cried out in surprise. Without any hesitation, he exerted his strength to leap up and dodge the attack of the Horned Beetle.

However, when he exerted strength, he lost his footing. Not only did he fail to jump, but his legs sank in.

Boom!

The front end of the Horned Beetle had already slammed into Liu Yun. The powerful force blasted apart the surrounding soil and trees, forming a huge crater. It was like a meteorite hitting the ground.

Holy sh*t, could this be the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General’s Jinxes Master skill? I didn’t think it was that powerful when I had him with me. Zhou Wen wore a look of surprise when he saw this. He couldn’t be certain that it was because of the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General because Liu Yun hadn’t summoned it.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 629 - Tears of Regre

629 Tears of Regre

Liu Yun grabbed the horn of the Horned Beetle with both hands and pushed upwards with all his might, but his body continued sinking.

His arm was wrapped in a black bracer and surprisingly wasn’t shattered by the Horned Beetle’s terrifying slam. It was just that the other parts of his body couldn’t withstand the powerful shockwave. His armor shattered and many parts of his body were injured. It didn’t look like he was doing well.

He actually managed to withstand such a terrifying collision. He only suffered some superficial injuries. This senior brother of mine does have some capabilities. He’s not only good at stealing things. Zhou Wen watched Liu Yun and the Horned Beetle fight without any intention of helping.

Liu Yun’s muscles tensed up as he suffused a metallic luster. In the clash with the Horned Beetle, his body kept sinking.

He didn’t dare to release his grip and retreat. He was afraid that if he let go, the Horned Beetle’s terrifying power would slam down like a crashing mountain, making it impossible for him to dodge.

Genie had already flown up and spewed out flames to attack the Horned Beetle. However, the patterns on its back only shimmered as the flames failed to approach its body.

“Fat Orange…” Liu Yun gritted his teeth and shouted.

The orange cat darted out of Liu Yun’s body and ran in another direction. At the same time, it emitted a mysterious wave that could lure dimensional creatures to chase after it.

The Horned Beetle was affected by the mysterious waves, reducing its downward pressure significantly. At the same time, it turned to look at Orange Cat.

Liu Yun thought that he finally had a chance to escape. Just as he was about to retreat, the Horned Beetle glanced at the Orange Cat before choosing not to chase after Orange Cat. In a surprise turn of events, it quickly turned around and slammed the horn at Liu Yun.

“Holy sh*t, what’s going on? This dimensional creature isn’t affected by Fat Orange?” Liu Yun was alarmed as he raised his arms to meet the attack.

Bam! Bam! Bam! Bam!

The Horned Beetle lashed out repeatedly as terrifying forces struck Liu Yun’s arms. His body was like a wooden stake as he sank into the soil. Only his chest was exposed.

Blood seeped out of Liu Yun’s seven orifices. Although the pair of bracers were magical and could withstand Mythical strength, his body wasn’t able to withstand such tremors. If this continued, all his bones and organs would be pulverized.

“If a tiger doesn’t show its might, do you really think I’m a sick cat!” A terrifying power erupted from Liu Yun’s hands. A pair of black bracers crossed together, forming a black hole that looked like it was about to swallow the Horned Beetle.

The Horned Beetle crashed into the black hole, but before the black hole could suck it in, the patterns on its body emitted a strange force that turned into a net to seal the black hole.

The Horned Beetle’s horn was inside the black hole, but its body was outside. It formed a stalemate with Liu Yun, with both parties unable to do anything to each other.

Liu Yun hid some of his abilities while fighting me. This black hole-like ability should be the Wheel of Destiny ability of those bracers, right? Zhou Wen watched with relish. Such battles were rare to see. He approached the battlefield, hoping to get a better view.

“Junior Brother, quickly save me!” Liu Yun hurriedly cried out when he saw Zhou Wen.

“Eldest Senior Brother, weren’t you trying to steal my Companion Beasts?” Zhou Wen found a spot to sit down and asked Liu Yun with a smile.

“Junior Brother, how could I steal your Companion Beasts? You think too highly of me. How can I have that ability? My Companion Beast has also been lost. It must have been this Horned Beetle’s doing. Quickly join forces with me and kill it. No matter what drops, it will belong to you,” said Liu Yun.

“It doesn’t matter if you don’t admit it. I’ll wait here for the two of you to decide the victor,” Zhou Wen said calmly.

Liu Yun found it increasingly difficult to persist. He gritted his teeth and said, “Junior Brother, it’s all my fault. I just wanted to pull your leg. I didn’t really want to steal your things. Otherwise, why would I only take a few of your Musical Note Sprites?”

Zhou Wen didn’t expose him as he continued asking, “What’s the name of the skill you used to steal my Companion Beasts? Where did you get it from?”

“That’s Star Stealer. It’s an Essence Energy Skill from an Astral Combat Beast in the Endless Sea of Stars,” Liu Yun said gloomily. “Junior Brother, what’s the matter? Can we wait until we finish this first? What do you want to know? As your senior brother, I’ll definitely tell you everything I know.”

“Where’s the Endless Sea of Stars? What stage is the Astral Combat Beast? How can I find it?” Zhou Wen ignored him and continued asking.

“The Endless Sea of Stars is actually a dimensional zone in the former Taklamakan Desert. I only saw it by accident, so I didn’t dare venture deep into it. I don’t know if there’s anything else inside. The Astral Combat Beast is a Mythical creature,” Liu Yun answered.

“Are you still lying to me?” Zhou Wen said with a cold expression.

“Junior Brother, I’m really not lying to you.” The black hole in Liu Yun’s hand was becoming weaker and weaker, as if it would collapse at any moment.

“You said that Astral Combat Beast is at the Mythical stage, so Star Stealer is a Mythical Essence Energy Skill. How can an Epic like you absorb a Mythical Essence Energy Skill Crystal?” Zhou Wen said coldly.

“Junior Brother, you might not know, but the Essence Energy Art I cultivate is called the ‘Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art’. It’s recorded on a stone monument in the Endless Sea of Stars. It’s because of the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art that I can absorb that Mythical Essence Energy Skill Crystal.

However, I can only absorb this type of Mythical Essence Energy Skill Crystal. I've tried other types, but it's impossible. I'll die a terrible death if I've lied to you," Liu Yun swore.

"Junior Brother, I really can't take it anymore. Quickly save me!" Liu Yun really couldn't hold on any longer. The black hole in his hand disappeared, and the Horned Beetle regained its freedom. It angrily slammed forward again.

Boom!

Liu Yun's hands were knocked apart. He looked exhausted and couldn't hold on any longer.

Seeing the Horned Beetle slam its head down again, with Genie's flames useless against it, it seemed unstoppable. Orange Cat couldn't help much in battle. Liu Yun believed that he was doomed.

Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth descended from the sky and stepped on the Horned Beetle's back, shattering the stone shell on its back. Its hands clenched into fists as it repeatedly pounded the Horned Beetle's head.

After a few punches, the Horned Beetle's head cracked. The final punch smashed through the Horned Beetle's head, sending fragments flying everywhere.

Exhausted, Liu Yun hurriedly turned around and crawled out of the hole. Just as he crawled out, the Horned Beetle's broken horn shot over at a speed faster than a bullet, hitting Liu Yun's buttocks.

“Ah!” A shrill scream pierced through the night sky of the town.

Zhou Wen looked at Liu Yun, who was sprawled on the ground with tears of regret flowing out of his eyes. The horn was raised over him like a flag. He couldn’t help but shiver.

I’ve had the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General for so long, but nothing major happened. I’m really lucky. I have to offer incense when I return. I have to thank all the deities for their blessings, Zhou Wen thought.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 630 - Unlucky Liu Yun

Chapter 630 – Unlucky Liu Yun

“Eldest Senior Brother, are you dead?” Zhou Wen walked to Liu Yun’s side and asked.

“I have a cockroach’s life. How can I die so easily… Ouch… Junior Brother… Help me… pull that thing out…” Liu Yun wanted to get up, but it immediately pulled his wound, causing him to cry out in pain.

Typically, if one was injured by a weapon, one wouldn’t randomly pull it out. One needed a professional doctor to carry out the procedure. However, an Epic human’s body and vitality far exceeded the average person, so they didn’t worry too much.

Zhou Wen extended his hand and directed a suction force across space, pulling out the broken horn. It made Liu Yun cry out in pain.

“Can you still walk? If you can walk, let’s return to the town.” Zhou Wen planned on asking Liu Yun about the Endless Sea of Stars. No one would find a skill as useful as Star Stealer excessive. He also planned on making a trip to the Endless Sea of Stars to see if he could find the tiny palm symbol.

However, Zhou Wen had heard that many deserts were forbidden grounds for humans. The dimensional zones there were especially terrifying. If one wanted to enter the desert without a guide, one could easily be lost in one terrifying dimensional zone after another.

Without Liu Yun leading the way, Zhou Wen guessed that it would be difficult for him to find the Endless Sea of Stars in the desert.

“Yes.” Liu Yun got up and limped in with an especially strange posture.

After taking a few steps, he missed a step and vanished. All Zhou Wen could hear was a loud cry coming from below before a loud thud.

Zhou Wen turned around and saw a hole in the spot where Liu Yun had been. He looked over and saw that it was originally a well. Due to the earlier battle, it had been covered by branches and soil.

Liu Yun hadn’t noticed it, and due to his injuries, he fell the moment he stepped on it.

By the time Liu Yun climbed up, he was really in a sorry state. Coupled with his injuries, he looked even more miserable.

“Brother, help me up. I’m dying…” Liu Yun stretched out his hand, looking exhausted.

“Walk by yourself.” Zhou Wen immediately dodged far away. Who knew if Liu Yun would implicate others around him when he was being jinxed?

“Are you still human? I’m already so injured; yet, you aren’t giving me a hand…” Liu Yun limped towards the town.

Zhou Wen ignored him and walked towards the town square.

“Junior Brother, be honest. Did you do something to me? I know I was wrong to steal your Companion Beast. I guarantee that there won’t be a next time. Look at how miserable I am. Please spare me…” Liu Yun said as he walked. He also felt that something was amiss with his situation. He had never been so unlucky.

“Don’t spout nonsense. I definitely didn’t do anything to you. Sometimes, it’s a result of one’s own doing. Even God can’t sit idle,” Zhou Wen said.

“Junior Brother…” Liu Yun wanted to say something, but a bird flew across the sky and pooped on his head.

When Zhou Wen saw this scene, he immediately sped up and distanced himself from him to prevent himself from being implicated.

From the looks of it, I can’t randomly fuse the baby tiger. Otherwise, if I create another one that jinxes its master, I might harm myself, Zhou Wen thought.

After returning to the square, Zhou Wen began studying the Companion Beasts ranked ahead of Tyrant Behemoth, and prepared for the next challenge.

It wasn’t suitable to directly challenge first place—Primordial Immortal Sword. Neither was Death of the Underworld who came in second. Furthermore, Death of the Underworld was a spirit. Zhou Wen didn’t know if a pure Strength-type Companion Beast like Tyrant Behemoth could deal fatal damage to Death of the Underworld, so he didn’t consider it for now.

No matter how powerful Tyrant Behemoth was, he still had to consider the problem of something having an advantage over it. No matter how powerful a Companion Beast was, it couldn’t defy common logic to fight a Companion Beast that had an advantage over it.

Among the twelve Companion Beasts ranked ahead, some of them were from the six families, while the others were from overseas. Zhou Wen wasn’t too sure either.

If possible, Zhou Wen planned on challenging an overseas Companion Beast.

Before Zhou Wen could come to a conclusion, he saw Liu Yun walk back. However, from the looks of it, he was in a worse state than before. His nose was bruised and his face swollen. Zhou Wen did not know what he had done.

“Junior Brother, I really know my mistake. Save me. If this continues, I will definitely die,” Liu Yun said tearfully.

He had never been so unlucky ever since he was born. The unlucky things he had encountered today numbered more than everything he had encountered in life.

“Let me ask you. What’s that Life Reversing Spirit Talisman?” Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

In the past, Zhou Wen had fused many pets but had failed to get rid of Jinxes Master. He failed to get rid of the pet even with a fusion with single-digit probabilities.

Back then, Zhou Wen suspected that fusion wouldn’t fail as long as it had Jinxes Master.

However, it was useless even if he didn’t fail. As long as Jinxes Master existed, he definitely wouldn’t dare use it. Liu Yun’s miserable state strengthened his resolve.

To have Liu Yun successfully steal the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General was equivalent to the failure of Jinxes Master. The Life Reversing Spirit Talisman was indeed magical.

“That’s a treasure I stole from the Zhang family. I heard that it was passed down from the Zhang family’s ancestors. There aren’t many of them in total. I was lucky to have stolen one,” said Liu Yun.

“It was passed down by its ancestors? Isn’t it something from a dimensional zone?” Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised.

“No, the Zhang family had a long history before the dimensional storms. Their family was already very famous in ancient times. They controlled a sect, and legend has it that they have the ability to predict the future. I’m not too sure about the details either. After all, this family is very mysterious. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have produced a figure like the Hero King,” explained Liu Yun.

The Zhang family… Could it be that Ancestral Master? Zhou Wen thought for a moment and really thought of one such person.

However, that was history from long ago. Zhou Wen didn’t study history, and he had only heard of such a person. He wasn’t sure of the exact details.

“Junior Brother, if you want the Life Reversing Spirit Talisman, I’ll go to the Zhang family later. I’ll risk my life to steal another one for you. Help me dispel the bad luck on me first. Can you return the signed piece of paper to me?” Liu Yun believed that the reason he was so unlucky was that Zhou Wen had used the signed paper to do something to him after discovering that he had stolen his Companion Beasts.

He had no idea that Zhou Wen hadn’t used the signed paper at all. It was purely because of Jinxes Master.

“Return all the Companion Beasts you stole from me.” Zhou Wen thought for a moment. He still wanted Liu Yun to take him to the Endless Sea of Stars. If he were to continue being so unlucky, he probably wouldn’t be able to reach the Endless Sea of Stars before Liu Yun died.

“If you want a Companion Beast, I’ll think of a way to get a Mythical Companion Egg for you. There’s no need for me to return them, right?” said Liu Yun with a bitter expression.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 631 - Being Challenged

Chapter 631 Being Challenged

The Companion Beasts that Liu Yun stole were equivalent to Companion Beasts that he had hatched. To transfer them to someone else required paying a huge price.

“I only want the things that belong to me. I don’t want anything else. It’s up to you.” Zhou Wen wanted to take back the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul Essence and see if Liu Yun remained unlucky.

If he wasn’t unlucky anymore, then the previous mishaps were undoubtedly due to Jinxes Master.

Of course, Zhou Wen wouldn’t let Liu Yun know where the problem stemmed from. It was fine as long as he mistakenly thought that it was due to his signature. This prevented him from doing anything rash in the future.

“I’ll return them, alright? You’re really my Junior Brother. You’re going to kill me.” Liu Yun said with a bitter expression, “Those low-level Musical Note Sprites are useless. Can’t you give them up?”

“No, not one less,” Zhou Wen said.

Liu Yun had no choice but to return the Companion Beasts he had stolen from Zhou Wen. Every time he transferred a Companion Beast, Liu Yun felt as though a chunk of meat had been ripped off his body. His expression turned uglier and paler. He was as white as a sheet.

Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. He originally didn't expect Liu Yun to really return all ten Companion Beasts. After all, others might die from transferring a single Companion Beast. A few lives weren't even enough to transfer ten Companion Beasts. Even Zhou Wen himself didn't dare casually transfer his Companion Beasts.

Liu Yun forcefully transferred the ten Companion Beasts. Although he ended up vomiting blood and falling to the ground, almost half dead, he didn't hurt his foundation. It was obvious that there was something strange about him. Otherwise, he would have long died.

Could it be an effect of cultivating the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art? Zhou Wen was even more expectant of the Endless Sea of Stars.

Typical dungeons didn't attract Zhou Wen much anymore, but he really wanted to visit places like the Endless Sea of Stars. It would be great if he could download it on his phone.

"Junior Brother, I've returned the Companion Beast to you. Quickly return me the autograph," Liu Yun said weakly as he lay on the ground. He was so weak that he didn't even have the strength to stand up.

"Senior Brother, I'll keep your autograph. However, don't worry. As long as you don't have any more nasty thoughts, nothing will happen again. By the way, I want to go to the Endless Sea of Stars to take a look. How long will it take for a return trip?" Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

"It'll take at least a month or two." Liu Yun was depressed not to get the autograph back, but thankfully, he didn't continue to be unlucky. He felt much better.

Zhou Wen observed Liu Yun the entire time. Seeing that nothing had happened to him, he was certain that the things he had encountered previously were the problems caused by Jinxes Master.

If it really doesn’t work, I’ll use the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul to Tyrant as food later. Zhou Wen wanted to wait and see if he would be affected by Jinxes Master like Liu Yun.

He felt that the possibility wasn’t too high because he had always taken the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General around with him. He wasn’t as unlucky as Liu Yun.

Furthermore, Zhou Wen had the Bamboo Blades of the Four Gentlemen Blades. Legend had it that they jinxed their masters. Although his luck was lacking, he wasn’t as unlucky as Liu Yun.

If the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General really doesn’t hinder me, can I use the advantage of never having a fusion fail to upgrade Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General? Zhou Wen placed his sights on his Mythical Companion Beasts.

Mythical Companion Beasts had a low chance of success when fusing with ordinary pets, but if it fused with the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, then a low compatibility didn’t seem to be a problem.

Zhou Wen only had such a thought, but he hadn’t decided if he should carry out the fusion. This was because he didn’t know why he wasn’t affected by Jinxes Master. If the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General advanced to the Mythical stage and Jinxes Master became strong enough to affect him, it wouldn’t be worth it.

He chatted with Liu Yun for a while. With Liu Yun not showing any more problems and Zhou Wen himself being fine, the two relaxed.

According to Liu Yun, Zhou Wen knew that the Endless Sea of Stars was deep in the Taklamakan Desert. The area was chaotic and there were many strange dimensional zones. Furthermore, the dimensional zones were mobile, meaning they weren't fixed. Finding the Endless Sea of Stars was an extremely difficult task.

Zhou Wen promised Liu Yun that as long as he could safely find the Endless Sea of Stars and safely bring Zhou Wen out, he would return the autograph to him. The two of them reached an initial agreement.

Just as they were discussing how to head to the Endless Sea of Stars, the black cube suddenly lit up. A Companion Beast issued a challenge.

A terrifying Companion Beast projection appeared on the cube's screen.

At a glance, it looked like eight dragons that were entangled together. On careful look, it was a terrifying snake with eight heads and eight tails. Its torso was connected together, but its heads looked like those of a dragon. However, its snake body didn't have any dragon claws.

"Orochi. Who is it challenging?" Zhou Wen read out the monster's name when it appeared on the cube.

Zhou Wen had heard of this Mythical creature before. It was considered one of the more famous Mythical creatures. It appeared in many myths.

Soon, Zhou Wen realized that Tyrant Behemoth's name had lit up on the rankings. Orochi was challenging his Tyrant Behemoth.

Instantly, the entire Federation boiled over. After Tyrant Behemoth killed Chimera with a decisive victory, to have another Companion Beast challenge it was unexpected.

After all, Tyrant Behemoth was only ranked thirteenth, but according to analysis and speculation, its strength was ranked at least in the top five. It was clearly not worth it to challenge Tyrant Behemoth.

Now that someone was challenging it, it meant that it wasn’t just for the ranking. They had either found Tyrant Behemoth’s weakness or wanted to probe its true strength.No matter what the outcome was, this battle would undoubtedly be a spectacle.

Furthermore, people were guessing whether Orochi, which had never been listed on the ranking, was from the Federation or overseas.

The intelligence network of the eight factions began their full machinery. They investigated the origins of Orochi, hoping to find its owner.

However, the final conclusion was that the chances of it being an overseas Companion Beast were higher.

On an island overseas, a youth was standing in front of a cube, staring intently at the screen.

“Why are you taking the risk to challenge Tyrant Behemoth? Your target should be Primordial Sword Immortal. Challenging Tyrant Behemoth will only expose the strength of Orochi ahead of time,” a middle-aged man walked over and said with a frown.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 632 - Orochi

Chapter 632 Orochi

The youth stared at the screen and said, “With the characteristics and skills of Orochi, it’s still unknown if it can defeat Primordial Immortal Sword. After all, Primordial Immortal Sword can split apart Death of the Underworld’s domain. Such destructive power happens to be the characteristics of Orochi. When Companion Beasts with the same characteristics meet, the stronger one will have an overwhelming advantage.”

“Do you think Orochi is no match for Primordial Immortal Sword?” the middle-aged man said unhappily.

“At the very least, I haven’t seen the possibility of it winning yet. Rather than leaving the final moment to chance, I might as well occupy a spot first. I can advance and defend. Even if I fail to challenge Primordial Sword Immortal in the end, I can still occupy one of the top spots,” the youth said.

“In that case, you should also challenge a Companion Beast ranked closer to the top. Tyrant Behemoth is only thirteenth, but its actual combat strength can be ranked in the top five.”

The youth said with a smile, “The competition for the top ten will definitely be very intense towards the end. Even if I get Orochi to use all its strength to ascend to the top five, not only will I expose all my strength, but I will still be challenged by the Federation in the end. Although Tyrant Behemoth is strong, from what I can see, Orochi should be able to restrain it. It won’t be that difficult to win.

Furthermore, Tyrant Behemoth’s name has shaken the world. If I kill it now, others will view Orochi in a different light. When the time comes, I’ll rush into the top five. Those who dare challenge Orochi will have to think it through. How does their Companion Beast compare to Chimera or Tyrant Behemoth?”

“Do you have the confidence to easily defeat Tyrant Behemoth?” the middle-aged man asked after some thought.

“How can there be anything in this world with absolute certainty? However, during this period of time, I’ve repeatedly analyzed Tyrant Behemoth’s battle as well as the Tyrant Behemoth found in myths and legends. Without a doubt, it is a pure Strength-type Companion Beast. You should know very well that Orochi has the absolute advantage over such Companion Beasts,” the youth said.

“If that’s the case, then go ahead and do it. It’s also time for those fellows from the Federation to remember we exist. Let’s just treat it as an early heads up for them.” With that, the middle-aged man stopped objecting.

…

Zhou Wen didn’t immediately accept the challenge. Instead, he went online to search for information related to Orochi.

There was no available information regarding the dimensional creature, Orochi. There were only myths and legends.

There were many legends regarding Orochi. The most famous legend was that Orochi was a monster from Outcloud Country.

There were a few other legends, but they weren’t as famous as this. Zhou Wen felt that the Orochi in the arena was similar to this legendary monster.

Liu Yun’s injuries hadn’t healed yet, so he said as he leaned there, looking at the screen, “Junior Brother, what are you hesitating for? Send your Tyrant Behemoth to kill that crappy snake.”

“I don’t plan on accepting the challenge. How’s your injury? If there’s nothing wrong with you, let’s head to the Endless Sea of Stars,” Zhou Wen said.

“You’re giving up? Wouldn’t that mean giving up your ranking?” Liu Yun said in surprise.

“It doesn’t matter. This ranking isn’t my goal anyway.” Zhou Wen looked at Liu Yun and said, “Can you walk or not?”

“Yes. I have to walk even if it hurts. I have an uncomfortable feeling as long as that piece of paper is with you,” said Liu Yun as he forced himself to get up. He summoned an Epic Companion Beast that looked like a turtle, but it was bigger than an SUV.

He sprawled on the turtle’s back which ran as though it had burning wheels at its feet. It was surprisingly fast and very stable.

Zhou Wen didn’t have any Companion Beasts that were especially suitable for riding. It was uncomfortable sitting on Six-Winged, so he chose to sit on the turtle’s back as well.

Zhou Wen didn’t plan on letting Tyrant Behemoth participate in the battle, but the West District’s media overwhelmingly supported Tyrant Behemoth, believing that it would definitely kill Orochi.

“How can an apocalyptic beast like Tyrant Behemoth be comparable to the likes of an overgrown snake?”

“It won’t take more than three minutes. Tyrant Behemoth will definitely defeat Orochi.”

“I don’t think Orochi can even last three minutes.”

The people in the West District believed that Tyrant Behemoth would win, but as the 72-hour countdown ticked by, they didn’t see Tyrant Behemoth choosing to answer the call of battle. People began to sing to a different tune.

There were even media reports that Tyrant Behemoth was no match for Orochi, which was why it didn’t dare accept the challenge.

Immediately, some media outlets objected. As a result, the major media outlets began arguing online. The West District citizens who supported Tyrant Behemoth began to split into two factions.

In the end, after 72 hours, Tyrant Behemoth didn’t choose to participate in the battle. This war of words ended with Tyrant Behemoth’s supporters turning silent in dejection.

Many people from the West District were very disappointed. They believed that Tyrant Behemoth shouldn’t have been afraid of battle and should fight to the death to defend the glory of the West District.

There were even rumors that pointed at the Family Clan of Gods and the Cape family, believing that Tyrant Behemoth was a Companion Beast of their two families. It was a disgrace to the West District to surrender without fighting.

The Cape family was the most wronged. Their Chimera had been swallowed by Tyrant Behemoth, so how could Tyrant Behemoth belong to their family? However, ordinary citizens didn’t know of this situation and included their family in their cussing.

In the end, the Cape family couldn’t withstand the pressure of public opinion. This greatly affected their reputation as a hero family. In the end, they took the initiative to meet the Family Clan of Gods and decided to take down Orochi.In the beginning, they first sent an unknown Mythical Companion Beast to challenge Orochi, hoping to figure out its true strength.

However, it was easily defeated. Following that, the two families sent three Mythical Companion Beasts to challenge Orochi, but all of them failed. They were defeated by Orochi with overwhelming strength. One of the losers was Inferno Dragon.

It may have been a covetous probe at the beginning, but at this stage, the entire Federation knew that the two families were aiming to defeat Orochi.

However, the repeated failures only served to further infuriate the West District media. They blamed the two families for their inaction. They should have sent stronger Companion Beasts to fight and defeat Orochi to defend West District’s honor.

There were even some people from the West District who wanted Tyrant Behemoth to fight again to avenge their humiliation.

Unfortunately, Tyrant Behemoth wasn’t in the hands of the two West District families. Even if they wanted Tyrant Behemoth to fight, it was impossible.

The two families had their own plans. It was impossible for them to engage in an all-out war with Orochi at the moment, but they couldn’t ignore the reputation of the two families. Finally, the Cape family sent out an Angel Companion Beast, hoping to defeat Orochi.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 633 - The Federation is Incompetent

Chapter 633 The Federation is Incompetent

War Angel was a Mythical Companion Beast with golden wings. He wore golden armor and held a sword in one hand and a shield in the other. He was a Companion Beast with extremely powerful offensive and defensive abilities.

Orochi quickly accepted the challenge and appeared in the arena. This battle attracted a large number of spectators.

Because Orochi had won several consecutive battles and made Tyrant Behemoth retreat without a fight, it was placed in the limelight. It was so great that it was almost comparable to top Companion Beasts like Primordial Immortal Sword and Death of the Underworld.

However, its ranking remained at thirteen. It didn’t continue challenging upwards.

The moment Orochi appeared, its eight snake heads spewed out different powers—poison, flames, and smoke. Together with its mountainous form, it looked extremely terrifying.

War Angel raised the golden shield in his hand and formed a barrier of light, blocking the many forces outside the barrier. The wings on his back flapped as he instantly came in front of Orochi. The golden sword in his hand slashed at one of the snake heads with a resplendent and holy sword beam.

Clang!

A snake tail slammed into War Angel’s sword beam like a phantom. It shattered the sword beam and sent War Angel flying.

In terms of strength, War Angel was clearly no match for Orochi.

War Angel wasn’t injured. He raised his shield and sword and constantly circled Orochi while attacking, but it didn’t serve much purpose.

Although his shield could block Orochi’s attack, its sword beam was similarly unable to injure Orochi. Every strike was blocked, causing the battle to enter a stalemate.

The West District citizens naturally hoped for War Angel to win. As for the other districts, they were just watching the fun. This was because no one could confirm that Orochi was a Companion Beast from overseas.

As the battle continued, the golden wings on War Angel’s back suddenly turned into golden feathers that spread out and condensed towards the golden sword. The golden sword turned into a huge golden feather sword that slashed at Orochi with unparalleled light.

This strike was War Angel’s Wheel of Destiny, known as the End of War. It possessed unparalleled destructive power. The Cape family hoped to use the End of War to defeat Orochi.

Many people in the West District knew of the existence of War Angel. When they saw End of War, they were excited, imagining that War Angel was finally about to unleash its maximum strength.

Even people who didn’t know the might of End of War felt that this strike was invincible when they saw the golden sword beam that resembled divine punishment. Even if Orochi wasn’t killed, it would be severely injured.

However, in the next second, the West District citizen’s fantasy was shattered. Orochi’s tail struck the terrifying golden sword beam with a cold beam.

The golden sword beam was sliced apart along with the feather blade. Even the shield was split in half. Thankfully, War Angel retreated quickly, or his body might have been split in half.

At this stage, War Angel’s owner didn’t dare continue. He chose to admit defeat and leave the battlefield. If he continued fighting, he probably wouldn’t even have the chance to admit defeat.

The people from West District fell silent while the people from the other districts gloated.

“The angels in the West District are nothing much after all. They can’t even defeat a snake.”

“How embarrassing. The two hero families can’t even deal with a snake. They were even beaten up so badly.”

“Thankfully, Tyrant Behemoth was smart and didn’t accept the challenge. Otherwise, it might have been sliced into two if it didn’t escape as quickly as War Angel.”

As for the West District, they were in a frenzy. The Internet was abuzz. There were people requesting Tyrant Behemoth to take the stage again, but there were also people who wanted the two families to send stronger Companion Beasts. Such a failure was intolerable.

As for the pessimists of the West District, they believed that Orochi was invincible.

The two families were in a difficult position, but to send a top-notch Companion Beast into battle now would only expose their strength and affect their plan to achieve first place.

...

When Liu Yun and Zhou Wen arrived at a city closest to the desert, they saw the video of Orochi fighting War Angel. Liu Yun exclaimed, “What a powerful, destructive force. The tail of Orochi is like an invincible divine weapon. It can even shatter End of War. It’s terrifying. It was right for you not to accept the challenge back then. This power is the nemesis of all pure Strength-type Companion Beasts.”

Zhou Wen said, “In myths, there’s a divine sword in the tail of Orochi. It’s an infallible weapon. That should be Orochi’s most powerful trump card.”

After watching Orochi’s battle, Zhou Wen felt more at ease. Orochi was indeed powerful, but it was impossible for it to defeat Tyrant Behemoth.

The destructive power of Golden Overlord Sword was in no way inferior to Orochi. Its attack power was augmented by Golden Sword Aura, Unstoppable, and Ever-Victorious. Yet, it could only injure Tyrant Behemoth when it didn’t use Absolute Strength. Once it used Absolute Strength, the Golden Overlord Sword’s offensive power could only cause a faint sword mark on Tyrant Behemoth.

Of course, that was under Zhou Wen’s deliberate act. In fact, Tyrant Behemoth wouldn’t even give Golden Overlord Sword a chance to hit it when it used Absolute Strength.

Unfortunately, there were too many people in the city. Zhou Wen didn’t wish to be too ostentatious or he would have gotten Tyrant Behemoth to finish Orochi.

The two of them left the city and continued heading towards the desert. Now, all Zhou Wen wanted was to quickly reach the Endless Sea of Stars and see if he could download a game dungeon.

…

While the two families in the West District were hesitating, Orochi, which had not challenged anything of a higher rank, made a move. It challenged fourth-place, Ice Elemental Sprite Queen.

It was a Mythical Companion Beast that belonged to the Ultimate Family Clan. It was currently in fourth place, only inferior to Primordial Sword Immortal, Death of the Underworld, and Fairy Immortal Gu.

Legend had it that Fairy Immortal Gu was from the Dugu family, but up to now, no one had confirmed it.Ice Elemental Sprite Queen was proficient in ice power and could freeze everything. As for the Wheel of Destiny—Extreme Cold—legend had it that it was the power closest to absolute zero.

Unfortunately, Orochi seemed to have very high resistance to ice. When the entire combat arena was frozen, it actually shattered the ice and slashed out with its tail, almost killing Ice Elemental Sprite Queen.

The owner of Ice Elemental Sprite Queen had no choice but to admit defeat. However, after that, Orochi did something unimaginable.

Orochi’s eight heads spewed out eight different powers including ice, fire, and smoke at the same time, condensing eight words in the void.

“The Federation is incompetent. The heroes are shameless.”

Instantly, the entire Federation erupted with rage. To say such words made it very obvious. Orochi was undoubtedly an overseas Companion Beast.

This time, it wasn’t just the West District. The entire Federation’s Four Districts were filled with indignation.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 634 - Sandstorm

Chapter 634 – Sandstorm

“Nao, well done. Since the Orochi has already revealed its strength, let’s maximize its effects and expose the Federation more,” the middle-aged man said to the young man standing beside Orochi.

The youth turned around. She was wearing a Samurai outfit and her hair was tied up. She looked like an ordinary woman without a calm or heroic aura.

“You should call me by my full name, Uesugi Nao,” Uesugi Nao said.

The middle-aged man’s expression stiffened slightly as he continued with a cold expression, “However, it’s best you know your limits. It’s fine to gather information, but Orochi must not be lost.”

“I naturally know what to do,” Uesugi Nao said indifferently without looking at the middle-aged man.

“I hope you really know what should be done.” The middle-aged man snorted and left.

…

The entire Federation was discussing how to defeat Orochi and teach those demons overseas a lesson. They wanted them to know how powerful the Federation was.

Now, the pressure wasn’t only on the Cape family and the Family Clan of Gods. The other families also felt the pressure.

Xia Dongyue looked at the Xia family’s analysis of Orochi and said, “Orochi has multiple attributes and has a high resistance to ice. Its strength is extremely strong. The most terrifying thing is its tail’s destructive power. It can slice through almost everything. The owner of this Orochi is very smart, choosing Ice Elemental Sprite Queen that Orochi has a restraining effect on. This won them fourth place. While enjoying this high-ranking, they prevent Death of the Underworld that is best at restraining Orochi from challenging it because of its higher ranking.”

Xia Xuanyue said, “To deal with a Companion Beast like Orochi, Brother Chuan’s Companion Beast is most suitable. However, he went to the Southern Wilderness with Dugu Ge and Zhang Chunqiu. I’m afraid he won’t be able to return anytime soon.”

“No rush. Someone will be even more anxious than us.” Xia Dongyue smiled.

The person Xia Dongyue was referring to was naturally the Cape family and the Family Clan of Gods. It meant nothing if they were defeated by other hero families.

However, no one was more anxious than them when they were humiliated by the overseas demons.

…

Zhou Wen and Liu Yun had already entered the desert. This place was even more terrifying than Zhou Wen imagined.

Due to the influence of the dimensional storms, the difference between day and night temperatures became even greater. The temperature in the day was nearly 80-90°C. It was almost enough to roast a human. Yet, it was literally freezing at night.

Furthermore, terrifying sandstorms often appeared. According to Liu Yun, the desert's terrain would change with each sandstorm. Dimensional zones would even appear after the change.

It was very likely that they would find themselves in a dimensional zone after a sandstorm.

"Don't worry. With me around, I can avoid danger in the desert. I won't lose my way, nor will I end up inside a dimensional zone because of the sandstorm." Liu Yun's injuries were almost healed. He sat on the turtle's back and introduced the desert to Zhou Wen.

Although the desert temperature couldn't damage Zhou Wen's body, he felt somewhat uncomfortable. Even with an umbrella shielding him, he still felt extremely hot.

The weather in the desert changed without warning. It was burning under the scorching sun a moment ago, and in the next second, black clouds appeared in the sky. In just a moment, they covered half the sky.

The sun was covered up and the sky darkened.

"Oh no, it's a sandstorm. Why are we encountering a sandstorm here?" Liu Yun's expression changed.

"Didn't you say that you wouldn't enter a dimensional zone even if you encountered a sandstorm?" Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

After the dimensional storms, sandstorms became especially terrifying. However, the power of the sandstorm wasn’t enough to threaten the safety of Epic experts. What they were most afraid of was the sandstorm sweeping up dimensional zones and causing them to find themselves inside one.

“Under normal circumstances, there shouldn’t be any problems.” Liu Yun clearly didn’t sound confident.

Although Zhou Wen could tell that Liu Yun lacked confidence, there was nothing he could do since he had already come so far.

The black sandstorm arrived in the blink of an eye. The terrifying storm had caught up to them and swept them into a swath of black sand that blotted out the sky.

Liu Yun summoned a wind-elemental Companion Beast and transformed into a windmill. It stood on the turtle’s head.

Strangely, the terrifying sandstorm blew at the windmill, causing it to spin faster and faster. However, the sand around them seemed to be absorbed by the windmill, preventing it from affecting the two people on the turtle’s back.

In the sandstorm, nothing could be seen. Even Truth Listener was affected, reducing its range.

“Did you hear anything?” Zhou Wen suddenly asked Liu Yun one hour into the turtle’s journey in the sandstorm.

“No, did you hear anything?” Liu Yun immediately became nervous. He pricked up his ears to listen, but he couldn’t hear anything.

“I seem to hear a woman crying, but I can’t hear it clearly,” Zhou Wen said to Liu Yun as he listened attentively.

“A woman crying? Listen carefully. Are you sure that’s right?” Liu Yun’s expression turned ugly.

Zhou Wen focused his attention and continued listening, but he couldn’t seem to hear the woman’s cries. After listening for a while, he didn’t hear the same sound again.

“I knew it. You must have heard wrongly.” Liu Yun heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Zhou Wen shake his head.

The terrifying sandstorm blew for more than ten hours. By the time the sandstorm passed, it was already the morning of the next day. The sun had just risen, and the temperature wasn’t too high yet. The surrounding air seemed to have improved significantly, and there was a moist smell.

“See? I told you that with me around, you can freely enter the desert. It’s impossible for you to enter a dimensional zone,” said Liu Yun smugly.

As Liu Yun spoke, he stood up and looked into the distance. His expression suddenly froze.

Zhou Wen knew that something was amiss and stood up. He traced Liu Yun’s gaze and saw an ancient city appear in the desert ahead.The ancient city was made of a yellow jade-like stone. It shimmered under the sunlight like the morning sun.

The architectural style of the ancient city was very strange. It was different from the ancient cities in Zhou Wen’s hometown. The city gates and roofs used large numbers of arches.

Zhou Wen narrowed his eyes and carefully sized it up. He saw that above the city gates were the words ‘Netherworld City.’

This name didn’t sound auspicious. Zhou Wen turned to look at Liu Yun and asked, “Do we need to pass by Netherworld City to reach the Endless Sea of Stars?”

However, Liu Yun didn’t answer Zhou Wen. As though he had gone mad, he ordered the turtle to change directions and run at full speed.

However, not long after running, they saw the ancient city that resembled yellow jade appear in front of them. On it were the words ‘Netherworld City’. It looked like the ancient city they had just seen.

“What’s going on?” Zhou Wen sized up Netherworld City, but his eyes suddenly lit up. This was because he saw a tiny symbol beside the words—a tiny palm symbol.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 635 - Netherworld City

Chapter 635 Netherworld City

“Death Valley, Netherworld City, the Endless Sea of Stars, and Paradise Mountain. These are the four most terrifying dimensional zones that appeared after the transformation of the Taklamakan Desert. If humans enter, it’s highly likely that they won’t be able to survive,” said Liu Yun.

“Then why are you taking me to the Endless Sea of Stars?” Zhou Wen frowned.

“I’ve entered the Endless Sea of Stars before, and I know how to leave. As long as I don’t venture too deep, there won’t be any danger. However, I’ve only heard of Netherworld City and have never seen it before. I heard from the people in the desert that Netherworld City can only be seen at certain times. Many people might not even see it once in their entire lives in the desert, but who knew that it would be such a coincidence for us to encounter it? Is the thing you planted on me still there?” Liu Yun asked Zhou Wen suspiciously.

“Do I look like an idiot? I wouldn’t want to die with you, right?” Zhou Wen curled his lips.

Liu Yun thought that it made sense. If they entered the desert together, Zhou Wen wouldn’t be able to escape the same fate if he died from encountering Netherworld City.

“What kind of place is Netherworld City?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I don’t know. I’ve only heard that none of the people who have seen Netherworld City can return alive. I didn’t believe it in the past, but this city is indeed strange. I’ve already changed directions, and it’s impossible I backtracked; yet, here we are, seeing it again.” Liu Yun’s expression didn’t look too good.

“Since we can’t shake it off, let’s head over and take a look.” As Zhou Wen spoke, he jumped off the turtle’s back. After adhering the Substitute Talisman to himself, he summoned Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and allowed it to appear on his back in its companion form.

He wore Truth Listener the entire time. He directly summoned Tyrant Behemoth and made it scout ahead.

Liu Yun knew that they couldn’t hide from Netherworld City after encountering it, so he decided to take a look first.

He summoned Genie and Orange Cat. He wore the pair of bracers and summoned a few Epic Companion Beasts.

After summoning, he saw that Zhou Wen was still summoning Companion Beasts. Not only did he summon the Golden Overlord Sword, but he also had a Golden Battle God Halberd floating beside him.

“Junior Brother, don’t tell me you’re in the same industry as me?” Liu Yun looked at Zhou Wen’s Mythical Companion Beasts and felt like he had wasted all his years.

He used to think that he was doing pretty well. Among his peers, even the geniuses of the six families might not have as many Mythical Companion Beasts as he did. However, compared to Zhou Wen, he immediately felt like he was a country bumpkin.

Zhou Wen ignored him and summoned some Vajra Mallas that served as cannon fodder. Due to the intense sunlight here, the Poison Bats' combat strength would be greatly weakened, so Zhou Wen didn't use them.

A few Vajra Mallas scouted ahead. Zhou Wen and Liu Yun followed behind as they headed for Netherworld City.

Netherworld City's huge doors were tightly shut. The doors were carved from yellow jade. On each of the two doors, there was a tiny ghost image which looked very sinister.

When they arrived in front of the city gate, nothing happened. While Liu Yun sized up the city gate, Zhou Wen took out his phone and snapped a picture of the tiny palm symbol beside the words 'Netherworld City.'

The palm of the tiny palm symbol didn't hold the symbol of Netherworld City, but a ring. He did not know what it meant.

After taking a picture on his phone, Zhou Wen immediately entered the download interface, making him feel a lot more at ease.

As long as he could download the map, he could explore the secret of Netherworld City in-game. No matter how strange it was, there was no need to be afraid.

With the combat strength of Zhou Wen's current Companion Beast lineup, he should be able to clear anything unless he encountered an unreasonable existence like The Thearch.

Before he could finish downloading the map, he suddenly heard a strange voice coming from the gates of Netherworld City. "Welcome to Netherworld City."

Zhou Wen looked in the direction of the voice and saw that it came from the two ghost faces on the door.

The two ghost faces revealed a strange smile as they stared at Zhou Wen and Liu Yun.

Liu Yun and Zhou Wen looked warily at the two ghost faces on the door, not daring to act rashly.

“Before entering the city, there are three ironclad rules you must not violate. Take heed,” the ghost face on the left said.

“First, murderers in Netherworld City will die,” the ghost face on the right said with a smile.

“Second, anyone whose two feet leave the ground will die,” the ghost face on the left said.

“Third, kill one person for every day you are inside the city, or you will have to commit suicide,” the ghost face on the right said.

“Welcome to the city,” the two ghost faces said the last sentence in unison as the door to Netherworld City opened.

“What kind of bullsh*t ironclad rules are those? The first rule clearly states that we are not allowed to kill. The third rule says that we have to kill one person a day. It’s completely bullsh*t,” said Liu Yun.

However, the two ghost faces had already closed their eyes as though they were asleep. They ignored Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen looked at Netherworld City, but the city was blinding. He couldn’t see anything.

Truth Listener’s ability couldn’t hear any sound in Netherworld City. Zhou Wen did not know what force had affected it.

“Let’s not enter the city now.” Zhou Wen planned on entering the city in-game after the map was downloaded.

However, Zhou Wen soon realized that it wasn’t up to them whether they entered the city.

A raging fire burned outside the city, as though the entire desert had turned into burning hell. The Vajra Mallas beside them were immediately burned to ashes when they touched the flames.It was the same for one of Liu Yun’s Epic pets. When it touched a spark, it immediately burned and was reduced to ashes in the blink of an eye.

Seeing the flames rapidly reach the city gates, it was obvious that they were forced to enter the city. They didn’t have any other choice. If they didn’t wish to die in the sea of flames, they could only enter the city.

“Let’s enter the city now.” Liu Yun saw that the fire was about to reach his feet. Genie, who was a fire-elemental Companion Beast, was helpless against the flames. All he could do was shout and charge into the city gates.

Zhou Wen could only follow by carefully charging into the city.

At the instant they passed through the city gates, they realized that the Companion Beasts they summoned had automatically returned to their bodies, turning into tattoos.

It was a little different from what they had imagined. The city wasn’t hell, but a seemingly normal street. There were all sorts of strange buildings on both sides of the street.

Strangely, there were humanoid creatures standing on the streets. There were only a few of them.

As far as their eyes could see, there were about twenty to thirty people on the long street. However, those people were very strange. All of them stood motionless, as though their feet had been nailed to the ground.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 636 - Strange Street

Chapter 636 Strange Street

Zhou Wen attempted to summon Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, but he couldn’t. It was as though he was restrained by some kind of nomological force.

The few Companion Beasts he had summoned previously had already automatically turned back into tattoos. He couldn’t summon any of them. Only Truth Listener remained in its earring form and wasn’t sealed.

“Can you summon your Companion Beasts?” Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

“No, none of my Companion Beasts can be summoned.” Liu Yun shook his head with a heavy expression.

Without Companion Beasts, he and Zhou Wen were only at the Epic stage. It would be difficult to resolve many matters.

Liu Yun took two steps as he spoke, hoping to see if he could use any Essence Energy Skills. However, after taking a step, he realized something strange happening beneath his feet. He immediately stopped.

Zhou Wen also looked at the stone slab beneath Liu Yun’s feet.

At a glance, the entire street was filled with such stone slabs. Every stone slab was uniform—about 40 centimeters wide by 60 centimeters long. At the end of the stone path was a stone staircase. At the end of the stone steps was a strange building that looked similar to a memorial steele.

Just now, when Liu Yun took a step, the stone slab he stepped on lit up immediately, emitting a faint light. It made the originally grayish-blue stone slab become crystalline like jade.

And on the stone slab, a faint light condensed into a number: 364.

“Do you feel anything wrong with your body?” Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

Liu Yun shook his head. “Apart from not being able to summon Companion Beasts, there aren’t any other problems. I’ll take another step.”

With that said, Liu Yun took another step. With that step, Liu Yun’s foot stepped onto the stone slab beside him. After his foot lifted off the stone slab, the light immediately vanished. The stone slab he was stepping on now suffused a faint glow as numbers appeared on it.

However, it wasn’t 364 this time, but 363.

“From the looks of it, the number should decrease by one with every tile. But what does this number mean?” Liu Yun frowned.

“I have a very bad feeling about this. Those people are standing motionless on the streets. The stone slabs beneath their feet are also glowing. I believe it’s not that they don’t want to move, but they don’t dare to because of the numbers,” Zhou Wen said as he took a step forward. He wanted to verify his guess.

The city gates had already closed. Zhou Wen took a step and walked to the stone slab in front of him. Indeed, the stone slab lit up as numbers appeared. It was 365.

“That’s not fair. Why was my number 364 when I took a step? Yet, you’re one step ahead of me?” said Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen ignored him and took another step back. The stone slab beneath his feet lit up as the numbers turned into 364.

“I reckon that no matter where we go now, the number will decrease by one. The ghost face said that both our feet can’t leave the ground, or we will be killed. In other words, it’s impossible for us to fly over. We can only walk across the stone path.”

Zhou Wen glanced at the people ahead and said, “Do you think the numbers on the stone slab represent our remaining steps? If they’re used up, maybe something very bad will happen.”

“From the looks of it, it’s indeed very possible.” Liu Yun agreed with Zhou Wen’s view. After some thought, he said, “What will happen if we stay here forever?”

“I don’t know, but I believe the dimensional creatures in this city wouldn’t make us stand here forever, ” Zhou Wen answered very quickly. Everything in Netherworld City was too strange, so he couldn’t guess what would happen next.

The two of them stood there, looking at each other. Neither of them dared to move.

“Just standing here won’t do. Why don’t we go over and ask the people in front of us and see what’s going on here?” Liu Yun said to Zhou Wen.

“Alright, you can go over and ask them,” Zhou Wen answered.

Liu Yun wanted Zhou Wen to go, but he had made it clear that he wanted him to do it. Therefore, neither of them moved.

Zhou Wen wasn’t idle. He tried summoning his Companion Beasts one by one to see if there were any other Companion Beasts that responded to his summoning other than Truth Listener.

In such a place, having an additional Companion Beast meant an additional chance of survival.

Torch Dragon… No response… Golden Overlord Sword… No response… Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General… No response… Demonic Neonate… Zhou Wen was delighted. Demonic Neonate had actually given him a response. He could sense Demonic Neonate’s consciousness and she was waiting for his summoning.

Demonic Neonate can be summoned! Zhou Wen didn’t summon her. He wanted to determine the situation first.

He tried all the Companion Beasts, but only Truth Listener and Demonic Neonate responded to him. There was nothing from Tyrant Behemoth.

After attempting to summon all his Companion Beasts, Zhou Wen began switching his Essence Energy Arts, hoping to see if his Life Providences and Life Souls were useful here.

Life Providences and Life Souls were normal and weren’t affected. Apart from not being able to summon Companion Beasts, everything else was the same as usual.

When Zhou Wen switched to the Dao Sutra, the jade infant actually opened his eyes. A treasure glow emitted from his body as a terrifying taboo power seeped into his body like a mighty river. In just a few seconds, the jade infant was nearly blasted apart by the terrifying taboo power. Zhou Wen was so frightened that he hurriedly deactivated Gods Retreat.

What a terrifying taboo power! For that split instant, Zhou Wen felt the connection with his Companion Beast again.

Unfortunately, it was impossible for Gods Retreat to last for a long period of time. It was basically impossible to use such a short period of time for combat.

The taboo power of Netherworld City is even more terrifying than the taboo power on Jade Emperor Peak. It’s no wonder no one from Netherworld City can return. I’m afraid it’s a near-death situation this time. Zhou Wen pondered.

However, there was too little useful information at the moment. He had no idea how he could leave Netherworld City.

Liu Yun opened his mouth and shouted. He wanted to catch the attention of the people on the street. Liu Yun’s voice was very loud. With his volume, even if he stood outside the city, one should be able to hear him.

However, the people on the streets didn’t seem to hear his voice at all. They ignored them and continued about their own business.

“Stop shouting. They probably can’t hear you,” Zhou Wen said.

“How do you know they can’t hear?” Liu Yun asked.

“Didn’t you notice? We’ve been standing here for so long. Have you heard any sound on this street?” Zhou Wen pointed at the long street.

Liu Yun was slightly taken aback as he realized that the street was indeed a little strange. Apart from his and Zhou Wen’s voices, there wasn’t a single sound.

Although most people on the streets didn’t move, there were also some people moving around. They could even see them opening their mouths to speak, but they couldn’t hear a single sound. The entire street seemed to have been set to silent mode.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 637 - Reason of Death

Chapter 637 Reason of Death

“That’s not right. If Netherworld City is really muted, why are we able to hear each other’s voices? Could it be that it’s not forbidden for sound to spread, but that sound can only be transmitted within a certain range?” Liu Yun thought for a moment before saying.

“From the looks of it, the possibility is very high. In other words, we have to walk over to communicate with those people,” Zhou Wen said as he looked at the people on the street.

“That’s crazy. The person closest to us is 163 stone slabs away from us. Even if sound can be transmitted within a certain range, meaning that we don’t have to walk right up to him, we still have to take at least a hundred steps.” Liu Yun counted the stone slabs on the street.

“Let’s try walking. Even if we stand here without moving, the third rule might still kill us,” Zhou Wen said.

“What a bullsh*t ironclad rule. If the ironclad rule is really effective, wouldn’t we die without a doubt? Killing people means death. Even if we don’t kill people, we will die. I think there must be something wrong with the three rules,” said Liu Yun.

“Murderers will die. If people aren’t killed in a day, one can only commit suicide. What method is there to satisfy these two conditions at the same time without having to die?” Zhou Wen frowned in thought.

Liu Yun looked at Zhou Wen and said, “I have an idea. If I push you out now and your number drops to zero, you might die because of me. It can be said that I killed you, but I didn’t personally kill you. Does this count as fulfilling two conditions at the same time?”

“That’s one way to look at it.” Zhou Wen nodded slightly.

However, Liu Yun shook his head and said, “This method is useless. Even if I kill you, I’ll only live one more day. The cost is not proportional to the rewards.”

“Now, our understanding of Netherworld City is limited. Let’s head over and ask the people ahead. Perhaps we can obtain some useful information,” Zhou Wen said as he prepared to walk forward.

“Don’t walk yet. Let’s think of a way. Perhaps we can come up with a way to resolve the problem. For example, you can carry me on your back. That way, we might only need to expend one person’s steps,” shouted Liu Yun.

“If I carry you, won’t your feet leave the ground?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I’m just giving an example. There might be other methods,” said Liu Yun.

“Then take your time to think about it. Tell me when you think of it.” Zhou Wen probed as he walked forward.

On the same stone slab, no matter how he moved, the number wouldn’t change. However, as long as he moved to the stone slab beside him, the number would change.

If he crossed two stone slabs with one step, the number would decrease by two.

“You are already walking. What’s the point of me telling you?” Liu Yun gritted his teeth and followed.

The two of them watched as the number on the stone slabs kept decreasing. They were also extremely nervous. No one knew what would happen after the number dropped to zero.

As Zhou Wen walked, he looked at his phone. Netherworld City was still downloading, but it hadn’t finished.

This was because he didn’t know when the game could be downloaded. If the download took more than a day, Zhou Wen might just be waiting for death if he didn’t do anything.

Therefore, Zhou Wen decided to do his best with what he had. If his phone didn’t work, he might still have a chance of survival.

After walking on about seven or eight stone slabs, Zhou Wen suddenly had a bad feeling the moment he stepped onto the next slab. It was as though something was different.

This time, not only did the stone slab show a number, but there were also words.

Cause of death: Death by blades.

Zhou Wen stood motionless as his body tensed up, ready to release his strength at any moment.

Liu Yun also felt that something was amiss. He stopped in front of Zhou Wen and asked him, “What happened?”

Before Zhou Wen could answer, he heard a bang. Not far in front of him, a warrior wrapped in armor appeared with a blade in hand.

After appearing, he slashed at Zhou Wen without a word. The black saber beam instantly appeared in front of him, as fast as an illusion.

Clang! Zhou Wen drew his Bamboo Blade and slashed at the black-armored warrior.

The black-armored warrior’s strength was much weaker than Zhou Wen’s. He was sent flying, but he wasn’t injured. Zhou Wen could tell that he was an Epic dimensional creature, not a human.

Zhou Wen couldn’t move, but the black-armored warrior didn’t have such restrictions. He rapidly moved and slashed from all directions, hoping to slay Zhou Wen by his blade.

Zhou Wen brandished his saber in response to the battle, but he could only stand where he was.

All this while, Zhou Wen had focused on practicing his movement techniques. But now, he couldn’t move at all. He was a little unused to it. However, his realm, reaction, consciousness, and technique remained ever-present. It wasn’t difficult for him to block the black-armored warrior’s attacks.

Liu Yun was too close to Zhou Wen and was also affected by the black-armored warrior. The black-armored warrior even slashed at him. Liu Yun could only take two steps back to prevent himself from being injured in the battle.

However, with his retreat, his number also decreased. He couldn’t help but feel depressed.

It’s clearly a stone slab that I’ve already reached, but the number still gets reduced when I return to it. Damn it. Liu Yun cursed inwardly.

However, when he saw Zhou Wen being constantly attacked by the black-armored warrior, he gloated in delight. “Junior Brother, your saber techniques aren’t bad. If you could move, ten black-armored warriors wouldn’t even make you break a sweat. What a pity.”

“Even if I can’t move, killing him isn’t difficult. However, if I kill him, it’s impossible to predict what will happen next,” Zhou Wen said.Liu Yun nodded when he heard that. “This black-armored warrior should be considered one of the top existences at the Epic stage. His movement techniques and saber techniques are very powerful. His strength is slightly lacking, but he’s first-rate. The first appearance might be at the Epic stage, but if the second one is at the Mythical stage, we would definitely die considering how we can’t use our Companion Beasts or move as we please.”

“That’s not what I’m referring to. I’m thinking if this black-armored warrior is considered a human? If I kill him, wouldn’t that breach the first rule?” Zhou Wen added.

After Liu Yun heard that, his expression turned serious. “If he’s considered a human, then we really don’t have a way out. Killing him means death. If we don’t kill him, we’ll be constantly attacked. Once our stamina is exhausted, we’ll die.”

After a moment of silence, Liu Yun continued, “I don’t think that he comes under the ironclad rules. Otherwise, there’s no way for us to live.”

“From the looks of it, Netherworld City doesn’t plan on giving us a way out,” Zhou Wen said coldly.

Zhou Wen’s mind raced. The black-armored warrior definitely had to be killed. It was impossible for him to continue fighting him like this. However, he couldn’t kill him casually. He needed to be prepared.

The black-armored warrior appeared behind Zhou Wen like a ghost. He was already very close to him, but Zhou Wen suddenly turned around and slashed out with his Bamboo Blade.

Before the black-armored warrior’s saber could land, his saber had already sliced the black-armored warrior in half.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 638 - Horror

Chapter 638 Horror

“Are you alright?” Liu Yun looked at Zhou Wen nervously. He was really worried that Zhou Wen would die.

If Zhou Wen were to die just like that, he would likely suffer the same fate. He naturally didn’t wish for Zhou Wen to die.

“I’m fine.” Zhou Wen sheathed his Bamboo Blade and shook his head.

At the instant he struck out to kill the black-armored warrior, Zhou Wen switched to Gods Retreat before killing it.

The jade infant absorbed a large amount of taboo power and nearly exploded. However, it was about the same as before. There were no abnormal fluctuations. From the looks of it, killing the black-armored warrior wasn’t considered murder.

Of course, this was only Zhou Wen’s guess. Perhaps the taboo power fluctuations from murder wasn’t obvious.

Zhou Wen looked down at the black-armored warrior’s corpse. His corpse was rapidly disintegrating as a crystal dropped. It was an Essence Energy Skill Crystal.

Zhou Wen extended his palm and sucked it over. The crystal reached Zhou Wen’s hand and he used his phone to snap a picture. It was indeed an Epic Essence Energy Skill Crystal.

Blade Executioner Crystal: Epic

With the Blade Executioner dead, the words on the stone slab beneath Zhou Wen’s feet vanished.

“Do you still want to continue walking? If we encounter a Mythical creature, we will probably be doomed,” said Liu Yun with a heavy expression.

Zhou Wen knew that it was a viable possibility. He wouldn’t believe that there were no Mythical creatures in such a strange dimensional zone.

He looked at his phone. The game was still downloading, and there wasn’t any indication of the progress. He didn’t know when it would finish downloading.

“Let’s continue,” Zhou Wen said as he bit his lip. A day was very short. If they couldn’t untie the dead knot caused by the three ironclad rules, they would probably die.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen still had Truth Listener and Demonic Neonate to use. Even if he encountered Mythical creatures, he wasn’t powerless against them.

However, Zhou Wen was still somewhat worried. He didn’t know if Companion Beasts would be affected by the ironclad rules of Netherworld City. If they were affected as well, they would die if they weren’t summoned with their feet touching the ground. That would be tragic.

But now that things had come to this, he had to fight for his survival. All he could do was walk forward.

“Junior Brother, go ahead. I’ll follow behind you. Since you wish to scout the way, I can help you from behind if you encounter danger,” said Liu Yun.

There was nothing wrong with what Liu Yun said. Furthermore, Zhou Wen hadn’t pinned his hopes on him at all, so he continued walking forward. However, this time, Zhou Wen walked even slower and was even more careful.

Liu Yun waited for Zhou Wen to take a few steps before stepping on the same stone slabs he took to prevent any accidents from happening.

The only thing that worried Liu Yun was if the black-armored warrior that Zhou Wen had killed would appear when he stepped onto the same stone slab.

Although he was worried, Liu Yun was still prepared to take the same path. He wanted to see if the black-armored warrior would appear again. That would give him a better idea for the remaining journey.

However, before Liu Yun reached the black-armored warrior’s stone slab, something went wrong.

He stepped on a stone slab that Zhou Wen had stepped on before. The stone slab lit up as a few words appeared.

Cause of death: Horror

“F*ck, what the hell is this? You clearly stepped on it just now. Wasn’t it fine?” Liu Yun tightened his nerves and looked around.

He didn’t know what horror was. The slab that Zhou Wen had stepped on previously clearly wrote ‘Death by blades.’

Zhou Wen turned his head and saw the words beneath Liu Yun’s feet. He said with a heavy expression, “From the looks of it, the problematic stone slabs aren’t in fixed spots. They randomly appear or someone is controlling them. Even if there's a pattern, we don't know what it is."

"Junior Brother, I think it's best if we don't meet again in the future. Before meeting you, I lived a happy life. However, ever since I met you, I haven't had a good day. I might even lose my life here. Promise me, if we can survive this time, we won't meet again, alright?" Liu Yun said with a bitter face.

"When you take me to the Endless Sea of Stars, we won't meet again," Zhou Wen said.

"You still want to go to the Endless Sea of Stars when we are already in this situation… Ah…" As Liu Yun spoke, he suddenly felt a chill run down his neck.

A dagger seemed to have appeared out of thin air and stuck to his neck. The blade had already touched his skin.

Liu Yun turned pale with fright, but his reaction was really fast. Almost at the same time the blade appeared, he quickly leaned back, but his feet seemed to be nailed to the ground. He remained motionless.

The dagger slashed across Liu Yun's face, slicing off a portion of his hair. Liu Yun broke out into a cold sweat.

However, the dagger vanished after the slash. If not for the fact that half of Liu Yun's hair had been cut off and there was a faint bloody mark on his neck, he would have thought that it was just an illusion.

Liu Yun listened attentively, but he couldn't hear the sound of the dagger at all. There was no wind in the air.

This is indeed horrifying. I would rather meet the black-armored warrior… Liu Yun felt depressed, but he focused his mind and didn’t dare relax.

Suddenly, the dagger appeared at Liu Yun’s waist and stabbed at his waist.

Liu Yun immediately dodged to the side. His clothes were pierced, but he still managed to dodge.

Zhou Wen watched from the side as the dagger constantly appeared. It was like a ghost whose trajectory he couldn’t figure out. Every time it appeared, it was as though it had teleported.

When it vanished, Truth Listener couldn’t hear its location.

Liu Yun’s skills were extraordinary. He managed to dodge the various attacks of the dagger time and time again. His body made all sorts of unimaginable poses. At most, he would lift one foot from the ground, never two at the same time. There were certain poses that even a professional acrobat might not be able to do.

“Senior Brother, your movement technique is pretty good. Where did you learn it?” Zhou Wen asked with a smile.

“You’re still gloating at me despite the situation. Hurry up and help me think of a way to deal with this fellow,” Liu Yun said gloomily.“Since you have the ability to dodge, find an opportunity to slash it. Perhaps you can slice it apart with one strike,” Zhou Wen said.

“You make it sound simple. How would I know that I would enter such a crappy place? I usually use Companion Beasts, so I don’t have any ordinary weapons,” said Liu Yun.

“You should have said so earlier. I have a weapon. I can rent it out to you,” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

“Cut the crap. Give it to me quickly.” Liu Yun dodged the dagger’s attack and shouted at Zhou Wen.

“How much will you be paying for rent?” Zhou Wen said in a relaxed manner when he saw that he wasn’t in much danger.

“You can charge however much you want. Junior Brother, can’t you be a little more humane in times like this?” Liu Yun felt like crying.

“Tell me first, what movement technique is that?” Zhou Wen was especially interested in movement techniques. Liu Yun’s movement technique wasn’t as fast as Zhou Wen’s, but his body could make all sorts of strange poses. It was something that ordinary humans couldn’t accomplish. It was definitely a special Essence Energy Skill.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 639 - Fire Burning

Chapter 639 Fire Burning

“This is a combination of contortion, movement technique, and bone-contraction. It’s not a simple Essence Energy Skill. If you want to learn it, I’ll teach you slowly later,” said Liu Yun anxiously. “Give me the blade quickly.”

“Take it.” Zhou Wen took out his Orchid Blade and threw it at Liu Yun.

Liu Yun caught the Orchid Blade. As he waited for the dagger to appear again with full concentration, he said, “What kind of blade is this? Can it be used?”

“Don’t worry. It’s very sharp. It’s not inferior to the one in my hand.” Zhou Wen didn’t tell him that it was the Four Gentlemen Blade’s Orchid Blade, lest he scare him.

He didn’t dare to lend him the Bamboo Blade either. He was afraid that he would end up with even more bad luck and attract more trouble.

Clang!

The dagger appeared behind Liu Yun. He leaned forward and twisted his body at the same time. With a back swing of his hand, he slashed at the dagger.

The dagger was sliced open by the Orchid Blade and disappeared as it flew out.

The dagger clearly didn’t give up on killing Liu Yun. It continued to appear, but it was struck by the Orchid Blade in Liu Yun’s hand.

After slashing more than ten times in a row, he forcefully snapped the dagger. Zhou Wen saw that he had managed to slash at the same spot every time. His technique was excellent and he wasn’t someone to be underestimated.

The dagger landed on the ground and quickly disintegrated, leaving behind a dimensional crystal. It looked like it had added stats.

“This blade isn’t bad. In any case, you still have a big one. Let me borrow the small one for a while. I’ll return it to you when we get out. You can name any conditions you want.” Liu Yun didn’t have any weapons on hand which made him uneasy. He wanted to use Zhou Wen’s Orchid Blade for the time being.

“Take it if you want to use it. Just follow the conditions we agreed on. There’s no need for any additional conditions,” Zhou Wen said.

Seeing how straightforward Zhou Wen was, Liu Yun suddenly felt that something was amiss. From the way he knew Zhou Wen, he definitely wasn’t someone who was easy to negotiate with.

There must be a problem. Liu Yun carefully sized up the Orchid Blade in his hand. After looking at it for a while, his expression suddenly changed. “This… This can’t be the Orchid Blade of the Four Baneful Blades, right?”

“As expected of my senior brother. You are knowledgeable,” Zhou Wen said with a thumbs up.

“It’s no wonder we are so unlucky when you’re carrying such a thing on you. I was fine coming to the desert so many times in the past, but something happened the moment you came. So it’s because of this evil thing. You really aren’t afraid of death… Wait…” Liu Yun said in an extremely foul manner as though he had suddenly thought of something. He looked at the Bamboo Blade at Zhou Wen’s waist and said with widened eyes, “That’s not the Bamboo Blade of the Four Baneful Blades, right? Are the things you have genuine?”

“What do you think?” Zhou Wen asked with a smile.

Liu Yun nearly jumped up, but when he thought about how he would die if his feet left the ground, he stopped himself. He pointed at Zhou Wen and said with a trembling voice, “You really have no concept of death. Just having any one of the Plum, Orchid, Bamboo, and Chrysanthemum Blades will lead to a terrible death. F*ck you. To think you have two. Do you really have a death wish!? It’s fine if you’re tired of living, but don’t drag me with you.”

With that said, Liu Yun was about to throw the Orchid Blade at Zhou Wen. He didn’t want to hold such an item for even a minute. He had already deeply experienced how terrifying it was to be unlucky.

“Senior Brother, you have to consider carefully. Without this Orchid Blade, you would be dead right now,” Zhou Wen said.

Liu Yun was taken aback as his expression turned complicated. Although Orchid Blade was infamous, if he didn’t have any weapons now, the chances of survival were too low.

“Junior Brother, I really have to take my hat off to you. Couldn’t you have brought some normal weapons? Why have you brought such deadly things? Do you really have a death wish?” Liu Yun said gloomily, but he still held the Orchid Blade and didn’t throw it at Zhou Wen.

“Cut the crap. Tell me how you mastered that movement technique,” Zhou Wen said.

Liu Yun told Zhou Wen the various Essence Energy Skills he needed for his movement technique before saying, “This thing of mine is mainly used when stealing. In terms of speed and exquisiteness, it’s inferior to your movement technique. Why are you learning it? Do you want to be a thief?”

“I’m just interested.” Zhou Wen didn’t believe that Liu Yun’s movement technique was as useless as he had said. His strange movement technique allowed him to adapt to various environments.

In the future, when Zhou Wen entered dimensional zones to fight, it would be impossible for every dimensional zone to have enough space for him to use his full range of movement techniques. If he were in some narrow and rugged area, Liu Yun’s movement techniques would be especially useful.

After silently memorizing Liu Yun’s movement technique methodology, Liu Yun said from behind, “What do we do now? Do we still need to continue moving forward?”

“There’s no way out. All we can do is walk forward,” Zhou Wen said as he continued.

Liu Yun knew that scouting was useless, so he didn’t plan on waiting for Zhou Wen to scout ahead. He walked over and levelled up with him.

When Liu Yun passed the stone slab that the black-armored warrior had appeared in, he didn’t activate it. It looked like the problematic stone slabs were purely random.

After taking a few steps, a stone slab lit up again and new words appeared.

Cause of death: Fire Burning

“How many ways of death are there in Netherworld City?” Zhou Wen focused his attention on his surroundings as he pushed Truth Listener’s ability to its limit.

However, the range Truth Listener could hear only had a radius of ten stone slabs. Everything beyond was silent as though it was muted.

Zhou Wen could roughly tell that this was the maximum area they could hear sounds.

Boom!

With a loud thunderclap, a strange dimensional creature appeared by Zhou Wen’s side. It looked like a crocodile, but it stood there with its hind legs on the ground. It raised its front claws and its tail played a supporting role.

However, due to its short limbs, its body was fat and short. It looked a little adorable and wasn’t very tall. It only reached Zhou Wen’s waist.

Just as Zhou Wen was sizing it up, it opened its mouth and spat out a flame that surged at him.

The flames weren’t ordinary red-yellow in color, nor were they blue in color. Instead, they were white flames that looked like burning ice mist.

Zhou Wen didn’t dare be careless. He drew his saber and slashed out a Demonic Astral Wheel. The blood-red wheel of light tore out like a saw as it slashed at the strange flames.

The Demonic Astral Wheel’s destructive power was indeed very strong. It spun and sliced through the white flames, but the deeper it went, the slower the Demonic Astral Wheel spun. It only managed to slice through less than a meter before completely stopping, as though it had been frozen.

In the next second, the Demonic Astral Wheel shattered amid the white flames, turning into countless fragments. The fragments rapidly burned, causing the white flames to become even more ferocious as they enveloped Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 640 - Death Knell

Chapter 640 Death Knell

At this moment, Zhou Wen felt that the techniques he had been practicing recently were mainly movement techniques. Now that he couldn’t move, he lacked the means to defeat his enemy.

I’ve had too little time. I don’t have the time to learn so many skills. Zhou Wen’s time was indeed limited. Others only needed to advance one Life Soul, but he needed to advance four.

Furthermore, his training time would be about a year. To be able to train his movement technique to epitome standards, his progression speed was terrifying.

However, at the critical moment, disasters didn’t give Zhou Wen the time to cultivate. Just as the white flames were about to shoot at him, Zhou Wen didn’t slash out again with Bamboo Blade. Instead, he used Demonic Astral Wheel’s suction and struck out with his palm. Using the spinning power, he diverted the white flames to the side.

Despite that, the rotation of the Demonic Astral Wheel gradually slowed down in the white flames. A few seconds later, the spinning force wasn’t enough to divert the white flames. All Zhou Wen could do was deliver another Demonic Astral Wheel.

Zhou Wen sheathed the Bamboo Blade and constantly struck out Demonic Astral Wheel with both hands, diverting the white flames that spewed at him to the side.

Therefore, a magical scene happened. The monster spewed out flames that resembled white fire snakes, but they were diverted to the side by Zhou Wen's Demonic Astral Wheel. It bloomed like flaming chrysanthemums that filled the sky.

"Junior Brother, duck!" At this moment, Liu Yun suddenly shouted.

Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen crouched down and lowered his head. He saw a needle-like cold beam fly over his head.

The monster's attention was on Zhou Wen, so it shifted its gaze downwards as he ducked. It wasn't prepared for the cold beam of light as it instantly nailed into its eyes. The monster immediately let out a tragic cry.

Zhou Wen took the opportunity to draw his saber and slash out. The Demonic Astral Wheel spun and beheaded the screaming monster.

On careful look, Orchid Blade had penetrated the monster's eyes.

"Thanks." Zhou Wen extended his hand and sucked the Orchid Blade back before throwing it at Liu Yun again.

"I won't be able to live for long if you're dead. Two people are better than one. I'm doing this for myself. Instead, I'm more concerned about you. You expended so much Essence Energy just now. It's best you recover your Essence Energy before continuing," said Liu Yun.

Although Zhou Wen didn't really need Liu Yun's help, he would provide him significant help in escaping Netherworld City since Liu Yun had expressed his goodwill and was willing to work together with him to face the problem.

“If you don’t have Essence Energy Crystals, I can sell them to you. How about ten Epic Essence Energy Crystals for your movement technique?” Liu Yun had some ideas about Zhou Wen’s movement techniques.

His movement technique was already fast enough. Few people at his level could catch up to him, but Zhou Wen’s movement technique was even faster than his. He also wanted to know how Zhou Wen had mastered it.

“Don’t you think ten crystals is a tad too little?” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

“You have to know that we are in a dire situation. No one knows when we will be able to leave, nor do we know how many battles we will have to go through. The present value of Essence Energy Crystal is ten times or even a hundred times what it usually is. It’s very possible that an Essence Energy Crystal might save us at the end. If you can use another skill, you might be able to survive. Do you still think it’s expensive?” Liu Yun said seriously.

“It’s still expensive. Even if an Essence Energy Crystal is worth a hundred times more, do you think it can be exchanged for a divine movement technique?” Zhou Wen asked.

“What? Your movement technique is at the divine level?” Liu Yun was shocked.

“As real as it gets. If you really want to know how it’s done, it’s best you show some sincerity and help me obtain Star Stealer,” Zhou Wen said.

“Does the method need Mythical Skill Crystals?” Liu Yun asked.

“There’s no need. All the skills are at the Epic and Legendary stage. There’s no need for Mythical skill crystals,” Zhou Wen answered.

“You comprehended a divine skill yourself?” Liu Yun was even more surprised.

Zhou Wen’s Mythical Companion Beasts could be explained away by him being rich. There might be a faction or massive resources backing him.

However, comprehending a divine skill wasn’t something that could be accomplished with just resources. Although resources were one of the most important conditions, what really mattered was one’s perceptivity.

“Teacher’s eyes are really sharp. A random student he takes in has such standards. Unfortunately, in such a place, your divine movement technique is useless,” said Liu Yun with a sigh.

“Let’s continue walking. We don’t know how long a Netherworld City day is. Perhaps we don’t have as much time as we imagined,” Zhou Wen said as he continued walking forward.

Liu Yun quickly chased after him, clearly wanting to cooperate with Zhou Wen.

After taking a few steps, Liu Yun also encountered dimensional creatures. This time, the dimensional creatures they encountered were the Blade Executioners they had previously seen. The cause of death was naturally death by blades.

Liu Yun had seen Zhou Wen kill the Blade Executioner, so he already had some understanding of it. He didn’t spend much effort to kill the Blade Executioner.

The two of them walked forward together. There were four types of dimensional creatures they often encountered: Blade Executioners who delivered death by blade, Flaming Evil Spirits who used Fire Burning, Flash Spirit Flying Blade who inculcated Horror, and Water Demon who used Drown.

They were all Epic dimensional creatures with their own characteristics. However, with Zhou Wen and Liu Yun’s cooperation, they killed them one by one, allowing them to smoothly walk over the stone slabs.

With every step the two of them took, Liu Yun would shout at the person ahead, hoping to see if he could hear him.

Zhou Wen naturally knew that it was useless. Unless they came within ten stone slabs of each other, the other party definitely couldn’t hear their voices.

Zhou Wen did some calculations. They needed 153 steps to reach a distance of ten stone slabs from the person. That would leave them with slightly over 200 steps.

This was only enough for them to speak to each other. It was unknown how many steps it would take to leave Netherworld City.

The two of them took 120 steps and could already see that the person closest to them was very close. Just as they were about to continue advancing, they suddenly heard a bell chime.Clang!

The sudden ringing of the bell gave the two of them a fright. The sound was coming from a building at the end of the stone steps. There was a brass bell hanging on it that emitted the heart-shuddering sound.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The bell constantly rang. Zhou Wen had never heard such a strange bell chime. He felt that it wasn’t auspicious.

“What crappy bell is this? Why does it sound like a death knell?” Liu Yun blurted out.

“Death knell?” Zhou Wen was immediately taken aback.

After Liu Yun said it, he thought about it carefully and was stunned. The two of them exchanged looks and saw the unease in each other’s eyes.

The bell rang seven times before it finally stopped. In front of the building, a throne made of yellow jade slowly rose. There was a person sitting on the throne.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 641 - Bone Die

Chapter 641: Bone Die

Translator: CKtalon

The person was wearing armor carved from white bones. On his head was a skull-like mask. His eyes were shimmering with a strange red light as he casually sat on the yellow jade throne. His gaze was sizing up the people on the long street below.

He didn’t look like he was looking at humans, but more like beasts such as pigs or dogs.

He supported his face with one hand and tilted his head to look at them. Meanwhile, the people on the street below were all ghastly pale. Their bodies involuntarily trembled as though something extremely terrifying was about to happen.

“Who is that guy? Why is he so cocky?” Liu Yun whispered.

The person, far away above the stone steps, seemed to have heard Liu Yun’s words. Looking at him from afar, Liu Yun’s scalp immediately went numb and cold sweat broke out on his back.

Fortunately, that person only glanced at him and didn’t pay much attention to him.

Zhou Wen noticed that in front of the person was a bowl made of a skull. Unfortunately, he didn’t know what was inside.

Truth Listener’s ability had been restricted. He couldn’t sense that far away.

Just as Zhou Wen was pondering over it, the person extended a hand and took some things from the bowl, clamping them between his fingers.

Only then did Zhou Wen see that they were dice—six of them. Each one was crystalline-like jade, but they looked more like the bones of some creature.

The dice didn’t look too special. Just like ordinary dice, there were numbers from one to six engraved on each of the six sides. The colors were red, like blood.

When the person picked up the dice, Zhou Wen and Liu Yun were alarmed because the stone slab beneath their feet lit up.

However, the stone slabs were extremely bright this time. A blood-colored number actually appeared on it.

The number under Zhou Wen’s feet was 19, and the number under Liu Yun’s feet was 18. Neither of them knew what this number represented.

However, Zhou Wen soon realized what the numbers meant. This was because blood-colored numbers lit up beneath the feet of the people in front of him. Everyone’s numbers were different. From 1 to 33, this meant that there were a total of 33 people on the long street. These numbers were their serial numbers.

Zhou Wen had already figured out what would happen next.

That high and mighty fellow would definitely throw the dice. If the number he threw was the same as the number under someone’s feet, that person would definitely be in for a rough time.

From the reactions of the people in front of him, he knew that they must have experienced the same thing, which was why they appeared to be so afraid.

“I wonder what will happen if the points under our feet match the points he throws out?” Liu Yun also noticed something and swallowed his saliva.

“I don’t know, but I’m certain that nothing good can come out of it.” As Zhou Wen spoke, the person waved his hand and threw the dice out.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that he would throw the dice into the bowl, but to his surprise, the person threw the dice down.

Six dice landed on the stone steps and rolled along.

Amazingly, the six dice grew in size as they rolled. When they landed on the long street, they were more than a meter long.

Six huge rolling dice rumbled down the long street at an extremely fast speed. Wherever they passed, the people in front would dodge to the side, not daring to come into contact with the die. They looked extremely afraid.

“What should we do?” Liu Yun looked at the dice that were rolling. Two of the huge dice were likely to pass through the spot they were standing.

If they wanted to dodge, they needed to move at least three stone slabs.

“Let’s dodge it first.” Zhou Wen didn’t know what the dice were, so he decided to avoid them. He would wait until he figured out the situation when he went further forward.

Six dice rolled past them amidst rumbling, and their step counter was reduced by four steps.

Clang!

The dice rolled all the way to the entrance and slammed into it. Then, they bounced back and landed in the open space inside the door. After rolling for a while, they stopped.

One two, three threes, one six, and one five—a total score of 22.

Zhou Wen and Liu Yun’s eyes immediately looked at the street in front of them. The person with the red number, 22, at his feet was around the middle of the long street. He looked like an extremely muscular middle-aged man. He was tall and mighty, and his muscles looked like steel.

Everyone on the long street looked at him, and his face instantly turned pale. He looked extremely horrified as he shouted crazily, but unfortunately, his voice couldn’t be heard. All they could see was his mouth open, but no one knew what he was shouting.

As he shouted, he ran crazily. However, no matter which stone slab he ran to, the stone slab would light up with the blood-red 22.

Boom!

Without any warning, the middle-aged man’s body exploded like a split watermelon. Blood flowed everywhere.

However, the blood very quickly seeped into the cracks on the stone slabs, leaving not a single drop. It was as though the stone slabbed ground could suck blood.

The man on the throne spread his fingers and the six huge dice flew back into the air, shrinking amidst their flight. By the time they reached his hand, they had returned to their original size.

Holding the dice in his hand, the person looked coldly at the people on the long street. The throne slowly descended and eventually disappeared.

“That bastard. What does he treat us as? His toys?” Liu Yun gritted his teeth.

“From the looks of it, there’s nothing wrong with that.” Zhou Wen stared at the building on the stone steps. There was no longer a throne or man there.

After watching for a while, Zhou Wen said, “That fellow should be the most terrifying dimensional creature in Netherworld City. If we can kill him, we might have a chance of escaping.”

“How do we kill him? The rules of Netherworld City are set by him. We are just chess pieces on the board. How can we play chess with the chess player?” Liu Yun said with a bitter expression.

“That depends on whether he abides by the rules or not. If he abides by the rules, we still have a chance of defeating him even if he’s a chess player,” Zhou Wen said.

“What if he doesn’t follow the rules?” Liu Yun asked.

“Then we will have to think of a way to avoid the rules.” Zhou Wen looked at the person closest to them. There was still a look of horror on the person’s face. From the looks of it, he had been frightened by the scene.

“Let’s go and ask them what’s going on here,” Zhou Wen said as he continued walking forward.

They weren’t too far from that person. After killing a few Epic dimensional creatures, they finally arrived within ten steps of that person.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 642 - Chu He

Chapter 642: Chu He

The person’s hair was already gray and he looked to be in his fifties or sixties. He was thin. Although there were many wrinkles on his face, his chiseled edges were still there. It was obvious that he had been a handsome man when he was young.

When the old man was looking at the dice, he saw Zhou Wen and Liu Yun. He also knew that they were walking over, but he didn’t seem to have the desire to communicate with them. All he did was stand there dejectedly.

“How should I address you?” Liu Yun asked.

When the old man heard the voice, it was as if he had just woken up. He subconsciously answered, “My name is Chu He. I’m a professor at Imperial Capital College’s History department.”

“Peasant? Is your wife called noon[1]?” Liu Yun joked.

“It’s not that. It’s Chu He as in the Chu River.” The old man didn’t have any sense of humor. In such an environment, there was nothing that could make him laugh. Therefore, the old man explained seriously.

Zhou Wen’s eyes widened when he heard the elder’s words. He asked in disbelief, “Chu He? How many professors in the Imperial Capital College’s History department are named Chu He?”

“I’m the only one.” Chu He seemed somewhat numb. He didn’t care why Zhou Wen would ask such a strange question.

Zhou Wen looked at Chu He excitedly. In the entire Imperial Capital College, Zhou Wen only knew of one person named Chu He.

The reason Zhou Wen could remember this name wasn’t because Chu He was famous. No matter how famous Chu He was in his field, Zhou Wen couldn’t care less, much less remember his name.

However, this Chu He was different. This was because there was a history professor at Imperial Capital College. He was a member of the former principal’s expedition team.

Zhou Wen had seen Chu He’s name and information on the list, and he had also seen the picture of the expedition team.

However, Zhou Wen had only had a general look back then. Chu He wasn’t his target, so he didn’t pay much attention to him.

Now that he thought about it, this Chu He was indeed somewhat similar to the Chu He in the photo. However, the Chu He in the photo was slightly plumper. He wasn’t this thin and he looked better. He had a ruddy face and black hair. He wasn’t as pale as he was now. Back then, Chu He was in high spirits.

Is he really Professor Chu He from the expedition team? Shouldn’t he have entered the Zhuolu battlefield with the former principal and company? They went missing together, so how could he be here? Zhou Wen believed that the former principal had been killed, but for a person who had likely been killed with the former principal to appear in Netherworld City made him feel alarmed again.

Could it be that Netherworld City is really the place where humans come to after death? Could it be that the people in this city aren't living humans, but dead ghosts? Then what about Liu Yun and me? Could it be that we are already dead without even realizing it? Did our souls enter Netherworld City? Zhou Wen shook his head and threw this ridiculous thought out of his mind.

"Professor Chu, have you been to the Zhuolu battlefield for research?" Zhou Wen asked as he stared at Chu He. He hoped that Chu He was Professor Chu He from the expedition team.

If they were really the same person, it was very likely that the former principal hadn't been killed if Professor Chu He was still alive. After all, he hadn't found the former principal's corpse in Zhuolu, nor had he discovered any other relics.

Ever since he was young, there hadn't been many people who had treated Zhou Wen well. The former principal was one of them. Zhou Wen felt that a good person like the former principal shouldn't have died so early. At the very least, he didn't wish for the former principal to die so early.

"No." Chu He shook his head.

"How can that be? Think about it carefully. The Federation invited you to participate in the expedition team to Zhuolu. You, Professor Ouyang Ting, and a few other experts and professors went to Zhuolu together," Zhou Wen said.

After speaking for a while, Chu He's thoughts seemed to become more active. After hearing Zhou Wen's words, he lowered his head and thought for a moment before saying, “I remember. There was such an incident. Back then, an organization under the Federation did invite me to Zhuolu to carry out research work. I remember that there was an old professor Ouyang Ting on the list.”

“If you went to Zhuolu with them, why are you here alone?” Zhou Wen asked in excitement. He had already taken a look at the others on the street, but he hadn’t discovered the former principal or the other members of the expedition team.

To his surprise, Chu He shook his head and said, “No, no, no. I didn’t go to Zhuolu. I had a major discovery at that time and wanted to do research in the Taklamakan Desert, so I rejected the invitation and didn’t go to Zhuolu.”

“You rejected the invitation?” Zhou Wen looked at Chu He with disbelief.

He had read the information on the Zhuolu expedition team. Although there was no more information after they went missing, the records were still very detailed. There were even their punch card records when they were at the encampment.

Many people in the encampment had seen Professor Chu He before. Some had even chatted with him. Now, Chu He had actually said that he hadn’t gone to Zhuolu and had rejected the invitation from the beginning. This made many thoughts flash through Zhou Wen’s mind.

Is this Chu He lying? Or did he really not go to Zhuolu? If he really didn’t go to Zhuolu, then who’s the Chu He in Zhuolu? Is this Chu He fake? Or is the expedition team’s Chu He fake? Or is it the same person? Did the soul enter Netherworld City after Chu He died and he has already forgotten the past? That’s not right. He still remembers his name and knows that he’s a professor at Imperial Capital College. It doesn’t look like his memories have been washed away. Zhou Wen’s mind was in a mess; he couldn’t figure out what was going on.

“Yes, I rejected it,” Chu He said bitterly. “I was in a dilemma back then. If I had chosen to go to Zhuolu, I wouldn’t have been trapped in this place that’s akin to hell.”

Zhou Wen thought to himself, If you had gone to Zhuolu back then, your outcome might not have been better than now. At the very least, you’re still alive. I’m not even sure if the former principal and company are dead or not.

“Junior Brother, let’s chat about all of that later. We don’t have much time left. Ask the important questions,” said Liu Yun anxiously.

Zhou Wen nodded and asked, “Professor Chu, how did you enter Netherworld City? What’s the situation here?”

Chu He said, “Back then, I was studying the ruins of the Niya civilization in the desert. Who knew that I would encounter a sandstorm? After the sandstorm passed, I saw Netherworld City. Then, there was a huge fire around me. I had no choice but to escape into Netherworld City.”

The experience of Chu He and Zhou Wen’s entering Netherworld City was similar. However, Zhou Wen thought of another important problem.

[1] Chu He can be a homophone for a peasant. There’s a poem that says a peasant toils at noon. The toil here can be regarded as a sexual innuendo.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 643 - Torture Chambers

Chapter 643: Torture Chambers

Translator: CKtalon

“Professor Chu, when did you enter Netherworld City?” Zhou Wen asked directly.

If this Chu He was really Professor Chu He from Imperial Capital College, then the Professor Chu He who went to Zhuolu was likely a fake.

However, since the imposter hadn’t been discovered, this meant that Professor Chu He must have come to the desert a long time ago. That was why no one had seen him again. Otherwise, the imposter would have been discovered long ago.

In that case, Professor Chu He should have entered Netherworld City a while ago. Otherwise, he would definitely have made contact with the outside world. Someone outside should know that he was in the desert and not Zhuolu.

However, the truth was that no one knew of such a situation. Even Chu He’s family believed that he was in Zhuolu. This was extremely odd.

If someone hadn’t deliberately cut off the connection between Professor Chu He and the outside world, it would have been because he had entered Netherworld City a long time ago. That was why no one knew he was here.

However, with the three ironclad rules of Netherworld City, how did Professor Chu He survive?

“When?” Professor Chu He looked at him strangely and said, “Just today. Didn’t you come in today when you encountered a sandstorm?”

“Today? Didn’t you contact your family before you came in?” Zhou Wen asked in disbelief.

“There’s no signal in the desert. How can I contact my family? It was only about a couple of weeks ago. I went to the city outside the desert to contact my family once. At that time, I was very excited to tell them that I had made a huge discovery and that I would be back soon to reunite with them. I never expected…” Chu He’s face was filled with sorrow.

This left Zhou Wen completely dumbfounded. Chu He had contacted his family a couple of weeks ago, so why hadn’t his family mentioned this matter? His family had never mentioned that Chu He had gone to the Taklamakan.

Now, Zhou Wen wished he could return immediately and ask Chu He’s family what was going on.

From Zhou Wen’s point of view, this wasn’t a coincidence. Two Professor Chu Hes had appeared in different places. There had to be someone pulling the strings from behind.

Who’s doing these things? If the Zhuolu expedition team’s Chu He is fake, what did the fake Chu He want to do by joining the expedition team? Could the former principal’s disappearance have something to do with him? With this in mind, Zhou Wen’s mind became active.

If someone really abducted the former principal away, the former principal might still be alive.

Liu Yun was somewhat anxious. Zhou Wen kept asking questions that weren't pertinent. All he could do was ask himself, "Professor Chu, you came earlier than us. Do you know what's going on here? What exactly is that dimensional creature that appeared up there?"

"That's City Lord Netherworld. The bronze bell hanging there will ring every hour. It's the same as the wall clock at home. When the bell rings seven times, he will appear and cast the dice to take a life…" Chu He said with a trembling body.

"Wait, you said that it rings seven times a day. Doesn't that mean you have been here for more than a day?" Zhou Wen discovered the problem in Chu He's words.

Chu He said with a bitter smile, "I heard it from others. As you saw, City Lord Netherworld really appeared and even took a life. Perhaps it will be my turn tomorrow. However, my worries are unnecessary. I don't even know if I can survive today. Why should I be worried about tomorrow?"

Liu Yun was immediately disappointed. He originally imagined that he would find someone who knew what was happening and obtain some information about Netherworld City, but to his surprise, Chu He had entered Netherworld City the same day as them, albeit a little earlier than them.

Taking a closer look at Chu He's feet, he realized that he still had 132 steps left. That was even fewer than Zhou Wen and company.

"Professor Chu, have you learned anything about Netherworld City and City Lord Netherworld?" Liu Yun continued asking unwillingly.

Liu Yun was surprised when he realized that Chu He knew much more than he had imagined.

According to what Chu He had heard, the three ironclad rules of Netherworld City could not be violated. Otherwise, one would immediately die.

Furthermore, the distance between the stone slabs was a number. Be it advancing or retreating, or moving left and right repeatedly, it was part of the count.

Once the number dropped to zero, it meant death.

Chu He saw a person self-destruct because of the number turning zero. It was identical to how the middle-aged man who had died just moments ago.

It was said that there was only one way to leave Netherworld City alive. That was to walk to the end of the long street and step onto the stone steps to reach the Netherworld Divine Throne. Only by sounding the bronze bell on it can one leave Netherworld City.

“That’s impossible. From here to the stone steps, there are at least two to three thousand stone slabs. With just the few steps allocated to us, we can’t even reach the stone steps, much less walk up the stone steps and strike the bell,” Liu Yun said with a frown.

“It’s not impossible to increase the number of steps. Every new hour, the doors on both sides of the long street open. When the time comes, we have a chance to obtain more steps,” Chu He said as he pointed at the tightly-shut doors.

“Are the shops selling steps? What do we use to buy them? Is it money or dimensional crystals?” Liu Yun asked as he sized up the shops on both sides of the street.

“No, those aren’t shops, but torture chambers. You can be punished in the torture chamber in exchange for the number of steps. The punishment in each torture chamber is different. You can obtain different steps from different punishments…” As Chu He spoke, his eyes revealed fear.

Zhou Wen and Liu Yun were dumbfounded when they heard that. According to Chu He, there were various kinds of punishments in the torture chambers.

Getting branded by a piece of red-hot metal on the chest until the flesh scorched could exchange for five steps.

Having needles stab the ten fingers could be exchanged for ten steps. Having a piece of flesh taken with a blade could obtain one step.

Although these sorts of punishments wouldn’t kill, it left one shuddering in fear.

“In that case, as long as we can endure the pain, we can obtain enough steps to walk up the stone steps?” said Liu Yun.

“That’s not entirely the case. Every punishment only gives steps the first time,” Chu He said.

Zhou Wen immediately counted the number of torture chambers on both sides of the street. According to the information he had obtained from Chu He, one could obtain about ten steps from each torture chamber.

“239 torture chambers. If we can obtain 10 steps from each torture chamber, we can obtain more than 2000 steps. With so many steps, can we walk up the stone steps?” Zhou Wen estimated that it was about there, but this was only an estimate. It wasn’t necessarily accurate.

“Junior Brother, we seem to have made a mistake…” Liu Yun’s expression turned nasty as he thought of the same problem as Zhou Wen.

Steps were scarce. One had to visit all the torture chambers once before they could ascend and reach the Netherworld Divine Throne.

However, as they walked all the way, they had already missed many torture chambers. If they walked back now, it would be a waste of many steps, making their already small number of steps even fewer.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 644 - Punishment

Chapter 644: Punishment

“If we continue like this, I’m afraid we won’t have enough steps to reach the Netherworld Divine Throne. If we backtrack, the number of steps we take will also decrease,” said Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, “Even if we start with the first torture chamber, I’m afraid we won’t be able to reach the Netherworld Divine Throne.”

“Why? Will there not be enough steps?” Liu Yun was puzzled.

“I don’t know if the number of steps is enough. However, I do know that in the short span of a day, suffering 239 types of punishments might be nothing to our bodies individually, but can we take a total of 239 punishments? I doubt I can. Among the people I know, I’m afraid only one person can complete this street and survive all the punishments. Unfortunately, he’s not here,” Zhou Wen said.

“Although it’s very difficult, we still have to give it a try. We can’t just sit back and wait for death, right?” Liu Yun said.

“Then give it a try later,” Zhou Wen said as he pointed at the shop beside him.

“As you wish.” Liu Yun also knew that at this stage, he had to try his best. Otherwise, there was no way out.

“Do you want to go back first?” Liu Yun looked at the path they had taken, but he quickly rejected it. “I’ll first try entering the torture chamber beside me.”

There was still some time before the next hourly bell. The two of them could only stand there and wait.

Zhou Wen took out his phone to take a look, but he still hadn’t finished downloading it. The dungeon map was clearly very big.

Zhou Wen took the opportunity to cultivate Gods Retreat. Every time he summoned it, he would switch it away when it was about to explode. After repeated cultivation, the jade infant’s body became more transparent. Soon, it became as transparent as crystal.

Zhou Wen vaguely felt that the jade infant was about to break through.

I wonder what a Life Soul’s Perfect Body would be like? Zhou Wen placed all his hopes on the jade infant. Gods Retreat wasn’t enough to resist the taboo power here. If it could advance to a Perfect Body, they might still have a chance of survival.

As for entering the punishment chamber to receive punishment, Zhou Wen didn’t pin much hope on it. His physique was already very strong, but he might not be able to withstand so many punishments in such a short period of time. Unless Li Xuan was here, Zhou Wen didn’t even wish to give it a try.

An hour quickly passed. While the jade infant rested, Zhou Wen chatted with Chu He and deliberately asked about his past.

Chu He was already reeling in horror after being trapped here. Being able to chat with others was also a way to relieve stress. He said a lot.

Chu He remembered everything that had happened in the past very clearly. It didn’t look like there was a problem with him, nor was there any memory loss.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The bell rang again. This time, the bell rang eight times. After the bell stopped, the torture chambers that had been closed on both sides of the street opened their doors.

Zhou Wen looked at the torture chamber beside him and saw that there was a strange torture device inside. It looked like a wooden horse, and on its back was a long spike that resembled a unicorn’s horn. However, it wasn’t growing on its head, but on its back.

Beside the torture equipment was a sign with the words “Wooden Horse Punishment Twenty Steps” written on it.

“Eldest Senior Brother, you get twenty steps each punishment. The rewards are very high. Do you want to give it a try?” Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

Liu Yun’s face turned green when he saw the torture equipment. He immediately shook his head and said, “No way! I’ll try this instead. Punishment by a thousand cuts. Every slice of meat is one step. More slices, more steps. This is a punishment that can be repeatedly undertaken. Perhaps it’s a better opportunity to get more steps.”

“Can you take it?” Zhou Wen looked at the torture chamber and saw that there was an iron chain hanging on the beam. Beside it was a dagger.

With one look, he roughly understood that one was going to be cuffed by the hands and hoisted up before having the dagger slice off pieces of meat.

“As a man, anything can be done to live. I’ll do it.” Liu Yun knew that if he wanted to live, he had to risk it.

Without any hesitation, Liu Yun followed Chu He’s earlier instructions and shouted at the punishment by a thousand cuts chamber, “I want to undertake punishment by a thousand cuts.”

The moment he finished his sentence, his body vanished as though he had teleported. Zhou Wen looked over and saw that his hands had been cuffed and he was hanging in the torture chamber.

The tiny blade was picked up by a white ghost-like creature before it slashed at Liu Yun’s thigh.

The small blade was like a saw as it sliced back and forth, bit by bit. A piece of flesh fell from Liu Yun’s thigh.

It had to be said that the white ghost’s blade techniques were first-rate. The flesh that was sliced off was as thin as a cicada’s wing and was almost transparent. It was comparable to a top chef.

Zhou Wen roughly understood why the flesh sliced off was so thin. It wasn’t because they were afraid of the victim dying, but because if it was too thick, he wouldn’t have enough flesh to cut a thousand slices. It naturally couldn’t be considered a punishment by a thousand cuts.

It was only one slice, but Liu Yun’s face was pale from the pain. Not much flesh had been sliced off, but the wound was nothing in comparison to the pain.

Liu Yun gritted his teeth and didn’t say a word. The small blade continued to slice off another piece of flesh.

When Zhou Wen looked at Liu Yun again, his forehead was breaking out in cold sweat.

Chu He’s heart trembled as he watched from the side. Such a bloody and cruel punishment made one’s hair stand on end.

Liu Yun didn’t even grunt as the blade sliced through his flesh. He was like a classic example of a true man. Even Zhou Wen couldn’t help but be impressed. Liu Yun was truly unyielding.

To Zhou Wen’s surprise, Liu Yun’s wounds didn’t bleed much. Every time the tiny blade sliced off a piece of flesh, the wound would automatically contract without much bleeding.

“Eldest Senior Brother, I couldn’t tell. You’ve also practiced such a powerful self-recovery technique,” Zhou Wen exclaimed.

“Self-recovery my ass. It’s the power of the torture chamber that prevents me from bleeding. It’s afraid I’ll die before I complete the thousand cuts,” cursed Liu Yun.

He wasn’t really such a hot-tempered person. All he wanted to do was to vent his pain through his cursing.

After 23 slices, the unyielding Liu Yun finally couldn’t hold it in any longer. He shouted, “I give up on continuing the torture.”

With a clang, the metal cuff released and Liu Yun’s body fell. However, when he landed, he returned to the stone slab he was on before the punishment.

Indeed, the number on his stone slab increased by 23.

“See, isn’t it simple? I got it to increase by 23 in no time at all. Try a few more torture chambers, and it won’t be a problem for us to reach the Netherworld Divine Throne,” Liu Yun said with a pale face.

Ignoring Zhou Wen, even Chu He could tell that Liu Yun was merely comforting himself.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 645 - Scream Loudly If You Are In Pain

Chapter 645: Scream Loudly If You Are In Pain

“If we have to continue being tortured like this, I’m afraid we will be dead long before we can finish all the punishments.” Zhou Wen looked at Chu He and asked, “Professor Chu, other than being punished, is there any other way to obtain steps? Previously, when we came, we encountered some dimensional creatures. Would they leave anything special after they die?”

Chu He shook his head firmly and said, “There’s no other way. Only by being tortured in the torture chamber can one obtain more steps.”

Zhou Wen turned his head and looked at the long street. Apart from them, the others had entered the torture chambers to be punished.

It was a pity that he couldn’t hear anything beyond ten steps. Otherwise, he would definitely be able to hear the undulating screams.

“Junior Brother, do you want to give punishment by a thousand cuts a try as well? Perhaps you can last longer than me?” Liu Yun encouraged him. He wanted to see how long Zhou Wen could last under such torture.

“I think I’ll forget about it.” Zhou Wen shook his head and looked around. He planned on attempting a less severe punishment.

Although they could enter the torture chamber directly without needing to walk over, they needed to be within ten steps of one. If the torture chamber was too far from them, they wouldn’t be able to undergo the punishment.

Now, there was only one torture chamber to their left and right that were within ten steps away On the left was the punishment by a thousand cuts which Liu Yun had attempted.

On the right was punishment by whipping. On it stated a step per lash.

It was similar to punishment by a thousand cuts. One was hoisted up for the punishment. However, it wasn’t the slicing of flesh but lashing with a whip.

Liu Yun was also looking at the whip. Seeing that it was a vine whip, he said, “Then let me try the punishment. My body is quite tough. I should be able to withstand it a few more times.”

With that said, Liu Yun shouted at the whipping torture chamber, “I want to undertake punishment by whipping.”

Just like the last time, Liu Yun’s body vanished. He was hung in the whipping torture chamber. Then, a white ghost-like figure appeared and picked up the vine whip.

The vine whip was lashed out by the white figure. Sharp spikes appeared on the originally smooth whip, making it appear like a thorny vine.

Pa! With a crisp sound, a bloody whip mark appeared on Liu Yun’s body.

After a few whips, Liu Yun's body was reduced to a bloody mess. It was even more terrifying than punishment by a thousand cuts.

This time, Liu Yun only held on for about ten whips before giving up. After being released, he looked a little shriveled.

"F*ck, this isn't giving us a way out. How can humans withstand such punishment? Death by punishment, death also by not undergoing punishment. Why should we be punished!?" Liu Yun cursed.

"I'll give it a try too." Zhou Wen thought for a moment and shouted at the whipping torture chamber, "I want to undertake punishment by whipping."

The moment he finished his sentence, Zhou Wen felt his vision blur. His body seemed to be teleported by some force. By the time he reacted, he was already hung up in the whipping chamber.

A white ghost appeared in front of him. It had already gripped the vine whip.

"Junior Brother, scream loudly if you are in pain. Don't endure it. The more you endure, the more painful it will be. It will be much better if you shout out loud. The louder you shout, the better," Liu Yun said gloatingly.

He was actually just trying to find pleasure amidst the suffering, hoping to reduce his stress. He didn't really want to hear Zhou Wen scream.

"Alright," Zhou Wen replied as he switched his Essence Energy Art to Dao Body and Gods Retreat before closing his eyes.

However, the Gods Retreat Life Providence didn’t affect the white ghost. Clearly, the punishment in the torture chamber wasn’t a taboo power.

Seeing that Gods Retreat was useless, Zhou Wen hurriedly switched to Small Perfection of Wisdom. At the same time, he activated the Hell King Life Soul. Under the effects of the Hell King Life Soul, Zhou Wen’s control over his body was extremely strong. Not only did his physique strengthen, but he could also eliminate the pain.

No matter how serious his injuries were, Zhou Wen wouldn’t feel any pain. It was as though his pain nerves had been removed.

Zhou Wen didn’t plan on constantly being punished. All he wanted to do was try out the force of the whipping punishment.

However, just as Zhou Wen used the Hell King Life Soul, the white specter that had already lashed out suddenly retracted its whip without striking.

“Junior Brother, what’s going on? Don’t tell me you can’t even withstand a whip and are giving up?” Liu Yun said when he saw the scene before him, imagining that Zhou Wen had given up.

However, what happened next left Liu Yun’s mouth agape.

The white ghost with the whip actually plopped to the ground and kowtowed. It lay prone, trembling.

Crack!

The shackles that bound Zhou Wen’s hands automatically opened, allowing him to land.

However, Zhou Wen hadn’t given up on being tortured, so he didn’t return to the long street. Instead, he landed in the whipping chamber.

His feet landed on the ground, but there were no numbers on the floor. Perhaps it was because the steps didn’t count in the torture chambers.

“Junior Brother… What’s going on…” Liu Yun stared at Zhou Wen with his mouth agape as he looked at the trembling white ghost in front of Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen never expected his Hell King Life Soul to have such an effect.

Looking at the white ghost sprawled on the ground, Zhou Wen pondered for a moment before saying to it, “Stand up.”

The white ghost was very obedient. It obediently stood up, but its body was still trembling. It looked extremely frightened.

“Don’t be afraid. Come, whip me,” Zhou Wen said gently to the white ghost.

The white ghost trembled again as it collapsed to the ground and kowtowed to Zhou Wen.

“Stand up. I order you to whip me,” Zhou Wen said coldly to the white ghost.

The white ghost crawled up trembling as it held the whip in its hand, but it didn’t dare to whip Zhou Wen.

“It’s fine. I’m giving you permission to whip me, but you have to whip me gently. Just gently touch me,” Zhou Wen instructed the white ghost.

The white ghost held the whip, but it didn’t dare attack. Zhou Wen glared at it before it finally flung the whip and struck Zhou Wen’s body.

The whip whistled through the air, but it only touched Zhou Wen’s clothes and immediately retracted. Zhou Wen felt his skin being touched by his clothes. There was no pain at all.

The white ghost was terrified. It sprawled on the ground and kowtowed again.

“You did well. That’s right. Do it again. Lash me a few more times,” Zhou Wen encouraged.

Only then did the white ghost stand up shakily and lashed at Zhou Wen’s body again. Just like before, it retracted once the whip touched his clothes.

Zhou Wen found a spot to sit down. As he took out his phone, he got the white ghost to torture him.

“This spot… A little heavier here… My shoulders are a little sore… Strike this side… Use more strength…” Zhou Wen kept directing the white ghost to attack the various parts of his body.

“Seriously?” Liu Yun and Chu He were dumbfounded.

The originally terrifying atmosphere was now gone. The white ghost held the vine whip and served Zhou Wen like it was a masseur at a massage parlor.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 646 - Dead Man

Chapter 646: Dead Man

Only when the torture chambers along the entire street closed was Zhou Wen forcefully teleported out, returning him to the stone slab he was on.

Zhou Wen, Liu Yun, and Chu He looked at the stone slab beneath Zhou Wen's feet and saw that the number on the stone slab had changed to 1369. In other words, Zhou Wen had obtained more than a thousand steps during the torture chamber's opening. This was the same number Zhou Wen had secretly taken note of.

So this can really increase the number of steps. Zhou Wen felt a lot more relaxed. With the Hell King's strength, the problem with insufficient steps was resolved.

However, he couldn't completely relax. Although the Hell King's strength could intimidate the torture chamber, it was unable to withstand the rules of Netherworld City.

Zhou Wen took a step while maintaining the Hell King Life Soul's state. The subsequent steps would still decrease, indicating that the rules of Netherworld City were still effective on him.

Now, he had only resolved the problem of the number of steps. He had yet to resolve the three ironclad rules of Netherworld City. He had to think of a way to leave as soon as possible.

“You… How did you do it?” Chu He looked at Zhou Wen in surprise. He had never seen someone undergo such torture like Zhou Wen.

Liu Yun also wanted to know how Zhou Wen had done it. This fellow constantly surprised him.

He originally thought that he was doing pretty well. Although he wasn’t a member of the six families, he had the resources and skills that young geniuses of the six families didn’t have.

However, he never expected Zhou Wen to be even more equipped than him. He had all sorts of abilities, as though he could resolve anything he encountered.

“Perhaps my Essence Energy Art is effective against the white ghosts in the torture chamber,” Zhou Wen said half-truthfully.

“Junior Brother, tell me you won’t leave your adorable and kind eldest senior brother behind, right?” Liu Yun was somewhat worried that Zhou Wen would leave after he had enough steps.

“How can that be? I’m still hoping that you will take me to the Endless Sea of Stars,” Zhou Wen said.

“Junior Brother, you’re right. After we leave, I’ll definitely take you to the Endless Sea of Stars and help you obtain Star Stealer.” Liu Yun paused before saying, “You can walk freely, but I don’t have enough steps. What should I do?”

“When the torture chamber opens again next time, you and I will choose the same punishment room. When the time comes, I’ll get the white ghosts to take care of you. There you will naturally be given the needed steps,” Zhou Wen said.

“Teacher really has good taste. Junior Brother, you’re really an amazing genius. I think that no one can be as glorious as you even if the six heroes were revived…” Liu Yun said obsequiously.

Zhou Wen didn’t believe a word he said. Although he was someone who seemed truthful, no one knew which sentences were true.

If he hadn’t wanted to go to the Endless Sea of Stars, Zhou Wen really didn’t wish to be with Liu Yun.

Although he was also Fang Mingyuan’s student, perhaps because Liu Yun had entered society a few years earlier than them, he felt that he wasn’t trustworthy like Jiang Yan, Zhong Ziya, and Hui Haifeng.

Of course, it was also possible that this was because Zhou Wen had never interacted with Liu Yun.

The three of them waited for another hour. After the bell rang again, the torture chambers opened again. Zhou Wen chose to enter the torture chamber. Liu Yun and Chu He also chose punishment by whipping.

The three of them hung side by side in the whipping chamber. Immediately, three white ghosts appeared. Each of them had a vine whip and was about to whip them.

The moment Zhou Wen’s Hell King Life Soul appeared, the three white ghosts immediately knelt down and trembled as though Zhou Wen was about to eat them.

Hence, the three of them sat side by side in the whipping chamber to be punished. This was the first time Liu Yun experienced the feeling of being raised on a pedestal. He grunted comfortably and said, “Junior Brother, if I had known that you had this ability, I wouldn’t have suffered the pain of punishment by a thousand cuts so much.”

“I only realized it after entering the torture chamber,” Zhou Wen said casually.

After the torture chamber closed, Zhou Wen had close to three thousand steps. Chu He and Liu Yun had more than a thousand steps.

“As long as we do it again, we should have enough steps to reach the Netherworld Divine Throne,” Liu Yun said happily.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to say something, he saw someone explode on the long street. Blood splattered everywhere and was quickly absorbed by the ground.

“That person’s step count was used up. He couldn’t withstand the punishment and ended his life.” Chu He sighed.

Zhou Wen realized that there were fewer people on the long street. Now, there were only twenty-four people left. The few who had vanished probably died in the torture chambers.

The three of them continued waiting. As for Zhou Wen, he used the taboo power of Netherworld City to constantly train his jade infant.

The jade infant looked cold like a jade statue, but it later turned crystalline. However, with the baptism of the taboo power, the jade infant gradually softened. It was like a transparent jelly as if its body had turned soft.

Is it about to break through? Zhou Wen had a vague feeling that the jade infant was really about to break through. He was only half a step away.

Another hour passed. The three of them were once again tortured. By the time they came out, Zhou Wen's steps had exceeded four thousand. The other two were almost nearing three thousand.

"This should be enough. Let's go." Liu Yun was in high spirits as he led the way.

Chu He naturally followed them. Zhou Wen wanted to bring Chu He out of this place before investigating if he was the real Chu He.

Soon, Zhou Wen discovered some problems. Chu He's combat standards were very poor. He hadn't advanced to the Epic stage and was only at the Legendary stage.

When he encountered dimensional creatures on the way, it was Zhou Wen and Liu Yun who helped him block them.

"Professor Chu, you don't seem to be good at combat. How did you walk so far before we came?" Zhou Wen asked Chu He in puzzlement.

Chu He thought for a moment and said, "Before you came, I didn't step on a stone slab that generated any cause of death."

"Then, Professor Chu, your luck is really good." Although Zhou Wen was somewhat suspicious, he couldn't think of any other possibility other than this explanation.

Soon, Zhou Wen and company caught up to the people in front of them. However, all of them seemed numb. Zhou Wen and Liu Yun wanted to communicate with them, but all they did was grunt. It was as though they had fallen deep into despair.

“Forget it. There’s no way to communicate like this. Let’s go,” said Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen nodded and continued walking forward. Every time he encountered a person, Zhou Wen would attempt to communicate with them, but the further he went, the number they became. The subsequent ones ignored them like wooden statues.

These people seem to have some problems. When I first met Professor Chu He, he had similar tendencies. However, he was the closest to the city gate and had the mildest symptoms. It’s no wonder I felt that Chu He was a little odd from the beginning. I thought it was a result of not having spoken to others for a long time, but from the looks of it, that’s not the case, Zhou Wen thought to himself. However, he didn’t say anything because Chu He was beside him.

Soon, the three of them reached the end of the long street and stepped onto the stone steps. With every step they took, the consumption of their footsteps tripled. One step was equivalent to taking three steps on the stone slabs.

The 365 stone steps consumed just over a thousand steps.

Only Zhou Wen had enough steps. Chu He and Liu Yun didn’t have enough. Zhou Wen had no choice but to wait for the bell to ring again. He got them to find a torture chamber nearby and obtain enough steps before climbing the stone steps.

Clang!

After Zhou Wen struck the bell, he saw the golden divine throne slowly open. Behind it was Netherworld City's exit, allowing him to see the desert outside.

However, City Lord Netherworld stood in the middle of the Netherworld Divine Throne, blocking their path. He glanced at the trio before his gaze landed on Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen was already prepared for battle. He didn't believe that he could leave Netherworld City so easily.

"The two of you can leave. He needs to stay." City Lord Netherworld didn't take action. He only extended his index finger and pointed at Chu He.

"He can also ring the Netherworld Bell. Why can't he leave?" Zhou Wen asked with a frown.

"Because he's already a dead person," said City Lord Netherworld indifferently.

"What do you mean? He's clearly a living person. How can he be a dead person?" Liu Yun said.

Zhou Wen suddenly thought of something as he turned to look at Chu He and asked, "Professor Chu, what's the exact date of your entry to Netherworld City?"

"It should be March 8, 28. Why?" Chu He asked in surprise.

Zhou Wen's expression changed immediately. This was because it was the year the old professor and company had gone to Zhuolu. In other words, Chu He had entered Netherworld City that year, but he had always believed that he had only entered Netherworld City today. There was only one possibility.

With Chu He’s ability, it was impossible for him to survive in Netherworld City. Therefore, he had died long ago.

However, Chu He was standing in front of him, looking alive. It was hard to believe that he was a dead person.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 647 - The First Day is also the Last Day

Chapter 647: The First Day is also the Last Day

“No… I’m not a dead person… I’m still alive…” Chu He screamed in terror. His hand was still touching his body all over as though he was trying to confirm if he was really dead.

Liu Yun was abnormally bold. He reached out and pulled Chu He’s face. He said in disbelief, “He’s clearly a normal person. How can he be a dead person?”

Zhou Wen couldn’t tell in what way Chu He was a dead person. His body, heart rate, and temperature were all normal. Apart from appearing a little slow in thought, he couldn’t tell how he looked like a dead person.

However, if Chu He hadn’t died, it was difficult to explain how he entered Netherworld City so long ago only to claim that he had only entered today.

“If you aren’t afraid that his soul will dissipate and vanish forever, take him out of the city,” said City Lord Netherworld as he made way.

“Can we really leave?” Liu Yun looked at City Lord Netherworld with distrust.

In the years he had spent in society, he naturally understood the principle that human words couldn’t be trusted. Also, it was a dimensional creature who said those words.

Furthermore, it was the owner of the netherworld. It sounded like true nonsense.

“As long as he isn’t afraid of his soul dissipating, just walk out of Netherworld City,” City Lord Netherworld said indifferently.

“Professor Chu, what do you think? Do you want to go out with us?” Liu Yun asked Chu He.

“I want to go out. I’m not a dead person,” Chu He hurriedly said.

Zhou Wen looked at City Lord Netherworld and asked, “We also entered Netherworld City. Why are we not dead, but Professor Chu He is?”

City Lord Netherworld seemed to be very patient. He glanced at Zhou Wen and answered, “Didn’t the ghost gates make it clear when you entered the city? None of the three ironclad rules of Netherworld City can be violated. Since he didn’t walk out the city alive on the day he entered, he’s naturally dead.”

“I’m not dead… I’m really not dead… Don’t believe him… Take me away…” Chu He’s eyes were bloodshot and his mental state was very unstable.

It wasn’t Chu He’s fault. Anyone who suddenly heard, in such a straightforward manner, that they were dead would be as nervous as Chu He.

“Professor Chu, don’t worry. I believe you. Leave the city with us,” Liu Yun said as he patted Chu He’s shoulder.

Although Zhou Wen was suspicious, he couldn’t confirm that Chu He was really a dead person. After some hesitation, he looked at Chu He and said, “Professor Chu, you can choose whether you want to leave this place.”

“I’ll go with you. I’m really not a dead person,” Chu He said immediately.

“Alright, let’s go then.” Zhou Wen stared at City Lord Netherworld and moved his feet towards the entrance formed by the Netherworld Divine Throne.

Chu He and Liu Yun followed Zhou Wen as they walked out of the door. At the same time, they were wary of City Lord Netherworld and prepared for battle.

However, City Lord Netherworld only watched from the side without any intention of stopping them.

Outside, in the desert, the sun was high in the sky. Beyond the Netherworld Divine Throne, there was bright sunlight. However, inside the Netherworld Divine Throne, it appeared eerie and dark.

Liu Yun walked in front and stepped out first, standing under the sun in the desert.

Zhou Wen walked at the back, constantly wary of City Lord Netherworld who didn’t move at all. All he did was look at them coldly.

Chu He stood in the shadows, one step away from the desert and the sun.

However, Chu He was somewhat hesitant. Although he was certain he wasn’t dead, City Lord Netherworld had said it with such certainty. Furthermore, Zhou Wen and Liu Yun had said that he had been in Netherworld City for a long time, making him somewhat afraid.

“I’m definitely not a dead person… I’m definitely not a dead person…” Chu He gritted his teeth and extended his palm towards the sun.

Just as his fingertip touched the sunlight, a blue light suddenly appeared. The tip of his finger that had extended out actually disintegrated and disappeared in the blue light.

“Ah… How is this happening…” Chu He screamed as he retracted his palm. His face was filled with disbelief and despair.

Zhou Wen’s expression changed slightly as he extended his hand and extended it into the sunlight. There wasn’t any problem. All he felt was that the temperature outside was very high and the sunlight was a little scorching, but it was still acceptable.

“Professor Chu, try extending your hand again,” Zhou Wen said to Chu He as he stood in the shadow of the Netherworld Divine Throne, maintaining his hand in the sunlight.

Chu He hurriedly extended his hand, but when his fingertip touched the sunlight, it immediately disintegrated.

“Impossible… I can’t be a dead person… Impossible… I still have to return to see my family… My wife and daughter are waiting for me…” Chu He slumped to the ground as his voice sounded disconsolate. Tears flowed down his face.

Zhou Wen was momentarily at a loss as to what to do. He couldn’t bear to see Chu He’s present state as he looked at City Lord Netherworld and asked, “If he doesn’t leave, what will happen in the future?”

City Lord Netherworld calmly said, “He will receive punishment day after day, dying day after day. In the future, every day will be his first day. It will also be his last day until his soul reaches absolute purity.”

Zhou Wen thought of the others on the long street. Those people were in much worse condition than Chu He. From the looks of it, what City Lord Netherworld said was true.

“What happens in the future?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“Who knows? If you are interested, you can stay and give it a try,” City Lord Netherworld said with a faint smile.

Zhou Wen looked at Chu He, unsure of what to say.

“Zhou Wen, can you do me a favor?” Chu He wiped his tears and asked Zhou Wen.

“Tell me. I’ll do it if I can,” Zhou Wen said.

“Help me pay my family a visit. If possible, help me take care of my wife and daughter. When they are in trouble, help them as much as you can. I don’t have anything to repay you now. My research on the Niya civilization is all that I have. If you don’t mind, treat it as payment.” Chu He handed the documents in his backpack to Zhou Wen. Many of them were handwritten notes.

“Don’t worry. I’ll take care of them.” Zhou Wen took the documents and nodded seriously.

Even without Chu He’s request, Zhou Wen would have made a trip to Chu He’s place. He still needed to figure out the matter regarding Chu He.

“Don’t tell them that I’m here. They’ve already been saddened once. Don’t let them be sad again,” Chu He said to Zhou Wen again.

“I know what to do.” Zhou Wen nodded.

“Go. Don’t look back,” Chu He said, somewhat disheartened.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to turn around and walk out of the Netherworld Divine Throne.

“If you have the chance to come again, next time you can try to withstand all the punishments. Then, you will see the real Netherworld City.” The moment Zhou Wen walked out of the Netherworld Divine Throne, he heard the voice of City Lord Netherworld.

However, he had already walked out. When he looked back, he saw endless yellow sand behind him. There was no sign of the Netherworld Divine Throne or Netherworld City. It was as though everything that had happened was just a dream.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 648 - Hat City

Chapter 648: Hat City

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen suddenly felt something amiss in his hand. He looked down and saw the notebooks seemingly burn with invisible flames, turning to ashes.

Oh no! Zhou Wen immediately reacted. These notebooks should have long been destroyed with Chu He's death. What Chu He had given him couldn't be kept in the living world.

Before the notebook was completely reduced to ashes, Zhou Wen flipped through a few pages, but he didn't see much content before the information was reduced to ashes. The desert wind blew, leaving no traces behind.

"It's really like a dream. I never expected that I, Liu Yun, would make a trip to the netherworld and come back alive. What great luck," Liu Yun said with lingering fear.

"Don't think about that for now. Just take a look and see if you can tell where we are. Can you still find the way to the Endless Sea of Stars?" Zhou Wen perked up and sized up his surroundings.

There was yellow sand all around them. All he could see was a boundless desert with no end in sight. Zhou Wen couldn't even work out his bearings.

"No problem. Leave it to me. However, do you really want to go to the Endless Sea of Stars? We seem to be a little unlucky. I'm afraid something will happen again…" Liu Yun glanced at the Bamboo Blade on Zhou Wen's waist before throwing the Orchid Blade back to him. He didn’t want to carry this with him for even an additional moment.

“Does being unlucky mean that we should stay at home all day? What’s the point of living like that?” Zhou Wen took the Orchid Blade and said.

“That’s true. Alright, let’s continue.” Liu Yun didn’t say anything else. He looked around and summoned his Companion Beast to dig a deep hole as though he was observing the sand or something else.

Zhou Wen did not know how Liu Yun figured out his bearings. As he led the way, he observed the plants and sand in the desert before slowly adjusting his direction.

The desert was already boundless. After the dimensional storms, it had become even wider. Even Epic experts would probably be trapped to death if they got lost.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen had brought plenty of water and food. He didn’t have to be afraid of being trapped in the desert.

After repeatedly walking and stopping, on the fourth day, an oasis appeared in front of them.

“We’re here.” Liu Yun pointed at the oasis and shouted in joy.

“Is that oasis the Endless Sea of Stars?” Zhou Wen asked in surprise.

“No, that oasis is where I usually replenish my water. However, we aren’t far from the Endless Sea of Stars once we reach here. It’ll take another two days at most,” said Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. He had plenty of pure water in his chaos space, so he didn’t need an oasis to replenish it.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t tell Liu Yun about the Chaos Bead. He always retrieved water from his backpack. Liu Yun naturally didn’t know about it, so he had been economical along the way and was very thirsty. All he did was take a tiny sip of water to quench his thirst.

This oasis grew much vegetation that Zhou Wen didn’t recognize. There was a tree, but it looked like grass with thick roots. It looked very strange.

What surprised Zhou Wen was that there was actually a city in the oasis.

However, the city was very simple. The city walls were made of clay and looked like crude concrete.

“This is Hat City. Legend has it that it was built by the residents of the desert in the past. Back then, there was plenty of water here, but as the water source decreased, many residents left Hat City, causing it to gradually become abandoned. According to the elders in the desert, Hat City could accommodate tens of thousands of people during its golden years. However, due to the depletion of the water source, the area around the oasis shrank. Most of the buildings have been buried under the yellow sand. Together with the arrival of the dimensional storms, there’s no one here. Apart from some guides in the desert who occasionally come here to replenish their water, you usually wouldn’t even see a soul.”

As he spoke, Liu Yun had already led Zhou Wen into Hat City.

As Liu Yun had said, many of the buildings here were half-buried in the sand.

These buildings should have been used to extract materials from the ground. They used yellow sand to mix with something, creating materials that resembled concrete.

Not long after entering the city, Zhou Wen saw a pitch-black behemoth. On careful look, it was a black cube.

“There’s a black cube in Hat City?” Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised.

“What’s so strange about that? Many human ruins have black cubes,” Liu Yun said disapprovingly as he walked towards the well in the oasis.

The desert well was more like an underground cellar. There were stairs that allowed one to walk down, and deep inside was a pool.

However, the water in the pool wasn’t very clean. Liu Yun excitedly poured it into the water bag, but Zhou Wen stood still. He didn’t want to drink the water.

“Why aren’t you getting some water? In the desert, water is life. You can lack everything else, but you can’t lack water,” Liu Yun said to Zhou Wen.

“It’s ok, I already have some.” Zhou Wen said as he left the well. He wanted to take a spin in Hat City.

However, just as he left the well, he saw the black cube light up. On the screen were two Companion Beasts fighting.

One of them was a golden giant. The other Companion Beast was the Orochi that Zhou Wen had seen before.

The Golden Giant roared like a war god. Every punch emitted a dazzling light that resembled the sun. The Orochi’s eight heads spewed out all sorts of Essence Energy, but they failed to block the Golden Giant’s attack.

However, the lashing of its eight tails made it tie with the Golden Giant.

The fist collided with the snake’s tails, producing the sound of metal clashing. Terrifying shock waves and sparks erupted, as though they were divine weapons clashing.

The Golden Giant seemed to hold the advantage, but it was not enough to kill Orochi.

Zhou Wen watched for a while and found something strange. Orochi had eight heads and eight tails, but when it fought the Golden Giant, there was always a tail stuck to the ground. The other seven snake tails fought the Golden Giant, but that tail never came into contact with it.

Just as Zhou Wen was pondering over it, he saw the Golden Giant’s fists suddenly slam into one other. Under the collision, a golden beam of light appeared.

The Golden Giant grabbed the beam with one hand and transformed it into a gigantic blade of light. It slashed at the body of Orochi. Its might was so powerful that it was most likely the power of the Golden Giant’s Wheel of Destiny. It wanted to end the battle.

At that moment, Zhou Wen saw the snake’s tail which had never taken part in the battle move. It was like the tail of a rattlesnake as it rapidly twitched and slashed out with an unparalleled sword beam.

Clang!

The Golden Giant’s blade beam was sliced apart by the sword beam. Its body was also slashed open, leaving a long gash. It nearly tore through its chest and killed it.

Thankfully, its physique was indeed powerful, so it wasn’t halved. However, it didn’t have much combat strength left. It was summoned back by its master as a show of admitting defeat.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 649 - Behemoth Return

Chapter 649: Behemoth Return

As the Golden Giant was defeated, Orochi's eight heads rose up again and spat out eight words.

"The Federation is incompetent. The heroes are shameless."

This was not the first time the words had appeared. More accurately, it was the third time.

Apart from the time when Ice Elemental Sprite Queen was defeated, there was also a Mythical dimensional creature that challenged Orochi, only to end in defeat. After that victory, Orochi similarly spat out the words.

Now that the Golden Giant was defeated again, the entire Federation seemed to explode. Public opinion turned to question the abilities of the six hero families.

If they couldn't even deal with a single Orochi, how could they uphold the Federation's peace?

There were even some relatively biting media outlets that directly used headlines like "Are the descendants of the heroes still heroes?" to criticize the six families' inaction.

This was especially so for the West District's media. They bombarded the Family Clan of Gods and Cape family with various opinions.

As the Zhang, Xia, and Dugu families hadn't taken action to date, they weren't as miserable as the other three families even though they were constantly questioned.

After all, they hadn’t been defeated. In theory, they still had the ability to win. They were different from the Cape family and the Family Clan of Gods who had been defeated one after another.

The six families also knew that their various schemes and arrangements were made to win the final championship. Now, an Orochi had stirred up the situation, disrupting their plans.

If they revealed their trump cards, it wouldn’t be difficult to kill Orochi. However, if that happened, they would lose the chance to vie for first place with the other families. Therefore, they could only send inferior Mythical Companion Beasts to fight, but the outcome was defeat.

The Zhang, Xia, and Dugu families were even more depressed. Of all times, the core forces of their three families had gone to the Southern Wilderness’s dimensional zones. Although there were others who could fight, the Companion Beasts were still in their plans. If they were exposed ahead of time, it would trigger a series of chain reactions and disrupt their plans.

As such, the Federation’s situation became very delicate.

None of the six families were willing to expose their top Mythical Companion Beasts, but they ended up being defeated by Orochi three times in a row. It left the entire Federation’s citizens ashamed.

“From the looks of it, we can only expose some things ahead of time. Those few families are shameless, but our Xia family can’t be shameless.” Xia Dongyue was still hesitating as to which Mythical Companion Beast his family was to assign.

Not only was Orochi proficient in various attributes, but its physique was also powerful. With the indomitable sword beam, it could be said to be an extremely comprehensive Mythical Companion Beast. It wasn’t easy to defeat it cleanly and beautifully.

Why did Liuchuan have to go to the Southern Wilderness at such a time? Xia Dongyue thought gloomily. If Xia Liuchuan was here, his Companion Beast would be best at restraining a Companion Beast like Orochi. If the enemy wasn’t prepared, it wouldn’t be impossible to kill it in one strike.

Unfortunately, Xia Liuchuan wasn’t around, causing Xia Dongyue to have a headache.

The Xia family wasn’t the only one with a headache. The other five families were also having a headache. At this stage, if they didn’t defeat Orochi, the reputation of the six families would probably be damaged.

The few families had already planned on sending their top Companion Beasts to battle, but at that moment, the black cube lit up.

The media had been bombarding the six families for their inaction. They hoped that they could step forward as soon as possible. Just as they were in a frenzy, they realized that the black cube had lit up. They thought that the six families had made a move.

However, they soon discovered that the entity who appeared on the cube was Tyrant Behemoth who had previously given up.

“Eh, why is Tyrant Behemoth out again? Didn’t it not dare to accept the battle previously?”

“It should be challenging other Companion Beasts, right?”

“Giving up without a fight means it already knew it was no match for its opponent. Now that it’s back again, it’s definitely not challenging Orochi.”

“Anyone can tell that a Companion Beast like Orochi is the nemesis of Tyrant Behemoth. No matter how strong its physique and strength is, it can’t withstand the indomitable tail of Orochi.”

Everyone believed that Tyrant Behemoth wanted to challenge the other Companion Beasts and board the rankings again, but to their surprise, when the name of the challenger lit up, it was Orochi.

“What’s going on? Didn’t it give up earlier? Why is it making the challenge now?”

“What kind of show is this? Despite knowing that the Companion Beast’s characteristics are restrained, they are still forcefully challenging Orochi?”

“Could it be that our Federation really doesn’t have any stronger Companion Beasts? We can only let the restrained Tyrant Behemoth fight?”

Instantly, voices of doubt and speculation arose. People were discussing why Tyrant Behemoth wanted to challenge Orochi at this moment.

Zhou Wen didn’t think too much about it. He was also a member of the Federation, so he felt uncomfortable being insulted like this.

Of course, it was mainly because Zhou Wen had the intention to get high on the rankings. Furthermore, he could take down Orochi, who had gotten to its position by kicking Tyrant Behemoth out.

After watching the battle between Orochi and the Golden Giant, Zhou Wen now knew the strength of Orochi. It wouldn’t be difficult for Tyrant Behemoth to defeat Orochi.

It was a piece of cake. Not only could he get a high ranking, but it could also frighten everyone. It could also attack the evil ones overseas. It was killing three birds with one stone. Why not?

Therefore, Zhou Wen summoned Tyrant Behemoth and allowed it to ascend the cube to challenge Orochi.

“Are you finally coming out?” Uesugi Nao looked at Tyrant Behemoth on the cube’s screen and chose to accept the challenge without any hesitation.

She knew that Tyrant Behemoth’s owner must have studied Orochi for a long time. However, she was confident that with Orochi’s characteristics, it could definitely restrain Tyrant Behemoth. Under her command, it definitely wouldn’t lose.

The entire world’s media saw that Orochi had accepted the challenge. Instantly, all the major channels and online platforms were livestreaming the cube’s screen.

A little boy held his mother’s hand and stood in front of the big screen on the street. He asked worriedly, “Can Tyrant Behemoth win?”

“He will definitely win,” his mother consoled him gently.

“But we’ve already lost twice.” The boy was still somewhat worried.

“Don’t worry. No matter how many times we lose, there will always be heroes in the Federation who can step forward to save the world. Perhaps that hero is Tyrant Behemoth,” said his mother.

The boy didn’t say anything. He only clenched his fist and looked at the big screen nervously.

Boom! Orochi landed in the arena. Its huge body was ferocious and terrifying. The eight snakeheads raised together as its eerie snake eyes stared intently at Tyrant Behemoth.

Tyrant Behemoth maintained a height of a few meters and didn’t gigantify. Compared to the massive Orochi, it appeared somewhat weak. However, everyone knew that Tyrant Behemoth could still gigantify. Its body wouldn’t be smaller than Orochi.

To everyone’s surprise, Tyrant Behemoth didn’t transform. Instead, it leaped up and punched one of Orochi’s heads.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 650 - What Others Think of a Tyrant

Chapter 650: What Others Think of a Tyrant

Orochi didn’t underestimate its enemy. The eight snakeheads spewed out Essence Energy projectiles of different attributes at the same time. The seven tails also danced wildly as they lashed at Tyrant Behemoth.

“Roar!” A roar shook the world. A crown appeared on Tyrant Behemoth’s head. Although it didn’t expand, its entire body was bathed in bloody red light as though it had been enhanced by some magical power.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth constantly threw out its fists like a storm. The Essence Energy projectiles that Orochi spewed out were blasted apart by Tyrant Behemoth’s fists akin to exploding fireworks.

When the seven snake tails touched its fist, they emitted a terrifying metallic clang as they were sent flying. The scales on its tail shattered.

Bam!

Tyrant Behemoth rushed in front of Orochi and punched its head, sending its entire body flying.

Orochi tumbled far away before stopping. As for the snakehead which had been hit, it was mostly crushed by the terrifying augmentation of the crown.

“Impressive, it’s even stronger than the Golden Giant. As expected of Behemoth!”

“Such strength is really amazing. I’m afraid no Companion Beast can match it in terms of strength.”

The boy pulled his mother’s hand and exclaimed excitedly, “Mommy… Tyrant Behemoth is amazing… It’s really powerful…”

“That’s right. It’s really very powerful.” His mother smiled and nodded, but she was still somewhat worried.

This was because she knew very well that Orochi’s true trump card had yet to be used. And the snake tail with a terrifying sword beam was the nemesis of Strength-type Companion Beasts like Tyrant Behemoth.

Many people were equally worried. Orochi’s tail sword beam was just too powerful. Up to now, no Companion Beast had been able to withstand a strike from that tail.

Although Tyrant Behemoth displayed overwhelming strength, it was difficult to say if one could withstand the attack of the snake tail.

Uesugi Nao didn’t keep them hanging in suspense. At the instant Tyrant Behemoth charged over again, that snake tail suddenly raised. It tore through the void with a cold sword beam, slashing at Tyrant Behemoth’s body.

Everyone knew that the moment to decide victory was coming. If Tyrant Behemoth couldn’t withstand the snake tail’s slash, it would definitely lose.

Everyone wanted to know if Tyrant Behemoth, who could swallow Chimera, could swallow the terrifying sword beam.

When the boy saw the sword beam formed by the snake's tail, he nervously grabbed the corner of his mother's clothes. He had already seen the same scene once. The Golden Giant was defeated by the snake tail's sword beam despite holding the advantage. All it could do was escape with its tail in between its legs and admit defeat.

However, to everyone's surprise, Tyrant Behemoth didn't use the Mountain Consuming Skill. Instead, it continued brandishing its fist once again to meet the shocking sword beam formed by the snake's tail.

At that instant, Tyrant Behemoth's body seemed to shrink again. The strange red glow on its body also turned black-red. Tyrant Behemoth's entire body seemed to turn into a black hole. The light couldn't escape when it landed on its body.

Clang!

Tyrant Behemoth collided with the sword beam and the sword beam immediately shattered. The fist directly collided with the snake's tail.

The indestructible snake tail wasn't able to cleave apart Tyrant Behemoth's fist. It only left a sword mark.

"Heavens, ladies and gentlemen, did you see that? Orochi's killer blow wasn't able to cleave apart Tyrant Behemoth's fist! The terrifying killing technique that nearly killed the Golden Giant only left a sword mark on Tyrant Behemoth's fist. Such injuries can't affect Tyrant Behemoth's combat strength at all…" Some of the more emotional commentators shouted.

"Mommy, it blocked it! It blocked the huge snake's tail!" The boy cried out excitedly.

Before his mother could reply, Tyrant Behemoth had already grabbed the snake's tail and used all its strength to fling Orochi away.

Bam!

Orochi was slammed to the ground. Before Orochi could react, Tyrant Behemoth slammed it left and right using its tail, smashing Orochi's body to the ground like a sandbag.

In a few moves, it shattered most of its bones, as though it had turned into a pool of soft flesh. The snake heads went limp.

"It's too violent and too bloody. Orochi isn't a match for Tyrant Behemoth at all. It's constantly being ravaged."

"Oh my God, I can't believe my eyes. Is that still the terrifying Orochi? In front of Tyrant Behemoth, it's nothing."

"Yes, that's right. Kill it and let those overseas fellows know our Federation's true strength."

"It's too tragic. After this battle, I don't think those reptiles will be able to open their mouths and spit out words again. I can't tell how many heads it has left or if they have all been smashed by Tyrant Behemoth."

All the media's announcers began to cheer up. One by one, they began to tease each other. They no longer had the stern expression they had during their previous criticism. Their choice of words also began to become humorous as all sorts of coquettish comments flew around.

In comparison, there were more people in the audience. Many people who were watching online posted a large number of comments.

“Orochi is considering which head to use to call for help. Oh, I’m sorry. I forgot that it has no hands. What should it do?”

“Daddy, stop beating me. I know I’m wrong.”

“Mommy, love me again.”

“Please make way. I don’t want to just watch the bullet comments. Give me some screen estate. I want to see if Orochi is dead.”

Everything happened too quickly. Uesugi Nao never expected that the power of Orochi’s Wheel of Destiny could not even slice apart Tyrant Behemoth’s fist.

She wanted to admit defeat and retrieve Orochi, but she felt as though it was being sucked in by a terrifying force. She was unable to summon it back.

Bam!

Another heavy blow was delivered as Orochi’s body slammed into the arena. Orochi already seemed completely boneless as it collapsed to the ground.

Tyrant Behemoth roared as its body instantly expanded to the size of a small mountain. It was even taller and more majestic than Orochi. It raised Orochi’s tail and threw it into its mouth.

A strange spirit body appeared over Uesugi Nao. Her entire body emitted a demonic glow as she suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood. Her face instantly turned pale, but she finally retracted Orochi.

In the arena, Tyrant Behemoth’s fangs bit into nothing. Orochi’s body vanished, but this no longer affected the Federation’s citizens’ revelry.

“Dear viewers, thank you for witnessing this great moment with me. Tyrant Behemoth lives up to its name as a tyrant. It is deserving of its title as the king of Companion Beasts, the nightmare of all enemies. What others think of a tyrant, I think of as a king. Your Majesty, Tyrant Behemoth, thank you for bringing us such an exciting battle…”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 651 - Endless Sea of Stars

Chapter 651: Endless Sea of Stars

Translator: CKtalon

My Behemoth... My Behemoth... That's my Behemoth... Zhang Xiao's resentment increased to infinite proportions. That should have been his Companion Beast.

The entire Federation was guessing who Tyrant Behemoth's owner was. Most people guessed that Tyrant Behemoth might be from the Family Clan of Gods or the Cape family.

The people from the West District were also proud of this, indicating that they could still rely on their West District Companion Beasts at critical moments.

Upon seeing Tyrant Behemoth win, its name replacing Orochi's fourth place, the boy jumped up and cheered. He tugged his mother's hand and shouted, "Mommy, it won. It really won."

"Yes, it won." His mother smiled and nodded.

"Mommy, I also want to have a Tyrant Behemoth." The little boy looked at his mother with a look of longing.

His mother rubbed the boy's head. "Strong Companion Beasts are unique. Tyrant Behemoth is such a Companion Beast. When you grow up, you will definitely have a powerful Companion Beast like Tyrant Behemoth."

"Definitely. I can't wait to grow up. But before that, Mom, can you buy me a Tyrant Behemoth plushie?" The boy looked at his mother with anticipation.

His mother laughed. “Of course. If you can’t buy it, we’ll produce it ourselves. You can help with the design.”

“Really? That’s great. I will definitely design the perfect Tyrant Behemoth plushie.” The boy’s eyes lit up with excitement.

The major media outlets reported Tyrant Behemoth’s victory using all sorts of praises. They didn’t hesitate to use plenty of exaggerated words.

The titles of the strongest Companion Beast in the world, the ultimate violent battle pet, the strongest pet on the surface, and so on were bestowed to Tyrant Behemoth.

Although everyone knew that the Primordial Sword Immortal was still the strongest Companion Beast at present, most of the Federation acknowledged Tyrant Behemoth psychologically because it had won a special battle in a special period of time. This psychological recognition was related to its strength, but it wasn’t absolutely equal.

Therefore, even if there were three Companion Beasts like Primordial Sword Immortal and Death of the Underworld ranked ahead of it, it didn’t affect the Federation’s citizens to view Tyrant Behemoth as the Federation’s number one battle pet.

As for the six families, they increased their investigations, hoping to find the owner.

This battle made them see how terrifying Tyrant Behemoth was. It was a terrifying strength that could really vie for first place.

“Young Master Wen’s Tyrant Behemoth is really terrifying. It looks like he has the chance to vie for first place,” An Sheng said with a smile.

An Tianzuo sat there reading the documents as though he hadn’t heard An Sheng.

Zhou Wen naturally didn’t know much of the developments. He retracted Tyrant Behemoth and entered the desert under Liu Yun’s guidance.

Not long after leaving Hat City, the mysterious phone vibrated. Zhou Wen took out his phone to take a look and realized that the download of Netherworld City had been completed. The icon of Netherworld City appeared on the home screen.

Liu Yun led the turtle forward while Zhou Wen sat at the back. Without anything to do, he launched the dungeon to see what was different between the game’s Netherworld City and the real one.

The blood-colored avatar appeared at the entrance of Netherworld City. The door’s ghost faces said identical words to the ones in real life. Then, the door automatically opened.

He controlled the blood-colored avatar to enter Netherworld City and stepped on the stone slabs on the long street. He saw the number “366” appear on the stone slab. It was the same as entering Netherworld City in real life.

The only difference was that in-game, the blood-colored avatar was the only one on the long street of Netherworld City. No one else existed.

Zhou Wen attempted to activate Gods Retreat. Just like in reality, a large number of taboo powers were immediately sucked into the jade infant’s body, allowing its evolution.

Since he didn’t have to worry about death in-game, Zhou Wen decided to give it a try and see if he would really die after using up all his steps.

It didn’t disappoint Zhou Wen. After the number of steps on the stone slab dropped to zero, Gods Retreat could only keep the blood-colored avatar safe for a few seconds before it exploded and died. The power was completely unreasonable and there was no way to defend against it.

After entering Netherworld City again, the blood-colored avatar appeared at the beginning of the long street. Before the torture chamber opened, Zhou Wen controlled the blood-colored avatar to farm dimensional creatures.

Although the dimensional creatures here were only at the Epic stage, their skills were rather interesting. Zhou Wen planned on grinding some Companion Eggs so that he could use them for pet fusion in the future.

Or perhaps he could grind some Essence Energy Skill Crystals. If he could use them, it wouldn’t be a bad idea to learn the skills himself.

Zhou Wen’s movement technique was considered top-notch among humans, but it was still lacking in other aspects. Apart from the Demonic Astral Wheel, there was no special skill that could be used.

City Lord Netherworld said that one can see the real Netherworld City after experiencing all the punishments. What does that mean? Zhou Wen was still guessing the meaning of the sentence.

An hour later, the torture chambers opened, but Zhou Wen realized a problem.

Although the white ghosts in-game were afraid of the Hell King Life Soul, they didn’t have any intelligence. It was impossible for them to help Zhou Wen cheat like in reality.

After all, a game is just a game. It has its limitations. It’s too rigid. Zhou Wen was somewhat helpless. There was no way to cheat. If he wanted to reach the end of Netherworld City, he could only suffer the punishment himself.

However, the blood-colored avatar shared a special relationship with him. He also felt pain when the blood-colored avatar was tortured.

After some thought, Zhou Wen gave up on his previous plan. He only treated Netherworld City as a place to grind Companion Eggs and Essence Energy Skills.

Thankfully, no accidents happened this time. Two days later, Zhou Wen finally saw the Endless Sea of Stars that Liu Yun had mentioned.

“Are you sure this is the Endless Sea of Stars?” Zhou Wen looked ahead in disbelief. He couldn’t believe that this was the Endless Sea of Stars.

In front of him was a small lake. Although it looked clear, artificial lakes in parks were much bigger than it. How could such a place be called the Endless Sea of Stars?

Zhou Wen didn’t see any stars here. There wasn’t even a fish in the water. Furthermore, the lake was very shallow, so he could see the bottom at a glance. There was sand below, nothing else.

No matter how one looked at it, it didn’t look unfathomable like Liu Yun described—a place where most people died if they entered.

Liu Yun sat by the lake and took off his shoes. He extended his feet into the lake and said with a pleasant expression, “Calm down. Wait till night time and take another look. You will then know how magical the Endless Sea of Stars is.”

At night, the stars in the sky twinkled. The sky was especially clear, and the stars looked as though they would fall at any moment.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen saw a star really fall from the sky. Furthermore, it was falling towards them.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 652 - Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument

Chapter 652: Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument

A meteor descended from the sky and landed on the lake, illuminating the entire lake.

What was strange was that the seemingly blazing-fast meteor rushed into the lake without causing any ripples on the water.

Before Zhou Wen could clearly see what was happening underwater, he saw stars fall from the sky. A meteor shower ensued as the meteors headed for the tiny lake, forming a magnificent scene.

“Are those really meteors?” Zhou Wen couldn’t be sure. The starlight fell into the lake, but the surface of the lake was calm. It was like a boundless starry sky that could envelop everything.

“Aren’t you going to make a wish? Isn’t it said that if you can tie a knot in the corner of your clothes before the meteor disappears, the wish you make will come true? Junior Brother, you can give it a try,” said Liu Yun.

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, “In our hometown, there’s no such thing as making wishes under a shooting star. Furthermore, there are taboos that shooting stars are jinxes. It’s inauspicious to see them. It might be unlucky.”

“Pui, pui, pui. Can’t you say something auspicious?” Liu Yun said gloomily.

Zhou Wen shrugged and didn’t say another word as he looked at the lake.

The starlight that resembled a river of stars cascaded down and fell into the lake, forming points of light in the lake. It was as though countless stars were inside the lake. It was really like a sea of stars.

As Zhou Wen focused on the points of light, he was surprised to discover that they were tiny orbs that resembled planets—miniature planets. The entire lake was like a starry universe with countless celestial bodies.

What was even stranger was that the planet-like orbs were still revolving according to a certain pattern.

It’s no wonder this place is called the Endless Sea of Stars! Looking at the starlight that kept falling into the lake, Zhou Wen finally knew the reason behind this tiny lake’s name.

Liu Yun said with a smile, “Don’t underestimate such a lake. There are countless stars inside. If you enter the lake now, you will be sucked into the sea of stars. It’s very likely that you will forever be lost in it and never come out again.”

Zhou Wen looked around, but he didn’t see the tiny palm symbol. Therefore, he asked Liu Yun, “How are you going to enter the Endless Sea of Stars? Where is the Astral Combat Beast?”

“The Astral Combat Beasts are on those orbs. They look small, but once we enter the lake, we will discover that they are planets. There are all sorts of terrifying Astral Beasts on them, ranging from the Mortal stage to the Mythical stage. The Astral Combat Beast is one of the Mythical Astral Beasts.”

After a pause, Liu Yun continued, “After the meteor shower stops, we can go down. However, you have to follow me. Don’t fall, otherwise, you will be lost in the sea of stars and enter some strange planets. It will be difficult for you to come out again.”

“I’ll just look around outside for now then.” Zhou Wen slowly walked around the lake, hoping to see if there was a tiny palm symbol.

As the lake was very small, he circled it in half an hour, but he didn’t find the tiny palm symbol. Now that the sea of stars had appeared, he might discover something.

The interior of the lake was like a starry universe, but it was still the same size outside. It felt rather enthralling.

Zhou Wen circled the lake and carefully looked at every inch of land, but he still couldn’t find the tiny palm symbol.

Just as he was feeling disappointed, his gaze suddenly swept across a stone monument at the bottom of the lake. It was lying flat with many star patterns on it, like a star chart.

Zhou Wen pointed at the stone monument at the bottom of the lake and asked Liu Yun, “What’s that?”

“That is the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument. As long as you can figure out the profundity of the star chart on it, you will be able to comprehend the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art. This is also the key to me comprehending Star Stealer,” said Liu Yun.

Liu Yun knew that it wasn’t that easy to comprehend the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument. Not only did he need extremely high perceptivity, but he also needed a special physique.

Zhou Wen didn’t have a special physique that matched the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art, even if he did, he was already at the Epic stage. He probably couldn’t change his Essence Energy Art and try again.

Zhou Wen wasn’t too interested in Essence Energy Arts. He couldn’t finish cultivating too many Essence Energy Arts. Simulating them wasn’t difficult, but it was very difficult to level them up.

However, since the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art was necessary for Star Stealer, Zhou Wen planned on giving it a try to use the Lost Immortal Sutra to simulate it.

After circulating the Lost Immortal Sutra, Zhou Wen carefully sized up the stone monument. The star chart on the stone monument kept changing, making it difficult to figure out what it meant.

Furthermore, there were no words on it. It was perplexing.

Liu Yun actually managed to figure out an Essence Energy Art from such a star chart. He’s really a genius. When Zhou Wen carefully sized up the star chart, he had an unexpected discovery.

On the corner of the stone monument, there was a tiny palm symbol. The stars on the stone monument were shimmering but the palm symbol was engraved in a corner, covered in moss. With the lake water separating them, Zhou Wen wouldn’t have been able to see it if it wasn’t for the starlight’s illumination.

“Eldest Senior Brother, can we see the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument during the day?” Zhou Wen asked Liu Yun.

“The stone monument is naturally still there during the day, but you can’t see the starlight flowing on it during the day. It’s just a blank stone monument. It’s useless even if you see it.” Seeing that the meteor shower had ended, Liu Yun said to Zhou Wen, “Alright, let’s head down now.”

“I’ve thought about it. The Endless Sea of Stars is so dangerous. My luck has been very bad recently. I’ve seen an ominous phenomenon, so I think I won’t head in. If you go down, help me see if you can obtain the Astral Combat Beast’s Essence Energy Skill Crystal,” Zhou Wen said.

“Junior Brother, that wasn’t what you said before? Didn’t you say that people shouldn’t hide at home just because of bad luck… Why are you suddenly superstitious?” Liu Yun looked at Zhou Wen with a puzzled expression.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, I didn’t have the tiny palm symbol previously, so I naturally had to take the risk. Now that I’ve found the tiny palm symbol, I can return home to comfortably grind dungeons after downloading the game. Why would I take the risk?

Of course, Zhou Wen couldn’t tell Liu Yun that. Therefore, he said, “Actually, I just wanted to take a look at this Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument. Since I can see it from here, there’s no need for me to enter. If you want to head in, go ahead. If you don’t wish to enter, just stay around to look at the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument with me.”

Liu Yun cursed inwardly. I don’t know how many thousand times I’ve stared at this crappy monument, so why would I continue looking at it? You don’t have my Heavenly Star Veins Body, so what will you be able to figure out? Even if you were to look at it for ten thousand years, you wouldn’t be able to comprehend the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art.

The reason Liu Yun was able to comprehend the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art back then was that the star chart on the stone monument had triggered his Heavenly Star Veins. Only by allowing the Heavenly Star Veins sense the trajectories of the stars could one gain insight.

Without the Heavenly Star Veins, just looking at the star chart was useless.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 653 - Planet Devourer

Chapter 653: Planet Devourer

Translator: CKtalon

“Alright then. Take your time. However, don’t go down to the lake alone. It wasn’t easy for me to make the trip here. I’ll go down and hunt some Astral Beasts. If I’m lucky, I’ll be able to have an Essence Energy Skill Crystal drop from killing Astral Combat Beasts. I’ll exchange it for my autograph.” Liu Yun walked into the lake.

“Eldest Senior Brother, be careful,” Zhou Wen said.

“I wouldn’t be so unlucky without you by my side,” Liu Yun said as he went into the water.

Zhou Wen watched as Liu Yun entered the lake. The lake appeared shallow, but when Liu Yun stepped into the water, his body kept sinking as though the bottom was nowhere in sight.

Furthermore, his body shrank as he descended. Finally, he floated towards the orbs like a speck of dust, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

What a magical dimensional zone. When it’s daytime, I’ll go down to the lake to take a picture of the tiny palm symbol. After downloading the Endless Star Sea dungeon, I’ll be able to farm it as I wish. Zhou Wen sat down by the lake and carefully observed the star chart on the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument.

After looking at it for a while, the Lost Immortal Sutra showed its effects. The circulation of Essence Energy became slower and slower before completely stopping.

After that, his Essence Energy suddenly surged and circulated in Zhou Wen’s body in a new way.

The Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art was different from the Essence Energy Arts Zhou Wen had cultivated in the past. It was a very magical feeling. It felt as though the Essence Energy in his body had transformed into countless stars that circulated in his body. Furthermore, when it circulated, it wasn’t a linear movement. Instead, it was like a true celestial body’s trajectory that formed a galaxy.

It didn’t take long for Zhou Wen to gain a basic mastery of the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art. However, it wasn’t that simple to level it up.

Zhou Wen wasn’t in a rush to cultivate. It was useless to be anxious. This wasn’t something that could be mastered in a day or two.

He found a rock by the lake and sat down. He took out his phone and started to grind. He would head down to the lake to take a picture of the tiny palm symbol during the day.

There was still plenty of time until daybreak after Zhou Wen cleared one dungeon. Liu Yun hadn’t returned.

He stood up and stretched his body. He looked at the Endless Sea of Stars and realized that there was something strange in it.

During the day, Zhou Wen had observed it very carefully. The lake was somewhat odd. There were no creatures inside. There were no worms or water plants, much less fish or shrimp. The entire lake was as clean as pure water.

But now, Zhou Wen saw a creature that resembled a jellyfish in the lake. Its body was transparent like crystal, and it emitted light like a light bulb.

The jellyfish-like creature rose and fell in the lake. When it passed the tiny planet-like orbs, it would actually swallow them into its body.

Although the jellyfish wasn’t big and was only one size bigger than an adult’s clenched fist, if the celestial bodies were considered planets, then the size of the jellyfish was somewhat terrifying.

This thing can actually devour planets? Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss. This was because he realized that the jellyfish was very close to the region where Liu Yun was.

If the orb where Liu Yun is gets swallowed by the jellyfish, would Liu Yun die? Zhou Wen looked at the jellyfish moving in the water. Although it was very slow, it was moving closer and closer to Liu Yun.

Could Eldest Senior Brother end up dying just like that? Zhou Wen was somewhat worried, but there was nothing he could do.

There are just too many orbs in the lake; it’s like a sea of stars. I only know the general direction Liu Yun took, but I don’t know which orb he’s on. It’s too late even if I head in now.

After some thought, Zhou Wen summoned the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed out a sword beam at the jellyfish in the lake.

However, the moment the sword beam entered the lake, it became smaller and smaller. In the end, it was as tiny as a needle tip. It vanished when it was still a distance away from the jellyfish.

Furthermore, the sword beam had become so tiny. Even if it struck the jellyfish, it wouldn’t be of much use.

Eldest Senior Brother, Eldest Senior Brother… It’s not that I don’t want to save you, but I really can’t. Zhou Wen slashed a few more times, but to no avail. All he could do was watch helplessly as the jellyfish approached the area where Liu Yun was.

It’s over! The jellyfish soon arrived at the area where Liu Yun was and swallowed the nearby orbs.

When the orbs entered its body, they were like glowing jelly beans that spun around its body before slowly melting until they vanished.

“Eldest Senior Brother, Eldest Senior Brother, I didn’t expect you to die like this. You didn’t even leave any clothes behind. I can’t even make a cenotaph for you…”

Just as Zhou Wen was sighing, he suddenly heard a whoosh. Liu Yun emerged from the lake, looking extremely disheveled. His clothes looked as though they were made of paper, turning into paste when touching the water.

“Junior Brother, are you messing with me again? Are you trying to burn bridges and make me die down there?” Liu Yun jumped onto the shore and questioned Zhou Wen angrily.

“Eldest Senior Brother, what do you mean? I saw the monster in the water devouring the orbs and wanted to save you, but all the attacks that hit the water became insignificant. I had no choice,” Zhou Wen said.

“If you weren’t behind this, why would I be so unlucky to encounter a Planet Devourer? That thing doesn’t usually appear,” Liu Yun said with widened eyes.

“Eldest Senior Brother, you’ve really misunderstood me. I’m not familiar with this area. I still need you to take me out of this desert. Even if I wanted to do something to you, I wouldn’t choose this moment. Besides, if I wanted to mess with you, I don’t need to secretly do it, right? I knew it. It’s not auspicious after seeing an ominous phenomenon,” Zhou Wen said.

Liu Yun found that what he said made sense and couldn’t help but say gloomily, “Why am I so unlucky at the moment? I clearly didn’t see the Planet Devourer before I went down. Thankfully, I have deceptive skills. Otherwise, I would have died even if I had ten lives.”

“What is that Planet Devourer? It should be a Mythical creature, right? Can it really devour a planet?” Zhou Wen was rather curious about the jellyfish-like Planet Devourer.

“I don’t know if it can devour a planet in real life, but in the Endless Sea of Stars, that fellow is an overlord. No matter what kind of Astral Beast it is, it can devour them in one mouthful. Even the celestial bodies inside the Endless Sea of Stars are no exception. However, the celestial bodies in the Endless Sea of Stars are much smaller than real planets. I reckon that the Planet Devourer can only devour mountains outside the Endless Sea of Stars,” said Liu Yun.

“Do you think my Tyrant Behemoth can kill it?” Zhou Wen pondered.

“Probably not. Tyrant Behemoth isn’t good at aquatic warfare, right?” Liu Yun looked at the Planet Devourer in the lake and said.

“I really don’t know.” Zhou Wen planned on letting Tyrant Behemoth try after he downloaded the dungeon.

As there was a Planet Devourer, Liu Yun didn’t dare enter the Endless Sea of Stars again. All he could do was stay by the lakeside with Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 654 - Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art

Chapter 654: Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art

Translator: CKtalon

“Junior Brother, you’ve been staring at it for so long. Have you figured out anything?” Liu Yun sat beside him and asked in boredom.

“A little,” Zhou Wen said.

“How much is a little bit?” Liu Yun continued asking.

There was no way he could figure it out without having a physique that was compatible with the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument. Therefore, Liu Yun didn’t believe Zhou Wen’s words.

This had nothing to do with whether he was a genius or not. It didn’t even have much to do with his perceptivity. Without the Heavenly Star Veins, it was impossible to figure it out. This was the foundation, just like how one couldn’t build a skyscraper without a foundation. Zhou Wen had no chance of figuring out the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting.

“Just a little,” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

Liu Yun curled his lips and didn’t ask any more. Zhou Wen kept staring at the Endless Sea of Stars, hoping to see what else there was in the sea of stars other than the Planet Devourer.

Unfortunately, apart from the Planet Devourer, there were no other dimensional creatures.

“Besides this Planet Devourer, is there no other dimensional creature in the Endless Sea of Stars?” Zhou Wen asked.

“There are Astral Beasts on those small planets, but they are only active on the planets and are unable to leave them. Outside the small planets, there’s only one Planet Devourer. It’s the king here. It pops a planet with each bite, devouring even the dimensional creatures on it. It’s an invincible existence. I am good at deception, so I managed to escape. If it were another person—even if the six heroes were revived—they wouldn’t be able to escape its devouring,” Liu Yun said smugly.

Zhou Wen watched for a while and felt bored. He took out his phone and gamed, grinding Mythical creatures and rare dimensional creatures.

“If you are done watching, let’s go back. Although we won’t encounter danger if we do not enter the Endless Sea of Stars, who knows when something might happen in a place like a desert. The two of us have been unlucky recently. It’s best we return soon,” said Liu Yun.

“I want to go underwater to take a look at the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument during the day. Perhaps I might discover something,” Zhou Wen said half-truthfully.

Liu Yun curled his lips and said, “Junior Brother, don’t blame me for being blunt. If you can’t figure it out at night, what would you figure out in the day? There will not be any starlight chart in the day, it’ll be a bare and dilapidated monolith.”

“I came all the way here. I’m not willing to give up if I don’t take a look,” Zhou Wen said, unmoved.

“Alright, let’s wait until you are done looking at it in the morning. I’ll sleep for a while. Wake me up later.” Liu Yun lay down and fell asleep. He was asleep in less than three seconds.

His sleeping posture was very strange. Zhou Wen felt that he was like a cat that could bounce up from the ground at any moment.

After taking a closer look, he realized that Liu Yun’s sleeping posture was extraordinary. No matter which direction he was attacked from, his posture allowed him to easily react to it.

To be able to develop such a sleeping posture, Liu Yun must have experienced many things in the past. How could a normal person be so wary when sleeping?

Zhou Wen’s senses were very sharp, but he wouldn’t maintain a combat-ready sleeping posture while sleeping because he didn’t have such a realization.

Of course, with Truth Listener around, it was impossible for ordinary people to get close to him without being discovered.

Although he had obtained quite a number of Companion Eggs after gaming the entire night, Zhou Wen didn’t get any he wanted. Medusa, Qiongqi, Torch Dragon, and company hadn’t dropped Companion Eggs.

That shouldn’t be the case. Every time I kill them, I bring the baby tiger with me. After killing them so many times, logically speaking, there should be one dropping? Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed.

The night quickly passed. In the morning, the starlight in the lake surged into the sky like a stream and vanished into the void. The lake returned to normal.

It looked like an ordinary lake. It was unimaginable that it would turn into a starry sky at night.

Liu Yun didn’t lie to him. The Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument was still in the lake. Zhou Wen woke Liu Yun up and asked if there was anything to take note of when entering the lake.

“There’s nothing. As long as you aren’t going into the lake at night, this lake isn’t much different from ordinary lakes.” Liu Yun shook his head.

Zhou Wen tried going into the water. Indeed, it wasn’t as miraculous as last night. He stepped into the lake, and the water only reached his waist.

Zhou Wen had learned the Nine Dragons Art from the black dragon. He dived into the water and quickly arrived at the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Monument.

Just as Liu Yun had said, in the day, this was a worn stone monument that was covered in moss. There were only scratches on it, and there was no starlight pattern. If it wasn’t for the tiny palm symbol engraved on it, it wouldn’t be eye-catching at all.

At a close distance, the mysterious phone vibrated. Zhou Wen picked up his phone and snapped a picture of the stone monument. The phone immediately entered the download interface.

After putting away his phone, Zhou Wen touched the stone monument again. It felt cold like it was made of metal.

Not daring to do anything excessive, he turned around and swam back to the shore.

“How is it, Junior Brother? Did you figure out anything?” Liu Yun asked Zhou Wen with a smile.

“A little,” Zhou Wen said with a nod.

“You figured out a little yesterday, and you figured out a little today. Added together, it will be impressive. You should have gained basic mastery, right?” Liu Yun teased Zhou Wen.

“Yes, I’ve gotten basic mastery,” Zhou Wen answered.

Liu Yun, who was drinking water, nearly choked. He looked at Zhou Wen in disbelief and asked, “Are you for real? You really gained basic mastery?”

“It’s just basic mastery. What’s so difficult about it? Haven’t you long obtained basic mastery?” Zhou Wen said casually.

Liu Yun refused to believe him. He reached out and grabbed a handful of sand from the ground. With a squeeze, the sand condensed into a ball that looked like a huge grain of sand.

Liu Yun’s hand relaxed again. The huge sand scattered and turned into yellow sand.

“If you really gained basic mastery, you should be able to do this, right?” Liu Yun said to Zhou Wen.

“I’ll give it a try.” Zhou Wen also grabbed a handful of sand from the ground. He circulated the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art and pinched the sand. The sand stuck together like magnets, turning into a ball. However, it wasn’t as round as Liu Yun’s.

“Holy sh*t… You’ve really gained basic mastery of the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art?” Liu Yun widened his eyes as he looked at Zhou Wen as though he had seen a ghost.

“Why would I lie to you?” Zhou Wen released his hand and the sand scattered.

“Alright, I’ve already achieved my goal. Let’s head back. After we leave the desert, I’ll return the autograph to you,” Zhou Wen said.

“Junior Brother, you’re really a genius in cultivation, but how did you do it? According to what I know, cultivating the Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting Art requires a special physique. You don’t look like you have a special physique.” Liu Yun was puzzled. He had the Heavenly Star Veins himself, so he naturally knew what characteristics one needed to have. Zhou Wen didn’t have those characteristics.

“Do I need a special physique? I don’t know about that. I just casually practiced it and attained basic mastery. I didn’t find it difficult,” Zhou Wen said.

Liu Yun felt something stuck in his throat and couldn’t say another word.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 655 - Heart Lunar Fox

Chapter 655: Heart Lunar Fox

Translator: CKtalon

Their journey back to the city was rather smooth. They didn’t encounter any sandstorms or Netherworld City when they walked by the areas they had previously passed.

After leaving the desert, Zhou Wen returned the autograph to Liu Yun.

“Junior Brother, I’m afraid the entire world is looking for Tyrant Behemoth’s master. Aren’t you afraid that I will leak your secret?” Liu Yun looked at Zhou Wen with a complicated expression after confirming that it was his signature.

“Although we haven’t spent much time together and I don’t know you well, I believe you aren’t the type of person to do such things.” Although Zhou Wen said that, he was thinking, It doesn’t matter if it’s really exposed. I don’t only have one trump card in my hand. Since I’ve placed it on the rankings, I’m already mentally prepared to expose myself.

“I like hearing what you said. Don’t worry. After all, you are my junior brother. As a senior brother, I won’t harm you. I will help you keep the secret,” said Liu Yun with a smile. It was unknown if he was telling the truth.

“Alright, let’s go our separate ways here. I should return as well.” Zhou Wen planned on going separate ways with Liu Yun and returning to the town as soon as possible.

The ranking battle hadn’t ended. Tyrant Behemoth was only ranked fourth, so it should still have a chance to make further challenges.

Liu Yun clearly didn’t wish to continue being with Zhou Wen. Ever since he met Zhou Wen, his luck had been terrible. He seriously suspected that it was a result of the two blades on Zhou Wen.

“Junior Brother, I don’t know when we will meet again after today. Here’s a farewell song…” Liu Yun said generously.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen nodded. He never expected Liu Yun to actually know how to sing.

“Beautiful ladies… Ladies… Ladies have walked into[1]…” Liu Yun sat on the turtle’s back and sang loudly. The turtle ran quickly and soon vanished from sight. Only his delicate voice echoed in Zhou Wen’s ears.

Zhou Wen was rendered speechless. He originally imagined what kind of song it was, but it turned out to be such a folk song.

Needless to say, Liu Yun’s singing was really charming. It made one have the urge to beat him up.

After Liu Yun’s voice could no longer be heard, Zhou Wen summoned Six-Winged and rode it back. Although it was uncomfortable, he had to make do with it.

As he traveled, Zhou Wen launched the downloaded Endless Sea of Stars dungeon.

In fact, the dungeon had long been downloaded. However, with Liu Yun around, Zhou Wen didn’t dare launch it.

After opening the Endless Sea of Stars dungeon, the blood-colored avatar appeared in a starry sky. There were planets around it, but they didn’t look as huge as real planets.

These planets were about the same size as mountains. However, on these small planets, there was no distinction between the top and bottom, left and right. On a nearby planet, a group of mutated beasts could be seen running across it. Many of them looked like they were running upside down, appearing as though they would fall off at any time.

If it was a real planet, it wouldn’t be too obvious because of a planet’s immense size.

On such a small planet, the visual impact of seeing a group of mutated beasts standing upside down was extremely strong.

Zhou Wen controlled the blood-colored avatar and flew towards the planet. At the same time, he summoned Six-Winged and other Companion Beasts before charging at the mutated beasts.

The mutated beasts looked like humanoid mantises. After seeing the blood-colored avatar, they charged forward, but they were mostly killed by Six-Winged and Torch Dragon.

‘Killed Legendary Fiend Star Mantis… Killed Legendary Fiend Star Mantis…’

The notifications kept coming in. Many dimensional crystals dropped, including a few Companion Eggs.

However, such dimensional crystals and Companion Eggs weren’t of much use to Zhou Wen.

He went to a few nearby small planets and realized that there were quite a number of Astral Beasts here, but most of them were at the Mortal and Legendary stage. Even Epic creatures were rare.

I forgot to ask Eldest Senior Brother Liu Yun which planet has the so-called Astral Combat Beast. There are thousands of planets here. I wonder how long it'll take me to go through them one by one. Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed. This was different from what he had imagined. He imagined that there were Mythical creatures everywhere in the Endless Sea of Stars.

There was no choice. It was impossible to find Liu Yun now. Zhou Wen could only slowly search each planet.

Thankfully, his Companion Beasts were very powerful. Killing a tiny planet's Astral Beasts wasn't difficult.

He didn't find the Mythical Astral Combat Beast, but he discovered a strange Astral Beast.

It was a fox with crescent-shaped starlight shimmering on its chest. After Zhou Wen killed it, according to the notification, it was said to be a Mortal-stage Heart Lunar Fox.

Even if a Mortal dimensional creature dropped something, Zhou Wen usually didn't think much of it.

The chances of a Mortal Companion Egg dropping were extremely low. It was almost the same as winning the lottery. Furthermore, it was useless for Zhou Wen to get a Mortal Companion Beast.

The Heart Lunar Fox didn't drop a Companion Egg either. All it dropped was an Essence Energy Skill Crystal, but it was also very rare to drop one at the Mortal stage.

Zhou Wen hadn’t paid attention to the Mortal stage Essence Energy Skill, but when he saw its name, he was somewhat surprised.

The Essence Energy Skill Crystal dropped by the Heart Lunar Fox wasn’t a Heart Lunar Fox Crystal, but an Azure Dragon Heart Crystal.

Heart Lunar Fox… I think I’ve heard of this name somewhere… Zhou Wen checked online and couldn’t help but be alarmed.

Few modern people knew the name of the Heart Lunar Fox, but in ancient times, it was one of the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions.

The twenty-eight Lunar Mansions were split equally amongst the Eastern Azure Dragon, the Northern Black Tortoise, the Southern Vermilion Bird, and the Western White Tiger—each having seven palaces.

The Heart Lunar Fox was one of the seven palaces of the Eastern Azure Dragon. It represented the heart.

This Heart Lunar Fox is only at the Mortal stage. Logically speaking, it shouldn’t be related to the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions. They are extremely powerful existences in myths and legends. They should at least be at the Mythical stage. Even if they aren’t at the Mythical stage, they shouldn’t be at the Mortal stage, right? However, the Essence Energy Skill Crystal dropped by the Heart Lunar Fox is actually called the Azure Dragon Heart Crystal. It doesn’t seem right if it’s unrelated.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and let the blood-colored avatar absorb the Azure Dragon Heart Crystal to see what Essence Energy Skill he would learn.

Typically, Mortal-stage Essence Energy Skill Crystals could be absorbed easily, but when Zhou Wen absorbed them, he realized that the Essence Energy Art wasn’t compatible.

A Mortal stage Essence Energy Skill actually requires an Essence Energy Art to match? This was the first time Zhou Wen had encountered something like this. He couldn’t help but feel intrigued.

After some thought, he changed his Essence Energy Art to Sky-Stealing Sun-Shifting and absorbed the Azure Dragon Heart Crystal. This time, he successfully absorbed it.

This Essence Energy Skill was somewhat odd. Typical Essence Energy Skills opened up an Essence Energy circulation path in one’s body.

However, after the Azure Dragon Heart was absorbed, it condensed into a point in his body. It was motionless like a nail.

‘Absorbed the Azure Dragon Heart Crystal. Attained Essence Energy Skill: Heart Lunar Fox.’

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 656 - Blood Oxypetalum

Chapter 656: Blood Oxypetalum

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen attempted to activate the Heart Lunar Fox skill, but there was no reaction.

If this skill really has something to do with the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions, could it be that I have to gather all the skills of the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions before I can use it? Or could it be that I can use it just by gathering the Azure Dragon's seven palaces? Zhou Wen was just guessing. Up to now, there was no way to prove the relationship between the two.

As he had nothing to lose, Zhou Wen paid special attention to the Essence Energy Skill Crystal drops when grinding.

After grinding for half the day, he didn't see any similar Mortal-stage Essence Energy Skills drop.

After respawning the dungeon, Zhou Wen went to the place where he discovered the Heart Lunar Fox, but he didn't see it again.

Having had the experience of grinding the baby tiger, Zhou Wen knew that such matters couldn't be forced. Therefore, he didn't deliberately search for it. He only paid a little attention when grinding low-level monsters, with his main focus on finding Astral Combat Beasts.

After another day, Zhou Wen surprisingly discovered that he had obtained another Azure Dragon Heart Crystal. After absorbing it, he obtained the Room Solar Rabbit Essence Energy Skill.

However, just like the Heart Lunar Fox, the Room Solar Rabbit skill was useless.

It looks like there's no mistake about the Heart Lunar Fox and the Room Solar Rabbit. It's really related to the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions, but why are the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions such low-level dimensional creatures? Zhou Wen couldn't figure out the reason, but he paid more attention when grinding.

By the time he returned to the town inside the Funiu Mountain Range, Zhou Wen had obtained some skill crystals related to the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions.

Among them, the number of Heart Lunar Foxes and Room Solar Rabbits were the highest. He had three of each, but they couldn't be taken out, so they were useless.

Furthermore, these skills had no rank. There was no discernment between the same skills in terms of levels.

Zhou Wen had also obtained the skill crystals of the Horn Wood Scaly Dragon, Root Earth Raccoon Dog, Tail Fire Tiger, and Winnowing-basket Water Leopard. These Mortal-stage dimensional creatures were also strange. There were very few of them, but as long as he found them, they would definitely drop skill crystals. Nothing else would drop.

The skill crystals that Zhou Wen had obtained were all from the Azure Dragon seven Lunar Mansions. He had already learned six skills and was only short of the Azure Dragon's Neck Gold Dragon.

After reaching the small town, Zhou Wen looked at the ranking again and realized that no one had challenged Tyrant Behemoth. It was still ranked fourth.

In front of Tyrant Behemoth, there were still three Companion Beasts—Primordial Sword Immortal, Death of the Underworld, and Fairy Immortal Gu.

Why is no one challenging Primordial Sword Immortal? There should be less than a month left in the three-month deadline, right? Zhou Wen didn't wish to be the trailblazer. He planned on returning to school first. It wouldn't be too late for him to come again after someone challenged the Primordial Sword Immortal.

When he reached the town's entrance, he suddenly heard a sound coming from outside. Using Truth Listener to investigate, he realized that a few people were heading for the town.

Eh… What are they doing here? Zhou Wen realized that Qiao Siyuan and Liz were among the people who had come.

Although they weren't wearing the Special Inspector Bureau uniform, Zhou Wen had a deep impression of them, so he recognized them at a glance.

The others looked like they were from the bureau as well. Zhou Wen didn't know why he had such a judgment, but he had a feeling that the people from the bureau seemed to have a special aura. This aura was very rare to find on ordinary people.

It was just like how soldiers could easily be identified. It was the same for the people from the bureau. However, their auras were different from ordinary soldiers.

This was originally a good opportunity to take revenge, but Zhou Wen wanted to figure out their reason for coming here. Therefore, he retreated into the forest and used Truth Listener to monitor their every move.

“Clear the area.” After entering the valley, Qiao Siyuan gave the order. Immediately, people took out various instruments and summoned their Companion Beasts. They began to busy themselves.

Zhou Wen recognized a few Companion Beasts that were probably reconnaissance types. From the looks of it, they wanted to ensure that there were no outsiders here.

With a thought, Zhou Wen sneaked into the lake and hid in the water. Then, he used the Dao Body to converge his aura and blend with the surrounding natural environment.

Qiao Siyuan and company busied themselves for a few hours, taking control of the entire valley. Only when they seemingly confirmed that there was no one else here did they transport quite a number of things from outside the town.

Zhou Wen saw Companion Beasts carrying buckets into the town. He didn’t know what was inside.

“Minister, we have finished counting the items,” Liz reported to Qiao Siyuan.

“Set up a sentry post and split into three shifts to monitor the situation outside. Everyone else, rest immediately,” Qiao Siyuan ordered.

“Yes.” Liz accepted the order and began dividing the group.

When Liz returned to Qiao Siyuan’s side, he had already sat down in a small building.

“Minister, is the Blood Oxypetalum really as magical as the legends say?” Liz poured a cup of tea for Qiao Siyuan and asked curiously.

Qiao Siyuan took a sip of tea and said indifferently, “You should have heard of how instantaneous an oxypetalum blooming is, right?”

“I’ve heard of it, but I heard that it’s just an exaggerated metaphor from the people of the East District. In fact, oxypetalum will bloom for a few hours. It’s not as exaggerated as if it only bloomed for an instant,” Liz said.

Qiao Siyuan nodded. “It’s true that a normal oxypetalum blooming isn’t as exaggerated as being instantaneous, but it’s different if it’s a Blood Oxypetalum.”

After a pause, Qiao Siyuan continued, “To get a Blood Oxypetalum to bloom, one has to pour a large amount of blood. Typical blood isn’t enough. It has to be the blood essence of dimensional creatures. The more blood the Blood Oxypetalum absorbs, the purer it becomes. The flower that blooms will also become more beautiful. Furthermore, it can give birth to a Blood Oxypetalum seed.”

When Zhou Wen heard that, he recalled the ruby he had obtained.

Previously, many white deer had been sacrificed by the mountain god. Only then did a blood flower bloom in the lake, giving birth to a ruby. It sounded like the seed that Qiao Siyuan had mentioned.

If the flower in the lake is really a Blood Oxypetalum, then why did Qiao Siyuan and company come here? Are they planning to offer a blood sacrifice to obtain the Blood Oxypetalum seed? What’s its use? As Zhou Wen was thinking, Liz had already given him an answer.

“Minister, can a Blood Oxypetalum seed really change a person’s bloodline and talent?” Liz asked.

“That’s not something I know. I’ve never used a Blood Oxypetalum seed before, so I can’t make any judgment. However, since the director-general wants to do this, he must have his reasons,” Qiao Siyuan said indifferently.

“Minister, you’re right. The Director-General has put in so much effort this time to specially prepare this blood. If it really succeeds, the seed produced by the Blood Oxypetalum will definitely be extraordinary,” Liz said enviously.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 657 - Snatching the Seed Again

Chapter 657: Snatching the Seed Again

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen originally imagined that Qiao Siyuan and company would take action soon, but to his surprise, they had only set up the place to appear air-tight. Even when a fly flew in, they had zero intention of taking action.

They are waiting for someone. Will Shen Yuchi come personally? Zhou Wen felt that it would be perfect if Shen Yuchi really came personally.

Zhou Wen didn't dare barge into the Special Inspector Bureau's headquarters, but if Shen Yuchi dared to come, Zhou Wen could try his best to see if he could retain him.

As there were many surveillance Companion Beasts and instruments placed by the lakeside, Zhou Wen hid in the water and didn't dare move. Any abnormalities might be discovered.

After enduring more than two days, he finally realized that someone had come to the town. What disappointed Zhou Wen was that the person who came wasn't Shen Yuchi, but a man he didn't know.

Qiao Siyuan and Liz addressed him as Censor Cai very respectfully. Zhou Wen immediately realized the person was Cai Jin, one of the four Censors.

Cai Jin held a metal alloy box in his hand. There was a metal alloy chain on the box that connected to Cai Jin's wrist.

The last time the Essence Crystal mine was robbed, the bureau suffered huge losses. Shen Yuchi had only punished Cai Jin lightly, making Cai Jin extremely grateful.

This time, he had been ordered to secretly come to Funiu Mountain. Cai Jin had also made sufficient preparations. No matter what, he couldn't screw up this work trip.

"Minister Qiao, how's the defense set up here?" Cai Jin asked.

"We already have a whole range of defenses in place. We didn't find any outsiders," Qiao Siyuan replied.

"Very good. Let's begin tomorrow," Cai Jin said.

Liz asked curiously, "Censor, why aren't you taking action tonight?"

"I've traveled a distance. I need to rest for the night to maintain my optimal condition. So it's better to take action tomorrow," Cai Jin explained.

However, after Cai Jin left Qiao Siyuan's temporary office, he didn't rest. Instead, he summoned numerous bee-like Companion Beasts that flew in all directions.

Clearly, Cai Jin wasn't at ease with their defense. He had to do it again.

The people from the bureau are really very cautious. Zhou Wen saw Cai Jin circling the valley. He paid special attention to the woods and lake. He even summoned a water snake-like Companion Beast to search underwater.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen was prepared. He had dug a hole in the lake ahead of time and hid inside like a loach. It wasn't easy for him to escape Cai Jin’s search.

Liz was very displeased with Cai Jin’s actions. “Censor Cai is doubting our abilities?”

However, Qiao Siyuan said indifferently, “It’s a serious matter. Better be safe than sorry.”

Cai Jin put up new defenses before returning to the temporary encampment to rest. It wasn’t until nightfall the next day that he got up and rushed to the lake with Qiao Siyuan and company.

The inspectors and various Companion Beasts had already surrounded the lake.

Zhou Wen suddenly thought of something. Their blood sacrifice would only last for a short period of time. That would mean that they would have to bring a lot of blood into the lake? Just the thought of the pool of blood made Zhou Wen feel uncomfortable.

However, there were inspectors and Companion Beasts surrounding the lake. It was too late for Zhou Wen to leave.

“Minister Qiao, let’s begin,” Cai Jin said to Qiao Siyuan after arriving by the lake and summoning his Companion Beasts to search the area again.

“Liz.” Qiao Siyuan gestured at Liz.

Liz immediately got the inspectors to take action. The inspectors opened the buckets and poured the blood into the lake from different spots.

The buckets of blood quickly dyed the lake water red. Each bucket weighed five kilograms. They brought more than three hundred buckets of blood. If so much blood were to be poured in, the surroundings would be filled with a pungent smell of blood.

Zhou Wen felt terrible hiding in the water, but he could only endure it.

Thankfully, not long after, Zhou Wen saw the blood surge towards the center of the lake as though it was attracted by something.

Splash!

The Blood Oxypetalum surfaced out of the water. It greedily absorbed the blood in the water, and the snow-white petals quickly turned into the color of blood.

The blood in the lake was completely drained in less than an hour, restoring the lake to its former clarity.

However, the petals of the Blood Oxypetalum didn’t open, but there was a red glow in the flower bud.

Only then did Cai Jin open the box in his hand. Inside the huge box was a small bottle the size of a palm.

Cai Jin picked up the bottle and carefully opened it. A pair of eagle wings unfurled behind him as he flew to the sky above the Blood Oxypetalum. He aimed the blood in the bottle at the Blood Oxypetalum and poured it down.

There was only a drop of blood in the palm-sized metal alloy bottle. The drop of crystalline blood landed on the Blood Oxypetalum and quickly seeped in. Instantly, the blood-red color of the Blood Oxypetalum completely faded. The petals turned back to snow-white and it began to bloom.

The Blood Oxypetalum had already become as pure as a snow lotus without any tinge of blood. And within its petals, a sanguine light shot up into the sky carrying with it a rich sanguine aura.

Why is this different from the Mountain God's blood sacrifice? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised when he saw this.

"Success." Cai Jin, Qiao Siyuan, and Liz were overjoyed.

Cai Jin flapped his wings and flew towards the Blood Oxypetalum. He wanted to snatch the seed produced by it.

Thorny flower vines shot out of the water and swept towards Cai Jin in the air. Cai Jin was truly capable, living up to his reputation as one of the four Censors.

His body circled around like an eagle as a sword of light flashed in his hand, severing the flower vines one by one.

What sword is that? Zhou Wen sized up the sword in Cai Jin's hand curiously.

The sword didn't have a corporeal blade—it was completely condensed from light. It looked a little like the legendary lightsaber, but a lightsaber would have a device that beamed out the laser. However, the sword was completely condensed from light without any equipment.

The flower vines had been sliced off, and Cai Jin successfully approached the petals. The Blood Oxypetalum was no longer able to resist, and Cai Jin was on the cusp of success.

Just as Cai Jin was about to remove the seed from the Blood Oxypetalum, the lake beside him suddenly exploded. A blurry figure tore out of the water and reached out into the Blood Oxypetalum ahead of him, snatching away the ruby-like seed.

Cai Jin, Qiao Siyuan, and the other’s expressions changed drastically. Cai Jin roared angrily as the blade beam in his hand transformed into a shooting star that he thrust at Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen wore the Jade Crystal Spirit Armor and held the Golden Battle God Halberd in his hand as he faced the sword of light.

Crack!

The sword of light was shattered by the Golden Battle God Halberd. The Golden Battle God Halberd’s Golden Divine Light tore through the void and stabbed Cai Jin in the chest.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 658 - Different Seeds

Chapter 658: Different Seeds

Translator: CKtalon

“Mythical weapon!” Cai Jin was alarmed as he summoned a Companion Beast to shield himself. At the same time, he quickly retreated.

Unfortunately, he was still too slow. The Golden Battle God Halberd pierced through the Companion Beast’s body and continually slammed into Cai Jin’s chest, piercing through it and impaling in the air.

“Who are you? Why are you antagonizing the Special Inspector Bureau?” Cai Jin glared at Zhou Wen as he coughed out blood.

Zhou Wen didn’t answer. With a flick of the Golden Battle God Halberd, Cai Jin’s body was instantly torn apart like a rag. He died and fell into the lake.

Liz turned pale with fright. She was dumbfounded. Cai Jin, one of the four Censors, had been killed in one strike. He didn’t even have the ability to resist, making her feel immense horror.

“Minister…” Liz turned her head and realized that Qiao Siyuan had disappeared. She had no idea when he had escaped.

Liz was instantly alarmed as she turned and ran.

The other inspectors also reacted. Seeing that Qiao Siyuan had run out of sight, they scrambled to escape.

Zhou Wen didn’t chase after the inspectors. He didn’t like killing, but this wasn’t why he didn’t chase after them.

The Special Inspector Bureau was a department. Even if he killed the inspectors, they could still recruit new inspectors. Killing them was meaningless.

Zhou Wen’s body moved and instantly appeared in front of Liz, blocking her path. The Golden Battle God Halberd pointed at her chest as the Golden Divine Light flickered, illuminating her pale face.

“I’m Liz from the Cape family. Let me go. You can receive anything you want,” Liz said in horror, not daring to move.

Zhou Wen looked at Liz and said indifferently, “Your red convertible sports car isn’t bad. It can still be driven, even after such a heavy collision.”

Liz’s pupils immediately constricted when she heard that. She looked at Zhou Wen in disbelief and shouted, “You are…”

Before she could finish her sentence, the Golden Battle God Halberd had pierced through her chest, causing blood to gush out of her mouth. She couldn’t finish her sentence.

Liz glared at Zhou Wen as though she couldn’t believe that she was about to die.

“Rest in peace. I’ll get the Cape family to accompany you soon.” Zhou Wen raised the Golden Battle God Halberd in his hand and Liz’s body was ripped apart.

Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to search his surroundings, but he didn’t find Qiao Siyuan. He did not know how he had escaped.

Knowing that he couldn’t stay here any longer, Zhou Wen ignored the ordinary inspectors and quickly left the Funiu Mountain Range.

After taking a detour out of Funiu Mountain Range, Zhou Wen secretly returned to campus.

After returning to his dorm, he realized that the chick and antelope were eyeing him covetously. Zhou Wen hurriedly took out the items he had prepared and handed them over. “I brought you something good. Take a look and see if you like it. It’s a desert specialty…”

After placating the two of them, Zhou Wen returned to his room and took out the two ruby-like Blood Oxypetalum seeds to compare them.

The two seeds looked about the same, but their sizes were different. The one he had just obtained was slightly bigger, and the color was deeper.

The color of the first one was relatively light, making it crystal clear.

Banana Fairy’s eyes lit up when she saw the two seeds. She flew to Zhou Wen’s side and looked at him pitifully.

“You want this?” Zhou Wen moved one of the seeds in his hand in front of Banana Fairy.

Banana Fairy shook her head and pointed at the Blood Oxypetalum seed in Zhou Wen’s other hand.

“Aren’t these two seeds the same?” Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. The one Banana Fairy wanted was from Mountain God’s blood sacrifice.

After handing the seed to Banana Fairy, Banana Fairy immediately hugged it happily.

After she hugged the seed, the Blood Oxypetalum seed turned into red beams of light that surged towards Banana Fairy's body. Soon, it completely enveloped Banana Fairy and formed a red cocoon.

Is this an evolution? Zhou Wen was delighted. After Banana Fairy's evolution, she would advance to the Mythical stage.

Zhou Wen had a lot of feelings for Banana Fairy who had been following him for a long time. To be able to advance to the Mythical stage, no matter how much her combat strength improved, was a good thing for Zhou Wen.

It's the same Blood Oxypetalum seed. Why does Banana Fairy only want the one that Mountain God obtained from its sacrifice and not the other? Zhou Wen looked at the remaining Blood Oxypetalum seed in his hand and couldn't guess the reason.

He summoned the other Companion Beasts that hadn't evolved to see if they were interested in the Blood Oxypetalum seed. However, Demonic Neonate and Doctor Darkness weren't interested in the Blood Oxypetalum seed either.

Doctor Darkness didn't have an Evolvable attribute, but Zhou Wen felt that Doctor Darkness was very useful. He had always wanted him to evolve, but he couldn't find a way.

Instead, it was an Explosive Fiend Man. He was very interested in the Blood Oxypetalum seed and was eager to try it out.

“It’s your lucky day.” Zhou Wen threw the remaining Blood Oxypetalum seed at the Explosive Fiend Man.

Without any hesitation, the Explosive Fiend Man swallowed the Blood Oxypetalum seed. Not long after, his body underwent a strange change. It looked like he was about to begin evolving.

Explosive Fiend Man’s level was too low. Typically, it should be able to complete its evolution very quickly, but who knew that the Explosive Fiend Man had actually transformed into a Companion Egg? It looked like it would take some time before it completed its evolution.

Is it a problem with Explosive Fiend Man, or is there something wrong with the Blood Oxypetalum seed that the bureau produced? Zhou Wen was momentarily unsure as he could only store Explosive Fiend Man and Banana Fairy into the chaos space.

…

“The Blood Oxypetalum seed was snatched away. Cai Jin died in battle, and Liz’s fate is unknown? Qiao Siyuan, you still have the audacity to return?” Shen Yuchi looked at Qiao Siyuan with a sullen expression. He was livid.

The Special Inspector Bureau’s present situation wasn’t good to begin with. He had spent immense effort to obtain the blood essence of dimensional creatures, especially that one drop of divine blood. It was impossible for him to obtain a second drop. Not only was it gone, but Cai Jin and Liz’s lives were also lost.

Cai Jin’s death was fine, but Liz was a member of the Cape family. It would be troublesome to explain this matter to them.

“Director-General, I deserve death. However, if I didn’t bring back the enemy’s information, my death would be of zero value,” Qiao Siyuan said as he played a video. It was the video of Zhou Wen snatching the Blood Oxypetalum and killing Cai Jin.

“A Mythical weapon? It looks like something from the West District,” Shen Yuchi said as he looked at the Golden Battle God Halberd in Zhou Wen’s hand.

“I’ve already investigated it. This is the Mythical creature, Golden Battle God Halberd of the Metalwork Temple in the Peninsula of Gods. The members of the Family Clan of Gods had previously killed the Golden Battle God Halberd,” Qiao Siyuan said.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 659 - Fiend Man Evolution

Chapter 659: Fiend Man Evolution

Translator: CKtalon

“Are you telling me that this person comes from the Family Clan of Gods?” Shen Yuchi frowned.

“That’s not what I meant. Based on the information we currently have, the Family Clan of Gods has the highest chance of possessing the Golden Battle God Halberd,” Qiao Siyuan said.

Shen Yuchi looked at Qiao Siyuan for a while before saying meaningfully, “Your intelligence is timely.”

Qiao Siyuan’s expression didn’t change as he said, “It’s my job. Director-General, you handed such an important mission to me, but I screwed it up. I deserve death. Please mete out your punishment.”

Shen Yuchi looked at Qiao Siyuan and said with a smile, “Then go to the Cape family and explain this matter clearly.”

“Yes, I screwed up. I will definitely explain it to Senator Cape. It has nothing to do with our Special Inspector Bureau.” After bowing, Qiao Siyuan left Shen Yuchi’s office.

After Qiao Siyuan left, a person walked out of an inner room.

It was a woman in a suit and she looked very capable. However, she was wearing a hat that was pulled very low. With large sunglasses covering half of her face, it was almost impossible to tell her looks. However, her full, fair chin and red lips left a deep impression.

“Button, what do you think of this person?” Shen Yuchi asked the woman.

The woman called Button said calmly, “Do you mean the person in the video or Minister Qiao?”

“Both.” Shen Yuchi tapped his fingers rhythmically on the table as though he was thinking about something.

“The person in the video wears an unknown type of armor. The weapon is just as Minister Qiao said; it’s the Golden Battle God Halberd. The Metalwork Temple is a reserved area of the Family Clan of Gods. Their family does have a Golden Battle God Halberd, but that doesn’t mean anything. As for Minister Qiao, he’s very smart. He gave himself a chance to live and has given the Cape family an excuse. The Cape family probably won’t make things difficult for him when he goes to them,” said Button.

Shen Yuchi nodded. “Among the many ministers, Qiao Siyuan is the most capable. Furthermore, he keeps a low profile and doesn’t fight for fame or fortune. At the same time, he doesn’t even have many hobbies.”

“Do you think there’s something wrong with him?” Button asked.

“The operation this time was highly confidential. Very few people knew about it. Only Cai Jin, Qiao Siyuan, and Liz knew the details. Cai Jin was an extremely careful person. Under such circumstances, he was actually ambushed and had the Blood Oxypetalum seed snatched from him. There’s a high chance that there’s a traitor in our midst,” Shen Yuchi said after some thought.

“Do you want me to investigate?” Button asked.

“You don’t have to worry about that. Help me make a trip to the Family Clan of Gods and send a copy of the video to them,” Shen Yuchi said.

…

Zhou Wen grinded dungeons in his dorm the entire time, but strangely, he obtained plenty of the six skills such as the Room Solar Rabbit, but he failed to obtain a single Neck Gold Dragon.

With one of the Azure Dragon seven palaces missing, the other six were useless.

In the boundless Endless Sea of Stars, he also failed to find the Astral Combat Beasts. This dungeon was just too huge. Zhou Wen guessed that it would take him a month or two to clear it.

However, he could do nothing else if he continued grinding like this. It would take up all his time. Most of the dimensional creatures in the Endless Sea of Stars were useless. This left Zhou Wen vexed.

Wait a minute. There are actually twenty-eight Lunar Mansions in the Endless Sea of Stars. Then, is the distribution of the planets here related to the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions? Zhou Wen decided to check.

The twenty-eight Lunar Mansions was the ancient way of dividing the cosmos. They divided the area around the celestial sphere’s ecliptic plane and celestial equator into twenty-eight regions.

If the Endless Sea of Stars was really arranged in such a pattern, one could determine the location of the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions.

However, Zhou Wen's understanding of such knowledge was very limited. He only knew the name, but he knew nothing about the distribution.

He went online to search for some information, but there were many contradictory points on the Internet. Furthermore, they explained things unclearly. After reading for a long time, Zhou Wen roughly figured out the approximate distribution and locations of the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions.

After comparing it with the Endless Sea of Stars dungeon, he realized that some of the star charts in the Endless Sea were indeed similar to the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions. And the place where he had obtained the skills like the Room Solar Rabbit and Heart Lunar Fox was none other than the region of the Azure Dragon's seven palaces.

This region was extremely huge. After grinding for so long, Zhou Wen still failed to leave the range of the Azure Dragon's seven palaces.

It's indeed so. It's no wonder I only managed to obtain the Azure Dragon's seven palaces' skills. Zhou Wen roughly analyzed the situation and rushed to the stellar domain where the Neck Gold Dragon was. He planned on farming the Neck Gold Dragon to see what use those skills had.

However, the Neck Gold Dragon didn't appear that easily. He swept the entire area but saw nothing of the Neck Gold Dragon.

Don't tell me this is as difficult to farm as Poison Dragon Palm 3! He felt that things weren't looking good. He had six but was still lacking one. If it was really that difficult to farm for it, he didn't know when he would be able to have it drop.

How can I find Liu Yun? I have to ask which small planet the so-called Astral Combat Beast is on. Zhou Wen was extremely vexed. His knowledge of Liu Yun was very limited. He didn't have his phone number or address, so he didn't know how to find him.

After grinding for a few days, Zhou Wen was on the brink of giving up. It was indeed difficult to farm for Neck Gold Dragons.

Crack!

The evolving Explosive Fiend Man finally broke out of its shell. The evolved Explosive Fiend Man was still like a Tesla Trooper. It wore heavy armor, and even the pipes were black. There was also a crystal cylinder on its back. One could see something red inside, making it look very strange.

Zhou Wen looked at the Explosive Fiend Man's stats.

Explosive Fiend Man: Legendary (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Unlawful

Strength: 21

Speed: 21

Constitution: 21

Essence Energy: 21

Talent Skill: Death List, Time-Blast

Companion Form: Self-detonation Device

His stats didn't change much just as Zhou Wen had expected. Zhou Wen focused on studying the Explosive Fiend Man’s Life Providence.

Unlawful: Unrestricted by laws for a period of time.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but be alarmed. This Life Providence wasn’t restricted by rules or laws. This annotation implied that he was rather powerful, but Zhou Wen didn’t know what the actual effects were.

Before Zhou Wen could experiment with the Explosive Fiend Man’s Life Providence, the Explosive Fiend Man began evolving again, turning into an egg once more.

From the looks of it, the power of the Blood Oxypetalum seed is a little too potent. It actually allowed Explosive Fiend Man to continuously evolve. I wonder where the bureau’s blood came from. Zhou Wen also wanted to get one himself when he saw how effective the Blood Oxypetalum seed was.

Just as he was thinking, his phone suddenly rang. It was Li Xuan.

“Old Zhou, quickly go online and watch the battle. A Companion Beast is challenging Primordial Sword Immortal. It’s the Xia family’s Companion Beast,” Li Xuan said excitedly.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 660 - Count of the Wind

Chapter 660: Count of the Wind

Has the Xia family finally taken action? Zhou Wen hurriedly unlocked his phone and randomly found a video website. He found the live broadcast.

The scene was of the cube's screen where a white-haired man in black levitated above the cube's arena.

However, the man's lower body was a snake. The black clothes on his body flapped amidst zero wind. Even his long white hair slowly fluttered in the air.

Count of the Wind... Zhou Wen was immediately shocked when he saw the humanoid Companion Beast's name.

Count of the Wind and the Lord of the Rain were famous existences who had participated in the Zhuolu battle. He never expected the Xia family to have a terrifying Companion Beast like Count of the Wind.

That's not right. I didn't find Count of the Wind and the Lord of the Rain in Zhuolu. Where did the Xia family's Count of the Wind come from? Zhou Wen frowned in thought.

Logically speaking, Count of the Wind should be in Zhuolu, but it wasn't to be found. Furthermore, the Xia family's possession of Count of the Wind made Zhou Wen feel that something was amiss.

"Old Zhou, I'm here. Quickly open the door," Li Xuan shouted from outside.

“Why are you here now?” Zhou Wen opened the door and saw Li Xuan holding his phone, watching the live stream as well.

“It’s boring to watch such a battle alone. Did you see Count of the Wind? Although I don’t know his combat strength, his looks way too cool. As expected of a famous existence in the mythical battle,” Li Xuan said as he looked inside. Seeing the antelope sleeping on the sofa, he carefully walked in and pulled a chair to sit down.

“It’s definitely not as simple as a probe if the Xia family is taking action.” Just as Zhou Wen was speaking, he suddenly saw a flash on the combat platform. Primordial Sword Immortal had already charged over and accepted the challenge.

Primordial Sword Immortal was straightforward. After appearing, the ruby on its hilt emitted sword beams that transformed into a rain of swords that charged at Count of the Wind.

Count of the Wind floated in the air as a formless wind thrust his body. He fanned the sword rain with the peacock feathered fan in his hand.

The formless wind immediately reversed the sword rain’s direction and collided with the sword beams behind it. Immediately, an explosion sounded as the sky was filled with sword flashes.

A sword hum resounded through the void as Primordial Sword Immortal automatically unsheathed its scabbard and slashed at Count of the Wind with terrifying speed.

Count of the Wind’s body drifted as though he was being carried by the wind. He easily dodged Primordial Sword Immortal’s attack.

However, Primordial Sword Immortal refused to give up. It slashed at Count of the Wind again and again as sword beams crisscrossed, as though they were about to tear the world apart.

The Golden Overlord Sword and Primordial Sword Immortal were considered similar Companion Beasts, but the Golden Overlord Sword was much weaker in comparison.

Primordial Sword Immortal wasn’t just slashing. Its every move was a profound sword technique.

It was a real sword technique, not an Essence Energy Skill. Zhou Wen could even sense the astonishing sword intent. Just the sword intent alone made Zhou Wen sigh at his inferiority.

Even his Transcendent Flying Immortal was inferior to that sword’s realm.

“Holy sh*t, how can this be? A sword actually has such a terrifying sword technique and sword intent. Who can beat it?” Li Xuan also noticed the uniqueness of the situation as he exclaimed in surprise.

Zhou Wen nodded with a heavy expression. Although Li Xuan appeared as carefree as usual, Zhou Wen could sense that he cared a lot about Count of the Wind.

Zhou Wen also understood why Li Xuan cared so much about it. Li Mobai had once said that the reason their talented eldest brother died so early was because of the Xia family.

Li Xuan treated the Xia family as a conjectured enemy, which was why he was so concerned.

Count of the Wind rode the wind and floated amidst the shocking barrage of sword techniques. The terrifying Primordial Sword Immortal was unable to injure him at all.

From beginning to end, Count of the Wind only dodged and didn't counterattack. He seemed to be observing the strength of Primordial Sword Immortal.

What a powerful movement technique... Zhou Wen's eyes lit up when he saw Count of the Wind's movement technique.

Count of the Wind's movement technique was different from his Transcendent Flying Immortal despite all of them being called movement techniques.

Count of the Wind's movement techniques were extremely elegant. No matter how fast Primordial Sword Immortal's sword techniques were, they were unable to even touch his clothes.

Count of the Wind looked like a god of the wind. The sword winds brought by Primordial Sword Immortal made his body drift about with the sword wind. Therefore, no matter how fast Primordial Sword Immortal was, it couldn't touch him. Count of the Wind was simply riding the wind.

I wonder if Banana Fairy will be as strong as Count of the Wind when she evolves to the Mythical stage. Zhou Wen was somewhat looking forward to evolving Banana Fairy who was of the same type.

After failing to hit Count of the Wind, Primordial Sword Immortal suddenly stopped attacking and flew back into its scabbard.

Ever since the stone sword was unsheathed, the scabbard had been floating there without any movement. At this moment, the scabbard spewed out immortal beams.

Soon, the immortal glow condensed into a humanoid immortal figure. The immortal figure held the scabbard in one hand and the stone sword in the other. It looked at Count of the Wind from afar.

So this is the true face of Primordial Sword Immortal. The previous battles weren't enough to force out his true body. Zhou Wen stared at Primordial Sword Immortal. Although he could only see an immortal silhouette that resembled a sword spirit, the powerful sword intent on him was enough to shock anyone.

Just by standing in midair with the sword in hand, he gave off an aura of supremacy. It was as if he could slice apart the entire world with just one strike.

What domineering sword intent... Zhou Wen stared at Primordial Sword Immortal. Such domineering sword intent was very similar to Transcendent Flying Immortal's domineering aspect.

However, it was even more domineering than Transcendent Flying Immortal. It was also more natural and had a higher realm.

On the other side, Count of the Wind remained calm and composed. He seemed to be walking leisurely as though he didn't care about the terror that Primordial Sword Immortal was unleashing.

However, Zhou Wen could sense that Count of the Wind wasn't underestimating Primordial Sword Immortal. It was just that his realm was as such—a complete disregard of everything in the world.

Even if all the deities in the world were his enemies, he could still remain ever so calm even on the brink of death.

Zhou Wen looked at Primordial Sword Immortal before looking at Count of the Wind. He seemed to have figured something out, that he felt two eyes were insufficient.

Suddenly, Primordial Sword Immortal moved. The sword moved like a ray of light, as though it had sliced through half the sky. It was so fast that one could only see the sword’s glow and not see his movements.

Count of the Wind also moved. He transformed into a gust of wind that could no longer be seen with the naked eye. He rushed to face off with Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword glow.

Boom!

A cool breeze met the sword glow as a terrifying shockwave rose up.

The fan and sword constantly clashed, but most people only saw light blasts. They couldn’t see the two Companion Beasts, much less their techniques.

Zhou Wen couldn’t even keep up despite his eyesight. All he could do was switch to the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra and use the Eight Perfections Wisdom and Hell King Life Soul to strengthen his vision. Even then he could barely make out what was happening.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 661 - Evenly Matched

Chapter 661: Evenly Matched

Translator: CKtalon

Li Xuan couldn’t see the trajectory of the battle either. All he could do was summon his Life Soul. His body was immediately covered by the carapace, and his eyes had an eye mask similar to that of a certain insect.

With the augmentation of the Life Soul, the battle scene Li Xuan saw slowed down significantly.

“Amazing. One doesn’t need to be afraid of potent strength or ruthless skill, but one needs to be afraid of such a highly-intelligent Companion Beast. For a Companion Beast to have such high intelligence, it’s impossible for a Mythical Companion Beast of the same level to win against them. It’s similar to a bug-like existence in games,” Li Xuan said.

“That’s right. Intelligence is indeed a hidden attribute of a Companion Beast. A Companion Beast with high intelligence is indeed at an advantage in battle.” Zhou Wen nodded in agreement.

He also liked to use highly-intelligent Companion Beasts like Banana Fairy, Demonic Neonate, and Doctor Darkness. Even if Zhou Wen didn’t give them orders, they knew when and what to do.

Sometimes, their decisions exceeded Zhou Wen’s expectations.

As for the brainless representatives, like Tyrant Behemoth, Six-Winged, and Golden Battle God Halberd, they relied on their instincts to fight. Their intelligence was much lower.

It couldn’t be said that this was bad. If one’s strength was strong enough, such combat instinct could push their strength to the limit and erupt with 120% of their combat strength.

However, if one were to encounter an evenly matched opponent, such brainless Companion Beasts would be at a disadvantage.

However, Zhou Wen’s mind wasn’t on these Companion Beasts. He was even more interested in Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword techniques and Count of the Wind’s movement techniques. He was completely immersed in them as he sensed the two completely different approaches.

One was about claiming supremacy, while the other was about being calm and composed. The two were extremes.

And these two extremes were similar to the one Zhou Wen had when he first understood the divine Transcendent Flying Immortal.

Count of the Wind and Primordial Sword Immortal were evenly matched. Neither of them had the upper hand, but up to now, they had yet to use their Wheel of Destiny.

Ordinary citizens were fidgeting in anxiety because they could only see the glow. They couldn’t see the details of the battle. Only a few Epic experts with visual abilities could see the battle clearly.

Thankfully, modern filming equipment was already very advanced. There would be slow-motion replays in the future. Coupled with the commentary, most people would be able to understand it clearly.

Zhou Wen was engrossed in watching when Count of the Wind suddenly retreated from the battle. Without any warning, he admitted defeat and left the battlefield.

“Why did he admit defeat? The victory clearly wasn’t decided yet,” Li Xuan said in a daze.

As Zhou Wen had been taking in their sword techniques and movement techniques, he had a deeper understanding of them than Li Xuan. He shook his head and said, “Count of the Wind and Primordial Sword Immortal are very close in every aspect. If they continue fighting, they can only use their Wheels of Destiny. The Xia family clearly doesn’t want to go all out yet. It’s just a probe, so they have chosen to give up.”

“What a pity. Such a divine-level battle is much more interesting than watching those Strength-type Companion Beasts fight,” Li Xuan said.

Zhou Wen also felt that he hadn’t had enough. He got up and said, “Let’s go to the training grounds. I gained some insight from watching their battle. I liked to experiment to see if I’m right or wrong.”

Upon hearing Zhou Wen’s words, Li Xuan agreed immediately. The two of them went to the training grounds and found an independent training room.

“I will try to imitate Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword techniques. Help me check to see if it’s correct.” Zhou Wen picked up a practice sword and recalled Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword intent as he slashed at Li Xuan.

“Interesting, but it’s not domineering enough. You still have some reservations about this strike. You should be more resolute.” Li Xuan didn’t take out his weapon as he used his carapace to block the practice sword.

“Is this enough?” Zhou Wen slashed out again. At the same time, he tried his best to fuse his emotions into the Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword intent realm.

“Not enough… Not enough… It’s still not enough…” Li Xuan constantly fought Zhou Wen. As Zhou Wen’s sword techniques became faster and faster, he no longer had the time to say that it was inadequate. Every time Zhou Wen attacked, Li Xuan would only say no.

Zhou Wen gradually became one with the will, as his intent fused with the sword. The feeling of using the sword grew stronger and stronger. He gradually realized that the dominance of Primordial Sword Immortal wasn’t because his sword techniques were fast and ruthless, but because it attacked the key spots. It prevented the opponent from counterattacking, so there was no need for defense.

Clang!

Zhou Wen’s practice sword slashed at Li Xuan. Although he had only used a practice sword, he had actually left a sword mark on Li Xuan’s carapace because the sword beam was too powerful.

“Interesting. Again.” Li Xuan was very excited.

Zhou Wen was also feeling excited as he brandished his sword without any hesitation to slash at Li Xuan. The more he fought, the more he reveled in the feeling of this sword technique.

Defense? What the hell was that? I’ll slash out with my sword. Those who follow me will live, those who oppose me will die. There was no need for defense. With one sword in hand, I'm the best in the world.

The more Zhou Wen fought, the more arrogant he became. He wasn't usually an arrogant person, but under the influence of the sword intent, his attacks became more and more violent.

Crack! Crack!

Li Xuan wasn't able to completely block Zhou Wen's sword technique. Sword marks appeared over his carapace, but the armor was immediately restored to its original state upon cracking. Its self-healing speed was unbelievably fast.

Clang!

Zhou Wen slashed at Li Xuan again. The practice sword made of special rubber couldn't withstand the domineering sword beam and shattered.

"My turn." Li Xuan leaped up and drew a practice sword from the weapon rack. He slashed at Zhou Wen, using an identical sword technique that Zhou Wen had just used.

Zhou Wen was alarmed. He knew that Li Xuan's Life Soul could sense the enemy's techniques and gain experience from suffering injuries, but he never expected that he could learn the techniques that humans used.

Li Xuan's strike wasn't much worse than the one he had used.

However, this made Zhou Wen even more excited. "Don't worry about me. Use all your strength."

Zhou Wen didn’t have a carapace protecting him. Although Li Xuan’s sword technique was right, it didn’t have that domineering aura. That was why Zhou Wen felt confident.

“Alright.” Li Xuan didn’t hold back any further. He used all the experience he had just absorbed from his injuries in battle. A domineering sword beam immediately filled the sword.

Zhou Wen recalled Count of the Wind’s movement technique and concept and began mimicking his movement technique to circle around Li Xuan.

Movement techniques were Zhou Wen’s forte. They were easier to use than sword techniques, so he got into the groove faster than with the sword technique.

…

Gulli and Sadie had just finished watching the battle between Count of the Wind and Primordial Sword Immortal. Sadie’s Eye of Odin had seen more things. She wanted to study the battle between Count of the Wind and Primordial Sword Immortal with Gulli, so they had come to the training grounds.

They also wanted to find a private training room, but they realized that there were already people inside. Just as they were feeling depressed, they suddenly heard the whistling sound of sword aura coming from the training room beside them.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 662 - The Talented Xuanwen Club

Chapter 662: The Talented Xuanwen Club

“This sword aura sound…” Sadie was alarmed when she heard the sound of the sword aura. She turned around and walked to the door of the training room. She tried pushing the door, only to realize that it was locked.

However, through the crack in the door, she could see the situation inside.

Sadie approached the door crack and looked inside. She was immediately alarmed.

“Sis, what are you doing? This isn’t good, right?” Gulli looked at Sadie strangely.

“Come and take a look.” Sadie pulled Gulli over and got him to stand in front of the door crack. He looked inside and saw two people sparring.

“Why does this sword technique look so familiar…” Gulli muttered when he saw Li Xuan’s sword technique.

“What’s with that brain of yours? That sword technique is the sword technique of Primordial Sword Immortal. And the movement technique Zhou Wen uses is Count of the Wind’s movement technique. Have you forgotten them after just watching them?” Sadie said.

“Ah, it’s true. That’s the Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword technique. But how could that person use Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword technique? Could he be the owner of Primordial Sword Immortal?” Gulli said in surprise.

“My dear brother, you are really hopelessly stupid. Zhou Wen is using Count of the Wind’s movement technique. Does that make him Count of the Wind’s master?” Sadie said helplessly.

“That’s right. Isn’t Count of the Wind from the Xia family? How did he become Zhou Wen’s?” Gulli was puzzled.

Sadie was immediately rendered speechless. All she could do was say to Gulli, “Zhou Wen isn’t Count of the Wind’s master. The other person isn’t the owner of Primordial Sword Immortal either. They are the same as us. They watched the battle between Primordial Sword Immortal and Count of the Wind and learned Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword technique and Count of the Wind’s movement technique.”

“They learned the sword technique and movement technique from simply watching the battle? How is this possible? Even you have to do plenty of analysis and simulation to learn a portion of it despite having the Eye of Odin. How long has it been? Yet, they have already learned the sword technique and movement technique. Isn’t this too unbelievable?” Gulli widened his eyes in disbelief.

“It’s indeed hard to believe, but they’ve done it.” Sadie looked at Zhou Wen and Li Xuan with a complicated expression.

Before coming to Sunset College, she was confident that she could defeat Zhou Wen and avenge Lance.

However, after coming here, Sadie realized that she was far from Zhou Wen’s match. Not only was she no match for him, but she couldn’t even defeat Feng Qiuyan, who claimed to be learning from him.

The person who was fighting Zhou Wen inside was similarly no weaker than her, and the person was clearly not Feng Qiuyan.

How many terrifying geniuses are there hidden in Sunset College? Sadie’s expression was extremely complicated. The more she watched the battle, the more terrified she felt.

Although Li Xuan’s sword technique and Zhou Wen’s movement technique weren’t at the level of Primordial Sword Immortal and Count of the Wind, they already possessed the charm of the two. They had truly understood the meaning behind the sword technique and movement technique. It wasn’t just a simple imitation.

Boom!

The practice sword in Li Xuan’s hand failed to withstand the powerful explosion of the sword aura. The two of them could only stop.

“Old Zhou, are you going to continue training?” Li Xuan retracted his Life Soul and revealed his true body.

Gulli and Sadie widened their eyes. They never expected that the person who used such a sword technique was actually the frivolous-looking, foppish Li Xuan.

“Forget it. It’s pointless. I’m not continuing,” Zhou Wen said as he shook his head.

Zhou Wen had already understood the profundity of the movement technique and sword technique. However, just imitating them was useless. He needed to fuse the movement technique and sword technique into his system. This wasn’t something that could be done in a short period of time. He needed time to think.

Sadie and Gulli clearly misunderstood Zhou Wen’s intentions. They believed that Zhou Wen was saying that this sword technique and movement technique were too simple that they were boring him.

If anyone else had said that, Sadie and Gulli would think that they were arrogant and ignorant.

Zhou Wen had only just watched the battle between Count of the Wind and Primordial Sword Immortal. Yet, in such a short period of time, he had already comprehended the charm of Count of the Wind’s movement technique. Such a genius could say anything without going overboard.

Seeing that the two of them were about to come out, Sadie and Gulli hurriedly hid to the side. After the two of them walked out of the training grounds, Sadie said, “Sunset College is really filled with all kinds of hidden talent, especially the Xuanwen Club. I never expected that the usually frivolous Li Xuan would have such strength and talent. In the past, when we were in the North District, we were like frogs in a well, looking down on young people who weren’t from the six families. However, Zhou Wen, Feng Qiuyan, and Li Xuan aren’t any worse than the top geniuses of the six families. I wonder how many geniuses there are in Sunset College.”

“They’re really too strong. We made no mistake coming. With such opponents, I think we can improve faster,” Gulli said excitedly.

Sadie nodded with a heavy expression. In the past, the Federation’s geniuses came from the six families. However, with the development of the times, more and more geniuses emerged from the ordinary families. The influence of the six families was gradually declining.

…

After this battle, all the major media outlets gave a slow-motion video of the battle. Furthermore, there were explanations and professional analyses. It left everyone watching with relish.

The popularity of Tyrant Behemoth and Orochi’s battle was completely overshadowed.

Although Tyrant Behemoth was strong, its intelligence was lacking. Its battle with Orochi was too simple and crude. It was far inferior to the battle between Primordial Sword Immortal and Count of the Wind.

People were discussing who would have been stronger if they had fought to the end—Count of the Wind or Primordial Sword Immortal.

Some people supported Uncle Feng, but more people believed that Primordial Sword Immortal was the strongest. Otherwise, why would Count of the Wind admit defeat?

The other families understood the Xia family’s intent. The Xia family had already probed the strength of Primordial Sword Immortal. They probably wouldn’t make a move for the time being. It was up to them now.

Including the overseas demons and the six families, the various factions were analyzing the abilities of Primordial Sword Immortal and Count of the Wind. They were already eager to try.

Now, other than not knowing what Primordial Sword Immortal’s Wheel of Destiny was, Primordial Sword Immortal’s abilities were mostly analyzed.

Furthermore, based on all sorts of evidence, its Wheel of Destiny was very likely an offensive miracle.

On this basis, the various families came up with a strategy to deal with the situation. It was only a matter of time before they challenged Primordial Sword Immortal’s number one spot.

Zhou Wen wasn’t idle either. When he returned, he informed An Sheng of his encounter with Chu He in Netherworld City and got him to help investigate Chu He and his family.

An Sheng placed a lot of importance on this matter and personally went to Chu He’s hometown. Now, An Sheng had finally sent the news back.

According to An Sheng’s investigations, Chu He’s wife and daughter had always believed that Chu He had gone to Zhuolu. They had no idea that Chu He had gone to the desert.

Furthermore, ever since Chu He had left home and gone to Zhuolu, he had never contacted them again. He hadn’t communicated with them, nor had he written any letters.

After various investigations, An Sheng came to the conclusion that Chu He had gone to Zhuolu and had never been to the desert.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 663 - Metal Walnut Gets Gnawed Through

Chapter 663: Metal Walnut Gets Gnawed Through

Translator: CKtalon

“Are you saying that the Chu He I met in Netherworld City is a fake?” Zhou Wen asked after some thought.

“No, it’s the opposite. I think the Chu He who went to Zhuolu is a fake,” An Sheng said with certainty. “From the information I obtained, everything about the Chu He that went to Zhuolu is perfect. However, this ends up making me feel that something is amiss.”

After a pause, An Sheng continued, “According to my investigations, Professor Chu He studied the Taklamakan desert in the past. In the beginning, he indeed rejected the invitation from the expedition team, but for some reason, he later agreed. He then went to Zhuolu. However, during his time in Zhuolu, he never contacted his family. This makes me find it a little abnormal.”

“In other words, someone really did some tampering?” Zhou Wen asked.

“We can’t be sure yet. If someone really is behind this, their force is definitely extraordinary. The other party has done it so cleanly that we can’t find any problems. If you hadn’t encountered Chu He, who had already died, in Netherworld City, I’m afraid no one would have expected that Chu He, who went to Zhuolu, would be a fake,” An Sheng said.

“How’s Chu He’s wife and daughter?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Their situation will become very dangerous after our investigations. To ensure their safety, I’ve already brought them back,” An Sheng said.

From An Sheng’s tone, Zhou Wen knew that An Sheng had definitely used some extreme means.

“If it’s possible, take good care of them. As long as it’s not an unreasonable request, try your best to satisfy them. I’ll be in charge of all expenses,” Zhou Wen said.

“Don’t worry. They have already been brought into the manor by Madam. Madam values them very much,” An Sheng said.

“That’s good.” Zhou Wen knew that Ouyang Lan was as concerned about the former principal as he was. Since Chu He’s wife and daughter had gone to her, Ouyang Lan definitely wouldn’t let anything happen to them.

After ending the call with An Sheng, Zhou Wen was considering what he could do.

I’m far inferior to An Sheng when it comes to investigating such matters. It’s useless even if I go. If someone really is doing something behind our backs, they are definitely a powerful force to do it so seamlessly. Even if we find out the truth, we will need a powerful force to resolve the problem. It’s better for me to raise my strength first. Zhou Wen felt that what he needed to do now was to become stronger.

Ding! Just as he cleared the Metalwork Temple dungeon, another Golden Battle God Halberd dropped.

How easily does this thing drop? It’s already the fourth one. Zhou Wen was somewhat speechless.

However, being able to have another Mythical Companion Beast was also an increase in combat strength. If he really managed to obtain a few hundred Golden Battle God Halberds, he might be able to flatten the six Federation families with just Golden Battle God Halberds.

Just as he was about to continue grinding, his phone rang. He opened it and saw that it was from The Thearch.

“I’ll make a deal with you. Are you interested?”

“What deal?” Zhou Wen replied.

“I can let you obtain a Companion Beast. That Companion Beast can help you defeat Primordial Sword Immortal and Companion Beast, but in exchange, you have to give me the divine fruit after obtaining it.” The Thearch sent another message.

“What benefits do I have if I give you the divine fruit?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Isn’t it enough for you to obtain a Companion Beast that can help you defeat Primordial Sword Immortal?” The Thearch asked.

“What kind of Companion Beast is that?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Come to Chess Mountain. You will know when you get it,” said The Thearch.

“Don’t tell me you want me to enter Deer Terrace Pavilion again?” Zhou Wen deliberately sent a message in an unwilling tone.

In fact, Zhou Wen did want to enter Deer Terrace Pavilion. In-game, he could only enter the ancient building in Deer Terrace Pavilion, but he couldn’t enter the platform below.

Now, Zhou Wen really wanted to find another way to enter Deer Terrace Pavilion other than the gap in reality.

“How can you obtain benefits without entering Deer Terrace Pavilion?” The Thearch asked.

“It’s too disgusting to enter Deer Terrace Pavilion underwater. Is there no other way of entry?” Zhou Wen wanted to find out other ways to enter Deer Terrace Pavilion so that there was no need for him to trade with The Thearch.

To his surprise, The Thearch was tight-lipped. She only replied, “Don’t worry. I’ll let you enter Deer Terrace Pavilion easily this time.”

Zhou Wen asked a few more questions, but The Thearch didn’t say a word. She only said that he would know when the time came.

Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant. He naturally wanted a Companion Beast that could defeat Primordial Sword Immortal, but he wasn’t willing to take the risk at Deer Terrace Pavilion in reality.

The Thearch was just too mysterious. Zhou Wen wasn’t willing to have too much contact with her.

Forget it. I won’t go. Even without The Thearch’s Companion Beast, I have a chance of defeating Primordial Sword Immortal. Zhou Wen had carefully studied the battle between Count of the Wind and Primordial Sword Immortal.

Tyrant Behemoth still had a chance of defeating Primordial Sword Immortal, but that was under the premise that Primordial Sword Immortal’s Wheel couldn’t kill Tyrant Behemoth.

As he was pondering, he suddenly felt fluctuations in the chaos space.

Could it be that Explosive Fiend Man’s evolution has completed? Zhou Wen hurriedly checked the chaos space.

However, he realized that Explosive Fiend Man hadn’t evolved. It was still in its egg form.

That fluctuation was actually coming from the metal walnut.

The tiny beast had been nibbling at the metal walnut all this time. After so long, it had left a deep bite mark on the metal walnut. From where it was nibbling, it seemed to have been bitten through. A crack as thin as a strand of hair appeared on the surface of the crack, revealing a white color.

As for the fluctuations Zhou Wen felt, they were actually emitted from the metal walnut. The fluctuations seemed to be felt through his consciousness, but Zhou Wen actually felt as though it was asking for his help.

Could it be that there’s a dimensional creature in this metal walnut? Zhou Wen took it out from the chaos space.

The little beast continued to bite at the metal walnut. It looked like it wouldn’t stop until it bit right through.

Zhou Wen used his hand to pull it, but its claws gripped the metal walnut tightly, unwilling to let go.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to knock it out. After the beast fainted, its paws continued holding on tightly. Zhou Wen had to let it hold the metal walnut as he reached out to touch the crack that the beast had bitten open.

White matter emerged from the crack. Zhou Wen touched it and immediately felt his Essence Energy flow into the metal walnut. The feeling was similar to incubating a Companion Egg.

The thing inside the metal walnut is actually a Companion Egg? Zhou Wen was alarmed as he allowed the metal walnut to absorb his Essence Energy.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 664 - Dragon Gate Anomaly

Chapter 664: Dragon Gate Anomaly

Translator: CKtalon

Crack!

As the Essence Energy was absorbed, the outer shell of the metal walnut split into two along the crack. A white ball-shaped object rolled out and transformed into a stream of light that shot at Zhou Wen's body, turning into a white, circular tattoo.

When he summoned the Companion Beast, it was about the size of a football. He held it in his hand and pinched it. It was soft and bouncy, similar to the feeling of a bouncy ball. Maybe even softer.

Zhou Wen casually pinched the Companion Beast into various strange shapes. Once he released his grip, it would return to its original state.

This Companion Beast is rather fun. I wonder what use it has? Zhou Wen didn't receive any information regarding the Companion Beast, so he felt somewhat puzzled.

Typically, after contracting a Companion Beast, one would receive some vague information, such as the name, level, etc.

However, this one didn't give any of that. Zhou Wen could only take out his phone to read its information. He was still thinking, Such a special Companion Beast must have a very special ability, right? However, it absorbed rather little Essence Energy. Its level shouldn't be high.

After placing the white Companion Beast in the viewfinder, Zhou Wen clicked on its information and ended up petrified.

Tai Sui: Mortal (Evolvable)

Strength: 11

Speed: 11

Constitution: 11

Essence Energy: 11

Talent Skill: Earth Escape

Companion Form: Mimicry

*Holy sh*t, this darn thing is Tai Sui…* Zhou Wen regretted it so much that he felt a kick in his guts. If he had known this would happen, he wouldn't have asked for trouble. He would have let the little beast eat it.

Thankfully, it's only at the Mortal stage. It doesn't seem to have any Life Providence or skills like a Jinxes Master or Misfortune. Zhou Wen carefully looked at the introduction and realized that it wasn't as bad as he imagined.

However, Tai Sui could actually evolve. This was basically the specialty of a Mythical Companion Beast. If he continued evolving it, it was unknown if it would have abilities like a Jinxes Master or Misfortune.

I read online that Tai Sui has a Life Providence like Misfortune and Bad Luck. However, it seems like the photos taken online of those Tai Sui are a little different from this one. Zhou Wen searched the pictures online and compared them to the Tai Sui in front of him. They were indeed different.

Those Tai Suis looked ugly and were either black or yellow. They weren't as smooth and white as Zhou Wen's—it looked like white jade.

It's also possible that my Tai Sui is different from theirs. Mine doesn't bring misfortune, Zhou Wen thought.

Tai Sui bounced around on the ground like a white bouncy ball. Its fleshy look made it very interesting.

Just as Zhou Wen was looking at Tai Sui, the tiny beast woke up. When it got up and saw the two halves of the metal walnut on the ground, it immediately rushed over.

However, when it realized that there was nothing inside, it was stunned. It turned its head and saw Tai Sui in front of Zhou Wen and immediately pounced over.

Tai Sui seemed a little afraid of it as it immediately jumped behind Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen reached out to grab the fur on the tiny beast's back and lifted it up. The little beast desperately brandished its tiny claws as though it wanted to fight Zhou Wen to the death.

However, its claws were just too short. No matter how hard it tried, it couldn't touch Zhou Wen.

"Come, be good. This is for you to eat… You're not eating it? What about this?" Zhou Wen took out something to coax the little beast.

Finally, when Zhou Wen gave it an Epic Companion Egg, the little beast angrily sprawled on it and ate it. As it chewed, it glared at Zhou Wen and Tai Sui as though it was indignant.

Zhou Wen fed some Companion Eggs to Tai Sui. Tai Sui didn’t seem picky at all, but its eating speed was very slow.

Its body wrapped around the Companion Egg like liquid. It didn’t manage to digest it even after a long time.

After trying out Tai Sui’s Earth Escape skill, he realized that it was very useful. As long as it touched the ground, it could instantly move anywhere.

However, because Tai Sui’s level was too low, it couldn’t escape too far.

As for its companion form, it was somewhat magical. It could simulate the companion form of other Companion Beasts. It could transform into armor, weapons, and other forms. It could even simulate the appearance of a Companion Beast.

However, it only simulated its appearance, its essence didn’t change. It didn’t possess the ability of other Companion Beasts. It looked like a plasticine toy.

Although Tai Sui doesn’t have the legendary Misfortune, it doesn’t seem to be of any use. Realizing that Tai Sui was useless, Zhou Wen let it slowly eat and evolve. He wanted to see if it would be of any use in the future.

“Young Master Wen, are you at school?” An Sheng called.

“Yes,” Zhou Wen answered.

“It’s best you don’t leave the school for the next few days,” An Sheng said.

“What happened?” Zhou Wen was somewhat puzzled.

“Recently, Dragon Gate Grotto has been a little abnormal. According to Chancellor Leng’s judgment, Dragon Gate Grotto might encounter a large-scale breakout of creatures. When the time comes, we will do our best to prevent the breakout creatures from entering the city. As we don’t know how many breakout creatures will appear, we might need your help as a last resort,” An Sheng said.

“Alright, I’ll stay in school for the next few days.” After a pause, Zhou Wen asked, “Does this mean that the other dimensional zones will also experience a large-scale breakout?”

“We are closely monitoring them. From the looks of it, we haven’t discovered anything similar. The situation in Dragon Gate Grotto has changed. Perhaps something special is affecting them,” An Sheng said. “According to Chancellor Leng, some of the break-out creatures outside also came to Dragon Gate Grotto. It’s still a mystery what’s attracting them.”

When Zhou Wen heard that, he immediately thought of the giant golden bird above Dragon Gate Grotto. Back then, it was only when Chancellor Leng personally appeared that the giant golden bird retreated.

Not long after Zhou Wen received the news, Dragon Gate Grotto was sealed off by the military. In the next two days, the school had organized a mobilization meeting. The students had also been assigned some logistic work to assist the military in preventing the large-scale breakout.

The entire school’s atmosphere became abnormally tense. Zhou Wen, Li Xuan, and company were assigned work. In such a situation, no one could stay out of it.

That night, a roar that sounded like a cow’s moo came from Dragon Gate Grotto. The sound was soul-stirring. The ground near Dragon Gate Grotto shook as though there was a slight earthquake. The roar lasted the entire night, but nothing came out.

However, this cast a shadow on everyone’s hearts. This was because they were certain that something had really happened to Dragon Gate Grotto.

“Old Zhou, if all of these dimensional zones suffer a breakout, do you think our Luoyang will still hold?” Li Xuan asked Zhou Wen as he moved the supplies.

“I’m afraid it can’t be defended.” Zhou Wen knew very well that humans were much weaker than dimensional creatures.

There appeared to be a hundred Mythical Companion Beasts on the ranking, but the number of Mythical creatures in the dimensional zones was far more than that. It might be a hundred or a thousand times more.

Zhou Wen even suspected that there were even more terrifying existences above the Mythical stage. Otherwise, Torch Dragon’s stats wouldn’t have the evolvable attribute.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 665 - The Battle Begins

Chapter 665: The Battle Begins

Translator: CKtalon

Over the next few days, many strange things happened in Dragon Gate Grotto.

A huge Buddha shed tears of blood for no reason. After careful inspection, it was discovered that there was a crack in the Buddha's eye. Red spring water surged out from it.

In the river beside Dragon Gate Grotto, there were creatures that resembled flood dragons churning. However, the back they saw was dozens of meters long. It was extremely terrifying.

Inside a Buddhist temple, a Buddhist glow bloomed. Through a pair of binoculars, one could see a skeleton dressed in monk robes sitting inside the temple hall. Every inch of its skeleton emitted a Buddhistic glow.

The entire Grotto was filled with strange sights. The military had completely sealed off the nearby area. The area near Dragon Gate Grotto on campus had been evacuated.

The matter at Dragon Gate Grotto seemed to be even more terrifying than expected. Malla and Stone Beasts had already walked out of the cave. Many of the Malla and Stone Beasts were the students' usual hunting targets—most of them were at the Mortal and Legendary stage.

However, they now had a strange halo enveloping them. Their Strength and Speed had increased greatly. The power that erupted at the Mortal stage could reach the peak of the Mortal stage. Those at the Legendary stage could produce strength at the peak Legendary stage.

There were also Flying Beasts and Fairies circling above Dragon Gate Grotto, making the originally mysterious cave even more bizarre.

Any dimensional creature that stepped out of the defense line was killed by the soldiers, but the situation kept worsening. There were more dimensional creatures that surged out with each day.

Boom! Boom!

Zhou Wen, Li Xuan, and Feng Qiuyan were responsible for transporting the ammunition to the front line. This was a mission An Sheng had specially arranged for them so that they could participate in the battle at any time.

The school's tutors were also prepared. When the battle really broke out, these Epic tutors were to be the main combat force.

Qin Wufu had already arrived at the battlefield to commandeer the troops, but An Tianzuo was nowhere to be seen.

"Young Master Wen, you have to be careful. The anomaly in Dragon Gate Grotto is too terrifying. There might be a fierce battle when the time comes." After An Sheng arrived on the battlefield, he warned Zhou Wen and company with a heavy expression.

Zhou Wen was somewhat alarmed. An Sheng knew that he had several Mythical Companion Beasts in his possession, but even so, he had solemnly warned him to be careful. It was obvious that the situation was extremely terrifying.

Li Xuan said, “Why don’t I see Overseer?”

An Sheng sighed softly and said, “Overseer has gathered all the noble families in Luoyang City for a meeting and is mobilizing them to participate in the battle.”

“It isn’t going well?” Zhou Wen looked at An Sheng’s expression and knew that things weren’t going well.

An Sheng said, “Sunset College is closest to Dragon Gate Grotto, but Sunset College has always been a home ground of the An family. They feel that helping this situation is helping the An family, so they are quite unwilling.”

“Don’t they know that once Sunset College fails, all of Luoyang will suffer?” Zhou Wen frowned.

Even someone like him who had a bad relationship with An Tianzuo was participating in this battle. This was because he knew that this wasn’t the An family’s business. It concerned the survival of Luoyang.

“Some have already planned on leaving Luoyang to seek refuge,” An Sheng said.

“Escape without fighting? Those people are even abandoning their homeland?” Feng Qiuyan frowned.

“That’s only human nature. If we manage to hold the line, they will naturally return. If we can’t, they will be able to preserve their strength and wealth. They will also be able to live free and mighty in other cities. However, ordinary citizens won’t share the same fate. Only death awaits them,” An Sheng said.

“How’s my family’s situation?” Li Xuan hadn’t received any news from his family. He didn’t know what was happening at home.

“Old Master Li didn’t say anything, but he didn’t leave Luoyang either. He seems to be taking a wait-and-see approach,” An Sheng replied.

“Adjutant An, I would like to make a remark on that.” Suddenly, they heard someone speak. They turned their heads and saw Li Mobai walking over with a dozen soldiers.

“Second Young Master Li, you’re finally here. We’ve been waiting for you for a long time.” An Sheng saw Li Mobai and the people behind him.

“All the Epic experts that the Li family can contribute are here. Including me, I’ll be at the Overseer’s disposal,” Li Mobai said.

“If the Li family is willing to help, why is Old Master Li unwilling to speak up for the Overseer during the meeting?” An Sheng asked.

Li Mobai smiled and said, “Our Li family is willing to fight to protect Luoyang. That’s our decision, but we can’t stop other families from seeking a chance to live.”

An Sheng immediately understood what he meant. All he could do was shake his head and sigh helplessly.

From this, one could tell that very few people from the major families in Luoyang were willing to participate.

“Second Young Master, please follow me. After registration, Governor Du will deploy you centrally,” An Sheng said as he prepared to lead them to the register.

“Second Brother…” Li Xuan called out with a strange expression when he saw Li Mobai looking at him.

Li Mobai said indifferently, “You don’t have to speak to me with such an attitude. I’ve never placed you in my heart. Among the Li brothers. I, Li Mobai, only acknowledge one elder brother. I only gave you the Evil King Gu as a tool for revenge. Since you can’t even be a tool, there’s no value in using you. You can do whatever you want.”

With that said, Li Mobai left with An Sheng.

Li Xuan gritted his teeth and didn’t say a word. All he did was clench his fists.

Zhou Wen patted Li Xuan on the shoulder. Li Xuan relaxed and shook his head. “Don’t worry. I know what I should do. I won’t lose myself because of his words.”

Over the next two days, some rich Luoyang families sent people to participate in the battle. However, most of them only sent one or two Epic experts. Apart from the Li family, there were only two other families who sent a formidable force.

On this day, just as Zhou Wen and company were loading the supplies, they suddenly heard an ear-piercing alarm. All the soldiers quickly rushed to their posts before they heard the rumbling sounds of cannons and gunshots.

Zhou Wen and company pushed the resources to the front lines and saw that in the direction of Dragon Gate Grotto, a large number of stone beasts and Malla were rushing out. There were also a number of flying beasts dancing in the air.

The tide of dimensional creatures charged at the defensive fortifications. The soldiers followed the commands and kept firing. The dimensional creatures fell, but more dimensional creatures took their fallen brethren and charged over.

Boom!

A cannonball exploded in front of a Vajra Malla, but it failed to kill him. He charged over with the fragments of the cannonball still embedded in him and pounced ferociously at a soldier in the trench.

The soldier didn’t retreat. He summoned a Companion Beast saber and struck the Vajra Malla, forcing it to take two steps back.

The soldiers beside him shot at the Vajra Malla. They peppered it with a rain of bullets, blasting apart his head.

A Fairy swooped down from the sky. On the battlefield that was filled with flames of war, the beautiful figure turned into a killing machine. She gracefully charged into the soldiers and blood immediately dyed the trench red.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 666 - Thousand-Handed Bull-Headed Creature

Chapter 666: Thousand-Handed Bull-Headed Creature

The symphony of death and slaughter played crazily. A loud boom resounded through the sky as a three-headed, six-armed Vajra that stood more than ten meters tall charged out of Dragon Gate Grotto.

Bullets and artillery fire blasted him, but to no avail. With a wave of the monster-subduing phurba in his hand, a laser-like beam blasted a huge hole in the defensive fortification. Several soldiers died on the spot.

An Epic expert summoned his Companion Beasts to face it in battle. The Vajra fought four of them alone but managed to force all four Epic Companion Beasts into a retreat.

Boom! Boom!

Amidst the flood of stone beasts, multiple three-headed, six-armed Vajras rushed out of Dragon Gate Grotto. Groups of Fairies also flew out into the sky. They were true Fairies, not Fairy Beasts.

There were also the black-clothed, white-haired Mutated Fairies. Furthermore, there were more than two of them.

Epic officers, tutors, and people from Luoyang’s major families took part in the battle. There were war cries and explosions everywhere on the battlefield as soldiers constantly fell.

“Are you interested in warming up?” An Sheng wore a smile, but his eyes were extremely cold.

“More than happy.” Feng Qiuyan summoned his saber.

“I’ve been waiting.” Li Xuan summoned out his carapace.

Zhou Wen gripped his Bamboo Blade tightly and nodded slightly. He knew that this was really just a warm-up. The truly terrifying creatures had yet to come out.

An Sheng led them to the leftmost side of the defense line. The defense there was the weakest and had been repeatedly breached by the Fairies.

“Guard this place until the retreat order is given, you can’t retreat even in death,” An Sheng said to Zhou Wen and company before leaving.

The soldiers were crazily fending off the dimensional creatures’ attacks, but there were still three-headed, six-armed Vajras charging at them. It was something ordinary soldiers couldn’t deal with. The bullets that were imbued with Essence Gold couldn’t penetrate the Vajras’ bodies, nor could they hit the Fairies.

“Leave the sky to me. I’ll leave the ground to you.” Zhou Wen looked at the Fairies in the sky as they constantly charged down to cull the soldiers’ lives.

“Alright.” Feng Qiuyan and Li Xuan responded loudly at the same time before rushing out. Each of them faced a three-headed, six-armed Blackiron Vajra.

When the soldiers saw the two students rush out to fend off the Vajras, they were both surprised and delighted. They hurriedly opened fire to provide them cover, clearing the ordinary Vajras and stone beasts.

A few Fairies descended from the sky and flew over. The machine guns on the sentry post fired at them, but they failed to hit their bodies.

Zhou Wen soared into the sky as he unsheathed his Bamboo Blade and slashed out the Demonic Astral Wheel.

The blood-colored Demonic Astral Wheel flashed across the sky, killing several Fairies. Blood splattered everywhere.

The nearby soldiers were first taken aback before they cheered. At the very least, they saw a temporary hope. There were still humans who could fight these terrifying dimensional creatures.

Gunfire, the roars of dimensional creatures, the roars of Companion Beasts, the screams of death—the collision of blood and fire were everywhere.

Zhou Wen kept killing Fairies. He lost count of the number he killed, but he was already beginning to feel numb. He usually couldn’t find so many Fairies, but now, there were as many as crows in the sky.

Zhou Wen even killed two Mutated Fairies.

Feng Qiuyan, Li Xuan, and company were already covered in blood. It was impossible to distinguish the blood on their bodies—theirs or the dimensional creatures’.

Boom! Boom!

In the direction of Dragon Gate Grotto, it was as though a mountain had exploded. A thousand-hand Buddha that was more than ten meters tall on the stone wall emitted a resplendent golden glow. It came to life and walked out of the mountain wall.

The thousand-hand Buddha looked extremely strange. Zhou Wen had never seen it before.

His body was shimmering with golden light. He had an ox head and a human body. He had eight arms and countless arms that resembled wheels on his back. He looked extremely demonic.

An Epic Companion Beast went forward to fight it off, only to see the thousand-handed, bull-headed beast shoot out a golden beam of light that blasted the Epic Companion Beast to pieces.

Then, the arms behind its back raised up and transformed into different spells. Golden light crisscrossed and instantly killed the nearby Companion Beasts and humans.

Mythical creature! Zhou Wen's eyes narrowed. A Mythical creature had appeared so quickly, and one that was especially terrifying.

The dense bombardment of bullets and attacks struck the thousand-handed, bull-headed beast, but they were nothing but a tickle. They failed to hurt it at all.

It even blocked an Epic Companion Beast's attack. As the thousand hands changed in form, the ground was sliced apart by the crisscrossing golden light. Amidst the golden light, a tank was sliced into two like paper.

Instantly, everyone was horrified. Such an invincible dimensional creature made it impossible for anyone to think of putting up a resistance.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to summon the Golden Overlord Sword to slay the thousand-handed, bull-headed beast, he saw a figure tear through the air. It was a flying sword that resembled a blue rainbow.

The flying sword circled the creature as it attempted to grab it with its thousand hands. However, it failed. Instead, the sword beam slashed out by the flying sword cleaved down on its numerous arms.

Zhou Wen turned his head to look at the spot where the flying sword had come from and saw a figure standing on the roof. It was none other than Sunset College's chancellor, Leng Zongzheng.

Zhou Wen couldn't help but have a thought when he saw that the flying sword didn't manage to slice through the thousand-handed, bull-headed creature despite having the advantage. He summoned the Golden Overlord Sword and sneaked behind the creature.

Taking advantage of the fact that it was attracted by the flying sword, he leaped above its head. The Golden Overlord Sword slashed down at the ox head with a resplendent sword beam.

Boom!

The thousand-handed, bull-headed creature collapsed to the ground. At the same time it died, the stone beasts, Fairies, and Vajras attacked even more crazily.

Leng Zongzheng glanced at Zhou Wen and summoned his sword back before turning to sit on a chair. He had no intention of coming down to clean up the battlefield.

Zhou Wen naturally didn’t stand on ceremony. He went to the thousand-handed, bull-headed creature’s corpse to see if it had left anything good.

However, before he could reach the corpse, its body exploded. A terrifying blast instantly rushed towards Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon to block him. The Six-Winged Guardian Dragon roared as it spewed out dragon breath to block the terrifying blast.

And at the spot where the thousand-handed, bull-headed corpse was, a huge golden bull appeared. Its golden eyes were staring straight at him, and golden flames spewed out from its nostrils.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 667 - Battling the Golden Bull

Chapter 667: Battling the Golden Bull

Translator: CKtalon

Leng Zongzheng was sitting on a chair on a skyscraper. He looked at the entire battlefield and his gaze landed on Zhou Wen, who was confronting the golden bull. He asked An Sheng, “Ah Sheng, is that student Zhou Wen?”

“Yes, Chancellor. He’s our Young Master Wen. What do you think of him?” An Sheng said respectfully.

“He’s a slippery one. He actually wanted to pick up freebies on the battlefield. He’s really greedy,” Leng Zongzheng said.

“Young Master Wen only wants to help. He didn’t mean to snatch anything from you,” An Sheng hurriedly explained.

Leng Zongzheng didn’t say anything else. It was impossible to tell if he was angry or not.

Zhou Wen faced the golden bull-headed creature head-on and didn’t dare be careless. This was a battlefield. If he died, that would be it. Therefore, he didn’t charge at the golden bull-headed creature himself. Instead, he got Six-Winged Guardian Dragon to charge forward first.

Six-Winged Guardian Dragon didn’t fear death as it transformed into a black bolt of lightning and charged over. The six dragon wings slashed at the golden bull like blades.

The golden bull was massive, about the same size as a mammoth. It wasn’t at a disadvantage facing the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. When it saw Six-Winged Guardian Dragon charge at it, it roared and lowered its head to slam into it.

Boom!

Due to the terrifying collision, a huge crater formed on the ground. The golden bull and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon were evenly matched and neither of them retreated.

Six-Winged's front claws grabbed the horns on the golden bull's head as the two monsters locked themselves in a stalemate.

Golden flames constantly spewed out from the golden bull's nose. The dragon wings on Six-Winged's back flapped wildly, but neither was able to gain the upper hand. It looked like their strength was about the same.

Zhou Wen held the Golden Overlord Sword and was about to lop off the golden bull's head.

To his surprise, the golden bull's head suddenly shook. A golden bell hanging around its neck rang the moment it shook its head.

Zhou Wen immediately felt his mind go blank when he heard the sound. He was momentarily dazed.

Six-Winged Guardian Dragon looked as though it was drunk. It staggered and involuntarily dispersed all the strength it exerted.

The golden bull roared as a pair of thick and huge golden horns slammed into Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's chest, piercing through its dragon scales and deeply impaling it.

Six-Winged… Zhou Wen was alarmed as he hurriedly summoned Six-Winged back.

Although Six-Winged's combat strength was only considered average among Mythical creatures, its Life Protection was a rare protective Wheel of Destiny. Having it for so long, Zhou Wen wasn't willing to see it die.

Six-Winged transformed into a stream of light and returned to Zhou Wen. Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief. As long as it wasn't dead, it was good. Companion Beasts could slowly recover with their owner's Essence Energy.

Now, Zhou Wen didn't have time to think too much. The golden bull was now targeting him. Zhou Wen hurriedly retreated and threw the Golden Overlord Sword in his hand.

The ringing of the golden bull's bell had actually caused him and Six-Winged to suffer a mental blow, causing them to instantly feel dizzy. If he had been the one charging forward to fight the golden bull, he would probably have been killed.

Before figuring out the meaning of the bell, Zhou Wen didn't dare approach the golden bull.

Although releasing Torch Dragon or Tyrant Behemoth was likely enough to finish it off, Zhou Wen didn't wish to expose his two trump cards.

When the golden bull saw Zhou Wen retreat, it immediately charged forward. It looked like it hated Zhou Wen who had ambushed it.

The Golden Overlord Sword slashed at the golden bull autonomously. The golden sword beam was extremely sharp, but the golden bull managed to block the Golden Overlord Sword’s attack with its horns. The beams only left a shallow mark on the horns.

Zhou Wen was somewhat dumbfounded when he saw this. The Golden Overlord Sword was augmented by Ever-Victorious and Unstoppable; yet, it only left a very shallow sword mark on the horns. The toughness of the horns was rather shocking.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The Golden Overlord Sword and the horns constantly clashed. The shockwave produced by the collision shattered everything around them. Even Zhou Wen could only retreat a second time.

The golden bull wanted to catch up to Zhou Wen, but it couldn’t escape the Golden Overlord Sword’s entanglement. Therefore, it shook its neck again, ringing the bell once more.

Zhou Wen was already dozens of meters away from the battlefield. When he heard the bell, his mind jolted as he felt momentary dizziness. Thankfully, the dizziness was short-lived. Zhou Wen reacted and staggered two steps on the ground without falling.

As for a brainless Companion Beast like the Golden Overlord Sword, it actually showed signs of dizziness. Unguarded, it was sent flying by the golden bull’s horn.

The Golden Overlord Sword flew out like a meteor and slammed into the Dragon Gate Grotto’s stone wall. The sword immediately embedded itself into the stone wall.

What the hell is that bell? Does it actually have such a strange power? I used the Gods Retreat, but it was useless.

From the looks of it, it isn't a nomological force. Could it be a pure aural power? As Zhou Wen retreated, he summoned the Golden Overlord Sword back. He saw that there were many cracks on the Golden Overlord Sword's blade.

Without the Gold Overlord Sword's entanglement, the golden bull roared as it charged at Zhou Wen like a golden train that had gone amok.

An Sheng wanted to render his assistance, but he was stopped by Leng Zongzheng. "Don't worry. That punk hasn't done his best. Let's wait and see."

An Sheng also knew that Zhou Wen hadn't used his full strength. After all, Tyrant Behemoth hadn't appeared. However, it was best if he didn't expose Tyrant Behemoth.

With Leng Zongzheng's extraordinary status, An Sheng couldn't refute him. All he could do was stand by the side and continue watching.

Must I summon Torch Dragon to deal with it? Zhou Wen rushed out, but he couldn't think of a way to deal with the bell on its neck.

In terms of combat abilities, the golden bull, Six-Winged, and Golden Overlord Sword were about equal. However, the bell on its neck was too bizarre, preventing Truth Listener and Gods Retreat from showing any effect.

If it's only an aural power, Truth Listener should have reacted. Why isn't even Truth Listener reacting? Zhou Wen was depressed.

After some thought, Zhou Wen led the golden bull closer to Dragon Gate Grotto to prevent any further human casualties.

When the golden bull saw that it couldn’t catch up to Zhou Wen, it shook its head again. The bell rang again.

This time, Zhou Wen was already prepared. He charged into the sky and switched to the Godfiend Era Essence Energy Art.

His head spun again, but due to the Godfiend Era’s spatial powers, Zhou Wen remained suspended in midair and didn’t fall.

When the golden bull saw that Zhou Wen didn’t fall, it leaped up and charged at him like a gigantic golden cannonball.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 668 - Bull Fight

Chapter 668: Bull Fight

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen had already recovered from his dizziness. Seeing the golden bull already in front of him, he hurriedly flew higher.

Boom!

The golden bull's leap lost its momentum as its body fell to the ground heavily, smashing a huge crater on the ground.

This fellow can't fly? Zhou Wen was overjoyed. He pulled out his Bamboo Blade and slashed at the golden bull beneath him with Demonic Astral Wheel.

The golden bull defended with its horn, slamming into the Demonic Astral Wheel and shattering it. With a roar, it leaped up and lunged at Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen hurriedly flew higher, preventing the golden bull from touching him before it landed on the ground.

Zhou Wen knew the principle of kiting in gaming terms—retreating when the enemy advanced and chasing when the enemy retreated. The moment the golden bull landed, he swooped down and slashed out Demonic Astral Wheel with his Bamboo Blade.

The golden bull was infuriated. After landing on the ground, it leaped up once again and began to ring the bell in midair. However, Zhou Wen had already flown to a high altitude. Although his head was dizzy, he didn't fall. The golden bull couldn't jump high enough, so it couldn't touch him.

Zhou Wen’s heart stirred as he engaged in guerilla warfare with the golden bull. At the same time, he lured the enraged golden bull towards Dragon Gate Grotto’s dimensional creatures.

When the infuriated golden bull landed, it immediately squashed many dimensional creatures. When it rang the bell, the dimensional creatures that were more than a hundred meters nearby were affected and became momentarily dizzy.

As such, the dimensional creatures’ offensive slowed down significantly, greatly reducing the pressure on the frontline soldiers.

Zhou Wen lured the golden bull as it charged through the monster horde, causing great chaos.

A large number of Fairies flew towards Zhou Wen. Zhou Wen held the Bamboo Blade in one hand and the Overlord Sword in the other. Wherever the saber beams and sword beams went, blood splattered everywhere, unleashing pandemonium on the dimensional creatures at the rear.

The soldiers who were engaged in an intense battle saw that someone had stormed into the dimensional creatures’ horde alone. It was as though he had entered no man’s land. The blood in them pumped with zeal as they unleashed greater firepower.

Many Epic officers and tutors, who were in the midst of killing, felt their spirits lift. The pressure they felt seemed to lessen significantly.

Zhou Wen lured the golden bull and constantly stormed through the dimensional creatures, but he failed to find a way to nullify the bell’s ringing.

Thankfully, the golden bull couldn’t fly, so it couldn’t threaten Zhou Wen’s safety.

The bell chimes from time to time only made Zhou Wen momentarily dizzy. By the time the Fairies surrounded him, Zhou Wen was already awake.

Even if he didn’t wake up in time, with the Golden Overlord Sword by his side, no matter how many Fairies came, they would all be killed with a single strike.

It’s definitely not an aural power. Otherwise, there’s no reason for me to be unable to withstand it at all. Even if it’s a spatial-type power, it’s impossible for me to have zero resistance. Could it be that the bell’s power is actually directly attacking the soul? Zhou Wen thought to himself as the golden bull went crazy from Zhou Wen’s teasing.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The golden bull leaped up and repeatedly vibrated the bell in midair. Zhou Wen immediately felt as though his brain was about to explode as he hugged his head and moaned in pain.

Thankfully, the bell’s range was huge. The surrounding Fairies were also affected in worse ways than Zhou Wen. They screamed and fell from the sky.

After the golden bull landed, it took a few steps back and pawed its hoof on the ground a few times. With a sudden run, it leaped up and reached a record-breaking height. The thick horns on its head slammed into Zhou Wen, who was hugging his head in midair. The bell kept ringing.

Zhou Wen felt as though his brain had been struck by a hammer. The pain left his mind blank.

However, Zhou Wen also knew that the golden bull would definitely deliver a fatal strike at this moment. His willpower was much stronger than that of the average person. Furthermore, when he cultivated the Lost Immortal Sutra in the early days, the Lost Immortal Sutra kept chanting incantations into his ears all day, making his mind more resilient.

Under such circumstances, Zhou Wen could persist by sheer willpower alone and use Lost Country's teleportation ability.

Almost at the instant Zhou Wen teleported out, two bodies rushed to where he was.

One figure was naturally the golden bull, and the other figure was Li Xuan, who was wearing his carapace. He had insect wings on his back.

"Holy sh*t, what's going on?" Li Xuan had originally rushed over to save Zhou Wen, but to his surprise, Zhou Wen had vanished. The raging golden bull charged at Li Xuan.

The insect wings on Li Xuan's back flapped as he narrowly avoided the golden bull's horns. He somersaulted and ended up landing on the golden bull's back. He hugged the ox head and cried out, "Old Zhou, I'm in deep shit because of you. Why didn't you run earlier when you could?"

After Zhou Wen teleported into the distance, he used Ghost Steps to widen the distance again. When he heard Li Xuan, he turned his head and saw Li Xuan sprawled on the golden bull, shouting.

The golden bull angrily jumped around, trying to shake Li Xuan off, but Li Xuan seemed to be stuck to its back. It couldn't shake him off.

What was strange was that the golden bull’s bell was useless against him.

“Li Xuan, are you immune to the bull’s bell?” Zhou Wen asked in surprise.

“I just find it a little noisy. Nothing else. I say, quickly think of a way to get me down…” Li Xuan shouted.

“I heard that insects don’t have brains. Could it be that the bell’s strength is really a mental attack? That’s why it’s useless against the brainless Li Xuan?” Zhou Wen muttered to himself.

Of course, Zhou Wen didn’t really think that Li Xuan was brainless, but that his Life Soul was problematic. After all, he had absorbed the Evil King Gu’s Life Soul. It could be said that it was a fusion of two Life Souls. It was indeed stronger than the mental strength of an average person’s Life Soul, so it was very likely the reason it could withstand the bell’s soul-stirring chimes.

“Hold on a little longer. I’ll soon think of a way to resolve the golden bull.” Zhou Wen didn’t immediately rush back when he saw that Li Xuan’s life wasn’t in danger.

It was mainly because it was useless for him to rush back now unless he summoned his Companion Beasts like Truth Listener, Torch Dragon, and Tyrant.

“Bro, can you hurry up? I’m getting a little cowsick…” Li Xuan cried out with a long face. He didn’t dare get off the bull’s back, afraid that he would be killed by it the moment he got off.

Zhou Wen saw that the golden bull was extremely irritated and didn’t chase after him. It wanted to throw Li Xuan down and kill him. Immediately, his heart stirred as he gripped the Golden Overlord Sword tightly and secretly changed his direction.

The Golden Overlord Sword and Bamboo Blade constantly slew the nearby dimensional creatures, reducing them to rivers of blood.

“Li Xuan, agitate it a little,” Zhou Wen shouted.

Li Xuan steeled his mind and reached out his hands to grab the bull’s ears, yanking at them ruthlessly.

The golden bull flew into a rage as it raised its hind legs and twisted its body in midair, hoping to throw Li Xuan off.

Zhou Wen finally saw an opportunity and threw the Golden Overlord Sword like a javelin.

The Golden Overlord Sword transformed into a golden bolt of lightning. At the moment the golden bull raised its hind legs to shake Li Xuan off, the sword pierced through it, slicing something off.

“Ow!” The golden bull’s eyes widened to the limit, but its pupils shrank into needle-like slits. It opened its mouth and let out a strange cry.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 669 - Resentful Chancellor

Chapter 669: Resentful Chancellor

Translator: CKtalon

After being severely injured, the golden bull seemed to lose all its strength. It fell to the ground and let out a tragic cry as though it had lost the ability to resist.

“Get out of the way!” Zhou Wen roared as he cleaved down the Bamboo Blade at the golden bull’s neck.

Li Xuan ducked to the side. The golden bull seemed to be in so much pain that it forgot how to dodge. When Zhou Wen’s Bamboo Blade slashed at its neck, a metallic clang sounded. A long gash appeared on its neck as blood immediately gushed out.

Zhou Wen’s other hand had already grabbed the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed. The golden bull was completely at Zhou Wen’s mercy. It didn’t resist as Zhou Wen’s cleaved through more than half its neck.

“No good. Retreat quickly!” Zhou Wen felt a sense of danger when he saw a strange aura emit from the golden bull. As he shouted, he flew backward.

Li Xuan wasn’t slow either, but before the duo could run far, the golden bull’s body exploded like a nuclear bomb. The terrifying power destroyed everything in a radius of two to three hundred meters.

Zhou Wen and Li Xuan were sent flying by the shockwave. They tumbled far away before stopping. The armor on their bodies was in shambles, and blood stained their backs.

Zhou Wen got up and looked in the direction of the golden bull’s self-detonation. He saw a crystal and a Companion Egg drop on the ground. He couldn’t help but be delighted.

Ignoring the injuries on his body, Zhou Wen quickly rushed towards the crystal and Companion Egg. The golden bull was so awesome that it had dropped two items at once. It was the best.

Furthermore, its bell had a strange power. If he could hatch such a golden bull and make it his pet, it would be quite useful.

However, before Zhou Wen could reach the Companion Egg, he saw a white figure flash past. Then, the golden bull Companion Egg on the ground vanished.

Zhou Wen hurriedly turned his head and saw a white parrot hold the Companion Egg in its claws as it flew through the air. Its speed was shockingly fast, and in an instant, it had already flown to the top of a skyscraper and landed on Leng Zongzheng’s shoulder. The Companion Egg in its claw had landed in Leng Zongzheng’s hand.

Leng Zongzheng held the Companion Egg in his hand as he looked at Zhou Wen with a faint smile. It was as though he was saying: ‘Since you snatched from me once, I’ll snatch from you too.’

What kind of chancellor is this? Is he that petty? Zhou Wen muttered inwardly as he rushed over to pick up the dimensional crystal.

The dimensional crystal was like a golden crystal. Inside was the shadow of a bull. It was clearly an Essence Energy Skill Crystal.

Although he didn’t obtain the Companion Egg, obtaining an Essence Energy Skill Crystal was a form of consolation.

With the death of the golden bull, humanity’s counterattack began. The firepower became more intense. The human Epic experts also used their Companion Beasts to fight, executing dimensional creatures on the spot.

As no new dimensional creatures rushed out, the terrifying dimensional creatures were finally suppressed. All the dimensional creatures that charged out of Dragon Gate Grotto were killed.

Although they had obtained victory, there was very little joy on their faces. Many soldiers and officers had sacrificed themselves, so most wore solemn expressions.

The soldiers began clearing the battlefield. Zhou Wen, Li Xuan, and Feng Qiuyan retreated and returned to their temporary encampment to rest. They still needed to continue delivering the supplies in a while.

Li Xuan’s injuries had already healed, but Zhou Wen couldn’t recover that quickly. Although the wounds on his back weren’t bleeding, they had a burning sensation. All he could do was lie in the tent and rest.

Feng Qiuyan was so tired that he fell asleep the moment he collapsed onto the blanket. He had killed so many dimensional creatures that his stamina and Essence Energy were severely drained.

“It’s already so terrifying with Dragon Gate Grotto suffering a breakout. If all the dimensional zones in Luoyang were to encounter a breakout, it would be unimaginable. There’s no way humans can survive,” Li Xuan said.

Zhou Wen shared the same thoughts. Up to now, the difference between humans and dimensional zones was still huge.

“Old Zhou, do you think another dimensional creature will rush out of Dragon Gate Grotto?” Li Xuan asked again.

“It’s hard to say so, but this matter definitely isn’t over. The giant golden bird on the mountaintop, as well as the monsters in the water, and the skeleton in monk robes in the temple haven’t moved yet,” Zhou Wen said as he used his phone to snap a picture of the Essence Energy Skill Crystal he had just obtained.

Great Might Vajra Bull Crystal: Mythical

Absorption Requirement: Constitution 41, Essence Energy 41, Buddhist Essence Energy Art

Zhou Wen looked at the requirement. Although it didn’t have any special stat requirements, he couldn’t meet the two 41 stat requirements. All he could do was put the Essence Energy Crystal away.

After the battle, Dragon Gate Grotto temporarily calmed down. Without any dimensional creatures rushing out, Zhou Wen and company could rest.

“Young Master Wen, how are your injuries? I’ve brought you some medicine.” An Sheng walked in with a smile, holding a small bottle in his hand.

“There’s no need. I’ve almost recovered. I’ll be fine after some rest.” Zhou Wen was wearing Runic Heavy-Armor during the battle, so his injuries weren’t serious. He just needed some time to recover.

After all, he wasn’t Li Xuan. He didn’t have such potent self-recovery abilities.

“This medicine is good. It’ll heal you quickly once it’s applied. I’ll apply some for you.” An Sheng opened the medicine bottle and dripped the liquid on Zhou Wen’s wound. Zhou Wen immediately felt a refreshing feeling envelop his wound, making him feel much better.

An Sheng applied the medicine evenly on his wound and said, “Today, the three of you were amazing. Many of the men are talking about the three of you. All of you are considered famous now. If any of you wish to enter the Sunset Army in the future, you will definitely be protected by the soldiers.”

Zhou Wen didn’t say a word as Li Xuan said with a smile, “That’s for sure. When I was young, a fortune-teller told me that I had the life of a general. I’ll definitely become a senior official in the future.”

“Third Young Master, if you wish to join the Sunset Army, I guarantee that I’ll leave a good position for you,” An Sheng said.

“We’ll see when the time comes. There are still two to three years before graduation,” Li Xuan said.

An Sheng naturally understood that Li Xuan was only making small talk. The Li family might not be willing to let him enter the Sunset Army.

An Sheng was about to say something when a soldier hurriedly came over and said, “Adjutant An, there’s something happening at Dragon Gate Grotto. Deputy Governor Qin requests your presence.”

“Do you want us to go with you?” Zhou Wen asked.

“There’s no need. All of you can rest. If something really happened, Deputy Governor Qin wouldn’t be so at ease to get someone to invite me over,” An Sheng said as he left Zhou Wen’s tent.

Although Zhou Wen and company didn’t go, they soon learned what had happened. A strange scene appeared in Dragon Gate Grotto’s Alchemy Cave. A black smoke surged out and enveloped the entire entrance of the Alchemy Cave. Furthermore, they could hear the screams of wraiths and resentful ghosts in the black smoke.

However, that was all. No dimensional creatures rushed out.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 670 - Invisible Enemy

Chapter 670: Invisible Enemy

When Zhou Wen was resting, he summoned a few Companion Beasts to guard the inside of the tent. Tai Sui was restlessly emitting a burning sensation, so Zhou Wen had no choice but to release it.

“Old Zhou, where did these strange Companion Beasts come from?” Li Xuan curiously sized up the Companion Beasts Zhou Wen had summoned.

“Some of them were bought. Some were obtained when I was out training,” Zhou Wen said as he lay down to rest.

Feng Qiuyan had already fallen asleep and didn’t chat with Li Xuan. All he could do was lie down and sleep as well.

He slept until midnight when he suddenly heard a commotion outside. He didn’t know what was happening.

“Why is it so noisy in the dead of the night? Could it be that the dimensional creatures in Dragon Gate Grotto have rushed out again?” Li Xuan said gloomily when he was woken up from his beauty sleep.

Zhou Wen and Feng Qiuyan sat up as well. Just as they were about to head out to take a look, they suddenly saw the tent door open. Then, they saw An Sheng barge in. He asked anxiously, “Young Master Wen, are you alright?”

“We’re fine. What can happen to us?” Li Xuan asked An Sheng in puzzlement.

An Sheng carefully sized up the three of them and heaved a long sigh of relief after a long while. “It’s good that you’re fine. Stay here and don’t go out. Something happened outside. After it’s settled, you can leave.”

“What happened?” Zhou Wen asked An Sheng.

“See for yourself.” An Sheng pointed outside.

Zhou Wen and company looked out through the crack and were immediately so shocked that their jaws nearly dropped to the ground.

On the ground, walls, and tents outside, there were all kinds of mushrooms of different colors.

“Holy sh*t, when did this place become a mushroom base?” Li Xuan asked.

“Take a closer look at the soldiers outside,” An Sheng said with a heavy expression.

As An Sheng said that, Zhou Wen noticed that a soldier’s face was covered in what seemed like a pimple breakout. It was filled with many tiny mushrooms.

Although the mushrooms looked pretty, they made one’s hair stand on end when they were sprouting from a person’s face.

The soldier’s face was filled with horror. He was clawing at the mushrooms on his face, but just as he pulled out one, another mushroom would emerge.

He kept pulling them out, leaving his face covered in blood, but the little mushrooms kept popping out. He was so frightened that he was already crying. He was plucking the mushrooms from his face as he cried.

There were many people like him. Although there were already officers controlling the situation, this fear made them lose their usual calm. The scene was very chaotic.

Zhou Wen and company's legs turned limp as they subconsciously touched their faces. Thankfully, there weren't any mushrooms growing on their faces.

"What's going on?" Zhou Wen asked An Sheng.

"I don't know yet. We're investigating. In the entire encampment, only a handful of people haven't been infected with that strange thing. It's probably related to the phenomena at Alchemy Cave. You guys stay here for now. In a while, I might need you to cooperate with me for the investigations. I hope we can find out why some aren't growing mushrooms." An Sheng's expression was solemn as he rushed out.

"It's really a blessing from the heavens that it didn't infect us. Otherwise, I wouldn't know how to live if my handsome face was destroyed," Li Xuan said with lingering fear as he zipped up the tent.

"I don't think it's as simple as heaven's blessing. There must be something that prevented us from being infected by those mushrooms." Zhou Wen looked around and didn't see anything amiss.

There weren't any mushrooms in their tent. The three of them and his few Companion Beasts were fine. Tai Sui was lying near the tent's entrance, doing something there.

Since it was something invisible to the naked eye, Zhou Wen used the Truth Listener earring’s ability to listen. Furthermore, he pushed it to its limits.

Upon hearing his surroundings, he immediately discovered a problem.

At the tent’s entrance, there were many microbial things that humans couldn’t see with the naked eye. They were undergoing random walks in the air.

Those tiny objects were even smaller than dust. If Zhou Wen hadn’t deliberately used Truth Listener to observe them, he wouldn’t have discovered them. Even using Truth Listener’s hearing, Zhou Wen hadn’t noticed them in the beginning.

The reason why he discovered their existence was that Tai Sui was actually devouring those little things. He looked like he was enjoying himself.

Zhou Wen expanded Truth Listener’s range and soon discovered that there were many such tiny objects in the air outside. They were even smaller than dust, so humans couldn’t see them at all. However, when they landed on the skin or something else, they would burrow into their pores and quickly sprout to grow tiny mushrooms.

As they were so small, no one discovered them. The entire encampment was filled with such tiny objects, as though it was snowing.

However, there were very few people who could see them apart from Zhou Wen. All the soldiers were at a loss as danger floated around them.

Zhou Wen reached out and tried grabbing them, but he realized that his palm couldn’t grab them at all. They were too small, so it was useless to grab them. They were like bacteria. Despite knowing that they were there, it was very difficult to eliminate them.

Tai Sui was actually able to discover them and even eat them. It's quite impressive. Zhou Wen saw that Tai Sui had already finished all the tiny objects in the tent. He was eager to head out to eat more.

Zhou Wen realized that the three of them were fine because Tai Sui was here. It had eaten all the little things that had invaded their quarters, preventing them from being infected.

The military had clearly realized the problem as well. Some soldiers in antibacterial suits were spewing chemicals to remove bacteria and fungus from the encampment.

However, it was useless. Those things were clearly not something ordinary chemicals could deal with.

"Don't go out yet. I'll take a look at the entrance," Zhou Wen said to Li Xuan and Feng Qiuyan before opening the tent door.

The moment the door opened, many of those little creatures entered with the gust of wind that entered. Tai Sui immediately jumped around excitedly and devoured the little creatures that humans couldn't see.

Zhou Wen used an Essence Energy Skill, Small Fireball, that dropped from the Metalwork Temple. A scarlet flame ball flew out from his fingertip and hit the invisible things in the air.

The tiny objects were burned to ashes by the flames. They didn't appear very strong, but because they were so tiny, they couldn’t be discovered. That was also why they were so dangerous.

After burning a few tiny objects to death, Zhou Wen suddenly realized in surprise that a tiny Companion Egg dropped. The Companion Egg was even smaller than the tiny objects. If not for Truth Listener’s ability. Zhou Wen wouldn’t have seen it at all.

He took out his phone and snapped a picture of the tiny Companion Egg. It was immediately stored on his phone.

Those little things are really dimensional creatures! After Zhou Wen saw the Companion Egg’s stats, he realized the true origins of the little creatures.

Parasite Spore: Mortal

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 671 - The Weakest Companion Beast in History

Chapter 671: The Weakest Companion Beast in History

Translator: CKtalon

Parasite Spore: Mortal

Strength: 0

Speed: 1

Constitution: 1

Essence Energy: 1

Talent Skill: Parasitizing

Companion Form: None

These stats are so weak, aren't they? Zhou Wen had never seen a Companion Beast with such weak stats. However, although they were very weak, they had their own advantages. Even Epic experts would be in great pain and trouble if they got parasitized by not being careful.

Tai Sui had already rolled out and jumped around excitedly, devouring all the Parasite Spores it could see.

Zhou Wen didn't continue killing the spores. Firstly, there were too many. Ordinary skills couldn't kill them all. Secondly, there were still many soldiers and officers in the encampment, so it wasn't appropriate for him to use large-scale skills to kill the spores.

I can still remove the Parasite Spores outside, but how can I deal with the Parasite Spores that have already parasitized people? Zhou Wen pushed Truth Listener's powers to the limits as he wanted to observe if all the spores were the same.

Soon, Zhou Wen realized that most of the spores were transparent and slightly white. These were identical to the Companion Egg which dropped.

A small portion of the Parasite Spores was light red in color. There were very few of them. Zhou Wen tried killing some of them, but the dimensional crystals that dropped were all at the Legendary stage and their stats were very low.

It was very rare for Mortal spores to drop Companion Eggs. Zhou Wen had killed many, but no Companion Eggs dropped. The Mortal Companion Egg from before could only be attributed to luck.

Zhou Wen walked behind Tai Sui. Wherever Tai Sui passed, the spores dodged it as though they were avoiding the plague. Most of them failed to dodge in time and were swallowed by Tai Sui.

As he walked, Zhou Wen discovered another golden spore but killing it was as simple as the others. A tiny fireball killed the golden spore.

There were extremely few golden spores. Among the countless spores, it was probably a one in a billion existence. Zhou Wen found a few and after killing them, a Companion Egg dropped.

Golden Parasite Spore: Epic

Life Providence: Microbe

Life Soul: Parasitizing Spirit

Strength: 18

Speed: 20

Constitution: 17

Essence Energy: 20

Talent Skill: Parasitizing

Companion Form: None

This Epic Companion Beast has also broken the record for the lower limits of an Epic Companion Beast. I originally imagined that the weakest one would be the baby tiger, but I never expected there to be an Epic Companion Beast weaker than it. Furthermore, it's much weaker. Zhou Wen realized that the spores were indeed weak. They could survive simply because of their microscopic bodies.

Ordinary Legendary humans could easily kill such Epic creatures. The real difficulty wasn't killing them, but how to discover them.

The higher the level of the spores, the smaller their sizes. Even Truth Listener's ability could barely see the Golden Parasite Spore.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen discovered a tiny purple dot floating around. It appeared and disappeared at times. Even with Truth Listener's ability, it nearly failed to detect its existence. It was just too small.

Could it be a Mythical spore? Zhou Wen's heart stirred as he hurriedly got Tai Sui to roll over.

Even the Mythical spore was afraid of the Mortal Tai Sui. Just as it was about to run, it was burned by Zhou Wen's fireball.

However, this time, the purple spore wasn't burned to death. It continued floating far away. Zhou Wen pulled out the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed with a powerful sword beam.

Although it was very small, the sword beam's area was large enough, so it still managed to strike the tiny creature.

To Zhou Wen's surprise, the Golden Sword Aura failed to kill it.

This spore is interesting. Zhou Wen used a few more skills and realized that he couldn't kill the purple spore.

At that moment, Tai Sui had already rolled over. It leaped up and pounced at the purple spore.

The purple spore that couldn't even be killed by weapons trembled as though it had encountered a nemesis. It was sucked up by Tai Sui.

Seeing that the purple spore had been sucked into Tai Sui's body, Zhou Wen couldn't help but sigh. It's true that one object bests another. For a Mortal-stage Tai Sui to be able to restrain a Mythical spore, this guy is quite useful. In the future, with Tai Sui by my side, I won't be afraid of being ambushed by microbial Companion Beasts and dimensional creatures.

"I say, Tai Sui, don't just focus on eating. Did it leave behind any Companion Eggs or dimensional crystals?" Zhou Wen didn't hold much hope as he asked casually.

To his surprise, Tai Sui really understood him. It reluctantly spat out a microscopic purple object.

Even with Truth Listener’s ability, he nearly missed it. After falling to the ground, he searched for quite a while before finding the tiny point.

He hurriedly pulled out his phone and took a picture of the purple point.

Primordial Spore: Mythical

Life Providence: Eternal Immortality

Life Soul: Parasitizing Spirit

Wheel of Destiny: Soul Parasitizing

Strength: 41

Speed: 41

Constitution: 41

Essence Energy: 41

Talent Skill: Parasitizing

Companion Form: None

Without a doubt, this was the weakest Mythical Companion Beast that Zhou Wen had ever seen. There was nothing worse. Its extreme weakness could be seen just by looking at its stats.

However, such Companion Beasts weren’t meant for combat. Their effects might be even more terrifying than combat-type Companion Beasts.

He directly hatched the Primordial Spore and expended very little Essence Energy. It was about the same as the Essence Energy needed for Epic Companion Beasts.

Thankfully, as its owner, Zhou Wen could sense its location. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have known where his tiny Companion Beast was if he only looked at it with his eyes.

After testing it out, he used the Primordial Spore to kill the ordinary spores. Although it was feasible, the combat ability of the Primordial Spore wasn’t high. It wasn’t killing as fast as Zhou Wen’s fireballs, much less competing with Tai Sui’s devouring.

Tai Sui jumped around in the encampment and swallowed countless spores. Its body clearly became bigger, and the spores in the encampment decreased significantly.

Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to search the entire time, hoping to find another Primordial Spore. However, he was somewhat disappointed and didn’t discover a second one.

“Young Master Wen, why did you come out? The situation outside is terrible. You shouldn’t have come out.” An Sheng arrived in front of the clearing. Qin Wufu, Leng Zongzheng, as well as the military’s generals and tutors, were with him.

However, despite there being so many people, other than An Sheng and Leng Zongzheng, there were mushrooms on everyone’s faces. They looked extremely terrifying.

Even Deputy Governor Qin succumbed to it? Zhou Wen saw a golden mushroom on Qin Wufu’s face. It was likely an Epic Golden Spore that parasitized his face.

Although Ah Sheng’s body was covered in spores, the spores didn’t drill into his body for some reason.

Leng Zongzheng didn’t have any spores on him. His body seemed to be protected by an invisible force, preventing the spores from approaching him.

“It’s not difficult to remove the spores in the encampment, but the spores that have already parasitized people require another solution.” Leng Zongzheng looked at the mushrooms in the encampment and summoned his Demonic Organ Throne.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 672 - Tai Sui's Evolution

Chapter 672: Tai Sui’s Evolution

Translator: CKtalon

Leng Zongzheng played the Demonic Organ Throne with his long, slender fingers, immediately producing magical music. It was grand and solemn, imbued with a holy feeling that other musical instruments didn’t possess.

Invisible ripples spread out across the encampment. Zhou Wen was surprised to discover that with the music, the invisible spores were gathering in front of the Demonic Organ Throne like soldiers that had received an order.

The spores were originally barely visible, but due to their numbers, one could gradually see a faint white mist as more and more spores gathered.

The fog became thicker and thicker, and soon, people could see it more clearly.

Originally, Tai Sui couldn’t eat many spores despite bouncing around. Now that the spores had gathered in a region, it became excited. It bounced amidst the white mist formed by the spores. As it consumed a large number of spores, it also grew in size.

The organ music continued as large amounts of spores gathered in a spot. They gradually turned corporeal, like snowflakes.

Finally, the snowflakes gathered together and turned into a white ball that resembled cotton candy.

Tai Sui bounced over and swallowed the cotton candy-like spores in no time. No one knew how many spores it had eaten as the number was already impossible to estimate.

When Zhou Wen vaguely felt that Tai Sui was about to evolve, he hurriedly summoned it back.

Leng Zongzheng didn’t stop Tai Sui from devouring the spores. He only glanced at Zhou Wen before saying to An Sheng, “The mushrooms in the encampment must be burned. They can’t be left behind at all to ensure that there are no latent dangers.”

“Yes, I’ll do it now.” An Sheng received the order and led his men to clear the mushrooms in the encampment.

“Chancellor, the mushrooms in the encampment are easy to deal with. What should we do with the ones on the soldiers?” Qin Wufu asked worriedly.

Leng Zongzheng said, “If these spores hadn’t parasitized a body, it wouldn’t be difficult to remove them. However, once they carried out the parasitization, they became a part of the body. It’s like the flesh and blood of the body. Even if one slices off the flesh, the self-healing ability of the body will regrow it. It’s very difficult to remove it at the root.”

Qin Wufu and company revealed looks of worry when they heard that.

“You, come with me,” Leng Zongzheng suddenly said to Zhou Wen before he left.

It can’t be, right? Don’t tell me Chancellor Leng is such a petty person. Is he going to settle scores for letting Tai Sui eat the spores? Zhou Wen followed Leng Zongzheng to his office in a somewhat depressed manner.

“Take a seat.” Leng Zongzheng’s office was different from the offices of ordinary chancellors. Instead of calling it an office, it was more like a tea room.

“Chancellor Leng, it’s my fault for letting my Companion Beast eat the spores without your permission…” Zhou Wen first admitted his mistake to prevent Leng Zongzheng from lecturing him.

Leng Zongzheng didn’t mention this matter. He sat at the tea table and said as he brewed tea, “Do you hate me for snatching the Companion Egg?”

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, “That was originally your prey. It’s only right for you to take the Companion Egg. Why would I have such thoughts?”

Zhou Wen really meant it. It was Leng Zongzheng who had attacked the thousand-handed, bull-headed creature first. He was trying to scoop up the benefits but ended up being taken advantage of by Leng Zongzheng. There was nothing to be said. He could only blame himself for not being fast enough.

Upon hearing Zhou Wen’s words, Leng Zongzheng smiled and placed a cup of brewed tea in front of him. Then, he continued, “Do you know the origins of that golden bull?”

Zhou Wen only knew that the bull was called the Great Might Vajra Bull. As for its origins, he really didn’t know anything. All he could do was shake his head.

“The golden bull’s former thousand-handed form is an imitation of Great Might Virtue Vajra. Great Might Virtue Vajra was a guardian Vajra of Tantric Buddhism. It was able to subdue evil demons, so it was known as having great might. It had the virtues of defending the good, so it was also known as having great virtue. There are also titles such as Yamāntaka, Vajrabhairava, and Bull-Headed Wisdom King. Previously, Tibetans believed that the Great Might Virtue Vajra was the wrath of Bodhisattva Mañjuśrī, so it had great might and terrifying power," Leng Zongzheng said as he put down his teacup.

"Does that mean that the golden bull is the true body of the mighty Great Might Virtue Vajra?" Zhou Wen said in surprise. He never expected the golden bull to have such a huge background.

However, Leng Zongzheng said with a smile, "If it was the real Great Might Virtue Vajra, it wouldn't have been so easy for you to kill it. At most, it can only be considered an embodiment."

Zhou Wen thought to himself, It's no wonder that the golden bull is called the Great Might Vajra Bull. So it's related to the Great Might Virtue Vajra. However, why is Principal Leng telling me this?

As though he had seen through Zhou Wen's thoughts, Leng Zongzheng took out an item from the drawer beside him and placed it on the table. It was the Great Might Vajra Bull Companion Egg.

However, the Great Might Vajra Bull Companion Egg was somewhat different from before. There were thin lines drawn on it. They crisscrossed and looked like a more popular magic circle in the West District, but there were some symbols that looked like something from Tantric Buddhism that emitted strange energy fluctuations.

"I've already dealt with this Companion Egg. Even at the Epic stage, you will be able to incubate it. Do you want it?" Leng Zongzheng said with a faint smile.

“Will you believe me if I say I don’t, Chancellor?” Zhou Wen asked.

Leng Zongzheng laughed. “Since you want it, take it.”

“Really?” Zhou Wen felt that there was no free lunch in this world. How could anyone be so kind? They had paid such a huge price to deal with the Mythical Companion Egg only to give it to him.

Leng Zongzheng said, “I’m afraid there’s no way to resolve the problems in Dragon Gate Grotto from outside. In the end, we can only enter. That’s a Buddhist land. When the time comes, this Companion Egg will definitely be of great use. Perhaps it can save lives, so those who have it have to enter Dragon Gate Grotto. You contributed to its birth, so you are the first person I’m asking. If you are going, just hatch it. If you aren’t going, I hope you can leave it to others.”

Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant when he heard that. He naturally wanted the Great Might Vajra Bull, but Dragon Gate Grotto was extremely dangerous. If he entered it during this period of time, something ominous would definitely happen.

Leng Zongzheng didn’t hurry him, nor did he say a word. All he did was drink his tea and wait for Zhou Wen’s decision.

“If I don’t go, will you use this Companion Egg?” Zhou Wen asked after some thought.

Leng Zongzheng shook his head. “I have other things to do. I don’t have the time to control it.”

“Then who do you plan on getting?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“If you don’t want it, the next candidate should be Tianzuo. I believe he won’t reject it,” Leng Zongzheng said.

“Alright, I’ll go.” Although Zhou Wen had some guesses, he couldn’t help but feel a little moved when he heard that An Tianzuo might obtain the Companion Egg. After some thought, he agreed to enter Dragon Gate Grotto.

“Take the Companion Egg and hatch it as soon as possible. The opportunity to enter Dragon Gate Grotto should be in the next few days,” Leng Zongzheng said with a smile.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 673 - Clearing the Parasite Spores

Chapter 673: Clearing the Parasite Spores

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen returned to his dorm with the Great Might Vajra Bull Companion Egg. He originally considered entering Dragon Gate Grotto, but when he saw Feng Qiuyan in the tent, he was shocked.

He saw two mushrooms growing on Feng Qiuyan's face.

"Why are there mushrooms on your face?" Zhou Wen asked in puzzlement.

Before he left, he had already gotten Tai Sui to clean up the spores in the tent. After sealing the tent, there shouldn't have been any problems.

Feng Qiuyan said with a smile, "I'm fine. I was just curious. I unzipped the tent and wanted to take a look at the situation outside, but who knew that I would succumb to it? However, it's not a big deal. There should be a way to resolve it."

"In your dreams. The military experts and tutors are studying the Parasite Spores, but they still haven't found a way to eliminate the mushrooms. Do you know that many soldiers have fainted because of the mushrooms? They might be like vegetative humans that won't wake up again." Zhou Wen was somewhat anxious.

"Then what should we do? I originally imagined that Brother Sheng was fine when he came. We just wanted to see the situation outside and didn't even go out. I originally imagined that nothing would happen, but I never expected Little Yanyan to fall victim," Li Xuan said gloomily.

"You're fine?" Zhou Wen sized up Li Xuan. Feng Qiuyan had fallen victim. Logically speaking, with the numerous spores, it was impossible for only two to float in. It was odd that Li Xuan hadn't succumbed to it.

"It should be because I'm wearing my carapace. I don't have any mushrooms growing on me," Li Xuan said.

"That's very likely." Zhou Wen nodded slightly.

"It's fine. With so many tutors and military experts researching day and night, it's only a matter of time before they can come up with a treatment," Feng Qiuyan ended up consoling them.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and said to Feng Qiuyan, "I have something that could work, but it's not guaranteed to be effective. It might end up completely useless. Do you want to give it a try?"

Feng Qiuyan didn't ask Zhou Wen what method he had and said, "Coach, feel free to try. It's best if it works. It's fine if it's useless."

Zhou Wen didn't stand on ceremony as he summoned Doctor Darkness. Then, he got Doctor Darkness to use Fight Poison With Poison to inject some poison into the mushrooms.

The mushrooms quickly withered and fell off automatically.

Zhou Wen and Li Xuan waited for a while longer. Seeing that there weren't any mushrooms growing on the wound on Feng Qiuyan's face, they were overjoyed.

…

An Tianzuo had arrived at Leng Zongzheng’s office. He was brewing tea for Leng Zongzheng while An Sheng stood silently to the side.

“Teacher, isn’t it a little too hasty for you to give Zhou Wen the Great Might Vajra Bull Companion Egg?” An Tianzuo held the teacup with both hands and said.

Leng Zongzheng said with a smile, “I’ve already seen some of his abilities. He should be able to control the Great Might Vajra Bull.”

“Teacher, you think too highly of him. Although he does have some talent and is quite lucky to have obtained some Mythical Companion Beasts, he’s still a student after all. His experience and mental state aren’t mature enough. He hasn’t experienced much, so I’m afraid he won’t be able to deal with sudden and unknown crises. Instead, he will be a burden on us,” An Tianzuo said.

“I remember that when you were his age, you had already led the Sunset Army to battle everywhere. You engaged in a slaughter in many dimensional zones, right? In that case, he’s not young anymore,” Leng Zongzheng said as he sipped his tea.

“How can that be the same? I was trained from a young age. I’ve experienced countless life-and-death situations, but he hasn’t experienced any setbacks. Relying on him for this matter is unreliable. Why don’t you reconsider?” An Tianzuo said.

Leng Zongzheng smiled at An Tianzuo and said, “Are you afraid that he won’t do well, or are you afraid that he will be in danger?”

“Of course I’m afraid that he screws up and implicates us,” An Tianzuo immediately answered.

“So that’s how it is. Then, it’s fine. Even if he can’t help much, it’s not a problem for him to control the Great Might Vajra Bull. As for whether he will die in there or not, it doesn’t matter since you aren’t concerned,” Leng Zongzheng said with his eyes narrowed as he sipped his tea.

“Teacher, you should have heard that the empress dowager in my family dotes on him very much. If he were to die inside, I wouldn’t mind, but I’m afraid that the person back home wouldn’t agree to it. When that happens, not only will I have a headache, but you will also have a headache, right?” An Tianzuo said.

“So that’s how it is.” Leng Zongzheng looked enlightened as he took a sip of tea and said, “However, I think Zhou Wen has quite a lot of combat experience. His adaptability isn’t bad either, and he has quite a number of Companion Beasts. With the Great Might Vajra Bull’s protection, there shouldn’t be much of a problem.”

An Tianzuo was about to say something when a soldier reported, “Overseer, there’s news from the research institute. The problem of the Parasite Spores has been resolved.”

An Tianzuo was overjoyed when he heard that. He got up and asked, “Excellent, that’s great. Which expert or tutor came up with the solution?”

Although the Parasite Spores were very weak, the effects they brought gave even An Tianzuo a headache. If they weren’t resolved in time, the Sunset Army and the college would suffer a heavy blow.

The soldier answered, “According to the news we received, a student’s Companion Beast can restrain the Parasite Spores. The unconscious soldiers who he helped have already woken up. The mushrooms automatically peel off and stop growing. Currently, the student is clearing out the Parasite Spores on the soldiers and tutors.”

“Student?” An Tianzuo frowned slightly.

Leng Zongzheng smiled and asked, “What’s the student’s name?”

“His name is Zhou Wen. He was the one who rushed into the dimensional creature horde yesterday to kill the golden bull,” the soldier immediately answered.

Leng Zongzheng turned his head to look at An Tianzuo and said, “What did I say? This Zhou Wen is still alright. He resolved a problem that so many people couldn’t. If you say he’s unsuitable, who else is more suitable?”

…

Zhou Wen used Doctor Darkness to remove the Parasite Spores on everyone. Doctor Darkness’s Fight Poison With Poison was indeed useful. As long as he injected it into the spores, the spores would quickly die and there wouldn’t be a relapse.

“Little Wen, well done.” Qin Wufu was the last to receive Zhou Wen’s treatment. He patted Zhou Wen’s shoulder and said, “Think about it again. Join me after graduation. You can name any conditions you want.”

“It’s still a long time before graduation. I haven’t considered these matters,” Zhou Wen said.

“It’s about time to consider it carefully. The situation in the various parts of the Federation isn’t too good right now. I wonder how many more years we can last,” Qin Wufu said with a sigh.

After busying himself for more than a day, he finally removed all the spores that had parasitized people. When Zhou Wen returned to the tent, he originally wanted to take out the Great Might Vajra Companion Egg and hatch it.

However, he realized that Tai Sui had completed its evolution. He hurriedly summoned it to see what changes it had.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 674 - Clashing Tai Sui

Chapter 674: Clashing Tai Sui

Tai Sui was still fair and tender. From its size, it had slimmed down from what it had eaten previously and returned to its original appearance. It looked no different from when it was at the Mortal stage. Zhou Wen had no choice but to look at its information.

Tai Sui: Epic (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Clashing Tai Sui

Life Soul: Twelve Tai Sui Gods

Strength: 41

Speed: 41

Constitution: 41

Essence Energy: 41

Talent Skill: Earth Escape

Companion Form: Mimicry

After Zhou Wen finished reading the stats, his expression turned odd. People in the East District probably knew about the words ‘Clashing Tai Sui’. It meant that one was in for some unlucky times.

As for the Twelve Tai Sui Gods, Zhou Wen had never heard of them. He carefully looked at the information on the Life

Providence and Life Soul.

Clashing Tai Sui: One’s characteristic clashes with Tai Sui

Twelve Tai Sui Gods: Zodiac Twelve Tai Sui Gods

Although he didn’t understand it clearly, Zhou Wen already felt that it was definitely not some lucky Life Providence. What good could come from having a characteristic clash with Tai Sui?

If I had known this would happen, I might not have let it evolve! Zhou Wen was somewhat speechless as he hurriedly put Tai Sui away. He was afraid that he would be in trouble if he were to clash with it. He might be in trouble in the blink of an eye.

Zhou Wen was momentarily at a loss as to how to deal with Tai Sui. He really couldn’t bear to part with it by fusing it with something else. This was an existence that could advance to the Mythical stage in the future. What was even rarer was that this fellow was extremely effective against microscopic dimensional creatures.

When it was at the Mortal stage, it could kill the Mythical Primordial Spore. It was probably difficult to find another Companion Beast like that.

Let’s wait and see. If it really brings bad luck, I’ll think of a way to deal with it. After some thought, Zhou Wen decided to keep it for now.

After putting away Tai Sui, Zhou Wen carefully sized up the Great Might Vajra Bull Companion Egg. There were many mysterious magic circles and incantations on it. Furthermore, the magic circles and incantations emitted intense Essence Energy fluctuations. Clearly, someone had used a strange power to inject Essence Energy into the magic circle and incantations.

With the Essence Energy that was stored ahead of time, the difficulty of incubating it would decrease greatly. To be able to do something that amazing, it probably wasn't done by the typical Epic stage expert.

Zhou Wen studied it for a long time, but he couldn't figure out how the magic circles and incantations were produced. It was as though they had already entered deep into the Companion Egg.

Such an ingenious method is like a precious treasure to an ordinary Epic, but it's useless for me. Even without the pre-injected Essence Energy, I can still incubate a Mythical Companion Egg. Zhou Wen tried injecting his Essence Energy to incubate the Great Might Vajra Bull.

The Essence Energy didn't enter the Companion Egg directly. Instead, it circulated along the magic formation and incantations before entering the Companion Egg. Apart from the supplementary stored Essence Energy, it also slowed down the Essence Energy absorption speed of the Mythical Companion Egg.

The entire process was very smooth. Even an ordinary Epic could incubate it with the help of the magic circles and incantations.

I wonder if this technique is easy to learn. If I can learn it, it will be a good way to earn money. Many people will definitely be willing to pay to incubate high-level Companion Beasts. Zhou Wen thought.

Zhou Wen didn't know that using this method was extremely difficult. There weren't more than ten people in the entire Federation who could use such techniques. Furthermore, to carve the magic formation and incantations on it required expending a large number of precious resources.

Unless it was a Mythical Companion Egg, it wasn’t worth spending such a huge price on the hatching of a typical Companion Egg.

Back when An Sheng hatched Love Letter, he couldn’t bear to use this method. Instead, he found a dimensional zone with abundant Essence Energy and used the special Essence Energy environment, along with some Essence Energy Crystals and mystical techniques to incubate it.

Great Might Vajra Bull: Mythical

Life Providence: Extreme Might, Extreme Strength

Life Soul: Bull-Headed Wisdom King

Wheel of Destiny: Soul Suppression Bell

Strength: 80

Speed: 78

Constitution: 80

Essence Energy: 80

Talent Skill: Great Might Divine Horns, Fury of Thunder, Infallible Vajra, Buddha Flames.

Companion Form: Mount

Its skills and attributes were very strong, and it had four skills. They looked pretty good. It had all the abilities it should have. The golden bell was the Great Might Vajra Bull’s Wheel of Destiny, which was also the skill that Zhou Wen valued the most.

However, what’s with it being a mount? This was the first time Zhou Wen had seen one. He imagined that a Companion Beast in companion form would be a mount—no different from the typical Companion Beast form.

I’ll give it a try. Let’s see how different this mount is from simply riding it. Zhou Wen took out his phone and entered the game dungeon before summoning the Great Might Vajra Bull.

Soon, Zhou Wen realized that the Great Might Vajra Bull in its mount form was indeed different. When Zhou Wen rode the Six-Winged, he needed to command it.

However, the Great Might Vajra Bull in its mount form didn’t need Zhou Wen’s commanding. It was as though it had become Zhou Wen’s limb. It could move according to his wishes. The only difference was that the Great Might Vajra Bull didn’t grow on him.

Professional mounts are indeed different. Zhou Wen finally understood what the ancients meant by human and horse as one.

Now, his riding skills—human and bull as one—was pretty good. At the very least, it was much more comfortable than riding Six-Winged.

If there was any weakness of the Great Might Vajra Bull to point out, it would be its inability to fly. It was indeed extremely powerful on the ground, but it couldn’t fly or go into water.

However, it doesn't matter. In any case, the skill I need the most is the Great Might Vajra Bull's Soul Suppression Bell. The other skills are secondary. Zhou Wen took the Great Might Vajra Bull to the Qiongqi temple. The moment Qiongqi appeared, the Great Might Vajra Bull used the Soul Suppression Bell, causing Qiongqi to feel dizzy.

Zhou Wen's Golden Overlord Sword cleaved down, severely injuring Qiongqi with his sword. Following that, it was a one-sided slaughter. Soon, Qiongqi fell under his sword.

Awesome. That's what a real man is. A cowboy! Zhou Wen felt extremely delighted. Killing monsters in such a manner was much easier than charging forward on his own.

Since he had nothing to do, Zhou Wen summoned the Primordial Spore to see how useful it was.

As the stats of the Primordial Spore were too poor, Zhou Wen didn't dare use it against Mythical creatures. Instead, he went to the bat cave to test it out.

The Primordial Spore slowly floated towards the ceiling of the cave. The poisonous bats hanging upside down didn't realize the impending danger.

They didn't have the ability to discover a tiny existence like the Primordial Spore, so they had no idea that the danger was near them.

The Primordial Spore landed on the head of a Poison Bat. The Poison Bat didn't even realize its existence as the Primordial Spore vanished in the blink of an eye.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that the Primordial Spore would grow a tiny mushroom over the Poison Bat's head like ordinary spores, but nothing like that happened. The Poison

Bat suddenly opened its eyes, but the look in its eyes turned odd as it flapped its wings and moved towards Zhou Wen.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 675 - Soul Parasitizing

Chapter 675: Soul Parasitizing

Could it be… Zhou Wen was delighted when he saw the Poison Bat fly over.

Indeed, the Poison Bat flew in front of Zhou Wen and circled him. Zhou Wen could sense the thoughts of Primordial Spore in the Poison Bat's brain.

With a thought, Zhou Wen issued an order to Primordial Spore. The Poison Bat flew up according to Zhou Wen's orders before charging at the group of Poison Bats and engaging the other Poison Bats in battle.

The other Poison Bats were still somewhat puzzled, unsure what had happened. A few of them had been killed by the Poison Bat controlled by Primordial Spore before it was killed by the other Poison Bats.

After the Poison Bat died, the Primordial Spore floated out and slowly returned to Zhou Wen's side.

Zhou Wen was alarmed when he saw this, but he was pleasantly surprised. Is this Soul Parasitizing? This fellow can actually control other dimensional creatures through parasitizing. Then, can it control Mythical creatures?

Zhou Wen couldn't wait to give it a try. He went to the Torch Dragon temple, hoping to see if he could get Primordial Spore to control Torch Dragon.

Unfortunately, Torch Dragon had great eyesight. It immediately discovered the Primordial Spore and didn't give it a chance. It directly used the Bright Torch Vision World and sucked Primordial Spore into the Vision World.

From the looks of it, it's still a little difficult to parasitize Torch Dragon. I'll try someone with poorer eyesight. Zhou Wen went to the Metalwork Temple to see if he could parasitize the Golden Battle God Halberd, but it didn't have any effect.

The Primordial Spore was unable to penetrate Golden Battle God Halberd's body. Although it was not killed by Golden Battle God Halberd, it failed to parasitize it successfully.

From the looks of it, Primordial Spore can only parasitize animals or plant-type dimensional creatures. Zhou Wen's heart stirred as he took it to the underground sea to test it out with the nine black dragons.

Primordial Spore successfully entered a black dragon's body, but the black dragon was clearly formidable. Primordial Spore was unable to control it given the short period of time. It only rooted itself in the black dragon's head, and it was unknown when it would completely gain control.

From the feedback from Primordial Spore, it was not a matter of a few days.

Primordial Spore's powers are pretty good, but it takes too long to control Mythical creatures. It's not very useful in-game. Zhou Wen had to respawn dungeons every day, so it was impossible for him to use Primordial Spore to slowly parasitize creatures.

Although it's not very useful in-game, if I can get Primordial Spore to parasitize a powerful dimensional creature in real life, wouldn’t I have an extremely powerful fighter… Who should I parasitize? There are already many terrifying dimensional creatures in Dragon Gate Grotto. Why don’t I find an opportunity here… Zhou Wen thought to himself as he planned how to use Primordial Spore to maximize his benefits.

…

Over the next few days, many strange dimensional creatures rushed out of Dragon Gate Grotto. Although many dimensional creatures were ferocious, the damage they caused wasn’t as great as the Parasite Spores.

Sometimes, powerful dimensional creatures were not as terrifying as the weak spores.

As Zhou Wen had treated almost every soldier and officer, the soldiers and officers were very respectful to him when he delivered the supplies.

Li Xuan and Feng Qiuyan had also gained the respect of the soldiers and officers because of their achievements in the previous battle.

Although the dimensional creatures that rushed out of Dragon Gate Grotto were destroyed, the situation didn’t improve. The golden robes of the skeleton in the mountain temple became even more resplendent. Even in the dark night, it illuminated the entire Dragon Gate Grotto.

The river beside Dragon Gate Grotto hadn’t been peaceful for the past few days. The temperature of the river was extremely high. In the beginning, it only emitted white steam, but it had begun boiling over the past two days.

The fish and shrimps inside died and floated to the surface of the river.

No one dared to fish up the shrimps. In the end, they fell apart from the river's boiling and sank.

"What's the origins of the monk-robed skeleton in the mountain seal? Do you think the anomaly in Dragon Gate Grotto is because of the monk-robed skeleton?" After Li Xuan and Zhou Wen finished transporting the supplies, they stood by the river's defense line and looked at Dragon Gate Grotto. All they could see was golden light enveloping it. And the source of the golden light was the monk-robed skeleton.

"That's possible." Zhou Wen also felt that it was possible.

However, up to now, no one could clearly tell the source of Dragon Gate Grotto's anomaly.

Leng Zongzheng hadn't looked for Zhou Wen since his private conversation with him. Therefore Zhou Wen wasn't kept abreast of the situation.

There was one thing that Zhou Wen was more concerned about. For so many days, the giant golden bird that had lived above Dragon Gate Grotto hadn't revealed itself. It was unknown what it was waiting for.

Boom! Boom!

As the two of them were watching Dragon Gate Grotto, a terrifying sound suddenly came from the other side of the river bank. The ground seemed to quake with the sound.

The river also produced ripples due to the shock. The ripples pushed forward ripple by ripple before finally creating a wave.

Zhou Wen and Li Xuan looked in the direction of the sound. Under the moonlight, they saw a gigantic white elephant walking along the river bank. It was likely heading to Dragon Gate Grotto based on the direction it was traveling.

“What a huge white elephant. Where did this fellow come from?” Li Xuan asked in surprise.

The white elephant was indeed massive. An ordinary elephant probably didn’t even reach its knees. Not only was its body huge, but it also emitted a strange glow as though it was bathed in holy light.

Its pair of tusks were pure and white as if they were made of jade.

The gigantic white elephant walked over step by step. Every step it took made a huge print in the ground, causing the ground to tremble. The houses in the encampment seemed to sway with every step.

The white elephant was clearly not a dimensional creature from Dragon Gate Grotto. It walked to the opposite side of Dragon Gate Grotto and directly entered the river. It looked like it wanted to cross the river and enter Dragon Gate Grotto.

The river was boiling and the temperature was extremely high. However, the white elephant didn’t seem to notice it. The moment it stepped in, the river overflowed.

Leng Zongzheng, An Tianzuo, Qin Wufu, and company had already come out. They were also watching the white elephant.

The soldiers guarding the front line couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief when they saw that the white elephant wasn’t heading towards the encampment. The pressure the white elephant gave them was just too strong.

The elephant parted the river’s water; its might left one shuddering.

Just as the elephant was about to reach the center of the river, a hook-like black claw suddenly reached out from the river.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 676 - Monk-Robed Skeleton

Chapter 676: Monk-Robed Skeleton

The white elephant didn’t seem to notice the black claw as it continued walking forward. However, when the black claw touched its body, white smoke emitted.

As if charcoal had encountered water, the black claw retreated back into the river.

The huge white elephant continued walking towards Dragon Gate Grotto as though nothing had happened. It was as though it only had one goal in its eyes.

The black claw never appeared again even when the white elephant stepped onto the river bank.

When it tore out of the water and got ashore, the water droplets on his body automatically slid off, leaving nothing behind.

Zhou Wen and company watched helplessly as the white elephant walked towards Dragon Gate Grotto and headed for the mountain temple.

Li Xuan looked at where An Tianzuo and company were. Seeing that they were only standing high above and watching without giving any orders, he turned back to look at the white elephant.

The white elephant walked on the mountain rocks. Wherever the giant foot passed, the rocks cracked, leaving behind huge footprints.

The dimensional creatures in Dragon Gate Grotto didn’t dare approach the white elephant. All of them hid in the cave and trembled, not daring to walk out of the cave.

The huge white elephant walked all the way to the temple before stopping to look at the monk-robed skeleton that emitted a resplendent golden light. It raised its trunk and let out an elephant’s trumpet.

“Not good! Quickly cover your ears!” Zhou Wen shouted at Li Xuan.

However, it was already a little too late. Everyone felt a thunderclap in their ears, causing their minds to buzz. The soldiers with weaker cultivation levels fell to the ground. Even Epic officers saw stars.

“Help… Help me up… Why do I feel like I’m in front of gold ingots…” Li Xuan seemed drunk as his body swayed violently.

Zhou Wen was fine as he hurriedly held him up.

After a while, Li Xuan, the Epic officers, and tutors came to their senses. As for the soldiers, they were still lying on the ground, unable to stand up as though they were drunk.

When Zhou Wen looked at the temple, he saw that the white elephant had already stepped into it.

The moment it stepped into the temple, the golden light on the monk-clothed skeleton suddenly flared up brightly like the sun. The golden light shone on the white elephant’s body, causing it to falter.

The white elephant paused for a moment, but it quickly walked towards the monk-robed skeleton again. Under the suppression of the terrifying golden light, it found it extremely difficult to take a step forward.

However, it had no intention of giving up. It continued walking towards the monk-robed skeleton. The closer it was to the skeleton, the slower its speed became.

When it was only a few steps away from the skeleton, it took each step like it was carrying a mountain.

Finally, the white elephant walked in front of the monk-robed skeleton. Just as Zhou Wen was guessing what it was about to do, it raised its trunk and swept it at the monk-robed skeleton as though it was a huge pillar that emitted terrifying holy light.

“It wants to destroy the monk’s remains?” Li Xuan said in surprise.

Just as he said that, the white elephant’s trunk slammed into the monk-robed skeleton. However, the monk-robed skeleton wasn’t smashed to bits. It continued sitting there cross-legged.

It suddenly raised its bony hand and grabbed the white elephant’s trunk.

In the next moment, everyone saw an unbelievable scene. With a wave of the skeleton’s hand, the gigantic elephant’s body was easily thrown away.

Under Zhou Wen and company’s horrified gazes, the massive elephant fell into the river beneath Dragon Gate Grotto.

Boom!

Water splashed up hundreds of feet high as the huge elephant’s body smashed into the river, creating a huge crater at the bottom. Instantly, the water level around the river bank increased drastically, almost reaching the encampment.

“That monk-robed skeleton is alive? Did he throw the terrifying elephant flying with one hand? What kind of crazy strength is that?” Li Xuan exclaimed.

Zhou Wen was alarmed and uncertain. It could fling such a massive and powerful white elephant easily. Such immense strength was probably something only Tyrant Behemoth could achieve when it used Absolute Strength.

However, no matter how Zhou Wen looked at it, the monk-robed skeleton didn’t look like it had powers like Absolute Strength.

What’s his background? Why is the white elephant attacking him? Zhou Wen sized up the monk-robed skeleton in surprise.

The skeleton was crystalline and it emitted an intense golden glow, like a Buddha’s golden body.

Although the monk robe was tattered, it couldn’t conceal the Buddhist light.

He sat in a lotus position with a stone door behind him. There were no words or patterns on the door, and behind it was an extremely simple squarish stone house.

The stone house was less than two meters tall, and the stone door was even shorter. The monk-robed skeleton was sitting in front of the door which was only twenty to thirty centimeters taller than him. A normal adult would probably have to bend to enter.

Could it be that there's something strange in the stone house behind the monk-robed skeleton? Zhou Wen was guessing when he heard a tumultuous sound.

Turning his head, he saw the white elephant fighting a similarly gigantic black creature in the river. As the river water churned, Zhou Wen finally saw what the black object was.

"What a huge turtle! Such a huge turtle must have lived for hundreds of thousands of years. Killing it to make a stew will definitely be nutritious," Li Xuan exclaimed with widened eyes.

The black creature was actually a huge turtle. It was pitch-black and its shell was like black iron. Its body wasn't much smaller than the white elephant.

It fought the white elephant in the river and bit its neck, refusing to let go. The white elephant couldn't shake it off no matter how hard it tried. Its holy flesh and blood couldn't defend it from the turtle's teeth. Blood gushed out from the bite, dyeing the river red.

Terrifying power constantly erupted from the elephant's body, but it couldn't do anything to the huge turtle. The turtle's shell was just too hard. Even with the elephant's strength, it couldn't smash it open.

The holy light on the white elephant's body grew dimmer. Just as the huge turtle was about to kill it in the river, a bird's cry suddenly resounded.

A golden light descended from the sky. It was the giant golden bird.

It tore through the air like a bolt of lightning as its pair of talons grabbed at the tortoise’s turtle shell. It managed to penetrate the black iron-like turtle shell. The pain made the turtle release its grip.

However, the golden bird didn’t stop. It flapped its wings and lifted the huge turtle high into the sky. It brandished its sharp claws and tore it to pieces in the blink of an eye. Blood splattered across the sky.

The people in the encampment were dumbfounded. The golden bird was so ferocious that it left them terrified.

This giant bird’s strength is probably comparable to Tyrant Behemoth! Zhou Wen was also alarmed. Only now did he realize how impressive Leng Zongzheng’s feat of getting the giant golden bird to retreat was.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 677 - The Tragic Death of a Mythical

Chapter 677: The Tragic Death of a Mythical

The turtle shell was extremely hard, but it couldn’t withstand the golden bird’s sharp claws at all. In a moment, it was torn to pieces. The golden bird then ate it in midair, killing it in the blink of an eye.

How horrid. To think I actually fought it before. It’s really lucky that I didn’t die. Zhou Wen was secretly alarmed. Back then, he wasn’t as strong as he was now.

Of course, that wasn’t a real battle. The golden bird’s target wasn’t him, or Zhou Wen wouldn’t have been able to escape so easily.

When the huge turtle was killed by the golden bird, the white elephant finally crawled out of the river. The wounds on its body rapidly healed.

The strength of the huge white elephant was originally above the huge turtle’s, but it had been thrown out by the monk-clothed skeleton, rendering it completely defenseless. This produced an opening for the huge turtle to take advantage of the situation.

The golden bird tore and ate up the turtle, but it had no intention of touching the elephant. It flapped its wings and shot straight into the clouds like a bolt of golden lightning, disappearing behind the mountain peak.

After the wounds on the elephant’s body healed, it charged towards the monk-robed skeleton in the temple again. Its holy light surged crazily, but it was barely able to reach the skeleton.

As it had been severely injured, it didn’t even have the ability to attack the monk-robed skeleton.

After persisting for a long period of time, the strength of the elephant slowly dwindled from the clash with the golden light. Finally, it couldn’t withstand the impact of the golden light as its massive body appeared to be struck by rapids. It rolled down Dragon Gate Grotto and fell into the river, triggering a huge wave.

“That monk-robed skeleton is really too powerful,” Li Xuan exclaimed.

“Did you see the object that the skeleton seems to be holding in its hand?” Zhou Wen had been observing the skeleton.

He had managed to throw the white elephant away with one hand, but his other hand never moved. It had always been covered by the monk robes.

Zhou Wen saw that there seemed to be an abnormal bulge. Unfortunately, Truth Listener’s ability was affected by the golden light. He couldn’t tell what was happening around the monk-robed skeleton, or he would have known if there was anything in his hand.

Li Xuan used his Life Soul’s insect eyes to look, but he only saw something vague. He couldn’t tell what it was either.

“Do you think the white elephant is so desperate for the item in his hand?” Li Xuan guessed.

“I’m not sure yet. Let’s wait and see.” Zhou Wen saw the white elephant crawl out again as it panted by the riverside. However, it was unwilling to give up. After resting for a while, it charged towards the monk-robed skeleton for the third time.

Li Xuan said to Zhou Wen, “If the elephant falls again, it will have even weaker stamina. I wonder if we can take advantage of it?”

“I’m just afraid that the golden bird and the white elephant are in cahoots. You’ve seen the outcome of that huge turtle. If you aren’t afraid of death, give it a try.” Zhou Wen definitely wouldn’t give it a try.

He wouldn’t even try it with his pets. After all, each of his Mythical pets had been obtained with great difficulty. Every one of them was obtained through blood and tears. Every death made his heart ache.

“That makes sense. That golden bird is too terrifying. It’s probably an existence that can match Primordial Sword Immortal and Tyrant Behemoth. From its abilities, it seems to be focused on speed and offensive strength. Could it be the legendary Golden-Winged Roc?” Li Xuan guessed.

“That’s very likely.” Zhou Wen also felt that the golden bird resembled the legendary Golden-Winged Roc.

As the two of them spoke, the white elephant rushed into the temple again and trudged towards the monk-robed skeleton.

This time, the white elephant was different from before. Its tusks lit up like two bright lamps. It resisted the golden light, making it rush towards the monk-robed skeleton in a seemingly easier manner than the first two times.

However, Zhou Wen realized that the elephant’s tusks were constantly burning. Its strength seemed to be exchanged from burning the tusks.

Finally, the huge white elephant charged in front of the monk-robed skeleton with the brilliance produced by burning the tusks. It lowered its head and used its burning tusks to slam into the monk-robed skeleton.

Before the tusks reached the monk, the force produced by thrust blew at the monk robes.

Zhou Wen had been paying constant attention to the monk-robed skeleton. When the monk robe fluttered, he saw that the other skeleton hand was placed above his thigh bone.

In that hand was a golden crystal that was about the size of a chicken egg. It looked slightly oval.

The moment the crystal appeared, it immediately emitted a golden glow that illuminated the entire mountain temple. Nothing could be seen.

Even with Zhou Wen and Li Xuan’s eyesight, they couldn’t see anything.

After a while, the golden light vanished. When everyone saw the scene inside the temple again, they widened their eyes in horror.

The white elephant was still in front of the monk-robed skeleton. It hadn’t been thrown down this time, but its flesh and organs had completely vanished. All that was left was a skeleton standing in front of the monk-robed skeleton, maintaining the posture of lowering its head to strike. It was the last scene Zhou Wen and company had seen.

A gust of wind blew and the huge skeleton suddenly scattered like flour. It landed on the ground and covered the entire mountain temple.

Everyone felt a chill run down their spines as they broke out in cold sweat.

In the middle of the afternoon, everyone felt their bodies turn cold.

“What was that bead just now?” Li Xuan stared at the monk-robed skeleton in the temple. The monk robe fell again, covering the bead. They couldn’t see anything anymore.

“I don’t know, but there’s a Companion Egg on the ground,” Zhou Wen said as he pointed towards the temple.

In the pile of bone powder, there was a white Companion Egg. It was about half as tall as a person. It was clearly left behind by the white elephant after its death.

“The white elephant’s Companion Egg is good stuff, but who would dare enter to take it?” Although Li Xuan’s self-healing ability was very strong, he wasn’t so foolhardy to believe that he could withstand the terrifying golden light.

Zhou Wen had some ideas. Although the elephant wasn’t a top-notch Mythical creature, it was still a Mythical creature.

I wonder if I can send an Epic Companion Beast in and get it out? Just as Zhou Wen had this thought, someone had already done so.

Among the Epic experts sent by the local major families in Luoyang, an Epic expert summoned an Epic immortal crane. It flew into the temple, hoping to get the Companion Egg out.

However, just as the immortal crane flew into the mountain temple, its body came into contact with the golden light emitted by the monk-robed skeleton. It immediately disintegrated and died.

Everyone was alarmed. Only then did they realize that not anyone could enter the mountain temple. The white elephant could travel against the golden light in the mountain temple, but that didn’t mean they could do the same.

“Thankfully, I didn’t enter.” Li Xuan broke out into a cold sweat. He had really wanted to rush into the temple to retrieve the white elephant’s Companion Egg.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 678 - Determining Its Attributes

Chapter 678: Determining Its Attributes

No one dared to act rashly. They just watched.

Everyone wanted the white elephant Companion Egg, but no one dared to send a Companion Beast into the mountain temple. The death of the Epic immortal crane was truly shocking.

Although Zhou Wen felt that his Mythical Companion Beast was likely capable of withstanding the golden light emitted by the monk-robed skeleton, he was afraid that the golden light from the crystal would erupt again. When that happened, even a Mythical might not be able to withstand it. To sacrifice a Mythical Companion Beast for a Mythical Companion Egg, with the possibility of not getting it back made it too risky.

An Tianzuo and Leng Zongzheng didn’t let their Companion Beasts enter the mountain temple. Clearly, they had the same qualms.

Two Mythical creatures had died. No one dared to enter the temple to grab the Companion Eggs. There were no new changes in Dragon Gate Grotto.

Qin Wufu had already ordered the troops to disperse and rest. The soldiers and officers returned to their respective positions. As for the Epic experts from the noble families, they sized up the Companion Egg unwillingly and tried to think of ways to get it out.

In the end, they lost several Epic Companion Beasts and failed to enter the mountain temple.

Zhou Wen ultimately held back his urges and didn't let his Mythical Companion Beast enter. Before figuring out the origins of the monk-clothed skeleton and the crystal, taking risks meant death.

"Young Master Wen, Chancellor Leng wants to see you," An Sheng said as Zhou Wen was loading the supplies.

Zhou Wen put down his work and followed An Sheng to Leng Zongzheng's office.

When Zhou Wen arrived, he realized that An Tianzuo and Qin Wufu were there. Zhou Wen pretended not to see An Tianzuo and only greeted Chancellor Leng and Qin Wufu.

"Little Zhou, come and have a seat." Qin Wufu warmly invited Zhou Wen to take a seat.

Only then did Leng Zongzheng say, "You all saw what happened in the mountain temple. What are your thoughts?"

Qin Wufu said, "Chancellor, do you think the golden crystal in the skeleton's hand is the legendary Relic?"

"There's a possibility, but Relics are Buddhist treasures. Logically speaking, they shouldn't have such destructive force," said Leng Zongzheng.

An Tianzuo thought for a moment and said, "I do have an idea. Perhaps that monk-robed skeleton isn't a dimensional creature from Dragon Gate Grotto.”

“Go into the detail.” Leng Zongzheng gestured for An Tianzuo to continue.

An Tianzuo continued, “When we saw him sitting cross-legged in his monk robes, we thought he was a dimensional creature from Dragon Gate Grotto. However, the power he used, including the crystal, looks different from the Buddhist-type creatures I’ve seen before.”

“That’s right.” Leng Zongzheng nodded calmly.

An Tianzuo added, “From my point of view, he’s the same as the white elephant and the golden bird. They are all eyeing the things inside Dragon Gate Grotto’s mountain temple. However, he entered rather early, so he occupied the spot. The white elephant’s target isn’t him, but the stone house behind him. In conclusion, the thing that caused Dragon Gate Grotto to mutate might very well be inside that stone house.”

“Tianzuo’s guess coincides with mine. The golden-winged bird and the monk-robed skeleton are top Mythical creatures. If we want to achieve anything, I’m afraid we won’t be able to avoid competing with them. We need to make early preparations.” After Leng Zongzheng said that, he looked at Zhou Wen and said, “When the time comes, you can enter the mountain temple with us. You have to be prepared to fight the golden-winged bird and the monk-robed skeleton. If you have any worries, tell me ahead of time.”

“Yes, I’ll prepare well,” Zhou Wen answered.

Leng Zongzheng nodded and continued, “Let’s say that the monk-robed skeleton isn’t a dimensional creature from Dragon Gate Grotto, nor is he a Buddhist-tye creature. Which type do you think it is?”

Qin Wufu pondered and said, “I’ve seen quite a number of dimensional creatures over the years, but this is the first time I’ve seen such power.”

Seeing Leng Zongzheng look at him, An Tianzuo shook his head and said, “I’ve never seen it before.”

Seeing that everyone was unsure of the skeleton’s strength, Leng Zongzheng said, “Since that’s the case, let’s start from judging the skeleton’s Strength stat.”

Zhou Wen listened to their discussion from the side and didn’t say a word. After all, he was still too young. The dimensional zones and dimensional creatures he had come into contact with were limited. His experience couldn’t compare to the few people present, so all he could do was listen to their discussion. It would also broaden his knowledge.

Leng Zongzheng and company planned on using the most primitive and most effective method to probe what kind of dimensional creature the monk-robed skeleton was.

The method was very simple. It was to use the principle of attribute strengths and weaknesses. They would send Companion Beasts of similar strength but of different types into the mountain temple.

Then, they could observe the reactions after being attacked by the golden light in the mountain temple. If they were strong or weak against it, they would definitely have different reactions. They might die quickly or last a little longer.

By using these minute differences, one could roughly deduce the monk-clothed skeleton’s type.

Of course, this method had a premise. Among the Companion Beasts used for testing, there had to be existences that were strong or weak against the monk-robed skeleton or they would be useless.

After the discussion ended, An Sheng was in charge of the probe. Zhou Wen didn’t receive any assigned missions as he continued his preparations.

The test didn’t go smoothly. An Sheng used nineteen different Legendary Companion Beasts to test, but he didn’t find anything abnormal.

Finally, he felt that it was likely that a Legendary Companion Beast was too weak. Even if it was strong or weak against it, it was difficult to show it. They had to use Epic Companion Beasts in the second round of testing.

The results of the second round of tests were the same. Despite sacrificing more than ten Epic Companion Beasts, they still failed to figure out the attributes of the monk-robed skeleton.

The only thing they could confirm was that the monk-robed skeleton wasn’t a Buddhist-type.

Zhou Wen kept thinking about how he could safely get the white elephant Companion Egg out, so he was also studying the attributes of the monk-robed skeleton.

Unfortunately, there wasn’t an anomaly in Dragon Gate Grotto in-game, nor was there a mountain temple or monk-robed skeleton. There was no way to test it in-game.

After some thought, Zhou Wen had an idea.

Primordial Spore’s Life Providence was Eternal Immortality. Although its stats weren’t high, it wasn’t easy to kill it.

Even the Golden Overlord Sword’s golden sword beam, which had the augmentation of Ever-Victorious and Unstoppable, couldn’t kill Primordial Spore. This showed how powerful the Eternal Immortality Life Providence was.

At present, Zhou Wen only knew that there were two types of skills that could directly kill Primordial Spore—Bright Torch Vision World and Tai Sui’s innate talent.

Therefore, Zhou Wen thought of letting Primordial Spore enter the temple to give it a try. Perhaps he might discover something.

Having made up his mind, Zhou Wen didn’t hesitate any further. He released Primordial Spore and allowed it to float slowly towards the mountain temple.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 679 - It's Here for Me

Chapter 679: It’s Here for Me

Primordial Spore slowly floated over the river and headed for the mountain temple.

Although there were many Fairies and Mallas wandering around, none of them noticed the existence of Primordial Spore.

Zhou Wen realized that using Primordial Spore to scout the way was extremely effective. Few dimensional creatures could discover its existence.

Primordial Spore made its way to the temple without any obstructions. However, the moment Primordial Spore entered the temple, something went wrong.

Although Primordial Spore wasn’t killed by the golden light that enveloped the entire mountain temple, its body emitted a blinding light when it clashed with the golden light. It was like a firefly’s glow.

Although the light wasn’t eye-catching, it made Primordial Spore lose the advantage of being virtually invisible.

Primordial Spore flew through the golden light and soon arrived beside the white elephant Companion Egg. As it had the Eternal Immortality Life Providence, it wasn’t killed by the golden light.

Having been exposed, it was too risky to let Primordial Spore fly towards the monk-robed skeleton. Under such circumstances, Zhou Wen wasn’t greedy. He got Primordial Spore to land on the white elephant’s Companion Egg before getting it to push the Companion Egg. He wanted to see if he could push the Companion Egg out of the temple.

Primordial Spore’s Strength was very weak, but that was when compared to other Mythical creatures. At the very least, it had 41 Strength. It was more than enough to push the white elephant’s Companion Egg.

Now, Zhou Wen was only a little worried. He didn’t know if the monk-robed skeleton would interfere.

Zhou Wen constantly observed the monk-robed skeleton’s movements. As long as he made any abnormal movements, Zhou Wen would immediately get Primordial Spore to escape and leave the Companion Egg behind.

However, the monk-robed skeleton didn’t react. Primordial Spore stuck to the white elephant Companion Egg, pushing it and making it slowly roll out of the temple.

The soldiers monitoring the mountain temple discovered the phenomenon of the white elephant Companion Egg and immediately reported it to their superiors. Soon, An Tianzuo, Qin Wufu, and company came out. Indeed, they saw the white elephant Companion Egg roll out of the mountain temple.

“What’s going on? Why is the Companion Egg rolling out?” Qin Wufu said in surprise as he held a pair of binoculars.

This was because after leaving the mountain temple, Primordial Spore no longer produced any light from resisting the golden light. Qin Wufu and company couldn’t see Primordial Spore at all.

An Tianzuo was also somewhat puzzled as he ordered the soldiers, “Be on high alert to prevent any incidents.”

After issuing the order, An Tianzuo carefully observed the Companion Egg, but he couldn’t figure it out. It was as though the Companion Egg had gained sentience and was rolling down the mountain.

The tutors and Epic experts from the rich and powerful families were also attracted over. Although they all wanted the white elephant Companion Egg, they found it odd to see it roll out. No one dared to snatch it.

“It’s coming… It’s coming to the encampment…” Someone realized that after the Companion Egg rolled down, it jumped into the river and leisurely crossed the river. It then rolled up to the river bank and rolled towards the encampment.

“Everyone, be careful…” A group of soldiers, tutors, and Epic experts were all waiting solemnly. They stared at the Companion Egg as though they were facing a great enemy. An Tianzuo and Leng Zongzheng were also staring at it.

Zhou Wen only wanted to get the Companion Egg out, having never expected to cause such a grand lineup. It didn’t seem right to take the Companion Egg in front of everyone.

Zhou Wen was still hesitating about what to do when the Companion Egg rolled to the encampment. The soldiers aimed their guns at it, as though they would shoot at it with everything they had once the order was given.

The Epic experts had also summoned their Companion Beasts. It looked like they were preparing for battle.

“That… I’m sorry… It’s fine, it’s fine… Don’t worry… It’s here for me…” Zhou Wen had no choice but to bite the bullet and walk out. He raised his hands and waved at the soldiers, gesturing for them not to shoot.

Everyone was taken aback when they heard him say that. An Tianzuo’s expression was even stranger.

“What do you mean it’s here to look for you?” An Tianzuo and company found it odd. A Companion Egg came down from the mountain temple to find Zhou Wen?

Could it be that it had rested in the temple for too long and wanted to come down the mountain to chat with Zhou Wen? Wasn’t that ridiculous?

Everyone stared at Zhou Wen with odd expressions. The soldiers didn’t lower their guns. The Epic experts’ Companion Beasts were still staring at the Companion Egg. Clearly, they couldn’t believe Zhou Wen’s words.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to bite the bullet and wave at the Companion Egg. He said, “It’s fine. I’ll take it now. Everyone, you may return to your work.”

Everyone was alarmed when they saw the Companion Egg roll towards Zhou Wen.

Could it be that something like a Companion Egg would find someone they knew? Many people had mixed expressions.

Zhou Wen carried the Companion Egg and walked back. At that moment, An Tianzuo waved his hand, gesturing for the soldiers to return to their positions before they lowered their guns.

“From the looks of it, Young Master Wen has quite good social relations. Even a Companion Egg delivers itself to him,” An Sheng said with a smile.

An Tianzuo said with a cold expression, “It’s just a lowly trick.”

With that said, he ignored everyone and returned to his office.

“This Little Zhou is getting more and more interesting.” Leng Zongzheng looked at Zhou Wen with a smile before turning to leave.

The news of Companion Eggs coming down the mountain to chat with Zhou Wen immediately spread in the encampment. The more it spread, the crazier it became.

“You might not know about this. It was a cold, windy day. Countless heroes used all kinds of Companion Beasts, but none of them were able to extract the Companion Egg from the mountain temple. It could be said that there were countless deaths and injuries. However, who would have expected that the Companion Egg of the huge white elephant couldn’t withstand the loneliness in the middle of the dark, windy night? It went down the mountain to chat with Young Master Zhou… Speaking of Young Master Zhou, he’s no ordinary person. At Chess Mountain’s encampment, he is known as Doctor Little Zhou. He healed the strange ailment of the Chess Mountain. Now, at Dragon Gate Grotto’s encampment, he showed his might and wiped out the mushroom monsters that left many helpless…” A soldier, who had seen Zhou Wen while being stationed at Chess Mountain, explained to his colleagues who had missed the development because they were resting.

“Do you know why Young Master Zhou Wen has so many magical abilities? To be honest, my third uncle’s niece’s second aunt’s cousin-in-law is the gardener of the An family. According to his reliable sources, Young Master Wen is Madam Lan’s son, the Overseer’s younger brother. If you ask me why Young Master Wen’s surname is Zhou and not An, then we will have to talk about a tragic past. You might not believe it, but the Overseer and Young Master Wen are twins. Back when Madam Lan was giving birth, a great enemy attacked. After Madam Lan gave birth to the Overseer and Young Master Wen, Young Master Wen was snatched away by the bad guys…”

Ordinary soldiers didn’t know about the An family and the Zhou family. However, when they heard that Zhou Wen was Madam Lan’s son, and after making some additional associations, the rumors became crazier and crazier.

When the rumors reached An Tianzuo’s ears, the corners of his eyes twitched for a long time, but he remained silent.

An Sheng didn’t dare say a word as he stood at the side with a solemn expression. His face was taut, but for some reason, he looked very uncomfortable.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 680 - An Opportunity

Chapter 680: An Opportunity

“Old Zhou, how did you do it?” Li Xuan widened his eyes as he looked at the Companion Egg that Zhou Wen had carried back.

Feng Qiuyan had also seen the Companion Egg come down the mountain to look for Zhou Wen. After some thought, he came to a realization. “Coach, you must be proficient in the language of eggs. You can communicate with the Companion Egg, right?”

Zhou Wen was instantly rendered speechless. All he could do was explain, “I used a microscopic Companion Beast to push the Companion Egg down. I know nothing about egg language.”

“I see.” Li Xuan and Feng Qiuyan were immediately enlightened.

Zhou Wen took some time to look at the stats of the huge white elephant’s Companion Egg and realized that its stats were rather good.

White Elephant: Mythical

Life Providence: Guardian Elephant

Life Soul: Holy Tusks

Wheel of Destiny: Holy Guardian

Strength: 80

Speed: 72

Constitution: 79

Essence Energy: 80

Talent Skill: Saint Energy Augmentation, Heaven Pillar Strike, Holy Impact

Companion Form: Mount

Another mount? Zhou Wen was immediately depressed. He only had one butt, so how could he ride two Companion Beasts at the same time?

After some thought, Zhou Wen didn't store White Elephant into his phone, nor did he hatch it.

White Elephant and Great Might Vajra Bull were considered Companion Beasts of the same type. Furthermore, its stats couldn't compare to the Great Might Vajra Bull. Even if he hatched it, it wouldn't be of much use to Zhou Wen.

As for using it as an ordinary Companion Beast, Zhou Wen felt that it wasn't necessary. Now that he had the ability to grind Mythical Companion Eggs, there would definitely be many Mythical Companion Beasts with such stats in the future. Furthermore, he couldn't take those Mythical Companion Eggs out for sale.

Why don't I sell this White Elephant Companion Egg or exchange it for something? It's useless to me anyway. Zhou Wen thought for a moment and realized that selling it didn't seem appropriate.

Mythical Companion Beasts were rare. There were probably only about a hundred of them in the entire Federation. They were no longer things that money could measure.

Furthermore, it was useless for Zhou Wen to have so much money. He was not at all materialistic.

“Old Zhou, your luck is too good. How old are you, and you’ve already obtained another Mythical Companion Beast. I reckon the old fellows from the six families don’t have as many Mythical Companion Beasts as you,” Li Xuan said enviously.

“If you want it, you can buy it,” Zhou Wen said.

“For real?” Li Xuan was slightly taken aback. He never expected Zhou Wen to say that.

“Of course it’s true. I’m short of money. You can’t cheat me on the price.” Zhou Wen felt that letting Li Xuan have a Mythical Companion Beast wasn’t a bad idea.

“I appreciate the thought, but I can’t take this Companion Egg. I want my first Mythical Companion Egg to be something I killed myself,” Li Xuan said seriously.

“Qiuyan, what about you? Are you interested?” Zhou Wen asked Feng Qiuyan again.

“The white elephant doesn’t suit me.” Feng Qiuyan was even more direct.

Zhou Wen was depressed. He wanted to give the Companion Egg away, but no one wanted it.

“Since you aren’t interested, I’ll get An Sheng to help me sell it,” Zhou Wen said as he called An Sheng.

“Young Master Wen, is there something urgent? If not, I’ll come over to you after I’m done with my matters,” An Sheng carefully said as he glanced at the sullen An Tianzuo.

“It’s nothing serious. It’s just the White Elephant Companion Egg. I want to sell it. Help me see if anyone wants it,” Zhou Wen said.

An Sheng was immediately alarmed when he heard that. “Young Master Wen, you want to sell the White Elephant Companion Egg? Why are you doing this? If there’s a problem with the incubation, we can help you.”

“No, I just feel that it’s useless. It’s a waste having it with me. I want to exchange it for something useful,” Zhou Wen said.

An Sheng was immediately rendered speechless. Zhou Wen was the only one who claimed that Mythical Companion Beasts were useless.

However, on second thought, it made sense. Zhou Wen had too many Mythical Companion Beasts. Furthermore, with terrifying existences like Torch Dragon and Tyrant Behemoth, a White Elephant was nothing to him.

“Young Master Wen, wait for me. I’ll come to you. Let’s talk in person,” An Sheng said before hanging up.

“Overseer, Young Master Wen wants to sell the White Elephant Companion Egg,” An Sheng said to An Tianzuo.

An Sheng had said it loudly just now, so An Tianzuo had naturally heard it. He said with a deadpan expression, “Foolish. He’s beginning to become arrogant just because he has some wealth. Since he wants to sell it, buy it. Give him whatever he wants. Don’t miss a single cent.”

“Young Master Wen isn’t a greedy person. He might say that he wants to sell it, but he just wants to give it to us,” An Sheng explained on Zhou Wen’s behalf.

“There’s no sincerity at all. Is this how a gift is given to someone? Furthermore, even if it’s a gift, it’s for you. I have nothing to do with him, nor will I take his things. Therefore, it should be you, not us. Be more precise with your words in the future. As my adjutant, you aren’t even precise with your words. What kind of adjutant are you?” An Tianzuo waved his hand and said, “Don’t bother me. Go back to work.”

An Sheng had no choice but to leave the office and head to Zhou Wen.

“Young Master Wen, what do you want to exchange it for?” An Sheng asked as he looked at the White Elephant Companion Egg.

“I want five million,” Zhou Wen said.

“That’s nothing. Mythical Companion Eggs are worth far more than that,” Zhou Wen said.

“As for the rest, I want some rather special Epic Essence Energy Skill Crystals,” Zhou Wen said after some thought. His offensive means were still too uniform. He wanted to try and see if he could develop a divine offensive skill.

“Be specific,” An Sheng said.

“It’s best if it’s an attack skill with special effects. It’s best if it’s a palm technique.” Zhou Wen had always wanted to advance his Ashen Palm, but he had no suitable direction.

“How about this? I don’t think you’ve thought it through. I’ll give you a catalog later for you to choose,” An Sheng said.

“Alright, that’s settled then. Take the Companion Egg away.” Zhou Wen was rather satisfied with the deal.

An Sheng didn’t stand on ceremony as he took the White Elephant Companion Egg back and quickly returned with a catalog for Zhou Wen. There were many Epic Essence Energy Skill Crystals listed on it.

However, the catalog only had the names of Essence Energy Skill Crystals. He didn’t know what kind of skills they were.

“You probably can’t tell what kind of Essence Energy Skills they are just by their names. What you can choose is probably the attributes. It’s best if you choose an Essence Energy Skill Crystal that matches your Essence Energy Art,” An Sheng suggested.

Zhou Wen read for a while, unsure what Essence Energy Skill he should choose.

He had dropped quite a number of Essence Energy Skill Crystals and had learned quite a number of skills, but there were very few that he could usually use.

“Young Master Wen, if you can’t make up your mind, I have a suggestion,” An Sheng said.

“What’s the suggestion?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Rather than exchanging the egg for Essence Energy Skill Crystals, why don’t you exchange it for a chance?” An Sheng said with a serious expression.

“What chance?” Zhou Wen looked at An Sheng in puzzlement.

“Previously, I entered a mysterious dimensional zone with the Overseer…” An Sheng explained.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 681 - Treasure Chest in a Maze

Chapter 681: Treasure Chest in a Maze

According to An Sheng, he and An Tianzuo had accidentally fallen into a mysterious dimensional zone. It was like a maze. Furthermore, there were many treasure chests in the maze. Opening the treasure chest could give them Companion Eggs, dimensional crystals, or strange objects. It was also possible not to receive anything.

An Tianzuo's first Mythical Companion Egg was obtained from there. However, one person could only open three treasure chests in the maze.

An Sheng's luck wasn't too good. He opened three treasure chests, but he didn't obtain any Mythical Companion Eggs. However, it wasn't as though he didn't get anything.

In the maze, An Sheng obtained a mysterious pill from a treasure chest. After using it, his physique underwent some changes. In the past, An Sheng had told Zhou Wen that he was especially sensitive to Spirit Bodies. It was thanks to the mysterious pill.

"In this era, there's really nothing out of the ordinary. To think that there's actually such a good place. There are countless strange dimensional zones around the world. I wonder how many people have obtained fortuitous encounters. The fortuitous encounters of wuxia novels in the past are too common in this era," Zhou Wen said wistfully.

However, Zhou Wen had a slight advantage. Other people's fortuitous encounters were life-threatening. As for him, all he needed to do was download the dungeon and slowly encounter them. He was bound to encounter one.

Other people's fortuitous encounters could be deemed as Heaven selecting them, but the mysterious phone made Heaven's selection inevitable.

"The world is changing, and humans are changing as well. It's the same for the Federation. However, no matter how the world changes, there's one thing that won't change," An Sheng said.

"What?" Zhou Wen really couldn't think of anything in this world that wouldn't change.

"The winner is king," An Sheng said seriously.

Zhou Wen was taken aback. This didn't sound like An Sheng's style. He imagined that An Sheng would say something about family.

An Sheng smiled and said, "Let's talk about the maze. The maze itself changes automatically. To walk out of it, one needs to understand the Book of Changes and Chinese divination. Last time, we found a total of twelve treasure chests when Overseer took me through the maze. We opened six and left the remaining six for Madam and Miss Jing. However, in the maze, one needs the strength of an Epic to survive. Miss Jing hasn't had the chance to go. Madam has been investigating Mr. Ouyang's matter, so she hasn't had the time to go either. Now, she's investigating Chu He. I reckon she won't be going. Why not use the White Elephant to exchange for a chance to enter and try your luck?"

“Since this is Sis Lan’s chance, it’s not nice of me to exchange for it, right?” Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant.

“There’s nothing wrong with it. The treasure chests have at best Mythical Companion Eggs. If you’re unlucky, there might be nothing. It’s very reasonable for you to exchange a Mythical Companion Egg for an opportunity. Besides, if Madam isn’t going, having you take this opportunity is better than letting others benefit,” An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen thought that it made sense. Since Sis Lan wasn’t going, it was fair for him to use the White Elephant Companion Egg to exchange for this opportunity.

“Alright.” Zhou Wen nodded slightly.

“After the matter at Dragon Gate Grotto is resolved, I’ll take you there. That place isn’t in Luoyang. Besides, before you go, you have to remember the maze’s possible path changes. I’ll give you the map of the maze later,” An Sheng said with a smile.

After An Sheng left, Zhou Wen continued grinding dungeons.

He got nothing from entering Dragon Gate Grotto and grinding the baby tiger. Zhou Wen was already numb with disappointment.

Why doesn’t the dungeon in-game change as well? If the game dungeons can intrinsically change, I can try cracking the golden light’s secret in-game, Zhou Wen thought greedily.

Ding!

When Zhou Wen was grinding the Endless Sea of Stars, an Essence Energy Skill Crystal dropped. On careful look, it was the Neck Gold Dragon Essence Energy Skill he had been looking forward to.

It finally dropped! Zhou Wen was overjoyed. He had been grinding for many days. He had already obtained quite a number of the other six palaces of the Azure Dragon's seven palaces, but only the Neck Gold Dragon eluded him. He had finally fulfilled his wish today.

After impatiently absorbing the Essence Energy Skill Crystal, Zhou Wen felt another nail-like Essence Energy acupoint appear on his body. When the Essence Energy acupoint formed, the other six Essence Energy acupoints that were like dead acupoints suddenly came to life. They formed an Essence Energy circulation between the seven Essence Energy acupoints.

Horn, neck, root, room, heart, tail, winnowing basket. The seven palaces were identical to the shape of a dragon. The horn was the horn of a dragon, and the neck was a dragon's neck. Root was the stem of the neck. Room corresponded to the arms, the heart was the heart, and the winnowing basket was the tail.

Essence Energy flowed through the seven Essence Energy points like an Azure Dragon. Zhou Wen could even hear the Azure Dragon's long roar.

Zhou Wen looked at his stats in-game and realized that the seven Essence Energy Skills had vanished, turning into an Essence Energy Skill.

Eastern Azure Dragon Seven Lunar Mansions (Mortal): Horn Wood Scaly Dragon, Neck Gold Dragon, Root Earth Raccoon

Dog, Room Solar Rabbit, Heart Lunar Fox, Tail Fire Tiger, and Winnowing-basket Water Leopard.

Zhou Wen saw that the Essence Energy Skill was still at the Mortal stage, having not leveled up just because of the fusion of seven skills. However, the Essence Energy Skills that he couldn't use previously could now be used.

He attempted to use the skill of the Azure Dragon's Seven Lunar Mansions in-game. The Essence Energy in his body surged and transformed into an invisible force that coiled around his body, protecting him.

This feels a little similar to the Lotus Flower Buddha Body's functions. They are all protective Essence Energy Skills, but they seem much weaker than the Lotus Flower Buddha Body. Zhou Wen couldn't help but be in a dilemma. He hadn't used the Lotus Flower Buddha Body for a long time because it wasn't strong enough.

Now, the Eastern Azure Dragon's Seven Lunar Mansions was only at the Mortal stage, so the effects were even weaker.

When Zhou Wen used it, he realized that the Azure Dragon Seven Nights could transform into the seven different forms —Heart Lunar Fox, Room Solar Rabbit, and so on. But he didn't notice anything special.

After grinding for so long, it's only a protective Essence Energy Skill? Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss. With an Essence Energy Skill named after the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions and one that was so difficult to grind, it shouldn't be so weak.

Should I try gathering the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions Essence Energy Skill and give it a try? Zhou Wen wasn't willing to give up. He decided to grind the other Lunar Mansion skills if he had the time.

However, Zhou Wen didn't plan on deliberately grinding them any further. It was just that he would farm them if he saw them during his search for Astral Combat Beasts. It was best if he could gather all of them but it was not necessary.

He controlled the blood-colored avatar to constantly search for Astral Combat Beasts in the endless sea of stars. After heading to other stellar zones, he indeed obtained other Lunar Mansion skills.

After grinding for some time, Zhou Wen realized the pattern.

In the four Lunar Mansion regions of north, south, east, and west, every Lunar Mansion region had one Essence Energy Skill that was especially difficult to obtain. Furthermore, one couldn't use it unless one gathered all seven Essence Energy Skills.

Azure Dragon, Vermilion Bird, White Tiger, and Black Tortoise are in the four Lunar Mansion zones. I wonder what effects they will have if I gather all of them. It was only a passing thought for Zhou Wen; he didn't deliberately complete the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 682 - Stone House

Chapter 682: Stone House

While Zhou Wen and company were busy guarding Dragon Gate Grotto, another Companion Beast challenged Primordial Sword Immortal. It was a Companion Beast named Heavy-Armored Titan.

Heavy-Armored Titan and Tyrant Behemoth were considered Companion Beasts of the same type. They had powerful physiques and formidable strength and had especially terrifying defenses.

Heavy-Armored Titan's entire body was enveloped by heavy armor. When it used the power of the Wheel of Destiny, almost no one could break its heavy armor.

Primordial Sword Immortal wasn't able to slice apart the heavy armor of the Titan. However, Primordial Immortal Sword's intelligence was much higher than Heavy-Armored Titan. Furthermore, its speed was very fast, so it didn't clash head-on with Heavy-Armored Titan that had activated its Wheel of Destiny. Once its Wheel of Destiny ended, it was completely defeated by Primordial Sword Immortal. It still couldn't force Primordial Sword Immortal into using its Wheel of Destiny.

Zhou Wen also watched the video of the battle later. Heavy-Armored Titan and Tyrant Behemoth were indeed similar, but it wasn't as agile as Tyrant Behemoth. The Wheel of Destiny was purely a defensive force, unlike Tyrant Behemoth's Absolute Strength that was offensive.

I wonder if Tyrant Behemoth's Absolute Strength will be able to produce a suction force on Primordial Sword Immortal. If I can suck it and force it to fight head-on, Tyrant Behemoth will have a chance of winning. If I can't, Tyrant Behemoth will face an awkward situation like Heavy-Armored Titan, Zhou Wen thought to himself and felt that the chances of Tyrant Behemoth defeating Primordial Sword Immortal were relatively low.

It wasn't that his strength wasn't enough, but that his intelligence was too low. He wasn't at an advantage even with his formidable strength.

There's not much time left of the three-month deadline. No one can force out Primordial Sword Immortal's Wheel of Destiny. I'm afraid it won't be easy to vie for first place, Zhou Wen thought for a moment. Unless he got Torch Dragon to use Bright Torch Vision World, it would be difficult to snatch first place.

Why am I thinking so much? Who knows if the problem with Dragon Gate Grotto can be resolved before the three-month deadline. Perhaps I don't have the time to participate in the battle. It's useless no matter how much I think about it. Zhou Wen had to stop thinking about it. He would grind dungeons when he had the time, but most of the time, he needed to help the Sunset Army fight the dimensional creatures that had rushed out of Dragon Gate Grotto. In fact, he didn't even have much time to grind dungeons.

Large numbers of dimensional creatures rushed out of Dragon Gate Grotto every day, but most of the time, no Mythical creatures appeared. They were dispatched by Chancellor Leng the few times they did appear. However, no Mythical Companion Egg dropped. Instead, a Mythical Essence Energy Skill Crystal dropped.

“It’s gone… The monk-robed skeleton is gone…” A soldier monitoring Dragon Gate Grotto discovered something strange. The monk-robed skeleton had vanished.

As for the stone house’s door, it opened, revealing pure white light from inside.

Just as everyone was feeling bewildered, the golden bird tore through the air and flew into the stone house.

It was huge, and the stone house was short and small. The door was even shorter, but when the golden bird flew in front of the stone house, its body gradually shrank to almost the size of a pigeon as it flew in.

Leng Zongzheng got Zhou Wen to join him before deciding that Leng Zongzheng, An Sheng, and Zhou Wen should enter the stone house to investigate.

An Tianzuo still had to guard Luoyang, so he couldn’t easily take the risk.

This was especially so now. Mythical creatures could rush out of Dragon Gate Grotto at any time and someone was needed to guard it. Otherwise, if they all entered, no one would be able to suppress the Mythical creatures that appeared. When that happened, Luoyang would be doomed.

“Although we can’t determine the attributes of the monk-robed skeleton, we can only take things one step at a time now. After entering the stone house, safety first. If you discover anything amiss, you have to leave immediately,” Leng Zongzheng exhorted Zhou Wen and An Sheng.

The two of them expressed their understanding before Leng Zongzheng led them to the stone house.

An Tianzuo watched them go up the mountain, but he didn’t say a word.

Leng Zongzheng summoned a tiny beast to scout ahead. Without the monk-robed skeleton, the golden light in the mountain temple no longer existed. There was no danger.

The three of them successfully entered the mountain temple and arrived in front of the stone house.

Zhou Wen constantly tried observing the situation inside the stone house, but be it his vision or Truth Listener’s ability, neither of them could penetrate the white light inside.

“Follow behind me. If anything happens, retreat immediately. Don’t hesitate,” Leng Zongzheng exhorted again.

Zhou Wen took out the Substitute Talisman and stuck it on his body. At the same time, he switched his Essence Energy Art to Dao Body. He had Gods Retreat Life Soul on standby.

Unfortunately, the door was too small. If he summoned Six-Winged, it wouldn’t be able to enter. Therefore, Zhou Wen temporarily didn’t summon Six-Winged. He planned on summoning it immediately after entering.

Leng Zongzheng had already gotten the little beast to enter the stone house. After confirming that there was no danger of death, he led Zhou Wen and An Sheng into the stone house.

Zhou Wen walked in and entered the white light. He found it very strange as though he was walking in water, but the white light was something he couldn’t touch.

Due to the white light, Zhou Wen couldn’t see anything. However, this feeling didn’t last long. After taking three steps, the white light in front of him vanished as his eyes regained clarity.

However, the scene in front of him left Zhou Wen alarmed.

The scene in front of him wasn’t a stone house. In front of him was a mysterious kingdom. The architectural style was very strange. The towers, buildings, monuments, and rooftops all had various Buddha statues.

What was even more surprising was that this nation was made of gold bricks. All the buildings and statues were made of gold. They looked resplendent and dazzling.

All sorts of mysterious Buddha statues dazzled the eyes. Zhou Wen had never seen many of them before, and they didn’t match the style of Dragon Gate Grotto.

In the center of the Buddhist kingdom, there was a huge golden Buddha statue that was more than ten thousand feet tall. From afar, the Buddha statue’s body tore through the clouds. Its eyes were lowered as though it was looking down at everything.

Zhou Wen looked at the Buddha statue’s shape and realized that it resembled the Lochana Buddha. According to what Zhou Wen knew, Lochana Buddha was a Buddha who had obtained the Buddha Fruit of Absolute Truth. He was a symbol of wisdom in Buddhism.

Legend had it that in Dragon Gate Grotto, there was a Lochana Buddha carved to the likes of an ancient female monarch.

Of course, that was only a legend.

Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief when he saw An Sheng and Leng Zongzheng beside him. When he looked at them, he saw them looking towards the front of the street.

The skeleton in monk robes was walking on the long street. With the golden crystal bead in hand, it walked towards the huge Buddha step by step like it was holding a miniature sun.

For some reason, the monk-robed skeleton walked very slowly as though it was treading on thin ice.

In the sky, the golden bird spread its wings and also flew in the direction of the huge Buddha. Its body was like a great Roc as it spread its wings for 500 kilometers, but for some reason, it failed to close the distance between it and the huge Buddha.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 683 - Urna

Chapter 683: Urna

Zhou Wen had already summoned the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon and had it appear on his back in the form of dragon wings. He didn't dare be careless when entering such a strange place in reality.

He turned his head and realized that there was no longer a stone door behind him. Behind him was an endless void. The huge golden Buddha nation was floating in the void like an island while they were standing at the edge of the golden Buddha nation.

Zhou Wen looked around and failed to find a way back. He looked at An Sheng and asked, "Ah Sheng, can you tell the way back?"

An Sheng shook his head and said, "I can't tell. It's probably going to be troublesome. Young Master Wen, you have to be careful at all times."

Leng Zongzheng said, "Look at the spot between the giant Buddha's eyebrows."

Zhou Wen and An Sheng looked over and saw a huge piece of sun-like glass between the Buddha's brows that emitted a strange glow.

"In Buddhism, that's an Urna. It's one of the thirty-two aspects of Gautama Buddha. It represents the source of all religions," An Sheng said.

Leng Zongzheng nodded and said, “An Urna is one of the original forms of Buddha. It shrinks between the eyebrows. And when a craftsman carves a Buddha statue, there’s no way to depict the true appearance of an Urna. They usually just carve a circle or spiral to represent it. Look carefully at the Urna. Do you find anything odd?”

Zhou Wen and An Sheng looked over and felt that the Urna was blinding, as though it was clear glass.

As Truth Listener’s power couldn’t reach such a distance, Zhou Wen didn’t sense any danger descending. He switched to the Small Perfection of Wisdom and the Hell King Life Soul to strengthen his senses before carefully looking at the Urna.

Upon doing so, Zhou Wen immediately realized something. The Urna wasn’t glass. It was clearly a cocoon formed from crystal threads.

“That’s… the cocoon of a Guardian…” Zhou Wen said in surprise.

Leng Zongzheng said with a heavy expression, “It’s probably a cocoon of a Guardian. I originally thought that Dragon Gate Grotto only had one in Dragon’s Well, I didn’t expect there to be another one.”

“Could it be that everything that happened in Dragon Gate Grotto is due to the cocoon of the Guardian? But that doesn’t make sense. Doesn’t a Guardian only choose humans as contractors? Why are the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird here?” Zhou Wen frowned.

No one could answer his question. The three of them watched from afar as the monk-clothed skeleton walked towards the Buddha and the golden-winged bird flew at high speed.

However, be it the skeleton in monk robes or the golden-winged bird, they couldn’t close the distance. It was as though they were running on the spot.

“There’s a huge terror hidden in this Buddhist kingdom. It’s not something ordinary creatures can pass through. Little Zhou, summon that Great Might Vajra Bull and see if it can approach the Buddha statue,” said Leng Zongzheng.

Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull and made it try walking in the direction of the Buddha.

It was odd. The golden-winged bird’s flying speed was tremendous. It could fly hundreds of kilometers with a flap of its wings, but it was unable to approach the huge Buddha.

However, the Great Might Vajra Bull easily closed the distance by slowly walking on the golden bricks. It was about to catch up to the monk-robed skeleton.

“As expected. Only Buddhist-type creatures can travel through the Buddhist kingdom. That monk-robed skeleton isn’t a Buddhist-type creature after all. It’s probably relying on the crystal in its hand to slowly walk towards the Buddha. As for the golden-winged bird, it can’t approach it no matter what. It’s worse than the monk-robed skeleton.” As Leng Zongzheng spoke, he got Zhou Wen to summon the Great Might Vajra Bull back to prevent it from meeting the monk-robed skeleton.

At that moment, a bird’s cry rang through the clouds. The golden-winged bird’s body expanded like a golden cloud that blotted out the sky. It nearly enveloped the entire Buddhist kingdom in its shadow.

It flapped its wings as a terrifying power tore through space and rapidly approached the Buddha. It actually broke through the restrictions of the Buddhist kingdom’s strange powers.

What terrifying might. Only the gigantified Tyrant Behemoth can match it. Zhou Wen was alarmed.

Soon, the golden-winged bird arrived in front of the Buddha statue. As Leng Zongzheng had expected, it had indeed come for the cocoon of the Guardian. It flew to the top of the Buddha’s head and grabbed at it.

The monk-robed skeleton also noticed the golden-winged Bird’s actions. A strange glint flashed in its eyes as it lifted the crystal in its hand. A golden beam shot out from the crystal and instantly struck the golden-winged bird.

The golden-winged bird didn’t dare let the golden beam of light strike it. It gave up on the cocoon of the Guardian and flapped its wings to dodge.

The crystal in the skeleton’s hand constantly emitted golden beams, preventing the golden-winged bird from approaching the cocoon.

The golden-winged bird’s actions were interrupted a few times. It immediately turned ferocious as it flapped its wings and transformed into a golden beam that charged at the monk-robed skeleton. Its eyes flashed with lightning.

As the skeleton advanced, it raised the crystal in its hand and emitted a golden glow that fought the golden-winged bird.

The golden-winged bird seemed to be afraid of the crystal in its hand. It was forced back by the crystal’s light repeatedly.

Leng Zongzheng stared at the monk-clothed skeleton and the crystal in its hand for a long time as though he was thinking about something. After a while, Leng Zongzheng suddenly turned to Zhou Wen and said, “Little Zhou, get the Great Might Vajra Bull to carry us to the Buddha.”

Although Leng Zongzheng didn’t explain why he was doing so, Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull when he saw his solemn expression.

Thankfully, the Great Might Vajra Bull was huge. It was more than big enough to seat three people.

The three of them sat on the bull’s back. The Great Might Vajra Bull immediately ran towards the Buddha.

The monk-robed skeleton needed to walk towards the Buddha step by step. As for the Great Might Vajra Bull, it ran very quickly. Soon, it caught up with the monk-robed skeleton. While it was fighting the golden-winged Roc, it charged past it.

When the monk-robed skeleton saw the Great Might Vajra Bull rush over with three people on it, the strange light in its eyes immediately lit up. The crystal in its hand immediately emitted a golden glow that resembled the one in the mountain temple. It enveloped a large area, including the Great Might Vajra Bull, Zhou Wen, and company.

Zhou Wen immediately felt the Runic Heavy Armor on his body melt like bubbles. Even the Great Might Vajra Bull’s body couldn’t withstand the terrifying golden light. It was like a melting candle as its golden flesh melted.

Leng Zongzheng and Ah Sheng’s situation was the same. The armor on their bodies was melting, and in an instant, their armor was about to collapse.

Zhou Wen pulled out the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed at the monk-robed skeleton. At the same time, he ordered the Great Might Vajra Bull to use the Soul Suppression Bell.

Clang!

The moment the Soul Suppression Bell sounded, the monk-robed skeleton was stunned. The golden light emitted from the crystal in its hand also dimmed.

Taking this opportunity, Leng Zongzheng and Ah Sheng attacked at the same time. Leng Zongzheng summoned the Azure Rainbow Flying Sword that Zhou Wen had previously seen and slashed at the monk-robed skeleton. As for Ah Sheng, he used Love Letter’s text ability and sent a text to the monk-robed skeleton.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 684 - Obstruction

Chapter 684: Obstruction

The duration of the dizziness caused by the Soul Suppression Bell was too short. When the golden sword beam slashed at the monk-robed skeleton, the skeleton had already reacted. It held the crystal in one hand and waved its other hand.

The golden sword beam was immediately shattered. The Azure Rainbow Flying Sword was sent flying almost simultaneously.

An Sheng’s text came in front of it. It opened its mouth and blew out a strange cold wind that scattered the power of the text.

Despite fighting three alone, the skeleton still had the upper hand. It held up the crystal in its hand again and shot out a golden beam.

However, the golden beam wasn’t directed at Zhou Wen and company. It transformed into a beam that shot into the sky, targeting the golden-winged bird.

It turned out that the golden-winged bird had taken advantage of the battle between the monk-robed skeleton and the trio to fly towards the Buddha, hoping to snatch the cocoon of the Guardian from the Buddha’s glabella.

“Let’s go to the Buddha quickly.” Leng Zongzheng didn’t seem to be in the mood to fight the monk-robed skeleton as he shouted loudly.

Zhou Wen hurriedly got the Great Might Vajra Bull to rush towards the Buddha. The monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird were occupied with fighting, so they couldn’t be bothered with them.

Soon, the Great Might Vajra Bull ran to the foot of the Buddha, but it couldn’t fly. It was difficult to ascend the Buddha.

“It should be fine now. Let’s head up,” Leng Zongzheng said as he leaped up from the bull’s back. He stepped onto the Azure Rainbow Flying Sword and flew towards the cocoon of the Guardian.

Zhou Wen unsummoned the Great Might Vajra Bull and flapped his wings to catch up.

Ah Sheng quickly jumped up the Buddha statue. He was slightly slower. Leng Zongzheng seemed to be very anxious. Without waiting for them, he charged forward alone.

The golden-winged bird and the monk-robed skeleton, who were originally fighting, realized that Leng Zongzheng and company were charging towards the cocoon of the Guardian. They stopped their tussle simultaneously and attacked Leng Zongzheng.

“Help me hold them back. Don’t let them come up.” Leng Zongzheng was extremely bold. He leaped up from the Azure Rainbow Flying Sword and lunged towards the cocoon of the Guardian. As for the Azure Rainbow Flying Sword, it headed straight for the monk-robed skeleton.

Another white beam flew out. It was the white parrot that Zhou Wen had seen before. It flapped its wings and faced the golden-winged bird.

After some thought, Zhou Wen brandished his sword and slashed at the monk-robed skeleton. The crystal in the skeleton’s hand was too terrifying. If he held it back, he could give Leng Zongzheng greater opportunities.

However, with a flash of golden light from the monk-robed skeleton’s crystal, the golden sword beam shattered. The Azure Rainbow Flying Sword automatically flew aside, not daring to be illuminated by the golden light.

“Go!” Zhou Wen summoned Tyrant Behemoth and made it charge at the monk-robed skeleton while he charged at the golden-winged bird.

Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth landed on the ground and roared at the skeleton.

The crystal in the monk-clothed skeleton’s hand emitted a golden glow as it struck Tyrant Behemoth. Tyrant Behemoth raised its arm to block, but its arm was penetrated by the golden light.

In the next second, Tyrant Behemoth activated Absolute Strength. Its body turned into a black hole, causing the surrounding space to distort and form a strange suction force.

The monk-clothed skeleton’s body was sucked towards Tyrant Behemoth, but it refused to be outdone. It raised the crystal in its hand again and shot out a terrifying golden light towards Tyrant Behemoth.

However, the golden light was suppressed by Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength. Tyrant Behemoth charged forward, tanking the golden light before punching the monk-robed skeleton.

Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth blasted open a huge pit in the gold-bricked ground. As for the monk-robed skeleton, it used some unknown method to dodge Tyrant Behemoth’s attack and moved a few hundred meters away.

Tyrant Behemoth roared and immediately chased after it.

In the sky, the white parrot actually spoke the human language. As it flew, it cursed, “Little eagle brat, go back and ask your mother. See who’s son you are? How dare you not kneel down and call me daddy when you see me? You’re worse than a beast. If I had known, I would have ejaculated you towards the wall…”

Zhou Wen had never seen a Companion Beast being so vulgar and offensive. Its strength was inferior to the golden-winged bird, so it could only flee for its life. However, as it fled, it kept on cursing the golden-winged bird. This infuriated the golden-winged bird, making it abandon its attacks on Leng Zongzheng as it directed its sights on the white parrot. It wanted the parrot dead.

Even Zhou Wen felt his head spin after hearing its words. He really wanted to slap it.

“A son killing his dad… Aren’t you afraid of heavenly punishment… You’ll be fried into a fragrant, mala eagle…” the white parrot cried as it fled.

It was vulgar, but its flying speed wasn’t slow at all. It was actually comparable to the golden-winged bird.

Furthermore, this fellow’s flying trajectory clearly had some technique involved. It wasn’t as simple as relying on speed.

When Zhou Wen rushed forward, the golden-winged bird was already enraged. Its body emitted a golden glow as mysterious ancient text appeared on its feathers, causing its body to emit a terrifying divine glow. With a flap of its wings, its body tore through the void and appeared above the white parrot. Its claws, that resembled sharp blades, were about to grab the white parrot.

The white parrot’s figure phased away as it used a teleportation skill to avoid the golden-winged bird’s talons.

“No matter how awesome a son is, he’s still a son. If you want to capture me, spend another ten thousand years training and there might still be hope,” the white parrot cursed as it fled in the opposite direction of the Buddha statue.

Unfortunately, its teleportation skill was the same as Zhou Wen’s Lost Country. It couldn’t be used continuously. The golden-winged bird that had already gone berserk instantly caught up to it and grabbed it in midair.

“Let go of your daddy. There’s nothing impressive about flying fast. If you have the guts, let’s fight on the ground.” The white parrot had already been caught, but its mouth didn’t stop.

Zhou Wen flapped his wings and slashed at the golden-winged bird’s claw, hoping to save the white parrot.

To his surprise, the golden-winged bird hated the white parrot to the core. It ignored the golden sword beam and retracted its claw, about to tear the white parrot’s body into pieces.

Clang!

When the golden sword beam struck the bird’s claw, white feathers flew everywhere. The golden-winged bird’s claws were covered in white feathers, but the parrot’s body was gone.

“Little eagle brat, let daddy teach you one more move. This is slough off the cicada’s golden shell from the Thirty-Six Stratagems. Learn it…” The white parrot had a few feathers left on its body. It was like a featherless chicken, but it was still making bold claims.

The fellow wasn’t stupid either. As it shouted, it fled behind Zhou Wen. The wings that were without feathers could still fly very quickly.

What the hell is this bird! Zhou Wen was rendered speechless. If he were the enemy of this crappy bird, he would wish to slaughter it immediately.

The golden-winged bird clearly had the same thought as well. It rushed over immediately as the golden light on its body flashed like lightning. Its speed was unbelievably fast.

However, Zhou Wen was right in front of the parrot. He immediately bore the brunt of the attack. He had already used Transcendent Flying Immortal to dodge the golden-winged bird’s attack, but the divine-level Transcendent Flying Immortal was like an electric tricycle against a sports car in front of the golden-winged bird. It was overtaken before it even started.

As Zhou Wen retreated, he slashed out Golden Sword Aura. However, when it struck the golden feathers, it bounced off. Ignoring the fact that he failed to injure the golden-winged bird, he couldn’t even obstruct it for a moment.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 685 - Buddha Annihilation

Chapter 685: Buddha Annihilation

A strange glint flashed in Zhou Wen’s eyes as he was about to activate Torch Dragon Youngling’s eye mirror. He wanted to use Bright Torch Vision World to kill the ferocious golden-winged bird.

To his surprise, he suddenly heard a loud boom. It came from the Buddha’s glabella.

The golden-winged bird seemed to be jolted awake as it stopped pursuing Zhou Wen. It looked up at the Buddha.

Zhou Wen also looked over and saw that Leng Zongzheng had already arrived in front of the cocoon of the Guardian. He held a saber in his hand as he stabbed it at the cocoon.

However, in the cocoon of the Guardian, a hand broke out and grabbed the tip of Leng Zongzheng’s saber.

The hand suffused a Buddhistic glow. It was fair and clean, and it didn’t look powerful. However, the sharp blade failed to injure the hand at all.

Could the sound just now be from the palm tearing out of the cocoon? Just as Zhou Wen was feeling alarmed, he heard a crack.

The hand snapped the saber in Leng Zongzheng’s hand.

Leng Zongzheng retreated and stared at the cocoon of the Guardian with a solemn expression. He muttered to himself,

“It’s still too late. Has it already developed to such a stage?”

Apart from Tyrant Behemoth, who was still chasing the monk-robed skeleton and hammering down, everyone stopped and looked at the cocoon of the Guardian.

Crack! Crack!

The Guardian’s cocoon constantly shattered as crystalline fragments fell off, emitting a clean Buddhistic glow from the cocoon.

The Buddha statues in the Buddhist kingdom seemed to come to life at that moment. Golden Buddha statues, be it sculptures or carvings on the walls, emitted the sound of chanting.

In the entire Buddhist kingdom, the mysterious murmurs reverberated like a chant. It was as though they were praying or welcoming something.

Amidst the murmurs, a golden Buddhistic glow rose from all the Buddha statues. The Buddhistic glow gathered at the Buddha’s glabella and flowed into the cracked cocoon.

Crack! Crack!

Most of the cocoon formed by the crystal threads had shattered. Zhou Wen and company could already see the creature inside the cocoon.

It was bhikkhu, who was dressed in white monk robes. He looked no different from a human, but there was an Urna on his forehead. It was crystalline-like jade and had spiral patterns.

He sat cross-legged in the cocoon as an infinite Buddhistic glow converged in front of him. They transformed into Buddha beads that automatically joined together, turning into a string of golden Buddha beads.

As the Buddhistic glow intensified, Buddha's figure appeared on the Buddha beads.

When the cocoon of the Guardian completely shattered, the string of Buddha beads finally condensed and landed in the bhikkhu's hand.

With the Buddha beads in hand, the entire Buddhist kingdom fell silent. The chanting sounds vanished as the Buddhistic glow on the Buddha statue vanished.

"Buddha is annihilated with my birth…" The bhikkhu slowly opened his eyes. His eyes were so clear that it made people feel as though looking at him was desecrating him.

However, with the bhikkhu's voice, all the Buddha statues in the Buddhist Kingdom shattered. Even the thousand-foot-tall giant Buddha statue collapsed.

The Buddha statue crumbled as it slowly sank into the void.

The monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird trembled as they took on a pleading pose to the bhikkhu who held Buddha beads in his hands and pressed down with his other hand.

A huge palm print appeared above the Buddha kingdom. Tyrant Behemoth, who continued attacking the skeleton, was slammed into the ground.

Zhou Wen was alarmed as he hurriedly unsummoned Tyrant Behemoth. Thankfully, Tyrant Behemoth wasn't killed. It was only slightly injured.

However, despite being in its Absolute Strength state, it had been forcefully suppressed and had even suffered some injuries. The bhikkhu's strength was unimaginable.

"Chancellor, do we retreat?" An Sheng asked in horror as he rapidly moved through the collapsing Buddha kingdom.

"There's nowhere to retreat to. I'll deal with him. The two of you will do as you see fit," Leng Zongzheng answered without looking back. Then, he looked at bhikkhu and asked, "What's your name?"

"Buddha Annihilation."

Leng Zongzheng didn't say a word. However, divine beams rose from his body one after another. The divine beams condensed in front of him, turning into a beautiful black-clothed goddess with a harp in her arms.

Guardian? Does Chancellor Leng actually have a Guardian? Zhou Wen saw the black-clothed goddess holding a harp in front of Leng Zongzheng and immediately recognized her identity. She was actually a Guardian.

"Name?" The bhikkhu asked as he looked at the harp-holding goddess.

"Divine Harp." When the goddess answered, her body had already transformed into streams of light that fused into Leng Zongzheng's body. At the same time, a black suit formed over him.

Leng Zongzheng's aura also underwent an earth-shattering change due to the fusion of the Divine Harp. He was like a devil in a suit.

Leng Zongzheng sat in midair as the Demonic Organ Throne appeared in front of him. The vertical tubes that resembled a castle and the rows of keys emitted a solemn and mysterious aura.

It was different from the Demonic Organ Throne that Zhou Wen had seen the last time. This time, because Leng Zongzheng had broken through to the divine level with the help of Divine Harp, he became even more terrifying. Every note emitted a terrifying glow.

Leng Zongzheng pressed his hands on the keys as harp music came from the huge vertical tubes that resembled a castle.

Zhou Wen didn't think that the harp tones were anything special, but the Buddha beads in Buddha Annihilation's hand glowed brightly as though it was resisting some kind of power.

Zhou Wen didn't have the time to figure out what was so special about the harp music. This was because the golden-winged bird had already charged at Leng Zongzheng, as though it was helping Buddha Annihilation.

Zhou Wen immediately released two Golden Battle God Halberds and attacked the golden-winged bird from the side. The Golden Overlord Sword in his hand slashed over.

The bald parrot stood on Zhou Wen's shoulder and shouted at the golden-winged bird, "Little eagle brat… Your daddy is here…"

The monk-robed skeleton also wanted to charge at Leng Zongzheng. An Sheng rushed over and stopped him, but An Sheng only had one Mythical creature—Love Letter. Love Letter was far from being the monk-robed skeleton's match.

All it could do was constantly retreat and use various strange skills to delay the monk-robed skeleton’s advance.

Seeing that An Sheng was in danger, Zhou Wen summoned Tyrant Behemoth again to help An Sheng fight the monk-robed skeleton.

Tyrant Behemoth had suffered some injuries, but thankfully, it wasn’t seriously injured. After charging into the collapsing Buddhist kingdom, it immediately activated its Absolute Strength again.

For some reason, the monk-clothed skeleton fearlessly faced Tyrant Behemoth and stuffed the crystal in its eye socket.

The moment the crystal entered his socket, it emitted a golden glow. It made the skeleton’s bones burn with golden flames as though it was bathing in Nirvana Flames.

Boom!

The monk-clothed skeleton’s bone fist collided with Tyrant Behemoth’s fist. They were evenly matched and neither of them managed to gain the upper hand. The terrifying shockwave produced from the collision of strength caused the already damaged streets to be further destroyed.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 686 - Violent Annihilation

Chapter 686: Violent Annihilation

Tyrant Behemoth was extremely violent and ferocious as it constantly attacked. Its Absolute Strength had a time limit, and it had already used it for nearly ten minutes, Now that it was activated again, it only had about twenty minutes remaining. It needed to determine the victor in twenty minutes.

An Sheng didn't attack the monk-robed skeleton with Tyrant Behemoth. He watched from the side as though he was observing and searching for an opportunity.

As Zhou Wen fought the golden-winged bird, the dragon wings on his back trembled. The two Golden Battle God Halberd attacked from both sides as the Golden Overlord Sword in his hand constantly slashed out Golden Sword Aura.

However, the golden-winged bird's speed was just too fast. It was so fast that Zhou Wen's eyes couldn't keep up with its actions. Before he could see what was happening, he heard a crack. One of his Golden Battle God Halberds had been grabbed by its claws. Once it exerted strength, the Golden Battle God Halberd immediately snapped into several pieces.

Zhou Wen didn't have the time to worry about the Golden Battle God Halberd's death. He pushed Transcendent Flying Immortal's speed to its limits and quickly escaped into the distance.

If Tyrant Behemoth had absolute strength, then the golden-winged bird had absolute speed. Zhou Wen didn’t fly for long before it caught up.

Without thinking, the eye mirror in Zhou Wen’s eye condensed a strange luster, making one of his eyes look like a mirror as he looked at the golden-winged bird.

The golden-winged bird seemed to sense danger. The mysterious ancient text on its wings shimmered as it vanished from Zhou Wen’s sight.

Boom!

Zhou Wen felt a heavy blow on his back. His body slammed into the ground like a meteor, leaving a huge hole in the golden palace.

The golden-winged bird’s might was even more ferocious. With a flash, it grabbed the Golden Battle God Halberd that was flying in the air and instantly snapped it into several pieces.

Zhou Wen crawled out of the ground and felt unbearable pain, but he wasn’t seriously injured. As for the Substitute Talisman, it had already dissipated into ashes.

Thankfully, I brought the Substitute Talisman. If I had known, I would have drawn a few more. Zhou Wen was alarmed. If not for the Substitute Talisman, even if he didn’t die, the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon would have died.

Unfortunately, Substitute Talismans were too difficult to draw. Success or failure depended on fate. Zhou Wen had drawn so many of them, but he had only succeeded once when his heart and mind were one.

Later, he drew many more times, but none of them succeeded. Zhou Wen was too frustrated to continue drawing.

After the golden-winged bird snapped the Golden Battle God Halberd, its bloody, cold eyes looked into the palace's hole. It flapped its wings again and instantly vanished.

Fk you. Zhou Wen's heart palpitated as goosebumps rose. Knowing that danger was approaching, he didn't dare hesitate any further as he summoned Torch Dragon Youngling.

Torch Dragon Youngling's massive body appeared and burst through the palace. It looked up angrily at the sky.

Zhou Wen stood on its head and used the Truth Listener earring's ability to observe his surroundings. He realized that the golden-winged bird had already flown into the sky. Clearly, it was afraid of Torch Dragon's appearance.

However, in just an instant, the golden-winged bird turned ferocious again. It flapped its wings and transformed into a stream of light that vanished. It was so fast that he couldn't see its trajectory.

"Torch Dragon!" Zhou Wen called out.

In fact, without Zhou Wen's order, Torch Dragon had already moved. The scales on its body converged like eyelids as rows of Torch Dragon Eyes appeared. It was its World King Transformation.

Countless Torch Dragon Eyes used Bright Torch Vision World at the same time, opening up like countless mirrors.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen felt something amiss. He turned his head and saw the golden-winged bird appear behind Torch Dragon. Its body flashed like a bolt of lightning as its wings flapped wildly. Its face was filled with horror as though it was resisting some invisible terrifying force.

However, it only struggled for a moment before its figure suddenly vanished.

Zhou Wen saw the golden-winged bird's figure appear in the eyes on Torch Dragon's back. It struggled and churned inside before disappearing.

The Torch Dragon Vision World ended as Torch Dragon Youngling was taken out of its World King Transformation state. Torch Dragon Youngling was exhausted and its strength was greatly reduced. Its combat strength dropped drastically to the level of Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. It couldn't even use Bright Torch Vision World again.

Zhou Wen hurriedly unsummoned Torch Dragon Youngling. He couldn't let it take the risk. This was Zhou Wen's strongest trump card.

What a huge loss. Zhou Wen felt his heart ache.

He originally wanted to see if he could find an opportunity to kill the golden-winged bird, but he ended up losing a Substitute Talisman and two Golden Battle God Halberds.

Although Bright Torch Vision World was powerful, it didn't leave anything behind after killing its opponent. This was a fatal flaw. Zhou Wen wasn't willing to use the skill unless it was absolutely necessary.

Elsewhere, Tyrant Behemoth kept bombarding the monk-robed skeleton. Its powerful strength forced the monk-robed skeleton to retreat as its bones cracked.

However, the golden light on its body burned like flames, making its body seem like an immortal body. It immediately recovered from any injuries. Although Tyrant Behemoth had the upper hand, it ultimately failed to kill it.

Is Absolute Strength about to run out of time? Zhou Wen did the math and realized that there were about ten minutes left. However, from the looks of it, Tyrant Behemoth probably wouldn’t be able to kill the monk-robed skeleton in ten minutes.

Suddenly, An Sheng, who had been observing from the side, pressed his palm on the ground and vanished like a ghost.

At this moment, Tyrant Behemoth sent the monk-robed skeleton retreating a few steps with one punch, leaving it staggering.

An Sheng strangely crawled out from the ground behind the skeleton and leaped up. His finger was like a venomous scorpion’s stinger as he tapped at the back of the skeleton’s head.

He imprinted a mysterious character on the back of the monk-robed skeleton’s head. Zhou Wen recognized that it was the word “Quake,” one of Love Letter’s abilities.

Boom!

The crystal in the skeleton’s eye sockets was actually jolted out because of An Sheng’s finger strike. It flew out and landed on the ground.

The golden flames on the monk-robed skeleton’s body immediately vanished. Tyrant Behemoth’s attack followed up the chain of attacks. The monk-robed skeleton raised its fist in a panic to receive the attack.

Crack!

Without the augmentation of the crystal, the skeleton’s bony hand was shattered by Tyrant Behemoth and its body staggered backward.

The berserk Tyrant Behemoth pummeled the monk-robed skeleton repeatedly. It only took a few punches to shatter the skeleton’s hands.

The monk-clothed skeleton was sent tumbling to the ground. Tyrant Behemoth pressed one of its claws on its sternum, while the other struck its skull. With a few punches, the skull shattered.

Tyrant Behemoth lifted the skeleton’s cracked body with one hand and placed it into its mouth. It chewed a few times before swallowing it.

“Bro… Take a look to see if there are any Companion Eggs left behind…” Zhou Wen was somewhat speechless. What kind of pet was this? It ate anything it killed without leaving anything behind.

However, since it had swallowed and couldn’t spit it out, all Zhou Wen could do was quickly run over and pick up the crystal that An Sheng had forced out of the skeleton’s eye socket.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 687 - : Buddhistic Glow Cleansing

Chapter 687: Buddhistic Glow Cleansing

In the sky, the music was demonic.

Zhou Wen couldn’t tell what was so special about it. The music didn’t seem to have any effect on them, but for some reason, when he heard it, he still felt a shiver from the bottom of his heart. It was as though there was a fear that stemmed from the depths of his soul.

As for Buddha Annihilation, it seemed to be enveloped by a dark force. It was like a devil hidden in the darkness, allowing people to sense his existence but not see it.

However, the power of darkness was blocked by the golden light emitted by the Buddha beads. The devil-like power failed to penetrate its body, and the two forces remained in a stalemate.

The golden-winged bird and the monk-robed skeleton were killed. Buddha Annihilation glanced at Zhou Wen and An Sheng, who were rushing over. The Urna between its brows revolved as though a Buddhistic glow had descended upon the Buddhist kingdom.

Zhou Wen and An Sheng were just about to rush over to help Leng Zongzheng when they saw the Buddhistic glow fall. They were alarmed as they used their Essence Energy Skills and Companion Beasts to block the Buddhistic glow.

However, they soon realized that the Buddhistic glow didn’t affect them at all. However, wherever the Buddhistic glow descended, it illuminated the crumbling Buddhist kingdom like it was cleansing it.

Zhou Wen and An Sheng suddenly widened their eyes. Amidst the cleansed area, the golden-winged bird and the monk-robed skeleton, that had just been killed, were reborn and bathing in the Buddhistic glow.

Zhou Wen was dumbfounded as he said to An Sheng in bewilderment, “Ah Sheng, pinch me. I want to know if I’m hallucinating.”

“I think I’m hallucinating as well.” An Sheng swallowed his saliva and said with great difficulty, “Young Master Wen, your Companion Beasts were able to kill them just now. They should still be capable of doing so now, right?”

“No way. My Companion Beast is enervated from earlier. If those two fellows really come back to life, the method from before definitely won’t work,” Zhou Wen said.

Torch Dragon Youngling was greatly enervated after using World King Transformation. It was useless for the time being. Even if he released it, it only had about the same combat strength as the Six-Winged Guardian Dragon. Fighting the golden-winged bird was courting death.

Tyrant Behemoth had almost used up all the time for its Absolute Strength. Without the suppression of Absolute Strength, it was probably no match for the monk-robed skeleton.

The only good news was that the monk-robed skeleton, which was bathed in a Buddhistic glow, did not have the crystal in its hand. From the looks of it, the crystal wasn’t part of the monk-robed skeleton. The only one was the one in Zhou Wen’s hand.

Zhou Wen had already studied it, but he hadn’t figured out how to make it emit the golden light to injure the enemy.

The skeleton in monk robes and the golden-winged bird had returned to life. They looked no different from when they had first entered the Buddhist kingdom. They were brimming with energy as four pairs of eyes stared at Zhou Wen and An Sheng.

“Young Master Wen, do you have any other Companion Beasts that can kill them?” An Sheng asked.

“I do have Companion Beasts, but I don’t know if I can kill them,” Zhou Wen said with a bitter smile.

“Then let’s prepare to risk our lives,” An Sheng said through gritted teeth.

“Son, come here. Your daddy is here…” The bald parrot was still alive. It jumped onto Zhou Wen’s shoulder and shouted at the golden-winged bird.

Boom!

Zhou Wen punched it to the ground and thought to himself, Why would Leng Zongzheng raise such a Companion Beast?

The monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird rushed towards Zhou Wen. The monk-robed skeleton’s target was the crystal in Zhou Wen’s hand, and the golden-winged bird clearly hated Zhou Wen and the parrot to death. It wanted to kill Zhou Wen and the parrot first.

Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned Tyrant Behemoth and allowed it to clash with the monk-robed skeleton again. Although Tyrant Behemoth was unable to defeat the skeleton without Absolute Strength's suppression, it wasn't a problem for it to hold out for some time.

Now, the most difficult thing to deal with was the golden-winged bird. It was too fast—so fast that Zhou Wen couldn't dodge its attack. If he couldn't kill it, Zhou Wen would be the one to die.

Truth Listener and Demonic Neonate were summoned by Zhou Wen at the same time. Zhou Wen quickly retreated while An Sheng consciously retreated to the other side and ran towards Tyrant Behemoth.

After Demonic Neonate landed, she hid herself as she took in the situation. Under Zhou Wen's orders, Truth Listener's earring shattered as its body instantly transformed into a terrifying dark-gold ferocious beast.

Zhou Wen grabbed the bald parrot and threw it at Truth Listener. "Quick, scream. Use all your strength to curse all its ancestors."

"What the fk do you take me for? I must curse just because you want me to do so? Whether or not I want to scold my son depends on my mood. Now that I'm in a good mood, I'm not going to be petty with that young eagle brat." The bald parrot was still mumbling, but the golden-winged bird had already charged over with a shriek. It was so fast that no one could see its figure clearly. All they saw was a flash of golden lightning in the sky.

Truth Listener seemed to have discovered the golden-winged bird's location as it phased away and extended its claw.

However, its body’s reaction speed failed to keep up with the golden-winged bird’s speed. It failed to grab the golden-winged bird that flashed past. Instead, the golden-winged bird’s blade-like wings sliced past its chest.

Truth Listener retreated as its legs tore open two long ditches on the golden-bricked ground.

The golden-winged bird’s attack only left shallow marks on the dark golden scales on Truth Listener’s chest. It failed to cut through the scales.

Truth Listener had the Indestructible Vajra Body skill. Even Tyrant Behemoth had to use Absolute Strength to match Truth Listener’s physical toughness.

Truth Listener’s speed was already very fast. It was considered one of the best at the Mythical stage, but it was still slightly inferior to the golden-winged bird.

The golden-winged bird constantly flashed about and attacked Truth Listener, causing it to be overwhelmed. Truth Listener, who was originally extremely agile, appeared somewhat clumsy in front of the golden-winged bird. Its body was constantly being attacked by the bird’s wings and claws. Although it wasn’t severely injured, it made Truth Listener, who was already in an abnormal state of mind, become increasingly irritable.

However, what delighted Zhou Wen was that although Truth Listener couldn’t touch the golden-winged bird, it wasn’t anywhere close to being killed. It managed to stabilize the situation for the time being.

Zhou Wen looked at Tyrant Behemoth and saw that it was also suppressed by the monk-robed skeleton. Without Absolute Strength, Tyrant Behemoth also lost its absolute dominance at the Mythical stage.

The situation had completely reversed; Zhou Wen’s pets were at a disadvantage. The situation was extremely bad.

What worried Zhou Wen the most was that even if they could finish off the skeleton and the golden-winged bird this time, what about the next time?

If Buddha Annihilation could revive them, no matter how powerful Zhou Wen’s Companion Beasts were, they would still end up dying.

The only way was to kill Buddha Annihilation first.

The situation on Leng Zongzheng’s side wasn’t smooth. The Demonic Organ Throne’s strength clearly wasn’t able to completely suppress Buddha Annihilation. Otherwise, Buddha Annihilation wouldn’t have the time to revive the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird.

Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and flapped his wings as he flew into the sky. He wanted to see if he could help Leng Zongzheng destroy Buddha Annihilation.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 688 - Rampage

Chapter 688: Rampage

Just as Zhou Wen approached the battlefield, he immediately felt that something was amiss.

Looking from afar, he felt that Leng Zongzheng was playing the organ while Buddha Annihilation was listening to his organ music.

However, when Zhou Wen entered a certain range, what he saw was completely different. Leng Zongzheng's Demonic Organ Throne had turned into a terrifying demonic castle.

With Leng Zongzheng's organ music, demons flew out of the demonic castle one after another, circling around Buddha Annihilation as though they were trying to lure him into the castle.

Buddha Annihilation was surrounded by demons as he looked down. He held the Buddha beads in his hand and chanted scriptures. The Buddhistic glow on his body bloomed like a lotus flower, resisting the temptation of the demons.

Zhou Wen only took a glance from afar and it was enough to make his heart tremble. He couldn't help but have the urge to throw himself into the devil's embrace—the urge to dance with the devil.

Zhou Wen's heart skipped a beat as he hurriedly composed himself and eliminated the distracting thoughts.

His willpower was firm to begin with. Once he entered a focused state, he immediately felt the illusions vanish. There were no demons or the demonic castle, nor were there any Buddhistic glow or lotus flowers. All he saw was Leng Zongzheng playing the organ while Buddha Annihilation listened.

Zhou Wen didn't continue walking forward. He felt that what he had just seen wasn't as simple as an illusion. It was so far away that it made him hallucinate. If he really entered, Zhou Wen might not be able to withstand it with his Epic body.

If he didn't end up helping and ended up being killed by friendly fire, that would be a tragic death.

If I could advance to the Mythical stage myself, I wouldn't have so many reservations. I wouldn't need to rely solely on my Companion Beasts to fight. Zhou Wen had the intention to advance to the Mythical stage, but he had no clue how.

Leng Zongzheng and Jiang Yan had advanced to the Mythical stage by contracting with Guardians. Zhou Wen didn't wish to take this path.

This path seemed to be the simplest, but the disadvantages were too great. It was impossible for him to fuse with the Guardian during his daily life. If he encountered any sudden danger, he might die without even having the chance to fuse.

Do I really have to use Spirit Casting? Zhou Wen was considering if he should take Wang Mingyuan's path.

Although the path was difficult, it was a true advancement to the Mythical stage. However, one's body would no longer resemble that of a human. It was closer to a dimensional creature, and he might even be rejected by humans.

It’s really a dilemma. It’s better I first advance my Life Soul to the Perfect Body and see if there’s a third option. These thoughts flashed through Zhou Wen’s mind. Since he couldn’t help Leng Zongzheng, Zhou Wen planned on returning to deal with the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird.

Without the crystal, the monk-clothed skeleton’s strength had decreased significantly. However, the crystal was ultimately an external force. The monk-clothed skeleton’s Wheel of Destiny’s strength was still present. Compared to Tyrant Behemoth, it had the advantage. Tyrant Behemoth was suppressed by the monk-clothed skeleton in a frontal collision.

However, Tyrant Behemoth was just too ferocious. Even though it was suppressed, it still attacked without fear of death and caused trouble for the monk-clothed skeleton. Even if it was injured, it wouldn’t be in any serious danger for the time being.

Furthermore, An Sheng and the Azure Rainbow Flying Sword were constantly harassing it, giving the monk-robed skeleton a headache. It was unlikely that there would be any problems anytime soon.

Zhou Wen looked at the golden-winged bird and Truth Listener again. Truth Listener looked a little pathetic. It resembled a clumsy bear. The golden-winged bird made it go in circles, but it ultimately failed to touch the golden-winged bird. Instead, it had many wounds on its body—all inflicted by the golden-winged bird. Although they were minor injuries, Truth Listener nearly went berserk.

The golden-winged bird’s speed is too fast. How can I help Truth Listener? With my speed, I definitely won’t be able to catch up to it. Even if it has powerful offensive powers, it won't be of much use against it. Should I use the Great Might Vajra Bull's Soul Suppression Bell? However, the Soul Suppression Bell is an area-of-effect attack. It affects both the enemy and me. If the golden-winged bird and Truth Listener were to faint together, that doesn't seem to be of much help to the battle… As Zhou Wen was thinking about how to help Truth Listener, he saw the enraged Truth Listener shatter another earring.

As the earring shattered, Truth Listener's body underwent a strange change. This time, it didn't grow bigger, but the first scale on its body vaguely produced strange black symbols. The symbols burned with black flames, like the devil's mark from hell.

Due to the appearance of the symbol, Truth Listener's dark golden body seemed to become dark. Under the envelopment of the black flames, coupled with its ferocious and violent eyes, it was like a demonic beast that had rushed out of hell.

Zhou Wen could sense that Truth Listener's emotions had become even more irritable and unstable. It was showing signs of madness, making Zhou Wen almost unable to sense the soul connection between them.

The golden-winged bird once again flashed past Truth Listener's side, but this time, Truth Listener's claw grabbed the golden-winged bird's leg.

Boom!

Truth Listener exerted strength in its arm and pulled the golden-winged bird down from the sky. It slammed heavily onto the ground, creating a huge crater in the golden ground.

Then, Truth Listener grabbed the golden-winged bird's legs with both claws and let out a violent roar. It suddenly exerted strength and was about to rip the golden-winged bird into two.

The golden-winged bird's body shimmered with golden light as its legs were torn apart. The mysterious symbol on its feathers kept trembling. It turned its head in horror and pecked Truth Listener.

However, Truth Listener ignored it. It allowed the golden-winged bird to tear apart the scales on its head. Blood gushed out, but it didn't seem to notice it. It continued tearing at the golden-winged bird's legs.

The golden light shattered as blood flowed out. The golden-winged bird let out a tragic cry as one of its legs was ripped off by Truth Listener. It struggled even more violently as it used its wings to strike Truth Listener's head.

Truth Listener ignored it. It threw away the bird leg in its hand and grabbed one of its wings with one hand and the other leg with another before tearing it apart.

Golden blood splattered onto the feathers. The golden-winged bird let out a heart-wrenching cry, but it was useless.

Zhou Wen looked at the golden-winged bird in horror. It had its wings and legs torn off by Truth Listener. In the end, it even ripped off its head and threw it to the ground.

Truth Listener roared at the sky like a bloodthirsty demon king from hell.

An Sheng was already dumbfounded. This was the first time he had seen such a ruthless and ferocious Companion Beast. It wasn't a massacre, but torture.

Ignoring Companion Beasts, even dimensional creatures seldom had such ferocious tendencies.

Zhou Wen himself wore a look of shock. He had only seen one of Truth Listener’s earrings shatter in the past. It was so ferocious and ruthless now that two earrings had shattered. If the six earrings were to shatter together, he didn’t know how terrifying it would be.

Zhou Wen didn’t attempt it, nor did he wish to try. He felt that the connection between him and Truth Listener had become extremely weak. It was like a taut fishing line that could snap at any moment.

He attempted to summon Truth Listener back. Thankfully, Truth Listener sensed Zhou Wen’s will and its emotions slowly stabilized. The shattered earring returned to its ears. When Truth Listener returned to Zhou Wen’s ear, the violent emotions vanished.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 689 - Invisible Fire

Chapter 689: Invisible Fire

Thankfully, nothing happened. Zhou Wen couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief when he felt Truth Listener’s emotions slowly calm down.

Every time Truth Listener’s earring shattered, it gave Zhou Wen an ominous feeling. If not for the fact that he had no choice, Zhou Wen wouldn’t be willing to let Truth Listener shatter the earring to fight.

However, in this situation, there was nothing else he could do. Zhou Wen had already used all the combat strength he could muster, so there was no way he could hold back.

With the golden-winged bird dead, Zhou Wen no longer had any worries. Unfortunately, he didn’t discover any Companion Eggs or dimensional crystals.

Gripping the Golden Overlord Sword tightly, Zhou Wen charged at the monk-robed skeleton. At the same time, he summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull and used the Soul Suppression Bell as support to attack the monk-robed skeleton.

Without the help of the crystal, the monk-clothed skeleton’s strength decreased significantly. Under the siege, it was stunned by the Soul Suppression Bell. Zhou Wen took the opportunity to slash at it, slicing off one of its legs, causing its movement to slow down significantly.

An Sheng also took the opportunity to use the fixing incantation. Although it couldn’t completely freeze the skeleton’s body, it made it pause for a moment.

Tyrant Behemoth’s body expanded as it used the Mountain Devouring Skill to swallow the monk-robed skeleton.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

Zhou Wen saw Tyrant Behemoth’s stomach twitch like a drum, but it didn’t last long.

It’s finally done! Zhou Wen didn’t dare relax as he turned to look at Buddha Annihilation. Indeed, he saw the Urna on his forehead glow once again. Immediately, another Buddhistic glow descended.

In the Buddhistic glow, the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird were born once again as their bodies gradually condensed.

Although he had expected it, Zhou Wen’s expression was still ugly. He turned his head to look at the golden-winged bird’s corpse that he had just killed and saw that it was still scattered across the ground. It hadn’t disappeared.

Damn it. What kind of power does that Buddha Annihilation’s Urna have to revive a Mythical creature out of thin air… Just as Zhou Wen was feeling depressed, something even more shocking happened.

It wasn’t just the skeleton and the golden-winged bird that were reborn in the Buddhistic glow. The two Golden Battle God Halberds that were killed were in the lineup as well.

However, the two Golden Battle God Halberds that had been revived had no connection to Zhou Wen, much less be under his control.

They are both Guardians, so why is Buddha Annihilation so much stronger than the six-winged seraphim? What kind of ability is this? Could it be that any creature or Companion Beast that dies near him, can be revived and used by him? Zhou Wen guessed inwardly. If that's the case, what's the point of fighting? Just surrender and commit suicide. It's impossible to win unless I kill Buddha Annihilation first.

Zhou Wen was somewhat tempted. Thinking of such a bug-like ability, he felt quite delighted if he could obtain it.

Unfortunately, Buddha Annihilation might not be willing to contract with him. Even if it was willing, Zhou Wen wasn't willing to do so.

His Companion Beast, Demonic Neonate, had signed a master-slave contract. If he signed a Guardian contract, wouldn't that be too lame in comparison?

As Zhou Wen pondered over, the skeleton, the golden-winged bird, and the two Golden Battle God Halberds rushed over. It was obvious that the Golden Battle God Halberds were completely heartless and wanted to destroy Zhou Wen and company.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to summon Truth Listener. He got it to remove the restrictions of one earring and continue fighting.

Zhou Wen faced the Golden Battle God Halberds himself. With his understanding of the Golden Battle God Halberds, he quickly used the Golden Overlord Sword to snap the two Golden Battle God Halberds.

Truth Listener was still fighting the golden-winged bird to the death. Tyrant Behemoth was dragging its exhausted body as it fought the monk-robed skeleton. An Sheng, the Azure Rainbow Flying Sword, and the bald parrot were all helping.

Zhou Wen originally wanted to rush forward to help, but he thought that even if he killed them, it would be useless. Buddha Annihilation would still revive them.

These revived Mythical creatures look no different from the former Mythical creatures or even Companion Beasts. Are they really identical to their original forms? Zhou Wen activated the Hell King's Eye and glanced at the golden-winged bird and the monk-robed skeleton, hoping to see if he could discover any differences.

A vertical crack appeared on Zhou Wen's glabella. It looked like a third eye, but there were no pupils in it. It was as though it was connected to hell as ghostly cries sounded.

Even with the Hell King's Eye, he couldn't tell how different these resurrected Mythical creatures were from their original bodies.

They looked no different from real creatures. They also had invisible flames on them, and they looked rather thick.

While Zhou Wen was observing, Truth Listener was already on the brink of going berserk.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and charged at the monk-robed skeleton. He planned on dealing with it before getting Tyrant Behemoth to help Truth Listener alleviate some of the pressure.

Where did Demonic Neonate go? Why haven't I seen her attack? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. He sensed Demonic Neonate's location and realized that she was hiding in a pile of ruins. She was secretly looking at Buddha Annihilation, who was sitting cross-legged in the sky.

So she's targeting Buddha Annihilation? I wonder if it's possible. Although Grim Demon is also a Guardian, it feels so weak. It feels weaker than the six-winged seraphim. Zhou Wen was somewhat worried.

If Demonic Neonate attacked Buddha Annihilation and ended up being killed by it, it would be a huge loss.

Zhou Wen was still optimistic about Demonic Neonate's future. He had been waiting for the day she returned to the Mythical stage, so he was unwilling for her to risk her life.

If Grim Demon knew what Zhou Wen was thinking, he would probably vomit blood and faint in the bathroom.

Grim Demon wasn't weak. It was only because it was limited by the master-slave contract. Furthermore, as the master, Demonic Neonate was too weak, which greatly reduced its combat strength. Otherwise, it wouldn't be so weak.

Zhou Wen rushed forward to help Tyrant Behemoth fight and summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull and Torch Dragon to help. He wanted to kill the monk-robed skeleton as soon as possible.

While fighting, Zhou Wen kept his Hell King's Eye open. He wanted to see if there was anything different between the monk-robed skeleton and the monk-robed skeleton that would be revived later.

Before Truth Listener went berserk again, Zhou Wen finally managed to kill the monk-robed skeleton. However, this time, Zhou Wen had cleaved apart the skeleton’s head with his sword.

At this moment, something strange happened. After the monk-robed skeleton was killed, the invisible flames on its body floated towards the Hell King’s Eye as though they were attracted by some force.

Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised, unsure if he had accidentally discovered the advancement method for Hell King.

The formless fire that resembled a stream of water was constantly sucked into the Hell King’s Eye. At the same time, Zhou Wen felt that his Hell King body was silently changing.

So Hell King evolves by absorbing these invisible flames? If I had known, I would have raised Hell King’s level a long time ago. Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 690 - Resurrection No More

Chapter 690: Resurrection No More

With the monk-robed skeleton dead, Zhou Wen commanded Tyrant Behemoth to reinforce Truth Listener. The Companion Beasts and the others didn’t head over.

Apart from top-notch Companion Beasts with especially powerful bodies like Tyrant Behemoth and Truth Listener, the other creatures would die if they went up. The golden-winged bird’s speed was just too fast. One had to withstand its attacks head-on, but its attack power was especially powerful. Even ordinary Mythical Companion Beasts couldn’t withstand it.

With Tyrant Behemoth joining the fray, Truth Listener’s pressure decreased significantly, but the battle became even more intense.

It was similar to Truth Listener’s situation. Without the suppression of Absolute Strength, Tyrant Behemoth couldn’t touch the golden-winged bird. It was only an additional target to take a beating, sharing half the brunt of the firepower.

Zhou Wen had been using his mind to control Truth Listener, preventing it from shattering the second earring.

Firstly, it was easy to lose control when it was in its berserk state due to the shattering of the earring. Secondly, even if it killed the golden-winged bird, it would still be revived by Buddha Annihilation. It was useless to kill it. It was better to drag it out.

I’m really stupid. I should have thought of a way to kill the golden-winged bird first and leave behind the easier monk-robed skeleton. Zhou Wen suddenly realized that he had done something wrong.

“Chancellor Leng’s situation doesn’t seem too good,” An Sheng came to Zhou Wen’s side and said as he looked up into the sky.

Zhou Wen could also tell that Leng Zongzheng’s situation wasn’t good. His Demonic Organ Throne had been unable to suppress Buddha Annihilation despite all this time. Under such circumstances, the party taking the initiative to attack would suffer.

Once the opponent found a chance to counterattack, Leng Zongzheng would be in danger.

“The battle between the two of them is almost at the peak of the Mythical stage. Our strength isn’t enough to interfere in the battle. Even if we rely on Companion Beasts to influence the direction of the battle, we need to find an appropriate opportunity.” Zhou Wen sighed and said, “If my Torch Dragon Youngling hadn’t expended too much energy, it might have the ability to forcefully change the battle’s trajectory, but it won’t work now.”

An Sheng smiled and said, “Young Master Wen, don’t worry. The quality and quantity of your Companion Beasts are enough to stand tall amongst the Federation. Even the people with the most Companion Beasts in the six hero families are probably inferior to you. If you can’t even leave this place, no one in the Federation will be able to.”

Zhou Wen knew that An Sheng was trying to relieve the pressure on him, so he said with a smile, “That’s not necessarily the case. At the very least, Primordial Sword Immortal and Death of the Underworld aren’t weaker on the rankings than my Behemoth.”

“Those kinds of Companion Beasts are rare even among the six families. Whoever has one is already considered extremely lucky. How could one have so many like you? Let me do a count. Torch Dragon, Behemoth, and that Companion Beast that looks like a golden ape. Ignoring the other ordinary Mythical creatures, you already have three top-notch Mythical creatures that can attempt first place. You can be considered unprecedented,” An Sheng sighed.

Zhou Wen shook his head. Now, these top Companion Beasts weren’t able to help him rush out of the Buddhist kingdom. Life and death remained unknown.

Sometimes, miracles happen in this world.

Behemoth and Truth Listener couldn’t keep up with the golden-winged bird’s speed. They were originally getting beaten up, and Zhou Wen only wanted them to hold back the golden-winged bird.

To his surprise, Truth Listener had actually gotten lucky. It had accidentally caught the golden-winged bird’s wings when it was clawing wildly.

This surprise was unexpected to the golden-winged bird and Truth Listener. This was also a testament to the benefits of having low intelligence. Under the same circumstances, Truth Listener, who wasn’t intelligent, had a reaction that exceeded its brain. It instinctively grabbed the golden-winged bird’s wings and threw it over its shoulder, slamming it to the ground.

Boom!

Having seized this opportunity, how could the two terrifying creatures give up? Behemoth sat on the golden-winged bird's body and slammed its head. Truth Listener stood in front of the golden-winged bird and ripped off its wings.

The golden-winged bird had a huge advantage in speed, but its body wasn't stronger than Truth Listener or Behemoth's. Under the two beasts' barrage of attacks, it was quickly killed.

Zhou Wen was chatting with An Sheng when he realized that it was too late to stop them from killing the golden-winged bird.

Seeing that the golden-winged bird's head had been smashed in, it was no longer able to live.

Zhou Wen wanted to retrieve the golden-winged bird's invisible flames using the Hell King's Eye, but he realized that he couldn't. After the golden-winged bird died, the invisible flames on its body automatically dissipated into the world.

Could it be that I have to kill a creature myself to absorb the invisible flames on its body? Zhou Wen guessed the reason.

Upon dying, Buddha Annihilation once again used its power to revive them.

The Buddhistic glow illuminated and purified the golden Buddha kingdom with no way of stopping it.

Just as Zhou Wen thought he had to kill the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird again, he realized something strange.

The golden-winged bird and the two Golden Battle God Halberds were reborn, but the monk-robed skeleton didn’t reincarnate this time. It was nowhere to be seen.

Strange, why hasn’t the monk-robed skeleton been reborn? Could it be that Buddha’s Annihilation’s strength is insufficient to revive the monk-robed skeleton? That’s not right. The golden-winged bird is even stronger than the monk-robed skeleton; yet, it can be revived. The two Golden Battle God Halberds can also be reborn. There’s no reason for the monk-robed skeleton to not have the strength to be reborn…

Zhou Wen’s eyes lit up as he suddenly thought of a possibility. Previously, when the monk-robed skeleton died, I used the Hell King’s Eye to absorb the invisible flames on its body. Could this be the reason why it couldn’t be reborn again?

“Young Master Wen, look. That monk-robed skeleton didn’t revive this time. Did Buddha Annihilation expend too much of its energy and have no way of reviving the monk-robed skeleton?” An Sheng couldn’t see Zhou Wen absorbing the invisible flames with the Hell King’s Eye, so his conclusion was similar to Zhou Wen’s first thought.

“I think I might know how to prevent them from being revived,” Zhou Wen said as he impatiently charged at the two Golden Battle God Halberds.

Tyrant Behemoth and Truth Listener also charged at the golden-winged bird and began their painful battle again.

Zhou Wen opened the Hell King’s Eye and snapped the two Golden Battle God Halberds. At the same time, he absorbed the invisible flames from their bodies. This time, the process was very smooth. He absorbed all of them in one go.

Zhou Wen couldn’t wait to know if they would revive later.

An Sheng seemed to sense something when he saw Zhou Wen slice through the Golden Battle God Halberd, but he didn’t know what Zhou Wen had done.

Be it the Hell King’s Eye or the invisible fire, they were invisible to the naked eye. An Sheng had no idea that Zhou Wen had absorbed the invisible fire with his Hell King’s Eye, so he naturally had no way of guessing.

Now, there’s only the golden-winged bird left. Zhou Wen thought for a moment and summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull. He took the opportunity and made it use the Soul Suppression Bell, causing the golden-winged bird to instantly feel dizzy.

Zhou Wen originally wanted to rush over, but to his surprise, Behemoth became dizzy but Truth Listener didn’t. It immediately grabbed the dizzy golden-winged bird.

Following that, it carried out another round of battery. The two monster-like Companion Beasts beat the golden-winged bird until it was half dead before Zhou Wen went up and killed it in one strike.

After absorbing the invisible flames from the golden-winged bird, Zhou Wen looked at Buddha Annihilation again.

However, this time, Buddha Annihilation didn’t use its resurrection ability. It appeared to be as Zhou Wen had expected. Buddha Annihilation’s resurrection wasn’t done without reason; it needed the invisible fire as its foundation. Now that the invisible fire was gone, Buddha Annihilation no longer had a target to use the skill.

“Young Master Wen, how did you do it?” An Sheng asked Zhou Wen in surprise.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 691 - Advancement Initiated

Chapter 691: Advancement Initiated

“I just realized that there’s an Essence Energy Skill that can restrain them, preventing them from being revived,” Zhou Wen said as he looked at Leng Zongzheng and Buddha Annihilation in the sky.

He didn’t know music and didn’t know much about space. However, he had a nagging feeling that Leng Zongzheng’s organ music was weakening.

“Ah Sheng, do you know music? Do you know the extent of this song? Is it about to end?” Zhou Wen asked.

An Sheng understood Zhou Wen’s meaning and said with a heavy expression, “I only know a thing or two about music. However, I’ve heard from Overseer that Chancellor Leng’s Demonic Symphony has a total of seven movements. It should have reached the sixth movement. If this chapter can’t suppress Buddha Annihilation, I’m afraid the last movement will require him to go all out.”

“What do you mean?” Zhou Wen asked.

“No one knows what the last movement of the Demonic Symphony is. Everyone who has heard it is already dead. Overseer had only heard Chancellor Leng mention it. If the heart doesn’t die, the seventh movement won’t make a squeak,” An Sheng explained.

After Zhou Wen heard that, he immediately knew that things weren’t looking good. Since the heart doesn’t die naturally, it meant that one still had the desire to live. If one’s heart died, they could even abandon their lives. The final movement’s dangers were obvious.

Now, Buddha Annihilation had already heard the end of the sixth movement, but he remained composed. Perhaps victory could only be determined by the seventh movement.

As the two of them spoke, the sixth movement came to an end. Although the first six musical movements had some ups and downs, in general, they were all gentle tunes that spurred one to improve themselves.

When the first note of the seventh movement sounded, everything changed.

The musical note seemed to have an irresistible charm. The moment it sounded, Zhou Wen and An Sheng felt an illusion appear in front of them.

The crumbling Buddhist kingdom seemed to have turned into hell. Death filled the air as countless vengeful souls extended their palms from underground and let out painful cries.

The Demonic Organ Throne in the sky didn’t change at all. It was still the Demonic Organ Throne, but Leng Zongzheng, who was sitting in front of the organ, emitted a terrifying demonic aura. He looked like a devil dressed in a suit. The demonic aura around him surged into the sky as his fingers danced. He pressed on the keys in a frenzy. His eyes were burning with zeal as he seemed to be possessed.

“The organ hasn’t changed, but the person has been possessed. This movement is too dangerous and evil.” Even Zhou Wen, who didn’t know music, couldn’t see the horror of Chancellor Leng’s movement.

In the past, it could be said that it was enticing one into entering a demonic state, but now, it was becoming one with the devil. The dangers involved only could be imagined.

Buddha Annihilation was still sitting cross-legged in the void. He closed his eyes and chanted. He held the Buddha beads with his fingers and emitted a supreme Buddhistic glow to block the terrifying demonic music.

However, when the seventh movement sounded, even Buddha Annihilation showed a change in expression. The Buddha beads in his hand scattered and fell into the void. The Buddha patterns on the Buddha beads revealed smiling faces. However, the smiles looked as ferocious as a devil's smile. It was as crazy and evil as Leng Zongzheng's expression.

Buddha Annihilation opened its eyes as the Urna on its forehead emitted a crystalline glow to resist the demonic music. On his body, black-red patterns that represented the devil appeared as they constantly spread across his body. The final target was the Urna.

Zhou Wen and An Sheng felt their hearts tremble. They couldn't help but be alarmed when they saw the demonic patterns on their bodies.

"Young Master Wen… Quickly retreat…" An Sheng pulled Zhou Wen back.

The two of them retreated again and again before they felt much better. Zhou Wen used the Small Perfection of Wisdom Sutra to resist the hellish demonic music and it immediately had an effect. The demonic patterns on his body gradually receded.

An Sheng gradually returned to normal. The two of them looked at each other in horror. Despite being so far away, they were still affected. Buddha Annihilation, who faced Leng Zongzheng directly, experienced an indescribable pressure.

“Chancellor Leng is indeed worthy of being known as the strongest existence beneath the Mythical stage. Even Buddha can become a devil. I’m afraid there aren’t many people in the world who can withstand such organ music.” Zhou Wen couldn’t help but praise Leng Zongzheng, who was like a devil.

More and more demonic runes appeared on Buddha Annihilation’s body, almost covering his entire body. Only his Urna shone with a Buddhistic glow.

Zhou Wen and An Sheng were nervous, but Leng Zongzheng’s organ music was getting crazier. They knew that it was probably the final critical moment.

Suddenly, the Urna between Buddha Annihilation’s eyebrows glowed brightly, illuminating the world like a sun.

“It’s coming!” Zhou Wen and An Sheng’s hearts were in their mouths. They knew that victory or defeat depended on this strike. Anyone who retreated would probably be severely injured.

At the instant Buddha Annihilation’s Urna released a blinding light, a dark purple beam of light silently passed through the hellish scene and stabbed into Buddha Annihilation’s back.

Buddha Annihilation’s pupils constricted as the Urna on his forehead dimmed. The demonic organ music immediately invaded his Urna.

A trace of black demonic aura appeared in the originally flawless Urna. Furthermore, wisps of the demonic aura continued to seep into it, weakening the Urna’s glow.

Demonic Neonate! Zhou Wen immediately recognized the sword that had stabbed into the Buddha Annihilation’s back. It was the demonic sword in Demonic Neonate’s arms.

The demonic sword inched into Buddha Annihilation’s heart. With him severely injured and the invasion of the demonic music, the situation changed drastically.

As its Urna was gradually corroded by the demonic music, Buddha Annihilation’s peaceful face also began to distort. Red light flashed in its eyes as the Buddha-like face gradually turned devilish.

Buddha Annihilation stood up abruptly as the power in its body erupted like a volcano. It wanted to send the demonic sword on its back flying, but the demonic sword seemed to be nailed into its bones. Not only did it fail to send it flying away, it even stabbed into Buddha Annihilation’s heart at an even faster rate, piercing right through it.

If Buddha Annihilation could maintain its Buddhist nature, the demonic sword might not have been capable of penetrating its heart that easily. However, the moment it became demonized, Grim Demon on the sword played a significant role. It made Buddha Annihilation unable to put up a resistance.

Under the pincer attack of the demonic sword and the organ music, the extremely terrifying Guardian ultimately couldn’t withstand the attack. Its eyes gradually dimmed.

The Buddhistic glow on Buddha Annihilation’s body gradually extinguished. It also meant that his vitality was like a candle in the wind, about to extinguish at any moment.

Just as Buddha Annihilation was at the end of the ropes, its eyes regained clarity. The demonic patterns on its body gradually receded and it returned to its crystalline Buddha body. It sat down cross-legged and closed its eyes as it said slowly, “Annihilation of Buddha tonight is like the snuffing out of fire.”

With that sentence, the Buddha body burned like a piece of paper, turning to ash.

At that moment, Zhou Wen suddenly felt his Slaughterer Life Soul tremble as though an invisible force was injected into it, rapidly evolving it.

Zhou Wen was alarmed and delighted. He hadn’t been able to find an advancement method for Slaughterer, but now, it had inexplicably advanced.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 692 - Evolved Body

Chapter 692: Evolved Body

With Buddha Annihilation dead, the Buddhist kingdom also collapsed. The Buddha statue completely shattered, turning into fragments that fell into the void. At the foundation of the Buddha, a stone door was revealed.

“The exit is there. Let’s go.” Leng Zongzheng led Zhou Wen and An Sheng towards the door.

When they went through the door, they realized that they were already outside the stone house. The stone house was wobbling and crumbling. Before long, it collapsed with a boom, reduced to a ruin.

Zhou Wen looked at the tiny pile of rocks and felt as though he was dreaming.

I’ve finally come out alive. Zhou Wen decided that he had to draw a few Substitute Talismans when he returned. No matter how low the success rate was, he had to draw them.

In the past, he had always gamed and seldom ventured into dimensional zones. Furthermore, he had plenty of Mythical Companion Beasts. With a Substitute Talisman and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon, he felt that it was enough to deal with any danger.

However, the battle in the Buddhist kingdom made Zhou Wen realize how terrifying the Guardians were. An uncontracted Buddha Annihilation was already this terrifying. It was probably more dangerous to encounter a contractor who already had an owner—as long as it wasn't a rookie like John.

After the stone house collapsed, the phenomenon in Dragon Gate Grotto vanished and everything returned to normal.

However, problems with the Dragon Gate Grotto's seal seemed to ensue after this. Often, some creatures would break out of the seal, making it much more frequent than before.

Thankfully, most of them were Malla or Fairies. Furthermore, there weren't many of them. The troops stationed there could deal with them.

"Tianzuo, your family's Little Zhou is indeed not bad. He's worth grooming. You should spend more time on him," Leng Zongzheng said to An Tianzuo before he left.

The corners of An Tianzuo's eyes twitched, but he couldn't retort his teacher. All he could do was lower his eyes and say yes.

Zhou Wen, Feng Qiuyan, and Li Xuan returned to their campus dorm and received a commendation. Feng Qiuyan and Li Xuan had fought with their lives on the line and killed many dimensional creatures. Although they didn't kill any Mythical creatures, they won plenty of illustrious merits.

The military handed out medals to the students who had made contributions. However, An Tianzuo didn't come. Qin Wufu handed out the medals on his behalf.

After Qin Wufu gave Zhou Wen the medal, he patted him on the shoulder and said, "Zhou Wen, if you wish to join the military, remember to come to me. There's freedom with me. No one can control you."

Qin Wufu’s words seemed to imply something, but Zhou Wen had no intention of joining the military at the moment. All he could do was give an excuse.

When he returned to his dorm, he realized that there were many messages on his phone. Some were from Wang Lu, some from The Thearch, and many from Lucas.

Wang Lu and Lucas had sent messages to ask Zhou Wen about the situation after hearing about the anomaly in Dragon Gate Grotto.

The Thearch asked Zhou Wen for any updates—if he was willing to accept her conditions.

He replied to the messages one by one. He didn’t receive a reply from The Thearch. Wang Lu and Lucas quickly replied and Zhou Wen explained his situation.

Only when he was free did Zhou Wen have the time to carefully observe Slaughterer.

After killing Buddha Annihilation, Slaughterer had automatically evolved. However, Slaughterer had always been mysterious. Zhou Wen’s connection with Slaughterer was somewhat odd—he knew very little about it.

He switched on his phone and switched to Slaughterer. Zhou Wen carefully studied Slaughterer’s information.

Slaughterer: Evolved Body

The information was simple, but it was equivalent to not saying anything. He only knew that he had advanced to an Evolved Body, but even the name hadn’t changed at all.

This was identical to the time when he condensed Slaughterer. Other Life Souls could be summoned to be used, but Slaughterer could only be used passively. It was completely different from the other Life Souls.

Zhou Wen later experimented with some of Slaughterer's abilities, such as infinite Essence Energy recovery or stat strengthening.

Now that he had advanced to an Evolved Body, there was still no information. Zhou Wen could only figure it out himself.

After entering a game dungeon and switching to Slaughterer, Zhou Wen attempted to use all sorts of skills to fight dimensional creatures. He wanted to see what new capabilities Slaughterer's Evolved Body had.

Soon, Zhou Wen realized that Slaughterer's augmentation of his stats had increased significantly, and his Essence Energy recovery was faster. However, these were abilities that he already had in the past, so it wasn't surprising for them to be enhanced.

Don't tell me there's no other ability? Zhou Wen attempted to communicate with Slaughterer, but unfortunately, just like before, Slaughterer didn't respond. It was like a lifeless machine that clung to his body.

It's impossible to not have any new abilities, right? Zhou Wen felt that it was definitely not that simple, but after trying for a long time, he failed to discover any extraordinary abilities.

I'll test it out slowly in the future. Zhou Wen thought for a moment before switching to the Hell King Life Soul. He planned on grinding it to a Perfect Body.

He only needed to slay dimensional creatures to advance. The Hell King Life Soul was probably the easiest to advance.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to begin a massacre in-game, he suddenly realized that the Poison Bats in front of him didn't have any invisible flames.

Why is this happening? Zhou Wen frowned and looked at the horde of Poison Bats. He realized that there were no invisible flames on them.

Zhou Wen exited the dungeon and logged into a few more dungeons. The outcome was the same. None of the dimensional creatures in-game had invisible flames.

Could it be that there are no invisible flames because they are simulated creatures in-game? But that's not right. If the creatures in-game are different from the creatures in real life, why would a Companion Beast that drops have the invisible flame? For instance, an existence like the Golden Battle God Halberd has the invisible flames? What's the reason? Zhou Wen couldn't understand the reason why and planned on heading to a dimensional zone in real life to take a look.

Zhou Wen planned on heading to Tiger Cage Pass. Every time he entered a dimensional zone in real life, something would happen, so he deliberately chose to head to Tiger Cage Pass.

Tiger Cage Pass's final boss was the Elegant Emperor Puppet's avatar. Zhou Wen could easily kill it now, so no matter what happened, it wouldn't be too much for him.

I have to think of a way to get a Companion Beast that augments luck or good fortune to neutralize the bad luck I have. Otherwise, I have a nagging feeling that something will go wrong having Bamboo Blade, Tiger Soul General, and Tai Sui on me, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

Since Tiger Cage Pass wasn’t too dangerous, Zhou Wen took the chick out with him to let it get some fresh air. It had been recently eating and sleeping all day in the dorm, making it look much fatter.

An Sheng got someone to deliver food to them every day, so the antelope and chick ate like kings.

The chubby chick stood on Zhou Wen’s shoulder with its round face. At a glance, it looked like an owl.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 693 - Guidance

Chapter 693: Guidance

On the way to Tiger Cage Pass, he encountered many students. Unlike before, many of them took the initiative to greet Zhou Wen.

In the past, due to Zhou Wen’s relationship with Wang Mingyuan and the problem with the bureau, many students weren’t willing to interact with Zhou Wen. They were afraid of being implicated.

Things were somewhat different now. The anomaly at Dragon Gate Grotto allowed many students to witness how terrifying break-out creatures were. At the same time, they deeply realized that only the strong could survive and protect the human cities in the future.

As for Zhou Wen, who had illustrious feats on the battlefield, many students had no choice but to reconsider their interactions with him.

However, Zhou Wen looked at them in a somewhat odd manner. It wasn’t because of their actions, but because he had activated his Eye of Hell and saw the invisible flames on them. It was as though he was looking at EXP treasures.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen’s mind was relatively normal. If he were Ják, he would have long culled them for the experience.

“Zhou Wen, what are you doing here?” Zhou Wen had just arrived at the entrance of Tiger Cage Pass when he saw Li Weiyang leading a group of girls outside.

“Senior Weiyang, I’m here to kill Demonized Generals,” Zhou Wen answered.

Li Weiyang joked, “Dear Almighty Zhou, shouldn’t you be killing Mythical creatures? Why are you here in Tiger Cage Pass to snatch the mere Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals from us? Is there any justice in this world?”

Zhou Wen didn’t know what to say as Li Weiyang continued, “We also have to enter Tiger Cage Pass to kill Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals. These juniors aren’t experienced enough. Why don’t you join us? You can give the juniors a demonstration.”

Li Weiyang’s invitation didn’t conflict with Zhou Wen’s intentions, so he nodded and said, “Actually, killing ordinary Demonized Generals isn’t difficult. Previously, Li Xuan and I made a strategy. If one follows the strategy, they only need four or five at the Mortal stage to kill a Demonized General.”

“Senior, teach us please,” a female freshman said to Zhou Wen.

The girls immediately turned rowdy, clamoring for Zhou Wen to teach them how to kill Demonized Generals.

“Of course.” Zhou Wen agreed readily. After all, his goal was to farm invisible flames. He wouldn’t waste much time teaching them.

The group of girls happily followed Zhou Wen into Tiger Cage Pass. Some of the girls even pulled him along and to teach them how to kill Demonized Soldiers.

Li Weiyang didn’t stop him. All she did was watch with a smile. However, she thought to herself, Do you little vixens really think that this is some treasured meat? If it was really a treasure, I would have called dibs long ago. Would you even have a chance? It’s just a piece of titanium-alloyed bone. Ignoring the possibility of eating it, just attempting to bite on it will spoil your teeth.

Indeed, as Li Weiyang had expected, the girls originally imagined that Zhou Wen would gently teach them. He might even hold their hands and teach them. This way, they could have some intimate contact with this famous senior. It might even lead to a romantic beginning.

However, when Zhou Wen really started teaching them, they realized how ridiculously wrong they were.

Zhou Wen simply used the standards of a soldier on them. No, it should be said that he requested inhuman standards of them.

“That’s not right. Your foot has to stretch out three centimeters more. Lower your head a little more and punch with more strength. Can you not draw circles with your sword? Be more efficient. Why are you twisting your waist over there? Stand straight…” Zhou Wen spoke to them as though he was lecturing a recruit.

Zhou Wen felt that there was nothing wrong with this. On the battlefield, a tiny mistake could cost them their lives. They needed to be absolutely correct.

Furthermore, if they wanted to kill a Legendary Demonized General at the Mortal stage, they needed to be precise in everything. Otherwise, problems would easily arise.

Zhou Wen had taught them according to the standards he had been shown during his practices with Li Xuan and Feng Qiuyan. He had even lowered his standards to the minimum.

Even so, they failed to meet the requirements. Zhou Wen couldn’t help but frown.

The girls realized that this was different from what they had imagined. They originally thought that it would be a pleasant interaction with their senior, but they ended up being treated as animals.

Seeing many girls leave silently, Li Weiyang laughed inwardly. These girls have finally seen how clueless a man can be.

Sometime into Zhou Wen’s lesson, he realized that the number of girls who listened to his explanations and guidance was decreasing. Furthermore, they were all over the place. They couldn’t meet his standards.

However, there was a first-year junior who surprised Zhou Wen. She had meticulously completed all the techniques that Zhou Wen had taught. Although there were some mistakes, she was much better than the other girls.

Furthermore, the junior was rather talented. She seemed to realize her mistakes and would fix many of them in her next practice.

“Senior, can I kill a Demonized General alone at the Mortal stage?” The other girls had already distanced themselves from Zhou Wen, but this girl took the initiative to ask him.

“It’s not impossible. Show me what you’ve learned.” Zhou Wen felt that the girl was rather talented and hardworking. He wasn’t stingy with teaching this junior.

The girl showed Zhou Wen what she had learned. Although Zhou Wen saw that she hadn't learned any Essence Energy Skills, her basics were very solid. It was obvious that she had worked hard and was an all-rounder.

Zhou Wen couldn't help but recall the time he cultivated Ascetic Meditation. Like the girl, he had been silently cultivating, doing his best to do what he could.

"With your present skills, it's a little difficult to kill a Demonized General. I can slightly change your movement technique's positioning. That might allow you to kill a Demonized General. However, before that, you still need to train your strength. Your present strength isn't enough. Furthermore, this will require a lot of practice and actual combat. It's not something that can be done in a short period of time," Zhou Wen said.

"If it's not troublesome, can you teach me? If it's too troublesome, forget it," the girl asked in embarrassment.

"It's not troublesome." Zhou Wen explained how to change her movement technique.

In fact, it was just adding some basic techniques of Transcendent Flying Immortal. Zhou Wen demonstrated it once and guided the girl several times.

Li Weiyang couldn't help but be surprised when she saw the girl learning from Zhou Wen. It was really surprising that there was a girl who wasn't frightened away by him.

Zhou Wen guided the girl a few times and when he saw that she wasn't making any more mistakes, he said to her, "Your movement is right, but you need to spend time practicing. When you can use it freely in battle, along with a raise of your strength, you can kill a Demonized General alone."

“Thank you, Senior. I know what to do.” After thanking him, the girl went to the side to silently practice.

Seeing that no more girls were asking him for advice, Zhou Wen began his Hell King advancement plan.

The Demonized Soldiers in reality were no different from the Demonized Soldiers in-game. However, these Demonized Soldiers had the invisible flames on their bodies.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 694 - Holy Hell King

Chapter 694: Holy Hell King

When Zhou Wen drew his saber to kill the Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals, the girl watched from the side as though she was observing Zhou Wen's movement technique. Then, she compared it to her own movement technique and continued practicing.

After Zhou Wen killed the Demonized Soldiers, invisible flames were immediately sucked into the Hell King's Eye. However, the quantity was lacking. It was much less than the invisible flames he had obtained from killing the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird. It was like the difference between a drop of water and a pool of water.

However, a tower could be formed simply by piling sand. By killing more Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals, he could accumulate a significant amount of invisible flames.

Perhaps it was because he had obtained a lot of invisible flames from before, Zhou Wen felt his body begin to undergo a strange change after killing a few Demonized Soldiers.

Invisible flames flowed out of the Hell King's Eye, enveloping his body in invisible flames. Under the baptism of the invisible flames, the Hell King Life Soul underwent a complete transformation.

However, the invisible flames couldn't be seen. The students nearby couldn't tell the changes in Zhou Wen's body.

The Hell King Life Soul was Zhou Wen’s body. When the Hell King Life Soul evolved, Zhou Wen’s body also changed.

His body became extremely sensitive. Zhou Wen could even sense a speck of dust landing on him, and this level of spiritual perception and touch made him feel uncomfortable.

This feeling wasn’t very good because the air was filled with dust and bacteria. It was fine back when he couldn’t feel or see them.

But now, he could only watch as the dust landed on his face, eyes, and even on his lips. There were also the worm-like bacteria. As they entered Zhou Wen’s nose and mouth through his breathing, he felt terrible.

The invisible flames couldn’t injure any creature, nor could it stop anything from approaching Zhou Wen. The invisible flames didn’t seem to exist at all.

However, it made Zhou Wen’s Hell King Life Soul become stronger and stronger. Finally, even the Hell King’s Eye changed.

In the past, the Hell King’s Eye was only a spatial rift. There was no pupil inside, but as the Hell King’s Life Soul transformed, a pupil-like bead gradually condensed in the Hell King’s Eye.

The bead was condensed from invisible flames. It was formless and corporeal, making it look extremely strange. It was like a transparent pupil that floated in the Hell King’s Eye.

Finally, the Hell King Life Soul completed its evolution. The Hell King’s Eye also had a transparent pupil. The pupil burned with invisible flames, making it look strange and mysterious.

The invisible flames on his body subsided as some mysterious information surged into Zhou Wen’s mind, allowing him to gain some information regarding the evolution of the Hell King Life Soul.

However, Zhou Wen still switched on his phone and read the blood-colored avatar’s information.

Holy Hell King (Evolved Body): The King of Hell who cleanses away sin.

Zhou Wen roughly knew that the Hell King’s Eye had the effect of cleansing sin, but he still needed to give it a try to know its exact power.

Zhou Wen gave it a try to see how powerful the upgraded Holy Hell King was.

He looked at a Demonized Soldier with the Hell King’s Eye. The invisible karmic sinflames in his eyes immediately burned.

The invisible karmic flames on the Demonized Soldier’s body were triggered. It burst into flames as the invisible karmic sinflames on its body became even thicker.

It looked very powerful. The invisible karmic flames on the Demon Soldier’s body grew thicker, but they didn’t seem to affect the Demonized Soldier at all.

The Demonized Soldier looked normal. It didn’t seem to hurt in any spot. It didn’t even blink.

*Holy sh*t, how can it be useless? Could it be that the Demonized Soldier has already been secretly injured and will die after taking seven steps?* Zhou Wen stared at the Demonized Soldier for a while to see if it would suddenly collapse.

As Zhou Wen watched, he counted the Demonized Soldier's steps. One step... Two steps... Three steps...

He watched as the Demonized Soldier finished seven steps. Suddenly, the Demonized Soldier's body paused.

No way! I actually guessed right. It'll die in seven steps? Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised.

However, to his surprise, the Demonized Soldier stopped and farted before continuing to wander.

Zhou Wen's face immediately darkened. Without any hesitation, he killed the Demonized Soldier with one strike and swallowed the invisible flames on its body.

What the hell. After all this trouble, this Holy Hell King's ability is useless, Zhou Wen thought gloomily.

Although Zhou Wen knew that the Eye of the Holy Hell King was definitely useful, it didn't seem to be suitable for mainstream use. He didn't know what its exact use was.

Forget it. I'll continue absorbing the invisible flames. I'll advance the Hell King to a Perfect Body first. Zhou Wen continued killing monsters to obtain the invisible flames.

For the next few days, Zhou Wen absorbed the invisible karmic flames at Tiger Cage Pass. Finally, he charged into Tiger Cage Pass and killed the Tiger Cage Demonized General and the Elegant Emperor's Avatar Puppet.

However, the invisible karmic flames that these Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals could provide were far inferior to the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird. Despite Zhou Wen absorbing so much, the Holy Hell King didn’t react at all. It showed no signs of advancement again.

Reality wasn’t a game. After killing the Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals inside, he had no choice but to slowly wait for new Demonized Soldiers and Demonized Generals to come out of the dimensional rift. He didn’t know how many days he would have to wait, so Zhou Wen naturally wanted to head out. He planned on changing locations to continue grinding the invisible karmic sinflames.

Just as he was about to leave, he saw a female student enter deep inside Tiger Cage Pass and kill many Demonized Soldiers. Finally, she encountered a Demonized General and was fighting it.

Zhou Wen didn’t pay her much attention and was about to leave when he realized that her movement technique looked familiar. He took a careful look.

He immediately realized that the girl was someone he knew. She was the female freshman who had come here with Li Weiyang a few days ago. Zhou Wen had even taught her some basic techniques of Transcendent Flying Immortal.

After not seeing her for a few days, the girl had already mastered the techniques. She fought the Demonized General alone and used the techniques that Zhou Wen had taught her to constantly move about, preventing the Demonized General from touching her. Instead, she constantly injured it.

Unfortunately, she was only at the Mortal stage. She didn’t even have a Companion Beast, nor did she learn any Essence Energy Skills. Every strike on the Demonized General only dealt limited damage.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but frown slightly. He had told the girl that she lacked strength and needed to raise her strength to kill the Demonized General, but to his surprise, she had come alone.

She also knew that her attacks were lacking, so she wasn’t greedy. She wanted to cause severe damage by constantly accumulating damage.

However, she had neglected the fact that her Essence Energy and stamina were lacking. After a prolonged battle, her speed and strength declined.

Finally, the girl’s speed decreased drastically. She failed to dodge the Demonized General’s charge and was about to be hit.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 695

Chapter 695: Butterfly

With a flash of the saber beam, the Demonized General was cleaved into two.

The girl barely survived. When she saw Zhou Wen beside the Demonized General, she revealed a look of pleasant surprise.

“Didn’t I tell you that you lack strength and that you need to raise your strength before you can attempt killing the Demonized General?” Zhou Wen said with a frown. He was a little angry and his tone was nasty.

The reason Zhou Wen was angry wasn’t that the girl hadn’t listened to him. In the event something happened to the girl, wasn’t he harming her by teaching those movement techniques?

When the girl heard Zhou Wen, she lowered her head and said uneasily, “I’m sorry. It’s my fault. I shouldn’t have ignored your advice.”

“It’s not that you let me down, but that you let yourself down. You were lucky that I happened to be here. You might not be so lucky next time,” Zhou Wen said.

“Senior, don’t worry. There won’t be a next time,” the girl said seriously.

“That’s good. I’ll escort you back to prevent any accidents.” Zhou Wen walked out as the girl followed behind him.

“Your movement technique isn’t bad. Here are some movement technique notes. You can take a look. They should be of some help to you.” Zhou Wen thought for a moment and handed a notebook to the girl.

They were some of the notes Zhou Wen had made when he first comprehended Transcendent Flying Immortal Skill. They were just random thoughts and techniques, nothing systematic.

After Zhou Wen truly gained an epiphany, he didn’t use them again.

This girl was rather talented in movement techniques, and her personality was somewhat similar to Zhou Wen’s. Zhou Wen casually handed the notebook to her to see if she could figure out anything useful from his random thoughts and techniques. It all depended on her perceptivity.

“I… I don’t have money…” The girl shook her hand immediately.

“It’s not worth much. I just wrote it in passing. Just take a look. There’s no need to take it seriously.” Zhou Wen threw the notebook to the girl and left.

After Zhou Wen returned to his dorm, he began studying which dimensional zone to continue grinding for invisible sinflames.

Although he already knew the method needed to advance Slaughterer, killing a Guardian to advance Slaughterer was just too difficult.

Zhou Wen already knew that he couldn’t beat the Guardian in Ant City.

He might not even be capable of killing the nine black dragons who pulled the wagon in the underground sea.

There was also another one—it was guarded by the chick's mother. Ignoring the question of whether Zhou Wen could defeat it, even if he could, he didn't think it was right to kill the chick's mother.

Of course, he might not be its match in the first place.

After some thought, he realized that there was only one Guardian he could kill—Grim Demon who possessed the demonic sword.

Every time Grim Demon saw Zhou Wen, it felt that Zhou Wen was looking at him with a look resembling how a hungry wolf looked at a sheep. It made his heart tremble.

Although Zhou Wen had the intention to kill Grim Demon in an attempt to advance Slaughterer to another level, Grim Demon was Demonic Neonate's reserve rations. Zhou Wen couldn't bring himself to do the deed, so he could only give up.

Furthermore, Demonic Neonate's successful sneak attack during the Buddha Annihilation battle was all thanks to Grim Demon who was attached to the demonic sword. Otherwise, the ordinary demonic sword wouldn't have been able to injure Buddha Annihilation, much less kill it.

If he killed Grim Demon, Demonic Neonate's might would be greatly reduced. It didn't seem worth it.

After much selection, Zhou Wen finally chose a dimensional zone that few people went to. It was the underground Pool City. In the past, Zhou Wen had farmed dimensional creatures like the Poison Wyrm. There were actually quite a number of dimensional creatures there, but because most of them were underwater and weren’t easy to kill, very few people went there.

Zhou Wen went to Pool City and grinded for a few days, but he didn’t make much progress. Typical dimensional creatures had very few invisible sinflames on them. Furthermore, after advancing to the Holy Hell King, the invisible sinflames he needed for another advancement seemed to increase significantly. He didn’t know how long it would take to advance Holy Hell King by killing ordinary dimensional creatures.

Where can I kill a few dimensional creatures like the monk-robed skeleton and the golden-winged bird? Zhou Wen finally gave up on the idea of grinding ordinary dungeons to obtain the invisible sinflames.

Zhou Wen returned to his dorm and found Li Xuan sitting in the living room. Seeing Zhou Wen return, Li Xuan walked over with a smile and was about to put his hand on Zhou Wen’s shoulder.

Whoosh!

Zhou Wen immediately placed the sheathed Bamboo Blade against Li Xuan’s neck. He asked coldly, “Who are you?”

“Old Zhou, are you crazy? Don’t you even recognize me?” As Li Xuan spoke, he was about to touch Zhou Wen’s forehead.

The Bamboo Blade in Zhou Wen’s hand slashed at Li Xuan’s neck.

Boom!

Before the Bamboo Blade struck Li Xuan’s neck, white smoke emitted from his body, causing Zhou Wen’s Bamboo Blade to miss.

After the white smoke dissipated, he saw a woman standing there. She looked at Zhou Wen in surprise and said, “How did you discover that I’m not Li Xuan? I believe even Li Xuan himself wouldn’t be able to see through it.”

“I’ll give you one last chance. Who are you?” Zhou Wen stared coldly at the woman as he tightened his grip on the scabbard. He wouldn’t use a sheathed saber for the next strike.

Zhou Wen had not noticed any flaws. The woman impersonating Li Xuan was indeed enough to make it look real. Even if she was placed beside the real Li Xuan, Zhou Wen wouldn’t have been able to tell which was real and which was fake.

However, women shouldn’t have come here. This was because Li Xuan didn’t dare enter his dorm randomly when Zhou Wen wasn’t around, much less sit on the sofa so daringly.

This was because Li Xuan knew very well that it was the antelope’s territory. What he was most afraid of was the antelope. Every time he came, he would only sit on a small sofa or a stool.

Therefore, Zhou Wen only needed a glance to know that this Li Xuan was fake.

“My name is Butterfly. I’m Second Young Master Li Mobai’s servant. Master wants me to invite you over,” the woman said.

“Is this your idea of an invitation?” Zhou Wen said with a cold expression.

“That’s because the Master said that I definitely can’t fool you. I didn’t believe it, so I made a bet with him. Now that I’ve lost, you can kill me now if you’re not satisfied. I have no complaints,” Butterfly closed her eyes and said.

“Why is Li Mobai looking for me?” Zhou Wen didn’t have the habit of killing. Furthermore, he actually knew of Butterfly. When Li Xuan told him about Li Mobai and the Evil King Gu, he had told him about this woman.

Li Weiyang couldn’t tell even when Butterfly pretended to be Li Weiyang. He had nearly lost his will to live because of her ruse.

“Master has something important to discuss with you,” Butterfly said.

“Not interested. Leave,” Zhou Wen said.

“As the Master expected. However, Master got me to ask you if you are interested in Guardians? If you are interested, he will wait for you at Elegant Peace Restaurant,” Butterfly said.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 696

Chapter 696: Li Mobai’s Information

In a private room at Elegant Peace Restaurant.

“After you.” Li Mobai carefully brewed a cup of tea and placed it in front of Zhou Wen, gesturing for him to drink it.

“Just say it directly,” Zhou Wen said to Li Mobai without drinking it.

Li Mobai didn’t mind. As he continued brewing tea, he said, “Zhou Wen, do you know what the most terrifying power in this world is?”

“I don’t know,” Zhou Wen answered.

Li Mobai continued, “The most terrifying power in this world is to be able to see something but not be able to obtain it. For example, having an enemy who killed your father and stole your wife right in front of you. You can see him every day. You can see him smile, watch him go crazy, and watch him enjoy all the riches and glory in the world. However, you can’t hurt even a single strand of his hair. This is more unbearable than any physical pain.”

“Second Young Master, I’m an ordinary student. I don’t understand such profound principles. If you wish to discuss philosophy, I’m afraid you’ve found the wrong person,” Zhou Wen said.

Li Mobai brewed a cup of tea for himself and took a sip before pouring away the remaining tea.

“Now, there are two things I can see but can’t obtain. One thing is the life of my enemy, and the other is a cocoon.” Li Mobai put down his cup and continued, “Ever since John challenged you with the six-winged seraphim, I’ve been trying my best to figure out what kind of power it is. In the end, I managed to find the answer, the cocoon of a Guardian.”

Zhou Wen silently waited for Li Mobai to continue. Li Mobai definitely didn’t invite him here to talk about this.

“Perhaps the heavens pitied a half-crippled person like me and allowed me to find a Guardian cocoon. However, there are terrifying Mythical creatures guarding it. I spent a lot of effort and paid a huge price, but I failed to even approach it.” Li Mobai looked at Zhou Wen and said, “But you are different. You have the ability to help me approach it.”

“Why should I help you?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Because you can bet on a one-third possibility,” Li Mobai said with a smile.

“What do you mean?” Zhou Wen didn’t understand what Li Mobai meant.

“According to what I know, a Guardian like the six-winged seraphim wouldn’t casually reach an agreement with a human. Instead, it depends on whether that person manages to obtain their recognition. I know where the Guardian cocoon is, and you have the ability to get us near it. Each of us will have one chance. I’ll have a go first. If I don’t succeed, it will be your chance. Of course, it’s also possible that we won’t be able to obtain its recognition, but you have at least a one-third chance, right?” Li Mobai said.

Zhou Wen fell silent. He was naturally interested in the Guardian cocoon. Not only was he interested, but he also wished he could immediately find one.

However, he didn’t want to obtain the Guardian’s recognition, but to kill it.

However, Zhou Wen knew very well that every Guardian had terrifying strength. They were top-notch existences among Mythical creatures. He didn’t know if his strength could kill the Guardian.

Li Mobai continued, “The Guardian cocoon I discovered is in the South District. It’s where I obtained my Essence Energy Art. According to my speculation, since I could obtain the Essence Energy Art there and condense the Evil King Gu Life Soul, perhaps it might be compatible with the Guardian cocoon, elevating my chances of success. Unfortunately, my foundation has been destroyed and I’ve already cultivated another Essence Energy Art. This is also where I’m at a disadvantage. In short, my chances are very high. It’s not like you don’t have a chance. Do you want to take a gamble? The decision lies with you.”

“Aren’t you afraid that I’ll snatch your chance?” Zhou Wen said to Li Mobai.

Li Mobai laughed. “Just as I said, I can’t do anything while watching my enemy live a carefree life. Now, I’m living a life worse than death. If it were you, would you be willing to take the risk?”

“I need time to consider it,” Zhou Wen said after some thought.

“That’s fine. You can take your time to consider it. I can wait.” Li Mobai said to Butterfly, “Take Zhou Wen back.”

“There’s no need. I can go myself.” Zhou Wen got up and left Elegant Peace Restaurant.

On the way back, Zhou Wen kept considering the proposal.

A Guardian cocoon was difficult to find. If what Li Mobai said was true, it was worth taking a look. Li Mobai had a chance, but he might not succeed.

However, Li Mobai was someone who could do anything for revenge. Zhou Wen didn’t dare trust him.

When he returned to school, he realized that An Sheng was waiting for him outside.

“Young Master Wen, the selection of treasure chests in the maze has been prepared. When do you plan on going?” An Sheng directly explained his intentions.

“Let’s do it now.” Zhou Wen also wanted to resolve this matter as soon as possible.

The world was changing at an increasing pace. Who knew if there would be a chance to go in the future? It was best to go early before the dimensional zone’s seals completely collapsed.

“I share the same thoughts. Get in.” An Sheng opened the car door and let Zhou Wen in before taking the driver’s seat.

“Young Master Wen, why did Li Mobai want to see you?” An Sheng clearly knew that Li Mobai had met Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen didn’t hide it as he recounted the matter.

“Ah Sheng, there’s something I don’t quite understand. Why did Chancellor Leng kill Buddha Annihilation and not choose to attempt a contract?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I’m not too sure about that. I’m afraid only Chancellor Leng can answer you.” An Sheng shook his head.

After a pause, An Sheng continued, “What Li Mobai said might be true, but it’s probably too late to go now.”

“Why do you say that?” Zhou Wen was puzzled.

“According to reliable intelligence, Zhang Chunqiu, Xia Liuchuan, and Dugu Ge have gone to the South District together. Furthermore, their target is a Guardian egg. The place they’ve gone to is very close to the region Li Mobai mentioned,” An Sheng said.

“Li Mobai didn’t say where the Guardian egg is. How do you know where it is?” Zhou Wen asked.

“The An family has naturally been secretly paying attention to people like Li Mobai. He used to stay in the South District for a period of time. We’ve checked the areas he has been to and can determine a general area,” An Sheng explained.

“I see. That’s a pity.” Zhou Wen was originally tempted, but after hearing An Sheng’s words, he felt that his hopes were most likely dashed.

The roads these days were difficult to navigate. An Sheng stopped the car inside a service station before the two of them rode their Companion Beasts forward.

Zhou Wen rode the Great Might Vajra Bull as though he was walking on flat ground in the forest. His speed wasn’t slower than driving.

“Young Master Wen, you have to memorize the map of the maze. Although I’ll lead the way for you, you’ll have to come out by yourself if you get lost inside,” An Sheng exhorted Zhou Wen again.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 697

Chapter 697: Treasure

The maze map was very complicated. Even with Zhou Wen’s memory, it took him a long time to memorize it.

Apart from the maze being overly complicated, it was also because the maze was constantly changing. The degree of change was so complicated that it far exceeded the limits of what ordinary humans could imagine.

Memorizing the map didn’t only require memorizing the routes, but it also required some formulas. When one really got lost, one didn’t have to rely on their brains’ memory of the routes. Instead, one had to use formulas to calculate the way out.

Zhou Wen had spent quite a bit of time on this. To be safe, he had put in a lot of effort.

Two days later, Zhou Wen and An Sheng arrived at an inconspicuous field. It was originally a cornfield, but it was very remote. After the dimensional storms, there was an anomaly here.

The corn here grew extremely tall; each of them was as tall as a tree. The corn on them was golden and even bigger than a person’s head.

Furthermore, ever since the dimensional storms, the corn here hadn’t withered. They kept growing.

The entrance to the maze was in the cornfield. Back then, An Tianzuo and An Sheng had fled from a Mythical break-out creature. In their panic, they escaped into the cornfield and ended up falling into the maze. As a result, they escaped the calamity.

An Tianzuo obtained his first Mythical Companion Beast there.

An Sheng circled the cornfield for a while before finally finding a spot. He used a shovel to dig up the soil on the ground, revealing a metal plate.

He lifted the metal plate and revealed an ancient well.

An Sheng patted the soil in his hand and said, “Overseer and I disguised this place to prevent others from accidentally entering. Firstly, it was to prevent the treasure chests from being opened by others. Secondly, it was to prevent humans from entering. It’s impossible for people to come out of such a complicated maze. Death would be the only outcome in that event.

“Young Master Wen, you have to follow me closely after we go down. Don’t take the wrong path,” An Sheng exhorted before heading down the well.

Zhou Wen followed An Sheng down the ancient well. There was still water at the bottom. An Sheng dived down, and before long, there was a horizontal tunnel.

Soon, the two of them passed through the underwater tunnel and appeared in a squarish stone room.

An Sheng kept leading Zhou Wen through the stone room. Every stone room looked identical. There was almost no difference.

Every stone room had six exits in all directions—up, down, left, right, forward, and back. Ordinary people wouldn’t be able to walk far before getting lost.

Furthermore, the stone house here could move on its own. It made it even harder for ordinary people to leave.

The only thing worth rejoicing about was that there were no dimensional creatures in the maze. All they needed to do was identify the path and ensure that they didn’t get lost.

An Sheng kept walking and stopping, occasionally doing some calculations. After three or four hours, he finally found a treasure chest with Zhou Wen.

This stone house was a little special because there was no exit at the bottom. There was a stone chest in its place.

It was different from the treasure chest inlaid with gold and silver that Zhou Wen imagined. It was an ordinary stone chest that didn’t look anything special.

“The treasure chests here are very strange. A person can only open three treasure chests. Once you open three, it will be difficult to touch any more, even if you use all your strength. According to our past experience, the treasure chests might be empty. There might also be Companion Eggs, dimensional crystals, and some strange items. They are all dimensional items,” An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen walked forward and held the lid of the treasure chest, lifting it up.

There was no golden light, nor was there any treasure aura. In the huge chest, there was only a palm-sized crystal hourglass.

“What’s this? What’s its use?” Zhou Wen took out the hourglass and sized it up.

The sand in the hourglass was slowly flowing from one end to the other.

The sand was a type of white sand, not common yellow sand. It looked even finer.

“It’s possible to obtain something strange in the treasure chest. It’s hard to tell if it’s of any use. Perhaps this hourglass will be of some use,” An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen nodded and was about to put away the hourglass when he discovered something strange.

As he was about to put it in his backpack, Zhou Wen held the hourglass horizontally. Strangely, when the hourglass became horizontal, the sand didn’t stop flowing. It continued falling in another direction.

Strange! Zhou Wen picked up the hourglass and sized it up again. He saw that the sand was flowing horizontally, completely violating the laws of physics.

Zhou Wen overturned the hourglass. The sand that should have flowed down flowed upstream without any intention of falling. It looked extremely strange.

This hourglass sure is extraordinary! Zhou Wen fiddled with the hourglass curiously. No matter how he oriented the hourglass, the sand inside stubbornly flowed in the same direction.

However, other than that, there was nothing special about it. Zhou Wen injected his Essence Energy, but it didn’t affect the hourglass. It was as though it was an Essence Energy insulator.

Seeing that the hourglass didn’t have any special effects, Zhou Wen placed it in his backpack and continued searching for other treasure chests with An Sheng.

During the time they were here, the stone house’s location changed again. An Sheng kept calculating, and after doing so, he continued walking with Zhou Wen.

After walking for about half an hour, Zhou Wen suddenly heard a “ding” that sounded like the notification of an electric oven.

Zhou Wen and An Sheng jumped in fright before realizing that the sound came from the backpack.

Zhou Wen opened his backpack with a strange expression. There weren’t any mechanical objects inside, nor were there any clocks.

Zhou Wen suddenly realized that the sand in the hourglass had been completely emptied. All the sand had entered one chamber.

Could it be that the sound was produced by it? Zhou Wen felt that there was no other possibility.

He kept looking at it. Apart from the sand beginning to flow in reverse, nothing happened.

After putting the hourglass back into his backpack, the two of them continued walking. However, just as they stepped into the next stone house, they suddenly realized that a beam of light had lit up inside.

All the stone houses Zhou Wen and An Sheng had passed through previously were the same. They didn’t differ from one another, nor were there any carvings on the walls.

However, there was a mural that resembled a phoenix on the wall of the stone house. It was still emitting light as though it was about to come to life.

Just as the phoenix mural lit up, the tunnel in the stone house automatically sealed shut.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 698

Chapter 698: Magical Hourglass

A petite fire phoenix flew down from the wall. With terrifying flames, it instantly turned the entire stone house into a sea of flames.

Despite wearing armor, the red-hot flames were still scorching hot.

Zhou Wen summoned Tyrant Behemoth and swallowed the flames, along with the fire phoenix.

Although it was only for a short moment, An Sheng and Zhou Wen broke out into a cold sweat. White smoke was billowing from their armor. If it had been a little longer, their armor would have been burned red, and their flesh would have been cooked.

Once the fire phoenix died, the six doors automatically opened and returned to their previous state.

“Ah Sheng, did you encounter such a situation when you came before?” Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss and asked An Sheng.

“Never. Young Master Wen, do you think the fire phoenix from before has something to do with this hourglass?” As An Sheng spoke, he looked at the backpack that had been burned to a crisp. The things in the backpack had already been dropped across the ground. Many things had been destroyed, but the crystal hourglass remained intact. It lay horizontally on the ground, the sand still flowing.

“I also think it might be related. Nothing happened last time you came here, and nothing happened when we were walking. However, after the hourglass reversed, an incident occurred. Apart from it, I really can’t think of any other reason,” Zhou Wen said.

“Let’s use our Companion Beasts to scout ahead and see if the other stone houses have the same problem.” As An Sheng spoke, he summoned a lion and let it enter the next room An Sheng planned on entering.

The moment the lion entered, the stone house suddenly sealed shut. Soon, An Sheng’s expression changed.

Zhou Wen used Truth Listener’s powers to figure out what was happening next door, but he couldn’t hear anything. There seemed to be a force blocking Truth Listener from hearing past the stone house’s wall.

Soon, the tunnel door opened and the lion Companion Beast that had entered vanished. From the looks of it, it had been killed.

“These stone houses have indeed become a little strange. After my Companion Beast entered, it quickly had its connection with me severed. I couldn’t sense what happened inside either,” An Sheng said with a heavy expression.

Zhou Wen looked in from the door, but he didn’t discover any murals in the stone house. It was no different from an ordinary stone house.

“If the changes in the maze are related to this crystal hourglass, do you think the maze will return to normal when we wait for the crystal hourglass’s sand to reverse?” Zhou Wen said as he looked at the hourglass in his hand.

“That’s very likely.” An Sheng stared at the sand in the hourglass and said, “From the speed at which the sand flows, it should reverse every hour. Let’s wait here for an hour.”

“Alright.” Zhou Wen also felt that it was better to wait.

God knew what other strange things were in this maze. Although he had Mythical pets, his body was still at the Epic stage. If anything happened in such a small stone house, he might not be able to dodge it. It was useless no matter how strong his Companion Beasts were.

The two of them waited in the stone house as time ticked by. When the sand from the hourglass completely flowed out, they heard a chime that was identical to the sound they had heard previously.

In the next second, the sand in the hourglass began to flow in reverse.

“I’ll give it another try.” An Sheng summoned another Companion Beast and let it enter the room the lion had entered.

Indeed, the stone house’s passageway didn’t close this time. The Companion Beasts inside didn’t show any signs of trouble.

“We were right.” An Sheng carefully entered the room, but there weren’t any incidents.

Therefore, Zhou Wen and An Sheng used their Companion Beasts as scouts and continued proceeding towards the next treasure chest in the maze. They passed many stone houses, but nothing happened.

When the hourglass reversed, the two of them stopped and didn’t continue advancing. They stayed in place for an hour, waiting for the hourglass to reverse again before continuing.

It was unknown what kind of relationship the hourglass had with the maze. It could actually control it. The situation inside the maze was completely different when the sand flowed in the different directions.

When he was forced to rest, Zhou Wen studied the hourglass. He wanted to see if he could control the flow of sand in the hourglass.

If he could control it, wouldn’t he be able to control this maze?

However, after studying it for quite some time, Zhou Wen didn’t discover how to control the hourglass. The main reason he didn’t dare act rashly was that he was afraid that he would damage the hourglass. That would only make things worse.

I’ll think of a way to study it after we leave. Zhou Wen temporarily gave up the idea of controlling it.

“Young Master Wen, I seem to have discovered something,” An Sheng said.

“What did you discover? Is it a secret regarding the maze?” Zhou Wen hurriedly asked.

“No.” An Sheng shook his head and said, “After so many experiences with you, I realized that as long as you enter a dimensional zone, it’s easy for unexpected things to happen…”

“Coincidence… It must be a coincidence…” Zhou Wen said firmly. Although he also felt that something would happen every time he entered a dimensional zone, he definitely wouldn’t admit that he was a jinx.

Even if there’s a problem, it’s definitely because of the Tiger Soul General, Bamboo Blade, and Tai Sui. It’s definitely not my problem, Zhou Wen thought.

An Sheng laughed and said, “Actually, this isn’t bad either. At the very least, it won’t be that boring. It’s always so thrilling every time I enter a dimensional zone with you.”

“It really has nothing to do with me,” Zhou Wen said with a sullen expression.

The two of them kept walking and stopping. After traveling for more than thirty hours, they finally arrived at the room where the second treasure chest was.

“Young Master Wen, open it and take a look,” An Sheng said with a heavy expression.

“Do I really have to open it?” Zhou Wen asked, somewhat worried.

The crystal hourglass appeared in the first treasure chest. Who knew what was inside this chest.

It would be fine if a Companion Egg or dimensional crystal dropped, but if a bomb appeared and blasted them to death, it would be terrible.

Although it was just an analogy, Zhou Wen couldn’t rule out the possibility of a bomb inside.

“Open it. Even if there’s a Buddha Annihilation inside, we can just fight it again. There’s nothing to be afraid of,” An Sheng said with a smile.

Zhou Wen swallowed his saliva and reached out to lift the lid of the treasure chest. His heart was beating rapidly like a drum.

An Sheng and Zhou Wen looked into the treasure chest and were taken aback.

There was actually another chest in the treasure chest. The material and style were the same as the treasure chest, but it was a little smaller.

Zhou Wen frowned slightly as he opened the lid. He saw that there was an even smaller treasure chest inside. After opening seven or eight treasure chests, all he saw were even smaller ones.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 699

Chapter 699: Strange Treasure Chest

“Are you kidding me? Don’t tell me that it will be an empty box in the end?” Zhou Wen said gloomily.

An Sheng laughed. “As expected of Young Master Wen. The Overseer and I opened six treasure chests, but none of them were as interesting as a single one of yours.”

“This really has nothing to do with me. You were the ones who picked the good treasure chests. The remaining treasure chests are all so strange,” Zhou Wen said gloomily.

“Quickly open it and take a look. I’m really looking forward to seeing what’s inside,” An Sheng urged.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to continue opening the treasure chests. One after another, he opened at least twenty. The treasure chest also changed from a huge chest to a tiny chest the size of a palm.

Zhou Wen tried and wanted to take out the treasure chest, but although it was tiny, it remained motionless no matter how hard he tried.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to continue opening them chest after chest The treasure chest had already become the size of a finger. Yet, there was still a treasure chest inside.

“I’m very certain now that the owner of the maze must be pulling a prank on us. There’s definitely nothing in the final treasure chest.” Zhou Wen felt that he had definitely been fooled.

“At this stage, even if it’s empty, you have to open the last box to take a look,” An Sheng encouraged.

Zhou Wen continued opening the chest silently. The treasure chest went from the size of a finger to the size of a fingernail.

“Fk, why are there more? I can’t believe it.” Zhou Wen continued opening a few more chests. The treasure chest was already about the size of the jewel on a ring.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to open it, he realized that the square stone treasure chest that resembled a ring’s gem was locked. Although the lock was very small, he could tell that it was a lock.

“Isn’t this a scam? I’ve opened all the way to this point, yet, it’s telling me that it needs a key…” Zhou Wen wished he could smash the treasure chest.

However, it was unknown if the treasure chests were protected by nomological powers. Even Mythical-stage power was unable to damage them.

“Could this small treasure chest be the prize in this treasure chest?” An Sheng said as he looked at the small treasure chest.

“No way?” Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback as he reached out to pick up the tiny treasure chest. He had opened so many treasure chests and of them could be moved. Yet, this time, he could pick it up.

“I can actually take it out!” Zhou Wen immediately realized that the fellow who had placed the treasure chest here was definitely doing it on purpose.

Zhou Wen took a careful look and didn’t find a way to open the treasure chest. He handed it to An Sheng to take a look. After studying it, An Sheng returned it to Zhou Wen. “The structure inside the keyhole is somewhat different from our human locks. It might require a special key to open it. Young Master Wen, put it away now. Think of a way to open it after we are out.”

Zhou Wen had no choice but to put away the mini treasure chest. With such a small treasure chest, there was probably nothing inside. Even if there was something, what could be inside?

He had opened two treasure chests which only contained strange items. Zhou Wen was beginning to miss Wang Lu. If he could get her to help him open the treasure chests, he definitely wouldn’t be so unlucky to have such strange items.

The two of them set off again. Due to their previous experience, An Sheng was afraid that this small treasure chest would trigger a change in the maze, so he walked even more carefully.

However, nothing unexpected happened. Just like before, as long as they waited for the hourglass’s safe period, they could successfully pass through the stone rooms.

Finally, Zhou Wen and An Sheng arrived at the location of the third treasure chest. Zhou Wen stood in front of it and pressed his palms together. He prayed in every direction. “Gods from every denomination, please bless me. I don’t wish to become rich overnight. I just want something normal to come out. Mythical Companion Beasts or something, just one will do. I'm really not picky…"

While praying, Zhou Wen summoned the baby tiger, hoping to increase his luck.

An Sheng held back his laughter when he heard Zhou Wen mutter to himself. He said in all seriousness, "Young Master, it's all determined by fate. Open it quickly."

Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and opened the lid.

"It's indeed very normal…" An Sheng looked into the box and immediately laughed. This was because the box was empty. There was nothing inside.

"That's it?" Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed.

"Why don't I take you to find another box? What if you're born different and can open a fourth box?" An Sheng said.

"Don't trouble yourself. Let's return," Zhou Wen said with a shake of his head.

He decided that he would never open any cursed chests or other items that depended on luck again unless he could come with Wang Lu.

An Sheng led Zhou Wen out. It was impossible to return the way they came. As the stone room's location kept changing, he could only find a new path.

Thankfully, nothing happened on the way back. The two of them successfully exited the maze.

An Sheng used the metal plate to seal the well's entrance again. He covered it with soil as a disguise. Unless it was a coincidence, it would be difficult to discover the entrance to the maze.

Zhou Wen realized that the crystal hourglass in his hand had appeared to freeze. The sand inside which should still be flowing was frozen. It looked like time had stopped. It was extremely magical.

“Young Master Wen, it’s not as though you didn’t gain anything. Even if the small treasure chest is empty, this crystal hourglass is rather magical. It might really be a treasure,” An Sheng consoled.

Zhou Wen wasn’t in the mood to say anything. He put away the crystal hourglass and the mini treasure chest and planned on thinking of a way to open it when he returned.

The two of them returned to Luoyang, but they realized that there were very few people on the city streets. Soon, they realized that most people were watching a livestream.

“Someone actually challenged Primordial Sword Immortal again. It’s no wonder so many people are watching the livestream.” Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to search and discovered the problem.

“That’s not surprising. There aren’t many days left for the three-month deadline. There must be someone who can’t hold back. Let’s see who’s challenging Primordial Sword Immortal,” An Sheng said as he took out his phone and turned on the livestream. He ended up somewhat surprised.

In the arena, Primordial Sword Immortal had already revealed his sword immortal body. He stood in the arena with the stone sword in hand, but there was no sign of a challenger.

Suddenly, the sword immortal’s head seemed to suffer a heavy blow as his body flew out horizontally.

“What was that?” Zhou Wen and An Sheng failed to see what had happened.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 700

Chapter 700: The Last 72 Hours

After Primordial Sword Immortal was sent flying, he immediately flew into the air and slashed out rows of sword beams in all directions.

However, other than Primordial Sword Immortal and his sword beams, Zhou Wen and An Sheng saw nothing.

“An invisible Companion Beast?” Zhou Wen and An Sheng could see the surprise in each other’s eyes.

Invisibility Companion Beasts were rare. Zhou Wen had an Invisibility Cloak Companion Egg, but it was a problematic Companion Egg. He hadn’t managed to hatch it yet.

Apart from that, he had also heard of some Companion Beasts that could be invisible. However, they weren’t absolutely invisible.

For example, a Companion Beast named Chameleon could fuse with the environment through Chameleon Transformation and reach the goal of invisibility.

However, this kind of invisibility was basically useless against top-notch experts.

Ignoring Mythical creatures, even Epic experts like Zhou Wen’s Hell King Life Soul could sense minute changes in the airflow.

To just be visually invisible wasn’t of much use against top-notch experts.

It was only when dealing with special skills like the Bright Torch Vision World that invisibility had some effect.

What was truly terrifying wasn’t visual invisibility, but complete invisibility. Even one’s body could be concealed. It wouldn’t cause any airflow, emit heat, or produce a lifeforce field. It was as if one had vanished into thin air.

Only then could an existence like Primordial Sword Immortal not discover its location.

In the battle arena’s situation, Primordial Sword Immortal clearly hadn’t discovered the enemy’s location. All he could do was continuously slash out large swaths of sword beams, hoping to use the dense sword beams to force the enemy out.

This was clearly useless. Soon, Primordial Sword Immortal suffered another baffling strike and flew out again.

The battle scene in the arena was very strange. It was as though Primordial Sword Immortal was fighting the air, but he was constantly being attacked. The sword immortal’s spirit body was also flickering from time to time. It didn’t look good.

“There are still limitations to a livestream. Let’s go to the cube to take a look,” An Sheng said as he drove towards the cube.

There was almost no one on the other streets. The streets that could see the cube’s screen were packed with people. People couldn’t even squeeze through, never mind cars.

Even the buildings on both sides of the street were filled with people.

Zhou Wen and An Sheng had no choice but to find a place to park the car before finding a relatively closer spot to watch the battle.

The cube's big screen could perfectly enact the real battle. It was the same as a real scene. This was something that even high-speed cameras weren't capable of.

No matter how powerful the camera's functions were, there were still limitations. For example, no matter how high the resolution was, it was impossible to reach the standards of the real world.

Just like the scene on the phone, Primordial Sword Immortal was still being thrashed unilaterally.

His opponent seemed to be deliberately humiliating Primordial Sword Immortal. Every strike was like an invisible fist striking Primordial Sword Immortal's face, sending him flying.

Again and again, it struck. It wasn't in a rush to finish off Primordial Sword Immortal. It was as though it wanted to appreciate Primordial Sword Immortal's sorry state.

Ever since Primordial Sword Immortal appeared out of nowhere and suppressed the rankings for a few months, accepting the challenges of many powerful Companion Beasts, he had always appeared invincible. He was practically synonymous with invincibility. When had he ever been in such a sorry state?

Primordial Sword Immortal attempted to force his opponent out by using many methods, but the outcome was not as he wished. He was completely unable to determine his opponent’s location.

Zhou Wen looked at the name on the ranking. The Companion Beast that challenged Primordial Sword Immortal was named “Origin Realm King”, but he didn’t see the image of Origin Realm King.

Could it be that Origin Realm King is invisible? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

The battle continued in a one-sided manner. The invincible Primordial Sword Immortal was helpless against an invisible opponent. All he could do was passively take a beating.

“It looks like the number one spot on the rankings will finally be changed.”

“Origin Realm King, why have I never heard of it before?”

“Indeed, invisible opponents are the most terrifying. Origin Realm King is too powerful. To be able to beat Primordial Sword Immortal to such a state, it’s practically invincible.”

“I wonder who the Origin Realm King belongs to?”

“That’s hard to guess. I’ve only heard of legends about the Divine Realm, the Immortal Realm, the Fiend Realm, the Spirit Realm, the Ghost Realm, the Demon Realm, and so on. I’ve never heard of the Origin Realm.”

“Could it be from overseas?”

“Probably not. If the Origin Realm King is from overseas, I’d rather support Primordial Sword Immortal taking first place.”

The entire Federation was abuzz with discussion. Primordial Sword Immortal was clearly at a disadvantage. Although he hadn’t used his Wheel of Destiny and still had the ability to deliver a final blow, his chances of winning were much lower.

This was because most people determined that Primordial Sword Immortal’s Wheel of Destiny was an offensive skill. He didn’t even know where his opponent was, so the effects of the Wheel of Destiny were too limited. Unless Primordial Sword Immortal’s Wheel of Destiny had a huge area of effect, it was difficult to turn defeat into victory.

Zhou Wen watched the battle the entire time. He had even used the Holy Hell King’s Eye, but he still couldn’t see where Origin Realm King was.

What powerful invisibility. It can even hide the sinflames on its body? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised.

“From the looks of it, we should be able to see Primordial Sword Immortal’s Wheel of Destiny.” An Sheng also believed that Primordial Sword Immortal had been forced into a corner.

It wasn’t only An Sheng. The six families and many experts also believed so. At this stage, Primordial Sword Immortal couldn’t sit idle.

Just as everyone was hoping that Primordial Sword Immortal would release his Wheel of Destiny, something unexpected happened.

Primordial Sword Immortal actually chose to forfeit and gave up the throne of first place. He didn’t use the power of his Wheel of Destiny.

The entire Federation was in an uproar. After occupying the rankings for months, the invincible Primordial Sword Immortal had been defeated just like that. First place was given to someone else, and Primordial Realm King became the strongest Companion Beast in the world.

Since Primordial Sword Immortal didn’t use his Wheel of Destiny, it meant that he knew that he couldn’t win even if he used it.

There were less than four days left before the three-month deadline Wang Mingyuan mentioned was reached.

All the major media outlets in the Federation were reporting on the matter of Origin Realm King taking first place. They were also guessing who its owner was.

Just like Primordial Sword Immortal, the owner of Origin Realm King had never appeared. All the speculation was nothing but speculation.

However, according to the deductions of the six families, it was very likely that Origin Realm King was an overseas Companion Beast. This was because, in the legends of the Federation’s four districts, there didn’t seem to be a place like the Origin Realm.

While people were guessing the origins and true colors of the Origin Realm King, the cubes around the world underwent a strange change. Each cube displayed a 72-hour countdown.

Anyone with a smidgen of intelligence could roughly guess what it meant. There were less than 72 hours left before the three-month deadline.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 701

Chapter 701: Light Beast’s Challenge

All the major factions who wanted to vie for first place mobilized their forces to study what kind of Companion Beast the Origin Realm King was, as well as its various abilities.

Without a doubt, the Origin Realm King’s most terrifying ability was invisibility. Even Primordial Sword Immortal couldn’t find it. This was an extremely terrifying ability.

In addition, it was also probably very fast. Otherwise, even if it was invisible, it would be difficult for it to dodge Primordial Sword Immortal’s high-speed sword beams.

Based on these two points, professionals began to study and analyze various possibilities.

Everyone was constantly paying attention to the rankings. As there were less than 72 hours left, there was a chance that someone could challenge the Origin Realm King at any time.

In fact, other than first place, there were already many people with lower rankings challenging those with higher rankings. They hoped to obtain a better spot before the ranking matches ended.

In the final 72 hours, there was only an hour to accept the challenge. If one didn’t accept the challenge within the hour, they would automatically be declared the loser.

Zhou Wen was also studying Origin Realm King. After watching the battle between Origin Realm King and Primordial Sword Immortal, he had a nagging feeling that something was amiss.

After getting the video to watch carefully, he still failed to see any problems.

Origin Realm King's invisibility ability could be said to be perfect. He couldn't find any flaws. No matter how strong Primordial Sword Immortal was, no matter how strong he was, it was useless against an enemy who could casually appear beside him.

All Companion Beasts have their weaknesses. Is the invisibility ability of the Origin Realm King really that perfect? Zhou Wen didn't believe in absolute perfection.

Just like Torch Dragon's Bright Torch Vision World, such a powerful skill could be nullified with just a mirror.

Origin Realm King's invisibility was indeed very powerful, but Zhou Wen felt that it definitely had a weakness. It was just that he hadn't discovered it yet.

Just as the various factions were nervously studying it, a Companion Beast named Light Beast suddenly challenged the first-ranked Origin Realm King.

"Light beast? Isn't that a Companion Beast of the Family Clan of Gods? I heard that it has the power of light, but its combat strength isn't strong. At best, it's about the level of Inferno Dragon? It's far inferior to Primordial Sword Immortal. How can it challenge Origin Realm King?"

"Could it be that the Family Clan of Gods has found the weakness of the Origin Realm King?"

"Can Light Beast restrain Origin Realm King?"

Everyone was puzzled as they waited for the battle to begin. They wanted to know from this challenge if the Family Clan of Gods had really found the weakness of Origin Realm King or if they had other motives.

Li Xuan organized the members of the Xuanwen Club to watch the battle in front of a cube. Zhou Wen followed them to the cube. He had a nagging feeling that Origin Realm King's invisibility wasn't that perfect.

"Holy sh*t, don't tell me everyone in Luoyang is here?" Li Xuan said gloomily as he looked at the crowd.

They were still a few streets away from the cube, but they were already unable to proceed forward. They could only see human heads bobbing about. They couldn't see the cube at all.

"That's not surprising. The various Companion Beasts that appeared before, including Primordial Sword Immortal, might be very powerful, but they could at least be clearly seen. However, this Origin Realm King is completely different. You can't even see it. The unknown has a fatal attraction to human curiosity. Everyone wants to know what kind of Companion Beast Origin Realm King is," Li Weiyang said.

"At this distance, we can't see a thing. We might as well stay at home and watch from our phones." It was rare for Huang Ji to join them. He was actually very interested in the abilities of various Companion Beasts, so he participated in the Xuanwen Club's excursion.

Of course, he mainly wanted to reproduce the data and abilities of these Companion Beasts in-game.

After the ranking battles began, Huang Ji had been analyzing the abilities of the Companion Beasts. He planned on using them as prototypes to create some game bosses.

“If there’s really no other way, let’s find a quiet restaurant and watch the livestream,” Gulli suggested. He felt that watching the livestream was no different from watching from the cube’s screen.

Zhou Wen also felt that they were too far away. Even Truth Listener couldn’t reach such a distance, but they couldn’t barge through the crowd.

Li Xuan’s heart suddenly stirred as he said to the silent Gu Dian who was at the rear, “Old Gu, walk ahead of us.”

Zhou Wen and company’s eyes lit up as they knew what Li Xuan was thinking. They hurriedly made way for Gu Dian to take the lead.

“Stop squeezing! You… Ah…” A fierce-looking man felt that someone was trying to squeeze past him. He opened his mouth and wanted to curse, but just as he did so, he turned his gaze over. When he saw the person, his legs trembled in fear and he nearly fell to the ground. He hurriedly shut his mouth and retreated in fear.

He looked fierce himself, but when he saw the person squeezing through, he was so frightened that his heart pounded and cold sweat broke out on his back.

He had never seen such a ferocious person in his entire life. He was very worried that the other party would directly stab him to death. Therefore, he kept retreating, forcing out some space to make way for the person.

Gu Dian ignored him and continued walking forward.

Zhou Wen and company lined up and followed closely behind Gu Dian. For some reason, they felt the thrill of cutting through a line that spanned several streets.

The streets were extremely crowded. Everyone wanted to squeeze in, but no one was willing to give in. There were even quite a number of people who had verbal disputes.

However, Gu Dian successfully passed through the crowd. It didn’t look difficult at all.

Before long, Zhou Wen and company arrived at a suitable distance. It was equivalent to the best seats in a theater—around the sixth or seventh row. They waited for Origin Realm King to accept the challenge.

As it only had an hour to accept the challenge, and it took Zhou Wen and company quite a bit of time to rush over, there were less than ten minutes left. Yet, Origin Realm King still hadn’t accepted the challenge.

“It can’t be. Origin Realm King hasn’t accepted the challenge? Could it be that Light Beast is really its nemesis?”

“It’s really possible. Under the light, darkness has nowhere to hide. Perhaps it’s really the nemesis of invisibility?”

“No matter how great a nemesis it is, Origin Realm King is an existence that can fight Primordial Sword Immortal. It would be odd if Light Beast could have an effect on it.”

As people were arguing, they saw the name on the arena flash. Origin Realm King had accepted the challenge, but they didn’t see its figure.

Everyone knew that Origin Realm King had already appeared in the arena, but they just couldn’t see it.

Light Beast clearly knew this, so it didn’t hesitate to launch an attack. Light emitted from its body like a sun, illuminating the entire arena. This was its Wheel of Destiny’s power, Light Ray.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 702

Chapter 702: Perfect Companion Beast

“I see. This Light Beast is using attacks indiscriminately to force out Origin Realm King. No matter how invisible Origin Realm King is, it can’t really disappear. Such an attack is very likely to find its traces,” Gulli said.

Sadie nodded and said, “Light Beast is a Mythical Companion Beast of the Family Clan of Gods. Its Wheel of Destiny is called Light Ray. Although its offensive power isn’t strong, its range is very large. Furthermore, it can last for a long time. It’s suitable for restraining invisibility. From the looks of it, the Family Clan of Gods didn’t find a way to restrain Origin Realm King. They just want to use this method to figure out what kind of Companion Beast Origin Realm King is.”

Zhou Wen and company stared at the cube’s huge screen. The light illuminated the entire arena. If anything was in the arena, even if it couldn’t be seen, it would be injured by the light rays.

Even if it couldn’t be injured, it would have some reaction.

Strangely, nothing happened across the entire arena. The light rays didn’t meet any obstacles, nor did they collide with any forces. Neither did the light refract.

“That’s strange. Could it be that Origin Realm King is really an invisible and intangible spirit body?”

“Impossible. If it’s really an invisible and incorporeal spirit body, how could Origin Realm King directly attack Primordial Sword Immortal during the battle? It definitely has a form.”

“As you can see, Light Ray has already enveloped the entire arena. If it really has a body, it’s impossible for it to not react to the Light Ray.”

“Perhaps it’s some temporarily incorporeal skill. It shouldn’t last long.”

The various families were discussing how Origin Realm King had dodged Light Ray, but they couldn’t make an accurate guess.

Light Beast continued shooting out Light Ray. It could do so for several hours, so there was no need to worry about it being ambushed by Origin Realm King.

Just as everyone was discussing, they suddenly saw the nose and face of the Light Beast crater as though it had been smashed by an invisible fist.

Then, Light Beast flew out, bleeding from its seven orifices. It died immediately without even having the chance to surrender.

Instantly, everyone broke out into a cold sweat. Many people had guessed that Light Beast was no match for Origin Realm King.

However, no one expected Light Beast to lose so tragically. Not only did it fail to force out Origin Realm King, but it was even killed in one strike.

Clearly, the difference between the two was too great. Light Beast couldn’t even withstand one strike. The Family Clan of Gods' plan had failed and they had even lost Light Beast.

"It's really too powerful. It has invincible invisibility and invincible strength. It's practically a perfect Companion Beast."

"If Origin Realm King wants to assassinate someone, I'm afraid no one in this world can escape its assassination, right? Just the thought of it is terrifying."

"What Primordial Sword Immortal? What Death of the Underworld? Compared to Origin Realm King, they are so weak."

"I wonder who was so lucky to obtain a Companion Beast like Origin Realm King."

The ordinary citizens of the Federation were discussing the topic of Origin Realm King. In the battle against Primordial Sword Immortal, people were still doubtful of Origin Realm King's strength. However, killing Light Beast in one strike had allowed Origin Realm King to truly ascend to the throne. It left a deep mark in the history of human Companion Beasts.

The various families began their intense research and analysis work. They had used all sorts of high-tech equipment to record videos, so they repeatedly studied and analyzed them.

However, no matter how they analyzed and studied it, Origin Realm King's invisibility was perfect.

Light Beast's indiscriminate Light Ray couldn't touch its body at all. It was even killed in a frontal attack. This capability was terrifying and made one feel uneasy.

Just as the man on the street said, having Origin Realm King was equivalent to having the most terrifying assassin in the world. Even the members of the six families were worried that they would be assassinated by Origin Realm King.

If Origin Realm King was from overseas, the Federation would be in even more danger.

Even if it was a Companion Beast of the Federation, it would be equally intolerable. It was like a sharp blade hanging over one's neck. It was unknown when it would land; furthermore, the person holding the blade wasn't them.

Repeated studies and analysis ensued as everyone in the world wanted to find out the weakness of Origin Realm King.

"I wonder if the power of Origin Realm King can augment its master," Feng Qiuyan said in thought.

"I don't think so. It's already invincible in this state. If it can augment its owner, wouldn't it be like a bug in games?" Li Xuan curled his lips.

"It's not impossible. Just like the Invisibility Cloak that once caused a stir, it can make people perfectly invisible. No reconnaissance method can see its existence," said Huang Ji.

Sadie seemed to know something about the Invisibility Cloak as she continued, "Although the Invisibility Cloak can result in complete invisibility that can't be detected, there's a time limit. It can only maintain an invisible and formless state for a period of time. Usually, it's just invisibility, but it can still be detected by special means. Just like the Light Ray from Light Beast just now, it can expose the Invisibility Cloak under normal conditions. If not for that, the Zhang family wouldn't have been able to successfully return the Invisibility Cloak to its Companion Egg form back then."

The few of them discussed as they walked. Zhou Wen didn’t say a word. He had a nagging feeling that something was amiss, but he couldn’t tell what was wrong.

After this battle, no Companion Beasts challenged Origin Realm King again. This was because no one wanted to risk having their Companion Beasts killed.

No Mythical Companion Beast was easy to come by. Knowing that it was suicide, no one was willing to do it.

The various factions could only keep researching and analyzing, hoping to find the weakness of Origin Realm King. However, in the blink of an eye, there were only 48 hours left. No one could figure out the weakness of Origin Realm King.

They watched the video so many times, but they couldn’t even tell where Origin Realm King was, much less figure out what it looked like and what weaknesses it had.

Now, many people believed that Origin Realm King was probably going to take first place in the ranking battle. Up to now, no Companion Beast could restrain it and there wasn’t much time left.

Zhou Wen had been studying the video the entire time as well. After repeatedly watching it, he failed to find the location of Origin Realm King.

Could it be that the Invisibility ability of Origin Realm King is really that perfect? How many modes of invisibility are there? Spirit Bodies are considered one of them. Origin Realm King is most likely a Spirit Body. However, from its attack patterns, it seems to have a corporeal body. Also, total invisibility is impossible. If it’s just total invisibility, it will definitely be detected by Light Ray. Then, there’s the type akin to Invisibility Cloak that can temporarily turn into nothingness. From the looks of it, this possibility is the highest. Also, it could be as small as Primordial Spore, so it can't be seen. However, no matter how small it is, it should react when it's shot by the omnipresent Light Ray… Wait… That's not right… Zhou Wen seemed to think of something.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 703

Chapter 703: Zhou Wen’s Speculation

Zhou Wen carefully recalled Origin Realm King’s two battles and specially watched a few important parts of the recording. The things that he originally felt were amiss gradually became clearer.

If I view Origin Realm King as a Companion Beast similar to Primordial Spore, or something even smaller than Primordial Spore, so small that even the Holy Hell King’s eyes can’t see the sinflames on its body, wouldn’t that explain why Primordial Sword Immortal’s sword beam can’t hit it? It’s not because its speed is so fast that Primordial Sword Immortal can’t hit it, but because it’s too small. In that case, its strength definitely can’t be too strong. Therefore, although it looked like it was thrashing Primordial Sword Immortal in all sorts of ways, it was actually unable to kill Primordial Sword Immortal due to its insufficient strength.

Zhou Wen continued surmising. The battle with Light Beast proved this point even more. Light Ray was everywhere. If Origin Realm King was really in the arena, it would probably trigger a reaction to Light Ray. Even if it can turn into nothingness, at the instant it attacked Light Beast, it should have collided with Light Ray. However, despite repeatedly watching the recordings, nothing whatsoever happened. Light Ray didn’t collide with anything from the beginning to the end. Then, there’s only one explanation. Ever since Origin Realm King entered the arena, it had already drilled into the body of Light Beast. Therefore, Light Ray couldn’t illuminate it no matter how vast the rays were. It wasn’t in the arena at all.

Furthermore, Origin Realm King used this ability to destroy Light Beast's body or brain. Then, it used an ingenious opportunity to come out of its nostrils and strike Light Beast. It looked like it was extremely powerful and instantly killed Light Beast. In fact, it had already wreaked havoc in Light Beast's body. The Light Beast was almost dead.

Not only did it kill Light Beast, but it also made everyone believe that Origin Realm King's destructive power was extremely powerful. It concealed its greatest weakness, preventing others from easily challenging it. What a good plan. The more Zhou Wen thought about it, the more he felt that it was right. He brightened up.

Although he had guessed the various possibilities of Origin Realm King, defeating it wasn't an easy task.

Even Truth Listener's ability and the Holy Hell King's Eye couldn't discover its existence. Its body was definitely much smaller than Primordial Spore. It had probably reached the level of an atom.

Primordial Spore can parasitize large creatures, but it's not that effective against those that are smaller than it. Torch Dragon's Bright Torch Vision World should be able to kill it, but if it enters Torch Dragon's body before Torch Dragon activates Bright Torch Vision World, then Bright Torch Vision World will be useless... After some thought, Zhou Wen realized that the Origin Realm King wasn't easy to deal with.

It was very easy to fight Origin Realm King to a draw. With the strength it displayed during its battle with Primordial Sword Immortal, Zhou Wen only needed to use Tyrant Behemoth to challenge it. No matter how it attempted to drill into Tyrant Behemoth, it couldn't cause any injuries.

However, it wouldn’t be easy for Tyrant Behemoth to find and kill it.

I wonder what kind of Companion Beast Origin Realm King is. If it’s a fungal or bacterial type, perhaps I can send Tai Sui to deal with it, Zhou Wen thought to himself, but he didn’t immediately attempt it.

After all, everything was just Zhou Wen’s speculation. Tai Sui was only at the Epic stage. If his speculation was wrong, or if the Origin Realm King was just small in size and wasn’t a Companion Beast like a fungus, Tai Sui wouldn’t be able to restrain it. Wouldn’t that lead to a tragic death?

There were still more than two days left. There would definitely be Companion Beasts challenging Origin Realm King, so Zhou Wen planned on taking a wait-and-see approach before deciding if he should send Tai Sui.

Even if he were to send Tai Sui, he would have to wait until the time was almost up. Otherwise, with Tai Sui being so weak, it would be easily defeated by other Mythical Companion Beasts even after he defeated Origin Realm King.

While waiting for Origin Realm King to be challenged, Zhou Wen didn’t idle. He continued grinding in-game.

Ever since he knew that killing Guardians could advance Slaughterer, Zhou Wen had been targeting them.

Unfortunately, the one in Ant City was just too powerful. After some thought, Zhou Wen decided to target the nine black dragons in the underground sea.

I have quite a number of Mythical Companion Beasts now. I have the ferocious pair, Behemoth and Truth Listener, and Torch Dragon's Bright Torch Vision World. Together with the Great Might Vajra Bull, Golden Overlord Sword, and Demonic Neonate, who specializes in sneaking attacks on others, I can try to see if I can deal with the nine black dragons, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

After arriving at the underground sea, Zhou Wen first summoned his Mythical Companion Beasts. Together with Demonic Neonate, the lineup was rather powerful.

Six-Winged Guardian Dragon was still the same as before. It appeared behind the blood-colored avatar in its six-winged form to prevent it from being instantly killed.

I still have to find time to draw more Substitute Talismans in the future, Zhou Wen thought.

With Zhou Wen's order, Truth Listener and Behemoth charged into the underground sea.

The Great Might Vajra Bull was actually afraid of water. It could only provide support on land and didn't enter the sea.

However, this wasn't a big deal. All he needed to do was lure the nine black dragons to a spot near the coast and let the Great Might Vajra Bull's Soul Suppression Bell work.

Before long, the nine black dragons appeared with the war wagon. After they saw Behemoth and Truth Listener, the chains on their bodies automatically released.

The nine black dragons immediately perked up as they transformed into ferocious dragons that charged at Behemoth and Truth Listener with a roar.

Zhou Wen made the two of them fly back and return to the shore. The two giant beasts stood in the shallow water, where the seawater only reached their calves.

When the nine black dragons charged over, Zhou Wen immediately realized that something was amiss. The strength and speed of the black dragons were even stronger than Truth Listener when it had shattered an earring.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that Truth Listener and Behemoth could each fight three or four black dragons alone, but now, he realized that without using Absolute Strength and shattering the other earrings, fighting two alone was somewhat difficult.

Roar!

Behemoth roared and used Absolute Strength to suppress the nine black dragons.

The nine black dragons were beginning to be affected by the suction of Absolute Strength, but soon, they forcefully escaped its restraints.

Boom!

Behemoth, who had used Absolute Strength, threw a punch and collided with a black dragon horn.

To Zhou Wen’s surprise, Behemoth, who had Absolute Strength, was forced to take a few steps back by the collision with the black dragon. It plopped into the seawater, stirring up huge waves.

Truth Listener was in a worse state. It clashed with a black dragon and was sent flying into the sea.

Something’s amiss… How can the nine black dragons be so powerful… Zhou Wen was alarmed as he carefully looked at the nine black dragons, but he didn’t see anything.

Zhou Wen’s heart stirred as he switched to the Holy Hell King Life Soul. With the Holy Hell’s Eyes, he was immediately alarmed. There were chains that couldn’t be seen with the naked eye connecting the nine black dragons to the war wagon.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 704

Chapter 704: Battling the Nine Dragons

The chains weren’t corporeal, but they were like soul chains. The nine black dragons were connected by them, and at the same time, the chains combined their powers.

The power unleashed by a black dragon was equivalent to the power of nine black dragons unleashing their might at the same time.

It’s no wonder Tyrant Behemoth, who has used Absolute Strength, can’t suppress the black dragon. This is fighting nine alone… Zhou Wen thought.

Tyrant Behemoth stood up again and roared as it charged at the nine black dragons.

Its strength was unparalleled, but it was still difficult to deal with them when it was actually equivalent to single-handedly fighting nine. The black dragon was a Mythical creature with immense strength, and with the nine of them combined as one, the explosive power they released suppressed Tyrant Behemoth.

Every clash of strength forced Tyrant Behemoth to retreat.

Thankfully, Tyrant Behemoth was indeed extremely powerful when using Absolute Strength. It wasn’t severely injured even under the combined forces of the nine black dragons.

Truth Listener rushed out and attacked the black dragon from another direction.

The nine black dragons' movements were not affected at all despite being connected by invisible chains. Furthermore, the powers circulated among them extremely quickly.

As one side sent Tyrant Behemoth retreating, the other side fought Truth Listener, who had gathered its strength, again. The terrifying dragon claws broke through normal speed limits and blasted Truth Listener away.

Zhou Wen had already controlled the blood-colored avatar to slash at the black dragon. The Great Might Vajra Bull also released the Soul Suppression Bell at the same time. When the bell rang, the invisible chain trembled. The Soul Suppression Bell didn't work, nor did it make the black dragons faint.

Truth Listener looked like it was about to go berserk and shatter another earring. Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned it and Behemoth back before turning around to escape to the Bat Cave.

Demonic Neonate hadn't attacked all this time, so it looked like she hadn't found a chance.

The nine black dragons didn't dare come ashore. They roared in the water, causing huge waves to surge into the sky. The commotion was extremely terrifying.

The nine black dragons are so terrifying. I wonder how powerful the Guardian in the war wagon is? I'm afraid it's another Buddha Annihilation... Zhou Wen looked at the nine black dragons that surged with ferocious flames as he secretly calculated his chances of killing the Guardian in the war wagon.

I finally understand why the Lost Immortal Sutra can imitate so many Essence Energy Arts and obtain many benefits so easily. Even with such an abnormal ability, killing a Guardian is still as difficult as ascending to the heavens. Zhou Wen had already realized that the Lost Immortal Sutra was indeed an unparalleled Essence Energy Art.

Ignoring the question of whether the Lost Immortal Sutra could advance to the Mythical stage, just killing the Guardian to advance to the Life Soul realm was probably unprecedented.

Unless I think of a way to sever the connection between the nine black dragons, preventing them from gathering the power of nine dragons to attack together, killing them is just a pipe dream. Zhou Wen began to miss the six-winged seraphim.

Among the Guardians that Zhou Wen had seen, he was the easiest to kill.

Unable to kill the nine black dragons, Zhou Wen had no choice but to vent his frustration on the other dimensional creatures. He killed all the rare dimensional creatures in the dungeons and also killed some Musical Note Sprites.

Now, Zhou Wen's Musical Note Sprites numbered nearly ten thousand. Under the control of the Golden Harp, they could be of some use. However, they were still a distance away from the million-strong army that Zhou Wen had expected.

I heard that there's an Undead Scourge in the West District which sent millions of Undead rampaging across the land. In the future, I'll control the million-strong Musical Note Army and create a Musical Scourge. It will be much cooler than the Undead Scourge. At the very least, they look better than them, Zhou Wen thought.

Despite leaving a wake of destruction, his luck today seemed to be especially bad. He didn’t have any rare Companion Beasts drop.

It was time for Medusa to respawn. Zhou Wen planned on farming Medusa once. When he arrived at the Curse Demon Palace, he suddenly thought of something.

Every time he came to the Curse Demon Palace, the beautiful girl would become the demoness, Medusa. Therefore, Zhou Wen killed Medusa in her demoness form every time.

What will happen if I kill the beautiful girl before she becomes Medusa? Zhou Wen couldn’t hold back his emotions when he had this thought.

How can I kill her before she transforms? Zhou Wen didn’t open the door to Medusa’s palace.

In the past, Zhou Wen had attacked her when she was a beautiful girl, but once he attacked her, she would immediately become Medusa. Killing her before she became Medusa was clearly not an easy task.

In terms of speed, my Transcendent Flying Immortal is fast enough, but I can’t kill the beautiful girl before she becomes Medusa. In that case, I can only rely on her. Zhou Wen’s heart stirred as he looked at Demonic Neonate, who was standing there with a cold expression like a doll.

As long as Zhou Wen didn’t take the initiative to attack, the beautiful girl wouldn’t become Medusa even if he entered the palace.

After Zhou Wen finished his plans, he carried Demonic Neonate into the palace. Indeed, he saw Medusa sitting there quietly. The current Medusa was still a beautiful and pure girl. Just one look at her made him pity her.

If it wasn’t in-game but in the real world, Zhou Wen really couldn’t bear to attack her.

However, this was the game world. No matter how beautiful she was, she was still an NPC. He didn’t have any qualms.

Zhou Wen walked towards the beautiful girl step by step without gathering any Essence Energy or using his Companion Beasts.

However, Demonic Neonate was slumped on his back. Her black eyes were secretly looking at the beautiful Medusa.

When he arrived in front of the beautiful girl, Zhou Wen didn’t continue walking forward. If he continued walking forward, even if Zhou Wen didn’t attack her, the beautiful girl would become Medusa.

At that moment, Demonic Neonate, who was on Zhou Wen’s back, suddenly moved. A black-purple sword beam drilled out from beneath the blood-colored avatar’s crotch.

Without giving the beautiful girl a chance to react, the demonic sword had already stabbed her in the chest, causing her blood to splatter everywhere. Demonic aura invaded her body, causing her to fall to the ground.

It’s done! Zhou Wen was delighted as he looked at the beautiful girl’s corpse, only to see it disintegrating and disappearing.

Ding!

Soon, something dropped.

Zhou Wen took a closer look and was immediately overjoyed. The thing the beautiful girl dropped was a Companion Egg that was crystalline like a sapphire.

A Companion Beast dropped! Zhou Wen found it unbelievable. It hadn’t been a day or two since he started farming Medusa. Dimensional crystals had dropped, but there had never been a Companion Egg drop.

Could it be that only Medusa in her beautiful form can drop a Companion Egg? Zhou Wen guessed as he picked it up.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 705

Chapter 705: Medusa Companion Beast

Medusa: Mythical

Life Providence: Tragic Beauty

Life Soul: Eyes of Enticement

Wheel of Destiny: Demon God Transformation

Strength: 41

Speed: 41

Constitution: 41

Essence Energy: 41

Talent Skill: None

Companion Form: None

Zhou Wen was immediately alarmed when he saw Medusa's stats. The weakest Mythical that Zhou Wen had seen was Primordial Spore.

However, Primordial Spore still had the Eternal Immortality Life Providence that made it invincible. It also had a parasitic skill that was very useful.

Medusa was ridiculously weak in contrast. She didn't have any skills. Her Life Providence was Tragic Beauty—a negative skill that actually reduced her stats.

The only useful ones were probably the Eyes of Enticement and the Demon God Transformation.

The Eyes of Enticement were very similar to the Eyes of Petrification. They could petrify people, but the limitations of the Eyes of Enticement were much greater than the Eyes of Petrification.

The Demon God Transformation was even more ridiculous. It was actually a single-time use Wheel of Destiny. The annotation was very clear. Once used, it would forever transform into a Demon God, making it impossible for her to be restored to her human body.

From the looks of it, after using the Demon God Transformation, Medusa should become a snake-haired demoness. Although becoming a snake-haired demoness will definitely be much stronger than she is now, she's just too ugly in that form. She still looks good now… However, good looks can't be eaten or used to block bullets. What's the point?

Although he had such thoughts, Zhou Wen still couldn't bring himself to do it when he thought about how such a beautiful Medusa would become an ugly snake-haired demoness.

Forget it. I'll keep her for now. Who knows what special effects she might have? Zhou Wen planned on farming Medusa tomorrow to see if Medusa in her girl form would continue dropping Companion Eggs.

If a Companion Egg dropped, he would try to see what would happen after the Demon God Transformation.

…

Before Medusa respawned again, a Companion Beast challenged Origin Realm King on the rankings. This time, it was none other than Death of the Underworld.

Li Xuan invited Zhou Wen to watch the duel at the cube. When they arrived, the Origin Realm King still hadn’t accepted the challenge.

“Old Zhou, who do you think will win this battle?” Li Xuan asked.

“It’s hard to tell,” Zhou Wen said with a shake of his head.

The battle between Origin Realm King and Death of the Underworld was worth watching. Zhou Wen couldn’t predict the final outcome.

Death of the Underworld had a Spirit Body, rendering physical damage virtually ineffective. It was useless even if Origin Realm King entered its body.

However, it was also unknown if Death of the Underworld’s attacks were effective against Origin Realm King. Therefore, Zhou Wen was very curious about the outcome of the battle.

Soon, only ten minutes were left for the countdown. Just like the last time, the name on the ranking flashed at the end. Origin Realm King had accepted the challenge.

Everyone, including Zhou Wen, widened their eyes. They wanted to know how Death of the Underworld would deal with Origin Realm King. With the experience gleaned from Light Beast’s lesson, Death of the Underworld would definitely do something. It might even use its Wheel of Destiny to transport the Origin Realm King into the Underworld for the final battle, just like with Primordial Sword Immortal.

However, to everyone’s surprise, after Origin Realm King accepted the challenge, Death of the Underworld did nothing but float in the air.

“What’s going on? Why isn’t Death of the Underworld moving? Does he want to be passive and end up getting beaten?”

“Shouldn’t he strike first to force out the invisible Origin Realm King?”

“What is he trying to do?”

People discussed as they guessed what Death of the Underworld was planning.

Zhou Wen’s heart skipped a beat when he saw the motionless Death of the Underworld. It was as though it had fallen asleep while floating there. It was not good.

That’s bad. Someone has guessed that Origin Realm King is a microscopic Companion Beast just like me. They know that its strength is insufficient to kill a top Mythical Companion Beast, so they want to use the characteristics of Origin Realm King to stall for time. They want to wait until the countdown ends before defeating Origin Realm King… Zhou Wen already understood Death of the Underworld’s strategy.

In fact, Zhou Wen had thought of a similar method. For example, if Tyrant Behemoth challenged Origin Realm King, Origin Realm King wouldn’t be able to kill Tyrant Behemoth, so he could continue delaying until the time was up.

However, as Tyrant Behemoth might not be able to kill Origin Realm King, Zhou Wen gave up on this plan. Now that Death of the Underworld had used this plan, it meant that its master was confident that he could defeat Origin Realm King at the final moment.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that Origin Realm King would definitely take this opportunity to kill Death of the Underworld. However, to his surprise, Origin Realm King didn’t take any action.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and immediately understood that Origin Realm King’s master was indeed smart.

It was the best choice for him not to let Origin Realm King move.

If Origin Realm King was really as Zhou Wen and company had guessed—a microscopic Companion Beast that wasn’t very strong—then if it were to attack now, not only would it fail to kill Death of the Underworld, but it would also expose its true strength, allowing the master of Death of the Underworld to understand its weakness.

However, Origin Realm King remained motionless, giving Death of the Underworld immense pressure.

If it didn’t move, Death of the Underworld’s master wouldn’t be able to confirm if his judgment was correct. This would raise doubts.

Could it be that Origin Realm King also wants to stall for time? Could it be that it’s different from my conclusion? Could it be confident that it can defeat Death of the Underworld at the end of the countdown?

All sorts of guesses appeared in people’s minds. It was originally Death of the Underworld who was stalling for time, but it devolved into both sides stalling for time. No one could be sure whether Origin Realm King had the ability to defeat Death of the Underworld.

If this continued, there would be no time or chance in the event Death of the Underworld was defeated.

If Death of the Underworld were to attack now, the previous plan would fail. It would also expose Death of the Underworld’s strength. It was equivalent to shooting oneself in the foot.

Although the two Companion Beasts in the arena didn’t move, the battle had already begun. Such a battle was no longer limited to the confines of the arena. Instead, the owners of the two Companion Beasts were having a psychological game.

Ordinary people couldn’t figure out the mystery behind it. After waiting all day, people who were originally looking forward to a huge battle ended up surprised to watch a battle in which one of the Companion Beasts couldn’t be seen while the other Companion Beast remained motionless. It left them depressed.

“What the hell? Wasn’t this supposed to be a challenge? Why aren’t they fighting?”

“Hurry up and fight. Let us see which is the best—Origin Realm King or Death of the Underworld.”

“Can’t you tell? Death of the Underworld doesn’t even dare to move. It must be afraid of Origin Realm King. When Origin Realm King makes a move, Death of the Underworld will die like Light Beast.”

“Bullsh*t. It’s obvious that Origin Realm King is afraid of Death of the Underworld. Don’t you see that it doesn’t dare to attack? Death of the Underworld is almost falling asleep waiting for it to attack.”

The arena remained still. The fans of the two Companion Beasts and the streamers who supported them were the first to engage in a war of words.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 706

Chapter 706: Quick Battle

The silent battle continued, greatly displeasing many onlookers.

By standing there for a few hours without moving, how was this a duel? It was a punishment.

Questions that this was a rigged match began to spread. Some people were already suspecting that Origin Realm King and Death of the Underworld came from the same faction. They were stalling for time to directly obtain first place.

In fact, even many of the six families had such doubts.

Zhou Wen also felt that something was amiss. Although Death of the Underworld might not be from the same faction as Origin Realm King, if they were to continue wasting time like this, either one of them would definitely end up coming first.

All the factions that still had hope for coming in first were paying attention to the battle situation. At the same time, they were secretly gathering information.

Although they didn’t know who Origin Realm King belonged to, Death of the Underworld was undoubtedly from the Family Clan of Gods. Therefore, all sorts of probing and pressure targeted towards the Family Clan of Gods continued.

“Old Boll, if you can’t beat it, hurry up and admit defeat. Don’t end up letting that Origin Realm King reap all the benefits later,” Rhaego Cape said with a smile while on a video call with the Family Clan of Gods.

Boll said indifferently, “There’s no need for you to worry.”

Rhaego continued, “Old Boll, if you have a hundred percent chance of defeating Origin Realm King, it doesn’t matter if you wait until the end. But if you don’t have a hundred percent chance, why don’t you leave a chance?”

Boll naturally understood what Rhaego was getting at. He was also very conflicted.

He had originally planned on dragging it out to the end before letting Death of the Underworld defeat Origin Realm King. Just as Zhou Wen had guessed, he believed that Origin Realm King was a microscopic Companion Beast.

As long as Death of the Underworld opened the path to the Underworld and pulled the microscopic Companion Beast in, it would no longer be able to hide. When that happened, killing it wouldn’t be difficult.

But now, Origin Realm King was also stalling for time. This worried Boll a little.

Many people already knew about the abilities of Death of the Underworld. The owner of Origin Realm King definitely knew some, but he still chose to remain still. This made Boll suspect that the Origin Realm King might have the ability to defeat Death of the Underworld, but it could also be a psychological battle.

After hanging up the call, Boll was thinking about what to do next. However, Feia said, “Father, if we don’t have full confidence in winning, why don’t we do as Rhaego said and leave a way out? We can still grasp the opportunity in our hands.”

“Tell me about it,” Boll said to Feia.

Feia said, “Since we can’t be sure if Death of the Underworld can defeat Origin Realm King, why don’t we complete the battle before the final time limit? It’s naturally best if we can win. If we can’t, we’ll find a chance to forfeit. When the time comes, our Companion Beasts has the initiative to pose the challenge. It’s equivalent to having another chance.”

“I’m just afraid that this opportunity will be snatched away by others,” Boll muttered.

“There can only be one challenger. It depends on who poses the challenge first. We are the ones deciding when Death of the Underworld admits defeat, so we can also apply for the challenge at the same time. How can others be faster than us?” said Feia.

“That’s right. Then let’s do it this way. Prepare your Companion Beast. If Death of the Underworld fails, you will be the one to complete the final battle,” said Boll after some thought.

As there was no battle in the arena, many spectators lost their patience after waiting for several hours. Many people chose to return to work or to do other things. They planned on watching the results nearer to the end of the countdown.

Zhou Wen watched as time ticked by. Neither side had any intention of taking action. It was apparent that both sides wanted to drag it out until the countdown ended. They knew that there was no hope of vying for first place.

However, Zhou Wen still held onto a sliver of hope as he rushed to the town in Funiu Mountain. He wanted to wait there for the countdown to end. If there was a chance, he could try again.

In fact, there were many people with the same thoughts as Zhou Wen. Many people from large families were standing guard in front of the cube. Once the battle ended or one side gave up, they would immediately initiate a challenge. Regardless of whether they could win, it was better to try than have no chance at all.

Time slowly passed. When there were only two hours left before the countdown, more and more people returned to the cube. Most of them returned just to see the results.

However, Death of the Underworld and Origin Realm King remained still. One couldn’t be seen, while the other was motionless.

An hour and a half… an hour and fifteen minutes… an hour and ten minutes…

Suddenly, Death of the Underworld, who had been silent all this while, finally moved. Its cloak spread out, and the strange Underworld domain was about to devour the entire arena.

This was identical to when it fought Primordial Sword Immortal. However, Origin Realm King wasn’t Primordial Sword Immortal. If it were to be trapped, there would be a question if it could storm its way out.

Everyone’s spirits were lifted. Death of the Underworld’s sudden attack meant that the two Companion Beasts weren’t from the same faction. They still needed to determine a victor.

Although there was less than an hour and ten minutes left, having some time left meant that there was a chance.

The only thing they were afraid of was that there was too little time left. If one side lost and there was less than an hour left, then even if they chose to challenge the victor, the other side would still have an hour to prepare for battle. Before the challenge was accepted, the countdown would be over.

Please decide the victor before the hour mark! Many people were praying.

However, no one expected the outcome to be far faster than they had imagined.

At the instant Death of the Underworld activated its Underworld domain, a strange scene suddenly happened.

Inside the Death of the Underworld's grayish smoke-like spirit body, a flower suddenly grew out of its head. The flower was beautiful like snow, and there was lightning circulating over it. It was like an electric flower.

The flower rapidly grew. In an instant, the flower bud bloomed. As the flower bloomed, Death of the Underworld's Spirit Body seemed to be pulled by some force as it rapidly flowed into the flower, as though it had been devoured by the flower.

Before the Underworld domain could fully activate, half of Death of the Underworld's body had been sucked into the flower.

Not good! Boll was shocked. He quickly wanted to give up and admit defeat, but it was too late.

The remaining half of Death of the Underworld’s body was completely absorbed by the flower in the blink of an eye. As for the flower, it bloomed and shimmered with a strange electric light. Then, it quickly withered and vanished as though nothing had happened.

Everyone was stunned. No one dared to believe that the nearly invincible Death of the Underworld had died just like that. Old Boll’s face was ashen, and even Feia, who was about to issue the challenge, was stunned.

It was just too shocking that Death of the Underworld was instantly killed. It made him hesitate, afraid that his Companion Beast would suffer the same outcome if he entered.

It wasn’t just Feia. Everyone who was prepared to issue the challenge hesitated. Death of the Underworld’s death shocked them greatly.

Origin Realm King… is too powerful… The spectators also had such thoughts.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 707

Chapter 707: The Dust Settles

Just as everyone was in a daze, a Companion Beast almost immediately issued a challenge. The cube's screen lit up again as a name and a Companion Beast appeared on the screen.

"Tai Sui…" Everyone was slightly taken aback when they saw the Companion Beast and name.

The people from the East District knew what Tai Sui was, but the people from the other districts weren't aware. However, when they saw a white and tender ball appear on-screen, it didn't look like a particularly powerful Companion Beast.

"No way? Is that thing a slime? Can such a Companion Beast challenge an invincible Companion Beast like Origin Realm King?" someone from the West District commented.

"Is that a legendary blob monster?" The people from the North District were puzzled.

"How can such a Companion Beast challenge Origin Realm King? Isn't that guaranteeing Origin Realm King's first place? Don't tell me they are in cahoots?" Many people guessed.

Although the people of the East District knew about Tai Sui, they didn't know much about its abilities. They only knew that Tai Sui brought bad luck. As the saying went, "Messing with Tai Sui incurs disaster." It was a very popular saying in the East District.

Even if it could bring bad luck, it was impossible for it to defeat a powerful existence like Origin Realm King with bad luck in a duel, right? That was a terrifying existence that could kill Death of the Underworld!

However, Zhou Wen didn’t think so. Origin Realm King killed Death of the Underworld, Zhou Wen didn’t dare release Tai Sui to challenge him.

However, after seeing how the Origin Realm King killed Death of the Underworld, Zhou Wen was finally certain that Tai Sui would be able to restrain it. In essence, Origin Realm King was still a type of microorganism, not some special physical entity.

As for Tai Sui, it was extremely effective against all kinds of microbes. It could devour the Mythical Primordial Spore back at the Mortal stage. What’s more, it was now at the Epic stage. It had a high chance of defeating Origin Realm King.

Time ticked by. Origin Realm King hadn’t accepted the challenge. In the blink of an eye, less than an hour was left.

“What? Origin Realm King is just stalling for time. It looks like there’s zero suspense left. First place will undoubtedly go to Origin Realm King.”

“Origin Realm King is really too powerful. An existence like Death of the Underworld was actually killed by it. It didn’t even have the chance to forfeit. Did you see what happened? What’s up with that flower? The moment it appeared, it sucked in Death of the Underworld. I wonder what kind of ability it is.”

“I should have known. Even Primordial Sword Immortal isn’t a match for Origin Realm King, much less Death of the Underworld.”

Almost everyone believed that there was no longer any suspense in this battle. Without a doubt, Original Realm King was first, and the remaining time would be wasted.

After Tai Sui was defeated, there wouldn’t be enough time left to challenge it. Even if one had a Companion Beast that could fight Origin Realm King, they wouldn’t be given the chance.

However, some people didn’t think so. Leng Zongzheng had seen Zhou Wen’s Tai Sui before and knew that Tai Sui was very effective against microorganisms. Furthermore, he had clearly determined that Origin Realm King was a microorganism.

“From the looks of it, he got lucky. Your family’s Zhou Wen sure is lucky,” Leng Zongzheng said to An Tianzuo as he watched the livestream.

An Tianzuo replied expressionlessly, “Humans can’t just rely on luck. If we only rely on luck, we will suffer a huge loss sooner or later.”

Leng Zongzheng said with a smile, “Actually, luck is similar to money. Money isn’t omnipotent, but it’s impossible without money.”

…

There was less than half an hour left. Origin Realm King still hadn’t accepted the challenge. Everyone believed that Origin Realm King would accept the challenge at the last moment. Then, with less than ten minutes left before the countdown ended, its first place would then be secured.

Origin Realm King still didn’t accept the challenge in the final moments. Despite having less than ten seconds on the clock, it still didn’t make a move. It made people feel that something was amiss.

“What’s going on? Why hasn’t it accepted the challenge?”

“There’s no need to keep our hearts racing, right? Does it want to accept the challenge at the last second?”

“Could it be afraid of Tai Sui?”

“What a joke. How is that possible? That’s Origin Realm King!”

“Seven… Six… Five… Four…”

Everyone counted silently with the countdown in their hearts, but even at the last second, Origin Ream King didn’t accept the challenge.

Upon seeing the first ranked Origin Realm King’s name being squeezed out and replaced by Tai Sui’s name, the entire Federation and those overseas were in an uproar.

“Origin Realm King doesn’t dare accept the challenge? Is Tai Sui that strong?”

“Tai Sui… What kind of Companion Beast is this?”

“I knew that Tai Sui was extraordinary, but I didn’t say anything.”

“Facing Primordial Sword Immortal and Death of the Underworld, Origin Realm King can definitely suppress them, but it didn’t dare accept Tai Sui’s challenge. It doesn’t even have the courage to fight. That Tai Sui is too terrifying. I really want to know what kind of abilities it has!”

“What bullsh*t is this Tai Sui? I think it’s all a scam. They’re in cahoots.”

“I don’t think so. Origin Realm King was already first. If they are in cahoots, there’d be no need to admit defeat and let Tai Sui take first place.”

As everyone was discussing, they saw another Companion Beast issue a challenge. However, Tai Sui ignored it. It didn’t accept the challenge even when the 72-hour countdown on the cube ended.

The scene on the cube turned into a ranking. Tai Sui was first, and the defeated Origin Realm King was second. Third was Primordial Sword Immortal, and fourth was Zhou Wen’s Tyrant Behemoth.

This continued until the hundredth spot. The names of the Companion Beasts emitted a resplendent glow. It made the entire world know that they were the strongest hundred Companion Beasts among humans.

However, most people did not realize that Tai Sui, who was ranked first, had yet to advance to the Mythical stage.

“Mommy, Tai Sui is so cute. I want a Tai Sui doll. Can our family’s factory produce one?” A little boy hugging a Tyrant Behemoth doll looked at his mother with anticipation.

“This…” His mother was somewhat hesitant. Although Tai Sui looked adorable, it seemed a little ominous.

“Mommy, our Tyrant Behemoth doll has been very popular. I believe Tai Sui will also sell very well. Pretty please?” The boy pulled his mother’s hand and wheedled.

“Alright… Let’s give it a try…” His mother stroked the boy’s head dotingly.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 708

Chapter 708: Reward

The hundred names on the cube lit up. Zhou Wen suddenly felt a huge amount of energy appear out of nowhere in the bodies of his three Companion Beasts on the rankings—Tai Sui, Tyrant Behemoth, and Six-Winged Guardian Dragon.

The least energy appeared in Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's body. It didn't result in much of a change. The energy in Tyrant Behemoth's body was extremely huge, causing Tyrant Behemoth's body to constantly stir.

The most powerful energy was inside Tai Sui's body. The immense power turned Tai Sui into an egg and it began to evolve.

So there are benefits for all the Companion Beasts on the rankings. They can obtain a strange energy. However, the higher the ranking, the stronger the energy obtained. As Zhou Wen thought about it, he looked at Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's situation.

As it had obtained very little energy, it had completely absorbed it.

Zhou Wen took out his phone and checked Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's stats. To his surprise, Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's Strength stat had reached 81 points.

After being strengthened by the cube the last time, all of Six-Winged Guardian Dragon's stats had reached 80 points, but that was all. They were still within the limits of Mythical creatures.

This time, the energy obtained by Six-Winged Guardian Dragon allowed its Strength to break through to 81 points. Although it was only one point, it was very significant. This was because only a top Mythical creature had stats with 81 points.

As Six-Winged Guardian Dragon had never accepted challenges, its ranking kept dropping when it was challenged by other Companion Beasts. It had ended up in the seventies. For such a ranking to increase its stat by one point was amazing enough.

Zhou Wen couldn’t wait to see Tyrant Behemoth. He wanted to know what kind of strengthening it had obtained. It was ranked fourth, so the energy it obtained would be immense. It was incomparable to the energy that Six-Winged Guardian Dragon had received.

When Zhou Wen looked at Behemoth, he realized that the power in its body was constantly erupting. Its stats hadn’t changed for the time being.

After more than an hour, the energy in Behemoth gradually stopped erupting. Zhou Wen hurriedly looked at its stats.

Behemoth’s stats were top-notch to begin with. Now, it remained unchanged at 81 points.

Zhou Wen carefully looked at Tyrant Behemoth’s Life Providence, Life Soul, and Wheel of Destiny. There were no changes either. When Zhou Wen saw Behemoth’s talent skills, he was immediately overjoyed.

Originally, Tyrant only had one talent skill—Mountain Consuming. But now, Tyrant Behemoth had an additional skill. The skill's name was "Rampage."

After reading the introduction of the Rampage skill, Zhou Wen was even more excited. This skill could enhance its Speed and Strength for a short period of time. It was very useful for Tyrant Behemoth, allowing its strength to improve further.

If I had known that there would be so many benefits, I would have gotten all my Companion Beasts to get a ranking. Even if I can't obtain any talent skills, it's good to increase their stats.

Of course, Zhou Wen was only musing. It wasn't worth it to expose his Companion Beast's abilities to exchange for stats.

The skills obtained by Tyrant Behemoth were just icing on the cake. It didn't have an absolute effect on Tyrant Behemoth's strength. The one with the greatest influence was Tai Sui who was evolving.

The immense energy allowed Tai Sui to directly evolve. By the time it completed its evolution, it would be at the Mythical stage.

In addition, Tai Sui had obtained first place. He likely had a chance of plucking the divine fruit, but Zhou Wen didn't discover the passageway that led to the divine tree.

Just as he was feeling suspicious, he saw a pillar of light rise from the center of the cube, leading straight into the void.

Zhou Wen was hesitating about walking towards the pillar of light when he suddenly realized that a figure was slowly descending from it. It was none other than the Mythical Wang Mingyuan.

Wang Mingyuan slowly landed on the cube and said to Zhou Wen, “I never expected the Companion Beast that obtained first place to be yours, Little Wen.”

Zhou Wen looked at Wang Mingyuan and was momentarily at a loss for words.

Wang Mingyuan was his teacher and had treated him pretty well. In this aspect, Zhou Wen should respect him.

However, at the same time, Wang Mingyuan had caused great harm to the Federation. From this angle, Wang Mingyuan was already an enemy of humanity. Zhou Wen was a part of humanity, so he should treat Wang Mingyuan as an enemy.

Therefore, Zhou Wen’s emotions were extremely complicated. He looked at Wang Mingyuan and opened his mouth before calling out, “Teacher.”

Wang Mingyuan could tell that Zhou Wen was struggling internally, but he thought nothing of it. He smiled slightly and said, “I’m already very gratified that you can call me teacher again. Come, pluck the reward you deserve.”

With that said, Wang Mingyuan walked up the pillar of light. At the end of the pillar of light, a phenomenon of a divine garden appeared. The divine tree also appeared.

Zhou Wen followed behind Wang Mingyuan and walked into the pillar of light. Immediately, he felt a gentle force envelop his body as he slowly rose up and headed for the divine garden at the end of the pillar.

Soon, Zhou Wen followed Wang Mingyuan into the garden and immediately smelled a fruity fragrance.

The air in the divine garden was clean and pure. Even with the Holy Hell King’s eyes, he couldn’t sense any impurities. There was no dust or bacteria. It was like the legendary Paradise.

Here, even if one wanted to get sick, it was probably very difficult. There was no way to get infected.

“Do you know the name of this tree?” Wang Mingyuan walked to the divine tree and stared at it with a complicated expression.

“Is its name important?” Zhou Wen asked.

“To ordinary people, its name isn’t important, but to me, its name is very important,” Wang Mingyuan said.

“What’s its name?” Zhou Wen asked curiously.

“Its name is Samsara,” Wang Mingyuan said slowly.

Samsara? Zhou Wen looked at the Samsara Tree with mixed feelings as he thought to himself, If there’s really samsara in this world, will Teacher make the same choice in this life if he were to live again?

“Little Wen, go pluck that divine fruit. This is the only ripened divine fruit in the past year. It can allow any Companion Beast to advance to the Mythical stage. Even if it’s just a Mortal Companion Beast, as long as it consumes the divine fruit, it can still advance to the Mythical stage,” Wang Mingyuan said.

Although he had guessed it, Zhou Wen still asked, “What if a human eats it?”

“I don’t think you will like that outcome.” Wang Mingyuan smiled and continued, “Of course, you can also give it a try. There are some things that you have to experience before you know whether they’re good for you. There’s not much time left. Quickly pluck the divine fruit and don’t let it fall to the ground. Otherwise, it will be useless.”

Zhou Wen walked to the Samsara Tree and reached out to grab the ripened fruit. With a gentle tug, he plucked off the fruit.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 709 - Dimensional Axis

Chapter 709: Dimensional Axis

The fruit that emitted a divine glow felt similar to a peach when held in his hand.

“Teacher, have you realized your dream?” Zhou Wen put away the fruit and asked Wang Mingyuan.

“If it’s so easy to realize it, it wouldn’t be called a dream.” Wang Mingyuan pondered for a moment and pointed into the distance. “Look over there.”

Zhou Wen looked in the direction Wang Mingyuan had pointed and saw a huge building in the void. It was extremely strange, like a pillar that emitted a divine glow. It was unimaginably huge.

“What’s that?” Zhou Wen asked.

“The Dimensional Axis. Its existence connects Earth to dimensional zones,” Wang Mingyuan said.

Zhou Wen’s eyes lit up. “If we can sever the connection to the Dimensional Axis, will we be able to stop the invasion of dimensional creatures?”

“In theory, it’s indeed feasible. However, there’s more than one Dimensional Axis. It connects different dimensional spaces. Every Dimensional Axis is the core of a dimensional space. Almost all the most terrifying dimensional creatures will gather here, making it very difficult to reach it. Besides, a Dimensional Axis can connect to dimensional zones. It’s not that easy to destroy it,” Wang Mingyuan said.

“Teacher, you have already thought of a solution, right?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I’ve indeed thought of a way to sever the Dimensional Axis, but I don’t plan on severing it,” Wang Mingyuan said.

“Why?” Zhou Wen was stunned.

“I thought of a solution, but it takes too long to implement it. I’m afraid Earth would already be occupied by dimensional creatures before I can ever sever a Dimensional Axis. Therefore, I don’t plan on severing it,” Wang Mingyuan said as he narrowed his eyes at the Dimensional Axis.

“Why?” Zhou Wen asked in puzzlement.

No matter how difficult it was, there was still a chance as long as it was done. As for Wang Mingyuan, didn’t he enter the dimensional zone to stop the dimensional invasion? Why was he giving up now?

“In ancient times, floods were a perennial threat. Humans wanted to control floods. In the beginning, they tried building tall levees to block the flood. Do you know the outcome?” Wang Mingyuan asked.

Zhou Wen had heard of this myth before. The people who tried to stop the floods naturally failed. The higher the levee was, the stronger the flood. Once it breached the levee, it would cause a destructive force that was ten times or a hundred times greater.

Zhou Wen’s eyes lit up as he looked at Wang Mingyuan and said, “Teacher, do you mean to think of a way to guide dimensional creatures to other dimensional zones instead of rushing to Earth?”

Wang Mingyuan looked at the Dimensional Axis calmly and said indifferently, “No, what I mean is that I want to control the flood. I want the flood to obey my orders. They will go wherever I tell them to go. They will do whatever I tell them to do. I will dominate everything.”

“Dominate the dimensional zones”? Zhou Wen’s heart stirred. If it was really as Wang Mingyuan had said, he would one day be able to ascend to the top of the myriad races and become an existence that controlled the dimensional zones. How delightful would that be?

However, this path was just too difficult. Even with Wang Mingyuan’s shocking talent, it was difficult for him to reach that stage.

“Little Wen.” Wang Mingyuan’s gaze landed on Zhou Wen’s face as he said with a strange tone, “Don’t take my path. There’s only death at the end of this path.”

Zhou Wen was alarmed as he hurriedly asked, “Is there a problem with Spirit Casting?”

He was somewhat worried. With Zhong Ziya’s personality, there was a high chance that he would take this path. If there was really a problem with the Spirit Casting Art, Zhong Ziya would be in danger.

“There’s no problem with Spirit Casting, but this path isn’t for humans.” Wang Mingyuan sighed and waved his hand. A force swept towards Zhou Wen as he said, “Don’t come again next time. You shouldn’t be in a place like this.”

Zhou Wen was about to say something when his body was sent into the void by an invisible force. The light in front of him changed and by the time his body returned to normal, he had already fallen onto the town’s cube.

He stood up and looked up into the sky, but the pillar of light was gone. He found it indescribable.

Wang Mingyuan’s last sentence had hinted at something. If he wasn’t Wang Mingyuan’s student, he might not have plucked the divine fruit so easily.

Unfortunately, Zhou Wen still didn’t know what the person who obtained the divine fruit in his place would do or what they needed to do.

…

After Zhou Wen left, Wang Mingyuan sat on the tree’s root and closed his eyes as though he was deep in thought.

In the void above the pure land, lightning and thunder suddenly flared. It was as though the end of the world had arrived. A terrifying divine voice sounded from the void.

“Wang Mingyuan, you actually dared to violate the agreement. You should know the consequences.”

Wang Mingyuan’s eyes remained closed as he said indifferently, “Since I’ve done it, I’ll naturally bear all the consequences.”

“Very good. Then prepare to suffer divine punishment.” A terrifying lightning bolt descended along with the divine voice.

Bolts of lightning descended from the void and stabbed into Wang Mingyuan’s body like sharp swords. Thrust after thrust, they filled his entire body with lightning.

However, Wang Mingyuan sat there without any change in expression. It was as though the lightning bolts that stabbed into his body didn’t exist at all. However, blood-red spots appeared on his white clothes like blooming peach blossoms.

“The divine punishment will continue until the next divine fruit ripens. I hope you will still be alive when that happens.” The voice in the void faded and the lightning in the sky vanished.

The paradise returned to its original silence. Only the lightning on Wang Mingyuan’s body sparked like countless lightning needles as they trembled.

…

Zhou Wen returned to school and took out the divine fruit, but he was somewhat hesitant.

There was only one divine fruit, and its use was to raise a Companion Beast to the Mythical stage. He naturally didn’t need to consider the Companion Beasts that had already advanced to the Mythical stage.

Among the Companion Beasts that had yet to advance to the Mythical stage, Demonic Neonate had the greatest potential.

However, Demonic Neonate had the ability to evolve. It was only a matter of time before she advanced to the Mythical stage. And the greatest use of the divine fruit was to allow any Companion Egg to advance to the Mythical stage.

From this point of view, it was best to choose a low-level Companion Beast with immense potential to advance to the Mythical stage.

Zhou Wen really had a few Companion Beasts with such potential. For example, Doctor Darkness, Golden Harp, Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General, and so on. All of them had immense potential.

Of course, Zhou Wen wouldn’t dare raise the Fiend-Armored Tiger Soul General again. He eliminated it.

Zhou Wen’s idea was to choose between Doctor Darkness and Golden Harp. However, this was also risky. This was because he didn’t know if the Wheel of Destiny they condensed after advancing to the Mythical stage would be of any use. If it condensed a useless Wheel of Destiny, he might as well directly advance Demonic Neonate to the Mythical stage. Her being at the Mythical stage was definitely going to be extraordinary, allowing her to immediately possess powerful combat strength.

Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant as he was momentarily at a loss.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 710 - Darkness Right Hand

Chapter 710: Darkness Right Hand

Explosive Fiend Man hasn't advanced to the Epic stage yet. He would be a pretty good choice for advancing to the Mythical stage. However, Explosive Fiend Man has the ability to evolve. He still has a chance of advancing to the Mythical stage in the future... After some thought, Zhou Wen summoned Doctor Darkness.

Doctor Darkness's abilities were rather outstanding. Furthermore, with his Fight Poison With Poison ability, he could resolve many problems that ordinary powers couldn't resolve. More importantly, Doctor Darkness's companion form was a soul. It could directly raise Zhou Wen's strength. This was very useful to him.

If Doctor Darkness could advance to the Mythical stage, he would probably be more helpful.

Without any hesitation, he handed the divine fruit to Doctor Darkness.

Doctor Darkness took the divine fruit and his eyes flashed with excitement as he swallowed it.

His body immediately emitted a divine glow. The glow grew stronger and stronger before finally turning Doctor Darkness into an egg.

Unlike the evolution of typical Companion Beasts in which ordinary Companion Beasts took a long time to evolve, Doctor Darkness immediately completed the evolution after transforming into an egg and hatching. In a moment, he completed the evolution from the Epic stage to the Mythical stage.

The Doctor Darkness in front of him didn’t seem much different from before. He was still as dark and terrifying, like a puppet without a shred of humanity.

Zhou Wen hurriedly took out his phone and read the information regarding Doctor Darkness post-evolution.

Doctor Darkness: Mythical

Life Providence: Golden Left Hand

Life Soul: Dr. Soul

Wheel of Destiny: Darkness Right Hand

Strength: 79

Speed: 81

Constitution: 67

Essence Energy: 81

Talent Skill: Scalpel, Fight Poison With Poison, Light of Penetration

Companion Form: Soul

Indeed, Doctor Darkness had advanced to the Mythical stage. His skills, Life Providence, and Life Soul hadn’t changed. His stats had increased to the Mythical stage, albeit a little extreme.

Typically, a Mythical Companion Beast’s limit was 80 points. Doctor Darkness’s Speed and Essence Energy had broken through the limit to 81 points.

However, his Strength and Constitution hadn’t even reached 80. It was very strange.

The Wheel of Destiny’s name was Darkness Right Hand. It seemed to match his Life Providence, Golden Left Hand, but the ability was unknown.

Darkness Right Hand: A place where even divine light can’t reach. That is the forbidden zone of the Gods.

From the introduction, it didn’t seem to have anything to do with his right hand.

Zhou Wen entered the game and planned on testing the power of Darkness Right Hand.

He brought Doctor Darkness to the Zhuolu battlefield and encountered a Chi. Zhou Wen immediately ordered Doctor Darkness, “Use Darkness Right Hand.”

Doctor Darkness stood there and watched as the Chi ran over. He slowly raised his right hand.

Doctor Darkness had the Golden Left Hand Life Providence. Be it his Strength or Speed, his left hand was much stronger than his right hand.

When Zhou Wen got Doctor Darkness to attach himself to him as a soul, he could clearly sense that the Strength and Speed of his left hand had been enhanced.

During that period of time, Zhou Wen had deliberately practiced striking with his left hand because it was much faster than striking with his right hand.

All along, Doctor Darkness's right hand had been weaker, but when Doctor Darkness raised his right hand, it seemed to have the power of a devil burning over it like black flames.

The Chi had already rushed in front of Doctor Darkness, but Doctor Darkness remained motionless. Only when the Chi was about to collide with him did Doctor Darkness slightly tilt his body and dodge the Chi's charge, allowing it to brush past him.

Zhou Wen kept staring at Doctor Darkness's hand, but he didn't see any movement from it. When he saw Doctor Darkness brush past the Chi, he was puzzled as to why he hadn't attacked.

However, when Doctor Darkness turned around, Zhou Wen's pupils constricted upon seeing his right hand.

In Doctor Darkness's right hand was a bloody heart that was still beating.

The Chi ran a few steps before letting out a tragic cry. It suddenly fell to the ground and convulsed. Soon, it died.

Zhou Wen looked at the Chi's corpse and didn't see any injuries. He had no idea how Doctor Darkness had plucked its heart out.

Even I couldn't see how Doctor Darkness did it. Furthermore, its strength is too strange. It can actually pluck out a heart without dealing any injuries... No... I have to watch it again... Zhou Wen continued proceeding forward with Doctor Darkness.

Before long, he encountered a Wangliang.

This time, Zhou Wen didn’t only maximize the Truth Listener earring’s abilities, but he also switched to the Holy Hell King Life Soul, raising his senses to their limits.

Zhou Wen got Doctor Darkness to rush over and quickly he brushed past the Wangliang.

At that instant, Zhou Wen felt his devil-like right hand move.

As it was too fast, Zhou Wen only felt it move a little. He didn’t see it clearly.

However, Zhou Wen was certain that the right hand had definitely moved. This was because there was something white on the right hand. It was like a pig’s brain, and the blood vessels on it were still squirming.

How terrifying! Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised.

The power of Darkness Right Hand could actually remove organs in an invisible manner. It was so fast that even Zhou Wen couldn’t see it clearly. Such an ability made his scalp tingle.

In the future, if Zhou Wen didn’t like anyone, he could get Doctor Darkness to pluck at their waist. If anyone pissed him off, he could pluck out their hearts, livers, and brains. It would scare him to death.

However, Zhou Wen wasn’t sure if Darkness Right Hand’s ability was merely fast or if it had any special effects.

The Chi and Wangliang weren’t injured; yet, their heart and brain had been removed. Perhaps Doctor Darkness’s Darkness Right Hand wasn’t as simple as being fast.

Zhou Wen wanted to experiment further, so he went to the Metalwork Temple to find a Runic Heavy-Armored Warrior with extremely powerful defense. The outcome was the same. After Doctor Darkness used Darkness Right Hand, he easily plucked out the heart. The Runic Heavy Armor was useless. Even the runic patterns on it didn't light up.

Amazing. The Darkness Right Hand actually has the ability to penetrate through space. It can ignore defense and directly pluck out organs... Zhou Wen was even more excited.

With Doctor Darkness's ability, Zhou Wen could ignore dimensional creatures with powerful defense.

More importantly, Doctor Darkness's companion form was a soul. He could attach himself to Zhou Wen and allow him to use his abilities. In other words, Zhou Wen could also use Darkness Right Hand. This was equivalent to strengthening Zhou Wen's strength and abilities.

Zhou Wen still wanted to give it another try, but he was depressed. He couldn't use Darkness Right Hand again. After some research, he learned that Darkness Right Hand could only be used three times in twenty-four hours.

Three times is enough. I'll pluck the kidney before plucking the heart. If that still doesn't work, I'll pluck the brain. I don't believe anyone can survive, Zhou Wen thought.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 711 - Snatching Blood, Condensing Soul

Chapter 711: Snatching Blood, Condensing Soul

Translator: CKtalon

He attempted to get Doctor Darkness to attach himself to the blood-colored avatar as a soul. Zhou Wen immediately felt his physical attributes increase, especially his left hand. After advancing to the Mythical stage, the Golden Left Hand Life Providence augmented Zhou Wen's left hand even more.

After using all of Doctor Darkness's skills, he realized that the effects of his skills had increased significantly. Fight Poison With Poison's poison became even more potent. A single milliliter of poison could instantly kill an Epic creature, even when it was a venomous creature like the Chi.

The destructive power of Scalpel became stronger and it was sharper.

The enhancement of the Eyes of Penetration was the greatest. The ability to see through things had been enhanced. It wasn't as troublesome as before; yet, the effects had increased significantly. It was very easy to see through every minute detail inside a creature's body.

As long as Zhou Wen used the Eyes of Penetration, he could see the creatures' meridians and blood vessels clearly. However, he could only see through lifeforms; his ability to see through objects like metal was very poor.

All that's left is to experiment with Darkness Right Hand. If everything goes well, I might be able to enter Ant City and obtain the blood of that Guardian. Zhou Wen was somewhat excited.

Since Darkness Right Hand could dig out hearts across space, it might be able to dig out a Guardian's heart. When that happened, it wouldn't just be a drop of blood.

After waiting for twenty-four hours, it was finally time for Darkness Right Hand to be used again. Zhou Wen got Doctor Darkness to possess the blood-colored avatar and he carefully studied the abilities of Darkness Right Hand.

After Zhou Wen experienced it personally, he concluded that Darkness Right Hand was indeed extremely powerful. It augmented his right hand's speed greatly. At the same time, this augmentation wasn't on speed alone, it also had the ability to pass through matter.

From his tests, there was nothing that could block or prevent Darkness Right Hand from entering.

The ability of Darkness Right Hand didn't only remove organs. As long as it was a region the right hand could enter, it could pluck anything.

However, Darkness Right Hand also had a flaw. Just like the Poison Dragon Palm, it required the palm to touch the opponent's body to be of use. This skill couldn't be used as a long-range attack.

I thought I could pluck hearts from afar using my right hand to reach into the Guardian's body. I wonder if I can do it with the speed of Darkness Right Hand? Zhou Wen wasn't confident.

Although Darkness Right Hand was very fast, the Guardian of Ant City was also extremely fast.

Even if there’s no way to pluck the Guardian’s heart, the ability of Darkness Right Hand is very useful. If a dimensional creature like Primordial Spore invades the body and can’t be resolved with Fight Poison With Poison, I can rely on Darkness Right Hand to extract it from the body. Also, this ability is undoubtedly a divine skill for doctors. Surgery can be performed without cutting up bodies. Unfortunately, I’m not a doctor.

Zhou Wen gave his last usage of Darkness Right Hand to Medusa.

After Medusa respawned, Zhou Wen entered Medusa’s palace. This time, he didn’t get Demonic Neonate to help. With the speed of Darkness Right Hand, he managed to pluck out her heart before Medusa’s Demon God Transformation.

Unfortunately, Medusa didn’t drop a Companion Egg this time. All she dropped was a Speed Crystal.

With my hand’s speed, I might really have a chance of obtaining the blood of a Guardian. I don’t need a heart. Just a drop of blood will be enough. Zhou Wen felt hope again.

After waiting for another twenty-four hours so that Darkness Right Hand could be used again, Zhou Wen entered Ant City and arrived at the familiar ant nest.

With the Golden Flying Ant easily killed, Zhou Wen arrived in front of the Guardian cocoon. However, this time, he had no intention of cracking open the cocoon. Instead, he got Doctor Darkness to possess him and directly used the Eyes of Penetration.

With his penetrative vision, Zhou Wen immediately saw the situation inside the cocoon.

The Guardian was curled up in the cocoon. Her body was already rather mature, and the thin wings on her back had completely taken form. Her body emitted a strange glow.

The Guardian sensed that she was being looked at and moved.

Zhou Wen didn’t dare hesitate as he used Darkness Right Hand. His right hand seemed to be enveloped by a devilish power as it instantly vanished.

Zhou Wen felt that everything in front of his right hand seemed to turn to water. His right hand easily passed through the cocoon and reached for the Guardian’s heart.

Darkness Right Hand was just too fast, but the Guardian opened her eyes first and grabbed at it.

However, the Guardian missed as Darkness Right Hand passed through her palm.

Changing his plans, Zhou Wen didn’t aim for her heart. He directly took a drop of blood from her palm and quickly retracted.

Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen retracted his Darkness Right Hand and switched to Lost Country. He teleported to distance himself before rushing out of Ant City at full speed.

Boom!

Just as Zhou Wen rushed out of Ant City, the underground space in Ant City exploded, instantly turning into ruins.

Not daring to turn his head, he controlled the blood-colored avatar to run as he circulated the First Order of Chaos, the drop of blood in hand. He hoped to see if he could absorb it.

The drop of blood was immediately absorbed when the First Order of Chaos circulated. As the First Order of Chaos circulated, it gradually underwent a strange change.

Can I finally condense a Life Soul? In that case, I might be able to rehatch the Invisibility Cloak's Companion Egg. After Zhou Wen absorbed the blood, he switched instance dungeons to prevent the Guardian from chasing after him.

The First Order of Chaos constantly circulated. With the drop of Guardian's blood as its foundation, it fused with Zhou Wen's essence, vitality, and spirit, nurturing a strange power.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that the First Order of Chaos would be similar to the Life Soul condensed by the Dao Sutra. After all, both of them used the blood of the same Guardian. Furthermore, the type of Essence Energy Art was very similar.

However, when the First Order of Chaos truly condensed a Life Soul, Zhou Wen realized that his guess wasn't accurate. Although the two shared similarities, they were two different Essence Energy Arts after all.

Boom!

Zhou Wen's essence, vitality, and spirit, as well as Essence Energy fused together. Like a terrifying explosion, it made Zhou Wen's body and mind tremble.

In the next second, Zhou Wen realized that the blood-colored avatar's body had turned into an egg.

No, it wasn't that the blood-colored avatar had turned into an egg, but that a barrier that resembled an eggshell had formed around it.

An eggshell? What Life Soul is this? Zhou Wen felt odd as he looked at the information on his phone. He saw the words “Chaos Egg” written in his Life Soul column.

It’s really an egg! Zhou Wen was somewhat curious. He didn’t know what special effects the Chaos Egg Life Soul would have.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 712 - Incubating the Invisibility Cloak

Chapter 712: Incubating the Invisibility Cloak

Zhou Wen summoned the Chaos Egg in reality, and an eggshell immediately enveloped his body, making him appear as a newborn baby constrained within.

Inside the Chaos Egg, there was a mysterious force flowing. It was like water, but it wasn't corporeal.

Zhou Wen couldn't move, nor did he know what use this eggshell had.

Under such circumstances, Zhou Wen couldn't even move, much less fight. Such a Life Soul was probably useless in battle.

I'll ignore it for now. I'll try hatching the Invisibility Cloak. Zhou Wen took out the Invisibility Cloak's Companion Egg and attempted to hatch it.

In the chaos egg, Zhou Wen's Essence Energy stirred, and the Invisibility Cloak Companion Egg reacted. What was even more magical was that the strange power in the Chaos Egg also flowed into the Invisibility Cloak egg.

The life force in the Invisibility Cloak Companion Egg increased in intensity. Before long, the Companion Egg transformed into a stream of light that entered Zhou Wen's body.

It's done! Zhou Wen was overjoyed. After waiting for so long, he had finally hatched the Invisibility Cloak. It would be much easier for him to go anywhere in the future.

With the Invisibility Cloak, he could freely enter the dimensional zones controlled by the various families. He had long wanted to visit a few dimensional zones, but because they were controlled by the six families, he had no chance of entering them.

Zhou Wen already knew the Invisibility Cloak's stats which remained unchanged. He summoned it and put it on. A magical scene happened as Zhou Wen's body vanished into thin air. It was true invisibility.

Zhou Wen experimented and realized that the Invisibility Cloak's ability only made him visually invisible. To truly be invisible, he needed to activate the Wheel of Destiny.

Once the Wheel of Destiny was activated, Invisibility Cloak lived up to its name and reached an intangible state. No one could discover Zhou Wen's presence.

However, the Wheel of Destiny had a time limit. He could only be truly invisible for three minutes.

Three minutes is about enough. With Doctor Darkness's Darkness Right Hand, it won't be difficult to assassinate someone. Zhou Wen's heart suddenly stirred.

In the past, he couldn't kill the nine black dragons because they could combine their powers. Now, with the power of the Invisibility Cloak and Darkness Right Hand, he could completely conceal himself and aim to kill three black dragons first. He could mostly rely on the strength of Tyrant Behemoth, Truth Listener, and the other Companion Beasts to deal with the remaining six black dragons.

With this in mind, Zhou Wen couldn't wait to give it a try. Unfortunately, he had just used Darkness Right Hand once, so he only had two chances to use it. He had to wait for some time before the cooldown ended “Young Master Wen, something happened to Deputy Governor Qin. Can you come over?” An Sheng spoke over the phone in a heavy tone.

“What’s wrong with Deputy Governor Qin? Is there anything I can help you with?” Zhou Wen had a rather good impression of Qin Wufu, so he hurriedly asked.

An Sheng said, “Deputy Governor Qin returned to Chess Mountain to preside over it the past few days. He happened to encounter a break-out creature that rushed out of Chess Mountain and engaged in an intense battle. Deputy Governor Qin was heavily injured. We have done everything we can but to no avail. We hope to use your strength to save Deputy Governor Qin.”

“I don’t know any medicine. I used the power of a Companion Beast back when I treated the parasitic spores,” Zhou Wen said.

“We want to borrow your Companion Beast’s strength. That’s our only hope. I’ll pick you up now. We’ll talk on the way.” As An Sheng spoke, he had already arrived outside the school.

Zhou Wen left school and got into An Sheng’s car. As An Sheng drove, he told Zhou Wen the general situation.

In fact, many experts in the Sunset Army had already made a diagnosis of Qin Wufu’s injuries and found the reason for his serious injuries, but no one could save him.

A strange dimensional creature had drilled into Qin Wufu’s brain. It was like a tumor that extended out blood vessels that intertwined with Qin Wufu’s brain matter.

Unless Qin Wufu’s brain was sliced open, it was impossible to extract the dimensional creature from his brain.

However, the brain was fragile. The dimensional creature had already penetrated deep into it and was entrenched in his brain. Even Chancellor Leng was unable to get it out without damaging Qin Wufu’s brain.

Many experts and specialists in the Sunset Army had thought of many solutions, but none of them would be effective.

However, if they ignored the dimensional creature, it would continue invading Qin Wufu’s brain. It was very likely that it would completely control Qin Wufu’s brain and turn him into a puppet.

An Sheng’s idea was to let Zhou Wen take a look and see if he could use the method of treating the parasitic spores to inject poison into the dimensional creature, causing it to die automatically.

“The poison itself might affect Deputy Governor Qin’s brain. Furthermore, I wonder how poison resistant the dimensional creature is. There’s no way to accurately apply the dosage with the poison. If too much poison is used, it will damage the brain. If too little is used, the dimensional creature’s final struggle might destroy the entire brain…” Zhou Wen pondered.

An Sheng nodded and said, “Actually, the experts have already analyzed this plan of treatment. Just as you said, it’s very dangerous, but at this stage, we can only give it a try. We can’t just watch idly as Deputy Governor Qin gets destroyed, right?”

“Let’s take a look at the situation first. There might be a way.” Zhou Wen surmised that Darkness Right Hand might be useful, but it was situation-dependent.

“Alright, let’s head over now.” An Sheng drove all the way to the military hospital.

Zhou Wen saw Qin Wufu, who was already unconscious, on the bed. He was connected to all sorts of instruments, and some strange Companion Beasts were by his side.

A Companion Beast that resembled a jellyfish wrapped around his head. Its tentacles connected to his brain, but it was unknown what use it had.

Beside the bed were a few doctors and nurses. Many officers were in the room next door, looking at Qin Wufu through the glass window. An Tianzuo was among them, and his expression looked terrible.

“Overseer, Young Master Wen is here.” An Sheng led Zhou Wen into the room.

Zhou Wen and An Tianzuo subconsciously glanced at each other before they involuntarily looked away.

An Tianzuo looked at An Sheng and was about to say something when the room was pushed open again. An officer walked over with an elder.

“Overseer, Mr. Dugu is here,” the officer reported.

“Mr. Dugu, please take a look at Deputy Governor Qin’s injuries,” An Tianzuo said to the elder.

The elder didn’t refuse. He looked at all the diagnostic information and some x-ray photos before saying, “It’s not impossible to eliminate the dimensional creatures in Deputy Governor Qin’s brain, but…”

“What conditions do you have?” An Tianzuo asked.

“Since Overseer is so straightforward, I won’t beat around the bush. I can revive Deputy Governor Qin given ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold,” the elder said confidently.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 713 - Extracting An Object From the Brain

Chapter 713: Extracting An Object From the Brain

The expressions of the officers changed. The An family might not even produce ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold in three years.

An Sheng said, “Mr. Dugu, can you reduce it a little? Or can we use money and dimensional crystals to make up for the rest? As you know, the production of refined Essence Gold is very low. It’s really difficult for us to hand over ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold.”

The elder said with a smile, “Adjutant An, there’s no need to act poor in front of an old man like me. Who doesn’t know that the An family’s Essence Gold mine is the richest mine in the Federation? Ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold might be a huge sum to others, but it shouldn’t be much to the An family, right? I can guarantee that Deputy Governor Qin will enjoy a full recovery. You can rest assured about this. The Dugu family is an expert in this aspect. There’s no one else in the entire Federation who can guarantee you that.”

“Mr. Dugu…” An Sheng was about to say something when he was interrupted by the elder.

“Ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold, not one bit less. Why don’t you discuss it again? However, you have to be quick. If that dimensional creature injures the brain, even my Dugu family will be helpless,” the elder said.

Everyone knew that the Dugu family was trying to take advantage of the situation, but there was nothing they could do.

No one in Luoyang could treat Qin Wufu's injuries. If they wanted Qin Wufu to live, this was probably the only way.

An Tianzuo's eyes were resolute. Just as he was about to say something, An Sheng spoke first. "Overseer, let Young Master Wen take a look at Governor Qin's injuries before making a decision."

An Tianzuo fell silent as the elder beside him smiled confidently. "It's fine. You can get anyone to come and take a look. I don't dare say anything else, but in the field of microscopic Companion Beasts, no one will dare claim first if our Dugu family claims second. This dimensional creature that invaded his brain can only be eliminated by our Dugu family."

"Young Master Wen." An Sheng looked at Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen nodded and said, "I need to observe Governor Qin's situation up close."

An Sheng hurriedly led Zhou Wen to the ward. On the way to the ward, An Sheng whispered to Zhou Wen, "Young Master Wen, using ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold to save Governor Qin's life is nothing. As long as we can save him, Overseer will be willing to pay anything. However, the research on the new Essence Gold weapons in the military factory is at a critical juncture. A large amount of refined Essence Gold is needed for experiments. Without this batch of Essence Gold, the research progress will be delayed for a year or more. This will deal a severe blow to Luoyang and the An family…"

“I’ll try my best,” Zhou Wen said.

After reading the information, he had a general idea of what to do. However, the images taken by the instruments weren’t very clear. He still needed to use his Eyes of Penetration to take a clear look himself to ensure that nothing went wrong.

Standing beside Qin Wufu’s bed, Zhou Wen used his Eyes of Penetration to look at his brain.

A strange dimensional creature that looked like a blood vessel had invaded Qin Wufu’s brain. The blood vessels extended out like a fishing net that wrapped around a portion of his brain. Furthermore, it was still spreading.

Many blood vessels seemed to be part of the brain. It was difficult not to hurt the fragile brain if one wanted to remove it.

After watching for a while, Zhou Wen deactivated his Eyes of Penetration.

“Young Master Wen, what do you think?” An Sheng hurriedly asked.

“I can do it.” Zhou Wen nodded.

An Sheng was immediately overjoyed. He hurriedly turned and said to An Tianzuo, who was on the other side of the glass window, “Overseer, Young Master Wen said that he can be saved. Governor Qin, shall we get Young Master Wen to immediately rescue him?”

At this moment, the elder beside him said, “Overseer, you have to think carefully. That dimensional creature has already merged with Governor Qin’s brain. To eliminate it requires an extremely meticulous job. It also requires the cooperation of special microscopic Companion Beasts. Are you sure you want such a young man to do it? Ignoring the fact that he can't eliminate it, even if he can, Governor Qin might end up a cripple if his brain is injured."

An Tianzuo didn't say a word after hearing the elder's words. He walked to the glass window and stared at Zhou Wen. "Zhou Wen, can you ensure Governor Qin's recovery?"

"I can only guarantee that I can eliminate the dimensional creature without harming Deputy Governor Qin's brain. I can't guarantee anything else," Zhou Wen answered.

"Young man, don't be too blindly confident. Do you know what that dimensional creature is called? Do you know what kind of ability it has?" the elder said with a smile.

"I don't know, nor do I need to know. I just need to know that I can eliminate it," Zhou Wen said.

"Overseer, did you hear that? What kind of statement is that? Do you really want to use such a person?" The elder laughed.

But soon, the elder's smile froze. An Tianzuo directly said to Zhou Wen, "Immediately treat Deputy Governor Qin."

"Overseer, isn't your decision a little too rash? Or do you think Deputy Governor Qin's life is more important than ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold? Wouldn't this demoralize your subordinates?" the elder said with a smile. His words were clearly provoking the other officers.

He wanted to use the officers' emotions to pressure An Tianzuo. Ten tonnes of refined Essence Gold were very important resources for the Dugu family.

The elder wasn’t afraid that Zhou Wen could treat Qin Wufu because he didn’t believe that Zhou Wen had the ability to do so. He was afraid that he would have no hope of obtaining the batch of refined Essence Gold if Zhou Wen killed Qin Wufu.

An Tianzuo didn’t answer the elder. He looked at an officer beside him and asked, “If you were Governor Qin, who would you choose to treat you?”

“Young Master Wen,” the officer answered without hesitation.

The elder’s expression changed slightly. Things seemed to be different from what he had imagined.

“What about you?” An Tianzuo asked another officer.

“Young Master Wen,” the officer immediately answered.

An Tianzuo asked one by one, and all the officers chose Zhou Wen without any hesitation. There was no exception. From their expressions, it seemed like a forgone conclusion.

“Overseer, your methods of subordination are truly brilliant.” The elder held back the surprise in his heart. He had imagined that An Tianzuo had given strict orders, making them be willing to risk their lives without any complaints.

Although he said that, he couldn’t help but look at Zhou Wen in the ward. He thought to himself, Does he really have that ability?

However, when his gaze landed on Zhou Wen, his pupils constricted. He saw a strange dimensional creature formed from red threads in Zhou Wen’s hand. It was the dimensional creature in Qin Wufu’s head. Zhou Wen had already taken out the dimensional creature at some point in time, and it was alive.

“That’s impossible!” The elder wore a look of disbelief as he pressed his hands against the glass window. His eyes yearned to reach out to Zhou Wen, hoping to see if the dimensional creature in his hand was fake.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 714 - Worm Dugu

Chapter 714: Worm Dugu

Translator: CKtalon

The dimensional creature contorted as it attempted to burrow into Zhou Wen’s hand, but it was blocked by a force that prevented it.

The doctor brought over a specially tempered piece of glassware that he had prepared and Zhou Wen placed the dimensional creature inside.

It constantly twisted and slammed into the glass container, hoping to rush out. Unfortunately, it was too weak and couldn’t break through the tempered glass. Furthermore, there was an instrument made of Essence Gold above the glass container. It had a weakening effect on dimensional creatures.

The elder didn’t believe that Zhou Wen had really taken out the dimensional creature. He ran into the ward and wanted to examine Qin Wufu to confirm if the dimensional creature in his brain had really been taken out.

However, there was no need for a checkup. The elder knew that Zhou Wen wasn’t faking it. When he entered the ward, he saw that Qin Wufu had already woken up.

“Sorry for making everyone worry.” Although Qin Wufu was still weak, his brain seemed to be functioning normally. He could already speak.

“You are Young Master Wen, right? Can you tell me how you did it?” the elder asked Zhou Wen.

“No,” Zhou Wen answered bluntly.

The elder was slightly taken aback as he carefully sized up Zhou Wen before continuing, “With Young Master Wen’s abilities, it would be a pity if he doesn’t join my Dugu family. Our Dugu family needs talented people. Young Master Wen, why don’t you consider it?”

“Mr. Dugu, isn’t it inappropriate for you to poach one of ours in front of our Overseer?” An Sheng said.

“The Federation is a family. Young Master Wen, you really should consider our Dugu family. Otherwise, your ability will be wasted.” As the elder spoke, he cupped his hands at An Tianzuo and said, “I’ve broadened myself today. Thank you for the Overseer’s invitation. However, with Young Master Wen around, I’m afraid we won’t have many opportunities to cooperate in the future.”

“Mr. Dugu, you’re being too polite. There are still many opportunities for cooperation in the future,” said An Tianzuo.

Before the elder left, he gave Zhou Wen an additional glance.

Qin Wufu chatted with Zhou Wen for a while until the doctor told him to rest. Only then did Zhou Wen leave.

When Zhou Wen arrived at the entrance, he saw An Sheng waiting for him in the car, but he didn’t see An Tianzuo.

“Overseer has something to attend to. He told me to take you back,” An Sheng said with a smile.

“It’s not far. I can go back myself,” Zhou Wen said as he got into the car.

“It’s mainly because there’s something I need to tell you. The person you saw just now is called Worm Dugu. He’s a member of the Dugu family. In terms of seniority, Dugu Ge has to call him second uncle. The Dugu family is adept at microscopic Companion Beasts, and this person is an expert in Gu-type Companion Beasts.” An Sheng explained the origins of Worm Dugu in detail.

“Why are you telling me this so solemnly? Could it be that there’s something wrong with this Worm Dugu?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Young Master Wen, you are getting sharper. Although Governor Qin was injured because of the break-out creature at Chess Mountain, we still have our suspicions. Firstly, we haven’t seen such a dimensional creature in Chess Mountain before. Secondly, the Dugu family lives far away in the South District. It’s a coincidence that Worm Dugu happened to be in Luoyang. Although it might be a coincidence, it’s best to be careful,” An Sheng explained.

Zhou Wen understood what An Sheng meant. If the thing in Qin Wufu’s head was really put there by Worm Dugu, then with Zhou Wen ruining the plans, Worm Dugu probably wouldn’t give up easily.

“Young Master Wen, that white ball-like Companion Beast of yours is quite fun. Why don’t you let it out for some fresh air? Perhaps there will be an unexpected gain,” An Sheng said casually.

“I will.” Zhou Wen knew that An Sheng wanted him to use Tai Sui to prevent the invasion of Gu-type Companion Beasts.

Unfortunately, Tai Sui was still evolving. It was probably useless for the time being.

After returning to school, Zhou Wen summoned Primordial Spore and made it stand guard. Tai Sui was still evolving, so it was the only weapon that could deal with microscopic Companion Beasts.

...

Under the surveillance of An Sheng's men, Worm Dugu checked into a hotel. After dinner, he returned to his room to rest. He didn't do anything strange.

Through the surveillance cameras, one could even see that Worm Dugu was sleeping in bed.

However, in a place they couldn't see, a mosquito secretly flew out of the room, passing through the streets and heading for Sunset College at an unbelievable speed.

As Worm Dugu flew, he thought to himself, How can those fools from the An family defend against me? I want to see how capable Zhou Wen is to be able to extract the Blood Thread Brain-Eating Gu that was connected to his brain. Even if I were to take action, it would be impossible for me to pull it out as cleanly as him. With his ability, he's practically a genius at raising Gu worms.

The mosquito-shaped Worm Dugu quickly arrived at Sunset College. After getting his bearings, he headed for Four Seasons Garden.

Others might not be able to find Zhou Wen's location, but Worm Dugu had a smell-seeking Companion Beast. It could find Zhou Wen by searching for his remnant smells.

Soon, the mosquito-shaped Worm Dugu arrived outside Zhou Wen's building. He sniffed and confirmed that this was Zhou Wen's residence.

Worm Dugu landed in the grass on the yard and thought to himself, Let's get my baby to test his strength first.

With a thought, he summoned a Companion Beast that looked like a spider. The spider was only the size of a fingernail and it was gray. One wouldn't be able to see it if one didn't pay attention.

The spider accepted the order from Worm Dugu and crawled towards Zhou Wen's building. It crawled in through the crack in the door in a seemingly easy manner.

Just as Worm Dugu wanted to use the perspective of his spider Companion Beast to take a look at the situation inside the building so that he could pick up a strand of hair or a skin flake to proceed with the next step of the plan, the spider suddenly lost contact with him. Worm Dugu Worm didn't even see a thing.

He's indeed prepared. However, if he thinks that he can defend against me just because of some preparations, he is severely underestimating my Dugu family. Worm Dugu didn't seem surprised. With a thought, he summoned some Companion Beasts.

This time, it wasn't a spider, but an even smaller insect. It was like a black sesame seed, so small that it was almost indiscernible. There were many of them.

Under the control of Worm Dugu, the black sesame-like flying insects flew into the dormitory through the cracks in the door, windows, and so on.

Although my hundred or so Black Blood Gu are only at the Legendary stage, they can enter the bloodstream the moment they see it. As long as one is bitten by it, they will quickly reproduce in the blood. They can only be cured by me. I want to see if you have the ability to get these Black Blood Gu out as well, thought Dugu Gu.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 715 - Magical Hair Gu

Chapter 715: Magical Hair Gu

Translator: CKtalon

However, very quickly, Worm Dugu's expression turned ugly. After the tiny Black Blood Gu entered the dorm, he lost contact with them one after another.

Originally, Worm Dugu believed that even if a portion of the more than a hundred Black Blood Gu was discovered, there would definitely be quite a number of them which successfully infiltrated. One was enough as long as it succeeded.

However, by the time Worm Dugu realized that something was amiss, more than a hundred Black Blood Gu was almost wiped out. He didn't even know who killed the Black Blood Gu.

In the dorm, a golden chick flew around. As long as a Gu worm crawled in, it would eat them. No worm could come in alive.

Worm Dugu refused to believe it as he released his Companion Beasts one after another, trying his best to infiltrate Zhou Wen's dorm.

However, no matter what kind of Companion Beast he released, he immediately lost contact with them the moment they entered Zhou Wen's building. It was like a rock sinking into the sea.

I don't believe that you can even kill my Magical Hair Gu. Worm Dugu had sacrificed many Companion Beasts, but he refused to have his beliefs shaken. He just wanted to win once in his competition with Zhou Wen.

He did not realize that Zhou Wen had no idea what was happening in his dorm. He was lying in his bedroom on the second floor, grinding instance dungeons.

The moment Worm Dugu's Companion Beasts entered the building, they entered the chick's stomach without alarming Zhou Wen.

Worm Dugu's Magical Hair Gu was extraordinary. It was a Mythical dimensional creature.

That's right. It was a dimensional creature, not a Companion Beast.

The truly powerful thing about the Dugu family was that they could tame dimensional creatures. Companion Beasts were secondary.

Magical Hair Gu was a dimensional creature that Worm Dugu had tamed himself. He had spent a lot of effort and nearly lost his life to subdue and tame it.

This Magical Hair Gu was a Mythical dimensional creature. Its abilities were very special. As long as it came into contact with the enemy's body, it could parasitize their hair and use the power of their hair.

It could control the growth of hair in reverse, causing the hair to grow inside the brain and body, taking root in the brain and flesh. It was terrifying.

The hair absorbed the nutrients of the body, and in the end, all the flesh and blood in the body would be sucked dry. The interior would be filled with hair, leaving only a layer of human skin on the outside. This way of dying was extremely painful.

When Worm Dugu caught the Magical Hair Gu, he had almost died. It was only by chance that he had managed to subdue it.

A black thread thinner than a strand of hair appeared in front of Worm Dugu. As though it was a strand of hair that was blown by the wind, it swept into the building through the crack in the door.

Punk, when you know how powerful my Magical Hair Gu is, won't you end up following me back to the South District and be my disciple? Dugu Gu felt that he could definitely deal with Zhou Wen by releasing such a powerful weapon.

He didn't really want to do anything to Zhou Wen. All he wanted was to take him in as a disciple of the Dugu family and raise worms with him.

The main reason was that Zhou Wen's method of extracting the Blood Thread Brain-Eating Gu was so shocking. Worm Dugu felt that such talent made him gifted at rearing Gu worms. It would be a pity if he didn't do so.

The Dugu family was a true presence in the South District. However, the Dugu family didn't just rear worms. In fact, they raised too many things.

As the drop rate of Companion Beasts was too low, especially Mythical Companion Eggs which were also difficult to find, the Dugu family did the opposite.

Killing a Mythical creature only gave one a certain chance of obtaining a Companion Egg. But, the chances weren't high.

However, if they could tame a Mythical creature, it was equivalent to having a 100% chance of obtaining a pet.

Coupled with the research of ancient spells and generations of people, the Dugu family was unmatched in the Federation when it came to rearing strange dimensional creatures.

However, taming dimensional creatures was very dangerous. Furthermore, the dimensional creatures that the Dugu family domesticated were strange, making them even more dangerous. Many members of the Dugu family were killed by the dimensional creatures they domesticated.

In the eyes of Worm Dugu, Zhou Wen was born to nurture Gu worms. Therefore, he wanted to recruit him into the Dugu family.

Of course, if he was recruited into the Dugu family to learn the art of taming dimensional creatures, he had to first implant a Gu in Zhou Wen to prevent him from learning the Dugu family's abilities only to end up dealing with the Dugu family.

However, Worm Dugu never expected that all the Companion Beasts he had sent in would die for no apparent reason. This was why he released his most precious Magical Hair Gu.

When it comes to worms, I, Worm Dugu, am an expert. Worm Dugu was thinking about what he would do when Zhou Wen came crying to him with black hair overgrowing everywhere.

The moment the Magical Hair Gu entered the building, it was discovered by the chick. However, this time, it didn't immediately fly over. It stood on the table and watched as the Magical Hair Gu rolled towards the stairs on the second floor. It seemed to be hesitating.

Just as the Magical Hair Gu was about to roll to the side of the stairs, the chick finally moved. Like a golden bolt of lightning, it landed in front of the bedroom door and pecked at the Magical Hair Gu, hoisting it up. It raised its neck and swallowed the Magical Hair Gu.

The Magical Hair Gu twisted in the chick's stomach, but a golden flame burned in its stomach, gradually melting the Magical Hair Gu.

Pfft!

On the grass outside, Worm Dugu suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood. He returned to his original form, dispelling his mosquito-like form. His face was terrifyingly pale and filled with disbelief.

Impossible... The Magical Hair Gu is almost invulnerable... It grows once it enters the flesh... How can this be... Worm Dugu's face was pale as he broke out into a cold sweat.

He had been raising worms for so many years, but this was the first time he had encountered such a terrifying opponent —one who could even easily kill a Magical Hair Gu.

Could this Zhou Wen really be my nemesis? He can even easily kill a Magical Hair Gu. It's probably easy for him to take my life... If I had known this would happen... I shouldn't have come... The more Worm Dugu thought about it, the more terrified he became. He gritted his teeth and got up from the ground to knock on Zhou Wen's door.

Zhou Wen was grinding dungeons when he heard the doorbell ring. He thought it was a classmate, but when he opened the door, he saw an old man standing at the door. It was none other than Worm Dugu.

Zhou Wen was secretly wary. Could it be as An Sheng said? Worm Dugu is here to settle scores?

Just as Zhou Wen was thinking about how to deal with Worm Dugu, the latter suddenly bowed at him. “Young Master Wen, it’s all my fault. I was blind. I shouldn’t have offended you. According to the rules of our Dugu family, I’ve lost this match. Feel free to punish me, even if it takes my life. I’ll do whatever you want.”

Zhou Wen was puzzled when he heard that. He had indeed been wary of Worm Dugu, but he didn’t discover anything entering his room. What was this Worm Dugu talking about?

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 716 - Master

Chapter 716: Master

“Do you know how you lost?” Zhou Wen asked Worm Dugu.

He had no idea what had happened, so he wanted to figure it out.

Worm Dugu ended up misunderstanding Zhou Wen. He said bitterly, “Young Master Wen, you are indeed brilliant. I used the Blood-Sucking Spider, Black Blood Gu, and seven other types of miniature Companion Beasts. Each one was smaller than the last, but none of them escaped your notice. All the Companion Beasts were killed by you. In the end, I had no choice but to use the Magical Hair Gu. I originally thought I could use the Magical Hair Gu to teach you a lesson, but I never expected that I would be the one being taught a lesson.”

“Why did you attack me?” Zhou Wen asked again.

Worm Dugu blushed and stammered, “When I saw your technique at the hospital, I felt that you were more suited to learning my techniques of raising insects and worms, so I wanted to take you to the South District to learn how to raise insects and worms from me.”

“You mean that you want to take me in as your disciple?” Zhou Wen asked Worm Dugu in a daze.

Worm Dugu’s face flushed red. “Young Master Wen, I’m really sorry. I’ve really embarrassed myself. Only today did I realize that there’s always someone better out there. What a joke about you being my disciple; I’m not even qualified to be your disciple. If you wish to kill me, just give the word. I won’t dirty your hands.”

“Did the dimensional creature in Governor Qin’s brain have anything to do with you?” Zhou Wen asked directly.

Worm Dugu immediately said with a serious expression, “Definitely not. Although our Dugu family does need a batch of Essence Gold, we wouldn’t go to such an extent, much less harm Deputy Governor Qin who defends against a dimensional zone.”

“In that case, leave,” Zhou Wen said after some thought.

However, Worm Dugu had no intention of leaving. He gritted his teeth and said to Zhou Wen, “Young Master Wen, I’ve raised worms my entire life. This is the first time I’ve suffered such a terrible defeat. I don’t even know how I failed. Can you tell me how you killed the Magical Hair Gu?”

“I don’t know,” Zhou Wen said casually. He really didn’t know how the Magical Hair Gu died. He didn’t even see it.

On second thought, the chick had been flying around without him knowing why. He could roughly guess that the chick had resolved the miniature Companion Beasts and the Magical Hair Gu. However, it wasn’t appropriate for him to tell Worm Dugu.

“You don’t know how the Magical Hair Gu died?” Worm Dugu naturally didn’t believe such an answer.

“It was dead before I even saw it. How would I know how it died?” As Zhou Wen spoke, he prepared to close the door. He wasn’t in the mood to say anything more to Worm Dugu.

If it wasn’t for the fact that he didn’t wish for Worm Dugu to die in school thus causing a conflict between the Dugu family and Luoyang, he would have taken action.

Although he didn’t plan on taking action now, Zhou Wen had no intention of letting Worm Dugu off the hook. He planned on using the Invisibility Cloak to tail Worm Dugu and see if he had any accomplices before deciding what to do.

Zhou Wen was only making a passing remark, hoping to send Worm Dugu on his way. It also gave him an opportunity to test the effects of the Invisibility Cloak.

However, when Worm Dugu heard that, he was alarmed. “You killed the Magical Hair Gu without seeing it?”

“Yes. If there’s nothing else, leave. Don’t disturb me again,” Zhou Wen said as he closed the door.

To his surprise, Worm Dugu rushed over and held the door open. “Young Master Wen, can you let me see your Companion Beast. A Companion Beast that can easily kill a Magical Hair Gu must be extraordinary…”

Just as he was about to say something, Worm Dugu suddenly saw the chick standing on the table. He immediately widened his eyes in shock.

“What’s wrong with you? Do you really think I don’t dare kill you?” Zhou Wen said with a cold expression. If Worm Dugu continued pestering him, he would have no choice but to attack.

“That… That can’t be…” Worm Dugu didn’t seem to hear Zhou Wen’s reprimand as he stared intently at the chick and stammered," Could that be the legendary phoenix fledging?"

"You recognize it?" Zhou Wen looked at Worm Dugu in surprise.

The chick had been with him for quite some time, but not many people recognized its origins. Now, the chick looked like a tiny golden eagle. It didn't look anything like a phoenix.

"I recognize it, of course I recognize it. How can a person who plays with worms and insects not recognize a phoenix? A phoenix is the nemesis of insects and worms. No matter how powerful a Gu worm is, they are powerless against it… No wonder… No wonder…" As Worm Dugu spoke, he tore off its clothes, revealing his dry chest muscles.

"What are you trying to do?" Zhou Wen took two steps back and looked at Worm Dugu in surprise.

However, Worm Dugu turned around, allowing Zhou Wen to see his back. On his back was a huge blood-colored phoenix tattoo. It looked extremely realistic as though it could flap its wings and fly out at any moment.

"You have a phoenix Companion Beast?" Zhou Wen was alarmed.

Worm Dugu said in embarrassment, "How can I have a phoenix Companion Beast? The teacher who taught me how to raise worms tattooed this on me. It's called the Phoenix-Hooking Evil Painting. This is a rule passed down from my ancestors. It uses a mixture of special avian blood and medicinal herbs for the tattooing. It can be used to ward off insects and evil. It's to prevent me from being injured when catching insects and raising Gu. In my lineage, there are also ancient books regarding phoenixes. The phoenix fledging described in them is very similar to yours. It's just slightly different… Young Master Wen… Is this really a phoenix fledgling?"

"I see." Zhou Wen didn't answer as he nodded and said, "If there's nothing else, go back. I won't let you off so easily the next time I see you."

However, Worm Dugu didn't move. He said to Zhou Wen in a fawning manner, "Young Master Wen, do you lack any errand boys? Do you want me to be your assistant?"

"I don't need an assistant," Zhou Wen said with a frown.

"That's right. Men usually find young ladies to be their assistants… Then, what do you think about you becoming my master?" Worm Dugu's eyes darted around as he suddenly said something unexpected.

"How old are you? Why are you still taking me as your master? I…" Before Zhou Wen could finish his sentence, Worm Dugu had already plopped to the ground.

"Master, please accept a bow from your disciple, Worm Dugu…" Worm Dugu didn't hesitate at all. He was about to pay his respects to his master by kowtowing.

Zhou Wen was dumbfounded. He had no idea what was happening. Before he could react, Worm Dugu had already finished kowtowing.

"What are you trying to do?" Zhou Wen stared at Worm Dugu and frowned.

Worm Dugu crawled up and said, "From now on, you are my master. Master, when are you going to teach me how to raise a phoenix?”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 717

Chapter 717: Worm Dugu’s Plan

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen took out his saber and prepared to slash at him. After all this back and forth, Worm Dugu was actually targeting the chick.

Worm Dugu hurriedly retreated out of the yard when he saw Zhou Wen take out his saber. As he retreated, he shouted, “Master, I’ll visit you another day. Call me if there’s anything you need. I’ll be there anytime.”

Zhou Wen closed the door and immediately summoned the Invisibility Cloak. Then, he jumped out of the window at the back of his residence and tailed Worm Dugu from afar to see what he was up to.

Zhou Wen saw Worm Dugu secretly arrive at an uninhabited spot before turning into a mosquito. He then flew out of the school.

Zhou Wen wore the Invisibility Cloak and had Truth Listener on his ear. He kept monitoring the movements of Worm Dugu and soon followed him to a dilapidated warehouse.

There’s indeed an accomplice. Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to listen and realized that there was another person in the warehouse besides Worm Dugu.

Zhou Wen listened attentively, hoping to gather some useful information.

With Truth Listener around, he didn’t need to risk entering the warehouse.

“Second Grandpa, what took you so long? How did the matter regarding Essence Gold go?” The person who spoke to Worm Dugu was a girl. She appeared rather young. She had a round face and huge eyes. She looked to be about sixteen or seventeen years old at most.

“I screwed up. The Blood Thread Brain-Eating Gu in Qin Wufu’s body was extracted by someone else,” said Worm Dugu.

“Apart from our Dugu family, there’s actually someone who can extract a Blood Thread Brain-Eating Gu that has entrenched a brain?” the girl said in disbelief.

“I didn’t believe it either, but it was indeed extracted. Furthermore, Qin Wufu was completely unharmed,” said Worm Dugu helplessly.

“What about the Essence Gold? Is the An family willing to sell so much refined Essence Gold to us?” the girl asked worriedly.

“Probably not.” Dugu Gu smiled and said, “But don’t worry. Even if we don’t use Essence Gold, I’ve already thought of a way to capture the Myriad Poison Gu King.”

“Second Grandpa, didn’t you try that the last time? Even the Magical Hair Gu is helpless against the Myriad Poison Gu King. It was almost destroyed. Do you have any more powerful Gu?” The girl looked at Worm Dugu in disbelief.

Dugu Gu chuckled and said, “I don’t have one, but I’ve just become a disciple to a master. If I can get his help, I’ll definitely be able to capture that Myriad Poison Gu King.”

“Second Grandpa, didn’t you say that the master you had is already dead? Where did this master come from?” The girl’s face looked puzzled.

“Didn’t I just say that I just became a disciple of this master? He has a phoenix fledging. With the help of the phoenix fledgling, we don’t need to forge an Essence Gold Worm Nurturing Furnace to still capture the Myriad Poison Gu King,” said Worm Dugu.

“Then, Second Grandpa, quickly get your new master to help,” the girl said.

“Cough, cough. There’s no rush.” Worm Dugu knew very well that it wasn’t that easy to get Zhou Wen to use the phoenix fledgling to help him capture the Myriad Poison Gu King.

The girl sighed and said, “I originally thought that our luck was good and we happened to encounter the situation of Qin Wufu having his brain invaded by a Blood Thread Brain-Eating Gu. I thought we could exchange for enough Essence Gold, but I never expected that we wouldn’t even get a single bit of Essence Gold. I wonder when we will be able to capture the Myriad Poison King.”

“Mi’er, don’t worry. With Second Grandpa around, I guarantee that I’ll help you obtain the Gu King of Myriad Poison Valley. Furthermore, other than me, no one else has the ability to take the Gu King away. Just relax.” Worm Dugu changed the topic and said, “Stay in Luoyang and have some fun for a few days. When we are to return to the South District, I’ll naturally seek you out. Don’t run around. You can’t leave Luoyang City, understand?”

“Got it, Second Grandpa.” Mi’er agreed seriously.

After some thought, Mi’er asked again, “Second Grandpa, should I visit your master? Second Grandpa, how should I address your master?”

“No need, no need. You don’t have to worry about this matter.” After Worm Dugu sent Mi’er away, he muttered to himself, “I don’t know if there’s a second phoenix fledgling. I reckon the possibility of there being a second one is very low. Even if there is one, I’m afraid it won’t be easy to obtain it. I should think of a way to invite Master to follow me to Myriad Poison Valley, but how can I move him? From the looks of it, I have to think of a way.”

Zhou Wen listened outside all this time. He heard them talking about Gu, but he didn’t hear any plans. From Mi’er’s tone, Qin Wufu’s injuries didn’t seem to have anything to do with them.

Although I don’t know if the chick is a real phoenix, it does seem to be able to restrain dimensional creatures like Gu worms. In the future, I have to bring it along if I have to go to the South District, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

After Worm Dugu left the dilapidated warehouse, he returned to the hotel and didn’t come out again.

Zhou Wen eavesdropped for a long time, but he didn’t gather any useful information. Finally, he gave up on monitoring Worm Dugu and returned to the school dorm.

The ability of the Invisibility Cloak is really useful. Even if I walk on the streets during the day, I don’t need to worry about being seen by others. Even if I don’t use the Wheel of Destiny, it’s enough to remain invisible under normal circumstances. Zhou Wen thought about how he could use the Invisibility Cloak to do something big.

Before the dimensional zones are fully unlocked, I should download some game dungeons. I’ll download the famous dimensional zones first. I wonder what dimensional zones Primordial Immortal Sword, Origin Realm King, and Death of the Underworld Companion Beasts come from. After some thought, Zhou Wen decided to start with the nearest dimensional zones.

The famous dimensional zones closer to Luoyang should be the Xia family's dimensional zones, right? Zhou Wen looked up the information and quickly made up his mind. He planned on heading to the Xia family's territory.

The Xia family controlled many mysterious dimensional zones. Zhou Wen had always wanted to go to a few of them.

One of the most famous dimensional zones was named Ancient Sword Tomb. It was said that there were many legendary swords there. The Xia family's old hero had once obtained a Mythical sword-type Companion Egg from Ancient Sword Tomb and used it to reign supreme.

However, that was decades ago. The Xia family had controlled the Ancient Sword Tomb for so long, so they definitely had more than one Mythical Companion Beast sword.

Zhou Wen suspected that the demonic sword that Demonic Neonate snatched from Xia Xuanyue was from the Ancient Sword Tomb.

After I'm done with the Xia family, I'll tour the six families' territories and download the dimensional zones they control. When that happens, I can grind for any Companion Beast I want. There's no need for me to risk my life. Zhou Wen did as he said. He planned on informing An Sheng before setting off for the Xia family.

This time, Zhou Wen didn't dare leave the chick and antelope behind. He was mainly afraid that the Dugu family would target the chick. Although the possibility of the antelope being stolen was very low, Zhou Wen still planned on taking them with him to prevent any accidents.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 718 - Teacher Square

Chapter 718: Teacher Square

Translator: CKtalon

The chick stood on Zhou Wen’s shoulder and looked around curiously.

However, the antelope looked listless; it didn’t seem to like walking.

Zhou Wen wasn’t in a rush. This trip was also a form of training. He planned on taking a look at all the dimensional zones along the way. He planned on taking a picture of all the dimensional zones with the tiny palm symbol to prepare for a full-scale break-out of dimensional zones in the future.

Ancient Sword Tomb was in Imperial Capital. Zhou Wen could also take this chance to visit Wang Lu and repay his debt.

Imperial Capital was also known as Capital. Unlike the Holy City that was jointly controlled by the six families, Imperial Capital was basically controlled by the Xia family. However, to everyone’s surprise, the Special Inspector Bureau’s headquarters was also in Imperial Capital, not Holy City.

Zhou Wen had plans of making a trip to the bureau’s headquarters on his visit to the Imperial Capital.

As many roads were blocked by dimensional zones, all he could do was circle around them. He had to travel further. Even with Zhou Wen’s present strength, he didn’t dare barge into unexplored dimensional zones to prevent any accidents.

The route Zhou Wen chose was the one An Sheng had planned for him. Although it was a little further, it was safe and reliable.

After carefully studying the information, the first relatively famous dimensional zone he encountered was called Five Dragons Mouth.

It was originally a scenic spot. After the dimensional storms, the Five Dragons Mouth turned into a complicated, stacked dimensional zone that had multiple dimensional zones within.

One of the most famous dimensional zones of the Five Dragons Mouth was called Mount Confucius. There was a Teacher Square in the western Mount Confucius, and Mount Laojun was in the east. Legend had it that the Confucian and Daoist families had competed here, leaving behind many moving tales.

After the dimensional storms, Mount Confucius became even stranger. One could often hear the sound of reading from Teacher Square, but when one really looked over, there wasn’t a single soul.

There was also Arrow Atop. It was the highest peak of Five Dragons Mouth. It had many legends related to Hou Yi.

There were also other dimensional zones that had their own specialties. Zhou Wen planned on heading to the Five Dragons Mouth to take a look. If he could download the dimensional zones, it wouldn’t be bad to keep them for future research.

…

Worm Dugu didn’t know that Zhou Wen had left Luoyang, so he went to look for him early in the morning.

“Master, are you awake? I’m here to pay my respects to you. When are you free? Teach me, your disciple, how to raise a phoenix.” In order to learn the way to raise a phoenix, Worm Dugu didn’t care about his reputation at all. He kept using the words, “master” and “disciple,” without any hesitation.

“Why are you making such a din so early in the morning?” Li Xuan walked out of Zhou Wen’s dorm.

Before Zhou Wen left, he got Li Xuan to take all the food in the fridge to prevent it from spoiling.

“Who are you? Where’s my master?” Worm Dugu glared at Li Xuan.

“How would I know who your master is?” Li Xuan sized up Worm Dugu and saw that the old man was already in his seventies or eighties. To think he still had a master.

“You walked out of my master’s dorm, and you still say that you don’t know who my master is?” said Worm Dugu.

“Zhou Wen is your master?” Li Xuan widened his mouth as he sized up Worm Dugu in disbelief.

Zhou Wen was only seventeen or eighteen years old. How could he have such an old disciple?

“That’s right. Zhou Wen is my master. Has he woken up?” Worm Dugu said matter-of-factly.

“If Zhou Wen is your master, then wouldn’t I, Zhou Wen’s classmate, be your martial uncle? Disciple-Nephew, there’s no need to continue shouting. Zhou Wen has gone out and isn’t on campus,” Li Xuan joked.

Worm Dugu narrowed his eyes. He recognized Zhou Wen as his master because he wanted to learn how to rear a phoenix from Zhou Wen. It didn’t mean that others could use him as a joke.

“Sure. That depends on whether you have the fortune to be my martial uncle.” Worm Dugu remained unperturbed as he secretly released a Black Blood Gu, hoping to teach Li Xuan a lesson.

However, when the Black Blood Gu crawled to Li Xuan’s side, it suddenly stopped moving. It sprawled on the ground and trembled. No matter how the Worm Dugu urged it, the Black Blood Gu didn’t dare approach Li Xuan.

“Eh?” Worm Dugu was slightly taken aback. He had never encountered such a situation.

He summoned a few more Gu, but the moment they approached Li Xuan, they immediately curled up in horror, not daring to touch him.

Worm Dugu wore a look of surprise. What’s going on? Why are my Gu worms afraid of him? Does he have a phoenix too?

…

Zhou Wen continued forward and didn’t encounter any danger. Along the way, he saw a Companion Beast caravan that transported goods.

As motor transportation became increasingly difficult, many transportation companies had chosen to use Companion

Beasts to transport goods.

He successfully arrived at Five Dragons Mouth. Zhou Wen walked along the mountain path, hoping to find the tiny palm symbol. After searching for a long time, he didn’t find it.

Instead, he saw many people fighting a monkey-type dimensional creature. The monkey was muscular and had a short tail. It looked rather ferocious.

Zhou Wen took a look at the information and knew that this dimensional creature was called a macaque. It was a relatively common dimensional creature at Five Dragons Mouth. There were many of them, and they were typically at the Mortal stage. Occasionally, one could see a Legendary Monkey King. Legend had it that the macaque here had the bloodline of the Handsome Monkey King. He didn’t know if it was true.

The Macaque King’s combat strength was considered quite powerful among Legendaries. Furthermore, the Macaque King Companion Beast’s companion form was very special, giving it a rather high value. The nearby Legendaries would often come here to hunt the Macaque King, hoping to gain something.

Zhou Wen wasn’t interested in hunting the Macaque King. He just searched for the tiny palm symbol.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen heard a strange sound coming from a nearby mountain. It sounded like children reading textbooks. The sound was drawn out, making it sound odd.

However, those voices were clearly not children’s voices. They were the voices of adults.

Zhou Wen looked at the source of the sound and then at the map. He immediately knew that it was the legendary Teacher Square.

The legends are true. There's actually the sound of reading in broad daylight at Teacher Square. Zhou Wen's interest was piqued as he walked towards Teacher Square to see what was so magical about it.

However, Zhou Wen couldn't help but be taken aback when he reached Teacher Square and saw the scene in front of him.

There were many people sitting on Teacher Square. They were all twirling their heads as they read. The voice Zhou Wen had heard wasn't a phenomenon, but a result of actual people reading.

These people were engrossed in their reading. They twirled their heads and read loudly, as though they were primary school students who were seriously reciting their textbooks. They also resembled scholars from ancient times. Their voices were especially charming as they dragged out their last words.

Could this be a reading activity that's hosted here? Zhou Wen thought as he climbed onto Teacher Square.

However, just as he stepped onto Teacher Square, he couldn't help but open his mouth and emit the same voices as the others. He began reading with them, but he had never heard the content that he was reading.

There's something odd about this place! Zhou Wen was alarmed.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 719 - Injured

Chapter 719: Injured

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but sit down and become one of them. He began reciting with them.

Zhou Wen recited in a rhythmic manner as though he was very familiar with it, but he had no idea what he was reciting.

Thankfully, the mysterious power of Teacher Square wasn’t harmful. All he did was sit there and read. There was no further development. Zhou Wen wasn’t in a rush to escape the mysterious power’s control. He wanted to figure out what the mysterious power was up to.

There were more than a hundred people sitting on the huge Teacher Square. They looked like people who cultivated. Zhou Wen felt that it wasn’t a coincidence that they were here.

Why isn’t there any mention of such a strange power on Mount Confucius? Zhou Wen recited whilst studying the content he was reciting.

The content was very esoteric. The language and words were very different from what modern people were used to. It was clearly an ancient article.

Zhou Wen’s level of literacy was very ordinary. He could still understand some simple ancient texts, but he really couldn’t understand such obscure ancient texts.

Previously, Zhou Wen had studied the ancient texts of Daoism and Buddhism, but this ancient text was clearly different from the two. He had never heard of many terms, so he couldn’t figure out what it meant, even after listening for a while.

Zhou Wen originally wanted to memorize the article he was reciting and slowly study it later, but he soon realized that no matter how hard he tried, he couldn’t remember a single word.

After reciting a sentence, it was as if it had vanished from his memory. He couldn’t memorize it at all.

From the looks of it, I can only try recording it. Zhou Wen wanted to take out his phone to record his voice.

However, he realized that his body wasn’t listening to him. All he could do was sit there and chant. He couldn’t do anything else.

With a thought, Zhou Wen switched his Essence Energy Art to the Dao Sutra. He wanted to use the power of Gods Retreat to break the rules of Teacher Square and take out his phone to record the recital.

Bam!

Just as Zhou Wen switched to the Dao Sutra, he suddenly felt a terrifying force strike him like lightning. The jade infant nearly cracked.

Zhou Wen’s body tumbled down Teacher Square like a balloon. Thankfully, after leaving Teacher Square, Zhou Wen regained control of his body and quickly found his footing.

He spat out a mouthful of blood as his organs were severely injured. Some of his bones had even fractured. Zhou Wen was alarmed. Is the taboo power of Teacher Square that domineering?

However, on second thought, he felt that something was amiss.

The taboo power in Netherworld City was already extremely terrifying, but it wasn't as potent as this. The taboo power in Teacher Square was no longer something that could be explained by the word "potent." Zhou Wen felt that the taboo power of Teacher Square was targeting him.

Wait, I think I understand. Zhou Wen immediately recalled.

Legend had it that Mount Confucius was the place where the Confucian and Daoist practitioners fought for supremacy, and Teacher Square was the territory of Confucianism. It was highly likely that he had been targeted when he used the Dao Sutra on Teacher Square.

In that case, I should head to Mount Laojun to take a look. That's Daoist territory. Zhou Wen wanted to stand up, but his injuries were too severe. The moment he moved, he grimaced in pain.

I should heal my injuries first. Zhou Wen switched to the Inverse Ancient Sovereign Life Soul and used its powerful lifeforce to heal his injured organs and bones.

However, the Inverse Ancient Sovereign only had a powerful lifeforce. Its self-healing speed was far inferior to Li Xuan's Life Soul.

The antelope looked at Zhou Wen gloatingly, as though it already knew the mystery of Teacher Square.

The chick skipped about on the rocks beside him. It was filled with curiosity about everything.

“Are you alright?” A woman in her thirties walked over and squatted down to ask Zhou Wen.

“I’m fine. It’s just a small injury.” Zhou Wen shook his head.

The woman smiled and said, “You aren’t from around here. It’s your first time at Mount Confucius’s Teacher Square, right?”

“How did you know?” Zhou Wen asked.

“The locals know that you can’t use Daoist Essence Energy Arts on Teacher Square. You must have used the Daoist Essence Energy Art just now to be struck out,” the woman explained.

The recital had ended, and the people sitting on Teacher Square had returned to normal. They were walking down in twos and threes.

They looked at Zhou Wen with a smile. Clearly, they, like the woman, knew why Zhou Wen had been expelled.

“Teacher Square is a holy land for cultivating Confucian Essence Energy Arts like Righteousness. If you cultivate in Daoist Essence Energy Arts, you should head to Mount Laojun.”

The woman thought for a moment and reminded him, “Teacher Square has an hour of recital daily. If you want to tour the area, you can go up after that hour.”

“Thank you for your advice. I wonder if Mount Laojun has any taboos?” Zhou Wen hurriedly asked.

“Not really. There’s a Dao book on the top of Mount Laojun, but it requires self-enlightenment. There’s no force that can force you.” The woman sized up Zhou Wen and said, “Your injuries don’t seem light. Do you want me to take you to the hospital?”

“There’s no need. I’ll be fine after resting for a while.” Zhou Wen hurriedly thanked the woman for her kindness.

After the woman left, Zhou Wen sat there to recuperate. However, his injuries were too serious. On the second day, the woman and many people who cultivated in Confucian Essence Energy Art came to Teacher Square again. Yet, Zhou Wen hadn’t completely recovered from his injuries.

“Why are you still here? Are you really fine?” the woman asked Zhou Wen in surprise.

Typically, even if someone was expelled, they wouldn’t be too heavily injured.

“It’s fine, it’s fine. I just like the scenery here. I want to take a break here,” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

The average person’s injuries wouldn’t be that serious, but not only did Zhou Wen use the Dao Sutra, but he had also used Gods Retreat, hoping to nullify the taboo power of Teacher Square. That was why he was so heavily injured.

Seeing that Zhou Wen’s expression was much better than yesterday, the woman didn’t say anything else. Like the others, she got onto Teacher Square and sat down. Soon, Zhou Wen heard the familiar recital.

Those people basically came to Teacher Square to read every day. Zhou Wen chatted with the woman a few times and knew that everyone called her Sister Gui.

According to Sister Gui, reading on Teacher Square accelerated one’s cultivation efficiency of Confucian Essence Energy Arts. However, there were very few people cultivating the Confucian Essence Energy Arts now. Therefore, the people who came to Teacher Square for the daily recital were basically acquaintances. They had known each other long ago.

After a few days, Zhou Wen finally recovered from his injuries. However, his injuries were secondary. The primary reason was that it took until now for the jade infant to recover from its injuries.

After recovering, the jade infant gave Zhou Wen a strange feeling as though it was about to break through.

Could it be that being injured helps the jade infant break through? Zhou Wen had a thought.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 720 - Comfort Only When Thrown Out

Chapter 720: Comfort Only When Thrown Out

Zhou Wen decided to give it another try. Gods Retreat had already reached its peak. It couldn’t continue improving even in Netherworld City.

If the power of Teacher Square could really allow Gods Retreat to advance to a Perfect Body, it would be Zhou Wen’s first Perfect Body Life Soul.

When it was the recital session at Teacher Square, Zhou Wen gritted his teeth and walked towards it.

When Sister Gui saw that Zhou Wen had mostly recovered from his injuries, she said with a smile, “This time, make sure not to circulate a Daoist Essence Energy Art when you step into Teacher Square.”

Zhou Wen didn’t know what to say.

The others laughed. After recuperating here for a few days, they had basically recognized Zhou Wen and knew about his embarrassing use of a Daoist Essence Energy Art on Teacher Square.

Just as she was about to say something, the recital session began.

A mysterious force enveloped Teacher Square. Everyone suddenly sat down and began to recite an article in all seriousness—one that they didn’t understand.

Zhou Wen was one of them, but just as he started reciting, he switched his Essence Energy Art to Dao Sutra.

Boom!

As though he was struck in the soul, Zhou Wen felt his soul tremble as his body involuntarily flew out. He slammed onto the stone steps and rolled a distance before he managed to control his body.

His injuries were worse than before, but Zhou Wen was pleased to discover that the jade infant's injuries were much lighter than the previous time. After the previous injury, his resistance seemed to have improved significantly.

Could it be that this method really works? Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised.

An hour later, Sister Gui and company came down from Teacher Square and passed by Zhou Wen, who was recuperating. Sister Gui said in a speechless manner, "Little Zhou, didn't I tell you that you can't use Daoist Essence Energy Arts on Teacher Square? Why didn't you listen to me? I won't harm you."

Zhou Wen hurriedly said, "Sister Gui, I know that I can't use Daoist Essence Energy Arts on Teacher Square, but I have a bad temper. The more I'm not allowed to do it, the more I have to do it."

"Child…" Sister Gui was instantly rendered speechless.

"Sister Gui, don't bother about him. There's something wrong with this kid's brain."

"That's right. Who cares what he's doing? He's just looking for trouble. I think it's because life in the Federation is too good that there are so many young people out there looking for trouble.”

“Young people have never endured suffering. It’s understandable why they want to seek out excitement. I was the same when I was young. My mom said that girls will have children when they sleep with men. I didn’t listen to her, and I ended up giving birth…”

From then on, there was an additional young man with an antelope and chick on Mount Confucius’s Teacher Square. In the beginning, he was sent flying every two to three days.

Later on, it became worse. He was sent flying daily during the recital session on Teacher Square because of his circulation of a Daoist Essence Energy Art as though he would feel uncomfortable if he didn’t get thrown out.

Sister Gui tried persuading him at first, but Zhou Wen didn’t listen. She got used to it over time.

After the recital, a young girl left with Sister Gui. When they passed by Zhou Wen who was lying by the roadside, the girl looked at him and said to her, “Sister Gui, do you think that Little Zhou is silly? Why does he have to go against Teacher Square for no reason? Isn’t he just looking for trouble? He really has nothing better to do.”

Sister Gui smiled and said, “How is Little Zhou silly? He’s such a good lad. I think he has his reasons for doing so.”

“What reason could there be? I think he’s just bored.” The young girl paused before continuing, “Why is there such a senseless person? If everyone was like Xu Tong, the Federation’s land wouldn’t be constantly devoured by dimensional zones.”

As she spoke, the young girl couldn’t help but look at the youth in front of her.

The young man had an imposing appearance. He had sword-like eyebrows and bright eyes. He was indeed a very handsome young man.

Xu Tong was very famous at Five Dragons Mouth. He cultivated Righteous Energy and had advanced to the Epic stage at the age of twenty-seven. In this region, no one was better than Xu Tong.

It was understandable that Xu Tong could win the girl’s admiration.

Sister Gui said with a smile, “Xu Tong is not bad, but there are many outstanding girls around outstanding men. Why don’t you consider Little Zhou? I think that young lad is pretty good. He looks quite handsome and is about the same age as you. No one is vying with you for him yet.”

“Tch, I don’t fancy such a senseless man. If I want to find a boyfriend, I have to find an outstanding man like Xu Tong.” The girl curled her lips and turned her head to look at Zhou Wen who was lying on the mountain path. No matter how she looked at him, he was far inferior to the dignified and refined Xu Tong.

Sister Gui said with a faint smile, “It’s understandable that little girls like men like Xu Tong. When you reach my age, you might feel that some special men might be more interesting.”

“Perhaps. However, I won’t find such a man interesting at any time.” The girl didn’t find Zhou Wen interesting when she saw him sleeping on the mountain path. His clothes were disheveled and there was a chick skipping around him. He resembled a wandering performer.

Days passed. Every time the jade infant was struck, Zhou Wen would have the illusion that he was about to break through. Although this feeling was very real, no matter how realistic it was, it was still an illusion. He couldn’t advance to a Perfect Body.

Strange. I clearly feel that I can advance to a Perfect Body, so why haven’t I advanced? What’s the difference? Zhou Wen kept pondering over this question.

After some thought, Zhou Wen thought of a possibility.

Back then, Zero Taboo was a crystalline body. After the crystal exploded, the Gods Retreat jade infant was born.

Zhou Wen was wondering if it was possible that the jade infant needed to be destroyed before it could advance to a Perfect Body. This explained the reason why he felt that he was about to break through every time the jade infant was injured.

However, as the jade infant’s body healed, the feeling of a breakthrough vanished.

After some thought, Zhou Wen realized that there was only one possibility. However, it was too risky to shatter the jade infant. If his guess was wrong and the jade infant was really destroyed, he would be doomed. He would have to condense the Life Soul again.

Therefore, Zhou Wen was still hesitant about giving the jade infant a try.

It was time for the recital session again. When Sister Gui and company arrived at Teacher Square, many people greeted Zhou Wen. As Zhou Wen had been here for more than two weeks, the people who often came to Teacher Square were already familiar with him.

However, most people felt that Zhou Wen was a little silly and only wanted to joke with him. They didn’t have any ill intentions.

Sister Gui got Zhou Wen to head to Teacher Square with her as she asked, “Little Zhou, are you still circulating the Daoist Essence Energy Art today?”

“Yes.” Zhou Wen nodded.

Everyone waited on Teacher Square for the recital session to begin. Zhou Wen wasn’t in the mood to chat, so Sister Gui and the girl beside her chatted.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 721 - Reconstitution after Collapsing

Chapter 721: Reconstitution after Collapsing

When it was time for the recital, everyone involuntarily sat down and began reciting.

Although everyone was conscious, they couldn’t control their bodies or mouths. They could only move freely after the recital session ended.

During this period of time, they could do nothing but recite.

Zhou Wen was considering if he should use the power of Teacher Square to shatter the jade infant and reconstitute it when he suddenly saw a figure rushing across the mountain path at an astonishing speed.

Upon closer inspection, it was actually a macaque. However, this macaque seemed to be a little different from ordinary macaque. The average macaque was only about 1.5 meters tall. Even a Legendary Macaque King maxed out at 1.9 meters. That would make it look majestic.

However, this macaque was nearly three meters tall. It looked even more ferocious than a macaque. Its eyes were glowing red, and its fur appeared metallic black. It looked like a ferocious wrath from afar.

Sister Gui and the others also noticed the blood-eyed black macaque. They were somewhat surprised, but no one was worried.

Even if this blood-eyed black macaque was an Epic dimensional creature, as long as it entered Teacher Square, it would be affected by Teacher Square’s power. Like all humans, it would sit on the ground and recite ancient texts.

Something similar had happened in the past. A macaque that accidentally entered Teacher Square ended up sitting down and reading like the humans. It wouldn’t threaten the scholars here.

However, the moment the blood-eyed black macaque entered Teacher Square, everyone’s expression changed drastically, revealing shock.

The blood-eyed black macaque actually didn’t sit down to recite. Its eyes were glowing with blood-red light as it walked step by step towards the humans sitting on Teacher Square. It exposed its fangs and looked like it was going to devour someone.

The color drained from everyone’s faces, but they couldn’t move. All they could do was watch as the blood-eyed black macaque walked over as they recited.

Everyone wore odd expressions. Their faces looked prim and proper as they swirled their heads while reciting. However, their eyes and voices were filled with fear. There was even the sound of sobbing in their voices.

If they could move now, they would have run as far away as they could.

It was especially so for the three people who were closest to the blood-eyed black macaque. Their expressions were as if they had been tied up and fed feces. It was as uncomfortable as it could be.

The blood-eyed black macaque walked over step by step. From its heavy footsteps, Zhou Wen knew that it was still affected by the power of Teacher Square. However, it didn't suffer as significant an effect as them.

Just as the blood-eyed black macaque was about to reach the crowd, a man suddenly stood up and shouted at the macaque, "How can we allow you to taint the Holy Land of Teacher Square? Leave!"

Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. He never expected someone to be able to stand up while reciting. On careful look, he saw that it was Xu Tong.

At that moment, Xu Tong's entire body was emitting a kind of aura. That aura was formless and intangible. It wasn't as resplendent as divine light, nor was it as grand as Buddhistic light. It was an indescribable aura.

Everyone was overjoyed. They had thought that they were doomed for sure, but they didn't expect Xu Tong to stand up to resist the blood-eyed black macaque. They felt that there was hope.

Xu Tong was already an Epic expert, so he should be able to kill the blood-eyed black macaque. After all, no high-level dimensional creature had ever appeared near Mount Confucius.

The blood-eyed black macaque didn't retreat because of Xu Tong's berating and imposing manner. Instead, it became even more ferocious. A bloody light flashed in its eyes as its majestic body broke through the sound barrier. With a sonic boom, it threw a violent punch at Xu Tong.

"Pervading Heaven and Earth is the aura of righteousness. A righteous heart empowers…" Xu Tong's words seemed to be augmented by a magical power. As he spoke, the righteous aura in his body became even stronger. It was as if his entire being was enveloped by the righteousness that pervaded the world.

At the instant the blood-eyed black macaque rushed in front of him, Xu Tong's palm also struck it with a terrifying force that was akin to the sea or dragon.

What a powerful Essence Energy Skill... Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. The power of Xu Tong's palm strike was extremely powerful at the Epic stage.

Boom!

Xu Tong's palm collided with the blood-eyed black macaque's claw, producing a terrifying shockwave that sent the people beside him staggering. Meanwhile, Xu Tong flew out like a runaway kite and slammed into the mountain rocks, causing him to vomit blood. After struggling a few times, he got up and sat there. As he vomited blood, he chanted ancient texts.

Everyone felt a chill in their hearts. In their eyes, Xu Tong was already an invincible existence since he was able to forcefully resist the power of Teacher Square. However, such a powerful Xu Tong was severely injured by the blood-eyed black macaque's attack. He even lost the ability to resist the mysterious power of Teacher Square. No matter how serious his injuries were, he had to sit there and recite.

Everyone was horrified, but they could only sit there and recite. No words to describe their feelings any longer.

The blood-eyed black macaque roared and extended its claws to grab a person in front of it. Its nails were as sharp as daggers. If one were to be swiped by them, five bloody holes would probably appear on their head.

Zhou Wen frowned slightly. He couldn’t use any Companion Beasts on Teacher Square. Even his Essence Energy Art and body were suppressed, preventing him from summoning any Companion Beasts.

“What are those two fellows doing outside? Why aren’t they coming over to help?” Zhou Wen realized that the antelope and chick were standing on a distant mountain path. They were looking over, but they had no intention of coming over to help. It was as though they were watching a show.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but curse inwardly. I raised you all this while for nothing. To think you are there watching this with relish. Don’t you know that people will die? It’s fine if others die, but I’m here. Wouldn’t I end up dying with them later?

That’s not right. They cultivate in Confucian Essence Energy Arts, but I’m different. I can switch to the Dao Sutra and be sent out by the power of Teacher Square. With a thought, Zhou Wen didn’t hesitate to switch to Dao Sutra.

Zhou Wen originally wanted to think of a way to save them after he left, but he realized that Sister Gui and company were too close to the blood-eyed black macaque. It would probably be too late by the time he returned.

Forget it. I was planning on trying to see if the jade infant can be reconstituted after collapsing anyway. I’ll give it a try now. At the instant Zhou Wen switched to the Dao Body, he unleashed the power of the jade infant.

Boom!

The terrifying power on Teacher Square struck Zhou Wen like divine lightning from the nine heavens. The jade infant suffered an extremely terrifying taboo attack.

Zhou Wen sat motionless on the ground as he forcefully endured the terrifying taboo force. Taking advantage of the instant his body could move, he drew his saber and slashed at the blood-eyed black macaque.

Everyone was already in despair. The people who were going to bear the brunt of the attack in the first wave had already closed their eyes in resignation.

However, a blood-colored saber beam suddenly flashed. The blood-eyed black macaque’s body was split into two as both pieces fell to the sides.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 722 - Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder

Chapter 722: Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder

As they watched the blood-eyed black macaque die, everyone felt as though they had escaped death. They were still in disbelief.

Even Xu Tong wasn’t a match for the blood-eyed black macaque. Who had halved it?

Their heads couldn’t move, but their eyeballs could. Everyone looked in the direction of the saber beam and saw Zhou Wen sitting on the ground with a saber in hand. The blade had already returned to its scabbard.

It’s him? The girl sitting beside Sister Gui was taken aback. She couldn’t believe that Zhou Wen was the one who had killed the blood-eyed black macaque.

Zhou Wen had returned the saber to its scabbard, but he sat there motionless with his eyes closed. He wasn’t sent flying by the power of Teacher Square, nor did he continue reciting.

As Zhou Wen forcefully resisted the rules of Teacher Square, the jade infant suffered the brunt of the terrifying taboo power. It didn’t last long before shattering.

With the jade infant shattered, Zhou Wen originally imagined that he would be severely injured. At best, he would vomit blood, but the worst situation would be having his Dao Sutra crippled.

However, that wasn’t the case. After the jade infant shattered, the power that formed the Life Soul didn’t dissipate. Instead, it reformed again and completed the restructuring in an instant.

The reassembled Life Soul looked extremely strange. Its appearance was completely different from the jade infant’s. It had turned into something extremely strange.

Now, his Life Soul looked like a book, but he couldn’t open it. There were no words on the cover.

Zhou Wen couldn’t sense any powerful force from the ancient book-like Life Soul, but he knew that the Dao Sutra Life Soul had successfully advanced.

This was because he was currently in Teacher Square. The Dao Sutra in his body was still circulating, but the taboo power in Teacher Sutra seemed to have vanished. It was completely useless against him.

When he opened his eyes and looked around, he saw that Sister Gui and company were still reciting under the power of Teacher Square. Zhou Wen knew that he had really succeeded.

With his Life Soul complete, Zhou Wen wasn’t in the mood to continue listening to their recital. He got up and said to Sister Gui, “Sister Gui, thank you for taking care of me these past few days. I’m leaving.”

Zhou Wen didn’t really like farewells. Coincidentally, Sister Gui was still reciting, so she couldn’t speak to him. Zhou Wen waved at her before turning around and walking out of Teacher Square. He quickly left Mount Confucius with the antelope and chick.

When everyone saw that Zhou Wen could move freely on Teacher Square without being affected by its power, they were convinced that he was the person who had killed the blood-eyed black macaque.

When the recital ended, everyone regained their freedom.

“I could tell long ago that Little Zhou is extraordinary. I was right.”

“Bullsh*t. You always liked to call him silly.”

“What do you know? I was just joking with him. How can an ordinary person have such great perseverance? He’s clearly not an ordinary person. I’ve long seen how different he is.”

“I don’t think he’s even twenty years old. To have such a cultivation level, he probably comes from the families of the six heroes, right?”

“I think it’s very likely. Apart from the families of the six heroes, which family can nurture such a young talent?”

Sister Gui couldn’t take it anymore. She rolled her eyes at them and said, “Which of the six hero families have the surname Zhou?”

“Apparently none!” Everyone looked at each other, momentarily unable to guess Zhou Wen’s origins.

The girl looked in the direction Zhou Wen had left with mixed feelings.

Zhou Wen left Five Dragons Mouth. His identity had definitely been exposed this time, so he didn’t head to the other dimensional zones.

The main reason was that he hadn’t found the tiny palm symbol at Five Dragons Mouth. If he were to stay here to study it, it would probably take him more than a year to figure out the entire Five Dragons Mouth dimensional zone.

When he arrived at an uninhabited spot, he summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull. As Zhou Wen rode the bull, he checked the game’s information.

The Dao Body’s Life Soul was no longer Gods Retreat. It had changed again.

Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder (Perfect Body): Before the chaos was separated, there was no heaven or earth, no Yin or Yang, no sun or moon, no crystal or light, no east or west, no south or north, no front or back, no source or sink. Infinite changes, grand and majestic, formless and intangible, natural and mysterious. Destitution to the limits, boundless and immeasurable, only the Highest Elder…

Zhou Wen didn’t understand what the introduction meant, but it sounded very impressive even though he didn’t know what it was for.

In the past, Zero Taboo and Gods Retreat could only exist in his consciousness and not be summoned.

Now that it had transformed into the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder, Zhou Wen’s mind stirred. The Life Soul that resembled an ancient jade scripture appeared in front of him. Despite it clearly being named Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder, there wasn’t a single word on it. Zhou Wen couldn’t open it either. After studying it for a while, he realized that its use was only to resist taboo powers. He didn’t discover any other effects.

Zhou Wen tried in Netherworld City again and realized that the taboo power in Netherworld City was useless against the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder. Only now could Zhou Wen be said to be truly a person of zero taboos.

The jade infant from Gods Retreat couldn’t last long in Netherworld City. Zhou Wen wasn’t willing to be tortured, so he hadn’t been able to reach the Netherworld Divine Throne in-game.

Now that he had the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder, none of the taboos were effective against Zhou Wen and the blood-colored avatar. Zhou Wen controlled the blood-colored avatar to walk along the stone path that didn’t even reveal the numbers.

However, when he stepped onto the stone slab, punishment ghosts would still appear. Zhou Wen casually killed them and quickly reached the Netherworld Divine Throne.

Yet, he didn’t see City Lord Netherworld in-game. After Zhou Wen sounded the Golden Bell, the Golden Divine Throne automatically separated, revealing the door to leave.

After leaving the door, the blood-colored avatar came out of the Netherworld City dungeon.

Is this all there is to the Netherworld City dungeon? There isn’t even a Mythical boss? Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss.

Thinking back to what City Lord Netherworld had said to him, Zhou Wen’s heart stirred. Could it be that I really have to pay a visit to all the torture chambers as City Lord Netherworld said and endure all the punishments before I can see the real Netherworld City? What is the real Netherworld City?

Zhou Wen was very interested in the secrets of Netherworld City, but he gave up when he thought of the punishments.

When I have the chance in the future, I'll take Li Xuan to Netherworld City in real life and let him suffer the punishments. Then, I'll know what the real Netherworld City is like. Zhou Wen placed his sights on Li Xuan.

After Zhou Wen left Five Dragons Mouth, his deeds spread around the area. Everyone nearby knew of this young man, but they didn't know his name. All they knew was that his surname was Zhou.

Even so, this matter was still detected by the bureau.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 723 - The Antelope Leads the Way

Chapter 723: The Antelope Leads the Way

“Minister Qiao, are you sure the person who appeared at Five Dragons Mouth is Zhou Wen?” Shen Yuchi asked with a frown as he looked at the report delivered by Qiao Siyuan.

“I’ve confirmed his age and appearance. It matches Zhou Wen in many areas,” Qiao Siyuan answered respectfully.

“It’s normal for young people at this age to have similar looks,” Shen Yuchi said.

“Director-General, you’re right. However, I still think that the young man who appeared at Five Dragons Mouth is Zhou Wen,” Qiao Siyuan said.

“What evidence do you have?” Shen Yuchi asked.

“We’re still investigating, but there’s nothing new for the time being. However, my intuition tells me that it’s Zhou Wen,” Qiao Siyuan said with certainty.

Shen Yuchi wasn’t angered by Qiao Siyuan’s seemingly irresponsible words. In fact, in their line of work, their intuition was sometimes very accurate.

Intuition wasn’t just a blind guess. It was a sharp sense of an event’s systematic development that they had honed after experiencing countless incidents.

“If that young man is Zhou Wen, why do you think he went to Five Dragons Mouth? What’s his next destination?” Shen Yuchi said after some thought.

“According to intelligence, someone has been seeing Zhou Wen in the vicinity of Luoyang recently. However, I feel that this may be a ruse from the An family. Their goal is to cover Zhou Wen. According to this inference, Zhou Wen’s goal isn’t as simple as staying at Five Dragons Mouth for a period of time.”

Qiao Siyuan paused before continuing, “I’m guessing that Zhou Wen won’t be returning to Luoyang next. According to his current trajectory, he should be heading north. I think he might come to the Imperial Capital.”

“There are so many cities in the north. Why do you think that he will definitely come to the Imperial Capital?” Shen Yuchi frowned.

“I don’t have any evidence yet, but it’s best to make some preparations,” Qiao Siyuan said.

“That’s right. However, Zhou Wen has already reached a certain level of attainment. Even without the An family’s protection, it won’t be easy to touch him,” Shen Yuchi said after some thought.

“Director-General, why don’t you discuss it with the Xia family? Perhaps they are also interested in Zhou Wen,” Qiao Siyuan said.

Shen Yuchi naturally understood what Qiao Siyuan was referring to. He glanced at Qiao Siyuan and said meaningfully, “Then help me make a trip to the Xia family and inform them of this matter.”

“Yes, sir.” Qiao Siyuan received the order.

After Qiao Siyuan left, the woman Shen Yuchi called “Button” walked out. Shen Yuchi looked at the documents and said, “What’s your take?”

“Qiao Siyuan’s attention on Zhou Wen seems to have exceeded the attention he places on Wang Mingyuan’s other disciples,” said Button.

“Are you saying that he has ulterior motives for Zhou Wen?” Shen Yuchi looked up at Button.

“I don’t know. I’ve investigated him. Just as you said, Director-General, this person is too simple. His life seems to revolve around nothing but work. He doesn’t have any obvious personal hobbies, no wife, children, family, or friends. He doesn’t even have a lover. He doesn’t eat, drink, prostitute, or gamble. It’s hard to imagine how he does it given his age and status,” said Button.

“Perhaps he’s a workaholic,” Shen Yuchi said.

Button’s red lips curled up slightly as she continued, “You can say that, but as a workaholic, he doesn’t seem to be so focused on other parts of his work.”

“Then why do you think Qiao Siyuan mentioned the Xia family?” Shen Yuchi continued.

“There’s no way to deduce it for the time being. However, from what I know, in the past few decades, there have been many young geniuses who died young, and all of them have something to do with the Xia family. If the Xia family learns of Zhou Wen’s arrival in the Imperial Capital, perhaps there’s really no need for you to think about it, Director-General.”

“Then let’s take a wait and see approach for now.” Shen Yuchi lowered his head and continued working.

…

Zhou Wen traversed mountains and forests. Although the dimensional storms had brought a huge calamity to humanity, Earth was brimming with vitality. It was unlike the past where everywhere was filled with buildings made of concrete and steel.

“What are you doing? It’s not over there. We’re going this way.” When they reached a fork in the road, Zhou Wen was supposed to take the left fork, but the antelope actually walked to the right.

The antelope ignored him and bit Zhou Wen’s sleeve as it walked to the right, forcing him to follow.

“What’s here? Why do you have to walk this way?” Zhou Wen found it odd. Although the antelope had been very willful and aloof in the past, it had never interfered with Zhou Wen’s actions.

This time, the antelope had taken the initiative to alter his path. This left Zhou Wen somewhat puzzled.

The antelope didn’t answer as it walked ahead as though it hadn’t heard Zhou Wen.

If Zhou Wen stopped and didn’t leave, it would come over to pull him back.

Zhou Wen studied the map. The right fork was originally a road, but because there were too many dimensional zones there, as well as the appearance of many break-out creatures, it was abandoned due to the danger.

Zhou Wen felt that there was definitely something going on and he was somewhat intrigued. He wanted to know what the antelope was up to, so he followed it.

However, Zhou Wen summoned Six-Winged to prevent any accidents.

He hadn’t managed to successfully create a Substitute Talisman yet. He had drawn quite a number of them whenever he was free, but unfortunately, he hadn’t succeeded. The success rate of producing a Substitute Talisman was just too low.

Due to the encroachment of the plants on both sides of the originally spacious road, many branches and roots were strewn across the road. Green vines crawled everywhere.

The trees on both sides of the road were extremely tall. The tree crowns were squeezed together, blocking out the sunlight. Zhou Wen felt that walking on the road was no different from walking in a forest.

As he walked, Zhou Wen suddenly felt that something was amiss. There were trees everywhere, but there wasn’t a single bird or insect in the huge forest. The entire forest was terrifyingly quiet.

Zhou Wen had already expanded Truth Listener’s range to its limits, but he still didn’t discover any animals. There wasn’t even an ant.

How can this be? Zhou Wen couldn’t help but frown as he secretly became wary.

The antelope remained oblivious as it continued walking ahead. The chick stood on Zhou Wen’s shoulder and looked around curiously.

“Where are you going?” Zhou Wen asked the antelope in front of him.

The antelope didn’t know how to speak at all. Even if it could speak, it had no intention of answering Zhou Wen. Just as Zhou Wen was hesitating about following it down, it suddenly left the road and burrowed into the grass beside it.

It was a dense grass patch and many vines coiled together. After the antelope entered, it immediately vanished. Thankfully, Zhou Wen had Truth Listener and could see the situation in the grass.

After the antelope burrowed into the grass, it continued walking in. Soon, it arrived at an empty spot.

The empty spot was rather strange. There were dense plants all around, but there was not a single blade of grass growing in that small area. It was as if a strong weed killer had been used.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 724 - 100% Head Turner

Chapter 724: 100% Head Turner

Translator: CKtalon

The antelope walked to the clearing and began digging with its hooves.

Could there be some treasure buried there? Zhou Wen was curious as he burrowed into the grass and quickly arrived beside the clearing.

The antelope dug very quickly. By the time Zhou Wen arrived, it had already dug more than a meter deep. The soil dug out was piled up beside it.

When Zhou Wen saw the soil, he immediately knew why there weren't any plants growing here. The antelope wasn't digging out soil, but grayish-black ash. It looked like it was mixed with some form of metallic powder.

He looked into the pit and saw that there was indeed metallic powder underneath.

"Ol' Ante, what are you digging?" Zhou Wen asked curiously.

The antelope ignored him and continued digging.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, This antelope usually acts like a big shot. It sees everything beneath it and is the laziest. It's like a lord that enjoys life and doesn't do anything. Now that it's digging a hole by itself, there must be something good down there.

With this in mind, Zhou Wen said with a smile, "Ol' Ante, it's not convenient for you to dig with your hooves. Why don't I help you dig? If there’s anything good down there, why don’t you share half with me?”

The antelope glanced at him and after some thought, it raised its front hooves and gestured at Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen was puzzled as he thought to himself, You only have a hoof. There aren’t any fingers. What does your gesturing mean?

Seeing that he didn’t understand, the antelope wrote “20%” on the ground.

Only then did Zhou Wen understand what the antelope meant by its hoof gesture. There was a groove in front of its hooves, making it look like a V. It could also represent two.

“Twenty percent is too little. How about forty-sixty?” The antelope ignored him and continued digging.

“So be it. 20%. I’ll help you dig.” Zhou Wen felt that he had nothing better to do. He could help dig and save time. Furthermore, he could split the benefits. Why not?

The antelope jumped out of the hole and pointed down, indicating for him to dig.

Why would Zhou Wen dig it himself? He summoned Tyrant Behemoth. The two horns on Tyrant Behemoth’s head were like spinning electric drills as it dug at a fast speed.

What surprised Zhou Wen was that the metallic powder below was indeed extraordinary. Despite Tyrant Behemoth’s immense strength, it failed to easily penetrate the metallic powder.

After drilling for a while, it had dug a hole more than ten meters deep. The metallic powder it dug out turned darker and darker like coal.

Furthermore, the metallic powder had a smell. It wasn’t pungent, but it resembled the smell of ink on a newspaper.

“Ol’ Ante, what’s down there? How deep do we have to dig?” Zhou Wen knew that the antelope was very intelligent and could definitely answer him. It depended on its willingness to speak.

The antelope extended its hoof and drew two words on the ground: “Eight meters.”

“There are still eight meters to go? It looks like this digging will go on for a little while longer.” Zhou Wen did some calculations. The metallic powder was getting harder to dig the deeper it went. He estimated that it would have to dig for another forty to fifty minutes.

After some thought, he decided to take out his phone to grind dungeons for a while. He would wait until Tyrant Behemoth dug out the item.

After grinding dungeons for a while, he didn’t get anything good.

The antelope suddenly nudged him with its hooves. Zhou Wen knew that something had been dug out. He walked to the side of the deep pit and looked down. He saw that Tyrant Behemoth had dug a twenty to thirty-meter deep pit.

However, Tyrant Behemoth’s body was too huge. It nearly blocked the entire mouth of the pit. Zhou Wen had no choice but to let it out before looking down.

This time, he saw something in the deep pit. It looked like a wooden stake with a diameter of about fifty to sixty centimeters. It was completely black, but there were tree lines on the surface. It was probably wood.

The antelope pointed at the log and nudged Zhou Wen. Clearly, it wanted Zhou Wen to bring the log up.

Although the log looked huge, Zhou Wen had plenty of strength too. Even if it weighed several tons, it wouldn’t be a problem for him.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t wish to take the risk. He got Tyrant Behemoth to go down and pull out the wooden stake.

Tyrant Behemoth hugged the wooden stake with its claws and pulled with all its might. The wooden stake wasn’t pulled straight out. It only moved a little and rose by ten to twenty centimeters.

Tyrant Behemoth pulled it out bit by bit, revealing more and more of the wooden stake. When the wooden stake was completely out, it was about three meters long.

Tyrant Behemoth placed the wooden stake on the ground. Zhou Wen carefully sized it up and realized that it was indeed a log. It was likely a segment of a certain tree, and the bark was rather pristine.

Zhou Wen didn’t know what kind of log it was. The bark and tree core were black, about the blackness of charcoal, but it wasn’t dirty at all when touched. It was a little cold.

“Ol’ Ante, is this the treasure?” Zhou Wen asked the antelope.

The antelope nodded and circled the log a few times as though it was examining something.

What's the use of this log? Zhou Wen didn't discover anything special about it. Apart from being a little black and heavy, it didn't seem to be anything special.

The antelope pointed at the log and then at Zhou Wen's shoulder, indicating for him to carry it.

"If you don't have a place to put it, I'll help you store it. Ask me when you need it," Zhou Wen hurriedly said.

The antelope glanced at Zhou Wen, making him feel a little uncertain. However, he never expected the antelope to nod in agreement.

Zhou Wen was overjoyed as he reached out to lift the log. He realized that it wasn't as heavy as he imagined. He could still lift it.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that he wouldn't be able to lift it since Tyrant Behemoth had exerted so much strength to pull it out.

After opening the chaos space, Zhou Wen placed the large log piece inside.

"Ol' Ante, what's the use of that log? Tell me." Zhou Wen wanted to obtain some information from the antelope. Otherwise, it would be useless even if the entire log was his.

The antelope ignored him and crawled out of the grass before returning along the path. Clearly, it was here to dig up the log and didn't plan on disturbing Zhou Wen's advance.

After returning to the fork, Zhou Wen took the correct path and continued heading for Imperial Capital.

After walking for a while, Zhou Wen suddenly felt something amiss. He felt uncomfortable, but he couldn’t tell what was wrong.

Am I reading too much into it? Zhou Wen carefully checked his surroundings with Truth Listener, but he didn’t discover any problems.

After a long journey, he entered a city. That’s when Zhou Wen realized that something was amiss. This was because the people walking towards him, be they men or women, were looking at him with strange eyes. Some women were even giggling at his face.

What’s going on? Zhou Wen was puzzled. Although he felt that he was good looking, his handsomeness wasn’t to the point of being loved by everyone. To be such a head-turner with a 100% rate creeped him out a little.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 725 - Riding A Bull and Carrying Wood

Chapter 725: Riding A Bull and Carrying Wood

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen hurriedly found an empty spot and took out a mirror from his chaos space to take a look at his face.

Zhou Wen was immediately stunned.

There was a pitch-black word, “slave,” on his originally smooth forehead. It looked as if it had been written in ink, and was written beautifully.

“Ol’ Ante, what’s going on? Are you up to no good?” Zhou Wen hurriedly rubbed it with his hand, but no matter how he rubbed it, the word “slave” seemed to be embedded into his flesh. Despite abrading his skin, the word “slave” was still clearly visible.

The antelope wore an innocent expression like a human. Then, it wrote a line on the ground with its hooves. “I told you to carry it, but you didn’t. You can’t blame me.”

“You mean that piece of wood?” Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback.

The antelope nodded with a faint smile as it looked at the word “slave” on Zhou Wen’s head with an admiring gaze.

Zhou Wen hurriedly took out the wooden log from the chaos space and placed it on the ground. He asked the antelope in an extremely distrustful tone, “Tell me honestly, what is this?”

The antelope looked at Zhou Wen with an innocent look as though it was saying: “I’m just an antelope. I can’t speak.”

Zhou Wen had no choice but to grit his teeth and ask, “Will the word on my forehead disappear if I carry it?”

The antelope quickly nodded as though it was waiting for Zhou Wen to say that.

Zhou Wen had tried all sorts of methods to remove the mark on his forehead to no avail. All he could do was give it a try. He raised one end of the log with both hands and lifted it with his shoulder.

The log was really heavy. Even with Zhou Wen’s strength, he found it difficult to lift it up.

However, when Zhou Wen looked into the mirror, he realized that the slave word on his forehead had really vanished.

Zhou Wen placed the log on the ground and the word “slave” appeared again. When he lifted it up, it vanished.

“Ol’ Ante, what the hell is this? Are you expecting me to carry it all the time?” Zhou Wen felt like killing the antelope, but he was no match against it.

Antelope didn’t give excuses. It drew another line of words on the ground with its hooves. “Go to the Imperial Capital and terminate the contract.”

“You mean that as long as we get it to the Imperial Capital, we can terminate this contract?” Zhou Wen asked.

Seeing the antelope nod, Zhou Wen asked, “Then can I put it away and take it to the Imperial Capital?”

Zhou Wen planned on wearing a hat to cover the word “slave” on his forehead. The log was just too heavy. He could forget about doing anything while carrying it.

“If you aren’t afraid of death, sure.” The antelope wrote a few succinct words.

Zhou Wen immediately felt his balls ache as he thought to himself, If I had known this would happen, I wouldn’t have shot my mouth and tried to share the benefits with the antelope.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen realized that something was amiss.

With the antelope’s usual lazy personality, it wouldn’t have dug itself. It would definitely have gotten Zhou Wen to help it.

However, it had started the digging itself and at an extremely slow pace. Zhou Wen realized from recalling the sequence of events that the antelope was clearly trying to entice him into offering his help.

What kind of society is this? Even an antelope will lie? Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed. It was too late to say anything now. If he were to question the antelope now, not only would it not help matters, but he would also be making a fool of himself.

“Isn’t it just carrying a log to the Imperial Capital? What’s the big deal? I, Zhou Wen, have nothing else but strength,” Zhou Wen said as he lifted the piece of wood.

How freaking heavy! Zhou Wen took a few steps and felt his body break out in sweat.

The log was about three meters long and was about fifty to sixty centimeters in diameter. Its density and weight were about the same as steel. Zhou Wen found it taxing.

After walking half a street, Zhou Wen felt that he couldn’t let things continue. He would probably die of exhaustion on the way before he reached the Imperial Capital.

After some thought, Zhou Wen summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull. He carried the wooden log and got the bull to carry him. This way, he could save some strength.

“This isn’t against the rules, right?” Zhou Wen looked at the antelope.

The antelope nodded and didn’t object.

Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief and ordered the Great Might Vajra Bull to continue traveling. He was in no mood to carry such a piece of wood. All he wanted to do now was rush to the Imperial Capital and get rid of the slave word on his forehead.

“Is that person a fool? He’s riding a bull and carrying a piece of wood? Doesn’t he know that he can place the piece of wood on the bull’s back?”

“You don’t understand. He’s just showing off.”

“In what sense?”

“He’s showing off his great strength that he’s able to carry such a huge log. He’s showing off his ferocious mount that’s capable of lifting him and the log together.”

“Haha, that makes sense, but no matter how I look at it, I find him a little foolish!”

Wherever Zhou Wen passed, people wagged their tongues at him as though they were looking at a fool. The number of heads turning became even higher than before.

Zhou Wen ignored them and urged the Great Might Vajra Bull to speed up. He hoped to leave the city as soon as possible. Once he entered the wilderness, there wouldn’t be so many people gawking at him.

“Interesting!” On the second floor of a cafe, three men were sitting by the window and drinking coffee. One of the men saw Zhou Wen riding the Great Might Vajra Bull.

The other two men looked towards the street and immediately discovered Zhou Wen.

One of the men’s eyes suddenly lit up as he said to the other two men, “Dugu Ge, Zhang Chunqiu, why don’t we use that person as a bet and decide the ownership of that thing?”

“Tell me about it,” Dugu Ge said expressionlessly.

Zhang Chunqiu also smiled and nodded. “As long as it’s fair, I have no objections.”

“It’s definitely fair. Let’s guess when that person will put down the log on his shoulder. Whoever guesses the closest time will get the thing. What do you think?” Xia Liuchuan said.

“Sure,” Dugu Ge said directly.

“I have no objections,” said Zhang Chunqiu.

“Eh, you guys actually didn’t suspect that I arranged this person? Could it be that you guys know him?” Xia Liuchuan asked, a little surprised.

“Wang Mingyuan’s disciple, adopted son of Madam Lan of the An family. It’s quite difficult to not know him these days,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“So he’s Zhou Wen.” Xia Liuchuan thought for a moment before smiling again. “That’s good. None of us will be at a disadvantage by using a third party as a bet. It’ll be fair and square. No one will complain even if they lose.”

After a pause, Xia Liuchuan continued, “If it were an ordinary person, after hearing so much from wagging tongues, he would probably put down the log very quickly. Since he’s not an ordinary person, it depends on when he plans to put down the log to rest. I guess it won’t take long. It should be around seven in the evening. What do you think?”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 726 - Sister Return Lightning Pool

Chapter 726: Sister Return Lightning Pool

“With the bull’s gait, it should arrive at the nearest city around seven or eight in the evening. If Zhou Wen doesn’t wish to sleep in the wilderness, the chances of him spending the night there is very high. It makes sense to guess seven,” Zhang Chunqiu said with a smile.

“I can’t compare to Brother Zhang’s clairvoyance. It’s just a random guess,” Xia Liuchuan said with a smile.

“Then I’ll make a random guess too. 7:01,” Zhang Chunqiu said in all seriousness.

“Since you are guessing 7:01. Then I’ll guess 6:59,” Dugu Ge added.

“Hey hey, aren’t you guys going overboard?” Xia Liuchuan said unhappily.

Zhang Chunqiu replied with a smile, “Actually, it’s too easy to guess the time. Why don’t we change what we are betting on?”

“What else can we guess other than time?” Xia Liuchuan couldn’t think of anything else.

“Let’s guess which city he’s taking that piece of wood to. What do you think?” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Alright, let’s bet on that. I’ll let you guys guess first this time,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“There’s no need. Let’s write it on paper and open them together.” Zhang Chunqiu handed paper and pen to Xia Liuchuan and Dugu Ge.

The three of them gave their answers and opened them together.

After looking at each other’s answers, the three of them looked at each other in dismay. Among the three of them, two of them wrote the Imperial Capital, while Xia Liuchuan wrote the Capital.

However, the Imperial Capital and the Capital were basically the same. It was just that the locals of the Imperial Capital were more used to calling it the Capital.

“It looks like we can’t bet on this either.” Xia Liuchuan smiled.

“Why don’t we make it simpler? We’ll bet on whether he can reach the Imperial Capital alive,” Dugu Ge said.

“There are only two answers—yes or no. How are the three of us going to bet?” Xia Liuchuan said.

“That’s simple. Reaching the Imperial Capital alive, reaching the Imperial Capital after he’s dead, and not being able to reach the Imperial Capital. Isn’t that three options? The time limit is a month. What do you think?” Dugu Ge said.

“That makes sense. Who will choose first?” Xia Liuchuan looked at Dugu Ge.

“Since I was the one who suggested the rules, I’ll make the final choice,” Dugu Ge said.

Zhang Chunqiu wore a heavy expression as he did some calculations. After a while, he said, “If no one wants to snatch the option from me, I’ll choose the option that he reaches the Imperial Capital after he’s dead.”

“I won’t vie with you for that choice. I’ll choose the option that he reaches the Capital alive,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“Then the remaining choice is mine. I guess he won’t be able to reach the Imperial Capital,” Dugu Ge said.

“In that case, let’s travel together and follow him. Let’s see the outcome,” Zhang Chunqiu suggested.

“Fine with me.” Dugu Ge stood up.

The three of them left the cafe and chased after Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen carried the wooden log and left the city. Although he was riding the Great Might Vajra Bull, he still needed to expend a lot of stamina to carry the wooden log. When he left the city, Zhou Wen’s forehead was already beading with sweat, and his clothes were drenched.

Helpless, Zhou Wen could only switch to the Ancient Sovereign Sutra and fuse with the Defy Ancient Sovereign Life Soul. With the augmentation of the powerful lifeforce, he could continue while carrying the log.

The Great Might Vajra Bull wasn’t having an easy time either. It slowed down significantly and its speed was nothing like usual. It ran like an old bull dragging a cart.

Not long after leaving the city and entering the mountains, the sky suddenly darkened. Dark clouds covered the sky as lightning bolts flashed like divine dragons. Occasionally, ferocious shadows would appear in the dark clouds.

Is it going to rain? Zhou Wen couldn't help but frown when he heard the thunder. He stared at the thick, dark clouds.

Dugu Ge, Zhang Chunqiu, and Xia Liuchuan followed behind Zhou Wen from afar. They didn't chase too closely. With Zhang Chunqiu, who was clairvoyant, there was no need to be afraid of losing him, nor did they need to get too close.

At that moment, they also saw the dark clouds and lightning that filled the sky. However, they weren't as optimistic as Zhou Wen.

"Chunqiu, what do you think?" Xia Liuchuan stared at the dark clouds in the sky with a serious expression.

Zhang Chunqiu did a simple divination and said, "An ominous omen…"

"Don't try to fool me with those charlatan methods. I want to hear the truth." Xia Liuchuan interrupted Zhang Chunqiu.

"To be honest, a break-out creature is about to appear. Furthermore, it doesn't look too weak. From the looks of it, you will be busy," Zhang Chunqiu said with a smile.

Among the three of them, only Xia Liuchuan needed Zhou Wen to reach the capital alive to win the bet. He naturally wouldn't let Zhou Wen die here. As long as he could win, Xia Liuchuan didn't mind helping Zhou Wen.

As they spoke, Zhou Wen sped up, hoping to reach the city earlier.

Unfortunately, the log was too heavy. Even if the Great Might Vajra Bull ran with all its might, it couldn’t run fast.

Zhang Chunqiu pinched his fingers, divining as he walked. He looked around and suddenly, his expression changed as he shouted, “That’s not right!”

“What’s wrong?” Xia Liuchuan asked curiously.

Before Zhang Chunqiu could answer, he heard an explosion in the sky. A bolt of lightning descended from the sky and struck a nearby forest.

Strangely, when the lightning struck the forest, there were visible electric arcs. The forest that was enveloped by the lightning only flashed with lightning, but there was no fire.

And this was only the beginning. Large swaths of lightning kept striking the forest, covering all the plants with a layer of lightning. However, the plants didn’t die. Instead, they became more spirited.

“Thunder-trigram above, lake-trigram below. It’s Sister Return Lightning Pool. It looks like things aren’t looking good,” Zhang Chunqiu said as he did the calculations.

After spending some time with Zhang Chunqiu, Xia Liuchuan had a basic understanding of divination. Upon hearing that, he said, “I don’t think it’s a dangerous divination, right? I remember hearing you say that Sister Return Lightning Pool means that in order to obtain greater benefits, one needs to pay a certain price in exchange. It’s just like marrying off one’s sister.”

“Although what you said isn’t entirely correct, it’s not too far off. However…” Before Zhang Chunqiu could finish his sentence, he suddenly saw the plants that were covered in lightning seem to come alive. Their leaves and branches trembled as they shot out bolts of lightning.

Instantly, the criss-crossing lightning enveloped Xia Liuchuan and company.

This level of lightning naturally didn’t affect them much. Xia Liuchuan shattered the lightning with a wave of his hand.

Thunder boomed in the sky again. This time, the thunder was especially loud, causing the entire mountain range to tremble. And in the dark clouds in the sky, a ball of green lightning fell like a meteor.

Boom!

A large area of the forest was destroyed as a figure emitting lightning appeared in the ruins.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 727 - Hotel

Chapter 727: Hotel

Translator: CKtalon

Xia Liuchuan looked over and saw that it was a tiger with wings on its back. Azure lightning danced on its body as though every cell was flashing with lightning.

The tiger immediately saw Xia Liuchuan and the other two. It flapped its wings and instantly transformed into lightning.

“Not good!” Xia Liuchuan’s expression changed as he summoned an ancient sword. The ancient sword split into two at every turn until there were eight. It transformed into a sword formation that resembled a metallic wall of copper and iron that defended Xia Liuchuan.

Dugu Ge rapidly retreated like a ghost. He was unbelievably fast. Zhou Wen’s all-out use of Transcendent Flying Immortal was not much better.

Zhang Chunqiu flicked his sleeve and talismans appeared in front of him, turning into a talisman formation that protected his body.

At that instant, an azure bolt of lightning tore through the sky and transformed into a lightning net. Instantly, it enveloped the sword formation and the talisman formation. No matter how fast Dugu Ge’s movement technique was, he wasn’t as fast as the lightning. He was also enveloped.

Rumble!

The sword formation shattered and the talismans were burned. The might of the lightning was like heavenly punishment that could destroy everything.

“Ah!” The three of them cried out tragically as their bodies convulsed from the lightning. Their hair was smoking.

Zhou Wen, who was riding with the wooden log on his shoulder, looked in the direction behind him in puzzlement. He saw lightning striking in the distant mountain, producing incessant rumbling sounds. He couldn’t help but mutter to himself, “Why is this lightning so terrifying? Could it be that the lightning and rain have mutated? From the looks of it, I should rush to the city ahead and find a place to stay.”

Zhou Wen urged the Great Might Vajra Bull, hoping that it could run faster.

However, the big guy was panting in exhaustion. It had no way of running any faster.

Zhou Wen was somewhat worried. The dimensionalization was still limited to Earth itself and didn’t involve the satellites outside. Therefore, the Federation could still guarantee basic communication with artificial satellites.

If the artificial satellites were affected in the future, the means of communication would be even weaker.

Thunder rumbled in the distance as bolts of lightning descended from the sky. The sound of thunder was terrifying.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen wasn’t struck by lightning. He rushed all the way and finally arrived at a nearby city at 6 p.m.

The lightning in the mountains rumbled, but it wasn’t that terrifying in the city. It was just a little cloudy. There was a drizzle that didn’t feel cold. It felt refreshing when the rain landed on his skin.

This city was relatively small. After the dimensional storms, it had suffered a serious loss of population. Now, very few shops opened on both sides of the streets. There were very few pedestrians. Most of them had probably moved to a large city.

This was a good thing for Zhou Wen. At the very least, there weren’t many onlookers wagging their tongues at him as he rode on a bull and carried a log. Occasionally, pedestrians would pass by and look at him in surprise.

Not long after Zhou Wen entered the city, he saw a small hotel. The door of the hotel was open, but there was no one inside. The tables and couches were in a mess and there was quite a bit of dust on them. From the looks of it, the owner had already left.

Zhou Wen went in and found a room. He realized that there was a bed with a blanket in there, so he chose to stay.

In any case, he only needed to rest for a while before continuing on his journey. He didn’t have too high a requirement for a place to stay. All he needed to do was shield himself from the elements.

Shortly after Zhou Wen entered the hotel, it began pouring heavily outside. The rain seemed to be water from an overturned basin. In just a short period of time, rainwater began to pool on the roads. The sewers were unable to keep up with the quantity of rainwater.

From the looks of it, I can only continue on my journey after the rain stops. Just as Zhou Wen was about to put down the log on his shoulder, the antelope suddenly tugged at him, indicating for him to look at the ground.

Zhou Wen looked down and saw a few words on the ground. It was obvious that the antelope had written them with its hooves.

“Body must remain inseparable from the log. Separation means certain death.”

“What do you want? This place is still far from the Imperial Capital. I can’t keep carrying it, right?” Zhou Wen said gloomily.

“Can’t you read? Do you not know what it means for your body to remain inseparable from the log” The antelope gave Zhou Wen a disdainful look before writing a line on the ground.

So that’s how it is. Is it fine as long as my body doesn’t leave the log? Zhou Wen placed the log on the ground and sat on it.

With his body greatly enervated, Zhou Wen could finally heave a sigh of relief.

This piece of wood was heavy. Even after using the power of the Defy Ancient Sovereign Life Soul, he still felt that his body couldn’t take it.

Since he couldn’t leave the log, he didn’t even need to sleep on the bed. Zhou Wen pulled a blanket over himself and slept on the log.

The antelope slept comfortably on the bed; so did the chick. It even covered itself with a blanket by pecking a rug over.

With the heavy rain outside, Zhou Wen didn’t dare rashly set off. He planned on leaving after the rain stopped.

“That’s not how you kick a ball…”

Zhou Wen was sleeping soundly when a voice suddenly sounded. It nearly made him jump up in fright.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen still remembered the words that the “body must remain inseparable from the log.” He forcefully stopped himself from leaping off the log.

When he opened his eyes and took a closer look, he realized that the television in the room had turned on and it was playing an old movie.

I was nearly scared to death. How did this crappy television switch on by itself? Zhou Wen turned his head and saw that the chick had woken up at some point in time. It was fiddling with a remote control with its claws.

“I’m sleeping. Stop fooling around.” Zhou Wen reached out and sucked the remote control over. Then, he used the remote control to turn off the television. Seeing that it was still early and that the rain was still pouring outside, Zhou Wen lay down and continued sleeping.

He had just fallen asleep when he was suddenly woken up by a sound.

“This move is clearly called An Old Man Pushing A Cart. Don’t write me off as ignorant…”

Zhou Wen was woken up again and saw the television turn on again. It was playing the old movie.

“Little Feifei, stop fooling around, alright? Let me rest for a while. I’m really tired.” Zhou Wen was just about to take the chick’s remote when he realized that the chick wasn’t holding the remote at all. The remote was still beside him. The chick crawled out of the blanket and looked at him blankly.

What’s going on? Did I touch the remote control myself? That’s not right… That’s not right… This hotel has been abandoned for some time. There’s no electricity. How can the television be switched on? Zhou Wen finally snapped out of his daze and sat up to carefully watch the television.

At this glance, Zhou Wen couldn’t help but change his expression. This was because the television’s power cable was hanging down. It wasn’t plugged in at all. Even if there was electricity in the hotel, it was impossible for the television to be switched on.

“Watch and see…” The old movie on the television was still playing. Zhou Wen frowned as he stared at the television and used Truth Listener to inspect it.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 728 - Concerned Person

Chapter 728: Concerned Person

Truth Listener's ability allowed Zhou Wen to hear the internal structure of the television.

However, Zhou Wen didn't know much about circuit boards, nor did he notice anything amiss. He didn't discover any Companion Beasts or dimensional creatures inside, but he realized that there was an electric current flowing inside.

It's impossible for there to be no problems. Zhou Wen checked several times, but he failed to find anything wrong.

He tried turning the television off with the remote control, and it was switched off again. It looked no different from a normal television.

What the hell? Could it be that the electric current produced by the thunderstorm has run into the television, giving it electricity? Zhou Wen studied it for a long time, but he still couldn't figure out why there was electricity in the television. However, even he couldn't come to terms with his guess.

I want to see what's messing around. Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to monitor the entire hotel and the nearby area. Nothing could escape his ears even in the heavy rain.

Zhou Wen sat on the log and stared at the television.

Boom!

After a while, thunder sounded in the sky again. It felt like the lightning was very close, as though it had exploded outside the building.

Suddenly, the television lit up and the movie started playing.

“Cut the crap. Take off… Ah, take off your clothes… Hey, what are you doing… Are you trying to kill me… You’re really amazing. I don’t even mind you beating me to death…”

Zhou Wen kept staring at the television, while Truth Listener kept monitoring all its components. However, for some reason, there was suddenly electricity in the television.

There were no suspicious signs inside or outside the inn. There was no one, nor were there any dimensional creatures.

Strange. Could it be that the lightning outside has entered the television? Zhou Wen felt that this matter was odd. Ignoring the fact that the lightning couldn’t be transmitted in, even if it could, it would only damage the components. It was impossible for the television to work normally.

This time, Zhou Wen didn’t switch off the television. He sat there watching. The television had plenty of power. It continued playing even after quite some time.

“Who can be more miserable than me!” A person on the television tragically cried out at the sky before collapsing to the ground.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but laugh when he saw this.

Although he found it odd, this old movie was still quite funny.

Even if there’s really someone causing trouble, I might only end up falling for someone’s scheme if I were to leave this place and enter the heavy rain. I’ll just take a wait and see approach for now. Zhou Wen decided to turn off the television and sleep on the log.

He kept Truth Listener’s ability active the entire time. Zhou Wen would immediately know of any movement. He also switched his Essence Energy Art to Dao Sutra. With the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder Life Soul, he could be somewhat safe.

The television kept playing old movies, one after another, but other than that, nothing else happened.

After sleeping deep into the night, Zhou Wen suddenly heard footsteps coming from the entrance of the hotel. He immediately woke up. With Truth Listener’s ability, he immediately saw a strange person run in.

The person’s clothes were tattered and his hair was charred black. He looked like he had just been struck by lightning.

He finally can’t hold back? Zhou Wen sat up and monitored the person’s every move.

After the person entered, he sniffed around before walking towards Zhou Wen’s room.

He’s indeed coming for me, Zhou Wen thought.

When the person arrived at the door, Zhou Wen was waiting for him. He wanted to see what tricks he had up his sleeve, but he never expected the person to knock on the door a few times.

“Who is it?” Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised as he asked after some thought.

The person outside said, “Zhou Wen, I’m here to snitch. You have to be careful along the way. Someone wants you dead, and it’s not just one.”

“Who wants me dead?” Zhou Wen asked.

“You should know the Dugu family and the Zhang family of the Federation’s six families, right? The Dugu family’s Dugu Ge and the Zhang family’s Zhang Chunqiu both want your life,” the person outside the door answered.

“I have no grudge with them. Why do they want me dead?” Zhou Wen asked again.

This time, the person outside didn’t answer. Instead, he asked, “You’re going to the Imperial Capital, right?”

“What has my whereabouts got to do with them wanting to kill me?” Zhou Wen didn’t quite believe the person in front of him. This person looked problematic.

“They don’t want you to enter the Imperial Capital alive,” the person outside said.

“Why?” Zhou Wen frowned.

“Don’t worry about the reason. Just be careful.” The person prepared to leave.

“Who are you? Why are you telling me this?” Zhou Wen hurriedly asked.

“Just call me Concerned Person,” the person said firmly and turned to go downstairs.

If it wasn’t for the fact that his clothes were tattered and his hair was charred black, he would have looked rather cool.

Zhou Wen found the name Concerned Person familiar. After being stunned for a while, he recalled that wasn’t the name used frequently in primary school composition?

Who is this person? Zhou Wen frowned.

He naturally wouldn’t completely believe this person’s words, but from the looks of it, he really didn’t have any ill intentions.

Is he behind the television? Zhou Wen was somewhat unsure.

The television was still playing, so Zhou Wen didn’t think too much about it. He decided to sleep first and wait for the rain to stop. After all, he was determined to make this trip to the Imperial Capital. He would deal with whatever came his way. There was no use worrying.

Not long after he fell asleep, Zhou Wen heard someone enter the hotel again.

Tap! Tap! Tap!

After the person entered the hotel, he didn’t even take a sniff before heading to the second floor and running towards Zhou Wen’s room.

His appearance was similar to the person from before. He was also wearing tattered clothes and his hair was charred black. However, it was obvious that he wasn’t the same person. This person was taller.

Could it be that the person in question is here? Just as Zhou Wen was thinking, the person had already arrived at the door. He had actually raised his hand to knock.

“Who is it?” Zhou Wen asked patiently.

“Are you Zhou Wen?” the person at the door asked.

“I’m Zhou Wen. Who are you?” Zhou Wen asked.

“I’m just a nobody. If you’re happy, call me Nameless. I’m here to tell you that someone wants to harm you on your way to the Imperial Capital. You have to be careful,” the person outside said.

Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss as he asked calmly, “Who wants to harm me?”

“It’s the Dugu family’s Dugu Ge and the Zhang family’s Zhang Chunqiu. You have to be careful of them.” The person outside said the exact same thing as the person who had just come.

“Who are you?” Zhou Wen asked.

“There’s no need for us to know each other. Let’s meet again if fate allows for it.” With that said, the person went downstairs.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 729 - Messy Information

Chapter 729: Messy Information

What the hell is up with these people? They were all struck by lightning, but they still came running to tell me to be careful of a sneak attack? In this day and age, has the human mind reached such a sublime level? Zhou Wen doubted such good things existed.

The two of them shouldn't be from the same faction. Otherwise, they would only need to come once. There's no need for the two of them to run over. However, from the lightning wounds on their bodies, they seem to have experienced similar injuries. What's going on? Zhou Wen thought about it and couldn't figure it out.

If it were anyone else, they definitely wouldn't be able to sleep after suffering such a disturbance.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen wasn't someone who was afraid of trouble. He lay down before falling asleep again.

After Concerned Person and Nameless came, the thunderstorm became much smaller and gradually dissipated.

When Zhou Wen woke up in the morning, the rain had already stopped. The television had also switched off by itself.

Could it be that it's really because of the thunderstorm that the television was running on its own? Although Zhou Wen didn't believe it, there was no better explanation.

The phone suddenly rang. Zhou Wen took out his phone and saw that it was An Sheng.

“Young Master Wen, are you in Weihui now?” An Sheng asked directly.

“Yes, how did you know?” Zhou Wen asked in puzzlement.

“The bureau has already found your whereabouts. It might not be the best choice to make this trip,” An Sheng said.

“I have to make a trip to the Imperial Capital. Don’t worry, I’ll be careful.” Zhou Wen had no choice. If it was any other time, he would definitely have turned around and returned to Luoyang. At most, he wouldn’t go to the Imperial Capital.

But now that he had the log on him, if he didn’t go to the Imperial Capital and couldn’t separate from the log at all, how was he going to pass his days?

What was worse was that being inseparable from the log was only when he was resting. If Zhou Wen wanted to move, he had to carry it. Who could stand that?

“Young Master Wen, if you insist on going, it’s best you change your route and progress speed. I’ve revised the routes for you.” An Sheng sent a document to Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen chatted with An Sheng for a while before opening the document An Sheng had sent him. He wanted to know what to do next, but when he opened the document, his eyes widened.

The content of the document wasn’t a map at all, but a dynamic emoji. It was a picture of two tall and muscular men wearing only briefs. One of them had his arms around the other’s neck while the other was hugging his waist as they danced together.

Zhou Wen was immediately dumbfounded as his expression turned odd. It should have been sent wrongly… However, why would An Sheng have such a picture… Could it be…

Zhou Wen shivered and hurriedly shook his head to deny his thoughts. He sent a message to An Sheng and asked, “Ah Sheng, did you send the wrong document?”

“Wasn’t it a map of the routes?” An Sheng quickly replied.

“No, it’s an animated picture.” Zhou Wen sent the picture along with the message.

After a while, An Sheng sent another message. “There’s something wrong with the message. I didn’t make a mistake, but the message you received isn’t right. The reason isn’t clear. It’s no longer safe to use my route. I’ll send you a few routes later. You shall choose the route yourself. Don’t tell anyone, including me.”

“Alright.” Zhou Wen nodded.

An Sheng sent a simple sketch over. It was obvious that it was hand drawn. It showed the routes from where he was to the Imperial Capital. He could choose one of them.

As the communication line could be compromised, An Sheng didn’t say much. He exhorted Zhou Wen to be careful before ending the call.

Zhou Wen studied the map before choosing a path to continue his journey.

In a cave on Chess Mountain, a seductive woman chained up was fiddling with some experimental equipment as though she was doing some research.

The phone beside her rang. The woman glanced at the phone screen and realized that the message was from Zhou Wen. With a thought, an invisible force immediately controlled the phone to tap open the message.

The phone automatically flew to the woman, allowing her to see the message.

The woman frowned.

“Baby, I want you to be my slave tonight…”

“Zhou Wen, you sure are gutsy! You want me to be your slave? I’ll satisfy you immediately.” The woman narrowed her eyes as a strange glint flashed in them.

With a thought, the woman automatically sent a message to Zhou Wen.

“I’ll fulfill your wish tonight.”

Zhou Wen was walking when he heard his phone ring. He took it out and saw that it was from The Thearch. He immediately clicked it open and was momentarily at a loss. He sent a message over.

“What do you mean? Did you send the wrong message?”

“Wrong message? Then who did you plan on sending your message to?” The Thearch quickly replied.

“How would I know who your message was meant for?” Zhou Wen felt even more puzzled.

The Thearch didn’t reply. Zhou Wen muttered to himself, “Crazy.”

After putting away his phone, he continued his journey. Zhou Wen changed his previous route and took another detour. He didn’t take the same old route.

Although taking the original path might have an unexpected effect, the probability of Zhou Wen changing his route and not changing his route was one in two. However, the chances of accurately determining which one of the new routes that Zhou Wen would take were much lower. Therefore, Zhou Wen decided to change his route.

An hour after Zhou Wen set off, Xia Liuchuan and company set off from another hotel in Weihui and continued following Zhou Wen.

They looked much better now. The day before, they had encountered the mysterious dimensional creature that nearly killed them. Although they had managed to escape in the end, they had suffered minor injuries.

With Zhang Chunqiu’s deduction, they slowly followed behind. They weren’t afraid of losing Zhou Wen.

“We were really unlucky yesterday to encounter such a terrifying dimensional creature. Thankfully, I’m smart enough and ran fast enough,” Xia Liuchuan said gloomily.

Zhang Chunqiu pondered and said, “I did some divinations when I came out today.”

“What do they say?” Xia Liuchuan asked.

“Today’s divination is still Sister Return Lightning Pool,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“No way! Something similar will happen today?” Xia Liuchuan frowned.

“I hope not. Logically speaking, this Sister Return Lightning Pool isn’t a bad divination, but this matter seems a little odd. It’s best to be careful,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

The trio left the city and followed Zhou Wen’s path for less than two hours before feeling that something was amiss. In the wilderness, there seemed to be pairs of eyes peeping at them, but upon careful inspection, they didn’t discover any dimensional creatures or humans.

“Don’t tell me something is up again!” Xia Liuchuan felt uneasy.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 730 - Loving You for Ten Thousand Years

Chapter 730: Loving You for Ten Thousand Years

“I’m afraid it’s already happened,” Zhang Chunqiu said as he sized up the dark forest.

Dugu Ge didn’t say a word, but many tiny worms flew into the forest.

Although the Gu worms weren’t at the Mythical stage, they had hidden techniques. Furthermore, they were small in size, making it difficult for ordinary creatures to discover them.

However, after the Gu worms entered the forest, they simultaneously lost contact with Dugu Ge. No matter how Dugu Ge summoned them, he couldn’t obtain their memories. This made Dugu Ge’s expression turn ugly.

“Quick, let’s go…” As Dugu Ge spoke, he spread open a pair of insect wings, wanting to retreat along his original path.

Xia Liuchuan also summoned his ancient sword to use Sword Kinesis Flight. His straight line speed wasn’t slower than Dugu Ge’s. Zhang Chunqiu wasn’t slow either. He took out a talisman and was about to escape underground.

However, just as the trio was halfway through their actions, they saw a pair of ghostly eyes open in the pitch-black forest. The eyes stared at them, and they felt their minds blur. They were so tired that they couldn’t even open their eyes.

Bam!

The three of them fell to the ground in a daze. No matter how they struggled, their eyelids slowly closed.

As Zhou Wen walked in front, all he felt was that the surrounding forest was especially quiet.

However, it was different from the path the antelope had taken him. Although this path was quiet, there were many animals. However, they seemed especially lazy and were still sleeping.

Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss. He walked carefully, but he didn’t encounter any problems along the way. By the time he arrived at the next city, the sky had already darkened.

After a day of carrying the log, Zhou Wen felt exhausted. He found a hotel in the small city and settled down.

This small city was similar to the previous city. Almost everyone had left. Zhou Wen randomly found an empty hotel, and no one asked him for money.

That night, Zhou Wen slept very soundly. When he woke up, he stretched his back and was filled with energy.

Nothing strange happened that night, unlike the hotel the night before. The television didn’t automatically switch on.

However, Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss. His chest seemed especially heavy. He looked down and immediately screamed.

For some reason, the clothes in front of his chest were lifted up as though there were two huge papayas stuffed inside.

Zhou Wen hurriedly pulled open his clothes and immediately discovered two things that shouldn’t have appeared on him.

“How did this happen?” Zhou Wen realized that his voice had become extremely feminine. He hurriedly took out a mirror and looked at himself. He immediately realized that he had become a woman.

Zhou Wen immediately thought of the message The Thearch had sent him. He hurriedly took out his phone and sent The Thearch a message. “The Thearch, did you turn me into a woman?”

“Yes.” The Thearch quickly replied and admitted it readily.

“Why? I haven’t offended you recently, right?” Zhou Wen held back his anger and asked.

“Don’t you know why?” The Thearch asked.

“I really don’t know. Tell me clearly, what’s the reason?” Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss. From The Thearch’s tone, it seemed like he had provoked her first, but he hadn’t contacted The Thearch recently. The Thearch hadn’t contacted him either.

“Have you forgotten the message you sent so quickly? Do you still need me to remind you?” The Thearch replied.

“I really don’t know what’s going on. I’m begging you, alright? Tell me. What message did I send you?” Zhou Wen increasingly felt that there was definitely something wrong.

When The Thearch heard Zhou Wen’s words, she seemed to realize that something was amiss. With Zhou Wen’s character being so afraid of death, how could he tempt fate by sending such a teasing message?

The Thearch thought for a moment before sending a screenshot of the message to Zhou Wen.

“Baby, I want you to be my slave tonight…” Zhou Wen’s head turned livid when he saw the screenshot.

He originally wanted to say that it wasn’t posted by himself, but looking at the chat history on the screenshot, it was indeed sent from his account.

It’s no wonder The Thearch is so angry. So that’s how it is. However, I’ve never sent such a message. If The Thearch wants to mess with me, there’s no need to go through so much trouble to send me a fake message. Could it be that my account has been hacked? Did someone send a message to The Thearch using my account? Zhou Wen was suspicious.

“The Thearch, I really didn’t send that message. How could I send you that message? Someone must have hacked my account and sent you that message.” Zhou Wen wanted to explain the matter clearly and get The Thearch to quickly transform his body back. He really had no way of going out to meet anyone.

“What do you mean it’s impossible for you to send me such a message?” The Thearch replied.

“You are a flower. How can I have any thoughts about a flower? The Thearch, just believe me. Even if I were to tease a sow, I wouldn’t dare tease you. Quickly change me back,” Zhou Wen explained.

It was fine if Zhou Wen didn’t give his explanations, but his explanations only served to make The Thearch even angrier. She replied coldly, “Just wait. You will recover on your own.”

Then, The Thearch didn’t reply to any more of Zhou Wen’s messages. Despite thinking hard, Zhou Wen couldn’t figure out what had gone wrong. She was fine just moments ago, so why was she suddenly unhappy?

Thankfully, recovery was still possible. It was probably similar to the last time he transformed into a cat. He would recover after some time.

Zhou Wen didn’t leave. He planned on staying in the hotel and waiting for his transformation to end.

During this period of time, Zhou Wen restored his phone to its factory settings. Then, he redownloaded the apps and changed the password. He used all the available methods to prevent his account from being hacked again.

…

Feng Qiuyan was practicing his saber techniques as usual.

Suddenly, his phone rang. Feng Qiuyan usually didn’t pick up his phone or read messages when he was practicing with his saber. However, when he heard that the message was a ringtone that he had specially set, he guessed that it was from Zhou Wen. Feng Qiuyan stopped practicing with his saber and picked up his phone to take a look.

Indeed, the message was from Zhou Wen. Feng Qiuyan opened the message and his expression immediately turned odd.

“There was once a sincere love that was placed in front of me, but I didn’t cherish it. I only regretted it when I lost it. This is the most painful thing in the world. If the heavens can give me another chance, I will say three words to you: I love you. If you must add a deadline to this love, I hope it will be… ten thousand years!”

Feng Qiuyan stared blankly at the message as he looked extremely confused.

How did this happen… Why would Coach treat me… How can I reject Coach without hurting his pride? Feng Qiuyan was conflicted.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 731

Chapter 731: Coach, You’re a Nice Guy

Beep… Zhou Wen was grinding while sitting on the log when he suddenly heard his phone ring. He picked it up and realized that it was from Feng Qiuyan.

“Coach, you’re a nice guy. I believe you’ll meet the best person in the future. I just want to focus on practicing my saber. I don’t plan on considering personal problems. It’s not you, it’s me…”

Zhou Wen was confused, unsure of what was going on.

Feng Qiuyan was usually cool. Apart from practicing his saber techniques, he seldom spoke to others. Why would he suddenly send such a strange message to him? It didn’t seem like his style at all.

Could it be that he was hacked like me? As Zhou Wen thought about it, he sent Feng Qiuyan a message: “Little Yanyan, have you been hacked?”

When Feng Qiuyan received Zhou Wen’s message and saw the way he addressed him as Little Yanyan, he suddenly shivered for some reason.

This nickname was given to him by Li Xuan. He was used to being called that, so he didn’t feel anything. He didn’t mind it either.

However, for some reason, when he saw this nickname today, he found it a little strange. It weirded him out in an indescribable manner.

“I wasn’t hacked. Coach, we are still students. We should prioritize our studies. Besides, the Federation is in a dire situation now. Everyone has a responsibility for the Federation’s rise and fall…” Feng Qiuyan thought about how to reason with Zhou Wen without making him lose his dignity and not be sad about being rejected. He also hoped that it could be an impetus for him to work even harder.

Zhou Wen felt that something was amiss as he suddenly realized something. He immediately sent a message to Feng Qiuyan. “Before this message, did I send you a message? If there’s one, send me a screenshot.”

Zhou Wen took a screenshot of the first message Feng Qiuyan had sent him and sent it over. He felt that something was amiss.

Indeed, it didn’t take long for Feng Qiuyan to send a screenshot over. He even added, “Coach, it’s really not that you aren’t good enough, but that I really just want to focus on practicing my saber.”

When Zhou Wen saw the screenshot, he wished he could immediately find a hole to burrow in.

Fk your sister. Who the hell is behind this? Zhou Wen felt like killing someone. If this continued, he would definitely go crazy.

Left with no choice, Zhou Wen sent a message to Feng Qiuyan to explain the theft of his account.

“Yes, yes. I understand, Coach. I won’t tell anyone about this,” Feng Qiuyan replied.

“Fk that, what are you thinking? My account has really been hacked.” Zhou Wen felt like crying, but Feng Qiuyan’s words reminded him of something.

Zhou Wen hurriedly sent a message to all his friends, telling them that his account had been hacked. If there were any abnormal messages from him, they mustn’t believe it.

Not long after, people replied to him with all sorts of messages. Some said that he had cheated them of their money and wanted them to return it. Others said that they had confessed to her and wanted him to take responsibility. However, they were all joking. Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief when he learned that the rest hadn’t received any special messages.

Zhou Wen switched off his phone before considering the matter. He felt that something was amiss, as though it wasn’t as simple as being hacked.

This seems to have happened after I entered the hotel which had the television automatically switched on. Could it be that something has happened to my phone? Zhou Wen felt that the two matters were related.

He checked his phone and didn’t find any problems. Everything inside was normal.

For this, Zhou Wen even especially found the internal structure of the phone and compared it to his own. However, there was nothing abnormal. No special components were installed inside.

After switching on the phone again, Zhou Wen wiped his phone again and restored its factory settings. He did it again, but he didn’t know if it was of any use.

That’s not right. Zhou Wen looked at the screen and suddenly discovered a problem.

The phone was normal, but the only abnormal thing was the battery.

In the past two days, Zhou Wen hadn’t charged his phone at all. Although he didn’t usually use the phone, it had been on standby for a few days. Furthermore, he had been using it for quite some time; yet, the battery was still at 100% charge. This was clearly abnormal.

Zhou Wen discovered this anomaly and immediately thought of the television that had automatically switched on in the hotel.

I don’t know why there was an electric current in the television previously that allowed it to automatically switch on. Now, the battery in my phone doesn’t run out of charge. Could it be caused by the same thing? Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to check the phone’s battery, but he didn’t find any problems. He just found plenty of charge in the battery.

Although smashing the phone might resolve the problem, it was only a possibility. Zhou Wen thought for a moment and didn’t smash the phone. He switched it off.

Not long after, his body finally returned to normal. Zhou Wen continued on his journey with his phone.

On the way, Zhou Wen paid close attention to the phone. Truth Listener’s ability was constantly paying attention to the interior of the phone, especially the battery. However, he didn’t discover anything amiss.

When he arrived at the next city, Zhou Wen stopped to rest again. His phone remained silent.

However, in the middle of the night, something abnormal happened. The phone that had been switched off, automatically switched on.

When the phone was switched on, an app automatically started playing the old movie. Zhou Wen had already seen this old movie in the hotel.

The problem is indeed there. Zhou Wen was now certain that something had happened at the hotel in the thunderstorm.

Zhou Wen switched off his phone again, but not long after, the phone automatically switched on again. It was still playing the old movies. Furthermore, no matter how long it played them, the phone’s battery didn’t decrease.

Zhou Wen switched it off a few times, but his phone would automatically switch on. Therefore, he decided not to turn it off.

Nothing happened to the phone until the morning.

Zhou Wen observed the battery in his phone the entire night. He could sense that there was a fluctuation in the battery, and it was extremely abnormal.

Could it be that the electric current is a special dimensional creature? Zhou Wen felt that the possibility was very high.

If the electric current inside was a Companion Beast, no one would use a Companion Beast like this. Although it created some trouble for him, it wasn’t fatal.

If his enemy had such a Companion Beast, they wouldn’t have used it in such a manner. It could definitely deal him a lethal blow and throw him into eternal damnation.

How can I get the electric current out? Zhou Wen looked at his phone and thought about how to confirm if there was a dimensional creature inside.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 732 - Disappeared

Chapter 732: Disappeared

Smash my phone? It's probably not of much use. It could silently run from the television into my phone, so it should be able to move elsewhere. That would make it even harder to find it. Now that it's in my phone, at least I know where it is, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

What kind of dimensional creature is this? A pure electric creature? Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to monitor it and could only sense electric waves. He couldn't tell anything else.

Zhou Wen thought about it carefully. The electric-elemental creatures he had heard of in the past had powerful destructive powers. They were especially ferocious when it came to roasting meat.

However, this was the first time Zhou Wen had seen an electric-type creature that could enter electronic products, control electronic products, and use his software to send messages. He had never even heard of it before, much less seen it.

If it was a traditional electric-type creature, Zhou Wen could blast it apart even if it was at the Mythical stage.

However, such a sneaky fellow was not easy to deal with.

Zhou Wen was momentarily at a loss for a good solution. He wanted to use his phone to contact The Thearch to ask if she knew the origins of this strange electric-type creature, but he was afraid that the information would be tampered with. He didn’t know what trouble it would cause.

After daybreak, Zhou Wen carried the wooden log to the phone shop. There were very few people in the small city. After circling the city for some time, he finally found a phone shop and bought a few new phones and a new SIM card.

After returning to the hotel, Zhou Wen placed the new phones in front of him and used Truth Listener to monitor the internal electric current in them.

Only his first phone had a strange electric current fluctuation. Zhou Wen left it on the table and took out a new phone. He went to the yard outside and called The Thearch.

Thankfully, The Thearch didn’t reject the call because it was an unknown number. Zhou Wen heaved a sigh of relief and recounted what he had encountered in detail.

“To think I’ve never seen such a dimensional creature before.” The Thearch actually didn’t know the origins of this dimensional creature.

After pausing for a moment, The Thearch continued, “However, from your description, it should have an electromagnetic attribute. It might even have a magnetic field ability. It’s probably impossible to destroy it by simply destroying the phone. It can easily transfer elsewhere.”

“That’s what I think too. I just can’t think of a good way to deal with it,” Zhou Wen said.

The Thearch curled her lips and said, “Were your studies for nothing? Waves need to be transmitted through matter, and particles will be affected by a force field. Even if it’s formed from pure electric energy, it can’t break these laws. Why don’t you try using the power similar to a black hole created by Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength?”

Zhou Wen was immediately taken aback. He had been considering how to restrain the electric-type creatures that existed in myths and legends. He never expected that a dimensional creature like The Thearch would take to him using human scientific knowledge.

“How do you know that Tyrant Behemoth is mine?” Zhou Wen suddenly reacted. He hadn’t told The Thearch that Tyrant Behemoth belonged to him.

“What do I not know?” The Thearch said disdainfully.

After hanging up, Zhou Wen returned to his room. Just as he was about to test if Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength was effective, he suddenly realized that the special electric current in his phone had vanished.

Zhou Wen carefully checked the other phones and checked everything in the hotel that could be connected to electricity. He didn’t discover any abnormal electric waves.

Why is it gone now? Zhou Wen pondered for a moment and thought of a possibility.

It was very likely that the strange electric creature had overheard his conversation with The Thearch and had escaped.

Unwilling to give up, he searched the entire night without discovering any problems. In the day, Zhou Wen had no choice but to set off.

After this, nothing abnormal happened on the phone. Everything returned to normal.

Has that electric-type creature really escaped? Zhou Wen found it unbelievable that such a strange and cunning dimensional creature would be frightened away by a few words.

Not long after Zhou Wen left, three men entered the small city where he had stayed. The three of them looked haggard and they had dark eye circles. They looked like they had stayed up all night for a week and were about to die.

These three people were naturally Xia Liuchuan, Zhang Chunqiu, and Dugu Ge.

“Don’t you think that there’s something wrong with this matter? The first time we encountered that terrifying electric beast, we were nearly electrocuted to death. The second time, we encountered a Nightmare and almost lost ourselves in a dreamland forever. Why did we encounter such powerful Mythical creatures?” Xia Liuchuan said.

Dugu Ge said with certainty, “It’s definitely not a coincidence.”

Zhang Chunqiu pondered for a moment and said, “I think this matter might have something to do with Zhou Wen. Wherever he goes, nothing happens. But he leaves a wake of problems behind him.”

“Are you saying that Zhou Wen is secretly up to no good and wants to harm us?” Xia Liuchuan frowned.

“That’s not it. He probably doesn’t know that we are here. After all, it was a coincidence that we met him previously,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Then what do you mean?” Xia Liuchuan looked at Zhang Chunqiu in confusion.

Zhang Chunqiu pondered for a moment and said, “Did you notice that there’s something wrong with the piece of wood Zhou Wen has been carrying?”

“Of course there’s a problem. I’ve never seen such a block of wood before. It looks a little like a Gloomy Wood, but it looks even more solid than the Gloomy Wood,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“No, I’m not talking about that.” Zhang Chunqiu reorganized his thoughts before saying, “Do you feel that the log is a little sinister?”

“Sinister?” Xia Liuchuan and Dugu Ge exchanged looks, puzzled.

Seeing that they were silent, Zhang Chunqiu guessed that they had not noticed it before. He continued, “I think there’s something wrong with that piece of wood. It seems a little sinister. It doesn’t feel like a simple log.”

“If it doesn’t look like a log, what does it look like?” Xia Liuchuan asked in confusion.

“How should I put it? Nowadays, we carry out cremation or promession. In ancient times, land burials were popular. It used a wooden coffin to store a person’s corpse before burying it in the ground. Although that piece of wood looks different from a coffin, the sinister aura emitted from it makes me think of a coffin.” Zhang Chunqiu shared his feelings.

“A coffin? Are you saying that there might be a dead person’s corpse in that piece of wood? Zhou Wen is traveling with a dead person’s corpse on his back? Why is he carrying that thing?” Xia Liuchuan widened his eyes.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 733 - Sister Return Lightning Pool Again

Chapter 733: Sister Return Lightning Pool Again

“I’m only saying that the piece of wood gives me the feeling of a coffin, but I didn’t say that it’s definitely it. Perhaps it’s not. Even if it’s real, there might not be a corpse inside. Even if there’s a corpse, it might not be a human corpse,” Zhang Chunqiu said as he beat around the bush.

“Then isn’t it as good as not saying anything? Are we still following?” Xia Liuchuan asked.

“Yes, of course. This concerns the Guardian’s ownership. It doesn’t matter if you follow or not, but I have to see the outcome with my own eyes,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“In that case, what are we waiting for? Let’s go,” Xia Liuchuan said.

The three of them set off again, but this time, they deliberately lagged far behind, trying to keep a greater distance from Zhou Wen.

However, after walking for a while, they felt that something was amiss. The surrounding fields seemed to be filled with a cold wind that made their hearts tremble.

“Old Zhang, why do I feel that something is amiss? Try divining again,” Xia Liuchuan said.

As he said, Zhang Chunqiu did another divination before his expression turned odd.

Seeing his expression, Xia Liuchuan and Dugu Ge knew that the situation wasn’t good. They hurriedly asked, “What’s going on?”

“The divination is still Sister Return Lightning Pool,” Zhang Chunqiu said with a bitter smile.

Xia Liuchuan and Dugu Ge’s expressions changed as well. During the first Sister Return Lightning Pool, they had encountered an electric beast. They met a Nightmare the second time. Now, they were encountering it again.

“Is this sister never getting married?” Xia Liuchuan said gloomily.

Xia Liuchuan’s words suddenly gave Zhang Chunqiu a flash of inspiration. He said in surprise, “Do you think that the divination of Sister Return Lightning Pool refers to that piece of wood?”

“What do you mean?” Xia Liuchuan and Dugu Ge didn’t understand.

“If my previous guess wasn’t wrong, that piece of wood is really something like a coffin. Do you think there’s a woman inside?” Zhang Chunqiu said in a bold and unconstrained manner.

“What woman? If it’s really a coffin, there should be a female corpse inside,” Xia Liuchuan corrected.

“It doesn’t matter if it’s a woman or a female corpse. Over the past few days, no matter how I divine, the results are always Sister Return Lightning Pool. I think this matter definitely has something to do with that piece of wood.” The more Zhang Chunqiu spoke, the more convinced he was.

Xia Liuchuan was about to say something when he suddenly heard a roar. The fields beside them split open and a huge earth dragon crawled out.

Zhou Wen walked ahead. Although he felt that the atmosphere was somewhat odd his entire journey, he didn't encounter any other strange things other than the electric-type dimensional creature.

Zhou Wen was in no mood to visit other dimensional zones. He walked whenever he could and rested when exhausted. He kept rushing towards the Imperial Capital, hoping to rid the crappy piece of wood from him as soon as possible.

Zhou Wen himself was fine, but Xia Liuchuan and company, who were following behind him, suffered. They experienced all sorts of difficulties along the way, almost losing their lives several times.

Xia Liuchuan ultimately couldn't take it anymore and decided to take a detour back to the Xia family in the Imperial Capital.

Zhang Chunqiu decided to continue, but Brother Dugu didn't plan on following.

"Young Master, everyone is here. When are we going to take action?" The members of the Dugu family came in front of Dugu Ge and bowed.

"Abort the plan for now," Dugu Ge said.

Everyone was taken aback. One of them asked in puzzlement, "Young Master, why are you aborting it? This concerns your contractual with a Guardian."

“It’s a long story. I’ll explain this matter to the elders in the clan. Just do as I say,” Dugu Ge said.

“Yes.” The group had just arrived and didn’t even get to rest. All they could do was turn back.

Xia Liuchuan rushed back to the Xia family. He wasn’t really afraid that he would encounter danger if he followed behind, but he had already received the news that the Xia family was prepared to attack Zhou Wen before he entered the capital. Xia Liuchuan wanted to rush back and convince Xia Dongyue to give up on this operation.

The wooden log Zhou Wen was carrying was indeed odd. Xia Liuchuan was afraid that the Xia family would end up dying as a result.

Xia Liuchuan embarked on his journey with light gear. He chose the shortest path and returned to the capital much earlier than Zhou Wen.

“Liuchuan, why are you back? Didn’t I tell you to follow Zhou Wen?” Xia Dongyue couldn’t help but frown when he saw Xia Liuchuan.

“Uncle Yue, can we abort this operation?” Xia Liuchuan was in a hurry to rush back because he might not be able to convince Xia Dongyue over the phone.

“Why should we abort it?” Xia Dongyue asked Xia Liuchuan.

“Zhou Wen is carrying a strange piece of wood to the Imperial Capital. That piece of wood has a strange background and is very sinister. I’m afraid something will happen if we touch him now,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“A piece of wood?” Xia Dongyue was a little puzzled. Xia Liuchuan had always been fearless, so how could a piece of wood make him so cautious? This was completely different from the Xia Liuchuan that Xia Dongyue knew.

Xia Liuchuan recounted what had happened when the three of them followed Zhou Wen.

“Zhang Chunqiu guessed that the terrifying Mythical creatures we encountered along the way are related to that piece of wood. I think it’s very likely,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“It sounds reasonable, but even so, it doesn’t mean that we can’t touch Zhou Wen. We can choose to carry out the operation near the capital. The dimensional zones there are under our control. We don’t have to worry about any break-out creatures causing trouble,” Xia Dongyue said after some thought.

“Uncle Yue, why take such a risk? The grudge between Zhou Wen and the bureau is known by the entire Federation. It’s highly likely that he came to the capital this time for the bureau. Why should we be used by the bureau?” Xia Liuchuan continued with his persuasion.

Xia Dongyue shook his head and said, “This is Old Master’s idea. You know his temper. No one can change what he has decided.”

When Xia Liuchuan heard the words “Old Master,” his heart sank. He knew that this operation was already a foregone conclusion and could not be changed.

“Liuchuan, you don’t have to worry too much. Although that piece of wood might be a little strange, with our Xia family’s heritage, there’s no need to worry about it. It’s just Zhou Wen. Taking him down isn’t difficult.” Xia Dongyue patted

Xia Liuchuan on the shoulder and said, “Since you’re back, stay home and get some rest. I’ll get someone from the East Courtyard to handle this matter.”

“I hope so.” Xia Liuchuan felt that this matter wouldn’t succeed so easily, but there was nothing he could do.

The Old Master of the Xia family was the supreme existence in the Xia family. Even Xia Dongyue, who had become a member of the Senate, didn’t dare disobey his words. No one could change his mind.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 734

Chapter 734: Erected on the Peak of the Forbidden City

Although Xia Liuchuan was a little worried, he had no choice but to leave Xia Dongyue’s office.

“Brother, you seem to have something on your mind. Is it because you didn’t obtain the Guardian cocoon?” Xia Xuanyue asked with concern when she saw Xia Liuchuan frowning.

“Zhou Wen is on his way to the Imperial Capital. Old Master has already ordered the people from the East Courtyard to bring him back before he enters the Imperial Capital,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“Why is Old Master taking Zhou Wen into custody?” Having not heard of this, Xia Xuanyue’s expression changed slightly when she learned of it.

Xia Liuchuan hurriedly stopped Xia Xuanyue from continuing. He looked around and seeing that no one was passing by, he said softly, “You should be the only person to know about this. Don’t mention it again, and don’t tell anyone. Also, don’t ask too much about the Old Master. Do you understand?”

“Why?” Xia Xuanyue was still confused.

In fact, Xia Xuanyue’s impression of the Old Master was very vague. Although the Old Master was the true head of the Xia family, Xia Xuanyue had only seen him a handful of times despite having grown up in the Xia family.

In her impression, the Old Master was a stern old man in a white robe. He occasionally appeared at important Xia family ceremonies. He usually lived in the East Courtyard.

The East Courtyard was also a restricted area in the Xia family. Without the Old Master’s summoning, even Xia Dongyue couldn’t enter and leave the East Courtyard freely.

Only those who were in charge of taking care of the Old Master’s daily needs could enter the East Courtyard.

Most of the people who were in charge of taking care of the Old Master’s daily needs were not from the Xia family. However, they were all loyal to the Old Master and wouldn’t hesitate or doubt his orders.

When Xia Xuanyue was young, she had seen an elder of the Xia family who was seized by the people from the East Courtyard for some unknown crime. After entering the East Courtyard, he never came out again.

“Don’t ask why. Trust me. I’m your brother. I won’t harm you,” Xia Liuchuan said as he looked into Xia Xuanyue’s eyes.

“I understand.” Xia Xuanyue nodded slightly.

“Get some rest. Since this matter has already been handed over to the East Courtyard, we don’t have to bother about it anymore.” Xia Liuchuan seemed to have something on his mind. After saying that, he returned to his residence.

However, before he could open the door, someone sent a message saying that the Old Master wanted to see him.

Xia Liuchuan’s heart quaked. He had already guessed why the Old Master was looking for him.

Xia Liuchuan took a deep breath and followed the butler to the East Courtyard.

If it wasn’t necessary, Xia Liuchuan would rather not enter the East District ever again.

When he was young, he had actually liked visiting the East Courtyard. The Old Master doted on him very much. The other members of the Xia family were not allowed to enter the East Courtyard, but he was specially permitted by the Old Master to enter freely.

At that time, Xia Liuchuan could be said to be able to get whatever he wanted. Even if he plucked the flowers personally planted by the Old Master, the Old Master would only laugh and never punish him.

However, after he turned fifteen, Xia Liuchuan seldom went to the East Courtyard. Although he still had the privilege of doing so, he was unwilling to go again.

As he stepped into the familiar garden and saw the familiar decorations and flowers, Xia Liuchuan had mixed feelings.

“Little Chuan, Dongyue has already told me about your matters. Don’t worry, I’ll let Zhou Wen enter the Imperial Capital alive. I’ll let you win the bet and obtain the chance to contract the guardian.” A white-robed elder sat in a stone pavilion with a pond by its side, feeding the carp in it.

“Sorry to trouble you.” Xia Liuchuan bowed slightly.

He was a fearless person who dared to do anything, but in front of this Old Master, he didn’t dare to do anything rash.

As the elder fed the fish, he continued, “It’s nothing much. It’s just a matter of time. After you contract the Guardian, I want you to personally bring Zhou Wen back to me. Can you do it?”

“Old Master, everyone around you is stronger than me. Why must I go?” Xia Liuchuan said.

“If you aren’t willing, let Xuanyue go,” the elder said indifferently.

Xia Liuchuan gapped his mouth as though he wanted to say something, but he didn’t say anything in the end. He only nodded. “Got it. I’ll bring Zhou Wen back.”

“Remember, you are the future master of the Xia family. No matter how strong the people under you are, they are ultimately servants,” the elder said.

“I understand,” Xia Liuchuan lowered his head and said.

…

Zhou Wen rushed all the way to the Imperial Capital and didn’t encounter anything strange. Apart from the fact that the log was especially heavy and making it difficult for him to go any faster, there wasn’t much trouble.

When Zhou Wen saw the two words—Imperial Capital—from afar, he couldn’t help but heave a sigh of relief.

“Ol’ Ante, where should I place this log when I reach the Imperial Capital?” Zhou Wen asked the antelope.

The antelope wrote on the ground with its hooves, “Erect it on the peak of the Forbidden City.”

Zhou Wen saw the words written by the antelope and immediately widened his eyes.

The Imperial Capital's Forbidden City was now a very special dimensional zone. It was also one of the dimensional zones that the Xia family valued the most. Its importance was no less than that of the Ancient Sword Tomb.

According to what Zhou Wen knew, ever since the dimensional storms, the Xia family had sealed off the Forbidden City dimensional zone, preventing anyone from approaching.

If he wanted to enter, it shouldn't be difficult for him to do so with the Invisibility Cloak's ability.

However, it was impossible for him to enter the city without anyone noticing while carrying such a huge object. He had to clash with the Xia family.

"Ol' Ante, are you deliberately setting me up?" Zhou Wen seriously suspected that the antelope had deliberately set him up because he had forcefully dragged it out to come with him on this trip.

The antelope ignored him and stepped across the Imperial Capital's Boundary Stone.

Zhou Wen had to follow. He had no other choice at this point in time.

Zhou Wen seldom went out, so he had never seen a city as big as the Imperial Capital. Compared to it, Luoyang appeared rather small in scale and numbers.

As there were too many people, Zhou Wen didn't ride the Great Might Vajra Bull. He walked forward while carrying the wooden log.

Although this was the Imperial Capital, people still gawked when they saw Zhou Wen walking on the streets with such a huge block of wood.

Zhou Wen originally planned on contacting Wang Lu when he arrived in the Imperial Capital. However, it wasn’t appropriate for him to treat her to a meal while carrying a huge log. Therefore, he decided not to contact her. It wouldn’t be too late to contact her after resolving the matter with the log.

He found a hotel and checked in. The room was rather expensive, but Zhou Wen still paid for it without any hesitation. Furthermore, he booked the room for a week.

This place was relatively close to Forbidden City. Through the floor-to-ceiling windows in the room, one could see the distant Forbidden City. This was also why Zhou Wen chose to stay here.

How can I sneak this log in? Zhou Wen stood in front of the window and stared at the ancient Forbidden City in the distance as many thoughts flashed through his mind.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 735 - Creditor Comes Knocking

Chapter 735: Creditor Comes Knocking

Translator: CKtalon

Ever since he entered the Imperial Capital, Zhou Wen felt all sorts of gazes staring at him. Furthermore, there were definitely more than one or two people staring at him.

It was almost impossible to enter the Forbidden City without anyone noticing.

Do I have to barge my way in? Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant.

Although his present strength could be considered top-notch in the Federation and he had many Mythical Companion Beasts, he probably wouldn't be able to gain an advantage against a hero family.

After all, they had been operating for decades. Even if they didn't have a phone to grind for resources, they definitely had a lot of resources in real life.

What puzzled Zhou Wen was that despite a large number of spies staring at him, no one attacked him despite him being in the capital for so long.

When did the bureau become so good-tempered? They actually haven't come looking for trouble? Zhou Wen felt that there was something amiss.

Zhou Wen was right. Something had happened on the way.

However, due to an accident, the Dugu family, who had originally planned to attack him, aborted the operation. The bureau was waiting for the Xia family to take action, and because the Xia family wanted Xia Liuchuan to win the bet, they allowed him to arrive at the Imperial Capital safely.

Now that the Xia family was waiting for Xia Liuchuan to sign a contract with the Guardian, everything was calm.

As he was thinking, he felt a fluctuation from a Companion Beast. Explosive Fiend Man that had evolved again had finally completed its evolution.

Zhou Wen checked Explosive Fiend Man’s stats in-game.

Explosive Fiend Man: Epic (Evolvable)

Life Providence: Unlawful

Life Soul: Destroyer

Strength: 41

Speed: 41

Constitution: 41

Essence Energy: 41

Talent Skill: Death List, Time-Blast

Companion Form: Self-detonation Device

His stats had risen in a normal fashion. His skills hadn’t changed, but he had gained a Life Soul.

Zhou Wen summoned Explosive Fiend Man in-game. It didn’t look much different from when it was at the Legendary stage. It looked like a very modern armored soldier.

Let me see what use your Life Soul has. Zhou Wen got Explosive Fiend Man to use the Destroyer Life Soul.

With a thought, the red liquid in the glass tubes on Explosive Fiend Man's back injected into his body through the pipes. Then, Zhou Wen saw Explosive Fiend Man's armor emitting strange red flames. Its body was filled with a dangerous aura.

Explosive Fiend Man seemed to have been injected with stimulants. His Speed and Strength had greatly increased, and his skills had also been strengthened.

Previously, he needed at least thirty seconds to complete a Time-Blast. However, with the augmentation of the Destroyer Life Soul, he only used less than three seconds to complete a Time-Blast. His efficiency had increased by ten times.

This Destroyer Life Soul is quite strong! Zhou Wen was overjoyed. In the past, Explosive Fiend Man's skill cast time was too slow, so it wasn't convenient to use it.

Although the speed of a skill at three seconds was still a little slow, much slower than an instantaneous skill, considering Explosive Fiend Man's special skill, three seconds was considered rather powerful.

I can consider using Explosive Fiend Man to set up some time bombs nearby. If anyone tries to sneak up on me, I'll make sure they have no chance of returning. Zhou Wen only had this thought. After all, this was a hotel. It wouldn't be good if he injured the workers who were cleaning up the room.

If Explosive Fiend Man advances to the Mythical stage, I might be able to instantly release a time bomb. That would be awesome. Zhou Wen looked forward to Explosive Fiend Man's growth.

The doorbell rang. Zhou Wen used Truth Listener to take a look and was immediately stunned. The person standing outside the door was Wang Lu.

Zhou Wen hurriedly opened the door. When Wang Lu saw him, she said unhappily, "You didn't inform me, your debtor, despite coming to the Imperial Capital? Are you trying to renege on your debt?"

"Sorry, I encountered some trouble. I originally planned on contacting you after resolving it, but I never expected you to come here yourself. By the way, how did you know that I was in the Imperial Capital?" Zhou Wen asked.

"What's so strange about that? After all, our Wang family has some influence in the Imperial Capital. For a famous person like you to come to the Imperial Capital, I have no choice but to know. This news keeps buzzing around my ears. It's so irritating that I can't sleep," Wang Lu said.

"As you know, I'm in a lot of trouble now. I don't have the time to eat with you for the time being. Go back now and I'll look for you when I'm done with my matters," Zhou Wen said.

Zhou Wen mainly didn't want his matter to implicate Wang Lu, but when Wang Lu heard that, she curled her lips and said, "If you want to renege on your debt, just say so. Why do you have to come up with so many excuses? Since I came looking for you, I'm naturally not afraid of trouble. Why are you being so wishy-washy? Don't tell me you don't even have time to go downstairs to eat?"

“It’s not that I don’t have time, but it’s really inconvenient.” Zhou Wen pointed at the wooden log under his buttocks and said, “I have to carry this with me at all times. Where do you think I can eat conveniently when I have to take it with me?”

“What’s this? Why are you carrying it? Just leave it in the room. If you find it unsafe, I’ll get someone to look after it for you,” Wang Lu said.

“It’s not about safety. I can’t leave it. I have to carry it with me. It’s a long story,” Zhou Wen said helplessly.

Wang Lu thought for a moment and said, “It doesn’t matter. Just take it with you and follow me. I’ll find a place. It’s very quiet there. That place can easily accommodate a few more logs of the same size.”

“That’s not very nice, right? You know that my relationship with the bureau isn’t good. This is where the headquarters of the bureau is…” Zhou Wen really didn’t wish for Wang Lu to be embroiled in his matters.

“Cut the crap. I don’t like hearing that. Just follow me.” Having known him for so long, Wang Lu knew Zhou Wen’s temper quite well. There was no need to waste her breath on him. All she needed to do was drag him away.

“I’m afraid it will affect your family.” Zhou Wen had no choice but to make things clear.

“I’ve already said it. Since I dared to come, I’m naturally not afraid. Although the bureau is very powerful, they can’t do anything to me. Don’t worry. Quickly follow me. I didn’t eat anything the entire morning just to eat this meal of yours. I’m starving,” Wang Lu said.

The chick smartly flew onto Wang Lu’s shoulder. Even the antelope took the initiative to approach her and fawned over her. Zhou Wen had no choice but to carry the wooden log and follow Wang Lu.

Looking at Wang Lu teasing the chick in front of him, Zhou Wen’s mood improved significantly. Under such circumstances, it was indeed rare for Wang Lu to be willing to seek him out. Typical schoolmates would probably keep their distance from him.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that Wang Lu was taking him to a restaurant, but to his surprise, Wang Lu brought him all the way to a traditionally-styled ancient building complex.

After circling the alley for a while, he entered one of the ancient buildings’ courtyard.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 736 - The Geniuses' Accidents

Chapter 736: The Geniuses' Accidents

After entering the yard, Wang Lu's expression turned solemn. "Do you know that you are in grave danger now?"

Zhou Wen nodded. "I know."

"Why are you still here when you know? Do you feel uncomfortable if you don't get beaten up for a day?" Wang Lu rolled her eyes at him.

"I didn't plan on coming here like this." Zhou Wen originally planned on using the Invisibility Cloak to enter the Imperial Capital, preventing others from knowing that he had been here.

But now, he was carrying a huge log. It was useless even if he was invisible. The Invisibility Cloak couldn't cover such a huge log. Anyone would know that something was amiss when they saw a log floating in midair.

"I'm afraid you still don't know the current situation. If it was just the bureau finding trouble with you, that would be fine. With your abilities and me acting as your informant, it shouldn't be difficult to deal with it. However, the person who wants to touch you isn't just the bureau. There's also the real master of the capital, the Xia family. It's easy for you to come to the Imperial Capital, but I'm afraid it won't be easy for you to leave," Wang Lu said.

"Why does the Xia family want to deal with me?" Zhou Wen asked in puzzlement.

He didn’t have any deep feud with the Xia family, so there was no reason for them to kill him, right?

“The intricacies are very complicated. I’ll get my grandmother to tell you later.” As Wang Lu spoke, she walked towards the main room.

“Grandma, I’ve brought a friend,” Wang Lu shouted into the hall as she walked.

“Crazy girl, just come. What are you shouting for?” A voice came from the backyard and an old woman walked over.

The woman looked quite old. Her hair was already white, but for some reason, there weren’t any wrinkles on her face. She looked very elegant, and it was easy to guess that she must have been a beauty when she was young.

“This lad is the Zhou Wen you often mention, right?” the old woman said as she sized him up.

“When did I? It’s just that he owes me so much and hasn’t paid me back that I occasionally mention him. I’m afraid that I’ll forget the debt,” Wang Lu said as she tugged the old woman’s arm.

“I see.” The old woman smiled at Zhou Wen and said, “Lad, you look so young. Why did you get yourself in debt? Furthermore, your debtor is a female student. Don’t tell me you want to be a freeloader?”

“Grandma Wang, it’s not like that.” Zhou Wen wanted to explain.

However, before he could finish his sentence, he was interrupted by the old woman. “But it doesn’t matter. Our Wang family doesn’t have much of anything else, but we have plenty of money. There’s no way to spend it all eating. Just treat it as doing a good deed and come often to have a bite. It doesn’t matter if you stay here. Our Wang family happens to be lacking a live-in son-in-law…”

“Grandma, what are you talking about?” Wang Lu’s face flushed red. “Zhou Wen is only my classmate. It’s not what you think.”

After a pause, Wang Lu added, “Grandma, you must already know about Zhou Wen’s situation. Tell him how dangerous his current situation is.”

Upon hearing Wang Lu’s words, Grandma Wang retracted her smile. “Let’s talk inside.”

Zhou Wen followed them into the hall. Wang Lu gestured for him to sit down before she brewed tea for them all.

“Grandma Wang, I heard from Wang Lu that the Xia family wants to find trouble with me, but I don’t have much of a grudge with the Xia family. Why are they targeting me?” Zhou Wen couldn’t help but ask.

Grandma Wang nodded and said, “The crazy girl is right. The Xia family might really attack you. You shouldn’t have come to the Imperial Capital.”

After a moment of silence, Grandma Wang continued, “The crazy girl is willing to bring you here because she doesn’t treat you as an outsider. So I won’t say things meant for outsiders. What I’m about to say next is just speculation. It’s not necessarily the truth. So don’t take it too seriously.”

“Grandma Wang, don’t worry. I’m not a talkative person,” Zhou Wen said.

“It’s fine even if you are talkative. Anyway, I won’t admit to what I said today, nor will the Wang family.” Grandma Wang said with a smile, “According to my guess, the reason the Xia family is targeting you isn’t because your teacher was Wang Mingyuan, nor is it because you crippled the Xia family’s juniors’ Essence Energy sea in the Holy Land.”

“Then what’s the reason?” Apart from these two reasons, Zhou Wen really couldn’t figure out what connection he had with the Xia family.

Although Demonic Neonate’s demonic sword was snatched from Xia Xuanyue, Xia Xuanyue herself didn’t know that it was done by Demonic Neonate. The Xia family shouldn’t pin the blame on him.

Grandma Wang said with a strange expression, “If there’s a reason, there’s only one. You are too talented.”

Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback. He found it difficult to believe that the Xia family wanted to kill him just for this reason.

There were many talented youths nowadays, and he wasn’t the only one. Even if the Xia family were to suppress the other wealthy families, it shouldn’t have to resort to such means.

After all, the dimensional zones’ seals weren’t stable. The six families alone probably wouldn’t be able to withstand the dimensional army. To suppress the local factions would only make them appear short-sighted.

As if she had seen through Zhou Wen’s thoughts, Grandma Wang continued, “In the past, there were precedents of geniuses disappearing or encountering accidents in the Federation. Furthermore, there has been more than one incident. Similar incidents happened every once in a while. It’s fine if it’s just ordinary geniuses, but most of these geniuses are targets that the various families focused on grooming. With the protection of the various families, it’s almost impossible for them to take such a huge risk. Yet, something happened to them.”

“In Luoyang, you should know that there’s a Li family in Luoyang. The Li family once had a talented youth. His talent wasn’t inferior to the current Overseer An, but before he truly grew in strength, he died because of some problem,” said Grandma Wang with a sigh.

“You mean that the disappearance of these geniuses has something to do with the Xia family?” Zhou Wen had already heard Li Xuan mention the matter regarding his elder brother’s demise.

However, Li Xuan had learned about it from Li Mobai. He never expected Grandma Wang to know about it.

Grandma Wang declined to comment and continued, “In the past, our Wang family also had such a genius. Similarly, he died because of some matters. That matter looked like an accident, but I didn’t think it was that simple. Therefore, I secretly did investigations, but I didn’t manage to find anything. However, during this period of time, I discovered something. The accidents of those young geniuses seemed to have something to do with the Xia family.”

“Is the Xia family resorting to every means possible, to the point of attacking their competitors, just to consolidate their forces?” Zhou Wen frowned.

“This is also what I found strange back then. The Xia family didn’t target their opponents who had conflicts of interest with them. They seemed to be only interested in those outstanding geniuses and didn’t differentiate between friend and foe. Therefore, when I investigated in the beginning, I was also confused and didn’t think about the Xia family. Later, after investigating for a long time, I realized that it appeared to be the Xia family behind this matter,” Grandma Wang said.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 737 - Where Is the Highest Spot?

Chapter 737: Where Is the Highest Spot?

Translator: CKtalon

After Zhou Wen left the yard, he kept thinking about what Grandma Wang had said.

Although there was no evidence that the Xia family was related to the geniuses' demise, Zhou Wen also felt that there was something amiss.

It didn't seem right to explain it away as the Xia family deliberately suppressing ordinary families as a way to strengthen their status.

According to Grandma Wang's investigations, some of the young geniuses who had gotten into trouble didn't belong to the East District, much less the Xia family's circle of influence.

The situation in the other regions was chaotic. It was a happy outcome for the Xia family, but they clearly didn't think so.

Regardless, I have to think of a way to get this crappy piece of wood into the Forbidden City. Otherwise, it won't be convenient for me to do anything. When Zhou Wen was with the Wang family, he had also asked some questions regarding Forbidden City.

Wang Lu and Grandma Wang didn't know much about Forbidden City. This was because the Xia family had occupied it from the beginning of the dimensional storms.

They never allowed outsiders to enter, so no one knew what had happened inside after the dimensional storms.

However, Grandma Wang told Zhou Wen something very interesting. She had lived through the dimensional storms, so she had entered Forbidden City quite often before they occurred.

She said that she had once visited the Forbidden City when she was young. Back then, the weather suddenly turned bad and thunder rumbled in the sky.

She originally wanted to return home quickly, but when she passed a certain spot in the city, she suddenly saw some strange shadows.

The shadows wore ancient clothes as they walked in the alley of Forbidden City. They looked like ancient consorts and palace maids.

What was even stranger was that their figures were transparent like spirit bodies.

Spirit bodies weren’t rare now, but before the dimensional storms, they were terrifying.

At that time, Grandma Wang was still very young. She was quite frightened and immediately ran away. However, her youth made her curious. Later on, she went to the same place a few times, but she didn’t see those shadows again.

Grandma Wang checked the information on the Internet. It said that the magical phenomenon might be a result of lightning during a rainy day. It was like a camera that recorded past scenes. Under identical weather conditions, the footage would be played.

Of course, this was only a guess. No one could verify its authenticity.

However, this wasn’t strange. What was strange was that after the dimensional storms, every time there was a thunderstorm, strange sounds would come from the Forbidden City.

Although outsiders couldn’t enter Forbidden City, one could still hear some sounds from it during a thunderstorm if they lived close.

After Grandma Wang heard about this matter, she waited for a thunderstorm. Indeed, she heard some strange sounds coming from inside.

Some of the sounds reminded her of the palace maids and concubines she had seen back then.

This had all been personally experienced by Grandma Wang, so it was naturally true.

Zhou Wen had previously searched for information about the Forbidden City on the Internet. In fact, compared to the other ancient cities, the history of Forbidden City wasn’t too long. From its establishment, it had only experienced two feudal dynasties.

However, its scale was incomparable to the other ancient cities.

Forbidden City also had the title of Eight-Armed Nezha Demonic City. If one were to mention the tallest building in the city, it would be the Hall of Supreme Harmony. It was nearly forty meters tall.

Zhou Wen looked up the information mainly to confirm the location of the so-called peak of Forbidden City. It was to prevent him from having to seek it out after entering. That would be troublesome.

However, when Zhou Wen looked over from the hotel's top floor, he discovered a strange place. The tallest building he saw from the hotel wasn't the Hall of Supreme Harmony, but a Corner Tower in the corner of the city.

Zhou Wen didn't know if it was because he was too far away or if it was because of the angle, he could only see the Corner Tower and not the Hall of Supreme Harmony.

Despite this, Zhou Wen still searched for information on Corner Towers. This search left him alarmed. Although Corner Towers were inconspicuous, the meaning it represented was extraordinary.

These Corner Towers were not meant for mortals to live. It was similar to Deer Terrace Pavilion. Their purpose was to guide immortals down to the mortal world and protect the safety of the imperial city. The reason they were named Corner Towers was that the immortals which were meant to be received were the corner mansions of the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions.

The corner mansion wasn't unfamiliar to Zhou Wen. He even had it as a skill, so when he saw the information, Zhou Wen felt that this place was extraordinary. It might really be the peak of Forbidden City.

Furthermore, the architectural standards of the Corner Tower were extremely high. It had three eaves, nine beams, eighteen pillars, and seventy-two spines. Such an architectural style was unique in the Forbidden City.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that the famous Hall of Supreme Harmony was at the peak of Forbidden City, but the more he looked at it, the more he felt that a Corner Tower was the true peak of the Forbidden City.

Corner Towers are built on the city walls of Forbidden City, so it might indeed be taller than the Hall of Supreme Harmony, but there are four of them. Which Corner Tower should I erect the log on? Zhou Wen thought to himself.

Without any accurate information, Zhou Wen could only wait until he entered Forbidden City before comparing them to the Hall of Supreme Harmony Hall.

Zhou Wen also asked the antelope, but the antelope only said to erect it on the peak of Forbidden City. It didn't know the exact location of the erection.

Could it be that I can just randomly erect it on a higher spot? Zhou Wen thought.

What Zhou Wen was most worried about was how to enter Forbidden City.

If he barged in, it would only give the Xia family an excuse to attack him. However, on the other hand, he would be free once he rushed into the city and erected the log.

With the Invisibility Cloak, who could stop him from escaping?

This plan looked perfect, but the premise was that he could really abandon the log. If he still couldn't abandon it when the time came, he would be in trouble.

Just as Zhou Wen was hesitating, he heard someone walking towards his room.

Through the door, Zhou Wen could sense that the person's bearing was extraordinary. He was in his twenties and probably not much older than An Tianzuo.

Zhou Wen found the person somewhat familiar, but he couldn't recall where he had seen him.

"Is Zhou Wen around?" Xia Liuchuan knocked on the door and asked.

When Zhou Wen heard the voice, he immediately recalled where he had seen him. This fellow was the Concerned Person who had tipped him off on that stormy night.

Zhou Wen opened the door and asked Xia Liuchuan, "Concerned Person, are you here to tip me off again?"

Xia Liuchuan said calmly, "I don't understand what you're talking about. My name is Xia Liuchuan. I'm here to challenge you. This is my challenge letter. I hope you can give me an answer now."

"Why are you challenging me?" Zhou Wen asked as he looked at Xia Liuchuan's challenge.

"Don't tell me you've forgotten that you once crippled the Essence Energy sea of my Xia family members in the Holy Land?" Xia Liuchuan said.

"I see. I accept your challenge." Zhou Wen actually agreed without any hesitation, surprising Xia Liuchuan.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 738 - Decisive Battle at the Peak of the Forbidden City

Chapter 738: Decisive Battle at the Peak of the Forbidden City

“Did you read it carefully? This isn’t an ordinary challenge. We have to fight until one person falls,” Xia Liuchuan reminded him.

“I’ve read it carefully. I can agree to a life-and-death duel with you, but on one condition. The location of the duel has to be chosen by me,” Zhou Wen said.

“Don’t tell me you want to have the duel in Luoyang?” Xia Liuchuan said with a smile.

Xia Liuchuan would have done such a thing himself. If Zhou Wen also did the same, Xia Liuchuan could have agreed if he had any say. However, he had no choice in this duel. He couldn’t agree to Zhou Wen’s request.

“No, it’s in the Imperial Capital,” Zhou Wen said.

“Where do you want it to happen?” Xia Liuchuan asked.

To be able to fight an expert like you can be considered a boon in life. I probably won’t have many opportunities like this in life, so I naturally have to choose a place that matches you and me. How about we fight at the peak of Forbidden City? Just as Zhou Wen was worrying about how he could enter the Forbidden City, Xia Liuchuan came knocking on his door.

Zhou Wen didn’t care about life-and-death duels at all. As long as he could settle the crappy piece of wood, he would immediately put on the Invisibility Cloak and leave. It didn’t matter if he won.

“This…” Xia Liuchuan was in a difficult position.

It was fine to have the duel elsewhere, but Forbidden City was under the Old Master’s control. Without the Old Master’s orders, even the Xia family members couldn’t enter.

“What? Are you still worried when it’s your Xia family’s territory?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Alright, I promise you. Since you decided on the location, I’ll decide on the time,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“Sure. When?” Zhou Wen asked.

“Wait for my news.” Xia Liuchuan turned around and left.

This fellow is really odd. He was clearly the Concerned Person that night. Why isn’t he admitting to it? Zhou Wen was puzzled.

However, as long as nothing unexpected happened, the matter of entering Forbidden City had been resolved by accident. With the opportunity of a duel with Xia Liuchuan, Zhou Wen could try erecting the log at higher spots.

Dealing with Xia Liuchuan was better than dealing with the Xia family’s gank.

While waiting for Xia Liuchuan’s reply, Zhou Wen stayed in his room to grind. He didn’t go anywhere.

Since he had nothing to do, Zhou Wen planned on trying to kill the nine black dragons. He could use Doctor Darkness's Darkness Right Hand to kill the three black dragons.

After bringing all his Mythical Companion Beasts, Zhou Wen arrived at the underground sea again.

With Behemoth on the left, Truth Listener on the right, Six-Winged on his back, he held a golden sword in his hand. Along with the old bull under his crotch and a Torch Dragon coiled behind him.

Zhou Wen had even summoned the extremely weak Medusa. Perhaps it would be of some use if she stood by the shore to provide support.

Demonic Neonate naturally didn't need to be mentioned. She had already joined the battle. However, she found a cave beside the underground sea and hid there. She had no intention of participating in the battle head-on.

"Come, my Doctor Darkness." Zhou Wen summoned his most important Companion Beast and made Doctor Darkness transform into a soul that fused with him.

Zhou Wen immediately felt his physique improve significantly. He was almost comparable to a Mythical stage entity.

This was the benefit of Doctor Darkness. Not only could his Companion Form bestow Zhou Wen with skills, but it could also raise Zhou Wen's basic stats, allowing him to have the ability to fight against Mythical creatures. This was something no other Companion Beast could do.

Unfortunately, Banana Fairy hasn't completed her evolution. Otherwise, I would have a greater chance. Zhou Wen prepared everything and summoned some Poison Bat Companion Beasts to use as bait to lure the nine black dragons over.

In a short while, he saw a huge wave stir above the surface of the sea. Nine black dragons tore through the waves and wiped out the horde of Poison Bats in the blink of an eye.

“Fight, my pets.” After Zhou Wen issued the order, Torch Dragon, Behemoth, and Truth Listener rushed into the sea.

As the Great Might Vajra Bull was afraid of water, it didn’t dare enter the water to fight. On the bank, it transformed into the thousand-armed, bull-headed state. Golden light shot out from its palm as it attacked the nine black dragons.

Torch Dragon didn’t use Bright Torch Vision World. Although using Bright Torch Vision World could instantly kill the black dragons, nothing would be left behind. That would make killing the black dragon useless.

In a one-on-one battle, Torch Dragon was unable to gain the upper hand without using Bright Torch Vision World. It was obvious that the black dragons were top Mythical creatures.

The moment Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength was unleashed, the invisible chains between the nine black dragons produced effects. They condensed the power of the nine dragons and collided with Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength. Tyrant Behemoth immediately fell into a disadvantage.

Truth Listener constantly harassed them from the side, but it didn’t dare clash head-on with the black dragons.

Zhou Wen had been waiting for an opportunity to use Darkness Right Hand. All he needed was for his hand to touch one black dragon.

However, the black dragon’s body was too huge. It was probably unrealistic to pull out its heart with a single palm, so Zhou Wen’s target was their brains.

He didn’t expect to dig out their brains. All he needed to do was stir them up.

Although the nine black dragons were independent Mythical creatures, they were connected by invisible chains. In battle, they were like one. Their attack and defense were flawless. Zhou Wen watched for a while, but he failed to find an opportunity to attack.

These nine black dragons are really difficult to deal with. Zhou Wen activated Doctor Darkness’s Eyes of Penetration to see if there were any weaknesses in the black dragons’ bodies.

If Doctor Darkness hadn’t advanced to the Mythical stage, he wouldn’t have been able to see so far with his Eyes of Penetration. His ability to see through things wasn’t that strong either, so he definitely wouldn’t be able to see through the black dragon’s body. Now, all he needed to do was approach it a little and he could clearly see the situation inside the black dragon’s body.

This glance left Zhou Wen slightly taken aback. In the black dragon’s brain, there was a crystal-like bead with a faint dragon-shaped stream of light swirling inside.

That thing can’t be the legendary dragon pearl, right? Zhou Wen carefully sized up the pearl in the black dragon’s brain and quickly made a new discovery.

The black dragon’s brain had the pearl as its core. Although there were parts similar to the brain, it looked like those parts were just supplementary. It was somewhat different from a human’s brain.

What was even more magical was that when the dragon-shaped stream of light in the dragon pearl circulated, it looked like a word. Zhou Wen carefully identified it as the word “Kan.”

Could it be… Zhou Wen hurriedly looked at the other eight black dragons and indeed, he found a dragon pearl in their heads. However, the words in the dragon pearls were different.

Qian, Kun, Zhen, Xun, Kan, Li, Gen, Dui, and Wu. The nine black dragons’ dragon pearls each had these words. The first eight words were from the Eight Trigrams, and the last word was Wu. Zhou Wen guessed that it represented Wuji—Limitless.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 739 - Killing the Nine Dragons

Chapter 739: Killing the Nine Dragons

Zhou Wen observed for a long period of time. By the time he was done, his luxurious lineup of Mythical pets had been destroyed by the nine black dragons. Torch Dragon was heavily injured, and despite Tyrant Behemoth roaring repeatedly, it was unable to reverse the situation.

Truth Listener showed signs of going berserk. The Great Might Vajra Bull onshore had been killed at some point in time.

Demonic Neonate apparently failed to find a chance to attack. She had been hiding all this time.

Zhou Wen directly unsummoned Truth Listener, preventing it from shattering another earring. Torch Dragon was also unsummoned. The heavily injured Torch Dragon basically didn’t have any combat strength left.

Torch Dragon, who couldn’t use Bright Torch Vision World, could only be considered top-notch in combat, but being top-notch wasn’t enough in such a battle.

Only Tyrant Behemoth was at the front line. It was being tortured by the nine black dragons as it roared angrily, but it remained completely suppressed.

Not only was Zhou Wen not discouraged, he even felt happy.

This was because, after his long period of observation, he discovered a secret of the nine black dragons.

If one looked at their appearance and abilities, the nine black dragons were no different. Their offensive methods were also similar, so they could be seen as nonuplets.

Therefore, Zhou Wen’s initial plan was to kill them one by one.

However, when Zhou Wen used his Eyes of Penetration to see the dragon pearls in their bodies, he discovered a special phenomenon.

Although the power in the nine dragons’ bodies could be transferred freely without any problems during the transfer, Zhou Wen realized that the Wu dragon pearl would light up every time their powers were transferred.

For example, when the Li dragon attacked by gathering the power of the nine dragons, the Li dragon pearl would light up, but the Wu dragon pearl would also light up. The other dragon pearls didn’t light up.

However, when the Kan dragon pearl attacked, the Kan dragon pearl would light up along with the Wu dragon pearl.

In other words, no matter which dragon condensed the power of the nine dragons, the Wu dragon pearl would light up along with it. Only when the Wu dragon pearl’s dragon attacked would only its dragon pearl light up.

From this vantage, Zhou Wen suddenly realized that perhaps the Wu dragon pearl’s dragon was the core of the nine black dragons, or rather, a transit station. Perhaps it was because of its existence that the nine black dragons could freely transfer their powers.

If I kill the black dragon with the Wu dragon pearl first, will the ability to combine the nine dragons’ strength as one be ineffective? Zhou Wen decided to give it a try.

After quitting the game and respawning the dungeon, Zhou Wen entered the game again and summoned his luxurious lineup of Mythical pets. However, this time, after getting Doctor Darkness to possess him, he switched his Essence Energy Art to the Godfiend Era. The Lost Country Life Soul ring also appeared on his finger.

Since I can't find an opportunity, I'll create one myself. Zhou Wen stared intently at the nine black dragons in the middle of the battle and locked onto the black dragon with the Wu dragon pearl.

The six wings on his back flapped gently as Zhou Wen gradually approached the battlefield. When the nine black dragons noticed him and were about to attack, Zhou Wen suddenly vanished.

The black dragon that was about to attack was slightly taken aback as Zhou Wen's figure appeared above another black dragon.

He genuflected on the dragon's head. With his left hand pressing on the dragon's skull, his right hand stabbed into the dragon's head with a devil-like force.

The hard dragon scales and dragon bones failed to block the ghostly palm. In an instant, Zhou Wen retracted his palm from the dragon's head. And between his slender fingers was a crystalline dragon pearl.

After losing the dragon pearl, the black dragon was like an empty shell that had lost its brain. Its body lost its vitality and fell to the bottom of the sea.

What surprised Zhou Wen even more, was that after he crushed the dragon pearl, the invisible chain that connected the nine black dragons shattered. The nine black dragons were immediately in a state of disunity.

Two black dragons roared as they charged at Zhou Wen. With Transcendent Flying Immortal, Zhou Wen's speed wasn't any slower than the black dragons'. Without the augmentation of the nine dragons' collective strength, the black dragons couldn't catch up to Zhou Wen.

A blackish-purple sword beam streaked across the sea and stabbed into the eye of a black dragon, piercing through the dragon pearl in its head. Demonic Neonate had finally taken action and dispatched one.

Meanwhile, Tyrant Behemoth was even more excited. Without the suppression of the nine dragons' collective strength, its Absolute Strength unleashed, snapping the dragon horn off a black dragon. Then, it threw punch after punch, shattering the black dragon's head.

The nine black dragons that originally had the absolute advantage immediately became the ones being ravaged after losing the key black dragon with the Wu dragon pearl.

There was no need for Zhou Wen to do anything else as the luxurious lineup of Mythical pets killed the remaining black dragons.

Indeed, it's difficult for those who aren't in the know, but it's not difficult for those who do. Knowledge is power. If I had known that these nine black dragons had such a relationship and weakness, I wouldn't have waited until today to kill them. The saying of the forefathers is right. Know yourself and your enemy, and you will never be defeated. Zhou Wen sighed at the importance of knowledge.

‘Killed a Mythical Creature, True Blood Demon Dragon. Discovered Dimensional Crystal.’

After the True Blood Demon Dragons were killed, notices kept coming in. Finally, a True Blood Demon Dragon dropped a dimensional crystal with 80 Strength. It was very high-level and valuable, but Zhou Wen couldn’t use it now.

There are only two black dragons left! Zhou Wen was still looking forward to having a black dragon Companion Egg drop.

However, even when the last black dragon was penetrated by Demonic Neonate’s sword, it failed to drop a Companion Egg. Instead, another dimensional crystal dropped, an Essence Energy Skill Crystal.

Zhou Wen picked up the Essence Energy Skill Crystal and realized that the stat requirement was 41 Strength and 21 Fire stat. It was different from the True Blood Demon Dragon Crystal he had previously obtained.

With his Strength and Fire stat lacking, Zhou Wen had no choice but to give it up.

Zhou Wen was already used to it, so he didn’t feel the pinch. Seeing that his Companion Beasts weren’t injured, he led them towards the war wagon.

Now that the nine black dragons weren’t disturbing him, Zhou Wen wanted to give it a try to see if he could kill the Guardian in the war wagon. This was the hope for Slaughterer Life Soul’s advancement.

After opening the door, Zhou Wen entered with his Companion Beasts and saw the cocoon floating in the void.

He wasn’t in a rush to approach it. Zhou Wen used his Eyes of Penetration to look at the cocoon, hoping to see what the creature inside looked like.

Something strange happened. The white cocoon was clearly right in front of him, but the Light of Penetration seemed to be separated from the white cocoon by a massive distance. No matter how hard he tried, his vision couldn’t reach the white cocoon.

Zhou Wen immediately recalled that he had encountered the same situation when he first entered. Back then, he had wanted to pierce through the white cocoon to extract the blood, but he couldn’t touch the white cocoon no matter what. It was only because of the characteristics of the Overlord Sword that he could tear through space and touch the white cocoon in the void.

Light of Penetration clearly didn’t have such characteristics, so it was impossible to reach the white cocoon.

Since we are going to fight, there’s no point in watching. Zhou Wen summoned the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed out a sword beam that tore through the void and headed straight for the white cocoon.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 740 - Six Fingers

Chapter 740: Six Fingers

With the augmentation of Ever-Victorious and Unstoppable, the golden sword beam tore through the white cocoon's shell.

As the cocoon cracked, Zhou Wen saw a palm extend out of the white cocoon.

It was a man's palm with long and powerful fingers. Zhou Wen could clearly see that there were six fingers on the palm, but the layout of the six fingers didn't seem out of place. It was about the same as a normal palm.

There was a different ring on each of the six fingers. The design and material seemed to be different. As he could only see the palm, he didn't know what the rings looked like from the front.

Just as the Golden Sword Aura was about to strike the palm, an invisible fluctuation seemed to ripple from one of the rings.

Wherever the fluctuations passed, time and space seemed to freeze. Countless dust fragments froze as the Golden Sword Aura stopped in front of his palm.

Although the Golden Sword Aura was less than an inch away from the palm, it was unable to advance any further.

It wasn't just the Golden Sword Aura. Zhou Wen's pets were affected by the fluctuations. Although they tried to resist the fluctuations, it was to no avail.

Apart from Tyrant Behemoth being able to move thanks to Absolute Strength, most of the Companion Beasts were in a frozen state.

Companion Beasts at Torch Dragon and Truth Listener's level found it difficult to move amidst the fluctuations.

The blood-colored avatar was also immobilized. Zhou Wen felt that the blood-colored avatar's bodily functions had stopped circulating. Its Essence Energy seemed to freeze as it was completely unable to move according to commands.

Tyrant Behemoth roared as it charged at the white cocoon and threw a punch at the palm with six fingers.

The frozen dust and Golden Sword Aura were shattered by Tyrant Behemoth's fist. Just as Tyrant Behemoth was about to strike the palm, another ring on the palm flickered.

Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth punched Torch Dragon's body and immediately sent Torch Dragon's huge body flying. It caused blood to spray out of Torch Dragon's body.

Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised. Tyrant Behemoth had clearly struck the white cocoon, but for some reason, its fist struck Torch Dragon's body. It looked like a spatial dislocation skill.

From the looks of it, the guardian in the white cocoon has spatial skills, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

Tyrant Behemoth continued its violent attacks, but every time its fists struck the white cocoon, it would strangely strike a companion. After a few punches, the palm in the white cocoon didn’t suffer any damage. Instead, Zhou Wen’s Companion Beasts were beaten up by Tyrant Behemoth.

After watching for a while, Zhou Wen was certain that the Guardian was definitely a spatial expert.

Once Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength timer ran out, it was immobilized by the spatial fluctuations.

At that moment, a void that resembled a black hole appeared in the palm of the palm. It sucked in the Companion Beasts and the blood-colored avatar before the game screen went black.

A Guardian with spatial attributes has abilities like spatial solidification, spatial fold, and black hole. Tyrant Behemoth can fight it while using Absolute Strength… Zhou Wen organized the clues he knew, hoping to find a way to counter it.

I wonder if Lost Country’s spatial powers will be of some use. After some thought, Zhou Wen realized that unless Torch Dragon used Bright Torch Vision World from the beginning, it would be very difficult to kill the Guardian.

Why are Guardians so strong? Are there no weak Guardians that can allow me to kill for the advancement of my Life Souls? Zhou Wen waited for some time. After all his cooldowns were over, he dripped his blood to respawn and enter the game again.

The nine black dragons in the underground sea had yet to respawn. The war wagon was still parked at the bottom of the sea, but the door had been closed. Zhou Wen didn’t summon any other pets other than Explosive Fiend Man.

Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength couldn’t be used yet. Therefore, Zhou Wen didn’t think of killing the Guardian this time. He just wanted to see if his Godfiend Era was useful when fighting the Guardian.

Zhou Wen got Explosive Fiend Man to plant time bombs all over the war wagon one after another. After more than an hour, the war wagon was covered with time bombs.

Under Zhou Wen’s orders, the huge war wagon exploded like an atomic bomb. It formed a terrifying shockwave at the bottom of the sea, producing a huge jellyfish-like cavity.

Zhou Wen had severely underestimated the might of the explosion. He had already retreated to a hundred meters away, but he still died from the blast. The game screen went black.

Is the war wagon’s energy so massive? Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised.

When he arrived in front of the war wagon again, it had already recovered to its original state. Zhou Wen began getting Explosive Fiend Man to plant time bombs around the entire wagon.

This time, Zhou Wen had experience. He retreated far away and watched from a distant bank.

With a command, Explosive Fiend Man ignited all the time bombs. Zhou Wen, who was standing by the bank, saw the waves churning before they stirred up a tsunami-like wave.

Ignoring the winds and shock waves, Zhou Wen immediately dived into the sea. However, when he saw the war wagon, he was slightly taken aback. Such a terrifying explosion had failed to blast through it. The war wagon’s outer shell was damaged, but it was undergoing automatic self-repair. It didn’t take long for it to recover to its original state.

Seeing that it was impossible to blast the war wagon and the Guardian inside to death, Zhou Wen had no choice but to open the door and rush in.

This time, Zhou Wen used the Godfiend Era Essence Energy Art. The Lost Country ring appeared on his finger before he slashed at the white cocoon.

After the white cocoon was sliced apart, the palm appeared again. The spatial fluctuations caused everything around it to fall silent again. The blood-colored avatar’s body was no exception.

However, it was somewhat different this time. Although the blood-colored avatar couldn’t move, the Godfiend Era’s Essence Energy Art continued flowing. This meant that Zhou Wen could still use Essence Energy Skills and other abilities.

Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen used Lost Country’s spatial teleportation ability and teleported into the white cocoon. He wanted to see what the Guardian inside the white cocoon looked like.

However, when Zhou Wen teleported, he realized that he wasn’t able to teleport into the white cocoon as he wished. Instead, he appeared in front of the palm.

What awaited him was a black hole that had already opened in the palm. In the next second, the game screen went black again.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and understood what was going on. The other party was a spatial expert, and his Lost Country was only a Primordial Life Soul. The difference in level was too great. It was already pretty good that he hadn’t been sent into the black hole when he used spatial teleportation.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 741 - Duel

Chapter 741: Duel

However, Zhou Wen wasn’t discouraged. Instead, he felt that this might be an opportunity.

With this Guardian around, it was equivalent to having another spatial expert as a sparring partner. Perhaps there was a chance to improve Lost Country.

Zhou Wen dripped his blood to revive and once again entered the game to challenge the Guardian. He naturally suffered a crushing defeat, but Zhou Wen also sensed the influence the other party’s spatial powers had on him.

Through watching and personally experiencing the various spatial-type skills of the Guardian, Zhou Wen gained a lot more insight into spatial-type skills. No matter how much he had studied in the past, it was only theoretical knowledge. It was very rare to have such an opportunity to experience it.

…

While Zhou Wen was repeatedly dying from gaming, Xia Liuchuan came to the East Courtyard again and mentioned the battle he had scheduled with Zhou Wen on the peak of Forbidden City.

“You should know that Forbidden City is a forbidden zone of our Xia family. Outsiders are not allowed to enter,” said Old Master Xia.

“I know, but I also wish to fight him there.” Xia Liuchuan didn’t explain much.

“In that case, so be it. However, defeat is not an option. No matter what, Zhou Wen can’t leave Forbidden City again,” said Old Master Xia indifferently.

Xia Liuchuan didn’t say anything and just bowed slightly.

“Let’s set it to be in four days. There are still problems in Forbidden City that need handling. You should head back and prepare for now,” Old Master Xia said.

…

Zhou Wen was grinding when he suddenly heard his phone ring. It was none other than Wang Lu.

“You really agreed to battle Xia Liuchuan?” Zhou Wen heard Wang Lu’s voice the moment he picked up the phone.

“Yes,” Zhou Wen replied.

“To battle a Xia family member in the Imperial Capital, and in the Forbidden City which they control? Are you ignoring what Grandma said to you?” Wang Lu said anxiously.

“Don’t worry. I have my own plans. Nothing will go wrong… Alright, let’s just end it here. I have a call coming in. I’ll answer it first…” Zhou Wen picked up the other call as he spoke. It was from Ouyang Lan.

“Little Wen, did you really agree to a duel with Xia Liuchuan in Forbidden City? Don’t be afraid. If you were forced by the Xia family, I’ll be able to help you,” Ouyang Lan said.

“Sis Lan, the Xia family didn’t force me. I did it willingly. Don’t worry. I can handle it.” Zhou Wen felt touched when he heard Ouyang Lan.

Although they were not related by blood, Ouyang Lan was indeed very concerned about him.

“Little Wen, your father only has you as a son. We won’t be able to have children in the future. You need to think twice before doing everything. Don’t risk your life. Tell me if there are any problems. I’ll help you resolve them.” Ouyang Lan didn’t quite believe Zhou Wen. She remained very worried.

“Sis Lan, there’s really no need for you to worry. It’s not convenient to speak on the phone. However, I have the ability to protect myself. Nothing will go wrong.” Zhou Wen was afraid that his phone was bugged, so he didn’t dare inform Ouyang Lan about his possession of the Invisibility Cloak.

Ouyang Lan pleaded with Zhou Wen a few more times before his phone rang, bringing an end to his phone call with Ouyang Lan.

It was An Sheng. He was clearly aware that Zhou Wen was going to duel with Xia Liuchuan. However, he didn’t persuade Zhou Wen not to fight.

“I’m already on my way to the Imperial Capital. Is there anything I need to do in advance?” An Sheng said simply.

“Don’t come. I’m leaving the Imperial Capital soon,” Zhou Wen hurriedly said.

“I’ll wait for you outside the Imperial Capital,” An Sheng said.

“Don’t do it near the Imperial Capital. Let’s have it somewhere far away.” Zhou Wen knew that he couldn’t stop An Sheng.

“Alright, I’ll think of a way to inform you when the time comes.” An Sheng hung up after saying that.

…

This news quickly spread in the Imperial Capital. Anyone who was in the know felt that Zhou Wen was courting death.

Ignoring the fact that Xia Liuchuan was a rare genius in the Xia family, just the fact that he was dueling someone from the Xia family in their territory made people place their bets against Zhou Wen.

Dugu Ge and Zhang Chunqiu were in the Imperial Capital, so they naturally heard the news.

“This battle will give us a perfect opportunity to see how much strength that Guardian raised Loser has,” Zhang Chunqiu said with a smile.

“It looks like your divination wasn’t accurate at all. You actually let Xia Liuchuan get the Guardian,” said Dugu Ge.

Zhang Chunqiu smiled and said, “Destiny is unpredictable. Don’t take my divinations seriously. I’m just spouting nonsense.”

“Then do some more divinations. Who will win in the duel between Zhou Wen and Loser?” Dugu Ge said.

“Based on my divination, the Xia family will definitely not lose,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

Dugu Ge glanced at Zhang Chunqiu in contempt before returning to his room.

Zhou Wen had already received Xia Liuchuan's notice to fight in Forbidden City in four days. However, only Zhou Wen was allowed to enter.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to contact Wang Lu, hoping to leave the antelope and chick with her.

"You hung up so quickly just now. Why am I in your sights again?" Wang Lu said angrily.

"It was my stepmother. Do you think I could reject her call?" Zhou Wen consoled.

"Zhou Wen, you know about the Xia family. You really shouldn't have agreed to the duel with Xia Liuchuan. Xia Liuchuan might not be famous and his fame might not be comparable to the younger generation's John and Lance, but this person is definitely much more terrifying than Lance. He's someone who has truly survived countless life-and-death situations. He's different from those elites who were brought up in safe environments."

Wang Lu continued, "Although Xia Liuchuan is known as the most profligate scion of the Xia family, his talent and social connection aren't inferior to An Tianzuo's. My grandmother met him when he was six. Back then, Old Master Xia took him to the Ancient Sword Tomb to play. At that time, a Mythical sword happened to appear. Xia Liuchuan, who was only six years old, saw the battle between the Mythical sword and humans and actually comprehended a Mythical sword technique. His talent in combat is terrifying."

"If he's not strong, it would be meaningless," Zhou Wen said with a smile. He just didn't want Wang Lu to be too worried.

“If it were anywhere else, it wouldn’t be a problem for you to fight Xia Liuchuan. However, that’s Forbidden City. How can you fight Xia Liuchuan there? Even if you defeat him, it will be difficult for you to walk out,” Wang Lu sighed.

“Don’t worry. If I, Zhou Wen, want to leave, no one in the Federation can stop me,” Zhou Wen said with certainty.

Wang Lu knew that it was too late to say anything now. Zhou Wen had already accepted the challenge, so it was too late for regrets.

Four days quickly passed. The Xia family took the initiative to send a car to pick Zhou Wen up, but Zhou Wen rejected them. He carried the wooden log and walked towards Forbidden City.

It wasn’t that he didn’t want to take the car, but the car couldn’t fit the log.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 742 - Pure Hook Evil-Slaying

Chapter 742: Pure Hook Evil-Slaying

Zhou Wen arrived in front of Forbidden City's city gates and saw many people gathered outside. They were all here to watch the battle, but because the city gates were sealed, no one could enter.

The Meridian Gate was tightly shut with people from the Xia family standing guard outside. Forbidden City had four city gates, but usually, only Meridian Gate could be opened. The other three city gates needed a certain opportunity for their opening, so the only way to enter and exit Forbidden City was through the Meridian Gate.

"Zhou Wen, Young Master Xia is already waiting for you in the city. Please enter," a Xia family guard said to Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen was about to walk in with the log when he was stopped by the guard.

"People can enter, but things have to be left outside," the guard said as he pointed at the log on Zhou Wen's shoulder.

"Does your Xia family have to take away their opponent's weapons before a battle?" Zhou Wen said indifferently.

The moment Zhou Wen said that, the onlookers roared with laughter. Although they didn't believe that Zhou Wen really used such a huge club as a weapon, it didn't stop them from feeling contempt towards the Xia family's high-handedness.

“Let him in,” a middle-aged man on top of the city gates said to the guard.

Only then did the guard let Zhou Wen enter the city with the log.

“Old Master, is it really a good idea to let him in like this? If there’s really something wrong with the log as Liuchuan said, wouldn’t it be very disadvantageous for him?” the middle-aged man said to Old Master Xia, who was sitting at the top of the city gate to watch the battle.

“It’s fine. This is Forbidden City. Even if Leng Zongzheng is hidden in that log, he won’t be able to escape unscathed today,” Old Master Xia said calmly.

…

On a tall building in the distance of Forbidden City, Shen Yuchi was looking at the situation around Meridian Gate with his binoculars.

He couldn’t enter Forbidden City; he probably wouldn’t be able to see anything even if he went to the Meridian Gate.

“Siyuan, what’s your take regarding this battle’s outcome?” Shen Yuchi asked Qiao Siyuan when he saw Zhou Wen enter the Meridian Gate.

“I believe regardless of the outcome today, it will be very difficult for Zhou Wen to walk out of Forbidden City,” Qiao Siyuan replied.

Shen Yuchi didn’t comment as he continued using his binoculars to observe the situation inside Forbidden City.

However, there was a mysterious interference from Forbidden City. They could only see the area above the buildings, but not the actual situation inside.

…

Zhou Wen walked through the Meridian Gate and saw five white compounds leading to the Gate of Supreme Harmony. Xia Liuchuan was standing in front of it.

Passing through the Gate of Supreme Harmony was the Hall of Supreme Harmony. However, it was unknown if the layout of the city had changed after the dimensional storms.

Zhou Wen looked around but didn’t see any dimensional creatures.

“There’s no need to look around. There are no dimensional creatures in Forbidden City. You can fight me with all your might without worry,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“That’s great. However, since it’s the final battle at the peak of Forbidden City, let’s fight at a higher spot. I think it’s quite high there. Why don’t we head there?” Zhou Wen said as he pointed in the direction of a Corner Tower.

“There’s no need to go through so much trouble,” Xia Liuchuan said as a sword appeared in his hand. “This sword’s name is Ancient Pure Hook. It’s a Mythical Companion Beast. I believe you also have a Mythical Companion Beast, so I won’t hide it.”

With that said, Xia Liuchuan thrust his sword at Zhou Wen. He was a straightforward person who fought without any hesitation.

The sword beam was like snow. His body and sword seemed to instantly appear in front of Zhou Wen at an unbelievable speed.

Although Zhou Wen was proficient in movement techniques, it was impossible for him to dodge such a fast sword while carrying such a heavy log. Therefore, he could only draw his saber to fend off the attack.

Clang!

The saber and sword collided. Zhou Wen’s body remained motionless, but Xia Liuchuan was forced to take a few steps back.

It wasn’t that Zhou Wen’s strength was stronger than Xia Liuchuan’s, but that the log he was carrying was too heavy. It pressed down on his body, stopping him from retreating.

Although Xia Liuchuan retreated, he didn’t lose his balance. He tapped the ground with his toe and thrust his sword forward again. His sword technique was swift and fierce like a ghost.

Zhou Wen’s saber techniques weren’t slow either. He held the log with one hand and brandished his saber with the other. The saber and sword constantly clashed, and Zhou Wen advanced step by step, gradually approaching the Gate of Supreme Harmony.

Zhou Wen wanted to try his luck at the Hall of Supreme Harmony. After all, it was the most honorable place in the city. It was most likely the peak of Forbidden City.

Furthermore, there was only one Hall of Supreme Harmony, but there were four Corner Towers. If the Hall of Supreme Harmony didn’t work, it wouldn’t be too late for him to consider trying the Corner Towers.

“To be able to master such a mature and steady saber technique at such a young age, this Zhou Wen is indeed extraordinary.” Old Master Xia narrowed his eyes as though he was admiring a treasure.

“Zhou Wen once defeated John who had a contract with the Guardian. His strength is indeed extraordinary. Furthermore, according to our investigations, he definitely has more than two Mythical Companion Beasts,” the middle-aged man said.

“The stronger he is, the better.” Old Master Xia smiled.

Zhou Wen originally hoped to fight all the way to the front of the Hall of Supreme Harmony, but Xia Liuchuan clearly wouldn’t be suppressed by him the entire time.

Xia Liuchuan’s figure suddenly changed as he appeared behind Zhou Wen like a phantom, stabbing at his back.

Zhou Wen was just too slow while carrying the wooden log. He didn’t have the time to turn around, but he didn’t plan on doing so anyway. He swung his saber and blocked Xia Liuchuan’s strike.

“The log on your body is too heavy. Why don’t you put it down so that we can fight?” Xia Liuchuan didn’t continue attacking as he looked at Zhou Wen’s back.

“I’ll naturally put it down when it’s time to put it down,” Zhou Wen turned around and said to Xia Liuchuan.

Xia Liuchuan didn’t say anything else. However, the Pure Hook Sword in his hand emitted a strange glow. It was like a holy sword that made people have the urge to prostrate themselves in worship.

This time, Xia Liuchuan attacked again, but it wasn't that easy to deal with. When the Bamboo Blade and the Pure Hook Sword met, Zhou Wen felt his palm shake as he involuntarily took a few steps back. The Bamboo Blade nearly flew out of his hand.

"The Pure Hook Sword is known as the Exalted Peerless Sword. It can bestow me with power at the Mythical stage," Xia Liuchuan said as he brandished his sword again.

With a thought from Zhou Wen, Doctor Darkness transformed into a soul and attached to him. Zhou Wen brandished his saber to fend him off again. Although he was still sent retreating by the Pure Hook Sword, he wasn't as pathetic as before.

"Just show me what you've got. There's no need to hide it," Zhou Wen said as he held his saber.

"As you wish." Xia Liuchuan waved his left hand and another sword appeared in his hand.

This sword was different from the Pure Hook Sword. It was a small sword that was about sixty centimeters long. It wasn't as beautiful as the Pure Hook Sword, as though it carried a sense of resentment.

"The sword's name is Evil-Slaying. It's also a Mythical Companion Beast. I've cultivated for so many years, and most of my techniques are delivered through these two swords," Xia Liuchuan said as he glanced at the sword in his hand with a glazed look.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 743

Chapter 743: Sword Warp

Zhou Wen felt that Xia Liuchuan’s aura changed once he had two swords in hand. His expression couldn’t help but turn solemn.

The sword in Xia Liuchuan’s hand finally moved, but his body didn’t move. The Evil-Slaying Sword flew over and stabbed at Zhou Wen in a flash, as though it was about to penetrate his right eye.

Zhou Wen brandished his saber and slashed, sending the Evil-Slaying Sword flying. However, Xia Liuchuan and his Pure Hook Sword arrived in front of Zhou Wen.

The Bamboo Blade had just slashed out, preventing it from being retractable in time. Zhou Wen abruptly crouched and dodged the Pure Hook Sword’s thrust. At the same time, the log smashed down on Xia Liuchuan’s head.

Suddenly, Xia Liuchuan’s figure flashed and vanished in front of Zhou Wen. As for the Pure Hook Sword, it turned from a stab into a slash that was aimed at Zhou Wen’s neck.

Xia Liuchuan arrived beside the Evil-Slaying Sword through some unknown means. He grabbed it with one hand and stabbed it down at Zhou Wen’s back.

Zhou Wen brandished his saber to fend off the Pure Hook Sword, but he no longer had the time to block the Evil-Slaying Sword behind him.

Clang!

A scalpel appeared behind Zhou Wen and blocked the Evil-Slaying Sword's attack as Doctor Darkness separated from Zhou Wen's body.

As for Zhou Wen, he had also switched to the Ancient Sovereign Sutra and fused with the Defy Ancient Sovereign. His body became filled with energy as he used the Demon Dragon True Body, allowing him to gain Mythical combat strength for a short period of time. He forcefully sent the Pure Hook Sword flying.

After sending the Pure Hook Sword flying, Zhou Wen turned around and slashed at Xia Liuchuan. Xia Liuchuan's expression remained unchanged as the Evil-Slaying Sword in his hand continued stabbing at Zhou Wen. It was as though he hadn't seen Doctor Darkness's scalpel or Zhou Wen's Bamboo Blade.

If the two of them continued the trajectories of their thrust, the scalpel and Bamboo Blade would hit Xia Liuchuan while the Evil-Slaying Sword would pierce through Zhou Wen's chest.

Zhou Wen used Bamboo Blade to block the Evil-Slaying Sword, but Xia Liuchuan's figure vanished. He appeared beside the Pure Hook Sword that had been sent flying and grabbed it for another midair slash.

Xia Liuchuan's figure kept moving about as though he was performing a magic trick. He appeared beside the Evil-Slaying Sword one moment and appeared beside the Pure Hook Sword the next moment.

This teleportation wasn't as simple as being fast. It was similar to Lost Country's teleportation, but there were no restrictions on the teleportation.

However, he didn’t have as much freedom as teleportation. It could be seen that Xia Liuchuan could only move between the two swords.

Although that was the case, it was already difficult for Zhou Wen to deal with him. Xia Liuchuan used two swords and constantly moved back and forth like a ghost. It made Zhou Wen feel that it was harder than fighting three Mythical opponents at the same time.

The most uncomfortable thing was that he couldn’t fight Xia Liuchuan because Xia Liuchuan could move to the side of another sword at any time. If he attacked, he wouldn’t be able to injure Xia Liuchuan and would only end up being injured by him.

Zhou Wen and Doctor Darkness joined forces, but they were still suppressed by Xia Liuchuan. They had no chance of charging to the Gate of Supreme Harmony.

If I wasn’t carrying such a huge object, I wouldn’t be at such a disadvantage. Zhou Wen was best at movement techniques. However, the log prevented him from using the movement techniques he was good at. It was extremely uncomfortable fighting.

“Liuchuan’s Sword Warp technique has improved,” the middle-aged man praised.

“Sword Warp requires talent, and it’s easy to learn but difficult to master. Little Chuan likes such techniques, but there’s actually not much need for it. The time spent would be better spent on Guardians,” Old Master Xia said calmly.

Although Old Master Xia didn’t approve of Xia Liuchuan spending all his time on the Sword Warp technique, Zhou Wen was now quite depressed from being suppressed by it.

This Sword Warp technique was like an illusion. Under Xia Liuchuan's usage, it was unpredictable and dazzling.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, Letting this continue wouldn't work. Since I've already entered Forbidden City, there's no need to fight him. I should quickly place the log on the Hall of Supreme Harmony and give it a try.

Without any hesitation, Zhou Wen summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull.

The moment the Great Might Vajra Bull came out, it shook the bell on its neck. Once the Soul Suppression Bell rang, Xia Liuchuan immediately felt dizzy. The two swords fell from the sky with him.

Zhou Wen took this opportunity to get Doctor Darkness to possess him again as he charged in the direction of the Gate of Supreme Harmony.

However, after running a few steps, a sword beam flashed. Zhou Wen tilted his head and saw the Evil-Slaying Sword fly past his ear. Xia Liuchuan instantly moved to the side of the Evil-Slaying Sword and slashed at Zhou Wen's face with it.

Zhou Wen swiped up his saber and clashed with Xia Liuchuan's Evil-Slaying Sword several times. Xia Liuchuan's sword techniques were unpredictable, so Zhou Wen wasn't able to gain any advantage.

The Great Might Vajra Bull turned around to help Zhou Wen, but the moment it turned around, Xia Liuchuan appeared behind the Great Might Vajra Bull like a phantom. He held the Pure Hook Sword and stabbed the Great Might Vajra Bull's buttocks.

“Moo!” The Great Might Vajra Bull’s pupils constricted as it raised its hind legs and kicked Xia Liuchuan.

In response, Xia Liuchuan waved his hand and threw the Pure Hook Sword at Zhou Wen. At the same time, he warped to the side of the Evil-Slaying Sword and continued fighting Zhou Wen with it. The entire process was like a magic show. If not for the Great Might Vajra Bull’s powerful physique, any ordinary person would have been killed by Xia Liuchuan.

As Zhou Wen blocked the Evil-Slaying Sword, he summoned the Golden Overlord Sword. However, he didn’t have any spare hands to use it. All he could do was let the Golden Overlord Sword attack autonomously in its original form.

The Great Might Vajra Bull used its Life Soul and transformed into the thousand-handed, bull-headed state. Golden light shot out from its palm as it attempted to kill Xia Liuchuan.

However, Xia Liuchuan was one with his two swords. He constantly teleported and fought, making it seem harder to fight him than simultaneously fighting three people. Zhou Wen, together with the Great Might Vajra Bull and the Golden Overlord Sword, failed to gain the upper hand.

What swordplay do you practice? Why aren’t you a magician? Zhou Wen was somewhat depressed. He originally didn’t want to be too ostentatious, but now that he couldn’t escape Xia Liuchuan, he had no choice but to think of other solutions.

Should I let Tyrant Behemoth fight? Zhou Wen considered Tyrant Behemoth. It had already appeared on the rankings, so exposing it didn’t matter much.

Carrying such a heavy piece of wood, Zhou Wen really couldn’t escape Xia Liuchuan. Without any hesitation, he summoned Tyrant Behemoth.

Boom!

Tyrant Behemoth landed on the ground out of thin air, causing the ground to tremble.

“Tyrant Behemoth? It’s actually Zhou Wen’s Companion Beast?” Old Master Xia and the middle-aged man revealed looks of surprise.

Many people were investigating the identity of Tyrant Behemoth’s owner. Most people believed that Tyrant Behemoth was a Companion Beast of an expert in the West District, but they never expected it to be in Zhou Wen’s hands.

Outside Forbidden City, there was someone who was even more surprised than Old Master Xia and company. It was Zhang Chunqiu. Zhang Chunqiu had used his Heavenly Eye to see Tyrant Behemoth in Forbidden City. Furthermore, he knew very well that the Tyrant Behemoth Companion Egg had originally belonged to the Zhang family, but it had been smuggled out by a traitor.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 744

Chapter 744: Myriad Sword Formation

After Tyrant Behemoth appeared, it directly activated Absolute Strength. Space distorted as the Pure Hook and Evil-Slaying swords were attracted towards Tyrant Behemoth.

Although Xia Liuchuan had tried his best to escape this situation, Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength was just too powerful. He couldn’t escape the two Mythical swords as he flew towards Tyrant Behemoth with his sword.

Zhou Wen didn’t stop as he ran towards the Gate of Supreme Harmony without waiting for the outcome.

Zhou Wen couldn’t run fast while carrying the wooden log. Before he reached the Gate of Supreme Harmony, he suddenly heard a terrifying sound. The shock wave broke through the sound barrier and produced a terrifying sonic boom.

Zhou Wen turned his head and saw Xia Liuchuan levitating in midair. He was wearing a strange black armor that resembled some kind of black jade. It also emitted a mysterious black light.

Xia Liuchuan held Pure Hook and Evil-Slaying with both hands as he crossed them in front of him, blocking Tyrant Behemoth’s punch. He wasn’t sent flying.

That’s... Guardian... Zhou Wen could tell that the armor was somewhat odd. Its aura didn’t seem like a Companion Beast but resembled more of a Guardian.

Furthermore, Xia Liuchuan was able to withstand Tyrant Behemoth in its Absolute Strength state. This wasn't something an ordinary Companion Beast armor could do.

Xia Liuchuan wasn't at a disadvantage when fighting Tyrant Behemoth. The two swords in his hands criss-crossed as he fought Tyrant Behemoth.

When Zhou Wen saw that Xia Liuchuan didn't have the upper hand, he immediately continued running towards the Gate of Supreme Harmony. He had to first escape the log. Otherwise, even if the Guardian was in front of him, he wouldn't be able to kill the Guardian while carrying it.

Zhou Wen rushed past the Gate of Supreme Harmony and couldn't help but stop. This was because after passing the gates, there were many people standing in the open space. There were probably more than ten thousand of them.

The ten thousand people stood in a square formation on the empty ground. Each of them held a sword in their hands, but no one spoke. They were silent.

Upon seeing Zhou Wen walk over, the eyes of the ten thousand people looked at him in unison.

In front of the square formation stood a woman in black. She was none other than the Xia Xuanyue whom Zhou Wen knew.

"Zhou Wen, why are you here instead of dueling Xia Liuchuan?" Xia Xuanyue asked Zhou Wen.

"Ahem, I'm just taking a stroll. It's rare to come to the legendary Forbidden City. I want to see the legendary Hall of Supreme Harmony,” Zhou Wen said with a light cough.

“It’s best you go back and fight. Forbidden City isn’t a place outsiders can enter as they wish,” Xia Xuanyue said.

“Since I’m already here, let me take a look.” Zhou Wen naturally wasn’t willing to retreat. Although the Xia family was already wary of him, he had to make an attempt on the Hall of Supreme Harmony regardless.

Just as Zhou Wen took two steps forward, Xia Xuanyue raised the ancient sword in her hand. The ten thousand people raised the sword in their hands at the same time. In an instant, countless sword beams surged into the sky and condensed towards the ancient sword in Xia Xuanyue’s hand.

With the augmentation of more than ten thousand ancient swords, the sword beam produced by the ancient sword in Xia Xuanyue’s hand was already terrifying beyond imagination. Even the Golden Overlord Sword paled in comparison.

Zhou Wen could roughly tell that the ancient sword in Xia Xuanyue’s hand was similar to the Golden Harp. They could gather some kind of power.

The difference was that the Golden Harp allowed sound waves to resonate, while the ancient sword in Xia Xuanyue’s hand could condense the sword beams of other sword-type Companion Beasts.

Every sword in the sword formation of more than ten thousand people was probably an Epic Companion Beast. With the augmentation of more than ten thousand sword beams, and the fact that the ancient sword might be at the Mythical stage, the might of the sword was probably not inferior to a top-notch Mythical creature.

“Zhou Wen, you should return to fight Xia Liuchuan,” Xia Xuanyue said to Zhou Wen.

“What if I insist on touring Forbidden City?” Zhou Wen walked towards the sword formation.

Xia Xuanyue slashed with her sword as a terrifying sword beam slashed down like a heavenly river. It was difficult for Zhou Wen to dodge, so he could only use the Golden Overlord Sword’s Golden Sword Aura to meet it.

The Golden Sword Aura was indestructible. In the beginning, it had indeed sliced through the sword beam that resembled a heavenly river, but the sword beam seemed to pour down endlessly. Soon, it drowned the Golden Sword Aura.

Xia Xuanyue didn’t really slash down. She retracted the ancient sword in her hand and the sword beam circled back like a dragon before returning to the sword formation.

“Please return,” Xia Xuanyue said expressionlessly.

With a thought, Zhou Wen turned around and left the Gate of Supreme Harmony. The ten-thousand sword formation was just too powerful. It would probably take quite some time to storm through it. Zhou Wen planned on heading to the unguarded building to give it a try to prevent any delays.

When Xia Liuchuan saw Zhou Wen come out, he had no intention of attacking him. He continued fighting Tyrant Behemoth.

When Tyrant Behemoth used Absolute Strength, it could only fight Xia Liuchuan to a draw. Once Absolute Strength ran out, it probably wouldn’t be Xia Liuchuan’s match.

Zhou Wen rushed to the Corner Tower and, when he arrived in front of it, he leaped up and jumped onto the city wall before jumping to the top of the Corner Tower.

It wasn’t that he didn’t want to complete the jump in one try, but the log was too heavy. He couldn’t do it with a single jump.

Zhou Wen erected the log at the top of the Corner Tower and realized that there was no reaction. He tried to release the log and the word “slave” immediately appeared on his forehead.

It’s not here? Zhou Wen was somewhat disappointed as he carried the log down Corner Tower. He knew that this time, he could only attempt the Myriad Sword Formation led by Xia Xuanyue.

It was highly likely that the peak of Forbidden City was the top of the Hall of Supreme Harmony.

After this ordeal, Absolute Strength didn’t have much time left. There were probably only about ten minutes left.

Xia Liuchuan clearly wanted to defeat Tyrant Behemoth first, so he wasn’t in a rush to chase after Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen passed through the door again and could already see the Hall of Supreme Harmony in front of him. However, with the Myriad Sword Formation obstructing him, it was impossible to gain passage without destroying it.

The ten-thousand sword formation’s might is too powerful. Among my Companion Beasts, probably only Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World can match it. If Truth Listener breaks two earrings, it might be able to put up a fight, but it’s not convenient for either of them to be exposed… Zhou Wen thought of something as his eyes suddenly lit up.

“Zhou Wen, why are you back?” Xia Xuanyue asked with a frown when she saw Zhou Wen running over.

“Xia Liuchuan isn’t my match. There’s no point in fighting him. I still want to visit the Hall of Supreme Harmony,” Zhou Wen said as he walked towards Xia Xuanyue.

Xia Xuanyue raised her sword again without any hesitation. The sword formation regenerated as a terrifying sword beam emitted a terrifying might. From afar, it made one’s scalp tingle.

With a thought, Zhou Wen summoned a Companion Beast.

This Companion Beast wasn’t Torch Dragon or Truth Listener, nor was it Demonic Neonate. Instead, it was a beautiful girl. She was unbelievably beautiful. She had long hair that made all women envious, and her eyes were extremely charming. It was as though a single glance would entrance one, preventing them from moving their eyes away.

The Xia family disciples in the Myriad Sword Formation couldn’t help but look at the beautiful girl.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 745 - Eyes of Enticement

Chapter 745: Eyes of Enticement

Previously, Medusa had caused a stir on the Peninsula of Gods, letting the entire Federation know of her existence.

However, all the videos that people saw were of Medusa—the snake-haired demoness. Not many had seen her maiden form.

Furthermore, ever since Medusa had been killed, no new Medusa had passed through the spatial rift to enter the Curse Demon Palace.

Therefore, the Xia family members didn’t recognize the maiden Medusa. If they knew her, they definitely wouldn’t dare to look at her or her eyes.

Unlike the snake-haired demoness, Medusa did not have the ability to petrify others. Her Eyes of Enticement needed others to see her eyes before they could be of use.

At this moment, more than ten thousand Xia family disciples saw Medusa’s eyes. Immediately, their bodies petrified as they turned pale with fright.

Xia Xuanyue’s expression changed drastically as she immediately realized the problem. She closed her eyes and slashed at Medusa.

However, because many owners of Epic swords had seen Medusa’s eyes, their bodies slowly petrified. They were unable to circulate their Essence Energy, nor could they use the Epic swords in their hands to cooperate with Xia Xuanyue. This greatly reduced the might of Xia Xuanyue's sword beam.

Zhou Wen held the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed out a sword beam to clash with Xia Xuanyue's sword beam.

The ancient sword in Xia Xuanyue's hand was also transformed from a Mythical Companion Beast. It wasn't inferior to the Golden Overlord Sword, but the stats of the Golden Overlord Sword were too domineering. When the sword beams collided, the ancient sword beam shattered due to the loss of the Myriad Sword Formation's augmentation. The Golden Overlord Sword's sword beam continued slashing at Xia Xuanyue.

Xia Xuanyue closed her eyes and shifted her body, dodging the Golden Sword Aura. At the same time, she brandished her sword and attacked Zhou Wen. Her movement technique was the Path to Snatching Heaven that Zhou Wen had seen before.

Back then, Zhou Wen had fought Xia Xuanyue, giving him the chance to advance the Transcendent Flying Immortal to the divine level. In that battle, Xia Xuanyue had also comprehended the profundity of the Path to Snatching Heaven, allowing it to advance to the divine level as well.

Now, Xia Xuanyue's Path to Snatching Heaven had become more mature, giving her the boldness to snatch a path from heaven Just her movement technique alone gave others a huge sense of oppression.

As Zhou Wen was carrying the log, he was unable to use Transcendent Flying Immortal to compete with Xia Xuanyue's Path to Snatching Heaven. The Golden Overlord Sword was a little clumsy and wasn't suitable for fighting Xia Xuanyue. Zhou Wen threw the Golden Overlord Sword out and allowed it to attack autonomously. He drew his Bamboo Blade and clashed with Xia Xuanyue’s sword.

Medusa retreated to the side under Zhou Wen’s control. Her combat strength was very weak, so he was afraid that Xia Xuanyue’s sword beam could kill her. It wasn’t suitable for her to participate in the battle.

However, Zhou Wen couldn’t summon her back. This was because the Eyes of Enticement couldn’t permanently petrify people. It required them to see her to remain petrified.

If Zhou Wen were to unsummon her, those people would shortly recover from their petrified states.

Although they were both petrification skills, Medusa’s skill was Eyes of Enticement. Its nature was different from the Eyes of Petrification.

Previously, when Zhou Wen had fought Medusa, Truth Listener’s Evil Nullification could restrain the snake-haired demoness’s Eyes of Petrification, but it couldn’t restrain the Eyes of Enticement. This was because the two had different attributes.

Xia Xuanyue thought that Zhou Wen had killed the ten thousand swordsmen. She was filled with grief as she no longer held back with the ancient sword in her hand. Together with the Path to Snatching Heaven, she slashed at Zhou Wen again and again.

…

“Although my Xia family is big, among the younger generation, only Liuchuan and Little Yue are promising talents. To be able to cultivate the Path to Snatching Heaven to such a level, I'm afraid even Liuchuan couldn't do it at her age, right?" On the city gates, the middle-aged man sighed.

A strange look flashed across Old Master Xia's eyes and he said calmly, "Little Yue is very talented, but it's a pity that she's a girl and can't inherit the Xia family's business."

The middle-aged man said, "However, our Xia family can be considered extremely lucky since Little Yue can support Liuchuan in the future."

…

Zhang Chunqiu was also paying attention to the battle in Forbidden City. When he saw Xia Xuanyue's movement technique, he couldn't help but praise, "Excellent movement technique. Dugu, your movement technique isn't much better, right?"

"Her movement technique isn't inferior to mine." Dugu Ge nodded.

Dugu Ge couldn't see the situation inside Forbidden City, but when Zhou Wen entered the city, he had already secretly released some Gu worms to sneak in. Using the information transmitted by the Gu worms, he was also aware of the situation inside.

…

Shen Yuchi and the others from the bureau had been using their binoculars to observe the situation inside the city. However, there was a mysterious force inside the city that prevented ordinary binoculars from seeing anything. They could only occasionally see terrifying sword beams shoot out, but nothing else.

…

Zhou Wen was rather familiar with the Path to Snatching Heaven. Although he couldn’t dodge, the Bamboo Blade in his hand blocked Xia Xuanyue’s sword again and again. As he fought, he retreated in the direction of the Hall of Supreme Harmony.

“This Zhou Wen is really impressive. He can actually withstand such an amazing movement technique and sword technique despite carrying such a heavy piece of wood,” praised Dugu Ge.

“Don’t you think that Zhou Wen seems to know Xia Xuanyue’s movement technique very well? It looks like he can predict the future,” Zhang Chunqiu said with narrowed eyes.

“Is it a special ability? I heard that there’s a girl in the Ultimate Family Clan who has the Eye of Odin and can see through everything,” Dugu Ge mused and said.

“No, I think it’s more like Zhou Wen knows Xia Xuanyue’s movement technique very well,” Zhang Chunqiu said.

“Are you saying that Zhou Wen and Xia Xuanyue have something between them?” Dugu Ge said straightforwardly. He wasn’t like Zhang Chunqiu who spoke half-truths.

“I only know that Zhou Wen definitely knows Xia Xuanyue’s movement technique very well. I don’t know if there’s anything between them,” Zhang Chunqiu said with a shrug.

…

Up on the city gates, Old Master Xia and the middle-aged man also frowned. Clearly, they shared the same thoughts as Zhang Chunqiu. Xia Xuanyue's amazing Path to Snatching Heaven was actually blocked by Zhou Wen's saber. It was as though he had predicted the future. This was definitely not something that could be explained by just having powerful saber techniques.

"Little Yue once represented our Xia family to be the witness for Zhou Wen's battle in Luoyang. Perhaps she crossed paths with him back then. Perhaps she fought Zhou Wen before and not because she deliberately leaked the Path to Snatching Heaven," the middle-aged man said.

"Zhou Wen's understanding of the Path to Snatching Heaven isn't as simple as exchanging blows," Old Master Xia said indifferently. "Ah Cheng, go and settle this matter."

"What about Liuchuan…" The middle-aged man, Ah Cheng, was somewhat hesitant.

"I've given him too much time," Old Master Xia said expressionlessly.

"I know what to do." Ah Cheng bowed slightly before jumping down the city gates and walking towards the Gate of Supreme Harmony.

When Xia Liuchuan, who was fighting Tyrant Behemoth, saw Ah Cheng coming down, his expression changed slightly.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 746 - Great Array

Chapter 746: Great Array

“Uncle Cheng, I can handle it myself. You don’t have to do anything,” Xia Liuchuan said.

“Sorry, Old Master can’t wait any longer.” As Ah Cheng spoke, he continued walking towards the Gate of Supreme Harmony. Soon, he passed through it and saw Zhou Wen fighting Xia Xuanyue.

“Little Yue, you can stand down. Leave this to me,” said Ah Cheng.

“Uncle Cheng, I can handle it myself,” Xia Xuanyue replied.

“This is Old Master’s order,” Ah Cheng said.

When Xia Xuanyue heard the words “Old Master,” she had no choice but to back out from the battle and go to Ah Cheng’s side.

Ah Cheng extended his hand and a strange yellow talisman appeared. The moment it appeared, golden runes lit up on the ground in front of the Hall of Supreme Harmony. It blanketed the huge space in golden light instantly.

Zhou Wen immediately felt as though he had fallen into a huge vortex. The Essence Energy in his body was sucked out before rapidly flowing into the vortex.

It wasn’t just Zhou Wen himself. Even the Companion Beasts he summoned suffered the same fate. The Golden Overlord Sword and Medusa were rapidly drained of their Essence Energy.

The petrified Xia family disciples and their Epic Companion Beast swords didn’t receive any special care.

Zhou Wen hurriedly retracted Medusa and the Golden Overlord Sword. At the same time, he switched his Essence Energy Art to the Dao Sutra. The Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder also appeared in his consciousness.

Such an array formation was similar to the Explosive Fiend Man’s time bomb. It needed to be prepared ahead of time. Clearly, the Xia family was very careful and had prepared everything. Even if Xia Liuchuan couldn’t win, they could still kill Zhou Wen.

With the appearance of the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder, Zhou Wen immediately felt the Essence Energy in his body stop leaking. With a thought, he retracted Tyrant Behemoth who was fighting Xia Liuchuan.

Tyrant Behemoth’s Absolute Strength was almost up. There was no need to continue fighting.

“We agreed on a duel. Isn’t your Xia family being too shameless?” Zhou Wen pretended to be alarmed as he struggled to retreat.

Ah Cheng said indifferently, “You were the one who didn’t duel. How can you blame our Xia family for not honoring our promise?”

“Alright, count yourselves lucky. I’ll admit defeat, alright? Stop your array formation,” Zhou Wen shouted as he retreated. He was already very close to the Hall of Supreme Harmony—less than fifty meters away. Any closer and he would be able to jump onto the top of the Hall of Supreme Harmony.

Unfortunately, Zhou Wen didn't know if the Hall of Supreme Harmony was the peak of Forbidden City or if it could help him escape the log.

"It's already too late," Ah Cheng said.

"It's easy for you to want my life. But don't tell me you have zero concern about the lives of the ten thousand Xia family members?" Zhou Wen pointed at the petrified Xia family members.

As Medusa had been unsummoned by Zhou Wen, their petrified bodies were gradually recovering.

Seeing that they weren't dead, Xia Xuanyue couldn't help but heave a sigh of relief. She had thought that Zhou Wen had killed all of them and was extremely furious. Only now did she realize that Zhou Wen hadn't really killed them.

However, just like Zhou Wen, they were trapped in the array. Furthermore, they didn't have the protection of the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder. Their Essence Energy was constantly devoured by the array. Before the petrification on their bodies completely subsided, their Essence Energy was nearly sucked dry.

Xia Liuchuan walked over and said, "Uncle Cheng, stop. If this continues, they will all die."

Ah Cheng shook his head. "Before dealing with Zhou Wen, the array can't be deactivated."

Zhou Wen was still retreating. Having already retreated to the edge of the array, the light barrier formed at the edge of the array blocked his path. The thin layer of golden light was like a metal wall. Zhou Wen tried his best several times, but he failed to slam through it.

Furthermore, as long as Essence Energy struck the barrier, it would immediately be absorbed by the barrier, making its defense even stronger.

Zhou Wen was still fine. His Essence Energy hadn't really been sucked away.

The Xia family's disciples didn't share his prowess. They were nearly drained dry. Some of them had already recovered from the petrification. They rushed to the edge of the array formation, but like Zhou Wen, no matter how hard they tried, they couldn't break through the barrier.

Soon, their Essence Energy was sucked dry. After their Essence Energy was sucked dry, the array didn't let them off. Their essence, vitality, and spirit were extracted after their Essence Energy was drained.

Their bodies aged at a speed visible to the naked eye. They looked extremely terrifying.

Many Xia family members shouted in horror as they struggled to escape the hellish array.

Xia Xuanyue's expression was complicated. She never expected to see such a scene. Furthermore, she was part of the reason why these people ended up like this.

If she hadn't failed to stop Zhou Wen, Ah Cheng wouldn't have taken action—the ten thousands of Xia family members wouldn't have been trapped in the array.

“Uncle Cheng, I’m sorry!” Xia Xuanyue gritted her teeth and suddenly brandished her sword, stabbing the yellow talisman in front of Ah Cheng.

Ah Cheng never expected Xia Xuanyue to unsheathe her sword beside him. He was caught off guard as the yellow talisman was pierced by the sword beam.

As the yellow talisman shattered, the array’s golden light immediately cracked. The light barrier vanished as the golden runes on the ground dimmed.

“Little Yue… You…” Ah Cheng’s expression changed drastically. He wasn’t worried that the array formation would release Zhou Wen after breaking, there was another reason.

Xia Liuchuan was also shocked. He turned to look in the direction of the city gate tower and his body immediately trembled. Old Master Xia, who was sitting on the city gate tower watching the battle, had already disappeared.

When he turned around, he realized that Old Master Xia was already standing in front of the Hall of Supreme Harmony with his hands behind his back.

Zhou Wen was just about to forcefully break through the light barrier when he realized that it had suddenly vanished. Just as he was overjoyed and was about to rush up the Hall of Supreme Harmony, a figure appeared in front of it as though he had teleported. He stood at the end of the stairs and blocked his path.

Zhou Wen took a careful look and saw that the person’s body was majestic. He was about two meters tall and his hair was completely white. He looked like an elder, but his aura was extremely powerful. He didn’t look like an elder at all.

Zhou Wen’s heart palpitated as though he had sensed an extremely dangerous aura. He couldn’t help but feel alarmed.

“Who allowed you to destroy the array without permission?” Old Master Xia didn’t look at Zhou Wen, but his gaze landed on Xia Xuanyue.

“Old Master, Xuanyue didn’t do it on purpose. She just couldn’t bear to see the Xia family’s members die…” Xia Liuchuan hurriedly pulled Xia Xuanyue to kneel down and admit her mistake.

“Is that so?” Old Master Xia glanced expressionlessly at the Xia family members who had been drained of their vitality and had luckily escaped.

Suddenly, Old Master Xia extended his hand and grabbed. Xia Xuanyue’s body seemed to be grabbed by an invisible hand as she was instantly pulled in front of Old Master Xia. He had his hand on her head.

On the ground, the golden runes appeared once again. The array was activated again, trapping everyone inside once more.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 747 - Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Formation

Chapter 747: Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Formation

The first to bear the brunt was the Xia family members. Their Essence Energy was already depleted and they had been enervated of their essence, vitality, and spirit. With the array's sudden suction, their bodies immediately bled as many of them collapsed to the ground.

Apart from Zhou Wen and Old Master Xia who weren't affected, even Xia Xuanyue's Essence Energy began to drain.

"Old Master, please let Xuanyue off. She won't make the same mistake again," Xia Liuchuan pleaded.

Old Master Xia had Xia Xuanyue's head in one hand; yet, she couldn't move at all. Even the Mythical sword in her hand dropped to the ground as her eyes were filled with horror.

Old Master Xia said calmly, "Don't think that you can do whatever you want just because you were born into the Xia family. The world is cold and heartless. Any mistake can lead to the downfall of a family. As the future leader of the Xia family, if you don't even understand this, you have no right to lead the Xia family."

"Please give Xuanyue another chance." Xia Liuchuan slammed his head on the ground.

“Rules are rules. A volcano won’t stop erupting because of your pleas, and time won’t stop flowing because of pity. Rules have no feelings, and they are the most straightforward. It looks like you still don’t understand what kind of cruel world you will face as the future leader of the Xia family.” Old Master Xia didn’t have any intention of letting Xia Xuanyue off—Xia Xuanyue’s Essence Energy was almost drained dry.

Xia Liuchuan’s body trembled as he suddenly looked up. The Evil-Slaying Sword in his hand erupted with extreme strength as he stabbed at the golden light of the array.

“Liuchuan!” Ah Cheng’s expression turned even uglier. He wanted to stop Xia Liuchuan, but it was already too late.

Clang!

The power of the Evil-Slaying Sword and the augmentation of Xia Liuchuan’s protective armor failed to slice through the light barrier.

Xia Liuchuan was alarmed, but in the next second, the Pure Hook Sword in his other hand slashed out as well. The two swords slashed at the array in a frenzy, but it only caused the golden barrier to sway. It failed to slice through it.

Instead, his Essence Energy was absorbed by the array, causing the golden light barrier to become even more terrifying.

Old Master Xia looked at Xia Liuchuan coldly and asked, “Little Chuan, I dote on you the most. Are you going to betray me now?”

“I only hope that you can spare Xuanyue. She’s my sister.” Xia Liuchuan’s swords didn’t stop as he continued slashing at the barrier.

“Seems like I need to reconsider the heir to the Xia family.” A cold glint flashed across Old Master Xia’s eyes as he clenched his fists.

Suddenly, a sword beam slashed over. Old Master Xia raised his hand and grabbed it. The golden sword beam was sucked into his palm and vanished instantly. Instead, the Essence Energy on Old Master Xia’s body became even more majestic.

At the same time, a suction force pulled Xia Xuanyue out. It was Zhou Wen’s Demonic Astral Wheel.

“You people from a large family sure know how to have fun. You can even make it sound so dignified by killing your descendants. You’ve really broadened my horizons today.” Zhou Wen pulled Xia Xuanyue to his side, but she wasn’t in a good state. Her Essence Energy was constantly depleting, and she was almost drained dry.

Zhou Wen summoned the Heaven-Opening Scripture. The scripture floated above his head, emitting an invisible force that blocked the array’s suction force, preventing any Essence Energy in a tiny area around him from being sucked into the array.

“To be able to withstand the power of the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array, your talent and the Essence Energy Art you cultivate, as well as your Life Providence and Life Soul, are indeed extraordinary.” Old Master Xia didn’t mind the sarcasm in Zhou Wen’s words. All he did was stare at the Heaven-Opening Scripture above Zhou Wen’s head and ask, “That’s your Life Soul, right? What’s its name?”

“Why should I tell you, you old sicko?” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

“It’s fine. Even if you don’t tell me, I’ll find out soon,” Old Master Xia said as he spread out his palm. All the Essence Energy in the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array gathered towards his palm.

Instantly, there were tragic cries. Many of the Xia family disciples who were struggling died as they spat out blood. Their bodies were instantly sucked dry as they lost their essence, vitality, and spirit.

As for Old Master Xia, after absorbing so much Essence Energy, his aura became extremely terrifying. The Essence Energy that seeped out of his body seemed to condense into something corporeal as it swayed on his body. The cracked Essence Energy made his skin seem transparent.

Be it Xia Liuchuan and Ah Cheng, who were outside the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array, or Zhou Wen and Xia Xuanyue inside the array, they all felt their blood run cold.

It wasn’t that they had never seen a dead person, but more than ten thousand Epic experts had died tragically. Furthermore, they were members of the Xia family. They had never seen anyone so crazy.

“Old Master… Why are you doing this… This is destroying the Xia family…” Xia Xuanyue really couldn’t understand why Old Master Xia would do this.

There were more than ten thousand Epic experts. Even among the six families, there weren’t many who could gather that number of Epic experts.

Furthermore, they had been nurtured by Old Master Xia himself. Now, he had personally killed them. Xia Xuanyue couldn’t figure out why.

“With me around, the Xia family will never be destroyed. So what if there are more than ten thousand Epic experts? I spent such a huge price to nurture them. They were originally only used as a stepping stone for my advancement to the Mythical stage. Now that their mission has been completed, they have died a worthy death.” The Essence Energy in Old Master Xia’s body was as terrifying as a volcanic eruption. Furthermore, his body seemed to be becoming younger. Even his white hair was gradually turning black.

“Advance to the Mythical stage?” Xia Xuanyue couldn’t comprehend. Was it right to sacrifice so many people just to advance to the Mythical stage? Furthermore, among the ten thousand Epic experts, although most of them didn’t share the Xia surname, many of them were blood-related members of the Xia family.

“If one doesn’t enter the Mythical stage, they will ultimately be mortal. No matter how powerful they are, there will be a day when they die. Only by advancing to the Mythical stage can one break through the shackles of life-like dimensional creatures and become a higher life form… Unfortunately, the human body is too weak. Their talent is too poor. Even someone as talented as me can’t rely on the strength of a single person to advance to the Mythical stage.”

Old Master Xia explained indifferently, “I’ve studied many Essence Energy Arts and combined them with the Great Emperor Sutra passed down in our Xia family. I’ve finally found a path to advance to the Mythical stage. It’s to pile up sand into a tower and refine rocks into gold. I gathered the bloodlines, talents, Life Providences, and Life Souls of many geniuses into one, allowing me to break through the limits of humanity and advance to the Mythical stage. This is the only path I can take now.”

Zhou Wen was dumbfounded when he heard that. He finally knew why the Xia family had secretly attacked so many talented youths. It was all because of Old Master Xia.

Zhou Wen originally imagined that Wang Mingyuan’s advancement to the Mythical stage was already very ruthless, but compared to Old Master Xia’s method, Wang Mingyuan’s advancement was as holy as an angel.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 748

Chapter 748: Old Master Xia

“By killing so many people, what’s the difference between you and a devil-like Jing Daoxian? Aren’t you afraid that the other five Federation families will join forces to attack you?” Zhou Wen asked.

Old Master Xia sneered and said, “You killed these people. What has it got to do with me? I’ll naturally kill you to avenge them. You will also become an important step in my advancement to the Mythical stage.”

With that said, Old Master Xia extended his hand and grabbed at Zhou Wen and Xia Xuanyue. At the same time, he continued, “As a member of the Xia family, you should contribute to the Xia family. Return your bloodline’s talent to me.”

A terrifying suction force was produced as Xia Xuanyue and Zhou Wen involuntarily headed for Old Master Xia.

This was the first time Zhou Wen had seen a human use such terrifying strength. His strength couldn’t withstand the suction force. Together with the Heaven-Opening Scripture, he moved in Old Master Xia’s direction, his feet leaving two marks on the stone slabs on the ground.

Xia Xuanyue had expended too much Essence Energy and was in an even worse state. Her body had already flown up.

Zhou Wen placed the log down with one hand and stabbed it into the ground. He used his other hand to hold Xia Xuanyue back and thanks to the log, they finally stopped.

The enemy of an enemy was a friend. Now, Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue were probably going to completely fall out with Old Master Xia. Perhaps he could use their strength later.

Although Xia Xuanyue no longer had any combat strength, Xia Liuchuan was still outside. Furthermore, he had a Guardian with him. Perhaps he could use his strength to rush out of the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array.

Otherwise, in this array, any Companion Beast's Essence Energy would be drained. The more Companion Beasts summoned, the stronger the augmentation Old Master Xia would receive. He had to rush out first.

"That old sicko has absorbed the Life Providence and Life Souls of countless geniuses. He has also absorbed the Essence Energy and life essence of more than ten thousand Epic experts. His strength is unfathomable. Speaking of which, even a tiger will not eat its cubs; yet, this old sicko wants to devour his descendants. Why doesn't the heavens strike him to death with lightning?" Zhou Wen placed Xia Xuanyue behind the log and got her to hug it. He held the Golden Overlord Sword and slashed out sword beams at the old sicko, hoping to temporarily stop his suction force so that he could rush out of the Heaven and Earth Essence Origin-Returning Array with the log.

However, the Golden Sword Aura that Zhou Wen slashed out was sucked in by the old sicko. Not only did it fail to injure him, but it also became a tonic for him.

"I refuse to believe that you can suck everything." Zhou Wen summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull and made it shake the Soul Suppression Bell.

However, the Soul Suppressing Bell’s chime couldn’t stir Old Master Xia’s soul. It didn’t make him dizzy at all. Instead, as the Great Might Vajra Bull was too big in size, the power of the Heaven-Opening Scripture couldn’t envelop it completely. Its Essence Energy quickly drained as its body moved towards Old Master Xia’s palm.

The Great Might Vajra Bull struggled with all its might, but it was unable to stop itself from sliding towards Old Master Xia. Its four hooves sank into the stone slab, but it didn’t stop its slide towards Old Master Xia, scaring the Great Might Vajra Bull into mooing.

Zhou Wen hurriedly summoned it back and didn’t dare release it again.

“Don’t use Companion Beasts. He has absorbed countless Life Providences and Life Souls. He can absorb any type of Essence Energy for his own use. Companion Beasts are condensed from Essence Energy. The power of any Companion Beast will be of help to him…” Xia Liuchuan warned Zhou Wen loudly from outside.

“How can I rush out without a Companion Beast?” Zhou Wen hurriedly asked.

“Since you insist on dying, come in and join them.” Old Master Xia snorted coldly. Xia Liuchuan had already used his fists to strike the light barrier of the array, but he suddenly felt the area in front of him empty out. He had already fallen into the array.

Old Master Xia used his other hand to grab and suck at Xia Liuchuan. Xia Liuchuan’s body immediately slid towards him.

Xia Liuchuan didn’t retreat. He gritted his teeth and threw a punch at Old Master Xia.

Guardians were lifeforms and not pure energy. They were somewhat different from Companion Beasts. The Guardian’s strength should be able to be of some use against Old Master Xia.

Boom!

Old Master Xia’s palm collided with Xia Liuchuan’s fist and was forced back a few steps. The suction force immediately vanished.

“I’ll hold him back. Take Xuanyue and leave.” Xia Liuchuan threw another punch at Old Master Xia and shouted.

“Brother, I’m counting on you.” Zhou Wen picked up the log and ran with Xia Xuanyue.

Xia Xuanyue was still somewhat hesitant, but Zhou Wen immediately said, “It’ll be easier for your brother to run if we run. If you stay a minute longer, your brother will be in greater danger.”

Xia Xuanyue naturally understood this principle. She gritted her teeth and ran to the edge of the array formation with Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen attacked the array, but when his strength struck the barrier, it was absorbed by the barrier, preventing it from cracking.

Essence Energy-related skills won’t do, but I wonder if pure physical strength works? Zhou Wen didn’t think too much about it as he forcefully switched to the Defy Ancient Sovereign Life Soul. He used the Demon Dragon True Body and endured the loss of Essence Energy as he threw a punch at the barrier.

Boom!

The barrier trembled. Although it wasn’t shattered, it gave Zhou Wen hope. Pure physical strength was indeed effective against the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array.

Zhou Wen didn’t hesitate as he punched the barrier, again and again, hoping to penetrate it and escape the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array.

Xia Liuchuan was attacking Old Master Xia crazily, but all his attacks were easily dodged by Old Master Xia, like a cat teasing a mouse.

“I gave you everything you have, and I taught you all your techniques. How dare you attack me?” Old Master Xia easily dodged Xia Liuchuan’s attack and stared at him coldly.

Xia Liuchuan didn’t say a word and just kept attacking.

In the past, Old Master Xia had indeed doted on him. In the past, he had indeed treated Old Master Xia as his closest kin, even closer than his own parents.

It wasn’t until the year he turned fifteen that he accidentally saw Old Master Xia suck his talented cousin dry. From then on, he rarely went to the East Courtyard.

“I originally thought that you were a little different from the others, but it looks like you’re just a beast that will ultimately remain mortal. Forget it. With you as my last cornerstone, my raising of you for so many years wasn’t in vain.” Old Master Xia actually made a move. His palm actually passed through Xia Liuchuan’s fist and struck his chest.

Xia Liuchuan was wearing the Guardian armor. Although he wasn’t seriously injured, he still took a few steps back.

“Although a Guardian is strong, it’s a pity that you don’t have the time to truly control his power. Furthermore, do you really think that after contracting with the Guardian, he will really belong to you?” Old Master Xia retracted his palm. There was a wound on his finger and blood was dripping out.

There was also a smear of blood on Xia Liuchuan’s armor. Clearly, the blood did not belong to him.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 749 - The Strong Are Respected

Chapter 749: The Strong Are Respected

Crack! Crack!

The Guardian armor on Xia Liuchuan's body cracked. It wasn't shattering, but the armor was automatically disintegrating.

The black jade-like armor quickly disintegrated from Xia Liuchuan's body and condensed into a figure in the air.

It was a black jade golem. It looked very strange. It had the appearance of a human, but its body was black jade.

Old Master Xia looked at Xia Liuchuan and said coldly, "In this world, only strength is the eternal truth. The so-called Guardian only wants to protect humans who can make it stronger. I'm far stronger than you, so it abandoned you and chose me. The rules of the world are just that cruel. The strong are respected."

As Old Master Xia spoke, the black-jade-like Guardian had already transformed into armor again. However, this time, it was on Old Master Xia.

Old Master Xia's white hair had already turned completely black. Wearing the black jade Guardian armor, he looked even more majestic and heroic. His nose was slightly aquiline, giving him the look of the ruthlessness of an ambitious and ruthless character. It made people fear him.

Without the protection of the black jade armor, Xia Liuchuan's Essence Energy began to leak out as it was absorbed by the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array.

Old Master Xia already had terrifying Essence Energy and vitality. Now, with the power of the black jade armor, his strength was unimaginable. With a punch, Xia Liuchuan only had time to raise his arm to block before he was sent flying. He slammed into the light barrier and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Zhou Wen was still striking the barrier, but he hadn't blasted it open. When he turned his head and saw this scene, he was somewhat alarmed.

Although I knew that Guardians are unreliable, I never expected them to be so unreliable. It actually betrayed its owner just like that. Thankfully, I didn't contract a Guardian. Zhou Wen was secretly glad that he didn't contract with Guardians.

Zhou Wen secretly decided that unless it was a master-slave contract like Demonic Neonate, even if he couldn't advance to the Mythical stage, he definitely wouldn't contract a Guardian.

Now, there was no time for Zhou Wen to think too much. Xia Liuchuan was already at his limits. If he didn't leave, he would only be able to fight Old Sicko Xia in the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array. Fighting him here would be too disadvantageous.

However, the barrier was too hard. The power of the Demon Dragon True Body couldn't blast it open in a short period of time. By the time he blasted it open, Old Sicko Xia would have already charged over.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen thought of an idea. Although he didn’t know if it would work, he had to give it a try.

Looking at Xia Xuanyue, who had expended all her Essence Energy and was losing her essence, vitality, and spirit, Zhou Wen switched to the Dao Sutra and summoned the Heaven-Opening Scripture of the Highest Elder to protect himself and Xia Xuanyue. Then, he hugged the log to his waist and slammed it into the light barrier of the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array.

I’ve carried you for so long. If you don’t give me some help, I’m going to die here, Zhou Wen thought as the log slammed into the barrier.

Zhou Wen originally wanted to try using the heavy mass of the log to aid him, but to his surprise, he heard a loud thud.

The entire Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array’s barrier shattered like glass. It stopped operating as the golden runes beneath dimmed.

Everyone was stunned as Old Master Xia gave up on attacking Xia Liuchuan. He turned his head and looked at Zhou Wen, staring at the log in his arms with a puzzled look.

Xia Xuanyue, who was sitting beside him, looked at Zhou Wen with a look of surprise. She never expected Zhou Wen to crack the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array.

Zhou Wen never expected the log to be so powerful. If he had known this would happen, he would have long cracked open the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array. He wouldn’t have needed to wait until now.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t waste any time being dazed. He ran towards the Hall of Supreme Harmony with the log in hand.

Old Master Xia's figure moved as he attempted to stop Zhou Wen. Although he didn't know what Zhou Wen was up to, he didn't think it was anything good, nor did he wish for anything to happen.

Just as he moved, he saw a sword beam stab at him. Old Master Xia dodged slightly and the Evil-Slaying Sword flew past his face. Xia Liuchuan held the Pure Hook Sword with both hands and cleaved down from behind.

Old Master Xia snorted and flicked the Pure Hook Sword with his finger, sending it flying.

Xia Liuchuan's figure appeared beside the Evil-Slaying Sword that had already flown over. He held onto the Evil-Slaying Sword and slashed at Old Master Xia's neck.

"I told you, I taught you everything. Your tricks are useless against me." Old Master Xia seemed to have expected Xia Liuchuan to appear there and punched him in the abdomen.

This punch carried unparalleled power. If one was hit, even a steel castle would be blasted open, much less a person. It was evident that Old Master Xia really wanted to kill Xia Liuchuan.

However, Xia Liuchuan's person disappeared again. Old Master Xia's fist missed again.

Clang!

A sword stabbed into Old Master Xia's back. It was the ancient sword that Xia Xuanyue used. At that moment, Xia Liuchuan held it in his hand and pierced through Old Master Xia's black jade armor.

“Very good… Really good… I never expected your Sword Warp technique to reach such a stage. You can use the sword of others to warp. From the looks of it, you never planned on following my orders to kill Zhou Wen from the beginning…” Old Master Xia lowered his head as his eyes turned terrifying. Without turning around, he enunciated each word with a heavy tone.

The ancient sword had penetrated three inches in and the sword beam erupted like a volcano. However, no matter how Xia Liuchuan exerted his strength, he was unable to move the sword tip any further.

Old Master Xia’s figure suddenly turned blurry and vanished in front of Xia Liuchuan as though he had teleported. Xia Liuchuan cursed silently and used Sword Warp. When he appeared again, he was already beside the Evil-Slaying Sword.

However, just as Xia Liuchuan appeared, Old Master Xia appeared beside the Evil-Slaying Sword and punched him to the ground.

Boom!

Xia Liuchuan’s body slammed heavily to the ground, creating a huge crater. Blood spewed out of his mouth as countless bones fractured.

“Brother!” Xia Xuanyue struggled to stand up and wanted to rush over.

“Don’t come over… Leave quickly…” Xia Liuchuan gritted his teeth and shouted. At the same time, he used Sword Warp with all his might again. When he arrived beside the Pure Hook Sword, his body clearly staggered, but his grip on the sword remained immensely firm.

However, the moment he held the Pure Hook Sword, Old Master Xia had already appeared in front of him. Without waiting for Xia Liuchuan to swing his sword, his fists had already struck Xia Liuchuan’s chest at an indiscernible speed. Xia Liuchuan vomited blood and his sternum collapsed.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 750 - Freakish Monster

Chapter 750: Freakish Monster

Translator: CKtalon

While Xia Liuchuan held back Old Master Xia, Zhou Wen finally reached the top of the Hall of Supreme Harmony's roof. When he raised the log to the highest point, Zhou Wen knew that he was at the right spot.

After the log was erected on the roof, it seemed to be sucked by a magnet. Zhou Wen didn't need to support it to prevent it from falling.

It's done! Zhou Wen was delighted as he took two steps back. The word "slave" didn't appear on his forehead again.

Zhou Wen didn't have the time to see what changes the log had undergone because Xia Liuchuan was about to be sucked dry.

Old Master Xia's hand grabbed Xia Liuchuan's head, causing his Essence Energy, essence, vitality, and spirit to rush into Old Master Xia's body.

Originally, Xia Liuchuan's life had nothing to do with Zhou Wen, but if he allowed Old Master Xia to absorb Xia Liuchuan's powers to advance to the Mythical stage, it would be even harder to deal with him.

Furthermore, if Xia Liuchuan hadn't held back Old Master Xia just now, it would have been very difficult for him to escape Old Master Xia and erect the log above the Hall of Supreme Harmony.

Without the restriction of the log, Zhou Wen felt much more relaxed. Doctor Darkness possessed him as he drew Bamboo Blade. He used Transcendent Flying Immortal and instantly appeared in front of Old Master Xia and slashed at his hand that was grabbing Xia Liuchuan.

Old Master Xia's other hand blocked the Bamboo Blade at the last moment.

With the protection of the black jade armor, Bamboo Blade failed to injure his hand. However, this was within Zhou Wen's expectations. He held the Orchid Blade in his other hand and slashed at Old Master Xia's neck from a strange angle.

Old Master Xia had no choice but to let go of Xia Liuchuan and grab the Orchid Blade with his other hand.

Zhou Wen's movement technique changed as he danced in the air, preventing Old Master Xia's hand from touching his saber. With one long and one short blade in hand, he slashed at Old Master Xia from all sorts of strange angles.

He didn't dare use his Essence Energy Skills and only relied on his strength to attack. Although the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array had been destroyed, Old Master Xia had the ability to absorb all sorts of Essence Energy. Even an Essence Energy Skill with powerful offensive strength like the Golden Sword Aura would be directly absorbed by him and augment him. The other Essence Energy Skills were even more useless.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen was best at movement techniques. He didn't need to release his Essence Energy, or he would have been sucked in by Old Master Xia.

Outside Forbidden City, Zhang Chunqiu and Dugu Ge were already dumbfounded. With the Heaven and Earth Origin-Returning Array enveloping the area, they had no idea what was happening inside.

After the array was destroyed by Zhou Wen, they could finally see the situation inside.

However, they ended up seeing that Xia Liuchuan had been beaten up by Old Master Xia and how Zhou Wen had helped to resolve the situation and was fighting Old Master Xia. In addition, more than ten thousand Xia family members had collapsed to the ground. It left them momentarily shocked, unsure of what had happened.

Zhou Wen pushed Transcendent Flying Immortal to its limits. With Doctor Darkness strengthening his body, his speed was much faster than a Mythical creature like Six-Winged.

However, his two sabers did not touch Old Master Xia at all.

Path to Snatching Heaven! Zhou Wen recognized that the movement technique Old Master Xia was using was the Path to Snatching Heaven.

Zhou Wen didn’t find it strange that Old Master Xia could use Path to Snatching Heaven. Furthermore, Old Master Xia’s Path to Snatching Heaven was stronger than Xia Xuanyue’s. Clearly, he had long cultivated it to the divine level.

However, this movement technique was somewhat different from Xia Xuanyue’s—it was several times stronger. Even Zhou Wen’s divine Transcendent Flying Immortal paled in comparison.

What was even more terrifying was that not only did Old Master Xia have a good movement technique, but he seemed to have made terrifying achievements in his various techniques. Every ordinary move was like a finishing touch. It was as if every move had reached a divine level.

Zhou Wen was completely suppressed in a short period of time. Be it in terms of technique or strength, he was unable to fight Old Master Xia head-on.

If not for the fact that he already knew the profundity of the Path to Snatching Heaven, he would have been injured by Old Master Xia.

With his understanding of Path to Snatching Heaven and the wonders of Transcendent Flying Immortal, Zhou Wen was barely able to maintain an undefeated stance.

This sicko is a monster. How can someone cultivate all the techniques to the divine level? Is he still human? Zhou Wen knew very well how difficult it was to cultivate a technique to the divine level.

After cultivating for so long, he had only cultivated Transcendent Flying Immortal to the divine level. Xia Liuchuan was about ten years older than him, but he had also only cultivated Sword Warp to the divine level.

As for Old Master Xia, he gave Zhou Wen the feeling that he was omnipotent. It was as though any technique would become an unparalleled divine technique in his hands.

Although he didn’t use any Essence Energy Skills, he was already suffocating from the pressure.

Thankfully, Zhou Wen was a person who was calmer and less prone to mistakes in times of adversity. He kept searching for an opportunity to defeat Old Master Xia.

Typical Companion Beast attacks weren’t of much use against someone like Old Master Xia who could absorb Essence Energy Skills. Physical attacks were relatively effective against him.

However, now that he had the Guardian armor, he was like a tiger with wings. Typical Mythical Companion Beasts were probably not a threat to him.

Tyrant Behemoth was originally a better choice. Unfortunately, its Absolute Strength had run out not long ago, so it couldn’t be used for the time being.

After some thought, Zhou Wen realized that among his Companion Beasts, the only ones that might pose a threat to Old Master Xia were Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch Vision World, Demonic Neonate’s Demonic Sword, and Truth Listener that had activated multiple earrings.

However, they might only be effective and not necessarily useful. Therefore, Zhou Wen had to find an appropriate opportunity to use Torch Dragon’s Bright Torch World. He only hoped to kill Old Master Xia in one strike and not give him any chance.

His flesh tore as Old Master Xia’s fingertip brushed past Zhou Wen’s arm. Immediately, his flesh was sliced open and blood flowed out. If Zhou Wen had dodged any slower, his arm would have been severed.

To fight someone whose movement techniques weren’t slower than them, whose attacks were more ruthless than them, and whose moves were more ingenious than them, anyone would feel immense pressure. If they weren’t careful, they might be killed in one strike.

In reality, there was no rewind option like in-game, so Zhou Wen didn’t dare be careless. He would rather be injured than take the risk of being killed in one strike.

“You are indeed different from the rest. I wouldn’t be surprised if I saw such a movement technique and endurance from an old man in his seventies or eighties, but you are only seventeen or eighteen years old. To be able to do this much, your future achievements will definitely not be inferior to An Tianzuo’s if you don’t die,” Old Master Xia said calmly as he attacked.

Actually, he shouldn’t be called Old Master Xia anymore because his current appearance was almost the same as a man in his thirties. There were no signs of aging on his body.

His majestic figure, domineering aura, and invincible combat strength made him seem invulnerable.

Blood splattered as another wound appeared on Zhou Wen’s back.

“I’ll help you.” Xia Liuchuan struggled to stand up, but his injuries were too serious. He staggered as he walked. Only his hand that held the sword remained steady.

Xia Liuchuan wanted to throw his sword at Old Master Xia, but before he could do so, Old Master Xia had already struck out with his palm, sending Xia Liuchuan flying along with his sword.

Now. Zhou Wen instantly unleashed his strength. He pushed Transcendent Flying Immortal to its limits as the two blades transformed into streams of light that criss-crossed with Old Master Xia.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 751

Chapter 751: Connate Dominance Body

Clang! Clang! Clang!

The fully-unleashed Transcendent Flying Immortal was blocked by Old Master Xia's hands.

The divine physique given to him by the Guardian, together with the powerful Essence Energy he had accumulated, was truly terrifying.

Zhou Wen had no intention of finishing Old Master Xia off with this strike. As the two sabers slashed crazily, Torch Dragon's mirror eye also caused Zhou Wen's pupils to undergo a strange change. It was as though it had turned into a mirror as it looked at Old Master Xia.

However, Old Master Xia suddenly vanished into thin air. Almost at the same time, he appeared behind Zhou Wen and struck his head with his palm.

Teleportation! Zhou Wen immediately realized that it was true teleportation. It had an extremely similar effect to Lost Country.

Without any time to turn around or dodge, Zhou Wen raised Bamboo Blade above his head and blocked Old Master Xia's palm.

However, the palm strangely turned transparent as though it had transformed into a ghostly hand. It passed through the Bamboo Blade and continued striking at Zhou Wen’s head.

Zhou Wen was alarmed as he twisted his head to the side. He gathered his strength with his other hand and struck towards Old Master Xia’s palm.

When the two palms clashed, Zhou Wen immediately felt a powerful suction force suck his palm, sucking the Essence Energy in his body towards Old Master Xia.

Zhou Wen wanted to shake off Old Master Xia’s hand, but he couldn’t. His other hand held Bamboo Blade and slashed at Old Master Xia, but he was grabbed by his other hand. His Essence Energy was sucked even faster.

Zhou Wen immediately realized the problem. Not only had Old Master Xia absorbed the Essence Energy of those geniuses, but he had also robbed them of their bloodline talent, Life Providence, and Life Soul.

Zhou Wen was certain that Old Master Xia definitely had multiple Life Providences and Life Souls. Otherwise, it was impossible for him to use so many different Essence Energy Skills.

In that short moment, Old Master Xia had used three powers of different attributes and categories. Furthermore, each of them was a rare ability.

Zhou Wen’s Essence Energy was drained as his expression turned livid. He suddenly activated his mirror eye and looked at Old Master Xia.

“Don’t use the same trick twice in front of me,” Old Master Xia said coldly. He opened his eyes and there seemed to be a devil roaring in his pupils. It was an eye-type Life Soul.

At the instant he saw the Life Soul in the eye, Zhou Wen's eyelids closed uncontrollably. He couldn't open them no matter what.

How many terrifying Life Providences and Life Souls did this bastard plunder? How did he do it? Zhou Wen was alarmed as the Essence Energy in his body surged towards Old Master Xia like a river.

I'll fight it out with you. Zhou Wen struggled with all his might, hoping to escape Old Master Xia's grasp, but it was to no avail.

Just as Old Master Xia was about to say something, a purple-black ancient sword suddenly emerged from the ground and stabbed at Old Master Xia's crotch.

This strike was too strange and sinister. Before Old Master Xia could react, the sword had already stabbed into his body.

Bam!

After being penetrated by the demonic sword, Old Master Xia's body exploded like a ball of water, turning into a pool of water. As for his true body, it appeared behind Zhou Wen and twisted his arms.

He even has an avatar Life Soul. This old sicko… Zhou Wen cursed inwardly.

"No matter how strong you are, you're just a…" Before Old Master Xia could finish his sentence, his pupils constricted.

Zhou Wen's right hand, which he had grabbed, suddenly vanished like a ghost. It passed through Old Master Xia's Guardian armor and body and instantly flashed three times.

Zhou Wen wasn’t afraid of having his Essence Energy sucked away. His Slaughterer Life Soul allowed him to have unlimited Essence Energy. No matter how much Old Master Xia absorbed, it wouldn’t harm him.

Zhou Wen had waited so long for this opportunity. When Old Master Xia believed that he was at the end of his rope and his final trump card had failed, he used Doctor Darkness’s Darkness Right Hand.

Without giving Old Master Xia any chance, Zhou Wen’s Darkness Right Hand plucked out Old Master Xia’s heart, liver, and one of his kidneys. Even the Guardian armor couldn’t block the Darkness Right Hand.

Zhou Wen held Old Master Xia’s bloody organs in his hand. The heart was still beating violently. Every time it beat, blood would spew out from the severed arteries. It looked extremely terrifying.

Old Master Xia looked down at his body and didn’t find any injuries. However, blood seeped out from his mouth and nose.

Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue watched this scene with mixed feelings.

“It’s been a long time… It’s been a long time since someone injured me… You are the first in nearly twenty years…” Old Master Xia said as he stared at Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen immediately felt that something was amiss. Old Master Xia’s vitality didn’t weaken after his organs were removed. Instead, it became stronger.

A white flame burned over Old Master Xia’s body. It wasn’t a flame, but a condensation of immense lifeforce.

Zhou Wen used his penetrative vision to stare at Old Master Xia and saw that the organs that had been plucked out of his body had grown again.

“Connate Dominance Body… How is this possible… This is impossible…” Xia Xuanyue exclaimed.

“What is the Connate Dominance Body?” Zhou Wen hurriedly asked.

The heavily injured Xia Liuchuan answered, “The Connate Dominance Body is a Life Providence derived from the Invincible Connate Divine Art. Only by cultivating the Invincible Connate Divine Art can one condense a Connate Dominance Body. However, not everyone who cultivates the Invincible Connate Divine Art can condense a Connate Dominance Body. It depends on one’s physique and talent. Our Xia family abandoned the Invincible Connate Divine Art long ago. The only person in the records who could condense a Connate Dominance Body was our Xia family’s hero… However, he died many years ago…”

Zhou Wen had heard of the Xia family’s hero. As Li Xuan cultivated in the Invincible Connate Divine Art, he had heard a lot about it from him.

However, in Zhou Wen’s impression, the Xia family’s hero’s Life Providence didn’t seem to be called the Connate Dominance Body. Furthermore, in order to get married and have children, he had nullified the Invincible Connate Divine Art. He had lost both his Life Providence and Life Soul. Even if he revived, it was impossible for him to have another Connate Dominance Body.

It was also because of this that the Xia family’s hero died in a dimensional zone.

However, Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue were real Xia family members. They naturally wouldn’t make a mistake. Old Master Xia definitely had the Connate Dominance Body.

“From the looks of it, he has absorbed a Xia family member with a Connate Dominance Body Life Providence,” Zhou Wen said.

“That’s impossible. Apart from the Xia family’s hero, even if one cultivates in the Invincible Connate Divine Art, no one has condensed a Connate Dominance Body…” Xia Xuanyue said.

“Then you must be mistaken. What he has isn’t the Connate Dominance Body, but another powerful self-healing ability…” Zhou Wen saw that Old Master Xia’s body had already recovered. After his organs were regenerated, they were no different from his previous organs.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 752 - Dark Clouds

Chapter 752: Dark Clouds

Translator: CKtalon

Old Master Xia clearly wasn’t in the mood to continue listening to them. With a flash, he appeared in front of Zhou Wen like a devil and struck out at him.

The flames on his palm were like a blazing sun that burned everything. When Zhou Wen saw that the flames could even burn through the void, he immediately knew that it wasn’t an ordinary fire-elemental power. He didn’t dare take it head-on as he spread out his six wings and rapidly retreated.

However, a pair of Golden-Winged Roc Life Soul wings appeared behind Old Master Xia, greatly increasing his speed. Zhou Wen wasn’t able to open the distance between them, so the flames were about to strike his chest.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to slash out his Bamboo Blade at Old Master Xia’s palm.

When Bamboo Blade came into contact with the flames, the flames spread along Bamboo Blade and instantly enveloped his body.

The flames spewed out before extinguishing. The six wings on Zhou Wen’s back vanished as his face turned pale.

If not for Six-Winged’s Life Guardian, Zhou Wen would have died from this strike.

However, Six-Winged was also killed because of this, making it impossible for it to be revived.

“To think you have a Companion Beast that can die in your place. Your luck sure is extraordinary. However, your luck ends here.” Old Master Xia stared coldly at Zhou Wen, prepared to continue attacking.

Suddenly, a clap of thunder sounded in the sky, shocking everyone.

At some point in time, the sky was filled with dark clouds. Lightning flashed amidst the dark clouds.

Zhang Chunqiu, who was peeping outside, felt a sharp pain in his eyes. Blood tears flowed out of his eyes as he hurriedly retracted his Heavenly Eye. He didn’t dare look inside again as he looked at Forbidden City’s general direction in horror.

A storm was brewing above Forbidden City. The whole of Imperial Capital’s sky was covered in dark clouds, but Forbidden City seemed to be the center of the storm. It was especially gloomy.

Almost at the same time, Dugu Ge lost contact with his Gu worm. The two of them looked at each other and saw the shock in each other’s eyes.

Up to now, they had yet to figure out what had happened in Forbidden City. They had some ideas based on what they had seen, but they didn’t know if they were right. However, just the mere speculation left them shocked.

“Do you know what’s going on?” Dugu Ge pointed at the dark clouds in the sky and asked.

Zhang Chunqiu pinched his fingers to divine. The more he did so, the more he shook his head. “The heavenly secrets are in chaos. Nothing can be divined. The outcome is different every time, so there’s no point in divining. From the looks of it, something big is about to happen. Let’s leave this place quickly to avoid being implicated.”

“What about Loser?” Dugu Ge asked.

“I’ve previously told his fortune. He’s not destined to die. He should be able to survive this calamity.” As Zhang Chunqiu spoke, he turned around and left, as though he was being chased by a dog. He was afraid that he would be bitten by a dog if he ran too slowly.

Dugu Ge glanced in the direction of Forbidden City before leaving with Zhang Chunqiu.

…

In Forbidden City, Zhou Wen summoned Torch Dragon and said to Xia Xuanyue and company, “Leave now.”

He knew that he could only risk his life. Otherwise, he might really not be able to leave Forbidden City today.

Zhou Wen suspected that the Old Master Xia in front of him might be one of the six heroes, the invincible hero from the Xia family.

However, the Xia family’s hero had long lost his virginity. Otherwise, there wouldn’t be the Xia family now.

Wait, what if the present Xia family doesn’t have the true hero’s bloodline? Zhou Wen was alarmed as he suddenly felt that it was very possible.

As the saying went, even a vicious tiger wouldn’t eat its cubs. However, Old Master Xia was as cold-blooded and heartless to the Xia family. If they went against him in any way, he would kill them immediately. Even geniuses like Xia Xuanyue and Xia Liuchuan could be ruthlessly killed. This was definitely not something an ordinary person could do.

However, if Old Master Xia was really the hero of the Xia family and he hadn't really lost his virginity, then all of this could be explained. This was because the Xia family didn't have the bloodline of the hero, so he didn't need to have any familial concerns.

Of course, all of this was just Zhou Wen's guess. Perhaps Old Master Xia had nothing to do with the Xia family's hero. His nature was just that ruthless.

"Ah Cheng, take Little Chuan and Little Yue back," Old Master Xia said as he stared coldly at Zhou Wen.

He wasn't killing Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue out of goodwill; instead, the array's destruction meant he couldn't prevent outsiders from spying on them. He wasn't willing to kill Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue in front of others.

"Yes." Ah Cheng ran towards Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue.

Zhou Wen didn't stop him. Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue being taken away was better than them dying here. As long as they weren't dead, there was still hope.

"Zhou Wen, live on," Xia Xuanyue shouted at Zhou Wen as she was taken away.

I'll live, Zhou Wen thought.

Old Master Xia glanced at Torch Dragon and said, "This should be Torch Dragon from the Zhuolu temple, right? At such a young age, you actually have so many Mythical Companion Beasts and have such attainments in martial arts. It's enough for you to dominate the Federation. In the history of the Federation, there’s no one who had such achievements at your age.”

“I’m still inferior to you,” Zhou Wen said sincerely.

He originally believed that he was sufficiently omnipotent and could handle all kinds of crises.

Even if he was inferior to others in some aspects, Zhou Wen had always felt that he was one of the best in the Federation when it came to overall combat strength.

However, Old Master Xia was more comprehensive than him. Not only did he have multiple Life Providences and Life Souls, but he could also use them freely. He also had a Guardian. What was even more terrifying was that he didn’t plan on purely relying on the Guardian’s powers to stay at the Mythical stage. Instead, he wanted to advance to the Mythical stage with his own strength.

He had divine skills and immense strength. Furthermore, he definitely had Mythical Companion Beasts which were definitely not ordinary ones. His strength could be described as unfathomable.

Boom!

The lightning in the sky constantly interweaved as thunder boomed one after another.

Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue no longer had the ability to fight. They were forcefully taken out by Ah Cheng. Only Zhou Wen and Old Master Xia were left in front of the huge Hall of Supreme Harmony.

“You are indeed inferior to me now, but if we were born in the same era, I might not be your match. With you as the last cornerstone of my advancement to the Mythical stage, I’m very satisfied. Don’t worry. After today, I’ll take your talent, Life Providence, and Life Soul for myself and make it famous. You should be able to feel comforted in the afterlife,” Old Master Xia said as he took a step forward and arrived in front of Zhou Wen as though he had tunneled through the void.

Zhou Wen was already prepared as he put on the Jade Crystal Spirit armor. At the same time, Torch Dragon used World King Transformation. Torch Dragon’s eyes all across its body opened wide as they turned into mirrors. It was the Bright Torch Vision World in the World King Transformation state.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 753 - Invisibility Strike

Chapter 753: Invisibility Strike

The power of the Bright Torch Vision World enveloped the entire area.

However, at the instant the Bright Torch Vision World activated, Old Master Xia suddenly vanished. Truth Listener couldn’t sense his location within its range, making Zhou Wen feel uneasy.

When the power of the Bright Torch Vision World stopped, he saw Old Master Xia’s figure appear not far from him as though he had never moved.

“Universe Shifting, Yin and Yang Interconnect. There aren’t many abilities that can achieve this level. I only obtained the Yin Yang Universe Ring Life Soul after searching for nearly ten years. Using this Life Soul, I can temporarily reverse Yin and Yang, preventing any force from injuring or seeing me,” Old Master Xia said calmly as he stroked the ring with a Taiji symbol on his finger.

“How many people have you killed and how many Life Souls have you plundered? Don’t you think that those Life Souls are like the ghosts of those people, pestering you every day and night?” Zhou Wen unsummoned Torch Dragon to prevent it from being killed by Old Master Xia.

After the World King Transformation, Torch Dragon entered a weakened state, greatly reducing its strength. It could no longer play a decisive role in such a battle.

Old Master Xia said calmly, “In this era, if I’m still afraid of the supernatural, how can I defy the heavens and change my fate? I’m not afraid of ghosts or gods. I’m afraid I won’t be able to make all dimensional creatures prostrate before me.”

“It’s about time. As one of the nine main Life Souls of the Connate Great Emperor Sutra, help me advance to the Mythical stage.” The black jade armor on Old Master Xia’s body emitted a terrifying black light. As Old Master Xia threw a punch, space tore apart, forming a black sun.

However, upon careful inspection, the black sun was a black hole. It produced a huge suction force that pulled Zhou Wen in.

As Old Master Xia blasted the black hole at Zhou Wen, Zhou Wen felt the suction force grow stronger, as though it was about to pull his soul in.

Zhou Wen’s figure flashed as he suddenly vanished.

Old Master Xia frowned slightly as he looked around, but he didn’t find Zhou Wen. It was as though he had vanished into thin air.

Almost instantly, Old Master Xia condensed a ball of sun-like radiance in his palm. The light illuminated all of Forbidden City. Wherever it shone, hot smoke would emit. No matter where one hid, they would be forced out by this indiscriminate attack.

However, Old Master Xia didn’t sense anything amiss as though Zhou Wen had really vanished into thin air.

Does he have an ability similar to the Yin Yang Universe Ring? Old Master Xia frowned slightly.

Zhou Wen naturally didn’t have the Yin Yang Universe Ring, but he had the Invisibility Cloak. With the Invisibility Cloak’s Wheel of Destiny activated, he had three minutes of complete invisibility. Attacks were useless against him.

After Zhou Wen used the Invisibility Cloak, he unsummoned Demonic Neonate, who was hiding behind the roof of the Hall of Supreme Harmony, and charged towards the entrance of Forbidden City.

The invisible ability could only last for three minutes. After three minutes, he could only remain physically invisible. That way, he would be easily discovered. Therefore, Zhou Wen wanted to use this time to escape Forbidden City.

However, when he rushed to the entrance of Forbidden City, he realized that the door had already closed.

However, the invisibility force made him invisible and intangible during the three minutes. He could directly penetrate matter as Zhou Wen charged straight for the door.

Bam!

Zhou Wen’s body was repelled by a strange force, preventing him from rushing out.

How did this happen? Zhou Wen was alarmed as he felt that something was amiss.

The force that repelled him wasn’t the door itself, but a force that resembled lightning. His body was still feeling numb.

The black clouds and lightning that filled the sky had already made Zhou Wen feel that something was amiss. It felt even more so now. Zhou Wen looked up and carefully observed Forbidden City. He realized that the Corner Tower on the city wall was emitting a faint glow. Although the light wasn't strong, it was especially eye-catching with the dark clouds covering the sun.

Zhou Wen flew into the air and looked at the other three Corner Towers in the city. Indeed, they were glowing.

Zhou Wen didn't have the time to think about the reason. He didn't have much time left. It had been nearly twenty seconds since he rushed over. Since he couldn't leave now, Zhou Wen had to think of a way to kill Old Master Xia. Otherwise, he would be the one to die.

The Connate Dominance Body is probably similar to Li Xuan's Immortal God of Combat. Its self-healing ability is even stronger. It's probably very difficult to kill him by simply injuring his body. How can I kill him? Zhou Wen was momentarily at a loss, but he couldn't sit idle.

He quickly rushed towards Old Master Xia who was still standing in his spot. He used all sorts of methods to find Zhou Wen, but it wasn't of much use. The eight Life Providences and Life Souls he already had, as well as all sorts of Essence Energy Skills, failed to be of any use. He failed to find the invisible Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen came in front of Old Master Xia and pointed at his mouth. Then, he summoned the Primordial Spore and allowed it to enter his body. Regardless of whether it was useful or not, he had to give it a try.

After the Primordial Spore entered Old Master Xia's body, Zhou Wen pulled out the Orchid Blade and released it from invisibility. He stabbed it into Old Master Xia's mouth.

The Orchid Blade entered his mouth and penetrated Old Master Xia's brain, but it couldn't penetrate his skull from the other end.

Zhou Wen didn’t care as he twisted the Orchid Blade.

Old Master Xia’s strength erupted like a volcano, sending Zhou Wen flying. He didn’t even manage to pull the Orchid Blade out from his mouth.

Zhou Wen’s body tumbled in the air as he finally managed to dissipate the terrifying force. However, he still spat out a mouthful of blood.

Zhou Wen wasn’t concerned about his injuries. Such injuries couldn’t kill him. All he wanted to know was if this strike was of any use.

Old Master Xia stood there with the Orchid Blade in his mouth. His brain had been severely damaged by Zhou Wen, but when Zhou Wen looked at him, he saw Old Master Xia extend his palm, grab the Orchid Blade, and pull it out of his mouth.

As for his injuries, they were rapidly recovering.

How can he still self-heal like this? Zhou Wen’s heart chilled. He still couldn’t kill Old Master Xia despite delivering such an attack. He couldn’t think of any power that could kill him.

Old Master Xia held the Orchid Blade, but there was no anger in his eyes. Instead, there was some fanaticism. “You really surprise me. Although I haven’t advanced to the Mythical stage, with the augmentation of a Guardian, I’m already a Mythical creature. Furthermore, I’m much stronger than ordinary Mythical creatures. Under such circumstances, you can still injure me, and not just once. It’s enough to prove that your Life Providence and Life Soul are very powerful.

“However, this also means that after absorbing your talent, Life Providence, and Life Soul, I will become stronger after advancing to the Mythical stage. I should be thanking you.” Old Master Xia walked towards Zhou Wen step by step, his killing intent burning to the extreme.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 754 - Connate Great Emperor Sutra

Chapter 754: Connate Great Emperor Sutra

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen stood up and stared at Old Master Xia. He silently switched his Essence Energy Art to the most primitive Slaughterer and used Sigh of the King's power.

Immediately, an explosive force filled his body, almost blasting it apart. Furthermore, the force was rapidly becoming stronger.

It had been a long time since Zhou Wen used the Sigh of the King's power. This was because the force was just too powerful. Even with his present Constitution, he couldn't last long. If time went on, he would explode from his own strength without the enemy doing a thing.

But at this stage, he had to use it no matter what.

Old Master Xia's figure flashed as he appeared in front of Zhou Wen as though he had teleported. The Orchid Blade in his hand stabbed at Zhou Wen's eyes. Even at the Mythical stage, his speed was extremely terrifying. It was almost impossible for anyone to react.

Clang!

However, Zhou Wen reacted in time. His Bamboo Blade struck the Orchid Blade and forced Old Master Xia to take half a step back. It left Old Master Xia's eyes filled with surprise.

With the augmentation of the Guardian, his Speed and Strength were at the Mythical stage. Furthermore, he was a top existence among Mythical creatures.

Zhou Wen had actually blocked his saber and sent him retreating. This was enough to shock him.

After all, Zhou Wen didn’t have a Guardian. Even if he had a Mythical Companion Beast, that didn’t make him a true Mythical.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t have the time to think too much. His body was swelling uncomfortably, and it wouldn’t be long before he exploded. He had to do something before his body failed to withstand the Sigh of the King’s power.

He slashed at Old Master Xia with Bamboo Blade like a tsunami.

Old Master Xia raised the Orchid Blade and absorbed the terrifying Essence Energy from the Bamboo Blade.

However, he was surprised to discover that the Essence Energy from the Bamboo Blade seemed endless. No matter how he absorbed it, the Essence Energy from the Bamboo Blade showed no signs of weakening.

Zhou Wen delivered a few consecutive strikes that sent Old Master Xia retreating. The strength multiplied with every strike.

How is this possible? Old Master Xia was alarmed. He had the augmentation of a Guardian. Together with the power of the Connate Great Emperor Sutra, there weren’t many who could compete with him even at the Mythical stage.

Zhou Wen was at the Epic stage, but the power he unleashed was able to suppress him. This left him shocked and delighted.

The stronger Zhou Wen was, the stronger the Wheel of Destiny he would condense when he advanced to the Mythical stage with the help of the nine Life Souls.

“Show me your strength. This is your life’s final moment of glory. Let me see how strong you are.” Old Master Xia’s figure flashed as he dodged Zhou Wen’s saber attacks, the excitement in his eyes intensifying.

Zhou Wen’s expression didn’t change. Now, he was completely focused on combat. He didn’t have any other thoughts as he drove the violent forces in his body to the limits.

The blade became faster and faster, and the force became more and more violent.

As for Zhou Wen’s saber techniques, they also became stronger.

Transcendent Flying Immortal was actually a movement technique, not a saber technique. The present Zhou Wen was unable to injure Old Master Xia with Transcendent Flying Immortal alone as the latter’s Path to Snatching Heaven wasn’t inferior to Transcendent Flying Immortal.

Therefore, Zhou Wen could only seek a breakthrough. Since his movement technique couldn’t threaten Old Master Xia, he could only make the saber in his hand faster and stronger.

Zhou Wen didn’t have the time to use many fancy moves. He was only pursuing faster speeds.

Quick! Quick! Quick!

Zhou Wen only aimed to increase his speed. Be it his movement technique or the blade in his hand, they had infinite possibilities due to the nearly infinite forces in his body.

Bam!

When Zhou Wen felt that his body was about to explode from the violent forces, he finally reached a point where even Old Master Xia couldn't dodge his attacks. He slashed at Old Master Xia's chest.

However, Old Master Xia's body exploded like water. He had only slashed at a clone—Old Master Xia's body had appeared elsewhere.

"How interesting. Your Epic body actually possesses such immense strength. However, your body shouldn't be able to withstand such immense strength, right?" Old Master Xia sized up Zhou Wen with a fervent gaze.

He wanted to know how strong he would be if his Mythical body could possess such power.

Old Master Xia carefully selected seven talented youths and plundered their talent, Life Providences, and Life Souls. Together with his Life Providence and Life Soul, he was just short of one Life Providence and Life Soul to reach the extremity of nine for the Connate Great Emperor Sutra, allowing him to change his fate and advance to the Mythical stage.

The Connate Great Emperor Sutra was created by combining the Xia family's Great Emperor Sutra and the Invincible Connate Divine Art he obtained from the Connate Divine Temple. He believed that he could definitely use this Essence Energy Art to advance to the Mythical stage.

However, it was difficult to gather nine Life Providences and nine Life Souls. Typical Life Providences and Life Souls, such as the ten thousand Epic swordsmen, only existed as nutrients for the nine Life Providences and Life Souls. They didn’t truly become his Life Providences and Life Souls.

It was very rare for someone to become one of the nine main Life Providences and Life Souls. Up to now, Old Master Xia was still lacking one.

In fact, Xia Liuchuan was originally the ninth person that Old Master Xia had deliberately nurtured. However, for some reason, Old Master Xia ultimately didn’t absorb Xia Liuchuan.

It was only when Zhou Wen appeared that Old Master Xia planned on using Zhou Wen as his ninth Life Providence and Life Soul. At the same time, he would use the Life Providences and Life Souls of more than ten thousand people as nutrients to push himself to the Mythical stage and condense the Wheel of Destiny.

However, Zhou Wen’s performance left Old Master Xia alarmed. Zhou Wen was much stronger than the eight he had absorbed previously. It was a rare sight.

It was indeed as Old Master Xia had said. Zhou Wen’s body couldn’t withstand the power of the Sigh of the King. His flesh ruptured as bloody marks appeared on his skin. His muscles were torn apart as blood dripped. Cracks also appeared on his bones. If this continued, he would probably self-destruct.

However, Zhou Wen was still as calm as before. He carefully sensed the forces that were pushing his body towards destruction.

Zhou Wen had seen many powerful creatures—Torch Dragon, Tyrant Behemoth, Primordial Sword Immortal, Truth Listener, and the even stronger Guardians. They were all very powerful, forces that others looked up to.

However, no matter what kind of power it was, it couldn’t compare to the power in Zhou Wen’s body. Zhou Wen could sense that this power was a level higher than any power he had ever seen. It might even be on a higher level.

“If God opposes me, I will slay God… If an immortal opposes me, I will cull the immortal… No exchanges with god… No acquaintances with immortals… I am me…”

Zhou Wen recalled the impudent and savage voice in his dream. It left him shuddering in fear, but it also made his blood boil.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 755 - The Might of One Saber Strike

Chapter 755: The Might of One Saber Strike

Translator: CKtalon

His body ruptured as his flesh split open. Blood constantly flowed out, but Zhou Wen remained calm. He gripped the Bamboo Blade tightly with both hands as he focused his insights into it. He raised the Bamboo Blade high above his head.

Old Master Xia's heart palpitated as though he sensed danger. His expression turned solemn as he stared intently at Zhou Wen.

The wounds on Zhou Wen's body kept cracking, but his expression was as calm as before. He exerted strength with both hands and slashed down, aiming for Old Master Xia.

With this strike, the crazily erupting power in Zhou Wen's body was instantly drained. It gathered on the blade, causing Bamboo Blade's body to tremble.

Old Master Xia couldn't see the trajectory of the saber when it landed. He was shocked and his body immediately phased away.

Bam!

Old Master Xia's body was split into two, turning into clear water that splattered on the ground.

Elsewhere, Old Master Xia's true body appeared. However, the Guardian armor on his body was shattering. From his helmet to his armor, a saber gash appeared.

An invisible saber force continued to press down on the armor, causing it to crack from top to bottom. Old Master Xia’s blood was also gushing out.

Crack!

The Guardian armor on Old Master Xia’s body had shattered due to the blow. It turned into pieces of black jade that scattered to the ground, revealing Old Master Xia’s true body.

His body phased away again and appeared again shortly after. He must have used the Yin Yang Universe Ring’s ability.

However, when he appeared, the saber marks on his body were still spreading. It went from his head to his chest and then to his abdomen. The bloody mark constantly expanding as more and more blood oozed out.

Old Master Xia’s almost immortal Connate Dominance Body couldn’t stop the saber marks on his body from deepening, nor could it heal his wounds.

Old Master Xia watched as the saber marks on his body continued to tear, and his skull was about to split open. His expression turned somewhat crazy and in disbelief.

“Impossible… No power can take my life… My Connate Great Emperor Sutra is the strongest…”

Zhou Wen had converged the Sigh of the King’s power. His Slaughterer Life Soul had automatically turned still. During the slash, the Slaughterer Life Soul had automatically fused into Zhou Wen’s strike. Slaughterer, which had only been passively augmenting Zhou Wen, had actively shown its effects for the first time.

After shattering the Guardian armor, a strange force fused into the Slaughterer Life Soul, but it failed to advance as it did before.

Zhou Wen didn’t find it strange. The advancement of a Life Soul at higher levels was difficult to begin with. The last time he killed a Guardian, he had allowed Slaughterer to advance to an Evolved Body. It was obvious that killing one Guardian wasn’t enough to advance to a Perfect Body.

The strike had already drained Zhou Wen of all his combat strength.

In particular, his body had been severely damaged by the Sigh of the King. It was difficult for him to even stand.

Zhou Wen stared at Slaughterer as the power of the strike continued to work wonders. It was about to rip Old Master Xia’s bones into two.

Without the Guardian’s power, no matter how strong Old Master Xia was, he was only at the Epic stage. Zhou Wen believed that it was impossible for him to withstand the terrifying saber force.

The saber force wasn’t only limited to the Sigh of the King; it also had Slaughterer’s strength embedded within. Zhou Wen felt that the strength of the strike wouldn’t vanish unless it killed its opponent.

Boom!

At this moment, a sudden bolt of lightning struck the top of Old Master Xia’s head.

The purple lightning bathed Old Master Xia’s body and actually shattered the saber force in Old Master Xia’s body.

The strange purple lightning also fused into his body at the same time, as if a purple shadow was flashing across his body.

The moment the saber shattered, Old Master Xia's injuries began to rapidly recover. What was even more terrifying was that his body was rapidly transforming. It looked like he was transforming from the Epic stage to the Mythical stage.

*Are you f*cking kidding me? I carried you all the way here and suffered so much, but you actually helped that old sicko deal with me?* Zhou Wen felt indignant.

He could clearly see that the purple lightning didn't smite down from the void, but shot out from the log on the roof of the Hall of Supreme Harmony.

"Haha, I'm indeed a person blessed by the heavens. Even the heavens want to help me advance to the Mythical stage. It used divine lightning to condense another soul for me so that I can advance to the Mythical stage. Who in the world can stop me? I, Xia Jiuhuang, am the Emperor of Heaven. No one can stop me from becoming a god." Old Master Xia threw his head back and laughed. The nine Life Souls on his body were faintly discernible as terrifying power spewed out from his body. His body was rapidly transforming.

As if responding to Old Master Xia, the thunder in the sky rumbled like a 21-gun salute.

Zhou Wen sat weakly on the ground. He didn't have the strength to continue fighting. If Old Master Xia really managed to advance, Zhou Wen wouldn't have the strength to fight him.

However, the name Xia Jiuhuang finally made Zhou Wen know who Old Master Xia was. This name wasn't only known to the Xia family, but it was also famous in the entire Federation. He was one of the six heroes who founded the Federation, the founder of the Xia family, the supposedly deceased legendary hero, Xia Jiuhuang.

At that moment, Xia Jiuhuang's aura had reached its peak. His body had almost turned crystalline jade as his Essence Energy spewed out like a volcanic eruption. The nine Life Providences and the power of the nine Life Souls fused as one, and an ancient 'Emperor' word gradually surfaced on his forehead.

The 'Emperor' word shimmered with purple lightning as though it was a supreme existence.

Zhou Wen could naturally guess that the purple word "Emperor" was likely the Wheel of Destiny condensed by Xia Jiuhuang. Once the Wheel of Destiny stabilized, he would have successfully advanced to the Mythical stage.

Zhou Wen summoned Demonic Neonate and Truth Listener. At this point, all he could do was risk his life and strike Xia Jiuhuang down to the mortal world before he completed the transformation to the Mythical stage.

Just Demonic Neonate's strength was clearly insufficient. Zhou Wen could only consider letting Truth Listener shatter more earrings. He needed to shatter at least three of them, but Zhou Wen couldn't predict the outcome.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to order Truth Listener to shatter the earrings, he realized that something was amiss with Xia Jiuhuang's condition. There was a faint power throbbing in his body, like a rhythmic heartbeat.

Although this power wasn't powerful and seemed to be a part of Xia Jiuhuang's body, it was sending Zhou Wen some kind of message.

Primordial Spore! Zhou Wen immediately knew what it was. It was the Primordial Spore that Zhou Wen had previously sent into Xia Jiuhang’s body.

Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised. Typically, Primordial Spore would take a long time to parasitize a Mythical creature, but the information sent by Primordial Spore seemed to be telling Zhou Wen that it was already sprouting.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 756 - Three-Sided Struggle

Chapter 756: Three-Sided Struggle

Zhou Wen immediately realized what the problem was. Previously, Xia Jiuhuang had a Guardian who had fused with him, taking his body to the Mythical stage. However, Zhou Wen had just killed the Guardian. Without a Guardian, Xia Jiuhuang—who hadn't advanced to the Mythical stage—was only at the Epic stage, and he had nearly been killed by Zhou Wen's saber strike. He was in a weakened state, so the Primordial Spore was able to succeed in such a short period of time.

Once the parasitism succeeded, it could quickly sprout before Xia Jiuhuang really advanced to the Mythical stage, unlike when it parasitized Mythical creatures.

From the information transmitted by the Primordial Spore, it wouldn't take long to completely control Xia Jiuhang.

Zhou Wen was pleasantly surprised. He originally believed that there was only one way to fight to the death, but he never expected that after reaching a dead end, a tiny Primordial Spore would turn the situation around.

Boom!

At the most critical moment of Xia Jiuhuang's evolution, bolts of lightning struck down from the dark clouds and struck him continuously like a waterfall of lightning.

Not only did the lightning not injure Xia Jiuhuang, but he also used the power of lightning to help him evolve, allowing his body to become closer and closer to a Mythical physique.

According to what Zhou Wen knew, all Mythical creatures' original stats were 11. As for humans, their original stats were estimated to be 1. It was even possible that they didn't reach 1.

After all, human infants were too weak. They were far inferior to ordinary Legendary creatures, much less Mythical creatures.

Even ordinary Legendary creatures and Epic creatures seldom advanced to the Mythical stage; therefore, it was almost impossible for humans to advance to the Mythical stage.

Xia Jiuhuang had condensed nine supreme-grade Life Providences and Life Souls. He also needed a large amount of energy to advance to the Mythical stage. The ten thousand Epic humans from before were prepared by Xia Jiuhuang for this very purpose.

However, from the looks of it, it was still insufficient. With the help of the heavenly lightning, he was able to take the final step as his body rapidly transformed.

Unlike the combination of a Guardian, Xia Jiuhuang's entire body emitted a mythical power. Every cell and strand of hair contained terrifying energy.

The present Xia Jiuhuang didn't show any signs of an old man. His body was filled with the vitality of youth and terrifying explosive power. It was as though he could shatter mountains and rivers with a casual flick of his finger.

Xia Jiuhuang, who had long black hair dancing in the wind, was bathed in lightning. He looked like a resurrected ancient demon god.

On his forehead, the ‘Emperor’ word grew brighter and brighter like a purple star.

Boom!

With the final bolt of lightning striking him, Xia Jiuhuang completed the transformation from a human to a Mythical. It wasn’t a Mythical advancement with the help of a Guardian, but a true advancement with a human body. This was likely the first in human history.

“Finally… I’ve finally advanced to the Mythical stage…” Xia Jiuhuang floated in midair and raised his palm. He admired his transformed body as his excited voice trembled.

He had racked his brains and even faked his death to secretly scheme for so many years. Now, he had taken the final step.

Zhou Wen didn’t move because he could sense that the Primordial Spore was about to complete its soul parasitization. As long as the soul parasitization succeeded, it would be useless no matter how strong Xia Jiuhuang was.

“Zhou Wen, you should feel honored to be the first person to die under the power of a human Mythical.” Xia Jiuhuang wanted to use Zhou Wen to test how powerful his Mythical powers were. The ‘Emperor’ character on his forehead lit up as he prepared to attack Zhou Wen.

However, Xia Jiuhuang suddenly screamed. He hugged his head and yelled. His voice was extremely shrill, as though someone had drilled into his brain with an electric drill.

Zhou Wen was first taken aback before he saw the purple ‘Emperor’ character. He immediately understood what had happened.

That crappy piece of wood isn’t helping Xia Jiuhuang at all. Instead, it wants to enslave or even occupy Xia Jiuhuang’s Mythical body. Zhou Wen recalled the slave word on his forehead and connected it to the ‘Emperor’ character on Xia Jiuhuang’s forehead. Although the words were different, the form was surprisingly similar.

Looking at the screaming Xia Jiuhuang, Zhou Wen also received a message from the Primordial Spore. It was as though a force was vying for control of Xia Jiuhuang’s soul from Primordial Spore.

Xia Jiuhuang kept screaming. Now, his body could be considered a power struggle between powers—Xia Jiuhuang, Primordial Spore, and the “Emperor” on his forehead.

The three parties wanted to control Xia Jiuhuang’s body, but his will was the weakest. Even the Primordial Spore failed to gain an absolute advantage. The strongest was the ‘Emperor’ word.

“Why… Why is this happening… Jing Daoxian clearly said that as long as I can advance to the Mythical stage with a nine-life body… I will have the destiny of a Great Emperor… Why is this happening…” Xia Jiuhuang roared with a tragic cry. He wanted to slam his head into the ground, but his body didn’t listen to him. It left him alarmed and furious.

Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback when he heard Xia Jiuhuang’s roar. Jing Daoxian is actually involved in this matter?

Zhou Wen felt that he had seen this scene somewhere before. After some thought, he recalled that Lord Alcohol had said something similar after eating the Longevity Fruit.

Looking at Xia Jiuhuang who was in excruciating pain, Zhou Wen suddenly felt a chill run down his spine. He had a bad feeling.

Lord Alcohol and Xia Jiuhuang were people who wanted to break through to the Mythical stage. Furthermore, they had listened to Jing Daoxian's words to reach this stage.

As for the Lost Immortal Sutra that Zhou Wen cultivated, it was also from Jing Daoxian. Now that Zhou Wen wanted to advance to the Mythical stage, he felt that he was somewhat similar to Xia Jiuhang and company.

However, Zhou Wen didn't have the time to think too much about it. The Primordial Spore wasn't able to gain the upper hand. Its control over Xia Jiuhuang's body was weakening, and Xia Jiuhuang's will was about to vanish. Only the 'Emperor' word's glow was getting stronger. It was only a matter of time before he gained control of Xia Jiuhuang's body.

Before Xia Jiuhuang's body was completely controlled, Zhou Wen drew his saber and slashed forward. At the same time, Truth Listener and Demonic Neonate attacked under Zhou Wen's orders.

With the Primordial Spore restraining him, Xia Jiuhuang couldn't move at all. Demonic Neonate didn't need to find another opportunity as she unsheathed her demonic sword and stabbed forward.

Zhou Wen's injuries were too serious, preventing him from using Sigh of the King. His strength was extremely limited, so when he slashed at Xia Jiuhuang’s body, not only did he fail to injure him, but he was sent flying by Xia Jiuhuang’s strength.

Zhou Wen fell to the ground as his wounds tore open. He grimaced in pain.

Thankfully, Truth Listener was more powerful. It shattered two earrings and brutally stabbed its claws into Xia Jiuhuang’s chest. The demonic sword stabbed into Xia Jiuhuang’s head, inch by inch.

The ‘Emperor’ word shimmered as it attempted to blast the demonic sword out, but Truth Listener violently struck Xia Jiuhuang’s forehead, causing the ‘Emperor’ word to tremble violently.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 757 - Scram

Chapter 757: Scram

Translator: CKtalon

Due to the restraint of the Primordial Spore, the ‘Emperor’ character was unable to stop Xia Jiuhuang’s body from counter attacking. The demonic sword stabbed into Xia Jiuhuang’s head inch by inch. At the same time, a black demonic aura invaded Xia Jiuhuang’s body, weakening his vitality.

The ‘Emperor’ word was a Wheel of Destiny condensed by Xia Jiuhuang. Its foundation was Xia Jiuhuang. As Xia Jiuhuang’s vitality weakened, the light on the ‘Emperor’ word dimmed, no longer having the same aura as before.

“How dare you…” Just as Zhou Wen was feeling delighted, he suddenly heard a cold woman’s voice coming from above the Hall of Supreme Harmony. The source of the voice was none other than the log erected there.

There’s a woman inside the log? Zhou Wen was alarmed.

As the woman’s voice sounded from the log, the stars in the sky shimmered. Starlight cascaded down, passing through the dark clouds and illuminating Forbidden City.

Zhou Wen took a careful look and saw that the lit stars were clearly the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions. Apart from the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions, no other starlight penetrated the dark clouds.

The starlight shone down, causing Forbidden City to emit resplendent starlight. The four Corner Towers in particular emitted a divine glow.

Be it the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions in the sky or the four Corner Towers, they were all centered around the log. Starlight gathered on the log, causing the log to emit purple starlight as though there were countless stars swirling inside.

Under the illumination of the starlight emitted by the purple log, Zhou Wen felt a pain in his forehead. Immediately, he felt that something was amiss. He took out a mirror and saw purple light and lines appear on his forehead. From the parts that had condensed, it looked like he was about to condense the word “slave” again.

The layout of Forbidden City is the Purple Forbidden Enclosure. The Purple Star is also known as the Emperor Star. It’s the Life Star of an emperor. Now that the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions have appeared and the four Corner Towers have submitted, could it be that Emperor Polestar is in the log? Zhou Wen guessed.

If it was really the legendary Emperor Polestar, Zhou Wen felt that he was doomed today. Unlike ordinary Mythical creatures, Emperor Polestar was an existence that controlled all immortals. He was an immortal’s emperor and not something ordinary Mythical creatures could compare with.

The slave word on his forehead became more and more obvious. Zhou Wen switched several Life Souls, but he was unable to stop the formation of the slave word.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen felt a force surge out of his body. It was the power of the Sigh of the King. However, this time, it wasn’t under Zhou Wen’s control, but an autonomous act of the Sigh of the King. It was somewhat similar to the time he knelt.

In an instant, the incomplete ‘slave’ word on Zhou Wen’s forehead shattered and dissipated. The power of the Sigh of the King enveloped his body as though he had been placed in a warm embrace.

“Scram!” Zhou Wen felt a voice coming from him.

The voice was indiscernible, but it seemed to possess a supreme might. The dark clouds that enveloped Forbidden City instantly dissipated, revealing the clear sky and sun. There was no longer any cloud.

The starlight of the twenty-eight Lunar Mansions instantly dimmed and vanished without a trace. The starlight of Forbidden City also dissipated as the four Corner Towers collapsed. The log fell from the Hall of Supreme Harmony and slammed into the ground.

The log trembled incessantly as though it was about to collapse. It left Zhou Wen alarmed.

Crack!

Xia Jiuhuang’s body finally couldn’t withstand the power of the demonic sword and was split into two. Demonic aura surged through his corpse as though it wanted to destroy his body.

The mysterious phone suddenly vibrated. Zhou Wen took out his phone and saw that the game screen of the Dead Man Tree had automatically switched on. When he snapped a picture of Xia Jiuhuang’s corpse, it was sucked in without leaving a drop of blood behind.

Without having the time to take a careful look at the Dead Man Tree, Zhou Wen unsummoned his Companion Beasts and put on the Invisibility Cloak before running.

The log that had collapsed in front of the Hall of Supreme Harmony trembled more and more violently, like a volcano that was about to erupt. As for Zhou Wen, the Sigh of the King's power had already receded, making him feel uneasy. He wanted to escape from Forbidden City.

Perhaps due to the absence of the dark clouds and starlight, Zhou Wen successfully rushed out of Forbidden City. However, just as he rushed out, he saw a purple beam shoot into the sky.

Then, all of Forbidden City emitted a terrifying purple glow, like an immortal city condensed from starlight.

Zhou Wen didn't dare look any further. He turned around and ran, hoping to get as far away from Forbidden City as possible.

After running for a short distance, he saw Wang Lu looking at Forbidden City with the chick and antelope not far away. The anomaly in Forbidden City worried Wang Lu. She closed her eyes and pressed her palms together in front of her chest as she muttered something.

"Goddess of Luck, please help Zhou Wen and let him return safely."

Zhou Wen was greatly touched when he heard that. He thought to himself, Wang Lu is really kind-hearted.

The antelope's eyes stared at Zhou Wen. Clearly, the Invisibility Cloak's ability wasn't effective against it.

The chick was also staring in Zhou Wen's direction, but its eyes were somewhat puzzled. It seemed to have discovered Zhou Wen, but it didn't see him.

“Wang Lu, let’s go.” Zhou Wen appeared and ran out with Wang Lu.

Now that there was an anomaly in Forbidden City, no one knew what would happen. The further away they were, the better.

Wang Lu jumped in fright. Seeing that Zhou Wen was covered in injuries and many of his wounds were still bleeding, his clothes still drenched in blood, she couldn’t help but worry. “Are you alright?”

“It’s fine. I won’t die yet. Let’s leave Forbidden City first. It’s too dangerous here.” Zhou Wen summoned the Great Might Vajra Bull and jumped up with Wang Lu before running away.

When he was far from Forbidden City, Zhou Wen made the Great Might Vajra Bull stop.

Only then did he feel the excruciating pain in his body. He had been in a highly-strung state and hadn’t paid any attention to his injuries. Now, he felt pain all over his body as though he was about to die. Every move he made hurt so much that he wanted to cry for mommy.

“Your injuries are serious. I’ll take you back to treat them now.” Wang Lu summoned a vine that crept onto Zhou Wen’s body and wrapped around him. At the same time, the bud burrowed into his wounds and emitted a faint glow to treat his injuries.

Then, she summoned a mount and brought Zhou Wen back like he was a vined mummy.

Zhou Wen’s injuries were too serious. He didn’t know when he would recover, so he allowed Wang Lu to take him back.

Now, Zhou Wen was somewhat worried. He didn’t know how Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue were doing, but he was injured. He didn’t have the strength to save them.

With Xia Jiuhang dead, there shouldn’t be anyone in the Xia family who wants their lives, right? Zhou Wen thought for a moment and felt that they wouldn’t be in any danger. He would get Wang Lu to help him gather information later.

The anomaly in Forbidden City made the Xia family and the Special Inspector Bureau very concerned. They had set up a large number of people to monitor the situation inside, but no one could enter. They had no idea what was happening. All they could see was that Forbidden City was enveloped by clouds like an immortal city, making it even more unfathomable.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 758 - Immortal Slaying

Chapter 758: Immortal Slaying

Zhou Wen was wrapped in gauze like a mummy as he lay in bed. A winged pixie danced around Zhou Wen as it tried its best to spew out green light to nourish his injured body.

According to the information Wang Lu had obtained, although the changes in Forbidden City were intense, it was limited to the city's interior. No dimensional creatures broke out.

What was different from before was that strange sounds could be heard coming from inside even though it wasn't a stormy day. This used to happen inside Forbidden City during thunderstorms.

Unfortunately, no one could enter Forbidden City, so no one knew what was happening inside.

Due to Old Master Xia's disappearance, the Xia family was in a mess. Nothing had happened to Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue. They had even appeared near Forbidden City in the past two days.

Zhou Wen had roughly guessed the outcome. Apart from Xia Jiuhang, few people in the Xia family wanted them dead. After all, they were the Xia family's hope.

The death of more than ten thousand Epic experts was a huge blow to any of the six hero families. It would definitely affect the Xia family greatly.

However, it wasn’t as serious as Zhou Wen imagined. The ten thousand Epic experts were mostly nurtured by Xia Jiuhuang himself to be sacrificed for his advancement to the Mythical stage. Therefore, these people were from the East Courtyard and didn’t affect the Xia family’s normal system.

From this, it could be seen that Xia Jiuhuang still had some feelings for the Xia family. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have separated these people from the Xia family and set up a separate East Courtyard.

There was also Xia Liuchuan and Xia Xuanyue. Their talent, Life Providences, and Life Souls were top-notch. Xia Jiuhuang could have used one of them as his ninth Life Soul, but he didn’t do so in the end. Perhaps there were some emotional factors involved.

No matter what, the destruction of Xia Jiuhuang and the East Courtyard had dealt quite a blow to the Xia family, greatly reducing their influence in the Federation.

The Xia family and the bureau were searching for Old Master Xia and Zhou Wen’s whereabouts, but no one saw Zhou Wen come out of Forbidden City. They imagined that Zhou Wen was trapped in the mutated Forbidden City like Old Master Xia, so they didn’t search the Imperial Capital.

Zhou Wen had been recuperating in Grandma Wang’s yard for the past two days. It was odd. In such a huge yard, other than Grandma Wang, there were only a few old ladies and a butler. He didn’t see any younger members of the Wang family.

Zhou Wen asked Wang Lu and learned that this was where Grandma Wang recuperated. The other members of the Wang family didn’t live here, and the Wang family’s real residence wasn’t nearby.

Zhou Wen held his phone with his stiff wrapped hand and saw a purple flower sprout grow on the Dead Man Tree. It was likely the flower that had absorbed Xia Jiuhuang.

Zhou Wen was somewhat looking forward to seeing what fruit the flower would bear.

Xia Jiuhuang had advanced to the Mythical stage with nine supreme-grade Life Providences and Life Souls. Furthermore, he had the power of the log condensed in his body, so the fruit produced from him definitely wouldn’t be too bad.

It’s a shame about my Six-Winged. Zhou Wen sighed softly. Six-Winged had been with him for so long, so he wasn’t used to suddenly losing it.

Lying in bed with nothing to do, Zhou Wen used his phone to grind dungeons. He originally imagined that he could happily farm the nine black dragons, but to his surprise, they hadn’t respawned.

The other Mythical creatures respawn every day. Don’t tell me these nine black dragons respawn after nine days? Zhou Wen guessed.

Since he couldn’t farm the black dragons, Zhou Wen placed his sights on the Guardian again. During his battle with Xia Jiuhuang, Zhou Wen had gained some insight into the concept of power from the Sigh of the King. He had also found a way to use Slaughterer Life Soul. The might of that move was immense, so it might pose a threat to the Guardian.

Zhou Wen called that move Immortal Slaying. It was basically a single-use attack. If he couldn’t kill the enemy with one move, Zhou Wen would be crippled.

The main reason was that Immortal Slaying was based on the Sigh of the King and the Slaughterer Life Soul.

It wasn’t that the Slaughterer Life Soul couldn’t be powered, but the amount of power needed to drive it was too great. Without the massive power of the Sigh of the King as a foundation, it was impossible to power the Slaughterer Life Soul.

Unfortunately, using the Sigh of the King would place a huge burden on Zhou Wen’s body. Furthermore, Immortal Slaying would drain him of all his strength instantaneously, so Zhou Wen basically didn’t have any combat strength after a single strike.

The might of this strike was something that even Xia Jiuhuang, who was wearing Guardian armor, couldn’t withstand. He had even killed the black jade guardian with one strike. Such strength might be of some use against the Guardian in Ant City and the war wagon.

It was too dangerous to use Immortal Slaying in real life. Perhaps he would die before injuring the enemy.

However, in-game, he didn’t have so many qualms. He just had to do it.

Zhou Wen’s two arms were held in place by a splint. He could only lie on the bed as he raised his arms straight like a zombie. He held his phone and began gaming.

Before the nine black dragons respawned, the war wagon remained at the bottom of the sea. Zhou Wen went straight to the underground sea, hoping to see if Immortal Slaying could kill the Guardian inside.

Before Zhou Wen arrived at the underground sea, he heard a sound from the window.

The windows here weren't glass windows, but windows that were made of ancient wood paper. They were opened by rolling them up and propped up with a wooden stick.

Zhou Wen turned his head to look at the window and saw two ponytails sticking out. Then, he saw a little girl's head slowly extend out. She was sprawled on the window sill, staring at Zhou Wen with her big, limpid eyes as she looked curiously at him.

Zhou Wen saw that the girl was only about eleven or twelve years old. She was very cute and looked a little like Wang Lu.

"Hey little one, what's your name?" Zhou Wen asked her.

"Wang Chan," the little girl answered.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to ask another question, his hand suddenly slipped and the phone smashed down on his face. Zhou Wen's eyes bruised as his nose ached.

Zhou Wen wanted to pick up the phone, but he couldn't bend his arm.

"Let me help you." Wang Chan pushed open the door and ran in. She reached out to pick up the phone on Zhou Wen's face and handed it to him.

"Thank you, Little Chan…"

Zhou Wen reached out to take the phone when he suddenly heard someone shouting outside the yard. "Miss Little Chan, where are you? Come out quickly!"

Little Chan jumped in fright as she looked back at the door and handed the phone to Zhou Wen.

However, Zhou Wen’s arm was too stiff. Before he could grab the phone, it fell with a thud and smashed into Zhou Wen’s face. He grimaced in pain.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 759 - Wang Chan

Chapter 759: Wang Chan

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen was about to cry when Wang Chan gestured for him to keep quiet before quickly hiding under the bed.

Soon, an old woman walked in and looked into the room. She didn't see Wang Chan, so she said to Zhou Wen that she was sorry for disturbing him before closing the door.

Only then did Wang Chan crawl out from under the bed and swat away the dust on her body. She then picked up the phone beside the pillow and handed it to Zhou Wen. "Sorry, who are you? Why are you lying here?"

Zhou Wen took the phone and said, "My name is Zhou Wen. I'm Wang Lu's classmate."

"Oh, you're that Numbskull Wen? I heard my sister mention you before," Wang Chan said in enlightenment.

"What Numbskull Wen?" Zhou Wen was slightly taken aback, but he knew that Wang Chan was Wang Lu's younger sister. He just didn't know if she was his biological sister or his cousin.

Wang Chan didn't answer. She only sized him up curiously and said, "Why are you so heavily injured? Why don't I help you heal?"

"Actually, it's just a superficial wound. With the life pixie's treatment, I'll be fine in a few days," Zhou Wen said.

Wang Chan curled her lips and said, “Life pixie’s healing effects are too poor. I have better Companion Beasts here that can quickly heal your injuries. Since you are my sister’s friend, you are also my friend. It’s only right that I help you. You don’t have to stand on ceremony.”

With that said, Wang Chan summoned a Companion Beast. It looked very strange. No matter how Zhou Wen looked at it, it looked like a syringe with wings.

Although the syringe had cute little wings and was pink in color, similar to Cupid’s Arrow of Love, it was a syringe. Zhou Wen, who had been seriously ill when he was young, often had injections. He just couldn’t bring himself to love something like a syringe.

“This… There’s no need…” Zhou Wen couldn’t bear to reject Wang Chan’s kindness, but he didn’t wish to be injected.

“Don’t stand on ceremony with me. You will recover quickly,” Wang Chan said as she ordered the syringe to fly down and stab Zhou Wen in the arm.

The liquid in the syringe was injected.

This syringe Companion Beast looked rather intelligent. It was actually able to accurately inject intravenously.

Zhou Wen felt heat enter his blood vessels. It was warm and didn’t hurt much. Furthermore, when the medicinal essence spread within his blood, Zhou Wen immediately felt energized and even felt his blood boil.

“Little Chan… Where are you… We are going back…” At that moment, a woman’s voice sounded from outside the wall. When Little Chan heard the voice, her expression changed slightly. She turned her head and said to Zhou Wen, “My mom is looking for me. I'll come and see you tomorrow. Goodbye, Numbskull Wen."

With that said, Wang Chan ran out without waiting for Zhou Wen's reply.

She already has a Companion Beast at such a young age. Wang Lu's sister's talent isn't bad. She's quite kind. Zhou Wen felt his vitality surge as his injuries seemed to heal much faster.

Just as Zhou Wen was about to continue gaming, he felt something amiss. He felt his body heat up as though there was a furnace in his body.

It's so hot... It's so hot... Not long after, Zhou Wen felt like he was about to die. He tore open the gauze on his body, allowing the heat in his body to emit.

Even so, he still felt uncomfortable. It was as though there was a force pushing him, making him involuntarily move.

He first ran, but he realized that running vented too little heat. Zhou Wen sprawled on the ground to do push-ups. It was as though he had installed an electric motor as his body rapidly rose and fell while he emitted hot air.

The heat was really helpful to Zhou Wen's injuries, accelerating the healing of his wounds. However, Zhou Wen's crazy exercise ruptured his wounds again.

When Zhou Wen finally stopped, he realized that not only had his injuries not healed, but some areas that had already healed had ruptured.

What Companion Beast is that? Why are its effects so domineering? Zhou Wen was somewhat helpless.

Although Wang Chan’s Companion Beast had a healing effect and the effects were very good, he couldn’t withstand the heat and had crazily exercised, resulting in the opposite effect.

After lying in bed again, Zhou Wen couldn’t be bothered to get someone to wrap him in gauze. He got the life pixie to treat his injuries as he lay in bed gaming.

The blood-colored avatar entered the underground sea and opened the door to the war wagon. He saw the white cocoon floating in the void.

Zhou Wen held the Golden Overlord Sword and activated the Sigh of the King. He waited for the Sigh of the King to reach a certain intensity before activating Slaughterer and striking with Immortal Slaying.

The blood-colored avatar’s body trembled because the Sigh of the King’s strength was just too powerful. It caused the blood-colored avatar’s body to crack as blood seeped out.

This level of strength was still insufficient to activate Slaughterer. When the blood-colored avatar’s body was about to collapse, Slaughterer was finally activated. Zhou Wen held the Golden Overlord Sword and activated Immortal Slaying as he slashed at the white cocoon.

The void was cleaved apart as spatial powers were unable to withstand the power of Immortal Slaying. The white cocoon was split open almost instantly, revealing the Guardian inside.

This was the first time Zhou Wen had seen the Guardian’s full appearance. It was somewhat different from what he had imagined. The Guardian inside the cocoon wasn’t a dragon. It looked more like an ancient emperor.

Dressed in an imperial robe with a crown on his head, a hand extended out. It had six fingers, and each finger wore a ring.

Immediately, the six rings emitted intense spatial fluctuations as one hand reached towards the Golden Overlord Sword.

Crack!

Wherever the Golden Overlord Sword passed, the Guardian's arm was severed. Blood splattered as the spatial power failed to change the trajectory of Immortal Slaying.

At first, Zhou Wen was delighted when he saw the Guardian extend its other hand. It also had six fingers and wore six rings. With a smack of its hand, it destroyed the blood-colored avatar that had entered a weakened state after using Immortal Slaying. The game screen went black.

From the looks of it, Immortal Slaying is still useful against Guardians. However, next time, I should directly sever the Guardian's neck. Zhou Wen dripped his blood to revive and entered the game again.

Soon, Zhou Wen realized that although the Immortal Slaying strike could tie with the Guardian, he lacked the ability to fight after a miss since it drained him of all his combat strength. As for the Guardian, it had very powerful spatial powers. It was clearly very difficult to kill him with one strike. Zhou Wen tried a few times, but he could only injure him, not kill him.

The power of Immortal Slaying deals damage over time. If I can guarantee that the blood-colored avatar won't be killed by the counter attack, the Guardian might die if I wait a little longer. Zhou Wen continued his attempts.

He realized that this was similarly difficult to do. This was because, after the Immortal Slaying strike, the blood-colored avatar’s body would be almost at its limits. It had no combat ability at all. It was impossible for it to escape in front of a Guardian who was proficient in spatial powers.

My level is still too low. If I were also at the Mythical stage, killing this Guardian with one strike wouldn’t be a problem. Zhou Wen was momentarily at a loss.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 760 - An Essence Energy Art Story

Chapter 760: An Essence Energy Art Story

After many attempts, Zhou Wen realized that a better choice was to find a weaker Guardian to kill. For example, the black-jade Guardian he had killed or the previous six-winged seraphim.

I wonder where that six-winged seraphim went. It'll be good if I can find him, Zhou Wen thought to himself.

The Guardians in Ant City and the war wagon were probably the strongest among the Guardians. At the very least, none of the Guardians that Zhou Wen had seen had displayed strength stronger than theirs.

The next morning, Wang Chan surprisingly came again.

The wounds on Zhou Wen's body had already been rebandaged. Wang Lu had rebandaged him yesterday afternoon.

However, Zhou Wen didn't mention Wang Chan. After all, Wang Chan was just being nice. There was no need for him to mention the matter and make the sisters unhappy.

When Wang Chan saw Zhou Wen's state, she asked in surprise, "Are your injuries not healed yet? Didn't I already treat you yesterday?"

“It’s almost healed. I wish to recuperate further,” Zhou Wen said.

“Why don’t I give you another injection?” As Wang Chan spoke, she summoned the syringe-like Companion Beast again.

“There’s no need, no need at all.” Zhou Wen hurriedly waved his hand. “Don’t treat my injuries. I just want to be lazy and lie here for a few days. If you treat all my injuries, I’ll have to continue working.”

“So you are just trying to skive.” Wang Chan was enlightened. She didn’t insist on treating Zhou Wen’s injuries and unsummoned the syringe Companion Beast.

“I heard from Sis that you are a genius. You can become very powerful just by casually learning a skill. Is that true?” Wang Chan asked Zhou Wen.

“Your sister is exaggerating. I also have to spend serious efforts practicing,” Zhou Wen said.

“I knew it. How can there be anyone so awesome in this world who can learn something so casually? I’ve already tried so hard, but I still can’t figure things out.” Wang Chan seemed to heave a sigh of relief as she pulled a chair and placed it in front of the bed. She leaned against the back of the chair and looked at Zhou Wen. “Do you have some secret trick to learning? Can you teach me?”

“It’s not a secret trick, but I still have some experience to share. What do you want to learn?” Zhou Wen thought that since Wang Lu had helped him so much, it was only right for him to help her sister.

“Essence Energy Arts, sword techniques, movement techniques, and so on are all difficult to learn. No matter how hard I try, I can’t meet their standards. I keep getting scolded,” Wang Chan said with a bitter expression.

“Why do you find it difficult?” Zhou Wen asked Wang Chan.

“Because it’s very difficult to remember. My memory isn’t too good. I keep memorizing the front and forgetting the back. After memorizing the back, I forget the front,” Wang Chan said.

“Actually, it’s very simple. Just tell me any Essence Energy Skill you have learned. I’ll tell you how to memorize it in an easier manner,” Zhou Wen said.

“This is an Essence Energy Art that I’ve been memorizing recently. I’ll recite it to you.” Wang Chan began reciting.

Zhou Wen listened for a while before his expression gradually turned awkward. The Essence Energy Arts that Wang Chan recited were all unfamiliar and obscure ancient texts. Furthermore, they were very long. She had recited a few thousand words in one go, but it sounded like there was still a long way to go.

Even with Zhou Wen’s memory, it was difficult for him to memorize everything without understanding the meaning of the article.

“Eh… Little Chan, stop for a moment. How many words do you have left for this Essence Energy Art?” Zhou Wen stopped Wang Chan and asked.

“There are a total of 134,467 words. I’ve memorized them for days, but I still forget the back after memorizing the front. I keep making mistakes,” Wang Chan said in distress.

Zhou Wen thought to himself, It would be a miracle if you could memorize all of them. If you can't figure out the meaning of such an obscure ancient text, just relying on your memory to memorize the words correctly, you wouldn't be a genius, but a god.

This ancient text was actually about the same as a foreign language. Thinking about it, it would be too harsh to require someone to memorize a work of more than a hundred thousand foreign words in a few days and not make a single mistake.

"Has anyone explained the content of this Essence Energy Art to you?" Zhou Wen asked.

"Yes, but it sounds very difficult to understand and I don't really remember it," Wang Chan said.

Zhou Wen thought for a moment and said to Wang Chan with a smile, "Then do you like stories?"

"I like them. I love hearing my sister tell me stories about the Federation's six heroes. They fight and explore in unknown dimensional zones. I also hope that I can be like them one day—going to unknown places to fight unknown powerful creatures and obtain magical Companion Beasts…" Wang Chan wore a look of anticipation.

Zhou Wen said to Wang Chan with a smile, "Actually, the Essence Energy Art you recited was a story of a hero's adventure."

"Tch, can you not try to coax me like I'm a little girl?" Wang Chan curled her lips and said.

"If you don't believe me, recite it and I'll translate this heroic adventure story for you," Zhou Wen said.

Wang Chan naturally didn’t believe him as she began reciting the Essence Energy Art. “The Great Dao has no form, yet it creates the Heaven and Earth. The Great Dao is lawless, but it rules the Sun and Moon. The great Dao is nameless, but it nourishes all things…”

As Wang Chan recited, she looked at Zhou Wen. No matter how she thought about it, she couldn’t tell what relationship the Essence Energy Art had with a hero story.

“Alright, let me translate this sentence for you.” Zhou Wen gestured for Wang Chan to stop reciting.

Wang Chan stopped reciting and blinked at Zhou Wen, not believing that it could be translated into a story.

Zhou Wen pondered for a moment before saying, “There’s a beautiful and adorable girl. She’s extremely talented. She became a Legendary at the age of three, an Epic at the age of six, and she advanced to the Mythical stage at the age of nine. At the age of twelve, she’s already invincible in the Federation…”

“How can there be such a powerful girl? Are you spouting nonsense? Furthermore, this has nothing to do with Essence Energy Arts, right?” Wang Chan curled her lips and said.

“Listen to what I have to say. That young heroine was invincible when she was twelve years old. She was just too lonely and wanted to suffer defeat. But on this day, a youth about her age appeared and challenged her. In the end, he defeated her with one strike.”

Wang Chan interrupted again. “Why is your story contradictory? You previously said that the girl was invincible. How could she be defeated in one strike?”

“Do you still want to hear the story?” Zhou Wen glared at her.

“Continue.” Wang Chan smiled.

“After being defeated by the youth, the girl asked the youth, ‘Why are you so powerful?’ The youth answered her, ‘Because I obtained a treasure in a mysterious dimensional zone. That treasure can nurture the Heaven and Earth and control the movement of the Sun and Moon… From then on, the girl embarked on her journey to find the treasure…”

As Wang Chan recited, Zhou Wen translated the content she recited into a hero story. Wang Chan was gradually attracted by the content of the story and forgot to pick up on Zhou Wen’s plot holes.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 761 - Invisibly Downloaded A Dungeon

Chapter 761: Invisibly Downloaded A Dungeon

Translator: CKtalon

In any piece of knowledge, the most difficult to remember were the unfamiliar professional terms and descriptions. As such words and descriptions were not usually used, there were not many ways to connect these terms to one’s knowledge system.

Just like a person from the West District, he didn’t know what the Dao was even if you let him read the scriptures. He also didn’t know what the Eight Trigrams was if you let him read the Iching. These words were very difficult for foreigners to form memories.

When Zhou Wen told the story, he turned these esoteric words into treasures in the story. It made Wang Chan find these treasures novel and interesting, allowing her to remember them.

“The story you made up is rather interesting, but the treasures in the story are different from the true meaning of the Essence Energy Art, right?” After Wang Chan finished hearing Zhou Wen’s story, she felt somewhat unsatisfied that it was over, but she also realized a problem.

“Although it’s different, it made you remember those words that were originally difficult to remember, right?” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

Wang Chan thought about it and realized that she had memorized it. When she thought of those words, she found them a lot more vivid.

“In the future, when you learn those obscure Essence Energy Arts and Essence Energy Skills, treat them as a story. Treat the things you don’t understand as battles with various unknown dimensional creatures. After defeating them, the knowledge you obtain will be treasures,” Zhou Wen said.

“I’m not as delusional as you,” Wang Chan said.

“If you don’t even dare think about it and only learn to walk the path of others, what’s the point of such a life?” Zhou Wen said.

Wang Chan looked at Zhou Wen in a daze. All the experts in her family that taught her would tell her how powerful so-and-so Essence Energy Arts and Essence Energy Skills were, as well as their origins. They would talk about what it would be like if she mastered them.

No one had ever told her that no matter how powerful the Essence Energy Arts and Essence Energy Skills were, they were left behind by others. No matter how strong she became from cultivating them, she was ultimately inferior to others.

“Is it really okay to fantasize like this?” Wang Chan looked at Zhou Wen in a daze as though she was asking him, but also muttering to herself.

“Of course. There’s nothing in this world that you can’t think of or do. As long as you dare think of it, you will eventually think of a solution. The most important thing is that you dare think of it,” Zhou Wen said.

“I’ll give it a try in the future.” Wang Chan was about to say something when she heard her phone ring. It wasn’t someone calling her, but an alarm she had set.

“I need to return, but I’ll remember your story. I’ll also remember your words.” Wang Chan thought for a moment and said, “You are indeed as my sister said. You are a very special person.”

After Wang Chan left, Zhou Wen finally got some peace and began grinding.

However, when Zhou Wen lay on the bed, he suddenly heard a crack. The wooden bed then collapsed.

This was an ancient carved wood bed with a flower-engraved rack on it. The entire bed fell apart and immediately, Zhou Wen fell to the ground as the shattered wood hit him.

Zhou Wen’s injuries hadn’t healed. The wood couldn’t injure him, but when it hit him, the corners of his mouth twitched in pain.

What’s going on? My luck hasn’t been good recently. I can even break a bed? Zhou Wen was depressed.

Upon hearing the sound, the butler came over and was alarmed when he saw Zhou Wen. He hurriedly helped him up and got someone to tidy up the bed before changing it to a new bed.

In the next few days when Zhou Wen was recuperating, Wang Chan often secretly came to play with him.

However, for some reason, Zhou Wen was very unlucky every time Wang Chan came.

One time, Wang Chan ran over while Zhou Wen was eating. Just as Zhou Wen was about to finish the bowl of rice, he realized that there was half a worm in it. It nearly made him vomit all the rice he had eaten.

Zhou Wen suspected that his bad luck had something to do with Wang Chan. This was because Wang Chan would be beside him every time he was unlucky.

However, he thought for a moment and found it unlikely.

Wang Lu was Wang Chan’s sister. It was impossible for the people around her to be unlucky when she was such a lucky person.

However, there was something strange. Wang Chan always came to him when there was no one around. It was as if she didn’t want anyone to see her.

Zhou Wen only believed that the Wang family was strict and that they placed a lot of emphasis on her studies, so they didn’t give Wang Chan time to play. This resulted in her sneaking out, so he didn’t tell Wang Lu and Grandma Wang about this.

After a few days, Zhou Wen’s injuries healed significantly. Although he couldn’t engage in an intense battle, ordinary movements were no longer a problem. He left the Wang family and had a stroll.

Zhou Wen didn’t plan on returning to Luoyang. He had yet to settle the most important matter of his trip to the Imperial Capital.

Zhou Wen put on the Invisibility Cloak and walked on the streets without anyone seeing him. He headed for the Ancient Sword Tomb.

The Ancient Sword Tomb was one of the Xia family's important dimensional zones. Many sword-type Companion Beasts were obtained from the Ancient Sword Tomb. Therefore, Zhou Wen planned on heading to the Ancient Sword Tomb to take a look. If there was a tiny palm symbol, he could download an Ancient Sword Tomb dungeon.

Apart from the Ancient Sword Tomb, there were many dimensional zones in the Imperial Capital. Zhou Wen planned on making a trip to all of them.

The Ancient Sword Tomb was guarded by the Xia family's guards, but they were useless against Zhou Wen. With the Invisibility Cloak, the guards couldn't see him.

Zhou Wen used the power of the Godfiend Era and floated over without making a sound.

After searching outside the Ancient Sword Tomb for a while, he easily found a tiny palm symbol and snapped it.

My luck today is pretty good. Zhou Wen turned around and left the Ancient Sword Tomb in delight as he headed for the next dimensional zone.

On the way to his next destination, Ancient Sword Tomb finished downloading. However, it was inconvenient to use the phone while wearing the Invisibility Cloak. If he were to leave the phone unexposed, passersby would see a phone flying in the air. Timid ones would probably wet their pants in fright.

Zhou Wen's second dimensional zone was the Thirteen Mausoleum.

It was an ancient royal cemetery. After the dimensional storms, it had also become a dimensional zone. It was rather magical inside with many good things available.

Furthermore, the Thirteen Mausoleum was a dimensional zone under the bureau. It forbade outsiders from entering. Zhou Wen had had a bad impression of the bureau. If it wasn’t for his serious injuries, he would definitely have made a trip to the bureau’s headquarters.

Now that he had yet to recover from his injuries, he couldn’t go to the bureau’s headquarters for the time being. However, it wasn’t a bad idea to take a picture of their dimensional zones.

His luck today was unexpectedly good. After Zhou Wen arrived at the Thirteen Mausoleum, he found the tiny palm symbol and successfully downloaded another game dungeon.

After leaving the Thirteen Mausoleum, Zhou Wen continued heading to the next dimensional zone. This time, the dimensional zone Zhou Wen went to was rather famous. It was the legendary Great Wall.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 762 - Goddess of Misfortune Life Providence

Chapter 762: Goddess of Misfortune Life Providence

Translator: CKtalon

There were Great Wall dimensional zones in many places, not just in the Imperial Capital.

Zhou Wen didn’t have the chance to go anywhere else for the time being. He decided to head to the local one first, hoping to find the tiny palm symbol to download it as a game dungeon.

The various Great Wall dimensional zones were mostly the same. The dimensional creatures in them were creatures called Battle Souls. However, the Battle Souls differed by district.

The most common Battle Soul here was called the Undying Battle Soul. It was said that no matter what method was used, one could not kill the Battle Souls here. Therefore, as time passed, no one visited.

Zhou Wen was most interested in these strange dimensional creatures, so he wanted to download the dungeon into his phone and study them.

Just as Zhou Wen arrived in front of the Great Wall and before he could begin searching for the tiny palm symbol, he saw two people walk over. One of them was Wang Chan.

“Little Chan, where are you going?” A silver-haired youth walked beside Wang Chan as he asked.

“It’s my freedom to go wherever I want. It’s none of your business,” Wang Chan said without turning her head.

“How are you not my business? Your father wants me to take care of you. I can’t let anything happen to you. If anything happens to you, how am I to answer your father?” the silver-haired youth said with a smile.

“You don’t need to explain it to him. Xiao Si, I can tell you now that I definitely won’t go to the South District with you. I want to be like my sister and enter Sunset College to study,” Wang Chan said.

Xiao Si’s expression remained unchanged as he continued following Wang Chan. He said casually, “Little Chan, don’t joke around. Your sister has the Life Providence of the Goddess of Luck, so she can naturally go wherever she wants. However, your Life Providence is the Goddess of Misfortune. Apart from me, who has the Traversing Misfortune Buddha Body, who else can turn your misfortune into a blessing? Only with me by your side can you reverse fate and enjoy fortune. The heavens have destined me to protect you for the rest of your life.”

“I don’t need any luck, much less your protection. Don’t think I don’t know that you want to use this to threaten my family to help your family,” Wang Chan said.

“I need your family’s help, but you also need my help. Isn’t that good?” Xiao Si said.

“No, not at all. I’ve said it before. I don’t need your help, nor do I need any luck,” Wang Chan said.

“You can shrug it off, but have you considered your family? If I do not resolve your bad luck, your family will be affected by it. Don’t tell me you don’t know that? Your Wang family originally had a great opportunity to advance the Wang family further and even become an existence comparable to the Xia family. However, it was because of your birth that the Wang family failed. If not for your sister's strong luck, the Wang family might have rapidly declined. Would you wish for that to happen again?" Xiao Si said slowly.

Wang Chan curled her lips and said, "Don't try to scare me. With my sister around, my bad luck won't affect my family. Furthermore, I'll be studying at Sunset College soon, so it won't affect my family."

"Then what about the people from Sunset College? You will have classmates, friends, and people you like there, but the better your relationship with them and the closer you are to them, the more they will be affected by your bad luck. They will constantly be unlucky and they might even lose their lives because of you. Have you really decided to study at Sunset College without my company?" Xiao Si said calmly.

When Wang Chan heard Xiao Si's words, she seemed to hesitate. However, she still said, "Don't try to scare me. My Life Providence isn't that terrifying. Even if you and my sister aren't around, my Life Providence won't kill anyone. It will only bring a little misfortune."

The invisible Zhou Wen listened for a long time before he finally understood two things. Wang Lu's luck wasn't some form of metaphysics, but because she had the Goddess of Luck Life Providence. Zhou Wen had long guessed that.

To Zhou Wen's surprise, Wang Lu's sister, Wang Chan ended up having a completely opposite Goddess of Misfortune Life Providence. It was unbelievable that sisters born from the same parents would have such different Life Providences.

However, on second thought, the bad luck he encountered every time he met Wang Chan convinced him of her having such a Life Providence.

The smile on Xiao Si's face vanished as he looked at Wang Chan and said, "The reason why you want to study at Sunset College isn't because of your sister, am I right?"

"What has this got to do with you? Anyway, I definitely won't return to the Xiao family in the South District with you," Wang Chan said.

Xiao Si laughed. "It's fine. You can try to find that person and see what kind of effect your Life Providence will have on him. Then, it won't be too late to make a decision. I believe that other than me, no man in the world can withstand the bad luck you bring."

"I've already tried. There's no problem," Wang Chan said.

"Then did you take him to a dimensional zone?" Xiao Si asked.

"Why must I go to a dimensional zone?" Wang Chan asked.

"If you really go to Sunset College to study, it's inevitable that you will enter a dimensional zone to complete your homework missions. Isn't that normal? Or are you afraid that he will lose his life because of you?" Xiao Si said with a smile.

"So be it. It's no big deal." Wang Chan turned around in a huff and left.

Xiao Si stood there without moving. After watching Wang Chan leave, he took out his phone and made a call. "An outsider approached Wang Chan and gained her trust. That person might be a student at Sunset College. Find out who that person is. I don’t wish for him to affect our plans of having Wang Chan enter our Xiao family.”

After hanging up, Xiao Si slowly left.

Zhou Wen watched Xiao Si leave and pondered for a moment before taking out his phone to call Wang Lu and ask her about Wang Chan and Xiao Si.

When Wang Lu heard that Zhou Wen had already met Wang Chan, she sighed and recounted the details regarding Wang Chan and Xiao Si.

When Wang Chan was young, her luck was a little bad, but she was still very talented and hardworking. The family had placed high hopes on her.

However, a few months ago, Wang Chan condensed her Life Providence. Unexpectedly, her Life Providence was Goddess of Misfortune. It was the opposite of Wang Lu’s Life Providence.

Her Life Providence brought quite a bit of trouble to the people around her. Only when Wang Lu was by her side would the situation improve.

However, it was impossible for Wang Lu to stay by her side forever. Therefore, the Wang family had always hoped to resolve the problem of Wang Chan’s Life Providence. They came up with many solutions, but none of them worked well.

The Xiao family in the South District had somehow heard of this matter. It made Xiao Si, who had a Traversing Misfortune Buddha Body, go to the Wang family. Under the influence of his Traversing Misfortune Buddha Body, not only did Wang Chan’s Life Providence not trigger any more misfortune, but she also became lucky.

This made Wang Chan’s parents, Wang Lu, and everyone else very happy. The Xiao family didn’t make any excessive requests. They only hoped that Xiao Si could stay in the Wang family and spend more time with Wang Chan. If the two of them could get along well, they might be able to become husband and wife when Wang Chan reached the legal age of marriage.

Their Life Providences complemented each other. If they could really become husband and wife, it would be beneficial to both of them.

Although the Wang family felt that the Xiao family was deliberately trying to curry favor with them and definitely needed their help, Xiao Si’s Life Providence was too important to Wang Chan. It was worth it even if the Wang family had to pay a price.

Therefore, they allowed Xiao Si to stay in the Wang family to accompany Wang Chan. Firstly, it could resolve the danger of the Goddess of Misfortune Life Providence, and secondly, they could let them spend some time together and see if anything blossomed.

Perhaps what the Xiao family wants isn’t the Wang family’s help, but Wang Chan herself, Zhou Wen thought. However, as he didn’t have any evidence, it wasn’t his place to tell Wang Lu his thoughts.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 763 - Pulling Out Swords in Ancient Sword Tomb

Chapter 763: Pulling Out Swords in Ancient Sword Tomb

Zhou Wen searched the Great Wall for a long time but failed to find the tiny palm symbol. He wasted the afternoon just like that.

The sky had already darkened by the time he returned to the courtyard.

When Zhou Wen opened the door, he realized that Wang Chan was sitting on a stool in his room in a daze. Upon seeing Zhou Wen return, Wang Chan opened her mouth as though she wanted to say something, but in the end, she only said, “You’re back?”

“What’s the matter?” Zhou Wen sat by the table and poured himself a cup of water.

“I-it’s nothing. I wanted to chat with you, but it’s already so late. I should be leaving. Let’s chat another time.” Wang Chan hesitated for a moment and ultimately didn’t say anything. She got up and prepared to leave.

She had been engaging in an intense psychological battle today. Although Wang Chan wanted to prove that Zhou Wen wouldn’t meet with misfortune because of her even if Xiao Si and Wang Lu weren’t by her side, Wang Chan still lacked confidence in herself after struggling internally for so long. She wasn’t willing to let Zhou Wen take the risk.

“Are you free tomorrow?” Zhou Wen suddenly asked Wang Chan.

“I’m free,” Wang Chan answered subconsciously.

“I want to visit the nearby dimensional zones tomorrow, but I’m not familiar with the roads. Can you take me there?” Zhou Wen asked with a smile.

“To a dimensional zone?” Wang Chan was first delighted before her expression dimmed. She shook her head and said, “It’s best you get my sister to accompany you.”

“Your sister isn’t free. Aren’t you free? Can’t you accompany me?” Zhou Wen asked.

“My luck isn’t too good. I’m afraid that going to a dimensional zone with you will bring you bad luck,” Wang Chan said with her head lowered.

“What a coincidence. My luck isn’t good either. Two negatives make a positive. Perhaps my luck will improve,” Zhou Wen said.

“My luck is really bad. If you were by my side, you would be very unlucky and might die. I’m serious. I’m not joking,” Wang Chan said as she bit her lip.

Zhou Wen laughed and raised the saber in his hand in front of Wang Chan. “Do you know the name of this blade?”

Wang Chan sized up the Bamboo Blade in Zhou Wen’s hand in puzzlement. After a while, she said in surprise, “Could it be that this is the Bamboo Blade of the Four Gentlemen Blades? Is this a replica?”

“Of course not. This is the authentic Bamboo Blade. Previously, its owner died. Perhaps it’s because I’m so unlucky that it ended up being compatible with me. I’ve always been safe. Don’t worry. I’m hardy, so I’m not afraid of these things. Go back and rest. We’ll head to the Great Wall tomorrow morning to take a look,” Zhou Wen said.

“Then… Alright…” Wang Chan thought for a moment and felt that it was safer to go to the Great Wall.

There were Undying Battle Souls at Great Wall City, and they ranged from the Mortal stage to the Epic stage. However, dimensional creatures like Undying Battle Souls were very strange. They only wandered the Great Wall. Humans couldn’t harm them and they didn’t seem to have any consciousness either. They only wandered on the Great Wall and wouldn’t attack humans.

In fact, even if they attacked humans, it was useless. Just like how humans couldn’t touch them, they also couldn’t touch humans.

Wang Chan heaved a sigh of relief when she heard that Zhou Wen wanted to go to the Great Wall. Even if something unfortunate happened there, it wouldn’t be too bad.

After Wang Chan returned, Zhou Wen lay in bed and launched his newly downloaded Ancient Sword Tomb dungeon.

The Ancient Sword Tomb dungeon looked desolate. At a glance, it was a series of undulating hills. However, upon closer inspection, one would realize that they weren’t hills at all. Instead, they were graves of all sizes.

Some graves were relatively small, like small mounds. Some of them were hundreds of feet tall, like continuous hills.

However, it was different from ancient human graves. There were no tombstones in front of the graves. At the highest point of each grave was a sword.

The swords on every grave were different. There were short swords, long swords, heavy swords, metal swords, jade swords, swords carved from bones, and porcelain swords made of mud.

There were all sorts of swords that dazzled one’s eyes. Every sword was embedded into a grave, a tombstone in some uncommon fashion.

Although few outsiders had the chance to enter the Ancient Sword Tomb other than Xia family members, it was a famous dimensional zone.

Xia Jiuhuang’s first Mythical Companion Beast came from the Ancient Sword Tomb.

Back then, there were only a handful of Mythical pets in the hands of humans. Xia Jiuhuang dominated the world with his sword and fought for the Federation citizens.

The six heroes were like gods to humans.

Of course, no one knew of the existence of Mythical Companion Beasts back then. They only knew that Xia Jiuhuang’s sword was very powerful, but they didn’t know that it was a Mythical Companion Beast.

Later on, the Xia family became famous for using swords. Most sword-type Companion Beasts came from the Ancient Sword Tomb.

Some people even suspected that Primordial Sword Immortal came from the Ancient Sword Tomb, but no one from the Xia family had admitted to it.

There was something else that left Zhou Wen puzzled. For some reason, he hadn’t seen Xia Jiuhuang use a Mythical Companion Beast when he fought him.

As he walked in the Ancient Sword Tomb, Zhou Wen looked around. He had only heard An Sheng mention that unless one reached out to pluck a sword in the Ancient Sword Tomb, they would remain dead objects. The swords didn’t emit any aura or power, making it impossible to gauge their levels.

Only by pulling them out could one know their true level and strength.

Drawing a sword was also a skill. This was because one didn’t know the stats, abilities, and level of a sword. If one was lacking in strength, pulling out a high-level sword might very well result in death.

However, if one was strong, killing a low-level dimensional creature as a result of their draw would be useless.

Zhou Wen didn’t know much about swords, nor did he plan on choosing one. He reached out and grabbed the vine sword stuck in the tiny grave beside him, hoping to pull it out.

This was because the sword grave had a strange force field that protected the swords embedded in the grave. If he wanted to destroy the swords here, he had to pull them out first.

However, after Zhou Wen exerted his strength twice, the vine sword seemed to have taken root and wasn’t pulled out by Zhou Wen.

Zhou Wen couldn’t help but carefully size up the vine sword. He saw that it looked like it was carved from a grayish-black ancient vine. The blade was slightly curved, and it didn’t look sharp. It had a very odd shape.

Could it be that I encountered a big guy for my first draw? Zhou Wen spread his legs apart and gripped the hilt with both hands. Then, he gathered all his strength and pulled it upwards.

However, the vine sword remained motionless as though it had become one with the small grave.

Zhou Wen was alarmed. His strength was already considered top-notch in the Epic stage, but even he couldn’t pull it out. This meant that the vine sword was definitely extraordinary. It might even be a Mythical dimensional creature.

Zhou Wen summoned Tyrant Behemoth and got it to pull out the vine sword.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 764 - Light Concealment Sword

Chapter 764: Light Concealment Sword

Tyrant Behemoth’s immense strength was boundless. As it held the vine sword in one hand, the vine sword appeared no different from a chopstick in its hand.

Tyrant Behemoth exerted strength, but the vine sword remained motionless. It remained intact.

After exerting its strength twice, Tyrant Behemoth failed to move the sword. It lost its temper and grabbed the vine sword with both hands. It was as though it was plucking a river sprout as it used its pushed its feet down and its hands to pull upwards.

Zhou Wen was surprised to discover that Tyrant Behemoth, who had used all its strength, was still unable to pull out the vine sword. Even though the tiny grave shook from its pulling, the vine sword remained motionless.

What’s going on? Zhou Wen was alarmed. He knew that he had definitely been lucky to encounter an extraordinary sword.

However, as he knew too little about the Ancient Sword Tomb, he didn’t know what this meant.

After some thought, Zhou Wen got Tyrant Behemoth to activate Absolute Strength to forcefully pull out the vine sword with brute force.

Boom!

With Absolute Strength activated, Tyrant Behemoth's body became even heavier as its feet sank into the ground.

Tyrant Behemoth exerted strength in its arms and pulled.

Boom! Boom!

Zhou Wen was dumbfounded to discover that the surrounding sword graves of all sizes were trembling violently as though there was an earthquake.

However, despite the veins on Tyrant Behemoth's body protruding as it pulled at the sword with all its might, the vine sword remained stuck in the tiny grave. It didn't come out as though it had been entrenched.

Tyrant Behemoth constantly exerted strength. Under the infusion of Absolute Strength's terrifying and boundless strength, the surrounding sword graves shook more and more violently. The various embedded swords emitted sword hums. Instantly, ten thousand swords resonated as their humming reverberated everywhere.

Only the vine sword remained silent and was still intact.

Zhou Wen saw that Tyrant Behemoth had exerted its strength to its limits. The entire Ancient Sword Tomb was almost on the brink of being overturned by an earthquake; yet, the vine sword remained intact. He knew that the possibility of pulling it out was very low.

Zhou Wen's heart stirred as he ordered Tyrant Behemoth to give up on the vine sword. He ran to a sword tomb to the side and pulled out the claymore from it.

The moment the claymore appeared, terrifying red flames spewed out from the sword. However, the flames were nothing in front of Tyrant Behemoth. They couldn’t even burn its fur. Tyrant Behemoth stuffed it into its mouth and chewed it a few times before swallowing it.

“Killed Epic creature, Fiery Claymore…”

Zhou Wen saw the game notification, but the sword was swallowed by Tyrant Behemoth without leaving anything behind.

After Tyrant Behemoth released the vine sword, the Ancient Sword Tomb’s earthquake stopped and the ancient swords stopped buzzing. Tyrant Behemoth pulled out two ancient swords at the same time before smashing them together and snapping them.

Tyrant Behemoth charged forward as it frantically drew swords and snapped them. There was no sword that could withstand a single strike from it. Soon, it had snapped almost forty swords.

Zhou Wen kept looking at the game’s notifications. Some dimensional crystals dropped, but the highest was at the Epic stage. He didn’t discover any Mythical swords.

There were tens of thousands of swords in the Ancient Sword Tomb. Tyrant Behemoth pulled them out one by one without encountering a situation with the vine sword again. They were all easily pulled out.

Zhou Wen was now certain that it wasn’t a problem with the Ancient Sword Tomb in-game, but that he had struck the lottery. The first sword he encountered was actually an extraordinary sword.

Unfortunately, Zhou Wen didn’t know much about swords. No matter how he looked at it, the vine sword wasn’t outstanding. It looked similar to a withered vine.

After snapping nearly a hundred swords, Zhou Wen got Tyrant Behemoth to turn around and pull the vine sword again, but the outcome was the same. Tyrant Behemoth used all its strength, causing an earthquake in the Ancient Sword Tomb, but the vine sword remained motionless.

Zhou Wen had no choice but to temporarily give up on the vine sword. He got Tyrant Behemoth to continue pulling the other swords to see if he could gain anything.

As the swords were pulled out, one of the swords wasn’t snapped by Tyrant Behemoth. The sword flashed a divine light as it scratched Tyrant Behemoth’s palm and escaped.

Zhou Wen was alarmed. Tyrant Behemoth still had Absolute Strength active; yet, the sword managed to injure Tyrant Behemoth. Although it had only scratched the surface, that was enough to prove its sharpness.

After the sword struggled free, it quickly circled around Tyrant Behemoth and occasionally released sword beams to attack it.

However, the sword beams were shattered by Tyrant Behemoth. They couldn’t injure it at all.

Zhou Wen carefully looked at the sword. He could only see sword beams, but not the sword’s body. This surprised him even more. When he used Truth Listener’s power to observe it, he immediately realized that the sword was invisible.

The sword seemed to be transparent. He could only see the sword beam, but he couldn’t see the blade. However, Zhou

Wen was certain that the sword had a physical body. It wasn’t a Spirit Body, nor was it a pure sword beam.

A transparent sword? Interesting. As Zhou Wen was sizing up the sword, he heard Tyrant Behemoth roar angrily.

The transparent sword flew very quickly. Tyrant Behemoth failed to catch up to it no matter how many times it attacked. In its rage, it unleashed the full might of Absolute Strength. The suction force that resembled a black hole immediately reduced the sword’s speed.

Tyrant Behemoth charged over and grabbed the transparent sword. The transparent sword was extremely sharp as it sliced through Tyrant Behemoth’s palm, causing blood to drip down from the gaps between its fingers.

However, Tyrant Behemoth ignored it. It grabbed the transparent sword with both hands and used all its strength to snap it.

Zhou Wen couldn’t see what the transparent sword looked like, but he could see Tyrant Behemoth’s hands slowly descending. When the two claws were about to touch each other, there was a boom as though a tenacious steel plate had snapped.

In the next second, Zhou Wen saw a notification appear in-game.

‘Killed Mythical creature, Light Concealment Sword. Discovered Companion Egg.’

Zhou Wen was overjoyed. He had expected to encounter a Mythical sword, but to have a Companion Egg drop surprised him. After all, his luck wasn’t that good.

He sized up the area where the Light Concealment Sword snapped, but he didn’t see any Companion Eggs. He immediately came to a realization that perhaps Light Concealment Sword’s Companion Beast was also transparent and invisible.

He hurriedly swept the area with Truth Listener and immediately discovered the Companion Egg. It was beside Tyrant Behemoth’s huge foot, but he couldn’t see it with his eyes.

I already have the Invisibility Cloak, and now I’ve obtained a Light Concealment Sword. Could it be that I’m destined to become a peerless assassin? Zhou Wen thought happily as he picked up the Light Concealment Sword Companion Egg.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 765 - Three Swords of Ancient Times

Chapter 765: Three Swords of Ancient Times

Light Concealment: Mythical

Life Providence: Invisible Sword

Life Soul: Invisible Sword Aura

Wheel of Destiny: Light Concealment

Strength: 81

Speed: 81

Constitution: 80

Essence Energy: 81

Talent Skill: Sword Light Slash, Sword Light Wheel, Sword Light Rain, Integration Strike.

Companion Form: Sword

Although he didn’t know how the skills or Life Providence were, he knew solely from the stats that the Light Concealment Sword was a top-notch Companion Beast.

Apart from the one-point difference in Constitution, all of its stats were top-notch at the Mythical stage. They were stronger than the Golden Overlord Sword’s stats.

In-game, he tried out the Light Concealment Sword's skill and slashed out a condensed sword beam. Its single-target destructive power was extremely powerful.

The Sword Light Wheel was a multitudinous light attack. It was considered a small AOE attack.

Sword Light Rain covered a large area, but its offensive strength was much weaker than a single Sword Light Slash.

However, if he used Slaughterer's infinite Essence Energy to complement Sword Light Rain, it would be somewhat ludicrous.

Typical Sword Light Rain could only be used once before one was depleted of their Essence Energy. Even a Mythical creature's Essence Energy stores were unable to withstand two or three rounds of expenditure.

However, Slaughterer's infinite Essence Energy recovery allowed him to cast Sword Light Rain constantly. It was like a submachine gun with infinite bullets.

Zhou Wen studied the final Integration Strike for a while, but he failed to figure out what skill it was. It wasn't an active offensive skill, so Zhou Wen didn't understand its main effects.

The Invisible Sword Life Providence was the invisibility ability of the Light Concealment Sword. The Invisible Sword Aura Life Soul was rather interesting. Apart from a sword beam, the Light Concealment Sword could also emit an invisible sword aura. Others could only see the sword beam, but not the invisible sword aura. If one only blocked the sword beam, they would succumb to the Invisible Sword Aura. It was a very sinister Life Soul.

The effects of the Wheel of Destiny—Light Concealment—were somewhat strange. Zhou Wen needed to continue studying it. After using it, the Light Concealment Sword's sword beams and sword aura would converge, causing its destructive power to decrease. He had yet to figure out its true use.

In short, Zhou Wen was very satisfied with the Light Concealment Sword. Coupled with the Invisibility Cloak, it was the best weapon to secretly defeat others.

In the past, if Zhou Wen had used the Golden Overlord Sword while wearing the Invisibility Cloak, he would be exposing a huge, golden sword. Even a blind person could see it.

Now that he had the Light Concealment Sword, the possibility of being seen was much lower.

The Light Concealment Sword is known as one of the Three Ancient Swords. From top to bottom grade, it went: Light Concealment Sword, Shadow Containment, and Night Training. If one can gather all three ancient swords and attack with all three in a fight, how impressive would that be? Zhou Wen got Tyrant Behemoth to continue drawing the swords.

With this ferocious beast around, there was no need for the blood-colored avatar to do a thing. Zhou Wen released his luxurious Mythical pet lineup and got them to draw swords on their own.

The outcome wasn't that good. Apart from obtaining the Light Concealment Sword in the beginning, the Companion Eggs that dropped had relatively low levels. He didn't encounter any Mythical creatures.

Apart from that, quite a number of sword Essence Energy Skills dropped. Most of them were at the Legendary stage, with three at the Epic stage.

Zhou Wen absorbed all the Essence Energy Skills. It was better than nothing.

...

The next morning, Wang Chan left the manor and prepared to head to the old courtyard to visit Zhou Wen.

However, just as she walked out of the Wang manor, she saw Xiao Si walking over.

“Little Chan, where are you going?” Xiao Si asked politely.

“As you wish. To a dimensional zone,” Wang Chan said with a cold expression.

“In that case, I’ll accompany you to prevent any accidents,” said Xiao Si.

Wang Chan curled her lips and said, “There’s no need. Don’t you claim that it was thanks to your Traversing Misfortune Buddha Body when nothing happens.”

“Don’t worry. My Traversing Misfortune Buddha Body can be controlled freely. I’ve already temporarily sealed him today. It won’t affect your Goddess of Misfortune Life Providence. Furthermore, by going with you, if there’s really excessive bad luck, I can stop it in time to prevent unnecessary casualties, especially your friend,” Xiao Si said.

“Up to you.” Wang Chan hesitated for a moment and didn’t stop Xiao Si from following.

She was really afraid that something would happen to Zhou Wen because of her. Furthermore, with Xiao Si around, if she could really prove that her bad luck wouldn’t affect Zhou Wen, she could also make Xiao Si see the truth and give up on the idea.

As she was taking Xiao Si with her, Wang Chan didn’t go to the old courtyard again. That was where Grandma Wang rested. Not to mention outsiders, even members of the Wang family weren’t allowed to go there for no reason. Wang Chan naturally wouldn’t take Xiao Si with her.

After agreeing to meet Zhou Wen at the Great Wall, Wang Chan quickly headed to their meeting point.

Xiao Si followed Wang Chan mainly because he wanted to know who was influencing her. He had already gotten the Xiao family to investigate, but they hadn’t found out anything due to the short amount of time provided. Furthermore, no one from Sunset College had come to the Wang family recently.

When he messaged Wang Chan, Zhou Wen knew that she would be bringing Xiao Si along. Zhou Wen wasn’t surprised. Even if Wang Chan refused to bring Xiao Si along, Xiao Si would probably still meet them by accident.

“Brother-in-law, you’re here.” Zhou Wen arrived at the appointed spot. When Wang Chan saw him, she immediately ran over. However, her form of address left Zhou Wen slightly taken aback.

However, Zhou Wen immediately understood why Wang Chan called him that without using his name.

Now, the Xia family and the bureau were still investigating the changes in the Forbidden City. If they knew that Zhou Wen had left the Forbidden City, it would naturally be very troublesome.

Wang Chan deliberately didn't call Zhou Wen by his name because she didn't want Xiao Si to know his true identity as a way to prevent him from causing trouble.

It's quite impressive to be aware of such things at such a young age. Zhou Wen marveled inwardly. He wasn't so meticulous back when he was as old as Wang Chan.

"Little Chan, is he your brother-in-law?" Wang Chan's address of Zhou Wen left Xiao Si slightly taken aback as he asked in puzzlement.

"My sister's boyfriend. If I don't call him brother-in-law, what else can I call him?" Wang Chan curled her lips and said.

Xiao Si sized up Zhou Wen and saw that his face was still covered in bandages and he was wearing a hat. It was impossible to tell what he looked like.

"I'm Xiao Si from Chiang Rai…" Xiao Si took the initiative to introduce himself. He mainly wanted to know who this man was.

Wang Lu was different from Wang Chan. Wang Lu could be said to be the heir apparent of the Wang family. It was impossible for the Wang family to let her marry outsiders, much less allow her Goddess of Luck Life Providence to go to waste.

The Wang family would definitely carefully filter the people who could become Wang Lu's partner.

Now that Wang Chan had called Zhou Wen brother-in-law, Xiao Si was momentarily unsure of Zhou Wen's origins.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 766 - Undying Battle Soul

Chapter 766: Undying Battle Soul

“Wei Ge, most people call me Brother.” Zhou Wen extended his hand and shook Xiao Si’s hand.

Xiao Si secretly remembered this name, but he naturally wouldn’t call him “Brother.” He planned on investigating Wei Ge’s background after he returned.

…

In an office of the Imperial Capital Special Inspector Bureau’s headquarters, Wei Ge, who was drinking tea, suddenly sneezed. He rubbed his nose and muttered to himself, “Who’s thinking of me?”

…

“Cut it out. Brother-in-law, didn’t you want to go to the Great Wall? Let’s go.” Wang Chan pulled Zhou Wen towards the stairs at the entrance of the Great Wall.

Zhou Wen had been searching outside the Great Wall for a long time, but he couldn’t find the tiny palm symbol. However, he remained adamant about giving up—he wanted to search while on the Great Wall.

After all, dimensional creatures like Undying Battle Souls had very rare characteristics. Such dimensional creatures might be very useful.

Wang Chan was still somewhat uneasy, afraid that her Goddess of Misfortune would endanger Zhou Wen.

Xiao Si tailed them while constantly wearing a smile on his face. However, he was sneering inwardly. Do you think you'll really be safe after coming to a place like the Great Wall? How naive.

Zhou Wen hadn't ascended the Great Wall yesterday and had only searched its exterior. Therefore, he hadn't seen the Undying Battle Souls. After ascending the Great Wall, he finally knew what kind of existence the Battle Souls were.

On the ancient city wall, soldiers in armor wandered aimlessly as though they had no mind or soul.

Their attire looked ancient. Furthermore, these soldiers were like virtual projections. Their bodies were translucent. When Zhou Wen reached out to grab an Undying Battle Soul's arm, his palm passed through the Battle Soul's body as though it was only an illusion and not a real creature.

Zhou Wen condensed his Essence Energy and attempted to attack the Undying Battle Souls but to no avail. All sorts of Essence Energy Skills penetrated the Undying Battle Soul's bodies, leaving them unaffected.

An Undying Battle Soul wandered over and passed through Zhou Wen and company as it continued wandering forward.

These Undying Battle Souls are quite interesting. They look similar to the Ghost Bride that has a Spirit Body, but they seem a little different. Zhou Wen sized up the Undying Battle Souls with interest.

This was clearly the first time Wang Chan had seen an Undying Battle Soul. She was very curious and reached out to grab it, but it was naturally futile.

“I’ve only heard that Undying Battle Souls were very magical in the past. I’m finally seeing it today.” Wang Chan was very happy. This was because Undying Battle Souls indeed couldn’t harm anyone, so she didn’t have to worry about Zhou Wen being affected by her bad luck.

Xiao Si looked at the Undying Battle Souls, his eyes flashing with a strange, indiscernible look.

Zhou Wen searched for the tiny palm symbol along the way, but Wang Chan treated it as a vacation. However, the scenery of the Great Wall was too monotonous. All there was to see other than the city walls were Undying Battle Souls.

Such a scenery became a little boring after a long time.

As they walked, they suddenly saw black smoke rising in front of them.

Looking in the direction of the rising black smoke, they saw that it was coming out from a beacon tower.

The so-called beacon towers were actually the place where signals were transmitted in ancient times.

In ancient times, there were no modern signaling stations, nor were there any radio or satellites to transmit signals over distances. They could only rely on producing smoke to allow people in the distance to see the signal.

Therefore, there would be a beacon tower built at certain distances on the Great Wall to deliver information quickly.

This was also the main purpose of the Great Wall. Although the Great Wall was tall and majestic, its main purpose wasn’t for war. Apart from the beacon tower's ability to transmit information, the Great Wall's main purpose was to block trade and information transmission.

However, in modern times, the Great Wall was basically useless. After the dimensional storms, there were very few humans who could reach the Great Wall, much less ignite the flames of war.

To suddenly have smoke rising from the beacon tower on the Great Wall made Wang Chan's heart skip a beat as she felt that something was amiss.

Rising smoke from the nearby beacon tower looked like a black tornado rushing into the sky from afar.

What was even stranger was that the soulless Battle Souls seemed to awaken all of a sudden. Their eyes glowed red as they swarmed towards the beacon tower.

"Brother-in-law, something seems amiss. Let's leave quickly." Wang Chan pulled Zhou Wen and wanted to leave the Great Wall. She was really afraid that something would happen.

However, when they retreated, they didn't see any stairs that led them away from the Great Wall.

The Great Wall had already transformed into a dimensional zone. It was impossible to jump off the city wall. Although one could also jump out of the city wall, the dimensional zone's power would take effect. One would be bound by a mysterious force. The further one was from the Great Wall, the greater the force.

It would be as if one had a powerful spring attached to them. In the end, they would be pulled back to the Great Wall.

Only by taking the stairs could one truly leave the Great Wall.

“No… How can it not be here… It was clearly here…” Wang Chan looked left and right, almost crying from anxiety.

“It’s fine. Since we can’t get out, I might as well see what’s on the beacon tower,” Zhou Wen said as he walked towards it.

Although Wang Chan was very worried, she had no choice but to follow Zhou Wen to the beacon tower.

Xiao Si said from the side, “I’ve already said that only my Traversing Misfortune Buddha Body can give you peace of mind. No one else can.”

Wang Chan pretended not to hear him as she quickly walked to Zhou Wen’s side.

Soon, the trio came to a nearby beacon tower. They saw a strange container emitting copious amounts of black smoke. The nearby Undying Battle Souls were throwing themselves into the container.

Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised to discover that the black smoke was produced by seemingly burning the Undying Battle Souls.

He turned around and looked at the other beacon towers nearby, but he didn’t see any smoke from them. Only this one had smoke rising from it.

He carefully sized up the container. It was a two-handled pot. It was completely black, but it wasn’t made of gold or jade. It looked more like a lacquered container.

There were some mysterious patterns engraved on the pot, but Zhou Wen couldn’t understand them.

As more and more Undying Battle Souls threw themselves into the pot, the patterns on the pot gradually lit up as though there was some evil aura flowing through them.

All the nearby Undying Battle Souls had already thrown themselves into the pot. The black smoke stopped spewing out and the pot shook violently.

Suddenly, something shot out from the pot. When Wang Chan saw what it was, her expression changed.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 767 - Silver-Winged Yaksha

Chapter 767: Silver-Winged Yaksha

“Silver-Winged Yaksha! Why is there a Silver-Winged Yaksha on the Great Wall!?” Wang Chan cried out in horror.

Zhou Wen frowned as he stared at the creature that came out of the pot. He saw that it was an evil ghost with wings on its back. Its entire body seemed to be forged from silver, but its blood-red eyes shimmered. It looked extremely sinister and bizarre.

He was certain that it was a dimensional creature and not a Companion Beast.

Zhou Wen had actually heard of Silver-Winged Yakshas. Not long after the dimensional storms, a few Silver-Winged Yakshas had appeared in some coastal cities.

As Silver-Winged Yakshas were extremely bloodthirsty, they would bring a terrifying calamity to humanity every time they appeared. Some places suffered massacres.

However, in the past twenty to thirty years, Silver-Winged Yakshas rarely appeared. It was even more so in a place like the Imperial Capital.

Zhou Wen had only heard that Silver-Winged Yakshas were terrifying. It was possible that it was a Mythical creature, but he had never seen one before.

“Brother-in-law, run!” Wang Chan pulled Zhou Wen and ran. She knew very well how terrifying Silver-Winged Yakshas were.

This was because the Wang family had a video of the Silver-Winged Yaksha's massacre of a small city. Not only was the Silver-Winged Yaksha a Mythical creature, but it was also extremely fast. Its physique and strength were equally terrifying. Typically, humans wouldn't even be able to see it before they were beheaded.

Now, Wang Chan regretted bringing Zhou Wen into the dimensional zone. If they had not come here, they wouldn't have encountered such trouble.

"I've already said that you shouldn't have come out with others. Only I can stop you from being embroiled by bad luck," said Xiao Si.

At that moment, Xiao Si was feeling very pleased with himself. The Silver-Winged Yaksha naturally didn't appear here for no reason. Although it wasn't a Companion Beast but a genuine dimensional creature, this didn't mean that no one could control it.

In fact, the person who released the Silver-Winged Yaksha was Xiao Si himself. However, the Silver-Winged Yaksha wasn't his pet. He couldn't command the Silver-Winged Yaksha, so the reason for its appearance was the two-handled pot.

The pot itself was a magical item. It had the title of Devil's Pot in the South District. It was a treasure that was obtained from a mysterious dimensional zone in the South District before it ended up in the Xiao family's hands.

There were no true devils in the Devil's Pot, but they could seal certain types of dimensional creatures inside.

The Xiao family had paid a considerable price to find a Silver-Winged Yaksha and place it inside the Devil’s Pot.

Although they couldn’t control the Silver-Winged Yaksha, they could selectively release or seal it.

In other words, after Xiao Si controlled the Devil’s Pot, he had the ability to release or retrieve the Silver-Winged Yaksha.

Silver-Winged Yakshas were extremely bloodthirsty. They would engage in wanton slaughter the moment they were released. Their only weakness was that they didn’t distinguish between friend and foe. Typically, they would only choose humans and souls as their targets.

Although the Devil’s Pot wasn’t of much help in cracking dimensional zones, it was a great weapon when used against humans.

Although Xiao Si told Wang Chan that he could control his Life Providence, it was actually impossible. Therefore, as long as he was by her side, Wang Chan’s Goddess of Misfortune Life Providence wouldn’t have much effect.

Xiao Si had no intention of letting Wang Chan’s Life Providence take effect. He didn’t like uncertain factors and wanted everything to be under his control.

Roar! After the Silver-Winged Yaksha came out of the Devil’s Pot, it let out a shocking roar. Silver light erupted from its body as a terrifying shockwave blasted out hundreds of meters away, causing Wang Chan and Xiao Si to fall to the ground.

In the next second, the Silver-Winged Yaksha spread its wings and instantly traversed a distance of hundreds of meters. It appeared in front of Zhou Wen who was still standing there. Its aura was extremely violent, like a devil from hell.

“No…” Wang Chan was extremely regretful. She regretted bringing Zhou Wen out. She regretted having the extravagant hopes of making friends at school like an ordinary girl.

Xiao Si pretended to fall to the ground, but his eyes were filled with killing intent. No one knows that the Devil’s Pot and the Silver-Winged Yaksha belong to our Xiao family. No matter who this fellow is, no one will be able to pin the blame on me if he’s killed by the Silver-Winged Yaksha. Without him, everything will return to normal… Wang Chan will eventually join my Xiao family…

As the two of them had different thoughts, they suddenly saw Zhou Wen draw the saber at his waist and slash at the Silver-Winged Yaksha.

Xiao Si sneered inwardly. A terrifying existence like the Silver-Winged Yaksha has devoured so many Undying Battle Souls. How can a human’s saber match it…

“Brother-in-law, I’m sorry…” Wang Chan shouted loudly. Her heart was filled with regret and frustration. Tears fell from the corners of her eyes as she thought sadly, I shouldn’t have had such extravagant hopes…

However, in the next second, Xiao Si and Wang Chan widened their eyes in shock.

The Silver-Winged Yaksha was split into two by the Bamboo Blade as it slammed to the ground.

“No… Impossible…” Xiao Si’s mouth gaped open as he looked at Zhou Wen and the Silver-Winged Yasha’s corpse at his feet in disbelief. He couldn’t believe that the Mythical Silver-Winged Yaksha had died just like that.

Wang Chan was also stunned. Her face was still covered in tears, but her expression had turned extremely odd. She hadn’t completely restrained her sorrowful expression, yet it was mixed with a flabbergasted look.

“What did you say?” Zhou Wen picked up a silver egg-shaped object from the Silver-Winged Yaksha’s corpse and turned to ask Wang Chan.

“N-nothing… Brother-in-law… You’re amazing… Is this the Silver-Winged Yaksha’s Companion Egg?” Wang Chan’s forlorn look turned into a smile as she jumped up from the ground and tugged at Zhou Wen with a look of joy.

“I guess so. However, such a weak dimensional creature is probably very weak as a Companion Beast. It’s useless. If you like it, you can have it.” Zhou Wen casually threw the Silver-Winged Yaksha Companion Egg towards Wang Chan.

The corners of Xiao Si’s eyes twitched. He wished he could slap Zhou Wen twice.

That was the Silver-Winged Yaksha. The Xiao family had sealed the Silver-Winged Yaksha for so long, but they had failed to come up with a way to kill it. They never expected such good luck to have the Silver-Winged Yaksha drop a Companion Egg after its death.

Ignoring the fact that Zhou Wen had killed the Silver-Winged Yaksha and had a Companion Egg drop, he even complained that the Silver-Winged Yaksha was too weak. This left Xiao Si gnashing his teeth in anger.

However, Zhou Wen wasn’t in the mood to care about Xiao Si’s expression. His figure phased away and vanished.

Not good! Xiao Si was alarmed. He had already guessed where Zhou Wen had gone.

Although the Silver-Winged Yaksha was difficult to seal, there was still a chance of sealing another in the future. It didn’t matter if it died, but if Zhou Wen took away the Devil’s Pot, everything would be over.

Xiao Si hurriedly ordered his Life Soul to retrieve the Devil’s Pot. He was still very confident in his Life Soul. After all, he had used his Life Soul to silently place the Devil’s Pot on the beacon tower.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 768 - Kuman Thong Life Soul

Chapter 768: Kuman Thong Life Soul

Zhou Wen’s Transcendent Flying Immortal was extremely fast, allowing him to instantly arrive at the beacon tower.

The two-handled pot was still on the beacon tower, but it was swaying as though it had been moved by something before disappearing.

Truth Listener could hear the sounds of motion and determine where an object was, but it couldn’t outline an exact shape.

Zhou Wen activated the Holy Hell King Life Soul and opened the Eye of the Holy Hell King. Immediately, he saw a child running with the two-handled Devil’s Pot.

The child was much smaller than Demonic Neonate, but the sinflames on his body were very rich.

The child turned his head to look at Zhou Wen, leaving him slightly taken aback. The child’s facial features were very blurry as though he hadn’t grown up. His body was also very strange. His stomach was huge, but his limbs were tiny. He was indescribably terrifying and bizarre.

Activating the Eye of the Holy Hell King, a force swallowed the invisible child into the Eye of the Holy Hell King. The child seemed to be made of pure sinflames so he was directly absorbed and refined to nothingness.

Zhou Wen could even sense that his Holy Hell King Life Soul had made significant progress. If he could have more of these Life Souls, he might be able to successfully evolve a Perfect Body.

Clang!

After the child was absorbed and refined, the Devil's Pot that had disappeared immediately dropped to the ground. At the same time, Zhou Wen heard a tragic cry. He saw Xiao Si spew out a mouthful of blood as the color in his face drained. It was as though he had suffered a fatal blow.

The destruction of Xiao Si's Life Soul was naturally a severe blow to him. He had dropped from the Epic stage to the Legendary stage, astounding and infuriating him.

Zhou Wen grabbed the Devil's Pot and with a flash, he returned to Wang Chan's side. He stared at Xiao Si, who was about to escape, and said, "This is yours, right?"

"What are you talking about? How can that crappy pot be mine?" Xiao Si immediately shook his head and said.

"I originally wanted to give you a chance to live. Since you aren't appreciating it, there's no need to say anything else," Zhou Wen said as he prepared to draw his Bamboo Blade.

"Wait! What do you want?" Xiao Si was terrified, but he still pretended to be calm.

He had seen Zhou Wen kill the Silver-Winged Yaksha with a single blow and knew how terrifying Zhou Wen's strength was. As for the Life Soul that Xiao Si had relied on and others couldn't see, it had been killed by Zhou Wen. He had lost his composure.

“Answer a few of my questions. If your answers satisfy me, I can consider letting you live,” Zhou Wen said.

“Ask whatever you want to know. However, that Devil’s Pot has nothing to do with me,” Xiao Si said through gritted teeth.

“Alright, so you were the one behind this. I thought it was me…” Wang Chan also understood what had happened and glared at Xiao Si angrily.

Zhou Wen pulled her behind him and looked at Xiao Si. “I don’t care if it has anything to do with you. Tell me the origins of this pot and what use does it have?”

“This pot is named Devil’s Pot in the South District. You’ll know once you ask around. It can seal certain special dimensional creatures.” As Xiao Si answered, his fingers moved in his sleeve.

“How can I control this pot?” Zhou Wen asked again.

“It’s very simple.” Xiao Si explained the usage of the Devil’s Pot.

“That child was your Life Soul, right? What’s his name? What’s his use?” Zhou Wen asked again.

He was very interested in Xiao Si’s Life Soul. For a Life Soul to have so many sinflames—even more than the sinflames on Xiao Si’s body—made no sense.

“Kuman Thong. It’s a relatively common Life Soul in Chiang Rai. As long as one cultivates the Kuman Thong Essence Energy Art, they will have a Kuman Thong Life Soul. However, their abilities will be slightly different,” Xiao Si said.

Zhou Wen’s eyes lit up when he heard that. He stared at Xiao Si and asked, “Does that mean that many people in Chiang Rai have Kuman Thong Life Souls?”

“It’s not just Chiang Rai. Many Epic experts in the nearby regions have Kuman Thong Life Souls,” Xiao Si answered readily.

“One last question. Why do you want to take Wang Chan to the Xiao family?” Zhou Wen stared at Xiao Si and asked.

“Of course, I wish to obtain the Wang family’s help to make our Xiao family…” Before Xiao Si could finish his sentence, Zhou Wen had already unsheathed his Bamboo Blade.

A saber beam flashed. Before Xiao Si and Wang Chan could see what was happening, the Bamboo Blade had already returned to its scabbard.

“You… You said you wouldn’t kill me…” Xiao Si’s expression changed drastically as he hurriedly covered his neck with his hand. However, the moment his hand touched his neck, a bloody mark appeared on his originally normal neck. Then, blood gushed out. He couldn’t stop the blood no matter how hard he tried.

“I said that I could let you live if I was satisfied with your answer. Now, I’m very unsatisfied with your answer, so I refuse to give you a way out,” Zhou Wen said matter-of-factly.

“You…” Xiao Si opened his mouth, but at that moment, his mouth was filled with blood. He couldn’t say a word. He fell to the ground and twitched a few times before he died.

Zhou Wen used the sheathed Bamboo Blade to pry open his palm and saw a strange plaque in his hand. It was black, but it looked like the bone of some creature. The plaque had a mysterious engraving, and the necklace connected to the plaque was made using many strange materials. He was unsure what it was.

“This is a Buddha plaque.” Wang Chan recognized what it was.

“What’s a Buddha plaque? One used to honor Buddha?” Zhou Wen really didn’t know what a Buddha plaque was.

“No, a Buddha plaque is a dimensional artifact created by some Epic experts in the South District using dimensional materials. Typically, it’s made from the bones of a dimensional creature before forcefully sealing a Companion Beast inside the Buddha plaque. This way, the Buddha plaque will have the power of a Companion Beast, but it doesn’t have a master. As long as a special method is used, anyone can use the power of the Companion Beast inside the Buddha plaque. This will allow some Mortal stage or even ordinary people who have never cultivated to borrow the power of a Companion Beast,” Wang Chan said.

“There’s actually such a magical technique. Why hasn’t the Federation promoted such a technique?” Zhou Wen was somewhat surprised.

It allowed ordinary people to use the power of high-level Companion Beasts. This technique was just extremely powerful.

“Companion Beasts sealed in the Buddha plaque can only use a portion of their strength. Furthermore, when used by ordinary people, there will be many taboos. A single mistake will result in a backlash. The average person wouldn’t choose such a method to control a Companion Beast. This is similar to the Kuman Thong Life Soul. The Kuman Thong Life Soul is also a Life Soul that allows quick formation. As long as the correct method is used, it’s very easy to condense a Kuman Thong Life Soul. However, the method of condensing the Kuman Thong is very cruel. Furthermore, like the Buddha plaque, it’s easy for it to negatively affect its owner. Therefore, other than a certain area in the South District, there are very few people who cultivate the Kuman Thong Life Soul. I never expected that this b*stard, Xiao Si, would cultivate the Kuman Thong Life Soul. Furthermore, it’s in the form of a child. Damn it.” Wang Chan kicked Xiao Si’s corpse hatefully.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 769 - Cherish the Opportunity

Chapter 769: Cherish the Opportunity

Zhou Wen picked up the Buddha plaque in Xiao Si’s hand with his sword. For Xiao Si to use the Buddha plaque against Zhou Wen despite having seen his strength, it was likely that the Buddha plaque had extraordinary strength, so Zhou Wen was rather careful.

After the dimensional storms, there were too many mysterious powers in the world. Zhou Wen wasn’t arrogant enough to believe that he was invincible just because he had some achievements.

If he was not careful, this tiny Buddha plaque might become his death warrant.

Zhou Wen carefully sized up the Buddha plaque and couldn’t see anything amiss. All he felt was that there was some invisible evil aura lingering on it.

However, this evil aura didn’t seem to have any effect.

This was because the Buddha plaque needed a special method to be used. Zhou Wen didn’t know how to use it, nor was he able to activate the Companion Beast in the Buddha plaque. After fiddling with it for a while and seeing that it was useless, he put it away.

He searched Xiao Si’s body again. Apart from a few Buddha plaques, there was nothing else of value.

Zhou Wen put away the Buddha plaques and summoned the Fire Furnace Queen to burn Xiao Si’s corpse to ashes.

“Let’s return.” Zhou Wen took Wang Chan back to the Wang family’s courtyard and went to see Grandma Wang. He recounted the entire process in detail, but he didn’t explain much.

Grandma Wang listened attentively without saying a word. After she finished listening, she asked Zhou Wen and Wang Chan a few questions.

“Little Zhou, you’ve done well. You’ve helped our Wang family greatly and saved Little Chan. I’ll just keep it short. I need to gather the core members of the Wang family to discuss our response. Although the Xiao family’s forces aren’t comparable to our Wang family and are far away in the South District, their Companion Beasts and various skills are somewhat special. We have to be wary of them. Also, don’t tell anyone about this matter. Just treat it as though it never happened. Leave everything to our Wang family,” Grandma Wang said to Zhou Wen after some thought.

“I killed him. If there’s anything you need me for, just tell me,” Zhou Wen said.

“Good child, since you call me Grandma, I won’t stand on ceremony with you. I’ll think of you when I need you. Go back with Little Chan now. Do what you need to do and pretend nothing has happened,” Grandma Wang said.

Zhou Wen and Wang Chan left the hall. Wang Chan looked at Zhou Wen in delight and said, “Zhou Wen, thank you. If it weren’t for you, I would have been fooled by that detestable fellow. Now, I can finally be at ease.”

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, “Your sister helped me a lot. In comparison, what I did was nothing. You don’t have to take it to heart.”

With that said, Zhou Wen turned around and returned to his room.

Since the Wang family already knew of the Xiao family’s intentions towards Wang Chan, they would naturally be wary in the future. Zhou Wen didn’t need to continue interfering.

As Wang Chan watched Zhou Wen enter the room, she held the Silver-Winged Yaksha Companion Egg in hand. She wanted to stop him, but when she opened her mouth, she closed it again.

“Humph, Sister is right. This Numbskull Wen is pretty nice, but he isn’t good with words.” Wang Chan put the Silver-Winged Yaksha Companion Egg back into her pocket.

She originally wanted to return it to Zhou Wen. After all, she had no way of incubating such a Mythical Companion Egg. It was useless even if she took it. Furthermore, she wasn’t someone who would take things from others.

If she really wanted a Mythical Companion Egg, it wouldn’t be difficult for her with her having an elder sister like Wang Lu around.

Despite that, Wang Chan changed her mind and didn’t return the Companion Egg to Zhou Wen. Instead, she returned to the Wang family with it.

…

Wang Lu already knew what had happened. After Wang Chan returned, she asked her in private, “Little Chan, are you alright?”

“I’m fine. Thankfully, Zhou Wen was there. Otherwise, I would have been fooled by that b*stard Xiao Si. Now, I finally know that my misfortune Life Providence might not necessarily bring misfortune to everyone. At the very least, Zhou Wen isn’t affected by my misfortune,” Wang Chan said.

Wang Lu smiled and said, “It’s good that you think that way. Your Life Providence is nothing much.”

“By the way, Sister, do you like that Numbskull Wen?” Wang Chan asked.

“How can that be? We are just classmates with a better relationship,” Wang Lu hurriedly said.

“I see. Then, sister, you have to cherish this opportunity,” Wang Chan said.

“What do you mean cherish the opportunity? No one wants such a boring man. It would be strange if he had a girlfriend,” Wang Lu said with a twitch of her lips.

“That might be the case. I think Numbskull Wen isn’t bad. If you don’t want him, I’ll be his girlfriend when I grow up.” With that said, Wang Chan carried the Companion Egg back to her room.

Wang Lu was taken aback. She hadn’t expected Wang Chan to say that.

…

After Zhou Wen returned to his room, he continued grinding the Ancient Sword Tomb. He was still thinking about the Shadow Containment Sword and Night Training Sword.

However, the Ancient Sword Tomb was just too huge. Most ancient swords were at the Mortal and Legendary stage. It wasn’t easy to find an Epic, much less a Mythical.

After grinding for a few hours, none of the ancient swords destroyed were at the Mythical stage.

On the other hand, the vine sword was still there. Zhou Wen had tried all sorts of methods to pull out the sword, but the outcome was the same. He couldn’t pull it out no matter what.

Zhou Wen didn’t take out the Buddha plaques to study them because he was afraid that there were special settings on them. It wouldn’t be good if the Xiao family traced the clues to him.

Placing them in the chaos space was equivalent to them being in another space. It severed all connections with the outside world. No matter how powerful the Xiao family was, it was impossible for them to find those Buddha plaques.

Zhou Wen planned on studying the Buddha plaques after leaving the Imperial Capital.

His only regret in coming to the Imperial Capital was that he couldn’t download the Great Wall instance dungeon. However, Zhou Wen already roughly knew that the Undying Battle Soul was a soul-type creature. It wasn’t that he couldn’t kill it, but he needed some special powers.

…

The anomaly in Forbidden City continued as lightning continued to fall from the heavens, turning Forbidden City into a city of lightning. However, the lightning was limited to the city, so it didn’t affect the Imperial Capital much.

Some people had already attempted to enter Forbidden City to explore the situation inside, but the outcome was terrible. Be it Companion Beasts or humans, people immediately lost contact with them upon their entry into Forbidden City. Up to now, no one had survived.

What exactly is the woman inside that log? What’s her relationship with the antelope? Why would it let me carry her into Forbidden City? Zhou Wen thought for a long time but failed to come up with an answer.

He asked the antelope, but it kept looking at him with a strange expression. He couldn’t tell what it meant. It looked a little like pity, regret, contempt, and a hint of gloating. In short, Zhou Wen’s hair stood on end every time he looked at it, but the antelope didn’t give him an answer.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 770 - In front of the Earth Temple

Chapter 770: In front of the Earth Temple

In the next few days, Zhou Wen went to some dimensional zones in the Imperial Capital, but he didn’t gain anything. He didn’t discover the tiny palm symbols.

The Wang family had already settled the matter regarding the Xiao family. Although they had temporarily appeased the Xiao family, it was ultimately a hidden danger.

The Xiao family’s interest in Wang Chan probably wouldn’t stop because of Xiao Si’s death. The Wang family also wanted to figure out the cause of this matter. If possible, they even wanted to directly eliminate the Xiao family and eliminate this future trouble.

However, the Xiao family wasn’t weak. Furthermore, they were far away in the South District. The Wang family’s influence couldn’t reach that far yet.

Only the Dugu family, the ruler of the South District, could easily destroy a local wealthy family like the Xiao family.

The Wang family could only placate the Xiao family before slowly plotting in secret to figure out why they wanted Wang Chan.

The matters in the Imperial Capital had basically come to an end. Zhou Wen planned on returning to Luoyang. Before he left, Grandma Wang sent him off with Wang Lu and Wang Chan. She even urged him to visit her often in the future.

…

Zhou Wen left the Imperial Capital and arrived at an abandoned village. He saw An Sheng sitting on a tree root waiting for him.

“Young Master Wen, how’s Old Master Xia?” An Sheng had been here for so long. Although he hadn’t entered the Imperial Capital himself, he knew the situation inside the Imperial Capital like the back of his hand. He had already contacted Zhou Wen, but for the sake of safety, he didn’t ask for certain information.

“He won’t appear again in the future.” Zhou Wen recounted what had happened to Xia Jiuhuang, leaving An Sheng shocked.

“Old Master Xia is Xia Jiuhuang. Furthermore, his Invincible Connate Divine Art remains intact. In that case, the Xia family isn’t actually his bloodline?” An Sheng immediately had the same thought as Zhou Wen.

“Who knows? In theory, if the Invincible Connate Divine Art remains intact, it’s unlikely that Xia Jiuhuang has any descendants. However, his Invincible Connate Divine Art has already fused with the Great Emperor Sutra into the Connate Great Emperor Sutra. Perhaps he can have descendants. Now that he’s dead, I’m afraid no one will ever know this secret,” Zhou Wen said.

“How’s Forbidden City now?” An Sheng asked another important question.

“I don’t know either. You have to ask it.” Zhou Wen looked at the listless antelope.

An Sheng clearly knew that it was impossible for him to obtain an answer from the antelope, so he changed the topic. “Li Xuan went to the South District.”

“Why did he suddenly go to the South District?” Zhou Wen was taken aback. Li Xuan had not informed him about this.

“Did Li Mobai get him to go?” Zhou Wen suddenly thought of something as his expression changed drastically.

“No, he went with Worm Dugu. Worm Dugu wanted to take him in as a disciple, but Li Xuan didn’t agree. In order to move Li Xuan, Worm Dugu told him some secrets, so Li Xuan wanted to try his luck in the South District. He was afraid that you would be anxious, so he didn’t let me tell you.” An Sheng recounted the entire matter.

Zhou Wen was really worried. Li Xuan might look carefree on the surface, but in fact, he was someone who was easily swayed by emotions. This was Li Xuan’s weakness and his strength. Zhou Wen was really afraid that something would happen to him in the South District.

There were many strange things in the South District. Gu worms, Kuman Thong, black magic, etc. Even if Li Xuan had an indestructible body, it wasn’t absolutely safe in such a place. Furthermore, Li Xuan hadn’t reached the indestructible realm.

It was too late to say anything now. Zhou Wen only hoped that Li Xuan would return safely.

“There’s a rather famous Earth temple ahead. Do you want to take a look?” An Sheng asked Zhou Wen when they arrived at a small town.

“Earth Temple? No harm visiting.” Zhou Wen still remembered that he had obtained a treasure map when he went to the Earth Temple. However, he didn’t manage to dig up any treasure. A baby-like dimensional creature had given him a metal walnut, and inside the metal walnut was Tai Sui.

All the Earth temples in the East District had similar functions. If a native were to pay respects to the Earth Lord, they might obtain a treasure map.

However, if one wasn’t native, Earth Lord would, unfortunately, ignore them even if they cracked their head kowtowing.

An Sheng took Zhou Wen to the nearby Earth temple. The Earth temple here was indeed much bigger than the one Zhou Wen had previously visited. Furthermore, the main god of this temple was land. It didn’t share temples and incense offerings with other gods.

“Treasure maps for sale. They are treasure maps obtained by authentic locals. Just one Legendary Companion Egg.”

“Newly produced treasure maps for only two Legendary Strength Crystals. They just need to be above a 6.”

“An ancestral treasure map…”

It was very lively in front of the Earth temple as though it was a market. Many stalls were selling treasure maps and some were selling crystals and Companion Eggs.

“Why aren’t these locals digging for treasures themselves?” Zhou Wen found it odd.

An Sheng said with a smile, “Do you really believe that these people are selling treasure maps? It’s been decades since the dimensional storms. The locals have long finished kowtowing. Only newborn infants have the right to pray to Earth Lord to get a treasure map. How many babies are born every year?”

Zhou Wen immediately understood that these people who sold treasure maps were similar to those who sold antiques and Buddha statues at a temple’s entrance. Most people knew that they were fake, but they still held onto the hope that they could be lucky.

“Unfortunately, we aren’t locals. It’s useless even if we kowtow. Otherwise, it wouldn’t be bad to get a treasure map to try our luck,” An Sheng said.

“That might not be the case. Although we aren’t locals, it’s very likely that Earth Lord will give us a treasure map if he appreciates our good character,” Zhou Wen said with a smile.

“Lad, you sure are optimistic. Instead of having such unrealistic dreams, why don’t you buy two treasure maps from me to try your luck?” an old man selling treasure maps said with a smile.

“Buying a treasure map from you? We might as well kowtow to Earth Lord.” Zhou Wen shook his head and walked towards the Earth temple.

“Lad, take a look again. Perhaps my treasure map is really more useful than Earth Lord’s?” The elder didn’t give up as he held Zhou Wen back.

Zhou Wen’s expression changed slightly as he looked at the elder.

His reaction was extremely fast. Even a Mythical creature wouldn’t be able to touch Zhou Wen, much less an elder.

The elder’s seemingly casual tug had grabbed his arm, preventing Zhou Wen from reacting. This was definitely abnormal.

However, Zhou Wen didn’t sense anything special about the elder. His ability to sense danger, which he had honed over time, didn’t work.

The more Zhou Wen looked at the elder, the more he felt as though he had seen him somewhere before. Although his looks were different, his eyes were very familiar.

These eyes… These eyes… Jing Daoxian… There’s no mistake… These are Jing Daoxian’s eyes… Zhou Wen nearly cried out.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 771 - Meeting Jing Daoxian Again

Chapter 771: Meeting Jing Daoxian Again

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen seemed to have his hair stand on end as he tried to gather his strength to escape the old man's grasp. An Sheng also realized that something was amiss as he stared intently at the old man, prepared to attack at any moment.

To Zhou Wen's surprise, the elder released his hand and picked up a treasure map in the shape of a wooden plaque. He handed it to Zhou Wen and said with a smile, "Lad, this treasure map is on the house. Dig it up and take a look. If you can dig up a treasure, it won't be too late to buy treasure maps from me."

Zhou Wen stared at the old man and sized him up, but apart from his eyes, there was nothing about the old man that resembled Jing Daoxian. He couldn't even sense the Essence Energy fluctuations and exuberant vitality that a cultivator should have. If the old man hadn't grabbed him, Zhou Wen would have imagined that he was an ordinary person.

"There's no need to stand on ceremony with an old man like me. Dig it up. Who knows, you might be able to dig up an immortal's treasure? However, not everyone can take this immortal's treasure. Without the Lost Immortal art, I'm afraid you won't be able to return." The old man stuffed the treasure map into Zhou Wen's hand.

When Zhou Wen heard that, he felt that the old man in front of him was highly likely Jing Daoxian. Otherwise, why would he say the word "Lost Immortal?"

“Young Master Wen?” An Sheng walked to Zhou Wen’s side, but his eyes were still warily staring at the old man squatting behind the stall.

Zhou Wen originally didn’t want to take the treasure map, but he failed to avoid it. The treasure map was stuffed into his hand as he clenched it. Zhou Wen’s Essence Energy was ready to erupt at any moment.

The old man slowly packed his things and put everything on the stall into a bag. Then, he got up and left. As he walked, he shook his head and sighed. “It’s getting harder and harder to survive in this world.”

“Young Master Wen, do you know that old man?” An Sheng couldn’t help but ask when he saw that Zhou Wen was still staring at the old man’s back despite him having walked half a street.

“I suspect that he’s Jing Daoxian,” Zhou Wen whispered.

An Sheng’s body trembled when he heard that. He said in disbelief, “You know Jing Daoxian?”

“I’ve met him once. Although he looked different back then, I think it should be him.” Zhou Wen was somewhat hesitant, unsure if he should chase after him.

Zhou Wen really wanted to figure out the Lost Immortal Sutra, but the person in front of him was the most legendary devil in the Federation’s history.

Many devils had appeared in the early stages of the Federation and all sorts of devils had appeared later, such as Ják and company. Although they might have killed more people than Jing Daoxian, none of them were as legendary as Jing Daoxian.

Zhou Wen knew very well how terrifying Jing Daoxian was. Lord Alcohol and Xia Jiuhuang were shrewd old men, but they had been toyed by Jing Daoxian.

Even though Zhou Wen had impressive achievements, he didn’t dare underestimate such a person.

Previously, Zhou Wen had secretly investigated Jing Daoxian, but the information he obtained was very limited. All he knew was that Jing Daoxian had been severely injured in a dimensional zone and was nearly crippled. Therefore, the bureau had taken the opportunity to pursue him.

Even so, the Special Inspector Bureau’s pursuit failed. They failed to capture the crippled Jing Daoxian.

Zhou Wen had encountered Jing Daoxian during that period of time and obtained the Lost Immortal Sutra.

Gritting his teeth, Zhou Wen got up and chased after him. Although Jing Daoxian was terrifying, avoiding him wasn’t an option. Some things could only be answered by Jing Daoxian.

An Sheng chased after Zhou Wen, but when they took the turn which the old man had taken, they realized that there was no sign of the old man. It was as though he had vanished into thin air.

Zhou Wen kept using Truth Listener to monitor the old man, but he failed to discover how he had vanished. It was as though he had teleported.

After searching his surroundings and not finding any traces of the old man, Zhou Wen’s heart stirred as he looked at the treasure map in his hand. He saw that the treasure map was a wooden plaque. In front of the wooden plaque was a simple map, and behind it was a time. It was obvious that it had just been written.

“From the looks of it, it might really be Jing Daoxian. Young Master Wen, are you going?” An Sheng asked as he looked at the time on the treasure map.

“I have some questions that only Jing Daoxian can answer.” Zhou Wen handed the treasure map to An Sheng. “Help me take a look. Where is the location marked on this map?”

“It’s in front of the Earth temple. Converting the time to local common time, it should be 3:30 in the morning,” An Sheng said after looking at it for a while.

“Alright, let’s wait until night,” Zhou Wen said.

“Young Master Wen, find a place to rest first. I’ll make some preparations,” An Sheng said.

Zhou Wen wasn’t in the mood to visit the Earth temple to pay his respects to Earth Lord. He found an inn in town and stayed there, waiting for night to arrive.

An Sheng didn’t return until three in the morning. When he returned, he said to Zhou Wen, “There was too little time. I tried my best to make some preparations. However, if the other party really is Jing Daoxian, my preparations might not be of much use. Young Master, you have to be careful.”

Zhou Wen nodded and didn’t say a word.

Seeing that it was about time, Zhou Wen headed to the Earth temple with An Sheng.

The front of the Earth temple was naturally not as lively as in the day. There was no one around, but at the same spot, the elder had his stall set up.

“The surveillance Companion Beasts I set up didn’t work. I didn’t even notice when he entered the Earth temple,” An Sheng whispered to Zhou Wen.

“It’s fine.” Zhou Wen shook his head slightly before walking towards the elder.

As he walked towards the elder, Zhou Wen also activated the Slaughterer Life Soul. At the same time, he prepared to summon his Companion Beasts. As long as there was anything amiss, he would immediately attack with all his might.

“You came after all,” the elder said with a smile.

“Since you came looking for me, what’s the point of hiding?” Zhou Wen said as he walked towards the elder.

The elder didn’t comment as though he was admiring a treasure. He sized up Zhou Wen and said, “I originally thought that you would be dead. Even if you didn’t die, you should be a lunatic now. However, not only are you not dead or crazy, you seem to be living very well.”

“Because of the Lost Immortal Sutra?” Zhou Wen asked. This was the problem he wanted to figure out. He didn’t know the origins of the Lost Immortal Sutra.

Now, he was basically certain that the elder in front of him was Jing Daoxian.

“That’s right.” Jing Daoxian nodded and said, “I found you pleasing to the eye back then. I originally wanted to give you the Skyfiend Treatise that I had researched for fun, but to my surprise, you actually dared reject me. No one in this world can reject me. Even if they do, they will have to pay a price. Therefore, I gave you the Lost Immortal Sutra. In fact, the Lost Immortal Sutra had already changed owners several times before you. Every owner either died or went mad. Even I was tortured by it. If not for this Sutra, I wouldn’t have suffered heavy losses in the dimensional zone.”

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 772 - Your Life Belongs to Me

Chapter 772: Your Life Belongs to Me

Zhou Wen had no intention of interrupting Jing Daoxian as he continued listening.

“Back then, I was heavily injured and most of my Companion Beasts had died. I was also affected by the Lost Immortal Sutra’s powers. If this continued, I might have really been driven mad by the Lost Immortal Sutra. I happened to encounter you back then and you left me in a bad mood. Therefore, I used a method to transfer the Lost Immortal Sutra to you. It could eliminate you and reduce my burden. It was killing two birds with one stone.”

With that said, Jing Daoxian stared at Zhou Wen and asked, “I never expected you to master the Lost Immortal Sutra. There have been many owners of the Lost Immortal Sutra, and although they aren’t all peerless elites, they are all outstanding people with their own amazing traits. However, you managed to master the Lost Immortal Sutra despite so many people not being able to. I really want to know how you are better than them and how you are better than me.”

If an ordinary seventeen-year-old student heard Jing Daoxian’s words, they would definitely be delighted.

Even a devil like Jing Daoxian admitted that he was inferior to him. How glorious was that?

Unfortunately, Zhou Wen didn’t think so. He had witnessed Lord Alcohol’s death and knew that the reason Xia Jiuhuang was so crazy was because of Jing Daoxian.

Zhou Wen suspected that Jing Daoxian had given him the Lost Immortal Sutra for the same reason.

“I don’t think there’s anything special about the Lost Immortal Sutra. I mastered it from simply cultivating it,” Zhou Wen answered ambiguously.

This answer clearly wasn’t enough to satisfy Jing Daoxian. He wasn’t in a rush as he said slowly, “Why don’t we make a deal? Answer one question and I’ll answer one. What do you think?”

“I have no questions for you,” Zhou Wen said.

“Don’t you want to know why the world has become like this? What kind of place is another dimension? How’s your teacher, Wang Mingyuan? Where did the Lost Immortal Sutra come from?” Jing Daoxian offered a few questions that Zhou Wen wanted to know.

“I’ll naturally know the answer to these questions after defeating you.” Zhou Wen suddenly thought of something.

Regardless of whether the Lost Immortal Sutra had been deliberately given to him by Jing Daoxian, he could at least confirm one thing—Jing Daoxian wanted to know the process or results of his cultivation.

Just like Lord Alcohol and Xia Jiuhuang, Jing Daoxian might have treated him as an experimental subject.

Since he was an experimental subject, regardless of whether the experiment succeeded or failed, Jing Daoxian probably wouldn’t want him dead before the experiment ended.

Since Jing Daoxian didn’t wish for him to die, why should he have so many qualms? Zhou Wen also wanted to know how much strength the legendary devil still had.

Jing Daoxian seemed to see through Zhou Wen’s thoughts as he said indifferently, “Do you think you can be presumptuous in front of me just because I don’t want to kill you?”

“That’s what I think.” Zhou Wen didn’t hide his thoughts.

“Haha, you are right. I really don’t wish to kill you now because you have shown me some interesting possibilities. Compared to killing you, I’m more willing to see the answer.” Unexpectedly, Jing Daoxian had admitted that he wouldn’t kill Zhou Wen.

However, Jing Daoxian changed the topic and said coldly, “Although I won’t kill you, I can lock you up and slowly study you. It’s best you consider carefully before taking action.”

“I’ve thought it through. Before that, I’ll slice you up,” Zhou Wen said as he drew his saber and slashed.

Transcendent Flying Immortal was unbelievably fast, but this wasn’t Zhou Wen’s trump card. At the same time he attacked, the Great Might Vajra Bull and Behemoth appeared beside him. One used the Soul Suppression Bell, while the other used Absolute Strength.

And this was still Zhou Wen’s form of restrainment. The true trump card was in his pupils. The Torch Dragon’s eye mirror lit up as it prepared to activate the Bright Torch Vision World.

“We will meet again. Remember, your life belongs to me.” Jing Daoxian looked at Zhou Wen with a strange look in his eyes as his figure suddenly burrowed underground. Even the things on the ground burrowed underground with him and instantly vanished.

Earth Escape! Zhou Wen frowned slightly as his saber beam slashed the ground, leaving a deep ravine. However, he didn’t see any signs of Jing Daoxian.

Pushing Truth Listener to its limits, he found no sign of Jing Daoxian.

“Young Master Wen, perhaps I can track him. During the day, I’ve already scattered some water mixed with a special scent on the ground. The water has evaporated, but the scent remains in the ground. Jing Daoxian has already been stained with this scent. I can try and see if I can track him,” An Sheng said.

“Then quickly give it a try.” Zhou Wen was overjoyed.

He suspected that Jing Daoxian’s injuries hadn’t fully healed. Perhaps now was a chance.

An Sheng summoned a strange little beast. It looked like a rat, but it was much fatter than a rat. It was as fat as a ball and had no eyes. However, there were many fleshy antennae on its nose.

“Ordinary creatures can’t smell the scent. Only Companion Beasts with an extremely developed sense of smell can detect it.” As An Sheng spoke, he got the Companion Beast to leave the Earth temple and search the nearby area, hoping to find the scent Jing Daoxian had left behind.

However, after searching the entire town and its vicinity, he failed to find anything. It was unknown if Jing Daoxian’s Earth Escape was too powerful, allowing him to escape more than fifty kilometers away, or if he hadn’t touched the lingering scent in the ground.

“As expected of the number one devil in the Federation. It’s no wonder he can still be carefree despite being pursued by the Federation for so long. I’ve made so many preparations ahead of time, but none of them worked. Young Master Wen, you have to be especially careful now that you are targeted by such a person,” An Sheng said with a heavy expression.

Zhou Wen nodded. “I’ll be careful.”

Not daring to stay in the town any longer, Zhou Wen and An Sheng headed straight for Luoyang. They didn’t stop at all.

However, after that incident, Jing Daoxian didn’t appear again. The journey went very smoothly.

After returning to Luoyang, An Sheng’s tense nerves relaxed a little. “Young Master Wen, it’s best you don’t return to school. I’ll arrange a residence for you. It can block any entry via Earth Escape.”

Zhou Wen shook his head and said, “It’s impossible for me to hide forever. Besides, Jing Daoxian might not be able to touch me.”

After rejecting An Sheng’s kind intentions, Zhou Wen returned to school. The antelope and chick returned to the building they were used to living in, appearing very comfortable.

With the antelope and chick watching over him, it wouldn’t be easy for Jing Daoxian to secretly take action.

There were no traces of Jing Daoxian three days after his return to campus. Instead, Li Mobai came looking for him again, hoping that Zhou Wen could make a trip to the South District with him to attempt contracting a Guardian.

“Are you sure that the Guardian is still there?” Zhou Wen asked Li Mobai.

This was because he had always suspected that the Guardian Li Mobai mentioned was Xia Liuchuan’s black jade Guardian.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 773 - Flower River

Chapter 773: Flower River

“Why do you ask?” Li Mobai was an intelligent person. Upon hearing Zhou Wen’s question, he immediately had some ominous thoughts.

“I heard that Dugu Ge, Zhang Chunqiu, and company discovered a Guardian cocoon somewhere in the South District. Furthermore, they have successfully contracted it,” Zhou Wen said half-truthfully.

Li Mobai heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that. “I’m aware of what you just mentioned. The two aren’t in the same place. Up to now, no one has entered the place I discovered. It’s surrounded by extremely dangerous dimensional zones. The most famous dimensional zone is called the Valley of No Return. Even the Dugu family doesn’t dare enter it. Back then, I only managed to see the cocoon of the Guardian by chance. The chances of others seeing it are extremely low.”

To be honest, Zhou Wen was somewhat tempted. There were too few Guardians, and the two Guardians he could come into contact with were just too powerful. There was not much he could do to them.

If there was time for Zhou Wen to slowly develop, it was only a matter of time before he killed them. However, now that Jing Daoxian had come knocking on his door, Zhou Wen felt the pressure.

Just as Xia Jiuhuang had said, if one didn’t enter the Mythical stage, they were ultimately mortal. As their foundation was too weak, they could easily be considered a weakness when facing a Mythical opponent. It was useless even if they had Mythical Companion Beasts.

“According to the agreement, if you can’t contract a Guardian, the Guardian will belong to me, right?” Zhou Wen said to Li Mobai.

“Of course. Happy cooperation.” Li Mobai smiled and extended his hand.

Zhou Wen extended his hand and shook Li Mobai’s hand, having reached an agreement. It was useless to write such an agreement in black and white, so there was no need to sign a contract.

“When can you set off?” Li Mobai asked Zhou Wen.

“Anytime,” Zhou Wen answered.

“Pack up your things. We’ll set off tonight. After we reach the South District, we need to make a trip to Mong Hsat and find a friend surnamed Gu for help. With him leading the way, we can safely reach the Valley of No Return,” Li Mobai said.

“Is there any trouble we can’t resolve on the way?” Zhou Wen asked with a frown.

Li Mobai said, “The South District is very different from the other districts. The other districts mostly respect the big and strong. However, in the South District, there are many miniature and evil dimensional creatures. There are even some places where the small are king. The smaller a dimensional creature is, the greater the destructive power it can cause. Just like the Fairy Undying Gu on the rankings.

It’s only the size of an ant, but its destructive power isn’t weaker than any dimensional creature on the rankings. In the South District, there are many evil and microscopic dimensional creatures. If one isn’t familiar with the local situation, they might not even know how they died. Although I know a little about it, I’m ultimately not a local. It’s much safer having a local guide.”

“Alright.” Zhou Wen nodded and asked, “Do you know that Li Xuan went to the South District?”

“It doesn’t matter where he goes.” Li Mobai left after saying that.

Zhou Wen went back to make preparations and informed his friends that he was heading to the South District.

In the evening, Zhou Wen set off with Li Mobai for Mong Hsat.

Li Mobai brought two others with him. One of them was Butterfly whom Zhou Wen had seen before. The other was a mute. His name was Mute.

The two of them were responsible for Li Mobai’s food and lodging along the way as though they were servants.

Zhou Wen was still wary of Li Mobai. He had his guard up along the way, but nothing happened.

As flights were no longer possible to Mong Hsat, it wasn’t easy to proceed. After the dimensional storms, the journey had become even more difficult.

Thankfully, Mute, who was very familiar with the jungle path, led the way. Along the way, they climbed mountains and crossed ridges. It was all thanks to him scouting ahead that they were able to avoid most dangers.

Occasionally, they would encounter break-out creatures which were easily dispatched.

Mong Hsat was similar to a lone island on land these days. Too few people could reach this place. Only the nearby natives and people like the Gu family who wanted to develop themselves in Mong Hsat would continue staying here.

On the streets, there were many men and women wearing monk robes. The men’s robes were purple-red, while the women’s were pink.

The locals originally believed in Buddhism. After the dimensional storms, faith became even more important. Be it the indigenous or foreign families, as long as they were people who had settled down in Mong Hsat, they would believe in Buddhism. Otherwise, it would be difficult for them to integrate into the local society.

The friend Li Mobai was looking for was called Gu Shanshui. Although he wasn’t a monk, he was a Buddhist. However, Zhou Wen saw that he was wearing many chains. They didn’t look like something from Mong Hsat. Instead, they looked like the Buddha plaques he had obtained from Xiao Si.

Apart from the Buddha plaques, there were many tattoos on Gu Shanshui’s body. The tattoos were clearly not formed by Companion Beasts, but man-made.

“Li, my friend, I’m afraid there’s no other way to go to the Valley of No Return,” said Gu Shanshui.

“Master Gu, what happened?” Li Mobai knew that something must have happened. Otherwise, with Gu Shanshui’s personality, as long as he agreed, no matter how dangerous the journey to the Valley of No Return was, he would still make the trip.

“There’s only one way to go to the Valley of No Return—Flower River. However, there’s a large-scale break-out there. There have already been many people who wished to travel between Mong Hsat and Chiang Rai using the Flower River. After entering the Flower River, they were not seen again. There’s no lack of Epic experts among them.” Gu Shanshui explained the situation in detail.

The Flower River wasn’t actually a real river. Instead, after the dimensional storms, a type of flower appeared in a large area between Chiang Rai and Mong Hsat. The flower grew in large numbers, forming an endless river, so it was called Flower River by the locals.

Due to the dimensional zones, the transportation between Mong Hsat and Chiang Rai was basically cut off. Only by walking through the Flower River could one avoid all the dimensional zones.

However, in the past half a month, there had been an anomaly in Flower River. Many people who entered the Flower River vanished. No one dared to enter Flower River again.

Previously, an Epic expert from the Gu family had brought people into the Flower River, but there was no news of them. The people sent by the Gu family to investigate had gone missing, but they failed to find anything.

“Do we have to take the Flower River to go to the Valley of No Return?” Li Mobai asked after some thought.

“There’s a stretch that requires us to use the Flower River. We have to travel at least 25 kilometers in the Flower River,” said Gu Shanshui.

If you find any errors (broken links, non-standard content, etc..), Please let us know < report chapter > so we can fix it as soon as possible.

Chapter 774 - Jellyfish Fungus

Chapter 774: Jellyfish Fungus

Translator: CKtalon

Zhou Wen and Li Mobai looked at each other. If they wanted to go to the Valley of No Return, they had to traverse the Flower River. However, before figuring out the Flower River's situation, the chances of dying if they entered rashly were too high.

"Master Gu, can you take us to the Flower River's banks to take a look?" Li Mobai asked.

"No problem, but please forgive me. I can't take you into the Flower River." Gu Shanshui made himself clear. Even if they reached the Flower River, he definitely wouldn't enter.

Li Mobai agreed to only get him to take them to the Flower River's banks. He wanted to have a look at the Flower River first.

Zhou Wen also wanted to take a look at the Flower River's situation. It hadn't been easy for him to make this trip, so he wasn't willing to return empty-handed.

Gu Shanshui led them to the Flower River. Along the way, they walked through forest trails. There were no roads at all. Gu Shanshui led two young adults from the Gu family ahead to open up a path while Zhou Wen and Li Mobai followed behind.

Zhou Wen had been using Truth Listener's ability to monitor everything nearby. Furthermore, he made Tai Sui use its mimicking ability to transform into the chick.

After Tai Sui transformed, it looked identical to the chick, but it was white. It stood on Zhou Wen’s shoulder just like the chick.

Zhou Wen was afraid that the antelope would cause trouble again if it came out. Therefore, he didn’t bring it out this time. He had already contacted An Sheng to get someone to deliver food to it to prevent it from causing trouble in school.

According to Worm Dugu, the chick should have the phoenix bloodline. It had a very good restraining effect on Gu worms. Tai Sui also had a strong restraining effect on microscopic dimensional creatures. This was why Zhou Wen had dared to come to the South District.

“Put on your gas masks.” Gu Shanshui stopped and handed them gas masks.

Zhou Wen and company put on the gas masks. Gu Shanshui looked at the two birds on Zhou Wen’s shoulder and said, “Put away your Companion Beasts.”

Zhou Wen placed them in his backpack instead of unsummoning them. Firstly, the chick wasn’t a Companion Beast which he could unsummon. Secondly, Tai Sui needed to be outside to ensure that Zhou Wen wouldn’t be attacked by microscopic Companion Beasts, so it naturally couldn’t be unsummoned.

Gu Shanshui naturally saw this scene, but he didn’t say a word. Instead, the two youths from the Gu family curled their lips as though they viewed Zhou Wen’s actions in contempt, but they didn’t say a word either.

Everyone continued walking forward. Zhou Wen soon realized why Gu Shanshui wanted them to wear gas masks.

There were many fungi here, and there were so many floating spores everywhere that it appeared like fog.

These bacteria were originally creatures from Earth. They had mutated due to the dimensional storms. Although they hadn’t reached the level of dimensional creatures, the spores they emitted would cause great damage to the human body if they entered the respiratory tract. The main problem was that it was difficult to treat them when they were inside the body.

Tai Sui naturally wasn’t afraid of these spores. It didn’t have much appetite for them either. Perhaps the energy of these spores was so low that they didn’t catch Tai Sui’s eye.

The chick wasn’t afraid of these spores either. Any foreign microscopic organism that entered its body would be refined by the phoenix flames in its body. Otherwise, the phoenix wouldn’t be the nemesis of Gu.

Zhou Wen got the two of them to stay in his backpack and not come out. As the group walked through the forest, their bodies were quickly covered in a layer of dust. They were actually a large number of spores.

Various fungi could be seen everywhere on the ground and withered trees. Many of the trees here had already withered and turned into a paradise for fungi growth.

Thankfully, the spores here were somewhat different from the parasitic spores in Dragon Gate Grotto. The parasitic spores were independent dimensional creatures, and these spores were only a part of a parent body.

Even so, if an unprepared person entered this area and inhaled large amounts of spores, their lungs and respiratory system would be doomed.

Suddenly, Zhou Wen realized that there was a corpse on the ground in front of him. From the looks of it, it wasn’t a local. His corpse had already rotted and there was a strange fungi creature growing on it.

Growing on the corpse was something that looked like an egg-sized jellyfish. It was translucent and colorless. Although the mushroom looked beautiful, it made one’s hair stand on end.

“Don’t move. Gu Lou, go take a look,” Gu Shanshui said to one of the young men.

The young man responded and summoned a palm-sized black scorpion Companion Beast. He made it slowly approach the corpse and crawl to the jellyfish-like mushroom.

Gu Lou got Gu Shanshui’s affirmative node before ordering the black scorpion to stab the jellyfish-like mushroom with its tail.

Bam!

After the mushroom was pricked, it exploded like a ball filled with water. However, what exploded wasn’t water, but countless transparent spores.

“Retreat!” Gu Shanshui grabbed Gu Lou and another young man named Gu He and threw them behind him. He took a step forward and spat out flames at the spores.

When the flames encountered the spores, they expanded as though they had encountered gasoline. Most of the spores were immediately destroyed, but a few spores still spread out.

Gu Lou and Gu He also used fire-elemental Companion Beasts to burn the spores that escaped their net.

However, the black scorpion Companion Beast had already been invaded by spores. It ignored Gu Lou's orders and crawled crazily towards the other jellyfish mushrooms, hoping to prick them.

